Great Trading Future Here Says Grosvenor-Laing Speaker

Speaking to Langley Board of Trade last Tuesday, William Bell, Director of Public Relations for Grosvenor-Laing Ltd., told members he thought the company's 4,000 acre industrial area would grow independently of trade with eastern provinces.

This we consider to be a better area for the future, he said, than Toronto or Montreal, and we think trade will develop rapidly with Japan and maybe Communist China.

Our property may be extended over the years, he stated, but at present we have purchased all our key locations.

We wish to evolve a planned community, he went on, with residential areas, apartment blocks, shopping centre and light industry. We have problems at the moment with water and access roads, and we don't expect construction work to begin for five years.

In answer to numerous questions Bill said he did not think that trade in existing centres would suffer but would rather tend to join together as one large entity. He thought that eventually there might be double tracking and spur lines on the existing railway to deal with excessive freight.

The estate would develop independently of Annacis Island, he said, and would attract a different kind of industry.

When asked whether there was a possibility of the estate seceding from the Municipality as had Langley City, he said it would never be considered. We wish to work together with the City and the District, he said. "We can help them and they can help us."

Aldergrove Man Has Sweepstake Ticket - Kerstin

he still could not believe his good fortune. If the horse just runs in the race he will receive over six hundred and forty pounds sterling. If it places the reward will be almost fantastic.

L/S Lesiuk is married to an Aldergrove girl whose name he used in his nom-de-plume, "June Bug." She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Franklin, Howes Road. Her mother is well known as the former teacher at Patricia School.

This is only the second sweepstake ticket he has ever bought, he says. The rest of the boys at H.M.C.S. Aldergrove appeared to be more excited than the man who holds the ticket.

LANGLEY MAN GETS DOWN TO BED-ROCK

Early Friday morning, at 1 o'clock to be precise, a Langley man was sleeping when he was run over by a taxi.

The taxi came from Richmond, the night was foggy and the man was sleeping in the middle of Glover Road.

An ambulance took him to Langley Memorial Hospital, where, in spite of a declaration from the outraged man that he had a broken leg, it was found he only had bruises on the lower part of his anatomy.

The man claimed he was dragged some distance by the taxi and was highly indignant, but the police weren't very amused and questioned the suitability of a public highway as a sleeping place, particularly in a fog.

AROUND TOWN

By Don Anson

At fire practice last Thursday the hose got a bit out of hand. Both Don Eve and Larry McIntosh didn't need a bath that night.

A recent article on rural routes by postmaster George McDonald which appeared in this paper may be reprinted in the official Post Office magazine.

I've got reason to suspect that Ash Shatford doesn't think much of women drivers.

Improving Aldergrove's appearance is the new sign made by Charles Haid, outside the 5c to $1 Store.

Just to clear up any possible misconception, I wish to detach myself completely from the anti-monarchy views of our recent student editor. I am a dyed-in-the-wool loyalist and supporter of our Royal Family—verb sap.

Last Monday or possibly Tuesday I took $2.50 from someone for subscription dues. And the answer is—yes, you've got it—I've forgotten whom it was so if you read this please phone me. Think is was at Aldergrove Chamber meeting, or Langley Board of Trade meeting.

The Bells of Klondyke Kraft Gift and Rock Shop are shortly leaving Aldergrove to start a new venture near the Yukon border, in Fort Nelson area. They will take over a guest lodge, with store and gas station.

Karen Ohman, recent runaway, is a different person now. She has achieved her one ambition and now owns a pony.

Mrs. Betty Cole of North Le-Feuvre Road has won for herself a curling trophy, at the Cloverdale Curling Club, A Division, Bonspiel. This is her first year at the game. Who says this is a young person's sport?

We seem to get rid of a number of dogs through this column. Latest is a young golden cocker spaniel which has parked itself with the Fairholms. They are giving it house space until claimed and if no owner wants it, it will go to the first offer of a good home.

The second "Alderama" to be presented by the Aldergrove High School will take place in the High School gymnasium this Saturday at 8 p. m.

It will include a play, dances, and choral numbers. There will be a matinee for the High School students at 1 p. m. on Friday, March 25. Old age pensioners are invited to attend this matinee free of charge.

H.M.C.S. Aldergrove seems a lucky ship this week. Four of her complement, Ralph Oggleby, Stan Hicks, Jack McGulley and Al McGarty, won a curling trophy at the Abbotsford Curling Club last week. They were curling in the Abbotsford Mixed League and the trophy was donated by Hamm's Esso Service of Abbotsford.

The aim of education is, I think to locate, bring out, and develop the talents which exist in every man, woman and child, so that each may use them to the greatest advantage and for the good of the community in which he lives.—Provost J. M. Playfair, Elle.

33 VISIT VICTORIA

GAGLARDI TELLS DELEGATION 'WE'LL RECONSIDER CROSSINGS'

P. A. Gaglardi, Minister of Highways, in his final word to Thursday's 33 strong delegation from Langley regarding grade separations was "The Department will give your request it's utmost consideration."

The delegation, whose journey was postponed from the previous Thursday, was late in arriving at Victoria due to fog at the airport, and the meeting with the Minister had to be put off till 2:30 p. m.

Led by Reeve D. W. Poppy, the delegation consisted of representatives from various organizations requesting grade separations each mile on the north-south roads in the municipality where they met the new Trans Canada freeway.

After the Council brief had been read to Gaglardi and his engineers the Minister stated emphatically that crossings every mile were out of the question owing to the tremendous expense, but in conjunction with his engineers he would again go over the whole question and would inform Council immediately if any change in original plans transpired.

When Gaglardi at one time threatened to divert his road elsewhere he was told, "We are not asking you for anything, all we want is for you to leave us what we already have."

The delegates returned home on the 5 o'clock plane after visiting the rotunda at Parliament Buildings and seeing the scale model of the Port Mann bridge and sections of the new freeway.

Archery Clubs Amalgamate

Archery is returning to favour in this area. On Tuesday, March 8, the Cloverdale and Langley clubs formally amalgamated and an election of officers was held.

A new name was chosen for the club, the "Silver Tip Archers."

Officers elected were: C. Hyndman, Port Kells, president; A. "Rocky" Duncan, Langley, vice president; Mrs. G. Rockwell, Langley, secretary; L. Giggs, Cloverdale, treasurer; C. Graham, Langley, field captain; D. Bradley, Sullivan, director in charge of Junior Division.

Membership fees were set and new members who have not shot before will be given four consecutive nights of shooting, with loan equipment, before they need decide whether or not they wish to take up archery and join the club.

Members up to 16 years of age will be taken in the Junior Club to be organized immediately.

Senior Club members will be 16 years and over, both men and women.

Further information can be obtained from Mrs. G. Rockwell, Langley 34-R-3, or P. C. Lotzer, Langley 1100.

Meetings will be held every Tuesday evening in the Murrayville Community Hall, at 8 p. m.

Meeting Called For softball League Make-up

Bradner Juniors In Title Game

A league championship soccer game is to be played on Saturday at the Abbotsford Airport, at 2 p. m. It is between the Bradner Juniors and Clayburn Juniors and will decide the top place in the league. Two weeks ago the game was played and ended in a 0-0 tie, necessitating this re-play.

Some old-time footballers went to see the last game and came back full of enthusiasm for the quality of the soccer played and will be on hand again this week. They suggest anyone interested in soccer would get a real thrill from watching these youngsters play.

Joe Morrison Celebrates 99th Birthday At Ft. Langley Hotel

Friday was a great day for the Morrison family at Fort Langley, when Joe Morrison, British Columbia's oldest native son and the first white man to be born in the old Fort Yale, celebrated his 99th birthday.

To honor the occasion Alex Praisley, proprietor of Fort Langley Hotel, suitably the oldest hotel in B. C., gave a party for the old man and all his relatives who wished to attend. Many could not make the occasion but ten people sat down to a sumptuous turkey or fish dinner supplied by mine host from the hotel.

Looking after the gathering was Joe's nephew, Toby Jackson, former mayor of New Westminster, and in attendance besides Joe were Alex Morrison, his brother and himself 93 years old, also eight nieces and nephews namely: Mrs. Jessie Howard of Aldergrove, Mrs. Bessie Armstrong of Aldergrove, Mrs. King Morrison of New Westminster, Mrs. Janet French of Vancouver, Barry Creelman of Cloverdale, Gerry Morrison of Ladner, and Mr. and Mrs. Rory Morrison of Vancouver.

Joe has spent half his lifetime farming, retiring in 1955 when he was injured in a fall. He can remember Indian raids, logging with oxen and hauling lumber for Fort Langley's first church and school.

During the dinner he was presented with a handmade curved stem pipe by members of the O.A.P. organization, Branch No. 14. President Walter Hunter and the second vice-president, Ted Lee, made the presentation.

Alex Praisley, who feted the Morrison clan is a native of Aldergrove, originally farming ½ mile south of Trans Canada Highway on Aberdeen Road. He has recently completed modernizing the Fort Langley Hotel which was built in 1886 by Pete Brown. Drinks were on the house Friday and many of Joe Morrison's friends came to wish him good luck.

SPRING IS HERE!

Spring is in the air, or rather it is while this is being penned. This is the time when hopes are uppermost, when one really feels more like praising than condemning, more like acting than waiting.

This will be an exciting year, we feel sure. The probability of a provincial election and the passing through of the new Trans-Canada freeway, new space developments, summit meetings, the growth of Canada as one of the new powers and a recovery from the recent depression will each and all make 1960 a year to be remembered.

Little by little the jigsaw of British Columbia is being pieced together. The groundwork laid by our pioneers is bearing fruit but we are still only in our infancy. It is the actions of our politicians down to Council and even Chamber level that will determine to what extent British Columbia will develop as an ideal place in which to live.

LAISSEZ-FAIRE

One can sympathize with anyone who genuinely believes in something, but far too often avowed sentiments are hypocritical.

Never believe anyone who says he never breaks the law. The average policeman does so many times a day. Never believe the person who says he's never gambled in his life. This would mean he'd never entered a raffle or flipped a coin for coffee.

By our very way of life, we must on some occasions tell a lie. What about the headache you were supposed to have? What about that reason you gave for being late?

Human frailties being what they are, the intelligent person allows for them and even benefits from them. The unintelligent person in his smug, contemptuous hypocrisy lifts himself above human frailty and becomes a friendless boor.

There are too many of these people about. It's a pity because whereas they expect an easy entry through the Golden Gates, their's is probably a far greater sin.

DON'T KILL A DREAM

By Portia Packer

No honest effort ever goes unrewarded. No conscious thought for good ever goes unheeded or unsung.

For the "Brave New World" that Aldous Huxley speaks of we need brave new people. People who are not afraid to reach out to higher ideals of living and service to others.

Dreams are the leavening of life and in a world where materialism is the main concept the dreamer stands out like a bas-relief. There are those who must sublimate their dearest dreams into other channels of endeavor but that in no way makes them less worthy. All of us want to see the fruition of our own hopes and desires but it is only when we wish for others the same right to happiness can we attain to a Brave New World.

Acceptance of one's own limitations is also imperative if we are to gain a measure of contentment. To be content in adversity is attaining to one of the great masteries of life. An Ideal-ist is one who can meet with the most profound discouragements and still hold fast to that which is right and good. He is often ridiculed as being "on a higher plane of thought," but the truth is, he is never quite satisfied with mediocrity in people, places or things and is a crusader at heart.

There has always been man's inhumanity to man. Infamous dealings seem to be an adjunct of many people's lives while jealousies become weapons that pervert and degrade the finest instincts. We must accept this just as we must accept all the vicissitudes of life. There was once a man that was crucified for His dream!

A maxim, beautifully expounded by Carl Schurz, reads, and I quote, "Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands, but like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides, and, following them, you reach your destiny."

Scouting activities

By "Skip" Hutton

1ST OTTER TROOP

It is reported that three Cubs have been invested into the troop. (Congratulations boys, that's fine, Otter, but who are they?)

Scout training is progressing nicely now. Harry Fast, Norm Andrews and Melvin Goin were presented with their second class badges recently. (Nice going, boys, first class now.)

The troop held a weekend camp on February 27-28 in the new Scout camp in Glen Valley. "Everybody had fun and nobody got wet!"

Now here is a coincidence. Otter is also holding a bottle drive on Saturday, March 19. This ought to be interesting.

1ST LANGLEY "FALCON"

The Falcons held their annual Father & Son banquet at the United Church Hall in Langley on Tuesday, March 15. Cubs, Scouts and Fathers were present.

The evening began with a formal flag break after which Rev. Cinnamon said grace. After a truly delicious turkey dinner, Rev. Cinnamon spoke on the life of Lord Baden-Powell. Mayor Penzer, chairman of the Group Committee, compared Scouting when he was a Scout, to modern Scouting. S. M. Parkinson also addressed the gathering.

The boys awarded the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary, who catered for the banquet, the traditional rousing three cheers.

S. M. Shkurhan of 2nd Langley showed his films of the District Winter Camp before the evening was concluded with the lowering of the flag.

2ND LANGLEY CUB PACK

This pack has been very busy lately. Their badge work is continuing at a terrific rate and some of the boys have developed quite an impressive collection.

Raymond Galye has earned his Cyclist's and his Artist's badges. John Lee has also earned his Cyclist's and his Artist's badges. Tommy Steele received his House Orderly's, Toymaker's, Collector's and Gardener's badges. Not to be outdone, Gerald Wood earned his House Orderly's, Toymaker's, Collector's and Gardener's badges. Henry Easingwood was presented with his Toymaker's badge. Bruce Stewart received his Collector's badge. (Congratulations boys, you really did do your best. Between you, you earned fourteen badges.)

1ST SPERLING TROOP

Some members of this troop have been engaged in a Community good turn recently. They have been helping to salvage a building so that an addition may be built to Harmsworth Hall. (Good show, Sperling).

The troop meeting of February 16 was cancelled because the hall was in use. Instead each patrol held a patrol meeting. (Good idea, Scouter Roberts.)

The troop is tentatively planning a hike for March 19. (Could I have some more details on this please?)

1ST FORT LANGLEY

On the meeting of February 7, the Fort Langley troop played host to 1st Brookswood. The evening consisted of Scouting games first aid and constructing some scale pioneering models. The get-together was ended with a camp fire and sing song. (Very good, Fort Langley, these get-togethers are excellent training and should be made a more regular part of the Scouting program.)

1ST COGHLAN TROOP

This troop is still enjoying a very full Scouting program.

The Rattlesnake patrol, under seconder, Pat Roe, went for a day hike at the back of Art Brook's property on Coghlan Road. It is reported that they had a lot of fun. (Good show, Rattlesnakes, when are you planning to have the next one?

Coghlan is planning a bottle drive for Saturday, March 19.

SKIP SAYS

A group of P. L.s, Mr. Shkurhan and myself, made a trip to Lost Lake, on Sumas Mountain, recently and had quite a time. The real journey starts when you leave the cars at the 1200 foot level and climb to a small pass at the 2600 foot level. The four mile trail took three hours to cover! Scouters note—I would NOT recommend Lost Lake as a troop hike, especially if you have many young lads in the group. It would be a good outing for the Court of Honor and older Scouts though.

What is the matter with the artists in the District? I have only received three designs for the district crest and there must be lots of boys with ideas on how the crest should look. So come on fellas, get some designs in pronto.

The weather is improving now with more daylight and milder temperatures so let's think about the 'out' in Scouting and start planning some outdoor activities. Remember, Scouting is a game that is best played in the wide open spaces, not in a musty old hall.

All the troops have received a bulletin telling them about the projects we would like to get done in the Otter Rd. park. Three or four troops have grabbed the jobs they want to do so the rest of you had better get thinking about it if you have some preference. These projects are all designed to make the park a better place to camp in for everyone.

Canada's electrical manufacturers urge you to "Buy Canadian" to keep the level of jobs and wages high.

Report from Parliament Hill

By W. A. McLennan, M. P.

Today the Commons unanimously approved the principal of an extension of the National Housing Act. The Minister of Public Works, whose Department administers the Act, promised to hold the line on interest rates, and expressed the hope that the rate on some mortgages might drop. He said the Government felt sure that all individuals seeking direct N.H.A. loans would be able to get them, but the program was not designed to help development speculators and large contractors.

The Prime Ministers of Member Nations of the Commonwealth will hold their ninth meeting since the end of the Second World War in London on May 3. It would appear these meetings never seem to have a formal agenda, nor are discussions, decisions or resolutions ever made public. However, they seem to work well and do a great deal to hold the Commonwealth together, and as long as they stick together, are a real stabilizing force for world peace. It is essential if these conferences are to be successful there must be the greatest possible measure of cooperation and understanding of each other's problems, and with the absence of publicity over the subjects to be discussed, ensures a frank and informal atmosphere for the meetings. The Governments represented as a result of their talks at these meetings are able to formulate their policies and take action in the light of, and with regard for, the views and interests of the other members of the Commonwealth. Our Prime Minister is under heavy pressure from certain groups of Canadians to take the initiative and move for the expulsion of South Africa from the Commonwealth Association because of that Nation's policy on race segregation. However, Mr. Diefenbaker has made it perfectly clear he hasn't the slightest intention of doing so, even though he has, as he emphasized, no affection for the policy of segregation.

The Ministers of Transport and Public Works in November last set up a Committee of senior Departmental Officials to study and co-relate the surveys and engineering reports on the Fraser River. It is very gratifying to know that they realize the great importance of the development of the River to the welfare of the Lower Mainland of British Columbia. The Committee is very enthusiastic over the possibility of developing the Lower Fraser into one of Canada's finest fresh water harbours. When their studies are completed and their recommendations ready, it is their intention to send representatives to the West Coast and discuss plans with all interested parties, including Delta, Surrey, Richmond and New Westminster.

A great injustice will be done to many Quebec petitioners for divorce if the willful obstruction of Divorce Bills in the Common continues until the end of the Session. The petitioners have satisfied the Divorce Committee of the Senate and this Committee is probably as competent as any Provincial Court when it comes to deciding on the merit of an application for divorce. There is certainly a great deal of good reasons for establishing some other tribunal to deal with Quebec divorce cases than Parliament, but that this case should be made out at the expense of those who are conforming to the procedure now required, is creating injustice for individuals.

Council Praises Student Orators

Six high school students from Langley and Aldergrove, together with the two principals, Messrs Mountain and Hanson, attended the Council meeting on March 14. to give a report on a recent visit to Victoria to observe the Provincial Legislature in action.

Each of the students gave a report including impressions of the trip, ceremony at Murray Yale's grave, sightseeing in Victoria, impressions of the Government in action and the visit to Royal Roads Tri-Services College.

Councillor A. E. Roberts expressed deep appreciation for the observations of the students who were officially thanked by Reeve Poppy for the Council.

COUNCIL COMMENDED

Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce has written a letter to the Council commending them on the efficient way in which brush cutting and clearing has been carried out this winter.

Eighteen Pupils In School For Retarded

The Langley School for Retarded Children is now held in the Anglican Church Hall at Langley. Plans are being made to build a new school to the plan of one designed by Mr. Barkhausen of Langley, and which has been approved by the Department of Education at Victoria.

Mrs. Rose Norman is in charge of the present school and there are eighteen pupils ranging in age from six to fourteen years attending. More should be attending but accommodation is not available at present. Service clubs in Langley have donated various equipment which has been gratefully received.

Books and teaching aids have to be packed away each day after school in order to leave the place free for meetings. All has to be unpacked again in the morning and this necessitates teachers arriving at 7 a. m. to get ready.

Among other things the children are taught self-care, speech improvements, etc., which necessitates almost individual training.

The Bunny Bus, used for transportation of most of the children was purchased by means of raffles and donations from organizations.

Mr. Barkhausen's scale model school is complete in detail even to the white fence and flag-pole.

FVMPA Sales Over $27,000,000

Gross sales of milk products of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association totalled $27,482,089 in 1959.

In the disposition of nearly 324 million pounds of milk, the Dairyland fluid operation and Dealers utilized 40.24 percent of the production.

Forest Wardens Visit Hatchery

The Junior Forest Wardens of the Aldergrove District 123, accompanied by their Section Leader, Roberta Maigret, Council members Robert Maigret, George Riddell and Fred Slogget, and Supervisor Joe DeRoover, made a field trip to Cultus Lake Fish Hatchery on Saturday, March 12. The group reached the Fish Hatchery just at opening time and were met by F. H. Martins, Fisheries Supervisor.

Mr. Martins explained the purpose of the hatchery and how it operated. The group saw the development of many different types of fish from the egg stage to fish 13 months old The members of the group all agreed the most interesting things they saw were the salmon eggs. Mr. Martins also told them how the staff worked at night to transport the fish in a refrigerated truck, using the truck to illustrate what he meant.

After the visit to the Hatchery, the group went into the Cultus Lake Park area where they made a camp-fire and had supper. At this spot the Wardens noticed how much faster the maple seeds were taking root in the soil there than in the Bradner area.

The Wardens also posted Fire Prevention posters in the park, and all agreed they had thoroughly enjoyed themselves and would like to make many more such trips. The group thanked the Council members and the Supervisor for their support.

Fort Museum Makes Plea For Indian Relics

Fort Langley Centennial Museum, although having a fine display on show for the public, urgently needs more early material associated with the district.

In particular the Museum requires Indian relics and articles in use in the district by the early pioneers. The Advisory committee consisting of representatives from different parts on the municipality is making a special publicity drive, in an endeavour to get donations of these objects which very frequently lie hidden away unseen by anyone.

Procedure when wishing to make a donation is either to leave it with Mrs. D. Umphrey, custodian of the Museum, or to get in touch with any member of the advisory committee who will show the article at the following monthly committee meeting when articles are accepted, or rejected if unsuitable.

Any readers of the Aldergrove News who feel they would like something handed down to posterity should inform the editor of the paper who is a member of the Advisory Committee, phone BA 6-5170.

Names of donors are written alongside the exhibit, with a short history concerning its origin.

Production of Canada's electrical manufacturing industry has almost tripled since 1951.

COUNTY LINE

The basket social and dance sponsored by the parents' committee of the Juvenile Softball Club was held Saturday evening in the County Line Hall. Due to conflicting events there was not as good a crowd as was expected, but those present spent an enjoyable evening. Judy and Karen Zazula and Miss Kate Schwora provided the music for the dancing.

Contests were held for jiving and old-time waltzing. Judy Zazula, of Aldergrove, and Judy Demchuck, of Whalley, won the jive contest, while Mrs. Nels Oss and Gust Sjodin won the waltzing prize. Honorable mention was given to Mr. and Mrs. R. Rasmusson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zazula.

A number of baskets were entered for the best decorated basket contest. This was won by Mrs. Nels Oss, with a basket suitably depicting a softball game in progress on a playing field, the basket being covered of dark green paper. The bats and balls were formed out of foam rubber.

Prizes were given for highest priced basket, highest bidder and for the person who bought the winning basket. Bill Zazula was the highest bidder and he also got the prize for buying the winning basket. The raffle was won by L. Robideau of Coghlan. Second prize went to R. A. Klick, of King George Highway, and Mrs. K. Deugau of Vancouver was third prize winner.

Charles Cooper, captain of the juvenile team, made a presentation to Mr. Robideau in recognition of the good job he had done coaching the team last year. The gift was a smoking stand. Thanks are given to Mrs. N. Green, Mr. Anderson and Richard Green for acting as judges.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Davidson's home was the scene of a baby shower on Saturday evening when guest of honor was Mrs. Del Palmer, nee Hilda Gutzke. The evening was spent in playing games, etc. An ornament was auctioned in Chinese style and was won by Del Palmer. A buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Davidson, the hostess, during the evening.

FVMPA Elects Four Directors

Four directors have been elected to the Board of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association.

H. S. Berry of Langley, Secretary of the Association since 1956 and a Board member for sixteen years, led the poll following voting in the 20 FVMPA Locals located between Rosedale and Richmond.

Arthur D. Rundle of Chilliwack, first elected to the directorate in 1956, continues his service to the dairy farmers marketing organization.

Gordon W. Park, well-known Pitt Meadows dairyman, entered the service of the Association in 1955, and his re-election to the Board begins his sixth consecutive term of office.

A new director is J. C. "Clarke" Cherry of Mt. Lehman, a member of the FVMPA for the past 21 years. Mr. Cherry was born in Ottawa, in 1909, and came to B. C. in 1939. He settled on a 40 acre farm in the Mt. Lehman district where he lives today with his wife, his son, Daryl, 17, and his daughter, Diane, 13. A dairy farmer from the beginning, his interests also leaned strongly towards farmer cooperative organization. Always an FVMPA member, he early became active in the Mt. Lehman Local of the Association, serving for the past several years as Secretary.

Not a large dairy operator, (35 cow herd with replacements), Clarke Cherry has always been a progressive farmer quick to adopt and apply new and modern methods. He has consistently supported groups such as the Dairy Herd Improvement Associations and the Grassland Clubs.

Cherry will serve a one year term. Messers Berry, Rundle and Park are elected for two-year terms.

Other members unsuccessful in their bid for a directorship were D. A. McLellan, Glen Valley; Harry Quadling, Sumas; and T. A. Tryssenaar of Rosedale.

Election of a president, vice-president and secretary of the Association will take place next week. These executive officers are elected by the Directors from their number.

Under 21

by Dan Halligan

Dear Dan: My problem isn't serious but it's important to me. Last June I met a boy from out of town and he was the nicest boy I ever met. He came to see me every week because his father was here on business. We wrote quite often until August and then he stopped writing because of school and because he is fond of dogs and spends a great deal of time with them.

Next month our school is having a formal where girls ask boys. I'm not interested in anyone here and would like very much to invite this boy from out of town. Would it be wrong for me to write and invite him since we haven't been writing to each other for almost five months? We are both 15 and are sophomores in high school. Thank you very much.—Casey.

Dear Casey: It would't be wrong to invite the boy as your date but if you've got anything more than the dance in the back of your mind, you may be disappointed. By that I mean you may be thinking that perhaps you can renew the boy's interest in you and it looks to me as if months has shown you pretty much how he feels. Understand, that isn't a reflection on you but simply because the boy is 15 and is that type of boy who isn't concentrating on girls too heavily at this time. Ask him to be your date if you wish but remember, there are probably a lot of nice boys in your own school.

Dear Dan: I'm a farm boy but I don't like farming. We own quite a bit of land and because I'm the only boy in the family, I'm 16, my father always thought I'd someday be partners with him.

Last night we were talking about careers and when I told my parents I thought I wanted to be a lawyer, you would have thought I stabbed them in the back. We had quite an argument and this morning my mother and father barely spoke to me. My two sisters are on my side but they don't help matters much. Can you give me your opinion?—L. T.

Dear L. T.: All I can say is that you have to lead your own life and if you feel your career is the law, you would never be happy on a farm. Don't make any rash decisions but if your thoughts are on being an attorney, your parents are going to have to accept your decision.

Dear Dan: A boy I've dated several times recently phoned me and broke a date the evening before we were to go out because he said he had to work. I took him at his word and stayed home. A couple of days later my brother casually mentioned that he saw the boy and another girl at a dance the same night he was supposed to have worked. The boy doesn't mean that much to me that he has to lie to me but I do like him. Should I tell him I know he didn't work or wait and see if he explains?—Mary Lou.

Dear Mary Lou: It's possible the boy didn't have to work but that he didn't find that out until the last minute and also thought you might have already had another date. Then again, he could have been pulling a fast one. If he doesn't mean anything to you, I wouldn't say anything, one way or another. However, the next time he cancels out of a date, be on your guard.

THE MAIL BAG—

G.W.P.: You can't convince your girl friend's ex-steady he should go back to her unless he wants to himself. I think you should stay clear and let the two of them work out their own problem.

(Dan Halligan will be glad to answer questions submitted by teenagers and children. Send them to him. Dan Halligan, c/o Aldergrove News. For personal replies, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

OTTER

The Otter PTA held its meeting in Otter School on Monday night, March 14. There were 19 present. The attendance banner will be shared between two rooms, Mrs. Tucker's and Mr. Murray's.

It was reported all dental work had been completed on the children enrolled in the Dental Clinic from Otter last fall. Final plans for the Spring Carnival sponsored by the PTA were discussed.

Those attending this meeting listened to a tape recording of part of Professor Sumner Miller's TV broadcast on present-day education. An interesting and lively discussion followed.

The PTA Spring Carnival held on March 19 proved to be quite successful. There were games, fish pond and bingo, and many lovely prizes were won. There was a short talent show, a cake walk, fortunes were told.

Mrs. Bashem was the winner of the door prize—a painting by a lady in the district.

20 MORE MILK PRODUCERS

In 1959, 188 new members joined the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association, and 168 persons ceased to be members. At the end of the year, membership in the dairy farmer marketing organization totalled 5714.

PGC MEETS

The Pioneer Girls' Club, with their leader, Miss Warkentin, met at the home of Mrs. S. Susani on Saturday. There was a good attendance.

Thursday at noon Grade 13 girls prepared a dinner for all the teachers in honor of 3 of the teachers who had birthdays at that time. Guests of honor were Principal Bill Wiebe, C. D. Toews and Rev. C. C. Peters and their wives.

After the dinner the Grade 13 boys were allowed to clean up leftovers and the dishes.

It is estimated that at least 90 percent of all physical work in a modern factory is done by power, mostly electrical.

Kept Illegal Slaughterhouse

Failing to keep a record book for a slaughter house as outlined by the Stock Brand Act was the first of two charges laid against Aaron Martens of Abbotsford for which he was fined $10 and costs.

The second charge was for unlawfully slaughtering cattle for food at a place other than a slaughter house in respect of which a licence issued by the Minister of Agriculture should have been obtained. For this offence he was fined an additional $10.

CLEVELAND DAM—Looking down the spillway of the Cleveland Dam from the bridge above. Only a little water was passing through on Sunday afternoon. There was a pool at the bottom of the spillway but beyond that the rocks were dry. When the water is high it rushes through between the canyon walls with a terrific noise. The canyon is not wide but the walls are very steep. (NEWS Photo)

YALE ROAD

Department of Highways has informed Council that when the new Trans Canada Highway is in operation the old highway will have to be given a name. Suggestion of Yale Road was made and Council has agreed to this name which has strong associations with the district.

More than a billion dollars' worth of goods has been produced by Canada's electrical manufacturing industry each year since 1954.

WRONG NUMBER

In reply to a letter written by Aldergrove Chamber to the B. C. Telephone Company, the district superintendent at New Westminster has stated that while telephones on the old set-up will have a change of number when the subscriber moves, all those phone numbers allotted since the change-over will be retained by the subscriber, even if he moves elsewhere in the telephone district.

Sports Fishermen In 1959 Take Nearly 400,000 Salmon

A report by the Department of Fisheries reveals that sport fishermen took a total of 396,375 salmon and grilse in 1959 in B. C., a slight decrease (3 percent) from the 1958 catch but well above the average for 1953-56. In terms of weight, the 1959 catch was approximately 1.5 million pounds.

Last year was a pink salmon cycle year in the southern portion of the province and this resulted in a total sport catch of 36,825 pinks, nearly 12 times the 1958 catch of this species. All other species were down, however, and but for the increase in the pink catch, sport fishermen would have experienced a sharp rather than a slight drop in their catch.

In the breakdown of the sport catch by area, the report provides interesting sidelights on the 1959 season. On Rivers Inlet, for example, one fortunate sport fisherman took a 74 pound spring, the heaviest taken under permit in the area since 1956. Here, the average weight of the 84 springs taken was a whopping 40.3 pounds. The total catch was down from that of 1958 resulting chiefly from the presence of blackfish in that area.

In the Campbell River area, the spring salmon catch was also below the 1958 level but the catch of coho was up. The area had its highest coho catch (18,700) since 1955.

In the region Port Alberni to Port Renfrew, most of the 1,200 large springs or "tyee" which made up the major part of the sport catch in the area was taken at Port Alberni and Nahmint Bay. The average weight of the springs was 30 pounds, indicating the excellent fishing enjoyed in the area.

The total catch in the Vancouver-Fraser River area was made up of 10,225 springs, 7,750 jacks, 7,300 coho, 24,000 grilse and 16,600 pink salmon. Coho, jack springs and grilse catches were down to approximately half of the corresponding 1958 catches and spring salmon were down by nearly 3,000 fish.

NORTH COGHLAN

The regular monthly meeting of the Coghlan Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall on Monday with President Mrs. A. Brooks in the chair. There were 22 members and visitors present.

Old used Christmas cards and catalogues were handed in by some members to be forwarded to organizations upon request.

Material was distributed for making into garments for the bazaar.

The secretary, Mrs. Kirkham, read letters acknowledging donations, etc., most notable of which was one from the Boy Scout organization which had been given the balance of funds still on hand from a previous Pro-Rec. organization.

Three members had perfect attendance during 1959. These were Mrs. M. D. Christensen, Mrs. T. Cochrane and Mrs. Art Brooks.

Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Christensen made a report on their trip to Langholm when they were accompanied by Mrs. Shank.

Resolutions were discussed for the district convention to be held at White Rock in April. Mrs. Curle will be the delegate to this convention.

A spring tea is planned for May. A $5 donation was voted to the new Coghlan School Parent-Teacher Association.

The regular meeting of the Coghlan PTA was noteworthy for the visit of representatives of the School for Retarded Children, in Langley, for which a referendum is pending. The school is now functioning in the Anglican Church Hall, Langley. Mr. Bolton, the principal, thanked the speakers and wished them good luck with their work.

Question: Does our Comprehensive Personal Liability insurance still apply if we buy and move into a small apartment house?

Answer: It still covers you and your family but not the other apartments or tenants. You can have your own insurance changed to cover the rest of the premises or you can purchase a different form of Liability insurance.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

FARM PROGRAM—The CBC-TV four-part series, "The Road to Adjustment" is designed to be of particular interest to Canada's farmers and fishermen. Programs will examine problems of the small farmer who is tied to older methods which no longer cope with today's demands ("The Old Road"); the farmer who, realizing he must change, has adapted his farm to handle grassland crops and feeder cattle in order that he can supplement his income by doing other work ("Detour"); and the farmer who has mechanized his operation and runs it as a big business ("Throughway"). The final show deals with the case of Canada's Maritime fishermen and the hardships they now face. This CBC-TV series ends a four-week run this evening.

Cadets Visit USS "Coral Sea"

Some sixty-two cadets from R.C.S.C.C. "Columbia" went by bus to Vancouver on Saturday, to tour the U.S.S. "Coral Sea."

On arrival at the ship, about 2 p. m., the cadets marched aboard and were given a guide who conducted them around. They went down to the hangar deck where the planes are normally kept but on this occasion only the ship's boats were stored at one end. They went up to the flight deck where the mechanical side of operations was explained to them. The new mirror signalling device was explained to them in detail. This is a British invention which replaced the former "man with two paddles" who used to signal the planes on and off the ship. The cadets saw the steam caterpult, guns, etc. After the guided tour they were given free time. Some went into the gun turrets, others to the bridge, the pilots' ready-room, the galley, etc.

This afternoon had been set aside for such organizations as the Sea Cadets, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides and similar groups. The local boys were fortunate in that the Marine Band was playing and everything was ready for the official visit of the Mayor of Vancouver and the American Consul stationed in the City. They were aboard while the cadets were there.

The Executive Officer, S/Lt. W. D. Buck reports that everywhere they were shown the utmost courtesy, respect, assistance and cooperation by the crew of the "Coral Sea."

OTTER

The W. A. of Langley Memorial Hospital were hostesses for a Whist Drive last week held in the Orange Hall, Mrs. S. Francen and Mr. C. Cave were the winners with Mrs Sturmey and Mr. R. King taking the consolations.

The Area meeting of the local Credit Unions was held last Wednesday night in Credit Union hall, Otter, with Mr. Wm. Moxon, presiding, and Miss M. MacDonald as Secretary. The annual meeting of Otter Credit Union will take place March 23. A door prize will be given and refreshments will be served. Mr. John Quail, Field Representative, will be guest speaker.

Friends surprised Mrs. R. King last Thursday evening on the occasion of her birthday. The evening was spent in Crib playing, Mrs. King and Mrs. B. Buxton winning the prizes.

Mr. Lyle Thompson of Questnel was visiting old friends in the district last week.

A number of Otter residents journeyed to Vancouver to greet the "Coral Sea" on her historic visit.

Harry Gunn broke his leg last week while working on his farm and is a patient in the Langley Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Elmore and family, from Smithers, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elmore.

Otter Institute Tops $1,000,000

At the 38th Annual meeting of Otter District Farmers' Institute on Wednesday, Mar. 16, all officers were returned to their office intact except for A. P. Fast, who was replaced by Dan Bergen.

President is C. Hagelstein; vice-president, William Chard; directors, D. W. Poppy, E. Arnold, Dan Bergen, A. R. Shatford, G. W. Urquhart, M. Bruch and J. Pauls.

The Manager, Fred Greer, reports a very successful year, with increases in nearly all departments. Yearly sales exceeded $1,000,000 for the first time. $44,000 will be paid out in patronage for 1959.

Feed sales showed the largest increase—$150,000. Increase in grocery sales was $10,000; hardware, $2,000; oil and gas, $7,000; land clearing supplies, $2,000.

A new Hammer Mill and new bulk bins were installed in the feed mill during the year, as part of the $11,000 spent on improvements. The parking area was blacktopped and new checkouts and scales were installed in the grocery store.

There are 1600 members to share the patronage refund. A $15,000 deferred refund from 1954 will also be paid.

GRANTS WANTED

Two requests for Park grants came up on the same day before Council.

Aldergrove High School News

By Philip Green

The regular assembly last week was held on Wednesday, March 16. A set of the Encyclopedia Britannica was presented to the principal, Mr. Hanson, by Mr. Beggs, chairman of the Langley School Board. The encyclopedia was a gift to the school from the Encyclopedia Britannica Company, Ltd.

Following this presentation, the Aldergrove High School Concert Orchestra played the "Vienna City Dreams."

Also at this assembly driver training certificates were presented to the students who have completed the course this year. The instructor for the theory part, Mr. Thompson, introduced the practical instructor, Mr. N. Moody of the Valley Driving School, who presented the certificates. The students who have taken the course are Merrily Ashton, Rosemary Dyck, Lola Fast, Ann Hale, Elvira Pedde, Marilyn Scott, Donna Vaydo, Wayne Andrews, Henry Braun, Charles Cooper, James Davis, Ted Horne, Ted McCallum, Lloyd Nelson, Ray Noble and Brian Parish, who has completed the theory part of the course and will take the practical training in a week's time, after he celebrates his 16th birthday.

Mr. Hanson announced that the student body will be entertained by Miss Betty Phillips of Vancouver at an assembly later this month. Arrangements have also been made for a visit to the school by Ted Reynolds, CBUT sportscaster who will speak to the students and show films, at a future assembly.

Parents Warned By P-T Fed'n

The British Columbia Parent-Teacher Federation states that a serious matter has been brought to their attention. It appears that Junior Chemistry sets which include a container of "Sodium Ferro Cyanide" are being offered for sale in Vancouver and probably in other areas of the province.

They state that there is no indication on the label that "Sodium Ferro Cyanide" is a poisonous substance while actually it is extremely poisonous and extremely dangerous. Local associations are being urged by the parent organization to "use every possible means of alerting parents to this hazard."

Because of action taken by police in certain areas the B. C. Parent-Teacher Federation is urging all local associations to consult with local authorities before staging bingo or similar games of chance.

Also, associations are reminded of the non-commercial stand taken by the main organization, which does not allow the endorsation or promotion of the sale of named products.

NORTH COGHLAN

Mrs. M. Christensen was appointed as delegate to the Provincial Convention at UBC at the end of May.

COUNTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. C. McMillan, of Whalley, visited the Rod Caplettes during the weekend.

The 1st Coghlan Scouts and Cubs held a bottle drive last Saturday morning. There was a good turnout of Cubs and Scouts in full uniform and parents came with cars. They started at 10 a. m. and the district was covered in short order. At noon, Mrs. Art Brooks and Mrs. W. H. Kirkham served hot dogs to the boys on their return.

Gust Sjodin, of Elkwater, Alberta, visited Mr. and Mrs. Nels Oss and family over the weekend, before leaving for his home. Mr. Sjodin has spent the past four months visiting friends and relatives in B. C., Washington and Oregon. He climaxed his visit here by winning the waltzing contest with Mrs. Oss at the County Line Hall on Saturday evening. They had not danced together for more than 20 years.

ABERDEEN-BRADNER HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

The monthly meeting was held March 16 with 10 members present. It was decided to donate $50 towards the Bradner Hall Fund and also sufficient money to purchase furnishings for two private wards in the new wing of the MSA Hospital. Plans were discussed for the Mothers' Day tea to be held May 7 at the Aberdeen Hall. Mrs. Jones was the winner of the monthly raffle.
