Aldergrove Parade Bigger than Ever

A record number of entries and a fine evening together made for a wonderful parade in Aldergrove last Friday.

Judges for the numerous classes were Mrs. J. Petrie, Mrs. F. Ferguson and Dr. Norman Armstrong who had the unenviable task of selecting winners from many fine entries.

In the decorated float class, first prize was awarded to the Lutheran Church with a model of a church with four open doors,

LEAVES EIGHT CHILDREN

Young Man Killed By Tractor

A tragic accident at Quesnel has taken the life of a well known former Aldergrove boy. He was Bruce Ferguson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferguson, Jackman Road South, R.R.1, Aldergrove, whose tractor rolled over on him killing him instantly on Monday afternoon.

He owned a mill at Quesnel. Bruce formerly attended Aldergrove Elementary School and graduated from Langley High School.

Thirty-one years of age at his death he leaves his wife, Patricia, and a large family of eight children including a three-week old baby. There are five sons: Kenneth, Charles, Gordon, Danny and Michael; three daughters: Rose Marie, Barbara Jean and Leanne. Besides his parents there are also two sisters: Mrs. Marjorie Upton, Surrey and Mrs. Vivian Chadsey, Quesnel; three brothers: Harry of Surrey; Fred, Lac la Hache; and Bill, Kamloops.

beautifully decorated. Purpose of the entry was to invite people to the forthcoming Lutheran Open House week.

Second prize went to Aldergrove Cleaners with an amusing portrayal of cleaning in the home, complete with smoking stove, scrubbing palls, dirty clothes, ironing board, etc. Cornelius Hunenstyn, with heavy black beard was seen in the unusual role of tractor driver.

Third prize went to Abbotsford Lions, and Aldergrove was indeed honoured with a visit from Miss Abbotsford, Carol Kish, who went on to win the title of Miss P.N.E.

Prize for best commercial commercial vehicle went to Petersen's Floral and Garden Shop which as usual displayed the ingenuity of Madge Wibberley as a floral design artist.

In the decorated car class Aldergrove Elementary P.T.A. took first prize, Royal Purple second and Evergreen Garden Club third. All three were masterly turnouts and must have taken many hours to prepare.

In the children's class two groups of four youngsters came first and second. Portraying extra large vegetables were first prize winners Kathy Francis, Carol and Cathy Watt and Diane Beggs. Second prize, "For better or worse" were Tommy and Mary Milton. Deborah Green and Darlene Whitehead, and third prize went to Teddy MacIntosh who was dressed as a clown. A decorated bicycle won fourth prize for Kenneth McIntosh. The parade followed its usual route from behind Williams Machine Shop, along the main

LITTLE MORONS—Last week, on Tuesday, senior girls of Aldergrove High School were initiated into the secret rites of the Girls' Y-Teens Club. Self-declared little morons, they roamed the streets of Aldergrove stopping every now and then to declare to the public that their attitude towards life was quite in keeping with their outlandish garb. As one boy remarked, "How could you go steady with any of that lot?" —News Photo

Magnificent Flowers In Aldergrove Fall Fair

In the new section of the Aldergrove Fall Fair this year every one concerned was agreeably surprised by the response. In the class for floral arrangements in unusual containers the entrants had excelled themselves.

Containers included bird's nests still in their natural setting in the branch of a tree, sawn off and glued to a base. Beef bones, the joints glued to a base comprised of the blade bone, and sprayed with paint, the hollow portions sawn off short and filled with flowers was a most original idea. An old potato chipper was another container. Others included a stove pipe elbow which sprouted lovely pink dahlias and a cow horn full of marigolds. The first prize winner was four teat cups from a milking machine fastened together and counted on a wall board. These were filled with artificial flowers. Second prize went an old work boot, sprayed with gold paint and filled with fresh flowers.

Many beautiful driftwood creations were entered, some making a setting for fresh flowers and others with artificial ones, some with figurines and some without. Variety seemed to be endless in all these arrangement classes and some striking entries were in the all-green class. Foliage used even included beautiful leaves of curly kale which looked most attractive in such a setting, along with other leaves.

One whole long table was devoted to these classes and it was completely full. One of the speakers at the evening program said he had been talking to a judge who remarked to him that it was the most difficult job she had had, judging those classes.

Some very fine plants were on display and the dahlias were excellent although some would-be exhibitor had the misfortune to lose all their blooms by frost on the night before the fair. Altogether, the floral section was a magnificent sight for the time of the year and gave many spectators a pleasant surprise.

Confesses To Violent Robbery

An Aldergrove man, Robert David Bankz (23) was remanded in custody at Langley Police Court, Monday after pleading guilty to a charge of robbery with violence.

Bankz admitted robbing and beating up William Gobl of Aldergrove recently. He took Gobl for a ride in his car and after stopping on the new freeway punched his passenger in the face and robbed him of $44. The injured man was taken to hospital but released later the same day.

Boy Injures Eye On Burning Stick

A freak accident befell the little 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Orwick on Sunday. The family was out fishing and someone had left a smouldering fire on the beach nearby. The children in the Orwick party were getting chilly and ran over to try and warm up at the fire. As children will they were poking sticks into the fire and lighting them.

Young Michael Orwick had stayed with his mother for some time then suddenly ran over to the others and ran right into a burning stick held by one of the children and got burnt right in the pupil of his eye. He is now under treatment in St. Mary's Hospital but it is too early to tell whether the eye will heal or whether he will need a cornea transplant.

Guests Praise Friday's Fair

A huge throng of people poured into the gymnasium of the Aldergrove High School on Friday evening after the parade was over and heard several guests bring greetings to the Aldergrove Fall Fair.

Mayor John Conder of Langley was the first speaker and brought greetings from the City. He was followed by Reeve J. A. Murphy, popularly known as "Spud", of Matsqui who remarked that he was pleased to see a number of Matsqui names among the prize winners and complimented the Agricultural Association on the fine display. J. H. Rhodes, M.L.A. for Delta, remarked on the magnificent floral display and the quality of the exhibits and said that the Aldergrove Fair would take second to none in the province. Reeve D. W. Poppy brought the greetings from the Municipality. Jack Scott, hard working chairman of the Fair Board, was master-of-ceremonies for this program and after introducing the civic official he introduced the Langley Harvest Queen, Myrna Spence, and her attendant princesses, Pam Strong, Muriel Mountain, Marilyn Niblow and Betty Jardine, Jean Sewell, with the Queen-mother, Mrs. Copeland. Each of these ladies was presented with a corsage by Dick Clamp of the Fair Board.

I SAW

Each week this paper offers a prize for the best humorous or unusual happening or incident any of our readers experience. It is called the "I Saw" contest and the winner each week receives two tickets donated by Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre and each month, for the best of the month, two Chinese dinners donated by the Aldergrove Hotel Cafe.

AROUND TOWN

By DON ANSON

Did you all put your clocks back last week? Poor Jock Fairholm didn't and arrived with all his five boys on hour early for church.

Sorry to hear that young Robbie Buxton, victim of a recent accident in Aldergrove, didn't come out of it as well as at first thought. He is suffering from two greenstick fractures of the pelvis and will have to avoid exercise for a considerable time.

There's an electrical firm in Vancouver which displays the the sign "we remove shorts" on its truck. Reckon "we fix briefs" would be a good sign for a barrister.

There's a strong rumour that Aldergrove will lose its fire siren. In its place it is said we will have a whistle. The siren is needed for Civil Defence. Fred Dams says he won't let the thing go without a fight.

Hunters are finding that birds' crops this year contain a high percentage of pine needles. This is supposed to indicate a very severe winter as the birds stock up on pine oil to resist the cold.

A little girl on North Coghlan came up against something she hadn't learned at school last week. No one told her what to do if she arrived home and found a skunk sitting on the doorstep. Fortunately, she didn't find out the hard way.

Here's a corny story for you! Someone, whether intentionally or not, entered a cob of corn at the Aldergrove Fair. It looked perfect, big, shiny, etc., but the judges found it had been cooked!

On the road from Mission to Harrison, approaching Agassiz, there is a long hill down to the village of Agassiz. One sign at the side of the road reads: Slow to 35 miles. A little further down another reads: Slow to 30. Still further down a third says: Slow to 25 miles. The next says: Use Low Gear. The final one reads: Slow to 20 miles. Then on a big rock it says: JESUS SAVES. Spotter of this unusual sequence was Owen Martin of North Burnaby.

Desperate plea of help from the Pep Club at the High School. They want urgently two white skirts, size 16, in time for Saturday's big game. Will buy or borrow. Any offers to Pam Ross, Baldwin 6-3444.

To owner of licence No. 295...? One can understand a person in a moment of alight mental aberration parking a car on the sidewalk once (outside Gardiner's Pharmacy) but when the driver goes off, returns five minutes later and parks same car again on sidewalk (outside Aldergrove Hotel) one begins to wonder whether there's something that isn't quite ticking in said driver's grey matter.

Each week this paper offers a prize for the best humorous or unusual happening or incident any of our readers experience. It is called the "I Saw" contest and the winner each week receives two tickets donated by Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre and each month, for the best of the month, two Chinese dinners donated by the Aldergrove Hotel Cafe.

This week's winner is the following incident, sent in by George Dowd.

"Here's a true story for your 'I Saw' column. The other day a pick-up truck was parked on a slope outside the Municipal Hall. The driver went into the hall and apparently forgot to adjust his handbrake. Moments later, the truck began to roll backwards to a rather deep ditch with several inches of water in it. A woman in the truck was horrified. She didn't know anything about trucks, and so she tried to jump clear. As luck would have it the door gave her a push and tipped her right into the water in the ditch. I hope you find this amusing, my wife didn't and neither did I.

Signed, DRIVER GEORGE DOWD."

DOGS AND MEN!

"The more I see of some people the better I like my dog", is a popular saying and it's popular because it is so true.

Dogs and men are similar in many respects. Given affection and food no dog will turn against man but it is also true that no dog is friendly with all other dogs.

Those things which make a dog vicious and unfriendly are exactly the same things that make a man pugnacious and unfriendly.

So if one analyses canine behavior, it should and probably would be an analysis also of mankind.

Dogs are inherently greedy and so are men. The fittest dog will win through and so will the fittest man.

In the present day struggle between the east and the west, the real issue lies between, not who is the stronger, but who is the fitter. There is no doubt who was the stronger between the Romans and the Christians but who won out in the end?

More and more people are wondering whether our present mode of living with its blatant emphasis on materialism and it's often false ideology of freedom is really what they want.

True, comunism, not the type we know, is after all really an expression of true Christianity. There is much to like about it and much to dislike about the western interpretation of Christian behavior.

The trouble seems to be that Lenin, Stalin, Kruschev and others have swung too much one way and we have just as obviously gone too far the other. Both sides must moderate and tolerate if we are not to have the foretold Armageddon.

How can we expect our children to behave like normal civilized human beings when for the past twenty years they have heard nothing from their elders but talk on war, strife and bloodshed?

It's an odd thing but the quickest way to end enmity is not to present the other cheek but to present a compliment to the aggressor. It may seem like losing face but that is much better than losing life,

JUST AN ERROR

The Lynden Tribune

The editor of a small weekly in another state was severely criticized because of an error appearing in his paper and in the next issue he had this to say:

"Yes, we know there were some errors in last week's paper. We will further agree that there were some errors in the issues of the week before, but before bawling us out too unmercifully about it, we want to call your attention to these facts: In an ordinary newspaper column there are 10,000 letters, and there are seven wrong positions for each letter, making 70,000 chances to make errors and several million chances for transpositions.

"There are 48 columns in this paper, so you can readily see the chances for mistakes. Did you know that in the sentence, 'To be or not to be,' by transposition alone, 2,759,022 errors can be made? Now aren't you sorry you got mad about that little mistake last week?"

Old History Reflected In Barkerville Store

Since the days of the old Hudson's Bay trading posts, the "general store" has reflected the life of its own era, and the one at Barkerville was no exception.

This is how it looked in the days of the gold rush of the 1860's. It is among the historic relics in the town being reconstructed by the Barkerville Restoration Advisory Committee established by the British Columbia government to mark its 100th birthday next year, and already thousands of visitors have gone to see the community as it was then.

The hardships encountered by the seeker for gold are obvious from the choice of merchandise for sale such as the heavy boots, rough clothing, and snow shoes. The brighter side of pioneer life is evident, too, in the bolts of bright cloth, the lady's suit, baby carriage, and high chair.

In the grocery section, travelers to the gold fields could pick up two loaves of bread for 75c, a dozen eggs for $4.00, butter for $1.00 a pound, or soap at $1.25 a bar. In comparison, rum was only $1.25 a bottle.

SERVING FOR YOU

lead the best seller list week after week. But for those who have not been able to budget the $12.50 for the hard cover edition, there is good news. Bantam Books have purchased the reprint rights and are scheduling a paper-back printing for 1962.

Penguin books have just released four titles in the Doctor series by Richard Gordon from which the recent humorous films were made. Available now at all Penguin dealers, at 75c each, are: "Doctor in the House", "Doctor at Large" and "Doctor in Love". For those who saw the films no recommendation is necessary.

Penguin, incidentally, is the modern pioneer in the quality paper-back line, having first low cost non-fiction works in the mid 1930's. Another British paper-back firm is now introducing a quality line to complement their large fiction list. Fontana Books introduced recently their Fontana Library Series and Fontana Short Biographies. Even though they are some twenty-five years later than Penguin, they are to be congratulated in keeping their standards high. Among the authors they have in print are: Sir Winston Churchill, J. A. Williamson, Lord Acton, C. V. Wedgwood, Simone de Beauvoir, Chester Wilmut, Field Marshal Montgomery and Boris Pasternak.

Note to parents of children in the seven to twelve, question after question stage: If you, like your reviewer, have forgotten most of your basic science courses and are plagued by young enquiring minds asking what a cowry is or why do cockets fly, RELAX. There is a series of books on the market just for us to give our inquisitors. The "How and Why Wonder Books" retail for only 50c in a soft cover edition and cover some eighteen subjects such as: Dinosaurs, Weather, Rocks, Insects, the Human Body, etc.

They are an excellent source of information, attractively laid out with many illustrations and very well written.

The calibre of writing is actually outstanding. The books are interestingly written in a straightforward simple style and yet no effort is made to avoid the use of scientific terms. So while easy to use they also present a challenge to a youngster. Better bound editions are also available. If your book dealer doesn't carry them, he can obtain the wholesaler's address from the News.

By Legionaire

Our last notes went to press before we heard of the accidental death of Comrade W.A.R. Astbury. We wish to convey to his family the sympathy of all his comrades.

GAVEL

We have chartered a bus for Friday night to take a party to the Harrison Hot Springs Hotel, where Agassis have arranged for the proceedings to be held. Those who intend to go should be at the Legion parking lot by 6 p.m. We are already assured of a good turn-out, and everything points to a very enjoyable evening.

POPPY DAY

The Poppy Committee met recently to make arrangements for this year's campaign, chairman-ship of which has been taken over by Cyril Haglund. He hopes to raise a record sum this year and will be very glad to receive offers of help. We have a very large and scattered area to cover.

BONDS

The third annual draw for $5,000 of our 4 1/2% Bonds which are to be repaid on 1st November next will take place on 3rd October. Holders of bonds that are drawn will be notified as soon as possible after the draw. At the present rate of progress the Branch should be free of debt in another two years.

NEW MEMBERS

J. Provost has transferred to us from Warburg, Alberta, and L. E. D. Agassis and W. J. Leachman have rejoined.

IN HOSPITAL

J. Sogge, C. Foreman, T. J. Miller, H. Brown, J. W. Crossland are in Shaughnessy, and Mike Harman is in the Royal Columbian. Don't forget to let us know if you hear of any comrade going to hospital.

BRANCH BY-LAWS

The revised Branch By-Laws have now been approved by Pacific Command and they become effective immediately. One change that should be noted is that the Annual General Meeting, at which Officers for the following year are elected, will be held in December of each year.

The next A.G.M. will therefore be held on 12 December this year, instead of in January.

If you have not yet paid your dues for 1961 please do so now, before you forget again. Many members, especially W.V.A. and pensioners, have had substantial benefits this year as the result of Legion work. All this costs money. Don't let others have to pay your share. M.L.A. J. H. Rhodes will attend the next general meeting on October 10th, to discuss matters on which the Legion is pressing for legislation.

NATURE'S SCRAPBOOK

THE RACCOON

Insatiable curiosity is one of the outstanding characteristics of the raccoon. This and a highly gregarious nature account for the fact that the coon is one of the best known of all wild things for they frequently bring him into the outskirts of even our largest cities.

Because of the engaging mask he wears, he has been likened to the old time highwayman and this is a good comparison for he is, indeed, a bandit at heart, as anybody who has ever made a pet of one can testify with considerable feeling.

A familiar member of every farm woodlot community from coast to coast, Procyon lotor, as he is known to our game biologist friends, is an engaging Tom fool in anybody's woods, but truth compels us to state that his habit of eating almost anything he can lay his paws on has won him a place high on the "varmit" list. No henhouse or orchard is safe when he is on the prowl.

Though he exacts a constant toll from our farms and fruit lands, this chunky, medium-sized carnivore has wangled for himself a secure position in the heart of almost every nature lover by dint of sheer personality alone.

Aldergrove Principal On Conference Panel

Classroom educational television will be demonstrated to the B.C. School Trustees' Association annual convention in Vancouver.

A Grade 9 general science lesson on the production of electrical energy will be taught to 20 Vancouver School pupils whose classroom will be in the association's convention hall at Hotel Vancouver on October 4. The use of closed circuit television as a major resource in teaching aids will be presented by B.C. Telephone Company.

A temporary television studio will be established at Kitsilano High School and the actual television lesson transmitted on a closed circuit three miles to the convention hall classroom.

Two television sets will be used for the classroom and another eight sets among the 500 delegates expected to attend the convention.

The company has also arranged for educators from Canada and the United States to present a panel discussion on E.T.V. after the demonstration.

David Van Nes, of Vancouver Technical School, and F. W. Pletcher, of Magee High School, will form the teaching team. Mr. Van Nes, in the Classroom, will introduce the lesson to the pupils before Mr. Pletcher works from the studio utilizing illustrations and exhibits in front of the cameras. The classroom teacher will conclude the lesson with a follow-up discussion to the television presentation. The demonstration will be based on classroom procedures used where E. T. V. is employed in schools. One of the most advanced areas is Hagerstown, Maryland, where closed circuit television can provide up to nine channels for simultaneous use from one studio location, which can serve one or more schools.

How Small Can You Get?

Runner-up in our "I SAW" contest this week was Fred Dreger who reports an extra-ordinary example of breaking and entering. Two small boys (very small) had entered his store by climbing through an opening only eight inches across and over six feet from the ground.

"When I went over to my store to lock up for the night one evening last week, I could hear voices. When I touched the handle of the door I heard the scurry of feet across the floor inside. I decided to call my wife who came over and again we heard voices. When I unlocked the door we found two small boys inside. They had climbed in through an opening only eight inches high and 6 ft. 4 inches from the ground."

DON HANSON

Panel members will be Mrs. Marion Ricker, past president of the B.C. School Trustees' Association; J. A. Brevicek, director of television education for Cloverpark school district, Tacoma; Dr. H. L. Stein, director of graduate studies of the College of Education, University of British Columbia; Miss Margaret A. Musselman, director of B.C. School broadcasts, Department of Education; and D. M. Hanson, principal of Aldergrove, B.C., Junior-Senior High School. Chairman of the panel will be F. C. Garrett, special studies supervisor, B.C. Telephone Company.

Report from Parliament Hill

By W. A. McLennan, M. P.

An amend to the National Housing Act has been brought in, increasing by 500 million the amount of money available for loans for construction of new homes, from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

Last Fall several measures were introduced to stimulate winter construction and to encourage the highest possible level of employment in the building trades. These included a reduced rate of interest on loans to limited dividend companies providing rental accommodation for lower income families and for elderly persons. Home construction is one of the best producers of employment. Each new dwelling unit financed under this Act involves 2 1/2 man-years of employment on and off site. The N. H.A. lending for eight months this year has contributed to more than 112,000 man-years of employment, and of these, direct federal loans have been responsible for 46,000 man-years of employment.

An amendment has been brought in to increase by 100 million the funds available for Municipal Sewage Treatment Projects. Federal sewage loans have enabled many centres to extend their trunk sewage systems and either enlarge or, where none existed, establish sewage treatment plants. Sewage disposal and treatment plants have, as one of their objectives the prevention of damage to receiving waters. The damage that may be done includes contamination or pollution of water supplies, bathing places and fishing grounds. The all-out effort by municipalities in conjunction with the other levels of Government will do much to free our rivers, streams, lakes and coastal waters of the pollution problem. I might mention that under the Act the loan is limited to two thirds of the cost of the project and is repayable over a period of not more than 50 years at a rate of interest close to the Federal Borrowing rate. To encourage the Municipalities to attack the problem immediately, twenty-five per cent of the loan and the same percentage of interest paid, or accrued, will be forgiven if the project is completed before March 31, 1963. The response from the Municipalities has pointed up the urgent need for this legislation.

Also included in the amendment is the provision to increase by 50 million the amount available for loans for university housing projects. This is to assist in the construction of accommodation for full-time students in the form of either new residences or the conversion of existing building into dormitories.

The projects of this type of accommodation must consist primarily of bedrooms and sanitary facilities, although dining halls and lounges will be considered in the overall picture. The provision of dormitories for Universities has been a problem of national concern. The increasing number of scholarships, bursaries and grants has lowered many of the economic barriers to university education and has contributed to an unprecedented rise in enrolment. Construction of adequate dormitories at universities will accomplish two purposes: Firstly, those who travel many miles each day to obtain an education will be able to move to the university grounds and those living in the country and small towns who heretofore, have been denied an education because of lack of accommodation will now be able to attend university.

GETTING STARTED AS A BOWLER

Peer up and down the sports calendar, delve into the history of athletics, or just look around at what your friends are doing this evening. You won't find any sport more fascinating, more fun and occasionally more frustrating than the native Canadian sport of 5-Pin bowling.

More than two million Canadians now go bowling more or less regularly. That makes it Canada's most popular recreation, and by far the largest participant sport. Any afternoon or evening, you are liable to find a sizable number of your friends or fellow-workers among the thousands of bowlers hurling countless balls down the lanes of this country's 1,700 bowling centres.

One of the game's biggest attractions is that it is something the whole family can play at together, whatever their ages. Another is that it's the kind of game you can enjoy whether you are a beginner, or an expert.

Whether you are stepping onto the lanes for the first time, or whether you are a veteran bowler already, just looking for a few hints to tack a few points on your average score, you may be able to use some of the pointers we've picked up in our years of professional bowling.

As bowling instructors with the Double Diamond Advisory Council, the pair of us have 32 years of combined bowling experience behind us. That still doesn't mean we have all the answers. There is no "Absolutely Correct" way to bowl that we can pass on to you. But there are some methods that we have found that have proved themselves better, for most bowlers, most of the time.

CLOTHES MAKE THE BOWLER
While there is no special costume or uniform that is peculiar to bowling, that doesn't mean you don't need to bother about what you are going to wear.

Bowling is a sport—so wear sports clothes. To be able to bowl comfortably and naturally, you must wear clothing that allows you complete freedom of movement.

Any pull on your arm can throw your game off. To avoid this, men should wear a short-sleeved sports shirt of some kind. A loose T-shirt, or jersey made of material that gives easily as your body moves is ideal.

Women generally wear loose-fitting blouses. Slacks are acceptable in bowling centres, but make sure they permit your legs to move freely. If you are wearing a skirt, it should be loose-fitting so that it doesn't catch your knees.

On the other hand it shouldn't flair out from your body, or it will catch your hand as you deliver the ball. The "Walker-type" skirt manufactured especially for bowlers is popular, and can be found at pro-shops, or department stores.

The one compulsory bit of apparel is bowling shoes. You can rent these at the lanes where you bowl for 15-25 cents. But, if you intend to bowl regularly, you should buy your own shoes.

For right-handed bowlers, the left sole of bowling shoes is made of leather; the right sole is made of rubber, with a leather toe-cap. If you are left-handed, make sure you get "southpaw shoes", which have the sole material reversed. The heels of both shoes are made of white rubber, which won't mark up the approaches.

Reason for the leather sole is that you must be able to slide smoothly as you deliver the ball. The rubber, on the other sole, gives you traction as you step off, and acts as a brake at the end of the slide.

Bowling shoes are now made in all kinds of styles, to fit your fashion taste and your pocket-book. They range in price from $4 to $12. Most city major league bowlers choose an $8 pair. They'll last a once-a-week bowler for years.

Make sure your shoes fit snugly when you buy them. They are made of soft leather, which will mould itself to your foot. Some shoes have a built-in arch support; the better ones have air vents to keep your feet cool.

Incidentally, most people find wool socks better than cotton ones when bowling. Cotton tends to stick to the shoe.

A last point—don't wear your bowling shoe outside the bowling centre. Dirt or moisture on the soles not only spoils them for bowling, but will mark up the approaches.

So, now that you're dressed, you're ready to pick up that ball and take on those five wooden pegs way down at the end of that 60-foot lane.

Five Generations Help Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

A very happy elderly couple celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Saturday, here in Aldergrove.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Voigt who live at the corner of County Line and Trans-Canada Highway, next door to the service station they operated for a number of years.

Mrs. Voigt was born in Nebraska and Peter in Denmark. They married in Eugene, Oregon on September 23rd, 1911 and farmed there five years before moving to Carseland, Alberta, where they farmed for twenty years. They then decided to move to British Columbia and operated the Shell Service Station at the corner of County Line and the Highway until their retirement in 1958.

People came from far and wide for the celebration on Saturday. The Voigts' eight children were with them. Carl lives on Mt. Lehman Road, George in Edmonton and Norman on Hall's Prairie Road in Surrey. Two daughters, Mrs. J. Groves (Mabel) and Mrs. J. Nicholls (Esther) live in Carseland still. Mrs. G. Sims (Clara) makes her home in Chilliwack; Mrs. C. Salome (Ann) in New Westminster and Mrs. S. Anderson (Viola) in North Burnaby.

There are thirty grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Voigt is very proud of the fact that her mother, Mrs. Anna Wilde, from Eugene, Oregon was able to travel up for the festivities. Mrs. Wilde is 86 years of age. The family will have pictures of the five generations taken as they did on the Silver anniversary when there were also five generations present. Mrs. Voigt mentioned that their four oldest children at one time had four great-grandmothers living.

Besides their own large family Mr. Voigt said he "couldn't count the nephews, neices, in-laws and out-laws" who came. His own sister from Seattle was another close relative present.

A family dinner and gathering was held in the Patricia Community Hall on Saturday and the Voigts held "open house" at home on Sunday.

← These are the people who help Aldergrove to prosper as a community.

They are the people who realize that Aldergrove business and professional people, through the Chamber of Commerce, Fire Department, Elks and other organizations are continually striving to help better the district.

They are the people who shop locally.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE—The Major General's bevy of lovely daughters picnic in the pirates' lair in this scene from the Stratford Festival production of Gilbert and Sullivan's tuneful operetta, The Pirates of Pen-

Roy Albrechtson Weds Bride From Richmond

South Arm United Church, Richmond, was the scene of a pretty wedding on August 26 when Miss Natasha Lesik, was united in marriage to Roy Gilmore Albrechtson at a late afternoon ceremony. Rev. Connal was the officiating minister and the church was beautifully decorated with vases of pink and white gladioli. Miss Lesik is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lesik, 529 Woodwards Road, Richmond and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Albrechtson, 4020 Jackman Road, Aldergrove, B.C.

The dainty bride entered the church on the arm of her father, gowned in a floor-length white chiffon over net dress with sequin-trimmed flowers clustered on the skirt and sequins also embroidering the bodice and sleeves. A crown of pearls and rhinestones held her finger-tip veil and she carried a bouquet of miniature red roses, stephanotis and fern.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ann Lesik, as maid-of-honour, Miss Vera Omelake (her cousin) and Miss Lorraine Albrechtson (the groom's sister) as bridesmaids. Miss Lesik in yellow and the bridesmaids in mauve, all chose chiffon over taffeta gowns, with ribbon bows and net for headdresses. The maid-of-honour carried pink carnations held with mauve ribbons and the other attendants had yellow carnations with mauve ribbons.

Best man for the groom was George Lesik, while Mr. Mike Lesik and Gordon Albrechtson were the ushers.

Reception was held in Steveston Community Centre which was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and bellen. The bride's table was clothed with a three tiered wedding cake decorated with pink roses and flanked by vases of a white gladioli.

Parents of the bride and groom received the guests with them. The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue silk, trimmed and with white accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a gold-beige brocade dress with white accessories. Both had corsages of pink and white carnations.

Mike Lesik, the bride's cousin, made the toast to her, to which the groom ably responded. A telegram from Norway was received and read to the happy couple.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bymoan and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Rabitaille and daughter, and Mrs. Adrian Bymoan, all relatives of the groom, from Saskatchewan.

For her going-away costume the bride donned a dark green suit, beige and brown feathered hat and beige accessories. Edmonton was the destination of the newlyweds for their honeymoon.

Following close on another big holiday—Thanksgiving—there will likely be a number of calls for blood following serious road accidents. The blood bank is already depleted and Harold Brandon is anxious to have a good turnout this time.

Transportation will be provided by phoning in to Langley 949, Baldwin 6-7651 or the Aldergrove News.

Their next game will be held on Saturday, September 30th, against Squamish. It is the first home game and promises to be good.

The Students' Council hasn't been sleeping on it's feet either. This Friday night, the 29th, will see the first big S. C. sponsored dance of the year—Beatnik style. There will be a top-notch swinging band there, and we expect a good turnout.

Tues., the 19th, saw a crowd of 20 screaming, wildly costumed girls initiated into the Girls' Y-Teens—our school girls' service club. They were forced to kneel to every old Hi-Y member they met all day, and finished the ceremonies by being taken to Aldergrove and paraded for the benefit of the natives. Back at the school they were persuaded to eat, drink and do all sorts of gruesome things. After this, both new members and old ones settled down to the serious side of the club work.

Mrs. E. H. Ulmer Elected Head Of P-T Council

The Langley District Parent-Teacher Council met September 20 in Langley Central Activity Room, with 27 present representing 10 locals.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. O. K. Sherry in the chair. Mrs. F. C. Cudlipp installed the new slate of officers for the 1961-62 season.

The new executive members are: Past President—Mrs. O. K. Sherry; President—Mrs. E. H. Ulmer; Vice-President—Mrs. H. Foss; Secretary—Mrs. C. R. Eddy; Treasurer—Mrs. J. Gilbert; Membership—Mrs. D. G. Martens; Publicity—Mrs. C. M. Williams; Health and Hospitality—Mrs. N. Demchuck.

Mrs. Ulmer plans to attend the Western Boarder Conference to be held in Wenatchee, Washington on September 28.

Plans are well on the way for organizing a new branch in the Wix-Brown School.

A resolution from the Langley District Fire Council banning fireworks has received the full support of the Parent-Teacher Council.

Plans are near completion for the Workshop to be held in Langley in October. All executives are urged to attend and all persons interested in P.T.A. work are invited.

It was stressed that all P.T.A. members should procure themselves a copy of the P.T.A. handbook.

Aldergrove High School News

By Janina Olejnik

The first two or three weeks of school are usually pretty dull, none of the clubs have started, the teams aren't out practicing yet, and it's hard to get accustomed to sitting inside school looking out. However, things have settled back into their old grooves again. The juniors can finally find their way to class in the allotted 4 minutes and the seniors have re-discovered that Math and English get rusty over the holidays.

One thing that hasn't rusted is the enthusiasm of our football team. All through the summer these hardworking team members and their doubly hardworking coach, Don Neumann, have been out tearing up the turf and learning to tackle opposing 8 ft. tall forwards.

At our first regular Wednesday assembly, the 13th, the team appeared en masse on the stage in their brilliant turquoise and white uniforms. They were introduced by Grace Crosby, Div. 1 M.C. and duly inspected by the girls in an attempt to discover who was underneath the padding.

street and up 271st to the high school. Everything went according to plan, although some majorettes joined in the parade at the half way mark. Marching groups included the Fort Langley Firemen's Band, under conductor Roy Seney, Sea Cadets led by S/Lt. Bancroft, Langley Majorettes, Langley Junior Band under Bandmaster H. Herlihy, Aldergrove Cubs and Aldergrove High School football team.

Leading the parade this year was the Davidson family with horses from Broken Spur Riding Stable and two Shetland ponies drawing a miniature cart.

Beaver Women's Institute entered a riotous float picturing County Line Hill Billies in ridiculous costumes, while the Royal Bank in a last minute entry showed a comic piggy bank. Mention must be made of the now well-known Fort Langley Board of Trade float and a colourful entry from Tall Acres Farm.

Mrs. Mary Kiss is a guest of Mrs. Kushner in Burnaby for two weeks.

Pine Grove Garden Club met in the community hall with about fifty persons present. Highlight of the evening was the showing of colored slides by Mrs. Bruce Watson of Burnaby, of the lovely gardens in Holland, Spain and Italy and a few slides of Switzerland and England. These slides were all taken by them while she and her husband were stationed in Germany and France, while Bruce was in the Airforce.

A short business meeting followed and several vases of dahlias were on display.

EVENING CIRCLE

The Evening Circle of the Federation held its first meeting of the fall season in the hall on Monday, Sept. 18. Mrs. Snowdon was in the chair with 24 present.

The devotion was taken by Mrs. R. Beggs and Mrs. J. Reimer.

Mrs. Clark of Chilliwack, who is Literature Secretary for Fraser Presbyterial, was present and introduced the new study packet for the coming year. She gave an enthusiastic report on the two books, "Signals for the Sixties" and "Hasten the Day".

Mrs. A. J. Dodd of Murrayville then gave a short talk on the subject "Speak and Survive". Being a member of the Langley Toastmistress Club she was able to give many useful pointers on the art of impromptu speech-making, after which several members were asked to stand up and speak, showing what they had learned.

Federation business was taken up and plans made for the fall season. The biggest project on hand is the Fall Bazaar for which the enthusiastic and willing help of all the church women is asked.

BOARD OF STEWARDS

A special meeting of the Board of Stewards was held on Thursday, September 21st. Mrs. Wilma Orwick was appointed as the new custodian of the church.

Section Plan "B" was discussed and an application form for affiliation with the Fraser area was duly made out and forwarded.

We are pleased to report that a much more satisfactory house has been rented for the Minister, just behind his present residence. Movers are wanted (maybe from the Men's Club?) - furniture movers, that is!

Well Known Lady Passes

Mrs. A. R. (Iona) Peterson and Mrs. C. C. (Audrey) Reynolds have just returned from a trip to Saskatchewan necessitated by the sudden passing of their mother, Mrs. Ivan Gamble.

Mrs. Gamble was well-known to many people in Aldergrove since she and her husband were in the habit of spending each winter here in Aldergrove with their two daughters.

The late Mrs. Gamble went to bed to read, as was her habit, then took off her spectacles, went to sleep and never woke up. She was 65 years of age.

Besides her husband and two daughters she leaves three sons: A. R., Mortlach, Sask.; W. E., Vancouver; and T. J., Oxbow, Sask.; six grandchildren in Aldergrove; three in Vancouver and three in Saskatchewan.

The late Mrs. Gamble was a past member of the Order of the Royal Purple and a life member of the Emmanuel Anglican Church at Parkbeg, Sask. The funeral was held last Thursday with Rev. Portman officiating and interment was in the Anglican Cemetery at Rosedale. Broadfoot's Funeral Home, Moose Jaw, was in charge of arrangements.

Here's the Answer

Christians do not restrict their love to members of the same race, the same social standing, or even the same religion. Hear the compelling LUTHERAN HOUR topic, "Love or Else," at 12 noon on CHWK (next Sunday).

Pioneer Spends Last Years In Aldergrove

Dorothea Edna Roberts was born March 13, 1882 at Frederica, Iowa. She was the only daughter of John William Alcock and Pracilla Kinney. She had two older brothers Walter and Clarence, and a younger brother Earl.

She was raised on a small farm by parents of meager circumstances and educated at a one room school. She entered business in the millinery trade but soon left it to help her brother Clarence pioneer in a new area being opened up at Daisy, North Dakota. After a few years in that area she moved with her brother Earl to become among the first settlers of the area of Bengough, Sask. She and Earl built a sod shanty at Una post office in 1910.

She married Paul Roberts April 1st, 1915 at Bengough, Sask., and took up residence on his homestead near the present town of Big Beaver, Sask. He had been one of the first settlers in the area. Her only child Clair was born while she lived at this location.

In 1919 she moved to a cattle ranch on the "Big Muddy" between Bengough and Big Beaver where she lived for twenty years. These were years of very hard work and trials as there were always hired men to care for as well as the family. "Roberts Ranch" became half-way house known for many miles as a haven for weary, snow-bound, and bogged-down travellers. Hundreds of friends, and strangers, were fed and sheltered during these years and payment was seldom accepted.

At the end of ten years on a smaller ranch near Big Beaver she and her husband left the ranching business because their health was no longer equal to the rigorous winter work required to care for cattle. They retired to a small place near Lethbridge, Alberta where they lived for three years. After her son had moved from Utah to Seattle she came to Aldergrove where she lived during the last six years of her life.

Here was a life of pioneer experiences filled with some privation, some loneliness, a little danger, endless doing-without, and long hours of work unaided by mechanical assistance. She was representative of that now dwindling band of pioneers who pushed the last frontier across the western prairies of the United States and Canada.

She departed this life at 5:00 Sept. 22, 1961. She is survived by her husband Paul L. Roberts of Aldergrove, a son Clair L. Roberts of Seattle, Washington, and a brother Clarence O. Alcock of Crosby, North Dakota.

Funeral will be held on Thursday, September 28 at 1:30 p.m. in the Aldergrove United Church. Rev. Douglas Faris will officiate and interment will follow in the Aberdeen Cemetery. Columbia Funeral Home of Langley will be in charge of arrangements.

How do I save?

Easy come, easy go... that was me until now! But with marriage in the offing, I've become a serious saver. The secret? Two separate accounts: a Personal Chequing Account for paying bills, a Savings Account for saving.

...The "Royal" calls this its Two-Account Plan. And it has proved to me I can keep my hands off my savings, can give them a chance to grow. It's a life-saver for serious savers. Simple. Sensible. And it works! Try it.
