AROUND TOWN

by MARGARET GREEN

This morning I got to wondering what one man, dressed in sports clothes and driving a large car, would be doing with a big boat on top of the car and a beautiful big power boat on a trailer behind. Kind of a lot for one lone man, I would say!

Wish they would settle the date for the Bradner Flower Show We are being bombarded with questions in this regard.

The phone lines must have been hanging pretty low around this office. On Tuesday afternoon a large truck came round the back lane and on to the highway. As it turned from 271st street it brought down a bunch of telephone lines but no serious damage was done.

Work is going ahead on a new fence around the telephone exchange property in Aldergrove. It should improve the corner when completed.

A plastic pen left on the desk in Les Williams office came out of the fire resembling a seahorse, with a beautifully curled up tail!

Terry Garner of the C.B.C. and moderator of the Reach For The Top program, told me how much he enjoys working with teenagers. He says he loves their freshness and enthusiasm. Nice to hear someone like that speak well of them.

Has anyone noticed how many Beagles there seem to be around town? I see one in the region of the Navy Station and one down here every day. There are others around the district, too.

A teenage boy who wears dark clothing, rides a racing bike, with his hands in his pockets, and has no lights or reflectors whatever on his bike nearly got himself killed on Monday evening. It was raining at the time and a gentleman saw the shadow very briefly and until he followed it down the road could not tell what it was. The boy continued riding down the road just off centre on the wrong side, still with his hands in his pockets.

* * *

Mrs. Joyce Brand tells me she was at 100 Mile House for the weekend and saw the Wibberleys who are all well and enjoying life. She says Les is working part time in the liquor store, there, which many of his friends will be interested to learn.

My sincere thanks to Mrs. Boston. When hunting up details of "old-timers" what would we do without her? She is always so gracious and willing to help in any way she can and I, personally, deeply appreciate her assistance.

Twenty Aldergrove people went into CBC studios last Thursday to watch the filming of "Reach For The Top", in which Janina Olejnik and Bob Gubbe represented Aldergrove. It was an interesting experience. Congratulations again to the Aldergrove-Langley team.

While Mrs. Ellen Neel was working in Stratford, Ontario, last summer a Russian came up to her and very excitedly asked her if she came from Aldergrove. She told him she would be living there when she returned to B.C. and he asked her if she knew Pete Swensson. She told him she didn't know Pete personally but she knew his work. The Russian said "Pete is known all over the world," and gave her a small doll to take to Pete. It was similar to the one Kruschev had sent to his daughter.

Advertising Backed By Local People

Aldergrove Business and Professional people backed the Tourist Committee and Chamber of Commerce decision to advertise jointly with the Langley and Fort Langley in the World's Fair edition of the Seattle Times. This paper will be published on April 7th, two weeks before the fair, and will contain a whole section on British Columbia. The advertisement is designed to promote tourism in this district.

The Tourism committee of the Aldergrove and District Chamber of Commerce is at present working on several local tourist attraction ideas to function during the coming six months of the Seattle World's Fair. More will be heard about these tourist promotions later.

L.H.S. Revue Big Success

The "Gay Nineties" Revue presented by the students of the Langley High School during Education Week was said to be a great success with large attendance on all nights.

Costuming and scenery was reported as being "outstanding" all of which added to the colorful show.

Even an old buggy drawn by a Shetland pony was brought onto the stage and caused quite a stir. In fact, it sounds as if he 'stole the show.'

CHUCKLES

Mrs. Brown: So glad! Hope you'll drop in sometime.

NEW CANADIANS—Mr. and Mrs. Meinolf Ahrens of Simpson Road, R.R. 2, Aldergrove, received their Citizenship papers at Chilliwack on March 15. They have been in Canada for the past ten years, coming to Aldergrove from Germany at that time. Mr. Ahrens has a small farm and works most of the year for the C.P.R. They have two children, a boy of 12 and a girl of 9.

Parks Commission To Be Established

At the last meeting of the Municipal Council a motion regarding the establishment of a Parks Commission was lifted from the table and discussed at considerable length.

Councillor Flowerdew pointed out that Vancouver is the only municipality with an elected Parks Commission. He gave details of parks being operated locally in the municipality and also gave a resume of the work being done by the Recreation Commission. He spoke of the parks in the municipality being developed by the Boy Scouts Association. The Councillor also said he had received requests for the development of other parks in the area. Councillor Flowerdew stated that Parks Commissions are in operation in other parts of the Fraser Valley and that Langley should also have one.

All councillors agreed that this was a desirable thing. Some members felt that the park situation should be assessed and long-range plans for park development made.

A motion carried that a Parks Commission should be established.

Plans and Tenders Out For New P.O.

The postmaster, Mr R Blair, received copies of the plans fo the new post office to be erected here in Aldergrove, in the near future. Tenders are also out for the construction of this building.

From looking at these plans the new federal building will be situated 30 ft. north of the fire hall and parellel to it, 30 feet back from the road. There will be grass between these two buildings, also in front and on the north side of the post office building. At the rear of the building, there will be a blacktopped parking area for mail cars, trucks and employee's cars. A wide sidewalk is planned for the front of the new building, with public parking on the Jackman Road in front.

It appears it will be quite an asset to Jackman Road, and the lawns will be attractive. There will be a 30 foot concrete approach to the building at the centre front, leading into the lobby.

As for the interior, the employees will have a real incentive for work. Besides a storage room there is a staff lunch room, men's and women's washrooms, boiler room and all other improvements that go with a new building of this type.

Bradner Prepares For Flower Show

The Bradner Community Club met in the Bradner Hall Monday night for the regular monthly meeting, with C. N. Upchurch in the chair.

After the business was disposed of and meeting adjourned the Flower Show meeting was brought to order. The date for the show is not definite but will be decided on soon.

Plans are going ahead nicely and the show will have a new theme, as it does every year.

Variety Concert

The Dunach School P.T.A. sponsored a splendid Variety Concert in the school last Friday evening to raise funds for their projects. The auditorium was filled to capacity, and Mrs. A. Shatford was chairman.

The principal welcomed the gathering.

Most of the program was put on by the pupils, with songs, accordian, violin, and piano solos, and a skit directed by Mrs. Ramsay. Five girls took part.

A very humerous skit was put on by the Abbotsford Boy Scouts, "My Boomerang won't come Back," A group from Mrs. L. T. Davis' grade 5 and 6 music class sang very sweetly—"Flow Gently Sweet Afton" and "Greeting Song".

After the concert coffee and cookies were served.

On the program, "John Emerson Presents", on CBU Thursday evening, March 15th, the poet, A. E. Housman, was the subject of the talk.

Housman lived for a time in India and during the talk reference was made to Housman's very close friend, Moses John Jackson. Mr. Emerson mentioned Housman was very disappointed when his dear friend decided to bury himself in the wilds of the Fraser Valley, at Aldergrove.

This aroused the writer's interest and after a phone call to Mrs. Jessie Boston who has lived here all of her life, the following incidents were revealed about Mr. Jackson, for whom Jackson Road is named.

The Jacksons arrived in 1910 and settled on a farm on the Jackson Road half way between the Bellingham Highway (264th) and Coghlan Road. Mrs. Boston says "they were really in the bush". Dr. Jackson said he wanted to settle "where he couldn't see his neighbour's smoke". Mrs. Boston says it is certain he could not from where they lived.

A doctor of science, Dr. Jackson had been a tutor to a princess in India, and Mrs. Jackson had twenty servants to work for her. According to Mrs. Boston, it was a vast difference for Mrs. Jackson here, after being used to so many servants.

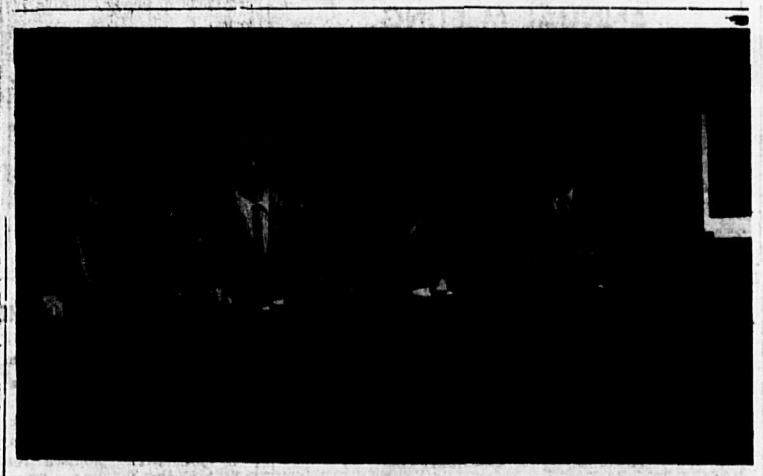
The Jacksons had three sons, one of whom enlisted and went all through World War 1 and returned here only to be killed riding a bicycle on the Granville Street bridge. Another son was a medical doctor in England and the third, Gerald, was tutored by his father and became a doctor of science like him.

Dr. Jackson, Sr. died in January, 1923, of cancer, and was buried in Vancouver. Mrs. Jackson then sold the farm—everything was auctioned—and she went back to England. She then visited the younger Dr. Jackson, who was working inAfrica, and and died while on this visit. Dr. Jackson wrote to the Vanettas and told them of her death.

While living here Mrs. Jackson used to walk down to the post office and collect huge bags of English magazines. On her way home, she used to stop in at Vanettas for a cup of tea with Mrs. Vanetta, her good friend.

Two sisters of Dr. Jackson, Sr. came out here. Both were very musical, one teaching the piano and the other the violin. They settled in Mission where one of them died. Mrs. Boston says she never heard of the other one again.

Thus ends the story behind the name of Jackson Road and Aldergrove's link with the poet, A. E. Housman.



The above panel of students from Aldergrove and Langley high schools, entering under the name of the Valley West, have taken part in the "Reach For The Top" quiz program on CBUT on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. On the first occasion, Feb. 22 they won easily and "reached the top" (350) points thus winning $50 scholarships for their schools besides other prizes. This week's program will show them winning for the second time. The third filming will take place this evening. They will vie with a Greater Victoria team. The finalists will compete around June for the Grolier trophy and a large scholarship. Panelists shown above are left to right; Virginia Harrington, Langley, Bob Gubbe and Janina Olejnik, Aldergrove, and Terry Metcalfe, Langley. Quoting from the CBC press release, "the Valley West team expressed a depth of knowledge on all subjects but were particularly expert with literary and historical questions. Their excellent presentation and their split-second timing were two of the main reasons for the convincing 365—170 point win over the Cloverdale—White Rock team." —NEWS PHOTO

NOT ALL ARE CRIMINALS

One sometimes wonders why some policemen, with all their experience of meeting people, are not better judges of character than they are. Some of them can temper justice without deviating from it. To others, the world must seem to contain nothing but criminals. It appears we have both kinds in the surrounding areas.

On Friday evening, for the first time, a number of Sea Cadets from the local corps attended a tri-services ball in Vancouver, supervised by one of their officers. Most of them, with their girl friends, were driven in by parents. Two of the boys were allowed the use of their parents' cars.

On the way into Vancouver, one of the boys had the misfortune to have a headlight burn out. On the way home, he was stopped by the police and given a ticket for it. Apparently, when the policeman saw the uniforms of the boys, he immediately suspected them. He made the boys in the back seat get out and frisked them. Then he made the driver and his girl friend get out and he practically turned the car upside down trying to find any trace of liquor. Not satisfied with that he walked up and down the ditch looking for "bottles" while the kids had to stand on the road in the cold.

It happened just before two a.m. One car load, with a parent driving, passed the kids without realising they were of their crowd. The driver's brother also passed without noticing who they were.

Law enforcement officers are constantly complaining of the fact that the policeman of today does not get the respect of the public. Could this type of officer be one of the main factors in bringing about this situation?

It is too bad that our cadets, in uniform, cannot be shown respect and courtesy by a member of another national service force.

TRANSIT PROBLEM

It is not good for a man or a government to wield too much power. It seems there are very few men who can use it and not be destroyed by it.

The present B.C. government has far too large a majority for the good of the province in general, and certain moves made by the Premier recently could influence the results of an election, should one be forthcoming in the near future.

A few weeks ago he "offered" the B.C.E. bus franchise to the surrounding local governments. These governments are having a hard time to make a success of things as it is, without being hampered by a major transit problem.

After giving only a short period for these governments to consider the matter, the Premier again "offers" the transit system to them for the nominal sum of $1, and backs it up with the threat that if they don't accept the offer, there will be no buses. If that is not the mark of a dictator, what is?

Surely some of Mr. Bennett's staunch supporters, who serve on the local councils will stop and think twice over the new thunderbolt he has dropped! They will be stuck with the solution of the problem he has created for them.

Municipal Recreation Commission Activities

The Recreation Commission is sponsoring a Softball coaches' clinic on March 25th, 10 a.m. at the Fort Langley Community Hall. The clinic will be conducted by Mr. R. B. Danbirt of Vancouver. A group study of the rule book will be made and various coaching problems discussed.

Plans for swimming classes are well under way. Owners of small pools in the area are offering their co-operation and a number of competent instructors have offered their services.

A new interest in horse riding is developing. People with horses all have shown great interest in this project. The summer may see quite a revival of this healthful sport for persons of all ages. If the sport catches on local horsemen are considering the possibility of building an indoor riding arena in the municipality.

The Recreation Commission has negotiated a group accident insurance policy. For a one dollar Associate Membership with the Commission, any person may be covered by the policy in case of any accidents arising out of sports sponsored by any of the recreational groups registered with the Recreation Commission.

Mr. Pelle Swensson, the Commission's Recreational Director, will have office hours at the Municipal Hall from 1 to 3 p.m. on Mondays and Tuesdays commencing March 26th.

Council Comments

By Crusader

There is a marked increase in the population of this municipality anticipated in the next few years.

Fortunately we can profit by the mistakes made in Surrey, in controlling its rapid growth.

That a zoning plan for the municipality will now be accepted seems assured.

Opposition to zoning amongst groups and individuals during the past 15 or more years, has found staunch supporters in some members of the Council.

The following will illustrate the gradual change in thinking on this matter.

About three years ago, a councillor said that zoning would not be necessary for the next 25 years. Later, he modified this and was in favour of planning but against zoning, (though each is an integral part of the other.)

Still later, after the majority of the Council had given the O.K. to the Lower Mainland Regional Planning Board to draw up a complete overall plan of the Municipality, he seemed to waiver a bit in his opinion—but it was near the end of the stewardship meetings that preceeded the last election, that it appeared that his conversion and acceptance of zoning was complete.

There are hazards in making what could be taken as "off the cuff" predictions of events to come— for example: a letter was recently sent to Council about the airport land and its possible use for a shopping centre, etc., if it reverted back to municipal control and taxation.

A Councillor, taking exception to this said, that development comparable to Whalley's Dell shopping centre or Brentwood, as far as need in those municipalities were concerned, was likely 15 to 20 years away.

As this was being said there were already steps being taken to acquire property in Aldergrove for a shopping centre and at this time plans for its development are well advanced.

The opinion of the Lower Mainland Regional Planning Board from a comprehensive research of population trends in the Lower Fraser Valley, gives a doubling of population for Langley in the next 10 years, and a second doubling in the following 10 years.

Before Brentwood was started, 2 years of intensive study of the population trend in the surrounding area, the probable type of resident and likely income bracket, etc., was obtained before the decision was made to go ahead.

A similar development in this area would require the same intensive study.

Flourine Helps In Preventing Tooth Decay

Dental research scientists at the University of Toronto report that fluorine, in proper quantities, can do more than any recent discovery to prevent tooth decay.

Many children today are not eating foods that will build a strong body and strong teeth. Too many of them are growing up on diets which lack body and tooth building foods, and contain excessive amounts of refined sugars and starches.

The importance of fluorine, in the prevention of tooth decay, was emphasized as University scientists continued a current research project under which they are studying the effect of diet on dental health.

Aim of another important research project now being carried out by the Faculty of Dentistry, at the University of Toronto, is to determine the amount of Strontium 90 in the tooth structure of Canadian children as the result of radioactive fallout from atomic bomb tests.

Strontium 90 follows chemical pathways similar to calcium and hence is deposited in bones and teeth. The teeth of children are being used in the University of Toronto research project because they are much easier to obtain than bone samples.

The University so far has received approximately 8,000 primary teeth from Canadian children born in each year from 1952 to 1961. These baby teeth, which normally fall out between the ages of 5 and 13, are being collected in all parts of Canada and sent to Toronto by schools, public health officials, and women's service clubs.

Similar research is being conducted at the University of Toronto on the teeth of cattle. Thus far, it has been found by chemical isolation procedures that the teeth of Canadian children developing in 1952 and later do contain radioactive elements in them including Strontium 90. Teeth from cattle, that grazed on pasture land, have been found to contain a much higher radioactivity content.

Peace River Dam To Be One Of World's Largest

Series 1

Construction of Portage Mountain Dam across the Peace River in northern British Columbia will be a long engineering struggle to rearrange nature to meet man's needs.

But before machines begin changing nature as it has rested for thousands of years into a major power development, the huge dam will be completely constructed in the mind of an electronic computer at B.C. Electric's head office in ancouver.

International Power and Engineering Consultants Limited, consultants to the BCE, are using the IBM 650 computer to provide an extensive analysis of the dam design and the materials being used to build it.

Aided by the modern mechanical brain, engineers can create a detailed picture of the dam in short time and get answers to many vital questions—such as the effect on the dam of fantastic stress both from its own weight and from the 600 foot depth of water behind it.

Portage Mountain Dam will be one of the largest dams in the world. It will rise to a height of 615 feet above the existing river bed and reach 1.3 miles across Peace River Valley. The dam will be 3,000 feet thick at its base, gradually narrowing to a 50 foot thickness at the crest.

Chief Bowling Instructors
Double Diamond Advisory Council

For more than two million Canadians who bowl, this is both a recreation and a sport. It provides family fun, and friendly competition.

Because it was considered more of a pastime than a sport for many years, bowling grew up with a somewhat haphazard set of ground rules—with different methods of scoring and different rules of play in different localities.

For any true kind of competition, everyone has been playing by the same basic rules. In the past few years, there has been a growing organization of the game. The Ontario Bowlers' Council in eastern Canada, and the Western Canada 5—Pin Bowling Association have been operating a number of years, and have done magnificant jobs in standardizing the game, and helping it grow.

The two groups are trying to co-operate in setting up a Canadian Bowling Association, to act as a governing body for all of Canada.

Plans for his are now underway,and may be finalized in Saskatoon this Spring.

You'll find your enjoyment of the game grows with the chances you get to compete with your friends, and, as your score improves, to compete against other bowlers of equal skill.

The first step is to join a bowling team, which in turn belongs to a league. The league should be affiliated with your area's bowling association, which is a local branch of either the eastern or western Canada govrning body.

VISIT YOUR LOCAL LANE

If you want to expand your own bowling opportunities, the first thing to do is visit the manager of your local bowling lane. He can probably arrange fir you to join one of the house leagues at his bowling centre. Or, if you want to form your own league, he'll be able to give you valuable help.

Hundreds of groups lend themselves naturally to bowling leagues, you'll find potential members at your church, among your neighbours, or at work. Any group that shares some common interest can be the nucleus for a bowling league.

In Ottawa, there is a league consisting entirely of pregnant mothers. This particular league obviously has a fairly rapid turnover of members. But, while they belong, the women find the mild exercise helpful, and they have lots to talk about together.

An extra 10 cents is added to the regular bowling lineage fees to provide a gift layette for each member when her enforced retirement from the league comes in a few months.

If you are starting your own league, go to the local branch of your area's bowling association. One of the main purposes of these association is to help in setting up new leagues, and they have plenty of experience in solving any of the problems you'll run into.

For younger bowlers, the Canadian Junior Bowling Council, with headquarters in Toronto, organizing leagues and provid- operates right across Canada, ing professional instruction for "Bantams" up to age 12; Juniors from 12—14; and for Junior Men and Ladies, from 14—19.

Getting into a league, and making sure the league is affiliated with your area's bowling association ensures that you are getting the most fun, and most competitive opportunities out of the most popular game in Canada.

For more information about organized bowling in Canada, here are the addresses of the eastern and western bodies:
Charles McQuaker, President, Ontario Bowlers' Council, 1854 Queen St. E., Toronto.
Bill Hawrylak, Recording Secretary, W.C.F.P.B.A., 1221 Jubilee Ave., Regina, Sask.
So, bowl—and have fun.

Motorists Need Good Eyesight

Next to sense of responsibility, good eyesight is one of the most valuable tools a driver can have. Yet, thousands of motorists drive their automobiles with defective vision, says the B.C. Automobile Association.

The ability to see distant objects is only one facet of the level of vision required for safe driving. Color-blindness, slow recovery rate from headlight glare and inability to see properly at night—these are other characteristics that can seriously affect your driving competence.

The BCAA urges you to have your eyes checked by a qualified physician if you have not done so recently. Only a few minutes is required for such a check, and it could save your life!

PATRICIA

The Patricia Community Whist Club held a Military Whist in the hall on Wednesday March 14th with five tables in progress.

First prize winners were Mrs. J. Howard, Mrs. L. Armstrong, Miss Viola Loadman and Mrs. C. Mears. Consolation prizes won by Miss Kathleen Pynn, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Moncur and Mr. F. Corbett. An enjoyable luncheon was served, followed by a social hour. The next regular whist night will be in the hall on Wednesday March 28th at 8 p.m. sharp.

The Patricia Women's Institute held an Irish Frolic Party for members, husbands and friends in the hall on Saturday March 17th at 7:30 p.m.

The evening started with a wonderful Potluck Supper at tables tastefully decorated with St. Patrick's motifs. Soft music over the loud speaker system, of all the familiar Irish tunes, completed the theme. After the supper the tables were cleared away and a pantomine contest was put on by seven W.I. members, assisted by seven unsuspecting recruits from the audience, creating some very hilarious situations. This was followed by a "hopping on one leg potato on a spoon" relay race, gentlemen versus ladies, and won by the men.

A community singsong was then enjoyed by everyone. Refreshments and dancing followed. The drawing for the fancy St. Patrick's cake made by Mrs. Stan Robinson was won by Mr. Primo Giacomazzi. The evening then came to a close with the general opinion that it should be done more often.

NORTH COGHLAN

Members of the Coghlan Women's Institute enjoyed a pleasant change on March 12 when Mrs. Longeway, one-time Coghlan resident and still a member, invited all to her home to hold their regular meeting. Twelve members were present and six guests, most of whom were former Coghlan residents.

Minutes of the meeting of the Douglas District Board, held at White Rock, were read. Excerpts were read from the News Letter one of which reminded Institutes of their responsibility towards the completion of the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead, which commemorates the beginning of the Women's Institutes in Canada.

A news item was read from the Northern Sentinel, Kitimat, wherein it was reported that a Coghlan member, Mrs. W. McLeod who is temporarily residing in Kitimat, helped to organize the newly formed Kitimat Women's Institute.

The date of May 16th was set for the Spring Tea and Sale of Aprons.

Mrs. G. Siemens was appointed to attend the annual W.I. Conference, to be held this year in Fort Langley, as the Coghlan delegate.

Mrs. Merle Christensen will be delegate to the Convention at the U.B.C. in May.

It was decided to purchase the booklet, "Finding Better Programs", in connection with the Night School course two members are taking to help promote more concise and vital meetings.

The Group Committee of the Guides and Brownies of the area met at the home of Mrs. Jack Griffiths on March 13. Affairs of the recently held Mother and daughter banquet were discussed and settled.

Mrs. J. Griffiths will attend the coming Provincial Convention to be held in West Vancuver on April 26, 27 and 28. Guiders Mrs. Gale and Mrs. W. H. Kirkham also plan to attend. Cookie Week when the Guides and Brownies hold their annual sale will be held between April 27 and May 5. This group plans to do the bulk of its selling on April 28th.

Training class for Guiders will be held March 27th in Langley City Hall. A warm welcome is extended to any mother or other interested person to attend these classes.

SOUTH OTTER

PEARDONVILLE

Epp, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Froese and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hamm. Also Mr. and Mrs.P. Hamm Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. R. Pope of Vancouver.

A well attended meeting of Peardonville Farm Forum was held at the Van Burken home on Boundary Road, Monday evening. Topic discussed was taxation for Education. Members did not think the present property tax works fairly in assessing the costs of education. They feel the school taxes on the land are too high for the income off the land. It was felt that education costs should be a provincial or dominion government problem rather than a community problem. It was suggested that: (1) Curriculum and standards should be equalized right across Canada. (2) Salaries should be set on a provincial scale. (3) Teachers should be paid on the ability to teach.

Members agreed education costs should be taken out of general revenue and the tax load should be distributed on the ability of the individual to pay.

The next meeting will be held at the Olson home.

Neighbours and friends of Mrs. Kutzer and Mrs. Abe Martens held a joint baby shower in their honour Saturday at the Blaschek home. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Pine Grove C.G.I.T. had a very successful St. Patrick's tea on Saturday.

It certainly seems too bad there isn't someone in the district who would take more interest in the young boys who like going on camping and hiking trips. NAVY LOG

By ANDREE

The three ladies from H.M.C.S. Aldergrove who were in the Abbotsford Hospital last week have returned home, no doubt to the joy and relief of their respective families. They are Mrs. Charlie Brown, Mrs. L. Beatty and Mrs. A. Eburne. We wish them continued return to health.

Petty Officer and Mrs. W. Bean, who live in Chilliwack welcomed their new baby on Friday March 16. This makes the third new baby within a year, as the lucky parents had twins the first time! Congratulations.

Mrs. A. Dickson of Matsqui Station, who recently had a baby girl, was guest of honour at a Stork Shower which was held at the home of Mrs. A. McNeil.

Leading Seaman J. McCulley has left H.M.C.S. Aldergrove after a stay of three years. Best of luck to him in the future. New appointments to H.M.C.S. Aldergrove are the following: Petty Officer G. MacKenzie, Able Seaman J. Marsh, Able Seaman W. Hummel, Able Seaman P. Postma, Able Seaman R. Young, Able Seaman W. Dunbar; to all of whom we extend a warm welcome.

On Sunday March 18, a hotly contested hockey game was held at the Vancouver Wireless Station at Ladner, between the Army personnel of that station and the hockey players of H.M.C.S. Aldergrove. The score, 5—0 in favour of the Army, suggests that perhaps the Navy excels on the water only when it isn't frozen! The victors consoled the vanquished, and their wives, with a delightful party at the Sergeants' Mess, following the game.

Report from Parliament Hill

By W. A. McLennan, M. P.

The report entitled "Private and Public Investment in Canada" outlook for 1962, which summarizes the results of a recent survey of capital spending intentions for the coming year has been published. The survey which is conducted annually, is designed to cover anticipated expenditures for new plant and equipment, institutional and Government facilities and housing.

The capital expenditures plans for all sectors of the economy as shown by the report will be over 6% involving total outlays of well over eight and one-half billion. Higher capital spending is indicated for each of the major sectors of the economy.

Within the business areas most of the added strength will be in key commodity producing industries. Capital outlays in expandinging programs in primary iron and steel, metal processing and petroleum refining. Other areas of business where plans call for significantly larger capital outlays in 1962, include iron ore and non-ferrous metal mining, electric power, communications and retail trade. Less will be spent in 1962 in pipeline and gas processing plant construction, new office building and in acquiring equipment for commercial airlines as unusually large programs have been implemented in these fields last year.

The major factor contributing to larger outlays in the areas of institutional and public investments is the greatly expanded program of technical school construction which has been made possible through extensive financial assistance by the Federal Government. Significant increases are also indicated in anticipated outlays for the construction of University and Hospital buildings and for Federal, Provincial and Municipal Government projects.

Present spending intentions call for a higher level of investment in 1962 in eight of the ten Provnices. Only in Alberta and British Columbia, where very large programs of pipeline construction were completed last year, is a lower level of capital spending anticipated

A capital expenditure program of the size indicated will reinforce the expansion and general activity now under way in Canada. Higher outlays for both new construction and new machinery and equipment will mean increased activity in the construction and related trades and in equipment producing industries. The results of the survey show also that a continuing high proportion of the national product is being devoted to the renewal and expansion of capital facilities.

The Honourable Howard Green is attending a meeting in Geneva on disarmament and has hopes a summit meeting of world leaders can be arranged for June.

The majority of suggestions on the banning of nuclear testing and nuclear war put forward by Canada have been embodied in the plan which has been submitted to the United Nations. Canada, through Mr. Green has been one of the leaders in advocating the outlawing of nuclear testing and weapons. A nuclear war is unthinkable and everything possible must be done to prevent it ever happening.

In the event that an attack on Canada by a foreign power possessing nuclear weapons was imminent, undoubtedly Canada would want to have those responsible for the defence of our country armed with the best weapons available.

Representatives of the Voice of Women have had interviews with both the Prime Minister and the Honourable Mr. Green, Secretary of State for External Affairs, and have had every encouragement given them in their work for peace.

As for the Peace Research Institute, this is a very interesting idea and I feel anything that might contribute to finding solutions to world problems should be encouraged. However, as far as I can discover this organization has made no formal approach to the Government asking for assistance.

Legislative Report

By Camille Mather, MLA, Delta

The Legislature has now completed seven weeks of sitting and appears headed for at least one more week. This is in variance with early forecasts for a short and quiet session. While we have been spared the "all night sittings", we have sat in the House until midnight on several occasions. Some seventy Bills have been processed to date. Most of these however, have been insignificant and could be considered as "tidying up" or "housekeeping" Bills only.

As the session progresses, one becomes aware of a feeling of electricity in the air generated by the threats of the Premier to call a provincial election. Indications of uneasiness are apparent by the different reactions of the Government and Opposition Members. Government backbenchers are extremely quiet, many of whom have not spoken in the House for four weeks. Cabinet Ministers are touchy and sensitive to questions about their departments. In contrast, most New Democratic Party and Liberal M.L.A.'s speak daily with the result that each department is closely scrutinized.

Should an election be called we can expect only forty days notice. Of interest to voters in Delta is the following information:

1. As Delta had a complete enumeration of voters before the last provincial election in 1960, there is little likelihood of an official registration of voters before the next election.
2. If you did not vote in the 1960 election, your name may have been removed from the voters' lists unless, since September 1960, you have officially notified the Registrar of voters.
3. If you have changed your address or have moved into Delta riding since 1960 you are not on the voters' list.
4. If you were 17 years old you are eligible to vote this year if you register. A person 19 years old may vote in a provincial election in British Columbia.
5. The Registrar of Voters in Delta Riding is located at 15261 Pacific Avenue, White Rock — telephone Windsor 8-4546. A telephone call or a letter to the Registrar will ascertain if you are on the voters' list. On request, the Registrar will send you an application form to complete.
6. Under the Provincial Elections Act, the responsibility on the individual himself, of registering as a voter is not the government.

Canadians Help Irish

The men, all veteran diamond drillers with an average of 15 year's experience, include: Ray Marshall, Kirkland Lake; Ed Lauzon, Larder Lake; Larry Prudhomme, Edmonton, Alberta; Martin Strand, Timmins; and Ed LaRocque, Timmins. Three others will join the group next week.

The men are under contract to Northgate Exploration Ltd. of Toronto. Northgate has been investigating mining properties in Ireland for the past several months and the new men have been hired to speed up proving operations. Twenty-four holes have already been drilled to an average depth of 200 feet, according to Northgate President. Patrick J. Hughes.

Test drills have recorded appreciable amounts of lead, silver, copper and zinc. Several hundred additional holes will be drilled over an 18 square mile area.

The Canadian men will be assisted by a number of Irish workers.

Northgate operations are centred near the town of Loughrea in County Galway, about 20 miles inland from Galway Bay.

Dedication Of Cronkhite Twins

A dedication of children, held on February 18th at Nanaimo, will be of interest to the many friends in Aldergrove.

The christening of the twin children of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cronkhite, Victoria, formerly of Aldergrove, took place in St. Andrews United Church, Nanaimo.

The officiating minister was Rev. Chris Jack.

Sponsors for the babies were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cronkhite, Vancouver, for Janet Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stupich, Cassidy, for Andrew Marshall Donald.

Grandparents of the children are Mrs. D. G. and the late Mr. D. G. Harper, of Beaconsfield, England, and Mrs. A. M. Cronkhite, formerly of Aldergrove.

The twins were dressed in identical christening dresses brought from England.

A family tea was held in the afternoon at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stupich, Cassidy.

Mrs. A. M. Cronkhite, Cassidy, matriarch of the occasion, rejoiced in the presence of almost her entire family. Absent only, was one daughter-in-law, and a foster son-in-law.

The christening cake was cut by the mother of the principals, Mrs. J. M. Cronkhite, assisted by wee Miss Helen Stupich. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all present.

Contest For Historic Cars

Historic cars, dating back to the earliest years of motoring, will roll their ancient wheels again in Vancouver Easter Sunday, April 22.

The vehicles will assemble at Oakridge shopping centre, 41st and Cambie, be judged and then parade downtown streets to BCAA headquarters on Burrard.

Start of the parade itself is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. The route is 41st to Cambie, Cambie to Broadway, Broadway to Granville, Granville to Hastings, Hastings to Burrard.

Trophies will be awarded for the best vehicles in four age groups, the best overall car, and the best costumes (which are to be the same vintage as the automobiles).

This is the third year in a row that the B.C Automobile Association has sponsored the event. Previous years an estimated 25,000 people viewed the cars at Oakridge or saw them on the parade route.

HAWAII MOOTED AT SEATTLE WORLD'S FAIR

The romantic riches of Hawaii will signal the fiftieth state's presence on the Seattle World's Fair grounds.

A Polynesian pavilion, privately financed by Honolulu and Seattle business interests, will offer an outstanding array of Hawaii's Polynesian flavor at the fair.

The project represents an investment of about $420,000 according to John O. Warren a native of Seattle and now a prominent businessman in Honolulu.

The pavilion, already under construction, will include a long house, a 600-seat theatre 10,000 square-foot Polynesian and concession areas. Four shows of island music and dancing are planned daily.

Warren, along with Norman Collins—also of Honolulu— and R. H. Hutchinson, G. A. Prentice and Robert M. Arnold are sponsoring the exhibit.

Dedication of the exhibit area was carried out in traditional Hawaiian ceremonies with the Rev. Abraham Kahikina Akaka of Honolulu blessing the ground with ceremonial water from Oahu.

Gladiolus Society Plans Aug. Show

Fraser Valley Gladiolus Society is already making plans for two shows again this year. The two they held last year were highly successful.

First show this year will be on August 4th, in the Youth Centre, Trinity Memorial Church, Abbotsford, and the second, on August 12th, will be held in the United Church Hall, White Rock.

Bon Voyage Party For Oscar Saters

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid of Murrayville gave a surprise Bon Voyage party on Saturday evening. It was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater and was held at their home. The Saters will be leaving at the weekend for a 3 month trip to Norway. While there they will help to celebrate the 80th birthday of Mr. Sater's stepmother. The Ladies' Aid presented Mr. and Mrs. Sater with a suitable gift.

On Friday evening the Saters' third daughter, Aileen, was married in St. Andrew's Church, Langley, to Eystein Vannebo, and on Saturday evening those present at the party were able to view the wedding gifts.

By Legionaire

It was great news in last week's issue of the Aldergrove News that the green light has at last been given for the new hospital to go ahead. We at once got cracking and informed the hospital Board that the Branch will sponsor a 4-bed ward, but we were beaten at the post by our Ladies' Auxiliary who got in first with a sponsorship of a private ward. In doing this we (and the ladies) have committed ourselves to finding a lot of money, but we have no doubt that we shall get it. Last week we received a number of donations in memory of Mrs. Jens Larsen, who passed away recently after a very long illness. At last week's General Meeting president Alvin Fast suggested that those members who can't, or don't want to, go to the Legion Bingo Tuesdays might spend a dollar or so to the same effect by sending it to the Legion Office for our Hospital Fund.

IN HOSPITAL

Stan Purves and Jack Perkins are in Langley Hospital and J. Sogge, A. Metcalfe, T. Brady and George Bird are in Shaughnessy. We are sorry that George had to go back there so soon after his last stay, but we hear he is doing well. Welfare enquiries can meanwhile be made to Mrs. Bird, or if you contact the Legion Office your enquiry will be referred to the right quarter at once.

SUMMER CAMP

We have booked accommodation for 12 persons at the White Rock Lodge from 29 July to 6 August. Members on W.V.A. and their wives are eligible, and Bill Monckton wants to hear from those who have not yet enjoyed a holiday there. The cost is only $4 per person (the Branch pays the rest) and the quarters are very comfortable and the food good. Write or ring Langley 310 any morning if you would like to go and have a really enjoyable holiday.

MEMBERSHIP

Four new members were initiated at the last General Meeting. Others who have joined the Branch since our last Notes are: G. W. Brett, J. E. Greenwood, C. J. Graham, Sergt C. L. Ray, R. P. Marinello and J. D. Anderson. However, there are still far too many old members in arrears with their 1962 dues. We want to remind these that unless they pay up now they will not receive The Legionary.

BINGO

The fans had a good night at the session last week, when prizes of $145 and $50 were taken home by two lucky people. If you would like to do the same, all you have to do is to come Tuesday nights to the Masonic Hall at 8 p.m., buy your cards, and Roly Copeland and his merry men will do the rest. And don't forget—the new hospital will benefit.

Harry: Edison. He invented the phonograph and radio so people could stay up all night using his light bulbs.

Science Teacher: Now let's assume I want to switch on the electric lights and they won't work. What may be wrong?

Jimmy: Maybe you forgot to pay the bill.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank Dr. Mout and Dr. Wilmshurst and the nursing staff for their kindness to me while in the Langley Memorial Hospital. Also to all neighbours and friends who sent flowers, fruit and 'get well' cards, and the many kindly visits.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. A. Newman, Le Feuvre Road South, Aldergrove, invite their friends and neighbours to Open House in the Bradner Hall on Saturday, Mar. 31st. at 8:30 p.m. on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

THE SAYING OF THE BOOK

The Bread of Life: to whom mercy is broken by His grace our souls are fed, and in whose death our sins are dead and heavenly mercies designed. In all Thy ways acknowledge Him as a net is spread for every bird and only salvation through the Lord Jesus.
