AROUND TOWN

by MARGARET GREEN

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gilbert (nee Carla MacCoy), former owners of this paper, are the happy parents of a new son, born February 2nd, at Surrey Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed seven lbs eight ounces.

Anyone seen a grey overcoat around, or know of its whereabouts? Peter Anson lost his about two weeks ago. He particularly wants his wallet and private papers back.

Mr. and Mrs. Cor. Hunenstyn, owners of the Aldergrove Cleaners have bought the old Fairholm home and will be moving in, in about five weeks' time.

Jock Fairholm took the last of his belongings out of the old home at 4:30 p.m. Monday and by the time he got back to do some cleaning up at 8:30 p.m. someone had kicked in the back door and stolen the telephone! The only thing left in the house!

Thought Ernie Sing must be taking a well earned holiday but found out he was down with a bout of the 'flu.

Several of us around the office were surprised to learn that Larry MacIntosh Sr., is credited with having a grown up married daughter! We didn't think he was old enough but you never can tell. P.S. He always says he's 23.

Some excellent news shots of the first aid examinations at Aldergrove High School were seen on CBUT on Monday evening. There were a couple of good pictures of the school, too. Even "yours truly" could be seen stalking across the gym.

Have any of you read the small print on the "BLUE CHIP" stamps? It makes interesting reading and was pointed out to me by a young high school friend. The stamps are good ONLY at the store from which they are obtained.

Am pleased to hear that the high school spring entertainment this year will be selections from "South Pacific"—my favourite musical.

I understand the old fire hall has now been given to the Aldergrove Scout Troop and will be located at H.M.C.S. Aldergrove.

* * *

Mr. R. L. MacCoy has returned from way down those cold Prairies. Mr. MacCoy was glad to get back to the banana belt. Just too cold for him now-

Aldergrove Girls First To Receive C.D. Awards

The gymnasium at Aldergrove High School was a hive of activity on Monday morning. Some 72 girl students at the high school were taking examinations in various aspects of Fundamental First Aid, as required by the Civil Defence.

These students had been instructed by Mrs. Norma Myers, girls' counsellor at the high school and were ready for their tests by doctors and specialists. Dr. R. Most and Dr. H. K. Kennedy each took four students at a time for oral examinations. Mrs. E. Friberg examined in Artificial respiration. Mrs. F. Blake was examiner for the control of bleeding section. Mr. F. Blake and Mr. Bob Watson examined in bandaging and splinting. Total marks obtainable was 100. Mrs. W. E. Rogers and Dr. S. P. Findlay recorded and totalled the marks.

The examinations were all under the organization of Mr. W. E. Rogers, Civil Defence Co-ordinator for the municipality of Langley. This was yet another "first" in all Canada for Mr. Rogers and his Civil Defence set-up and he was high in his praise of the co-operation he had received from the school principal, Don Hanson, Mrs. Myers, the instructor, the doctors who examined and the laymen and women who also gave of their time and talents to examine the young people. The students had been organized into three classes of 34, 24 and 14 for instruction purposes.

A short time ago another "first" for all Canada in the Civil Defence was a display by young firemen who had taken a course in fire fighting. They gave a demonstration at Fort Langley and this was on CBUT television. The examinations on Monday morning were also televised. Also present to witness the activities was Col. J. Littlehales, Zone Co-ordinator from Vancouver who appeared keenly interested as he travelled from group to group.

In a few weeks time a similar number of boys, under the instruction of Mr. Alex Goostrey of the high school staff, will undergo examinations in the same way.

140 young people trained as these have been constitute a large source of manpower available in an emergency. They are a valuable asset to the community, and Mr. Rogers can be proud of his efforts, and their success.

Aldergrove Phones Increase

Aldergrove phones increased by 99 during 1961, bringing the total to 1807.. For comparison, Castlegar has a total of 1940 phones in its exchange and Creston has 1900.

Aldergrove's total is getting close to half of Langley's total, 4027.

During 1961 British Columbia Telephone Company passed the 90 percent mark for dial phones in its system. There was a net increase of 20,992 in all types of instruments, and the grand total for the year was 568,022.

The area covers 360,000 square miles and the average business day local calling reached the huge total of 3,565,000 calls compared with 3,390,000 in 1960.

Total long distance calls for the year amounted to 18,344,527, compared with 17,488,770 in 1960.

First impression on walking into the gym at Aldergrove High School on Monday was that some sort of disaster had happened. On the one hand, groups of students were being bandaged and on the other people were undergoing "artificial respiration". It all appeared very realistic at first glimpse. Everyone was busy-that's for sure!

Library Board Reduces Per Capita Levy

At the annual meeting of the Board of Management of the Fraser Valley Regional Library, held Wednesday January 24, the per capita levy for library tax was reduced from 70c to 65c. The adoption of the 1961 census population figures brought an increase of 66,000 over the 1956 figures previously used and the Board felt that a reduction of 5c per head would provide enough money to finance the library's operations for the coming year. Officers re-elected for 1962 were:

Chairman: Reeve W. R. Jack, Mission; Vice-Chairman: Reeve Peter Jenewein, Maple Ridge; Hon. Treasurer: Commissioner M. M. Shore, Abbotsford.

Named to the Executive Committee were:

Councillor W. Fomich, Surrey; Reeve Clarence Taylor, Delta; Reeve J. Fraser, Kent; Reeve Harold Sutton, Pitt Meadows; Councillor J. F. Spencer, Chilliwack; Councillor Noel Booth, Langley; Councillor A. Blair, Richmond; Mrs. Mary Friesen, Chilliwack School Board.

A budget of $176,000 was approved for the coming year.

JUMP UPWARD IN BUILDING PERMITS

Building permits for Langley Municipality took a big jump upward during the first month of January 1962.

There were 40 permits issued for a total of $196,686 as compared with 26 permits in January of 1961, totalling $132,916.

Permits this January were for 10 new dwellings ranging up to $15,000 and two commercial buildings valued up to $25,000. One of the latter was for the new bowling alley in Aldergrove and the other covered a manufacturing and retailing building on Carvolth Road, south of Langley.

RED CROSS NEEDS YOUR HELP

1962 Offers Challenge To Free Enterprise—Taylor

In a statement issued in Abbotsford on his return from the B.C. Conservative Provincial Executive Meeting in Vancouver on Saturday, Douglas Taylor, Executive Member at large and Fraser Valley Riding President, urged Fraser Valley Conservatives to step up activities in their Local Associations.

"1962 offers the greatest challenge to Free Enterprisers, he stated. "Failure of the Socred administration in Victoria to keep its mandate with the people, coupled with the danger of creeping Socialism, points out the need for full support of Conservative National Development on one hand, and serious thought by everyone—to strong Leadership Provincially to fill the political vacuum in the Provincial Legislature."

"Creeping Socialism, Taylor continued, along with ever-growing Monopoly control of our provincial resources is forcing starvation on our Farmers, small and medium businessmen, loggers, truckers, in fact all free enterprisers, not to mention the staggering tax load required to meet the interest servicing of contingent liabilities."

DOUGLAS TAYLOR

"Since Provincial Leadership of the B.C. Conservative Party will be resolved in 1962, Taylor concluded, Conservative Free Enterprisers throughout the Fraser Valley and British Columbia must participate in chosing a Provincial Leader who will lead our Province to Free Enterprise Conservatism, and save B.C. from Monopoly Control and Socialism."

New Fire Radio Alarm System Demonstrated

A radio manufacturing firm tested a fire alarm system in this district last Wednesday evening.

All fire alarms in the municipality will shortly be controlled from a master station at the R.C.M.P. headquarters, Livingstone Road and Trans Canada Highway. There will be 24-hour protection throughout the municipality, with a civilian operating the equipment. Three phones will be available and there should be no busy signals.

It will also be possible for this master station to direct the fire fighting equipment to another fire in the vicinity without first returning to its own station. Fire engines will be radio equipped and in constant communication with the base.

Demonstration cars were touring the municipality on Wednesday evening and the base station for the occasion was the Aldergrove Fire Hall. Chief Fred Dams said communication was as clear as a bell from River Road and Fort Langley, except for the hill near Armstrong Road, by the river. Reception faded while the car was rounding the hill and the same thing happened at the jumped-off on Jackman Road south. Otherwise, it was excellent.

The new alarm system has to be installed by September of this year and will likely be in by August the Chief said.

Council To Discuss Brief

At the last council meeting a brief was presented by Mr. A. L. Cartier, Secretary of the Recreation Commission. The written brief requested Council participation in the payment of a $50 per month salary for a Rereaetion Director.

The Brief Read As Follows:

1. "We receive requests for assistance in organizing such things as coaching clinics in various sports. To meet these requests we need someone with time to do the organization work required. The Department of Education will pay a salary for special coaching. All we need is someone to organize it locally.

2. "The organization of soft ball and soccer leagues requires long time planning and coordination. We need someone to call together the interested parties in sufficient time to organize each season.

3. "We can receive special grants for swimming instruction and track and field coaching. These things require organization. Unless there is someone to do this the children of our community will be deprived of such financial help.

4. "There are many potential volunteer workers in the field of recreation. Such persons need to be sought out and encouraged. Facilities must be arranged for them to do their work. The Recreation Commission therefore needs someone to give this assistance.

5. "Federal assistance will be given in the near future for the development of physical fitness among our youth. This money will be given to organizations capable of using these funds intelligently. Unless our Commission gets a good programme of athletics going it can hardly expect to have any claim on such federal grants".

The matter was tabled for later discussion by the Council.

Duties of a recreation director usually include all types of recreation, not sports alone, though these form the major part of recreation in the district.

Pole Falls On Bob Langton

Bob Langton, 54 year old dairy farmer of LeFeuvre Road South was injured in a more or less freak accident last Tuesday afternoon while helping a neighbour erect a large pole which was to be used for a yard light. The two men had lifted the pole and thought it to be in place when suddenly it slipped, knocking Mr. Langton to the ground.

Mr. Langton was taken to M.S.A. Hospital by ambulance, and according to family reports he is suffering from a broken pelvis bone and is expected to be hospitalized for two months.

Population High Here

The Lower Mainland Regional Planning Board recently held their annual meeting and heard the Chairman's report. In it he stated that the population of this area is now 800 people per square mile and that this is higher than the population ratio in Japan, Holland and other countries that are supposed to have very dense population ratios.

Committee To Consider Suggestion

Art Dingley represented the Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce at the Council meeting held on January 29th.

ART DINGLEY

On behalf of the Chamber he suggested that a proposed map and municipal advertising board be erected near the Aldergrove customs and port-of-entry on the Aldergrove-Bellingham Highway.

A committee of three comprised of Councillors Flowerdew Roberts and Booth, will meet with representatives of Aldergrove Chamber of Commerce, Langley Chamber of Commerce, and the Fort Langley Board of Trade, to consider the matter.

I SAW

Each week this paper offers a prize for the best humourous or unusual happening or incident any of our readers experience. It is called the "I Saw" contest and the winner each week receives two tickets donated by Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre and each month, for the best of the month, two Chinese dinners donated by the Aldergrove Hotel Cafe.

"I saw" tact and diplomacy at its best the other day.

While serving coffee to company, my 2½-year-old grandson, "unbeknownst" to us had poured a full salt shaker into the sugar bowl, and not being coffee drinkers all took a good quantity of sugar (?) and drank this revolting brew without a word!

The only ones lacking the diplomatic approach were my grandson, who pushed his away saying, "I don't like coffee", and myself. After three fresh tries, I found the reason for the taste! But it was amusing seeing the company drink this vile stuff politely—and don't let anyone tell you the "gentle art" of politeness is lost—because "I saw" it is not!

RULES ARE MADE TO BE KEPT

Society makes rules for people to live by and if they are ignored, someone suffers. Not always the person responsible for breaking the rules is the one to suffer most, and at times this seems very unfair.

Families of children are lost because parents do not recognize their responsibilities. Car accidents happen because a few people think they can get away with breaking traffic regulations. In some cases they are killed and so escape the consequences. At other times they, or their parents, if they are minors, must suffer for life to pay off claims. They may have to suffer injury to themselves sometimes.

We have recently heard of a twenty-year-old who rolled his car while impaired. Besides the damage to the car, there was a stiff fine and now he finds it will cost him $400 a year to renew his insurance. If the hot-heads on the road would check over results of other infractions of the rules, there might be a possibility of checking the severe accidents.

After many contacts with young drivers who have taken the driving course through the high school, the writer has been deeply impressed with their knowledge of ALL the rules, and their condemnation of careless and risky drivers on the roads. Their instructors have done an excellent job. For the small amount of money spent, the benefits to both drivers and society in general are hundredfold. The value of the course is evident when insurance companies make a reduction for young people who have taken this course. It should be available in every high school.

Winter Safe Driving Tips

During the winter months, the fatality toll takes a sudden jump as early darkness and slippery roads combine to make driving conditions the most hazardous of the year.

Safe winter driving demands care on the part of the driver.

The following suggestions are to the motorist to ensure him of safe driving:

1. Slow down. "Normal" speeds are excessive on slippery streets.
2. Watch carefully for pedestrians who may be dressed in dark clothes and unable to see because of scarves and parkas.
3. If you expect to do a considerable amount of driving under adverse conditions, invest in snow tires or chains.
4. If your car skids, turn your wheels in the direction of the skid but do not use your brakes.
5. When stopping on a slippery surface, pump your brakes rather than appyling steady pressure.
6. To start on an icy surface, use second or high gear to maintain traction.
7. If you are not sure if the road is slippery, try your brakes while travelling not faster than five or ten miles an hour.
8. Beware of slippery spots beneath bridges or overpasses where the sun has not melted the ice.
9. Make sure that your car's manifold, muffler and tailpipe are in good condition. Each winter many are suffocated by carbon monoxide which seeps into tightly closed cars.

British Columbia's forest industries contribute about 50 per cent of the provincial income. Last year's output of forest products was valued at almost three quarters of a billion dollars—$738,360,000 to be exact.

Report from Parliament Hill

By W. A. McLennan, M. P.

We are back to the lonely life of living in Ottawa, for the opening of the Fifth Session of Canada's Twenty-fourth Parliament.

The speech from the throne, which outlines some of the Government's legislative program was interesting and quite well received in most quarters.

It is said that one of the most important aspects of Canada is an abundance of low cost power. The proposal is made whereby the Provincial and Federal Governments will study the feasibility of creating a national power grid. With the different time zones across the nation, it would allow hydro electric power to be transmitted from one area to another when the demand of industry and domestic users were the highest. It is possible a national grid may be economically feasible much sooner than we had thought possible.

The Old Age Pension is to be increased to $65.00 per month which is paid entirely by the Federal Government. They are proposing the same increase in pensions for the blind, disabled and those in need between the ages of sixty-five and sixty-nine which are jointly financed by the two senior Governments.

Extension of the benefits Act and other improvements in under the War Veterans Land the Veteran's Charter are forecast. Under no circumstance can these proposals be classified as charity. It is our countries debt to those gallant men and women who fought and sacrificed so much for our freedom and way of life in the two World Wars and to our senior citizens who pioneered and developed our Nation which we are so proud of today.

After the concurrence of the Provinces for an amendment to the British North America Act has been secured, legislation will be introduced for a contributory system of Old Age Pensions and related survivors and disability benefits which will be in addition to the existing Old Age Pension legislation and will take into account private pension arrangements and the need for legislation concerning portability of pension rights.

Other measures which will help to enlarge employment by stimulating economic activity will include a bill to increase the total amount of financing of exports which can be undertaken by the export credits insurance Corporation and an amendment to broaden the scope of the small business Loans Act. We do not know how long this Session will last, but before it is over I hope to have legislation passed setting up an enlarged Fraser River Harbour Commission with wider representation and jurisdiction over deep sea shipping from Mission to the river mouth. It will be charged with the responsibility of assisting industrial development and port facilities in what is designed to be one of the finest fresh water ports in the world. What strikes one more forceably than anything else is the feeling of optimism which prevails around here. Our exports are at an all time high, we have a trading surplus and more Canadians employed than ever before in history.

With a realistic export policy and a progressive national development program we Canadians can look forward to a much brighter economic picture in the years ahead.

Wishing you all a healthy, happy and prosperous 1962.

Aldergrove High School News

by JANINA OLEJNIK

This morning saw our first fire drill of 1962, an event lasting one minute and forty seconds, and necessitating a dash into the cold. One poor soul even ventured out in his bare feet, presumably a fugitive from P.E. showers. Maybe he should count himself lucky that he didn't have to choose between appearing in a towel or staying in and burning!

The Annual's contest for original ideas closed Friday with the staggering total of 4 suggestions. Anyone complains about the Annual this year had better think twice—you all had a chance to suggest something to improve it. Final winner had not been announced when this was written.

You all still have a chance to help the Annual and win some money at the same time. All budding photographers submit five pictures of any phase of school life. $5 for this, too.

This is the first announcement of a contest for renaming this column. All suggestions are welcome. Just drop them in the "Aldergrove News" letter drawer. A prize is forthcoming, I hope. At any rate, my loyal fans, show your worth by putting in some intelligent suggestions.

Public Speaking contest dates have been announced as February 13th for the juniors and February 14th for the seniors. Books and cups are the prizes, as in former years.

HOW TO BOWL FIVEPINS

by Bert Garside and Jim Hoult
Chief Bowling Instructors
Double Diamond Advisory Council

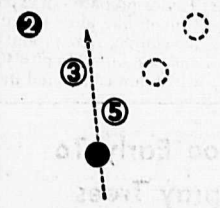
HOW TO MAKE SPARES

The difference between a "good bowler" and a "top-notch" bowler hangs on the second shot in the frame. The top-notcher is the bowler who can consistently pick up spares.

It is quite possible to run up a 280 score in a game, and never score a single strike. Naturally, every strike helps. But it's the bowler who can pick up spares who usually comes out on top.

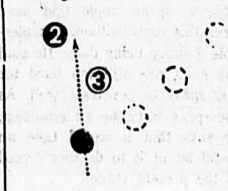
Many bowlers tighten up nervously when they see corner pins or a two-pin chop-off staring them in the face. Just remember, when you are rolling for a spare use the same delivery you use for the headpin—you just switch your point of aim.

A corner pin is the most common "leave", here are the remaining possibilities and the way to spare them up:



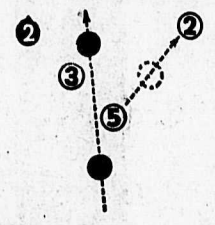
5—3—2 LEAVE

This is the second most common leave. Aim to hit on the inside of the headpin. This ensures you some pinfall even if you miss your target, and decreases your chances of blowing by leaving the counter pin standing.



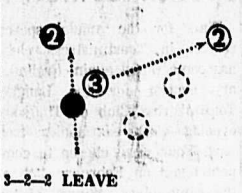
3—2 LEAVE

This, too, is a common combination. It's called a chop-off. Aim to hit inside of the 3-Pin. If you aim straight at it, and "pick" it out, you may have set yourself up to blow" the frame.



5—3—2—2 LEAVE

It is possible to spare this by hitting on the outside of the headpin—but very risky. It is best to shoot inside the headpin, so the ball carries the 3 and 5 pins, and the flying headpin carries the corner 2-Pin.



3—2—2 LEAVE

This is called a split. If it is standing on the left side of the lane, try for a spare by aiming on the inside of the counter pin, thus cutting the 3—Pin across to take out the other corner. If the split is on the right side of the lane—just forget about that spare. Go for the counter pin first.

2—2 LEAVE

Called "Aces-Up", and again forget about trying to spare. A kick-back from the back-board. spare can come from a lucky kick-back from the back-board.

2—2—3—3 LEAVE

If you've picked the headpin, disregard the left 3-Pin. Concentrate on hitting the counter—and you may take out the 3-Pin too. It is silly to gamble 12 points on the chance of scoring an extra three points. For your third ball, aim to hit the right 3-Pin heavily, to be sure if it, and hope the 2-Pin goes also. But remember not to speed up your ball trying to make these spares. Otherwise you will likely lose control.

Biggest bargain here is the gasoline

You don't buy gasoline off the shelves in your supermarket, but if you did you'd find Esso one of the cheapest items.

Motorists throughout B.C. buy Esso gasoline for an average price of only 6 1/10 cents a pound. Compared with other commodities in everyday use that's a real bargain.* Of the 6 1/10 cents paid per pound for Esso gasoline, two cents is for federal and provincial taxes that provide such things as social services and new highways. To help bring you this bargain, Imperial Oil is searching for oil in northern B.C. ...drilling wells which will bring B.C. oil to B.C. customers ...has built a modern refinery near Vancouver, new pipe lines, modern marketing facilities. To do these things Imperial has invested more than $80,000,000 in B.C. since 1951 alone.

And yet Imperial receives less on the average for the Esso gasoline it sells today than it did ten years ago... and Esso gasoline today is much more powerful than ten years ago.

*Here's how the price of Esso gasoline compares with the average market price of some other commodities in B.C.

Esso gasoline	6 cents per pound
Table salt	9 cents per pound
Flour	12 cents per pound
Apples	12 cents per pound
Soft drinks	12 cents per pound
Milk	9 cents per pound

Aldergrove High School News

by JANINA OLEJNIK

Our next four assemblies are special talent assemblies. Nootka had the first crack at the audience last Friday with their House Talent. M.C.'s Grace Crosby and Kathie Arkinstall alternated with annuoncements.

Nootka's programme consisted of: "You're the Reason", by the Nootka ensemble (Karline Johansen, Florence Thiessen, Helen Limpright, Alice Hoock, Verna Radons, Alice Harvey, Elsie Penner and Irene Friesen); Allan Brown, accordian solo; Elsie Hildebrandt, piano solo; Norman Friesen, accordian solo; Peter Gubbe and Lyle Cazes, violin and guitar duet; Bruce Bradford, accordian solo; Lila Gubbe and Elsie Penner, duet; The Nootka House cheerleaders, Leona Priester, Elaine Kristoff, Deone McLeod and Linda Ollinger, gave a few rousing cheers, supposedly for audience participation. The audience reacted by sitting on their hands and keeping their mouths shut like clams. One of the best items on the programme was the Nootka Girls' Ensemble in costume and their singing of "Shortnin' Bread". The girls did have a mite of trouble removing the face blackening but it looked authentic from the bleachers.

No response as yet to my request for questions. I'm glad to see everyone knows everything—or aren't you interested?

Guidance 20 and 30 girls were tested on First Aid Principles by a group of doctors early Monday morning. Details next week.

Tuesday assembly will feature the choir from the Jericho Hill School for the Blind. This group was out here two years ago and were much appreciated by the audience.

One light comment—what's wrong with the medical room scales? Rumour has it that everyone has suddenly shrunk 2" and gained 4 lbs.—all this in two weeks! If this keeps up medical authorities will have to notified. Probably the result of fall-out.

Too Early To Spray Trees

Some local people have been getting a little worried over the large number of caterpillar rings on their trees again this year, and feel that spraying should already be under way.

Asked for his opinion, District Horticulturist Ian Carne of Abbotsford said that it is only possible to spray apple and pear trees this early without considerable damage being done. He said the rings are still too hard for any spray to penetrate well. As the spray must be an emulsion, he says that it would take an awful lot of it to do much good at the present stage.

For those who wish to spray now, before growth has started, on apple and pear trees only, Mr. Carne gave the quantities required for the spray, 5 gallons of water, 1½ pints of lime and 1 pint of dormant oil emulsion.

Mr. Carne advises it is far better to wait until hatching time and spray all fruit trees with D.D.T. He considers this far more effective.

Mr. Carne also stated that it was not nearly cold enough this winter to have any effect on the caterpillar eggs. He says they still survive in a temperature of 40 below.

Don't Wrinkle Your Fenders!

Want to get through your winter driving without wrinkling your fenders, or even worse?

Driving safely on icy or snow-covered roads requires far more sensitive car handling than the average motorist uses on dry surfaces. Winter driving calls for a lighter touch on brake, accelerator and steering wheel.

Here are some suggestions by theB.C. Automobile Association for safer winter driving:

°Accelerate slowly and gradually to avoid spinning tires and wheels.

°When possible, avoid situations in which a quick stop is necessary. Pump brakes as you stop to maintain steering control and prevent car from going into a skid.

°Plan to negotiate corners so that you won't have to give the steering wheel a sudden yank in one direction.

If your car should go into a skid, turn the steering wheel gently in the direction the vehicle is skidding. After directional control is obtained, reduce speed by braking and return to original path of travel.

A wise motorist will invest in a good set of snow tires for winter driving, says the BCAA.

Wood is an ideal structural material because it retains its high strength qualities under a wide range of conditions or rapid changes of temperature. Tests have shown that wood is even stronger at 300 degrees below zero than at 70 degrees above.

Forest products are the only building materials which are replaced by nature as rapidly as they are used. No other building material can make such a claim.

Legislative Report

By JIM RHODES, M.L.A. (Delta)

Residents of Delta will be pleased to know that my colleague, Mrs. Camille Mather is progressing favourably—her voice has returned and she is again able to assme her activities in the Legislature.

The past week was relatively quiet as the Throne Debate speeches continue. I had the opportunity of speaking early in the debate, and at that time presented many of the serious problems affecting this riding, the most important being land assessments in Richmond, Delta and Surrey. Trans-Canada Highway crossings in Langley, lack of access lanes in Whalley, social welfare, and the need for additional park facilities, were among my chief topics.

The House was shocked last week by the sudden passing of George Hobbs, the six foot six member from Revelstoke. George sat beside me in caucus and near me in the House, and his death was a stunning personal blow, not only to myself, but to all members of the Legislature. He was liked by everyone.. This Parliament will not be the same without Mr. Hobbs, and certainly all members will be deeply affected for the duration of this Session.

On Friday, February 9th, Premier Bennett will bring down his budget which will disclose the principal expenditures for the coming year.

There are few rumours as to surprises and the general opinion is that the budget will be the same as last year.

No important new legislation by way of Bills has been introduced to date. This should be forthcoming shortly.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAS GOOD YEAR

The Dunn Memorial Presbyterian Church held their annual business meeting in the church hall last Friday evening, with a good attendance. Rev. J. N. Allan of the Newton Presbyterian Church was Chairman, and Dr. John Ross, dean of St. Andrew's Hall a U.B.C. was guest speaker and represented Presbytery. Mrs. A. G. Ryder was nominated as secretary for the evening.

Reports were encouraging, with all bills paid, and a substantial sum on hand in each

Treasurer's report was given by Mr. P. Edge as was also the S.S. report. Mrs. S. Borselein reported for the Women's Group, Mrs. M. Hanna for the W.M.S. Mrs. F. Threlfall for the Home Mission Fund and J. C. Cherry for the Board of Managers.

The Sunday School attendance had increased by 9 new scholars during the year.

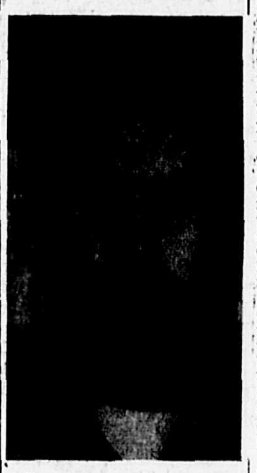
Change Of Name For Langley Firm

A well known Langley firm has been re-organized just recently and is expanding its service to customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanchez, De Laval agents in Langley and proprietors of Langley Air Cooled Motors, have made announcements which will interest all farmers in this area.

The first announcement concerns the change of name for their business to Langley Dairy Equipment.

Secondly, they have appointed a young man of ability to operate a panel delivery truck for them.



The young man is Bryan Arthur, pictured above, who has a considerable knowledge of farmers and their problems. Mr. Arthur came to B.C. three years ago and has been engaged in dairy farming ever since.

Born and raised on a large dairy farm in Manitoba, this young man is familiar with all forms of dairy farming and operation. He has also had considerable experience in showing cattle, at the P.N.E. as well as the smaller shows.

Mr. Arthur will make regular calls on the farmers and his information and experience will be at their service. Although he is already well known to many farmers throughout the lower mainland many more will shortly be able to make his acquaintance.

SHOWER HONOURS MRS. MERVIN MEYER

Neighbours and friends of the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Meyer gave a shower for the young bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Meyer on January 25th.

The former Irene Barbondy sat under a decorated umbrella which showered pink and white streamers. She was assisted in opening her gifts by her mother, Mrs. Tony Barbondy, her sister Bertha, and Mrs. Alex Meyer.

Approximately 40 guests were present.

Do You Know?

Somebody once remarked that "There is more than one way to skin a cat."

The late Governor Charles M. Paine of Vermont, had no particular interest in skinning cats as far as anybody has ever recorded. Because most of his time was devoted to politics with banking, hotel operations and railroading as side lines, the good governor knew there was more than one way to profitably and legally operate a railroad back in the 1840's when money was hard to come by and legislative bodies were forever throwing stumbling blocks in the path of budding public utilities.

In addition to serving as Governor of Vermont, Paine was the first president of the Vermont Central Railroad, the initial "parent" of the present Central Vermont Railway which operates through New England linking Canada with southern New England and the Atlantic Seaboard States.

Business was pretty good on Governor Paine's Vermont Central Railroad, more than a century ago, but it would have been better if Vermont State Sabbath laws hadn't prohibited the operation of passenger trains on Sundays. The law said the railroad could operate six days a week, but not on the Sabbath.

If folks wanted to travel on Sundays they had two ways of doing it—on foot or in a horse-drawn vehicle.

This was all well and good but it didn't help much in permitting Governor Paine and his stockholders to keep the cash registers from gathering dust and rust on the first day of each week.

What to do about this situation?

Well, there wasn't much that could be done with the law as it was with the stern and fee-hungry constables and sheriffs on hand to insist upon strict enforcement.

However quick-thinking and shrewd Governor Paine and his friends finally found a way out.

Through friendly law makers, legislation was introduced and passed by the Vermont State Legislature that amended the "no train travel" Sunday law.

The amendment provided that trains could only be operated on Sunday if there was a Bible in at least one coach of the train.

The amendment further provided that not only must the passenger train be equipped with a Bible, carried in a specially constructed rack, when running on a Sunday but that the conductor at some time during the run must read a chapter of the Scriptures to the passengers.

If these two provisions of the amendment were met, Governor Paine or anybody else that had one could run a passenger train on Sunday through the Green Mountain State in perfect and full accord with the law.

Available records indicate that it didn't take long for the Vermont Central people to buy a supply of Bibles and install them in special racks in the passenger coaches. And conductors dutifully read a Chapter from the Scriptures each Sunday morning as the cars hauled by wood-burning locomotives of the pre-Civil War era, meandered along through the valleys of Vermont's Green Mountain State. KIRK'S BEST FRIEND—Every little boy loves a fire fighter. To Kirk Couthier, one of the thousands of victims of muscular dystrophy, men like Firefighter Harry Wilson are very special friends. Results of he 1961 March for Muscular Dystrophy announced at the annual meeting of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada showed that firefighters had helped raise a record $390,000.00 The money will finance MDAC's research programme aimed at finding a cure. The human body contains a pound or more of salt.
To keep up this vital stock pile of salt, the average person normally needs 10 grams of salt daily. Under conditions of heat, violent exercise, or hard work, which induce perspiration, you'll need a great deal more.

Carstensen's Construct Truck Campers In Aldergrove

CARL CARSTENSEN DISPLAYS NEW TRUCK CAMPER

Yet another business is getting established in the Aldergrove vicinity. It is that of Modernistic Products and is situated just beyond Aberdeen Road, east, on the T. C. Highway.

Modernistic Products is a business with two parts, commercial, residential and farm construction on the one hand, and truck tops, campers, trailers, etc. as the other part.

Fred Carstensen is the senior partner who looks after the construction side of the business with headquarters in Abbotsford. Carl Carstensen, the son and junior partner, looks after the truck top construction. This is the part being developed in Aldergrove.

Carl has a lifetime experience in cabinet making, etc., and builds all types of truck campers which are so popular with hunters and campers today. The truck camper pictured above is fully equipped with cupboards, a 50 lb. icebox, 3-burner propane stove arborite counter top, spring-filled seats and folding table, which convert into a double bed at night. These campers have hardwood interiors, 3 lighting systems, lino tile floor sliding windows with screens and fibreglass insulation throughout. The outside is heavy gauge, painted aluminum.

This is only one type of truck top. He also makes overcab campers in three 8 foot, and one 10 foot models. Besides these, there are regulation truck tops, custom made trailers and commercial vans. Carl also does repairs when requested.

Last year, Modernistic Products turned out 15 truck campers and they have agents in Burns Lake and Princeton.

Carl Carstensen is married and has four children, one in school and three pre-schoolers. He is seen in the picutre, standing beside the truck top.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

Don't Wait

If you haven't already done so, get rid of your Christmas tree. If permitted by city law, chop it up and burn it in the proper container. A dried-out tree is a fire hazard.

STRICTLY FRESH

The weather man could also be called the best paid writer of American fiction.

A road map is the motorists' book of etiquette—it shows them which fork to use.

A sign seen on a country road read: Drive carefully—there isn't a hospital in 50 miles.

A run-down apartment is where persons pay good dollars for bad quarters.

To tell how old some women are, one has to read between the lines.

THE SAYING OF THE BOOK

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. Th. 4:4.

Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground for it is time to seek the Lord.

Till He come and seek righteousness the narrative of the gospel is Salvation to set us up on high.

Do You Know?

Nobody can visit Winnipeg, Manitoba, without seeing and admiring "Golden Boy."

Rising above downtown Winnipeg, a few blocks from the Fort Garry Hotel, on the top of the Legislative Building, "Golden Boy," a five-ton, thirteen and one-half foot figure, has done more traveling in his lifetime than most folks.

He is a youthful figure—symbol of the spirit of enterprise and eternal youth and like Hermes, Manitoba's "Golden Boy" is a runner — for this great western Canadian Province is not content to stand still.

"Golden Boy" faces north, where Manitoba's future lies. He looks to the new Northland; not the dreary wastes, but to the great Precambrian Region with its wealth of mineral resources, fish, forests, furs, water power and a great seaport on Hudson Bay — Churchill — as well as a vast unspoiled vacationland.

The "Boy" is poised on his left foot and the tip of the torch he carries in his right hand is 255 feet above the ground. In the curve of his left arm rests a golden sheaf of wheat, which is symbolic of the rich agricultural land fed by the mighty Red River which is a vital and flowing part of Winnipeg's life.

The work of the French sculptor, Charles Gardet, "Golden Boy" was fashioned to complete the design of the imposing Manitoba Legislative Buildings. No sooner had "Golden Boy" taken form in the Barbizienne works in France, than the foundry was wrecked by the enemy bombers of World War I. The "Boy" alone emerged unharmed from the wreckage.

Then "he" was rushed to a French port and placed aboard a ship scheduled to sail to Canada. Before setting sail, however, the ship was commandeered for the transport of supplies and troops.

"Golden Boy" voyaged back and forth, through submarine infested waters in the North Sea, the Atlantic, the Mediterranean and the English Channel. Not for several years did "he" finally disembark at a pier in New York Harbor.

Eventually "he" completed his long trip from Paris to Winnipeg, snugly bedded down in a Canadian National Railways freight car.

Reaching Winnipeg, "Golden Boy" was triumphantly hoisted to the top of the new Legislative Building — where, clad in 23 carat gold, "he" glistens enchantingly in the rays of a prairie sunset — the symbol of Manitoba's youth and progressive attitude. FNS
