AROUND TOWN

By—Earl Hockin

OUR EDITOR

Mr. Pete Swensson has had a new challenge for the "Langley Walk". 39 year old Louisa Dem ker, who came from Holland is used to walking. How about a 50 mile walk she says! How's that for initiative?

* * *

Did you know—that between 273 St. and 271 St. there are 24 telephone poles.

* * *

A "Bake Sale" in one of the neighboring towns will be held in—of all places—a laundermat. I wonder if they will be selling sponge cakes?

* * *

While strolling down the side walks in Aldergrove, my eye was attracted to an elderly gentle man who had approached a dog tied in front of a store. The man was sobbingly consoling the little fellow. From my vantage point I was merely amazed—and a bit amused.

* * *

* * *

Our fair town is blessed by the coming of spring. While walking about Aldergrove in the rain, I noticed that the daffodils were beginning to poke their noses up in the flower boxes.

In March of this year, Educa tion Week will again be observ ed. The purpose of this week is to gain a wider public under standing and participation in the objectives, the problems and the achievements of the educa tional system.

I suggest that this be obser ved the year round. I am con stantly amazed that the older generation fails to realize the need of more schools until their own children suffer by going on shifts.

What member of the regular News staff was driving illegally with 1962 license plates?

* * *

Talk about the working man's Reeve. The other day when Re eve Poppy came to the office and handed me "The Message from the Reeve" I did not recognize him. In his coveralls and plaid shirt he was no typical politician.

* * *

Oh. Mr. Hanson if only you knew of all your wandering stu dents. Take heed R. and J.

This week's picture puzzle was not gues sed. The person who guesses it this week will win two subscrip tions—one for himself as well as one for a non subscriber. Here is a clue—think of the song "Daisy, Daisy."

Fire Disaster Averted By Brigade's Quick Action

A child playing with a lighter almost resulted in the destruction of the E. W. Noonan home at 3022 Coghlan Road, on Wednesday February 27th

Mrs. Noonan was in the barn at the time the fire broke out. Her pre school child found a lighter and through playing with it managed to ignite a mattress in an upstairs bedroom.

Upon noticing the smoke Mrs. Noonan rushed to the house, only to find the heat and smoke unbearable. She dashed to a neighbor's and called the fire department.

The Aldergrove fire department received the call at 11:50 a.m and were on the scene minutes later. Upon investigating it was found that the heat was so intense that the source of the fire was difficult to approach.

After some time the fire was brought under control and extinguished. The bedroom was gutted and a hole burnt through the floor. Damage to the room was about $500 and was partially covered by insurance.

COLLECTION RETURNS FOR SWIMMING POOL COMING IN VERY WELL

Collections for the new swim ming pool have now passed the $2,500 figure, from various busi nesses in the Aldergrove area.

House to house canvassing is now under way but returns from this angle have not yet been re ported; additional canvassers are desperately required for the outlying areas if this canvass is to be completed on schedule.

It is understood tenders for the Aldergrove and Fort Langley pools are to be called for this month.

BLOOD DONORS CLINIC MONDAY, MARCH 11th

The Langley Jaycees will spon sor the Blood Doners Clinic, to be held March 11th in the Lang ley Anglican Church Hall. Hours will be from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Anyone wishing transportation or able to volunteer their cars for transportation to the donors clinic, call the News Office at 856 8170

BROTHER AND SISTER RE-UNITED AFTER 40 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. William Patter son of Aberdeen, Scotland, sis ter and brother in law of Mr. R. Fentie, on Downes Road, spent 3 months here visiting the Fenties. During their stay, they also visited Victoria and Camp bell River on Vancouver Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were both impressed with British Col umbia and enjoyed the climate.

They have now left for Leth bridge to visit a daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Robertson.

From Lethbridge they will go to Toronto to visit friends there, and later leave for their home in Scotland. Mr. Fentie had not seen his sister for 40 years, and Mrs. Fentie met them for the first time.

CIVIL DEFENCE RADIATION COURSE

Civil Defence will be holding a course on radiation. This course will start on April 8th, at the Municipal Hall, and con tinue until April 11, between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. This course will be under the direction of Mr. R. Smith.

Because this course is open to a limited number of applicants it is urged that all those interes ted contact Mr. W. E. Rogers at 534 3211.

The importance of this course may be understood by examining the radiation count during the past years. In 1961, the count was 61; and in February of 1962 it was 198; this February it was 291. The highest day in February was 350. The general trend is upward.

Certainly this will be a worth while and educational course.

BUILDING PERMITS DROP AGAIN FROM FEB. 1962

High School to Present Operetta March 15, 16, 18

Aldergrove Secondary School presents Belbriggan Bay on March 15, 16, 18 in the gymna sium. Show time is 8 p.m. Bel briggan Bay is a two-act play operetta with a cast of twenty-nine principals, including three teachers who take adult roles. It is composed mostly of choral work, with some solos and dance routines.

Belbriggan Bay is the story of a group of young people who have been left alone to do the net mending chores while their fathers are absent with the fish ing fleet. They are excited by the tale of one of the boys, who in spite of the fog, says he has seen boats in Sheila's Haven; a deserted harbour some distance from the village; and hypnotized by Biddy McCroom's story of pirates, they at once jump to the conclusion that the strange boats are pirate boats, and pre pare to do battle by raising the old harbour chain: thus bottling up the interlopers. Later Jona than, the old sea captain, warns them of the mistaken visions that fog can bring, and foolishly wagers that there are no boats in the Haven. Because of this wager his boat and fishing gear falls into the hands of Biddy, whom he marries in order to re coup his losses.

This is the largest musical production that the school has attempted; it has involved more students and teachers than ever before in making necessary pre parations. Everyone has worked hard to make the operetta a success, and it is hoped that it will be well supported by the community.

L.W. Arndarski—a native of Poland, who resided in England for several years, is 43 years of age. During the Second World War, he was a prisoner of war in Russia for two years. After his release, he joinend the Polish Free Airforce. He completed his navigation training at Mal ton, Ontario.

He has had a great deal of experience in bookkeeping as well as accounting. He has been both a public accountant and a private accountant.

During the construction of St. Mary's Hospital in New West minster, he was the head ac countant and was in charge of processing and introducing a new system of accounting for larger hospitals.

We welcome Mr. Arndarski to Langley, and hope that he will enjoy his work here.

A Message From Langley's Reeve

D. W. POPPY

Through the observance of "Education Week" it is my hope that everyone will become more conscious of this important nec essity "Education."

The great changes, and ad vancements of today, and the years ahead will require the best academic training for the stu dents of the present so that they may take their rightful place in the society of tomorrow.

To make this our objective, every citizen from taxpayer to graduate must acquaint them selves with all the facts of edu cation.

I would like to offer good wishes to everyone responsible in the promotion of "Education Week" in School District No. 35.

A Message From Reeve Murphy Of Matsqui

Education Week should serve as a reminder;

1 To the STUDENT to make the most of the courses that are of fered.

2 To the TEACHERS to find new and more interesting methods of teaching and in still the desire to learn in their students

3 To the COMMUNITY leaders that new means and facilities must be provided to meet the ever expanding education demands of our time.

FREE, COMPULSORY EDUCATION

Education is the basis of life and the key to the doorway of success. I say key, rather than doorway, for doorway is education combined with ambition. In our jet-age world of today education is a necessity. Because it is necessity, I believe it should be made compulsory to the extent of learning that the student is capable of reaching.

Education should be free to the point to which it is compulsory. The cost for four years in university is $6,000. To put a student through these four years would cost every man, woman and child in Canada .3 mills. Is this such a great cost in comparison to the cost of supporting those unemployed because they are uneducated. I do not think it is, do you? When I consider the benefits of a university education, I believe it is very inexpensive. The benefits of free compulsory education may be seen in the Soviet countries. It has raised their standard of living. With this aid they are rapidly catching up with the western world in most fields and surpassing us in a few. I do not suggest that we become communists, but, however, that we provide free compulsory education.

This would give students who would otherwise be forced to work because of financial difficulties an opportunity to gain an education.

I urge that this be provided for academic, technical and vocational schooling.

Our forefathers worked hard in order to provide the small amount of free, compulsory education which we have today. Why let the torch fall? Grab it and carry it to greater horizons.

Earl Hockin, student editor.

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

Every human being desires to be a success in some way. He may wish to succeed in sports, he may want to be a star in the academic field, or he may be satisfied "just to live a good life

Actually, what is success? Although the dictionary defines it as "having accomplished what is attempted", I feel that "success" cannot be defined. Everyone feels his own success in a different way. Some individuals will swell with pride if their achievements are recognized by others. But is this actually being a success—to have others admire the winner?

I feel that there is no other success, than to be satisfied with achieving one's own goal! what greater feeling of success is there, than knowing within yourself, that you have accomplished what you have set out to do?

Last Thursday, a group of Aldergrove High School students set out to make a worthwhile job of this newspaper. We have learned and benefitted, we have TRIED to be a success- In the eyes of others, perhaps we have failed dismally, yet we have done our best and feel successful!

As in any other task, failures and disappointments usually occur before we can be a success. Yet, as a result of these trials, we have a greater feeling of satisfaction in the end! When we look at great men in history, we seldom see that they reached their goal without difficulties and failures. Edison, Bell, Abraham Lincoln, Dr. Banting, Dr. Best and other great men in science and politics, were discouraged and disappointed before they eventually attained their goal!

So we too, must persevere and strive forward! Then when we realize that we have done our best, we will feel successful and have peace of mind. For only when we realize that happiness is the way to success, will we be able to unlock the door of miseries, and find peace of mind in the chamber of success.

Council Comments

By Crusader

At a recent Council meeting, a frail little old gentleman with wispy white hair and a great voice, backed our Reeve and Council down into their boots.

He was appearing before the Council to contest their opinion and that of the planning officer, that two long narrow pieces of property, on which were houses occupied by himself and his son-in-law, should be consolidated.

The Reeve explained to him that after due study and consideration, they had decided on the best plan of the properties that would also satisfy the controlling municipal by-law.

One began to suspect the "sand" that lay behind his placid cherubic face as explanations and reasoning failed to alter his opinion. His answers were—"I have that piece of land and I want it done that way," and "I do not want to do that." No quibbling or doubts here. A pause—then the Reeve explained to him that what he wanted was against our by-law—"what do you expect us to do?" "Change the by-law", came back the instant reply, and that ended that.

As a strategic retreat the Reeve appointed a committee to meet with the little old gentleman on his property

I'll bet he will get his way.

* * *

Change the by-law—brings to mind a recent allowing of a farmer to build a chicken house 10 feet from his neighbour's property line, instead of the usual 50 feet as was requiured by the Municipal Building By-Law before it was amended.

The amended building by law allows this consideration, if the neighbour makes a written statement that he will later move that building, if called upon to do so. Will it work? I do not think so.

1 Will the neighbours always be friends?

2 Will the neighbour sell his property, the buyer being assured that if he finds the chicken house objectionable he can have it moved?

3 If either (1) or (2) want it moved and the farmer objects. would the Municipal Council force the farmer to do so.

If he objects long and loud enough he will get away with it, and very likely would have one or more councillors doing their best to help him out.

It appears that a councillor's oath of office—to uphold the by laws of this municipality—so help me God—are easily forgotten. As Mr. Richardson, of the S.P.C.A. recently stated—"A law cannnot be half enforced."

About 5% of the residents of this municipality are responsible for the evasions of our by-laws. Most of these had a good chance of getting away with it, whether they were broken deliberately or not.

The amended building by-law has made things much easier on the individual conscience of the councillors—also on the Building Inspector who periodically was hauled over the coals by councillors for being conscientious in doing his work.

In the remaining 95% of the residents are those that follow the rules, furnish the bulk of the taxation dollars, add to the economy of the municipality by employing local labour to develop their houses and properties and, but rarely, make any demands on this municipality.

It is this group that is discriminated against when leniency, for political or emotional reasons, is shown those who deliberately flount our laws.

Education or Schooling

Many people are confusing "schooling" with "education" This confusion is, perhaps, the greatest handicap to their children, their province, and their nation in this fast moving world of today.

Schooling is simply keeping students in school for a stated number of subjects to a stated standard; then turning them out to the world.

This mediocre attitude will not fully equip the future generation for the problems which, undoubtedly, it will have to face.

Education is more than "getting by."

It is the essence of life.

It is the foundation upon which all personal accomplishment is based; it is the core of effective life; it is the source of community, provincial, and national progress.

The coming years will see more advancement in education due to the accommodations of the Chant Royal Commission and Dr J. B. MacDonald's report. Men and women who, in student years, failed to finish their high school will be able to finish their schooling; a whole new field is being opened in the retraining of men displaced by automation. It has been recommended by Dr. J. B. MacDonald that a "community" type of college being vocational and technical with established, that is, one combin the academic training. This type of college will provide schooling for students who don't want university, but who want something more than high school graduation.

The need for this type of college is urgent and should not be set aside with the excuse that they are too expensive.

Money is not at stake; but our young people are. . . more than that, our whole future.

For every week that we waste in wondering whether we can afford this type of college, our competitive economic position, even more than our cultural position, in a highly competitive work deteriorates.

The question cannot be whether to move ahead but, in crisis, how best to move ahead.

Education is the web of life, woven through the individual into the family, and thence into business, industry, and the professions and through all of these into the nation.

Education means many things to many people; but for each individual education is the core and heart of living.

Let's see to it that the core is sound and the heart is strong.

Legislative Report

By JIM RHODES, M.L.A. (Delta)

The Debates from the speech from the Throne and Budget are now over and the House is now concerning itself with approving the coming expenditures of the various government departments.

I had the privilege this year of winding up the Budget Debate on behalf of the Opposition. In it, I once again brought up problems affecting the Riding of Delta, as well as those affecting the province.

During the Estimates each Member has the opportunity of presenting suggestions to the Cabinet Minister in charge of a department. He also may ask questions of the Minister and may speak as often as he wishes. The Minister may choose not to answer the question, but in practice he generally does. He is permitted to have his deputy sit beside him to provide detailed information, but only the Minister may speak. When all members who wish to speak have done so the vote passes and funds have been duly provided for that department.

All during the session there has been considerable discussion of the prices charged by the oil companies for petroleum products throughout the Province. This matter has been of growing interest since Mr. John Squire, the New Democratic Party M.L.A. for Alberni, first raised it in the Legislature two years ago.

Mr Squire referred to a 1935 Royal Commission on the price of petroleum products in B.C. and he pointed out that the conditions that were revealed and deplored by Judge MacDonald at that time, were in essence still with us.

Last year, and again this year, Mr. Cyril Shelford, the Social Credit M.L.A. from Omineca, has been hammering away at the price differential for gasoline throughout the province, and in his speech he threatened that unless there was some government action he, himself, would introduce a resolution asking for a public enquiry. This he did last week

Other M.L.A's, especially from areas outside the lower mainland, have also been raising a demand for such an enquiry. The fact that there is a gasoline price war proceeding in Victoria at this time adds interest to the debate.

This does not mean that service station operators have an adequate markup. The Automotive Retailers Association indicates otherwise.

The government of the 1930's under Premier Duff Patullo ordered the price of gasoline reduced. This was countered by a refusal on the part of the oil companies to provide gasoline at the price the Royal Commission had considered reasonable

At that time there was little the provincial government could do to force the oil companies to reduce their prices, so finally a compromise agreement was reached between the government of the day and the oil companies. Today, however, the situation is entirely different.

If, on the basis of a public enquiry, some reduction of the price of gasoline is warranted. then the fact that we now have oil refineries within our province oil wells within our province, and a pipeline carrying oil from the north to the refineries, makes it clear that the provincial government does have more power to change the situation than was the case 30 years ago.

If you don't see it, don't believe it, then question it.

'Grove Sr. Girls Have Successful 'Hoop' Year

The Sr. Girls basketball team this year experienced many wonderful yet disappointing times. We worked hard at our first two games, but lost, we came to the conclusion we were not working hard enough. Our coach Mrs. Neuman, began to get rather disgusted, so we pulled up our socks and began to fight. We won our first game against Langley. We all were happy and Mrs. Neuman was delighted—we think. We won all the rest of the games except the game against Maple Ridge.

As we tied with Port Coquitlam for second place for the tournament we were to play them for the third time. Monday morning the tragic news came—Port Coquitlam had won over Maple Ridge .They then placed second and we placed third, and we were automatically out of the tournament. We all felt disheartened, but next year we hope to do better

The team consisted of T. Buzzell, E. Chieduch, B. Giacomazzi, H. Hall, L. Johnston, H. Sanderson, C. Cronk, E Davies, S. Elmore, and N. White. The games were as follows:

Maple Ridge—32 Aldergrove—28
Port Coquitlam—18 Ald.—14
Langley—5 Aldergrove—29
Maple Ridge—33 Aldergrove—26
Port Coquitlam—19 Ald.—33
Langley—4 Aldergrove—29

With exhibition games counted we won 7, and lost 3.

We of the team would like to thank our coach, Mrs. Neumann who whole heartedly, for the effort and many hours she devoted.

Do any of you have time honored family customs? One of ours is egg soup. You always knew when you were sick because that was the only time that mother or grandmother made egg soup. The discovery of all these wonderful new medicines has robbed us of something, the time spent being pampered while recovering from illnesses such as colds and flue. When you were sick, you would be popped into a bed that had been previously warmed with bricks or hot water bottles. You would have to have lots of rest, lots of hot liquids, including (in our case) egg soup or some other milk soups After a day or two the diet would change to soft foods, perhaps with some dry toast. All meals, in bed of course, on a tray that looked so pretty.

Remember the games played the house was kept quiet for the invalid. If you were older you were able to catch up on the reading you had always planned to do. Compare that with today when, if you have a cold or flu you take a pill of some kind or other and go about your work. Or if too sick for that kind of treatment you lay on the chesterfield in front of a blaring noisy TV set. Don't get me wrong, I'm not against TV. but it does rob us of the needed peace and quiet. I agree that the advances in medical sciences are needed and appreciated but I long for the days when one felt so loved and cared for while ill

The extra few seconds it takes to wait for traffic to pass before turning left, can be worth a great deal to you.

Students debates were the main item on last week's agenda. Thursday afternoon, Feb. 28, Aldergrove hosted two students from Delta and in turn, two students from Aldergrove paid a visit to North Surrey Senior High. Topic of the debates were "Resolved: Canada should join an Economic Union with the U.S. At home, where our two students were on the affirmative team, we chalked up a victory. Speakers were Daphne Eldridge and Rob erta Muralt. The two students who left for North Surrey, Betty Anderlini and Connie Cronk. lost their argument for the nega tive.

Student editor and reporters have swarmed into Aldergrove News office, and, as a result, this week's issue may prove to be very puzzling to some of its readers. For one thing, we have a very moody editor, Mr. Earl Hockin, who varies in one hour from dancing on the presses to weeping on his desk. Or could it be that he has a bigger problem than we all know of—how about it Jenny?

Seriously though, there are, 9 students working on the paper—ranging from grade ten to twelve.

Two separate trips for Educa tion Week were made last two weeks. The Education In Demo cracy Trip to Victoria was held on Feb. 20 22; Jenny Mastalar and Roberta Muralt attending for Aldergrove High.

The other trip was to UBC,

High School Conference At University of B.C.

The 16th Annual High School Conference officially started at at 8:00 a.m , Friday, March 1, but for many delegates it began much e a r l i e r. Delegates who came from northern B.C. and the interior began to arrive at U.B.C. Thursday evening Two o'clock, Friday morning saw most of the early arrivals settled in t h e i r sleeping quarters. By registration time, however, 233 sleepy people were assembled in Brock Hall.

The U.B.C. "Engineers" seem to be the official welcoming committee on the campus. They gathered above us on the balcony and sang their theme song, then proceeded to throw a half dozen live chickens down on us. This was our first introduction to the engineers and we were to see quite a bit of them and their antics during the next two days

Our program began with a welcome by Mr. R. R. Jeffels, special assistant to Dean Gage. Malcolm Scott, incoming president of the Alma Mater Society, and Gordon Galbraith, chairman of the High School Conference committee. All t h e s e speakers brought to our attention the UBC motto: Tuum Est—it's up to you! After the conference was over, we were thoroughy convinced—it's up to you.

Next on the agenda was a talk on the "Value of a University Education", by Dr. McGregor.

For the n e x t 2¼ hours we toured the campus, visiting the biology centre, the chemistry and physics buildings and the library, the core of the Universsity.

After lunch we were allowed to sit in on one of the lectures, during which time most of us fell asleep. A sharp bell woke us up and we were taken to Buchanan where we were intro duced to the different clubs and organizations at U.B.C.

A delicious dinner was served at the Common Block Friday evening. We toured the residences surrounding the Block before dinner and after dinner met at a student reception in the basement of the Common Block. There we were free to talk to representatives of the different clubs. Refreshments were served and entertainment was pro vided to end a most interesting day.

Saturday began with a talk by Mr. Jeffels on the Macdonald Report, which proved to be very interesting. The main idea of this Report is to decentralize U.B.C. and build other 2 or 4 year Universities throughout B.C.

Another sample lecture, a tour of the engineering buildings and lunch at the Common Block filled our morning. During the afternoon Dean Gage gave a very helpful talk on Scholarships and Bursaries. He explained to us the cost of University and ways in which to meet these costs.

The conference ended with a banquet and dance Saturday evening. An extremely pleasant finish to an extremely interesting conference.

Roaring Twenties Review

On March 1, and 2, Langley Secondary School presented their operetta "The Roaring Twen ties".

The theme of the operetta was the age old story of city people taking advantage of country folk. The first act took place in a hillbilly home with Ma and Pa surrounded by their many children. The happy family was singing songs composed by their son and daughter when a letter from a New York producer to whom their son had sent his songs was received. It read that his best songs were recieved. It read that his best songs had not been accepted. Their disappoint ment was lessened when they were told that auditions were being held in New York for a large new production. They sent the best talent in the family, "The Four Belles".

Act two—the girls arrived in New York and auditions were beginning. Several numbers were enacted before the appearance of The Four Belles".

It was their turn then and the song which they were to sing, much to their amazement, was one which their brother had composed and was rejected by this same producer. Immediately after their number. they wrote home to their father and asked his advice. Not long after, their father, having full knowledge of copyrights appeared and bribed the producer into making him a partner.

Act three presented "The Fol lies" with the hillbilly father in command. The operetta ended with a finalee on stage.

There was a cast of 250 stu dents; besides stage crew, those in charge of lights, curtains, and public address system, who made up the show. The make up and costumes were very realistic, they showed much work was involved. The acting and per formances, in my opinin, were excellent.

Congratulations on a fine pro duction.

Two Aldergrove Students See Parliament in Action

By Jenny Mastalar

The annual "Education in Democracy" trip to Victoria for the Lower Fraser Valley took place on February 20—22. Thirty one students and three teachers started out last Wednesday evening to see the B.C. Parliament in action. Many other interesting even's were planned for the mornings, since the parliament sessions began at 2 p.m.

We started Thursday morning by a brisk walk to the Pioneer Memorial at which we paid our respects by laying a wreath on the tomb of Murray Yale. From there we walked to Thunderbird Park, and then we toured the famous Empress Hotel. We were taken through many of the rooms and also through their Crystal Gardens, where we saw the fabulous Crystal Pool—150 ft. long, the largest in Western Canada After this we went to the Parliament Buildings. We were immediately taken to the House where we were given a formal briefing on parliamentary procedures. We were then taken to Mr. Speaker's (L. H. Shantz) office and told about the history of B.C. Parliament.

Lunch with Mr. Speaker was next on our agenda. the delicious food was truly appreciated by this time. After this we toured the library and the Archives. Next we went into the House for the Parliament session. The debate of the 1963 proposed Budget was the business being discussed. The Government Speaker, Mr. Williston, pointed out the excellence of the Social Credit Budget. Then the opposition speaker, Mr. Hardy, found many faults in it during his rebuttal. At 4:00 p.m. we left the House to go back to the hotel. The evening activities were up to the individuals

Friday morning we were taken to the Royal Roads Military Academy, an exciting experience for the girls on the trip (odds were about 60 to 1). We were shown the grounds and g i v e n several briefings on the cadets' activities. We then returned to the hotel, ate lunch, and immediately boarded a bus for a quick tour of Victoria. After this we went straight to the House. That day both speakers were from the Government, Mr. Smith and Mr. Chant argued vigorously for the Social Credit Budget with little response from the Opposition. Again we left at 4:00 p.m. and boarded the bus to catch the 5:00 p.m ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gasparre

Former Mount Lehman Girl Weds in New York

St. Francis of Asissi Church, New York, was the scene of a mid afternoon wedding performed on February 3, at 4:30 p.m., uniting in marriage, Miss Carol Kazakoff. of New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kazakoff of Mt. Lehman, to Mr. Pat Gasparre, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Gasparre of 74—01 Ditmars Blvd East Elmhurst, New York.

Rev. Father O'Brien performed the ceremony.

Entering the church, on the arm of her father, Mr. A. Kazakoff, the lovely bride proceeded slowly down the aisle to the white flowered decorated altar, to join her future husband.

For this special day, Miss Kazakoff chose a gown of heavy ecru brocade, fashioned with Cathedral length train, Sabrina neckline, and a full length skirt. Her sleeves were elbow length and she wore short leather gloves. Over her gown she wore a beige mink stole. Completing this beautiful bride's costume, a lovely bouquet of white Stephanotis was selected as her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Rose D'Agostino, sister of the groom, was matron of honour; she chose a full length gown of light blue velveteen featuring bell skirt, Sabrina neckline, and carried blue roses.

Dressed alike in gowns of dark blue and short light blue jackets were Miss Carol Kazakoff's bridesmaids, Misses Kathleen D'Agostino. Carol Ann Verdigi, Joanne Cucurello, and Maria Verdigi. They carried bouquets of blue chrysanthemums.

Mr. Pat Gasparre chose as his best man, Mr. Joseph Fenech, and Messrs. Peter D'Agostino, John Anatra, Louis Cucurrello were ushers.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held for 250 guests. Leonards of Great Neck, caterers, performed all serving duties.

A full course dinner with cocktails and canapes were served to the guests, and dancing was later enjoyed to the music of the Rhythm Tones. Orchestra.

Mr. Joseph Fenech, the best man proposed the toast, and Father O'Brien gave a very moving Dedication. In charge of the gifts was Mrs. Rose D'Agostino.

For her going away outfit, the bride donned a green wool suit trimmed with Beaver fur cuffs and collar, with matching green alligator shoes and handbag.

The young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Hong Kong, Tokyo, Honolulu, San Francisco, Seattle, Aldergrove and Vancouver. They will return home to New York after the honeymoon.

Out of town guests to the Gasparre wedding were the bride's parents from Mt. Lehman, Mr. Duke Goldberg, Virginia, U.S.A. and Mrs. S. Signonrelli of Montreal.

Miss Carol Kazakoff was formerly a student of Aldergrove Secondary School, and left to take up a position as a stewardess with Pan American. Her husband attended Long Island City High School and Academy of Aeronautics, and now operates a Beauty Salon in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Siemens are the proud and happy parents of a baby daughter, born in Abbotsford on February 16th., weighing seven pounds, two ounces. This was a great relief to everyone, as Mrs Siemens suffered multiple injuries in a car accident last Fall. She will be entering the Vancouver General Hospital next week for a bone-grafting operation on her leg which was injured in the accident.

Friends of Mrs. Hassan will be pleased to hear that she has returned home after spending some time in the Langley Memorial Hospital.

Council Jottings

The Surrey Municipal Council is to be approached to see if any action can be obtained in having Sunnyside Road, in the south-western section of the municipality, projected about one-half mile across the Langley-Surrey border.

If Surrey will construct this half mile of road it will open up an excellent paved route to the King George Highway, Crescent Beach, and White Rock.

The purchase of a new plastic binding machine has been authorized by the Municipal Council for the sum of $257.25. A saving of up to 100% is anticipated in the peparation of municipal financial statements each year. Besides financial statements, various jobs such as voters' Lists, binding of Gvernment regulations, Briefs, and so on, can be done

The Public Bodies Financial Information Act makes it necessary to publish a statement showing the payments made to firms and individuals for goods and services received, also all salaries and expenses paid to employees. The following are the total amounts for the year of 1962. Salaries and expenses paid to employees are:

Salaries—$356.553.91

Expenses—$4,921.33

Payments to firms and individuals from the general account are:

$1,238,868.10

Sundry Accounts under $500.—$40,426.24

Total—$1,279,294 34

Captian Brown of the Salvation Army appeared before the Municipal Council to explain the service that is rendered to this municipality by his organization. He thanked the Council for their contributions for 1962 of $100.00 which was double that given in previous years. He explained that during the five years between 1958—1963 a study revealed that the cost to the Salvation Army for care of girls from this area, at the Mother's Home and Grace Hospital in Vancouver, was estimated at $4,000. During this period. $300 was received in donations from this municipality. He hoped, if at all possible, the Council would increase the donation to $150 for 1963.

The Salvation Army looks after people, stranded, from cradle to the grave. The problem is getting greater with the increase in the population There is no discussion on ability to pay, help is given immediately.

Mr. Strain, Municipal Building Inspector, was granted leave to attend the Building Inspector. Association Conference to be held in Kelowna on May 2 and 3.

The Fort Langley Community Improvement Society authorized the President or a duly authorized person to proceed with negotiations for the legal transfer of title of the park property to the Corporation of the District of Langley.

Why Join The Legion?

By Judy Berry and Sandra Johnston

Active members of the Royal Canadian Legion are well aware of the importance of increasing the membership of their organization.

At the present time the Legion represents only twenty-five per cent of eligible veterans. The Legion should be in a position to represent more than fifty per cent of Canada's war veterans when it talks to parliament. The Legion's true strength is its national strength.

All Canadian war veterans should feel a moral obligation to support the Legion. It has achieved considerable success to gain veterans privileges and benefits which otherwise would not have come into being. Today, Legion members are paying, out of their own pockets, for these services which are made freely available to veterans.

The legion has in recent years expanded its community services. However, the legion needs new members to fill the void caused by the deaths each year of thousands of World War I veterans who have made the Legion what it is today. Great contributions have been made both in physical fitness programs of all kinds for the young peopple, and social and welfare programs for the older citizens, in all walks of life. Unless the seventy-five per cent of Canadian war veterans now outside the organization join up and help their comrades, the Legion cannot continue to expand this community program

LARGE MAJORITY OF EGG PRODUCERS INDICATE SUPPORT OF PLEBISCITE

Aldergrove post office is handling an extra volume of mail in connection with an "opinion test", sponsored by the B.C. Egg Producers Association.

The secretary of the Association, A. de Ruiter, who resides in our postal area, mailed out 1,200—4 page leaflets and a questionaire, to Egg Producers in B.C. last week. The question was "do you or don't you wish the executive of the Association to press the minister of Agriculture for a plebiscite for or against an Egg Marketing Board? At press time, about 100 Egg Producers have replied to the question, all but 2 are in favour of holding a plebiscite. More replies are being received daily. It is expected that the Association will take a firm stand on the matter on March 12th, the date of it's general meeting in the Legion Auditorium, in Abbotsford.

DRUM BEAT

By—TOM GASCOIGNE

It is true that events are crazy, a few more might act as an antidote.

No man has the right to assume he knows the will of 'God' or that his particular book is the right one.

The two absolutely invincible forces in the world are ignorance and stupidity.

Any Canadian statesman or party leader who assumes he is the priviledged of the Almighty should look back through the centuries of history. The lesson is there for all to read who will.

The people of Canada are still waiting patiently for the statement of an effective platform from any or all the political parties now engaged in the throes of election. They are already tired of the "You did so's" and "we did not's", which has, up to now, been the fare of the electors. This cheap evasive action on the part of all parties involved is forcing Canadians to the conclusion, that all parties, at present engaged, are valueless.

It is very true that what Canada needs, more so than in any period of her existence, is a good Prime Minister. An outstanding leader with powerful convictions and the courage to carry them out would be acceptable to a majority of the electors, regardless of his political faith.

These astute politicians believe that as a race, we are nothing but a flock of sheep always ready to be shorn. They believe that we, the electors, liberal, conservative or what, will always flock to the banners our parents, in their time, flocked to, such is not the case. We, as their sponsors demand more, much more.

Surely from all of us, there must be one righteous Canadian individual, able and willing to stand forth as a candidate in whom the people could believe.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Egg Men Worried by Obsession With Egg Board

Editor of the Aldergrove News
Dear Sir:

At a meeting held in Surrey Centre, organized by the writer, concern was expressed by poultrymen from all parts of the Valley at the neglect of the original objectives of the B.C.E.P. Association. At the two general meetings so far, and the one called for March 12th, the main topic of discussion allowed by the chair, has been that of promoting an Egg Marketing Board.

The egg producers of the Fraser Valley consider that the subject of an Egg Marketing Board was conclusively dealt with for a period of some years, when they voted against such a Board by a margin of more than 12 to 5 on June 17th, 1961.

That is why so many now feel that the Directors should devote more time to the original objectives outlined at the general meeting on Nov. 20th, 1962. Then it was stated that this Association was not being formed to promote an Egg Marketing Board, but principally to further the welfare and efficiency of the family farm operation.

To remind those present, I re affirmed these objectives which the Committee proposed to deal with:

1 Promotion of their products.
2 Program planning for monthly meetings, annual conferences, etc.
3 Pricing
4 Disease and management.
5 Feed.
6 Finance and a final Committee to hold a watching brief on possible large scale integration in our Province.

By chasing this Egg Marketing issue, the Fraser Valley Directors of the Association, have so far only done what they assured all members they would not do.

Mr. Gil Schofield stated that the 1961 Egg Marketing Plebiscite organizers estimated that it would cost ½ c per dozen to administer a Board. On this basis it would cost each poultryman $90.00 per 1000 layers yearly. A 5,000 layer family flock would be assessed a bare minimum of $450.00 every year.

The cost of the proposed educational campaign gave rise to much concern and discussion. A Fraser Valley Director of the B.C.E.P.A. said that the 1961 plebiscite promotion for the Lower Mainland alone cost around $4,000.00. It would be fair to assume that the campaign proposed for the near future would cost at least three times as much, covering as it does the whole Province. The B.C. E.P.A. has at present, around 400 members. As Mr. Richter has already stated, no funds will be allocated by the B.C. government to cover an Egg Marketing Board campaign, it can only be assumed that the cost must be borne by the Association members. This in turn means that they must provide a further sum of $30.00 per member.

Those present intend to hold a further meeting next week, this time in the Clearbrook area. The discussion will deal with other important matters they feel should be brought to the attention of all Association Members. It is hoped these subjects will be democratically and satisfactorily dealt with at the March 12th meeting, of the B.C.E.P. Association at Abbotsford.

Feb. 28 to March 3. Lynda Berry and Beryl Durkie left "bag and baggagge" to get an impression of what goes on at the University. on the campus as well as in the buildings. Dennis Schmahl had some very unusual opinions of his trip taken last year, if you happpen to remember "Operation Brainwash" which he wrote last year.

Belbriggan Bay is certainly getting close. This production goes on stage on March 15, 16. and 18. You can get your tickets from any Aldergrove student—or you should be able to. If they do not have these tickets, come to the school personally and we will give you a whole package of your own to sell.

There was a club period held on Friday, March 1st. It will probably be the last one before you—know—what comes at the end of March. You guessed it, Easter exams.

Home Economics 91 filled the school with a delicious aroma on Monday when they bravely undertook the task of preparing bread. Oh, my stomach—and you call it Health Bread?

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. G. C. Watson and family wish to thank all kind friends for their expressions of sympathy, and lovely floral offerings in the loss of a loving husband and father.

LANGLEY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL NEWS

der sincere thanks for a shaggy teddy which she brought in for a young one that had to stay in over Christmas. What a wonderful present and how it was loved by the recipient. Mrs. Tindall has donated a beautifully dressed doll and many brightly shining eyes have greeted these beautiful gifts This last Christmas, Mrs. Tindall also brought in two dolls from a little girl—Elvira Ganyo of Moose Jaw, Sask. Elvira was so taken with the stories that Mrs. Tindall told about the dolls she donated to little girls who had to be in hospital over Christmas, that she insisted on getting these beautiful dolls and arranging with Mrs. Tindall to bring them back to this hospital, with her loving wishes to the little girls who receive them.

We think that this is truly wonderful. A suitable letter was sent to Elvira extending the thanks of the board and the two little recepients.

Mr. Christopher J. Tassel, 5812 Glover Road, Langley, brought in a bundle of National Geographic Magazines. Two large parcels of magazines were received from Mrs. George Milburn, 6043 Brown Road, Langley. A large bundle of Life Magazines from Mr. and Mrs. C. Rogers, 21051 Simmonds Road, Langley. The Fireside W.A. sent in 15 dozen pairs of washable slippers. A box of pocket books was received from Mr. C. Nordstrum, Aldergrove. A bundle of magazines from Mrs. H. Guenther, 26864—16th Avenue, R.R.1, Aldergrove. A table centre piece for the Staff dining room was donated by Mrs. E. H. Beaumont. Fuller Meats donated a large turkey for the Staff Christmas dinner. Langley W.I. sent in their usual gift of Mandarin oranges for the patients' Christmas dinner.

The Biggar Road Co-Workkers Group paid for pyjama cloth and buttons. They are now making these up for the hospital

To all of these wonderful people we say, "Thank you very much."
