UNEMPLOYMENT SHOWS SLIGHT INCREASE

Severe weather in January cause a slight increase in the number of workers registered for employment compared to last year, stated Ross Pennington, Manager of the National Employment Office. This temporary situation should improve shortly as weather conditions permit the return of work of loggers, construction workers and many others.

At January 30th, a total of 7,037 men and 2,791 women registered for employment with the National Employment Service, compared to 6,648 men and 3,048 women at the end of January last year. Weather conditions also created a sizeable increase since the end of December, when 6,104 men and 2,449 women were seeking employment.

The extreme weather disrupted most manufacturing industries either directly or indirectly. Lumber and wood products plants were most seriously handicapped. Plywood plants shut down completely during the initial cold weather but were not seriously curtailed by the snow. Sawmills, shingle mills and wood preserving plants however, were severely affected by the continuing snow until after mid-January.

Secondary manufacturing was not seriously disrupted except where outside work was directly or indirectly involved as in foundries, shipyards, and structural steel plants. Machine shops carried on almost as usual.

The extreme weather conditions during the first half of January halted most construction projects in the area. However, by the middle of the month many of the larger projects gradually started recalling crews. House construction was particularly effected.

Business volume in retail stores was stimulated throughout the month by pre-inventory and January sales with the result that fewer people than usual were laid off after the Christmas buying rush. Service industries were badly handicapped by the severe weather with the result that there was very little demand for workers in restaurants, cctering and private hospitals.

Agriculture, which is normally quiet at this time continued to require many men for permanent work on dairy and mixed farms. Logging was practically shut down because of snow conditions but is expected to re-open as soon as weather permits. Other seasonal industries such as peat, fishing, and food processing were almost dormant which is normal for this time of the year.

Even at this period when job seekers are more numerous than at other times of the year, shortages were still prevalent in some occupations, including structural steel lay-out men and fitters, certified welders, machinists, fully qualified mechanics, professional engineers, draftsmen, junior executive trainees, housekeepers, nurses, specialized stenographers and sales persons.

LEGION NEWS-BRANCH 265

by J.G. SMURTHWAITE

The new slate of officers for the Branch has taken over, and are getting the year off to a good start.

President Currell has made an appeal to the members, laying out two main goals for the year. One is the building and opening of our new Legion building, to be the home for the Branch, and the other a doubling of the active membership. To this end, we wish to see far more of the General Membership active on the various committees. To quote Comrade Currel, "The fact that you are a member and Comrade of Branch 265 signifies your interest in the welfare and growth of the Branch, and I trust that you will not hesitate to serve on a Committee when you are approached by a Commitee Chairman."

Reverend J. D. Faris, the Branch Padre is leaving us. Rev. Faris has worked hard within the Branch and has always done a exceptional fine job when called upon. The membership as a whole will miss him, and wish him all the best in the future.

The Branch will be resuming its monthly dances, the first of this year being on Saturday, February 20 at the usual place, -- the Bradner Hall. These dances have always been a success, gradually growing in popularity, with good music and a good crowd.

To answer a question that keeps popping up about this series of dances, - they are not strictly reserved to Legion members. Anyone may come, and is welcome, provided only that they are at least 21 years of age. Tickets should be obtained from Branch 265 members before the dance date.

President-elect Curly Currell expressed the thanks of the Branch for the work done by Past-President NcNernie. We, the members, would like, at this time to individually, and collectively add our very best wishes. As President, Len McNernie gave a tremendous amount of time and effort to the task of organizing the new Branch and getting it on its feet. Looking back at what has been accomplished in so short a time, he did a remarkable job. Well done, Len!

The installation was followed by a pot-lick supper, and a social evening, enjoyed by members and their ladies.

We would like to point out that Branch 265 will be resuming their monthly dances this coming month, the first being on February 20th. These are always successful affairs with everyone having a really good time. Start looking for your tickets now! The Executive and many of the members have them,

9th HOLLAND PILGRIMAGE FOR KIN OF WAR DEAD

OTTAWA, ONT., -- The Royal Canadian Legion has announced that the ninth pilgrimage to Holland, for relatives of Canadian war dead buried there, leaves Montreal on May 2nd.

Some 140 pilgrims will be based at Bergen-Op-Zoom and Holten during the eight-days in Holland. Both of these areas are sites of Canadian cemetaries. While in Holland, the Canadian visitors will be guests of Dutch families.

The Netherlands War Graves Committee, a private organization responsible for the pilgrimages, will also provide financial assistance to next-of-kin in necessitous circumstances. A fixed amount has been set aside so that parents, who otherwise might never make the trip, may visit their son's grave. While the fund is limited, it is possible that individuals might be assisted to the full extent of the cost.

To date, over 650 relatives have taken the pilgrimage to Holland where 6,331 Canadians lie buried.

SCHOOL INSULATION FIRE HAZARD

Abbotsford School district Board of Trusteed decided to take no immediate action on a recommendation of the Sumas Fire Marshall.

In a letter to the board, fire marshall Frank Kibble stated that insulation used in the Upper Sumas school was not fire proof.

Trustee W. B. Langdon-Davies reporting on the matter stated that the insulation was chopped feed sack bindings. He said that he feared the consequences of a fire in such materials.

School board chairman H. E. Borg commented that if the insulation in this school had to be changed he wondered how many schools would also have to have new insulation. He said that the heating was much safer now.

A letter from the school insurance company on the matter stated that if recommendations such as this were implemented half the Vancouver Schools would have to be torn down.

A meeting will be set up between the district fire marshall and the school board to discuss the problem.

Volunteer Firemen Saved Property Valued At $1,541,835

The worst year for losses in eight years for the Aldergrove volunteer fire department was reported to the annual meeting of the department last Thursday Jan. 29th in the meeting room of the Aldergrove fire hall. Losses between December 1st, 1963, and November 30th, 1964, were calculated at $36,650 for a 35.4 percent destruction of property threatened which was valued at $103,500.

Reason for the heavy percentage loss was the fire that razed North Otter School in December, 1963. Flames had secured a firm control on the building before the fire department could be summoned.

Secretary Cliff Watt reported that there had been a total of 14 fires to which the department had been called in the 12 months. Their severity ranged from chimney fire scares to the North Otter School inferno.

In the past eight years the department has saved property valued at $1,541,835 and the average yearly losses have amounted to 16.89 percent.

Joe Breier was re-elected chairman of the fire area with Roy Beggs as the vice-chairman. Cliff Watt was returned as secretary-treasurer. Members of the executive council for 1965 are Walter Makela, Mike Stacey, Jim Ferguson and Don Eves.

Fred Dams was returned as the fire chief and Elmer Quiring as the deputy chief.

With the mill rate for fire protection set at three mills throughout the municipality, the department was able to operate comfortably within its budget of $14,300. During the year the parking lot around the hall was improved at a cost of $1,000. Hose worth $2,000 was purchased and an emergency truck was bought for $2,938. This gives the department four vehicles, the other three being the big pumper, a tank truck, and a hose and utility truck.

$17,000 Budget For Fraser Valley Tourism

A proposed budget of seventeen thousand dollars was presented to the Fraser Valley Tourist Association first meeting of the year.

The budget expenditures include $8,400 for matching grants $3,000 for Fraser Valley Brochures, $2,000 for information centres operation, $2,000 reserve funds and the remainder for administration.

Finance committee chairman Oscar Dayton reported that the association had finished 1964 in the black, with a credit balance of $61,00.

All levies will be the same as last year, Mr. Dayton reported. Funds for operation of the Tourist Association comes from municipal, commercial and Chamber of Commerce grants.

It was reported that the external advertising for 1965 for Region B has been finalized at a cost of $68,000. This will send advertising all down the Coast and to the Prairie Provinces.

Mr. Norman Dent was given a vote of thanks for his efforts in drawing up the constitution.

Plans were made for a seminar and panel discussion regarding the promotion of Fraser Valley Tourism. This will be open to all interested in the Tourist Industry.

JC'S SET DATE FOR ORGANIZATION MEETING

The Abbotsford and District Chamber of Commerce have voted support of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The J C's will hold an organizational meeting in Abbotsford February 10 and executive members of the senior group have been attempting to assist in all ways the success of this group.

The executive meeting of the Chamber voted to correspond with the Abbotsford village council asking for clarification of points of the trades lincence by-law. This was done following complaints by merchants of increases in trades licences of up to 450% over 1964.

The sign committee headed by Arnold Rode reported that a newly designed sign will be erected on the western approach to Abbotsford on South Fraser Way. Negotiations are being carried out into a sign on McCallum road near the overpass.

Due to the illness of the membership committee chairman, it was decided to send invoices for the 1965 dues.

A tentative date of March 20 was set for a spring Chamber of Commerce dance.

ABBOTSFORD MAN VISITS SPAIN

The plant manager, Gordon Peterson, of Clayburn Harbison in Abbotsford has completed an inspection tour of a primary refractory plant in Zaragosa Spain.

Mr. Peterson's trip was to examine special machinery in use by Maquiceram Ltd. in that centre.

As a result of the trip, Clayburn Harbison has placed an order for a high production brick press which will process 1400 brick an hour. The new machine was necessary in order to keep up with the increased production capacity of the new $500,000 burning unit recently installed at the plant.

5 men plan park future

A five-man municipal committee has been appointed by Reeve Bill Poppy to bring in a report on plans for Williams Park in the Sperling district as quickly as possible. Named to the committee last week were councillors Ralph Barichello, Art Woolley, Bill Blair and Frank Shuster, as well as the reeve. The report they are to prepare is to cover the whole park development.

Counc. Barichello told the council meeting that ideas for the 30-acre woodland park are in the preliminary stages and the parks committee will tour it when the snow is off the ground.

TIGHTER RESTRICTIONS WANTED BY B. C. HYDRO

B.C. Hydro has asked for tighter restrictions on industrial development fronting on the Department of Highways bypass through Langley City. Gordon Bowes, area development agent for the hydro authority, says that when the bypass is completed through the northern part of the city, a number of attractive industrial sites will be opened up along both sides of the new highway. The route is scheduled for completion late this summer. Bowes says that frontage on a major thoroughfare will appeal to certain industries because of the advertising and prestige gained from a prominent location. He says the first 2 or 3 buildings on the bypass will set the tone for the remainder of the development. Bowes told council it would be unfortunate if unsightly or second-rate industry was allowed to locate in the area, becuase it would have the ultimate effect of driving away the more desirable industry.

Bowes asked City Council to consider amending its present bylaws to ensure a high standard of development. He suggested that council ask for a fully landscaped, minimum setback of 40 to 60 feet along the bypass. And that only light industrial firms be allowed. He said heavy industry could be encouraged to locate elsewhere in the City's industrial zone. Council has passed the request along to the advisory planning commission for a recommendation.

Agricultural Ass. Wants Grant Increased

The Langley Agricultural Association wants an increased grant from City council to cover over 1965 operating costs.

LAA president Jack Lee appeared before council to ask for an increase in the annual grant from 250 dollars to 400 dollars.

Lee told council the basis of the economy in the Langley area has been agriculture from the beginning, and still is today. He says the fall fair, sponsored by the association provides a "show window" for farmers, gardeners and homemakers, as well as achievement days for the many 4H clubs in Langley City and District, all sponsored by the association.

Lee said the LAA has operated for several years with a deficit, directing most of the groups efforts toward reducing and eliminating its debt, which was accomplished in 1963. He said during that time the group was unable to carry out any improvements to the grounds or buildings, but members now feel that redevelopment program should be started.

Lee said the most urgent projects are the re-roofing of the club house and installing proper drain tiling on the grounds. He estimated the cost of both projects at 12 hundred dollars. The association also plans to construct a one-quarter mile track, new bleacher seats and complete reseeding of the grounds. The LAA is presently making plans for the 73rd annual fall fair, to be held this fall.

Construction Decreases

The rate of construction for the first month of 1965 in the municipalities of Matsqui and Sumas is down considerably from the first month in 1964.

In Sumas municipality, no building permits were issued during January, compared with permits valued at $90,000 in January 1964.

In Matsqui municipality, the total value of permits issued was $99,000. A major permit was issued to National Engineered Structures Co. Ltd. The $30,000 permit was for a manufacturing plant on South Fraser Way near Mt. Lehman road. The January total is down approximately $50,000 from the value of construction in January 1964.

WORKSHOP HUGE SUCCESS

Members of the Fort Langley Board of Trade appear to like the idea of a workshop method of discussion board business.

The Board conducted its first workshop at last Monday, Feb. 1st regular meeting, and the general feeling among members was that the experiment was a huge success....and would likely be continued.

Members were divided into two groups for round table discussion of a letter from the Salmon River Dyking Commission. The letter asked property owners at Fort Langley to contribute two dollars per parcel of land to create a reserve fund the commission could draw on if necessary. The two groups, led by board members Roy Seney and Cam Richie, left President Ken Husband a stack of notes and comments to assimilate. Husband says his reply to the Dyking Commission's request will be made following a study of the results of the workshop discussions.

SCHOOL BUDGET UP $200,000

The total 1965 operating budget for Langley School District is up some 200 thousand dollars from 1964.

The budget, presented to Langley City Council last Monday, totals 2 million 333 thousand 600 dollars, compared to 2 million 104 thousand 700 dollars last year. The major increase in the budget is for teachers salaries, which are up some 120 thousand dollars, from one million 257 dollars last year, to one million 386 dollars for 1965. Finance chairman, Alderman Leo Nicholas, said the City's share of school costs for the coming year were set at 175 thousand 481 dollars, an increase of approximately 29 thousand dollars. Nicholas said the City share of the school budget would mean a 5 mill increase for school purposes.

Mayor John Conder said that although school costs are rising year after year, there is no doubt that children are being better educated than ever. The Langley District share of the budget is up 71 thousand dollars, from 634 thousand dollars in 1964, to 805 thousand this year.

Editorial

It Don't Make Sense

There's been a lot of interest recently in juvenile court. There's a move to give offenders more publicity, for traffic offences anyway.

This may be all right, but it's not just the publicity that's needed, though it may help. One thing which seems to us very odd is that the maximum fine in juvenile court is only $25. A young man can get away, if not with murder at least with something close to it, and not have to pay more than $25. It's true that his licence can be suspended, but that doesn't seem to mean too much. We are constantly having cases in court of men driving around without a licence. Nothing much seems to happen on this, which should be a very serious matter indeed.

If a driver has his licence suspended, it's because he's a menace on the road and he should be kept off. If he still continues to drive he's a public danger. He should be forcibly removed from society. This would have a pretty good deterrent effect. If young men knew a gaol term would follow if they got caught driving while under suspension, they might think twice.

The other thing which can be done with juveniles is to send them away. This a judge is very unwilling to do. He will give the young person every opportunity to straighten up without this. He will probably also think that it seems ridiculous to punish a young person with a gaol term for an offence which would merit only a fine for an older person.

But the young person can't be charged a severe fine, even though he may be working and as well able to pay as the next one. So either his crime must go virtually unpunished, or else the punishment must be too severe. The Alaska Highway News

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Sir:-

The Metaphysical Society concerns itself with the varied manifestations of psychic phenomena, and is interested in any experiences with extra sensory perception which Canadians may have had.

Would you be so kind as to print this letter in order that any of your readers who have experienced supernormal incidents, and would care to tell about them, might write to the Society. All such letters would receive personal replies, and would either be kept confidential or recorded in our publications, according to the writer's preference.

Anyone who would like to contribute an incident should try to state the date and place of the occurrence, giving as much detail as possible. Information on ethnic origin is also helpful for cross reference purposes, but this is entirely up to the writer.

Thank you for your consideration.

Guest speaker at the senior chapel on Tuesday was Rev. H. R. Wiens. He spoke to the students on how they could make their lives fruitful. Rev. Wiens is the General Secretary of the Mennonite Brethren Board of Missions, and is in the Fraser Valley for the annual missionary conference.

The seniors were privileged to have Mr. H. Thiessen, Missionary to Borneo, as their chapel speaker on Friday. Len Epp led the students in a number of hymns to open the service. The invocation by Waldo Peters followed. A male trio with Ed Balzer, Waldo Peters, and Harold Derksenthen served in a special number. Our principal, Mr. Neumann led in a testimony meeting followed by a solo by Harold Derksen. Mr. Thiessen then gave the message and closed the service with prayer.

Preparations for the annual school drama production are getting under way. This year's drama, under the direction of Mr. J. Toews, will portray the story of Peter Marshall, as taken from the book, "A Man Called Peter", written by Catherine Marshall. The drama will be presented sometime in April or May.

Mr. L.J. Dyck, teacher at the M.E.I. for many years, is undergoing surgery and will be absent from school for a number of weeks.

The M.E.I. Ladies' Auxiliary sponsored a film night at the M.E.I. on Tuesday, February 2. The feature film, "Newfoundland Scenes", was an Imperial Oil colour production. The film included the dramatic adventure of the annual seal hunt and concluded with an exciting voyage on a whaling expedition into stormy Atlantic waters.

SPORTS

A new addition to our basketball teams in the junior girls team. The girls are coached by a member of the senior girls' team, Elena Petrali. Team members are: Linda Wiebe, Adina Toews, Alice Driediger, Marlene Toews, Elsie Loewen, Luella Wiebe, Erna Unruh. Although they organized only recently, they have already played a number of games. They have played Abbotsford twice and have lost both games. They also lost their game at Clearbrook, but they were successful in defeating the Mission team.

Our junior boys have not yet been defeated this season. They showed their fine style when they hosted Mission on Thursday afternoon. They defeated their guests by a large margin with a score of 74-27. Of these 74 points, 26 were made by Dave Loewen, who played a very good game.

Friday night M.E.I. was hosted by Magee. All three of our teams were successful in defeating their opponents.

An undefeated Magee senior girl's team, who's players had exceptionally high scoring averages, met their match when our senior girls overpowered them by the score of 23 to 19. Helen Goerzen collected the most points with a total of 10. Other scorers were: Susan Tilitzky 6, Lorie Hooge 4, Mary Ann Schmidt 2.

The M.E.I. intermediate team played what might be called its best game of the season when it defeated the Magee team 65 to 38. M.E.I. maintained a lead throughout the entire game. Quarter time score was 19 to 11; at half time it was 35 to 22. The third quarter ended with the score 48 to 34. Then in the last quarter M.E.I. surged ahead and rallied 17 more points to compair with Magee's 4. Scorers for M.E.I. were: Rudy Teichroeb 16, Dave Lowen 14, Menno Wiebe 12, Bill Warkentine 7, Paul Lowen 6, Jack Falk 5, Dan Doerksen 5.

M.E.I. Eagles defeated the Magee Blackshirts in a game which lacked excitement until the fourth quarter on Friday night. The Eagles lagged behind with a score 11 to 8 at quarter time. By half time they were leading 23 to 16. The Magee team crept up on the poorly playing M. E. I. team in the third quarter, and left M.E.I. ahead by only 2 points. The last quarter saw the Blackshirts get a lead of 1 point with only minutes remaining. Then M.E.I. sank a number of shots to make the final score 40 to 34 in their favour. Scorers for M.E.I. were Harold Derksen 12, Bill Warkentine 8, Dave Loewen 7, Dennis Neumann 6, Rudy Teichroeb 4, Harold Toews 2, Don Wallace 1.

BUS DEPOT TO REMAINED CLOSED

Pacific Stage Lines has turned thumbs down on a Langley City request to have the bus depot opened on Sundays.

Council made the request after hearing complaints from residents who were forced to stand in the cold while waiting for a bus on Sunday. Council asked the stage lines to consider opening the waiting room for Sunday travellers, at least during the winter months.

However, J. E. Allan, PSL manager, says the depot is operated by a concessionaire and the costs are already high for the operation as it stands now. He says that there is not enough Sunday business to warrant opening of the depot.

Allan says that at one time PSL did leave the waiting room open without supervision, but the resulting vandalism forced the company to discontinue the practice.

Meantime, Pacific Stage Lines has announced another change in schedules for the Langley area. The company says it has been forced to cancel the late evening trip from Vancouver because of insufficient traffic. Another trip will be added during the day to replace the cancelled evening trip, effective March 4th.

SERVICE IS OUR BUSINESS

INTRODUCING YOU TO YOUR CLEARBROOK MERCHANTS

Henry Mattles, proprietor of Peacock Rug and Draperies, came to Clearbrook from Dumas Prairie some 4 1/2 years ago and purchased the firm known as Palm Draperies, then one of the smallest business in town. Since then, business has been increasing steadily. Larger premises were required and purchased but these in turn had to be enlarged during the past summer. Now this business is one of the largest in Clearbrook. It has over 6,000 square feet of floor space, half of which is warehouse. Located on South Fraser Way, the store, after several remodelings, now truly compliments the business section of town. The beautiful interior features elaborate displays of rug and carpet, drapes, hard-surface floors, paints, etc.

A beautifully mounted and spotlighted peacock adds a distinctive facet of eloquence. Mr. Mattles and his wife Mary have a family of 2 boys and 2 girls and live on Upland Drive in Clearbrook.

Erv Schmidt, successful salesman for the firm, moved to Clearbrook some 2 years ago after operating the Langley Plaza Texaco station for 3 1/2 years. Erv and his wife Ruby have 3 children and live on Bakerview Street in Clearbrook. "Hello to all former patrons in the Langley District," says Erv, "and come over to look at our fine line of carpets and hard-surfaced floors."

Peacock Rug and Draperies specialize in expert sewing and installation of drapes. Sewing room operations are directed by Mrs. Reimer. She, along with assistants, Mrs. Wiebe and Mrs. Hooge, also clerk the store, offering excellent advice concerning qualities, quantities, colors, sizes, etc.

Dave Petkau and Jake Derksen with years of experience and skilled in the installation of carpets, drapes and hard-surfaced floors, operate the two Econoline delivery vans.

Proprietor and salesman, both members of the Clearbrook Board of Trade, expressed loyal support of the organization which, thanks to its able leadership is doing a great deal for Clearbrook. "There is a lot in the future for Clearbrook thanks to the Board of Trade and we will do our utmost to continually remember the community and do our best for it," say Henry and Erv.

Behind the scenes, Mrs. Wiebe, Mrs. Hooge, and Mrs. Reimer operate the sewing room.

Henry Mattles, proprietor, poses beside the mounted peacock, the symbol of the firm.

Jake Derksen and Dave Petkau, experts in their trade, operate the delivery vans, installing rugs, drapes, hard-surface floors, etc.

What do you think of this? The Manager of a Toronto department store has reported on a new glue-type product designed to hold up stockings.

He said he took a sample home to his daughter and asked her to try it...and here is what happened. Once, shortly after putting on her stockings, she went out and found her legs stuck together. If she put too much glue on, her outer clothes stuck to her legs. When she perspired, the stockings came loose and tumbled around her ankles. Finally when the stuff did work, she had an awful time pulling the stockings loose from her legs. The company which produces the glue says it should keep stockings in place for 24 hours and can be removed at any time without harming legs or hosiery... well when someone tries it and finds it works.... then I'll believe it.

Ladies, a Toronto Psychiatrist offers some suggestions to help your husband live longer. Doctor Marvin Miller says men need to know they are loved, but are reticent about expressing the needs. When such lack of communication exists in marriage, he says, a husband turns to food or alcohol and eventually develops emotional problems capable of producing physical ailments. He's a man so he should know. But let's face it, if hubby comes home from work and we throw our arms around him and say "I love you darling", He softly replies "What did you buy today?"

Back to legs... have you ever heard of this disease? Erythrocyanosis crurum puellarum frigidum... Neither did I till I read that if you don't keep your legs warm in the winter, that's just what you'll get. Doctor Alexander Boyd head of the surgery department at England's Manchester University says that girls who dress scantily in cold weather run the risk of getting fat calves and blotchy skins by the time they are 30. The theory is that tissue and fat multiply on cold legs to keep them warm, and then outgrow the blood supply. The doctor then claims that hideous legs can ruin a girl's life. So the moral of the story is keep them warm and covered or they will end up fat and Have to be covered.

UNEMPLOYED CONTINUES TO INCREASE

The number of unemployed applicants at the Mission National Employment office continued to increase in the month of January. Manager E. N. Hardy reported that this is a seasonal increase. Unfavourable weather conditions that persisted during most of January were blamed for preventing industry from returning to normal operations.

Area mill operations resumed normal operations in the second half of the month, however, the logging operators were delayed in commencing work due to excess snow in the timber areas.

Mr. Hardy reports that a general improvement in the construction area was evident during the month when all major forces were re-activated. Employment prospects for skilled tradesmen improved considerably with the result that several placements were made.

Presentation Made To Retiring Church Warden

At the Annual Congregational meeting held in St. Dunstan's Church on Thursday, Jan 28th, recognition was made of the services given to the parish by Mr. Harold W. James Moir, paid tribute to the work done by Mr. Endacott since the earliest conception of an Anglican Church in Aldergrove. Mr. Endacott was one of the original group that petitioned and planned for the present St. Dunstan's Church, and since it was built he has given it unsparingly of his time.

Mr. Endacott is continuing as a member of the Church Committee.

Mr. D. A. Thompson was appointed by the Vicar as Vicar's Warden in succession to Mr. Endacott. Mr. Les Williams is People's Warden, and Mrs. Fred Dams has been elected by the congregation as Treasurer. Other officers include: Messrs N. Green, R. Salter, T. Lockhart, C. Akreoyd, R. Peterson, G. Rowley, J. Ward.

Ladies elected to the Committe, including presidents of organisations were: Mrs. Pynn, Mrs. Pepin, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Schley, Mrs. Brass, Mrs. N. Green, Mrs. C. Akeroyd.

A family potluck supper was enjoyed before the meeting. During the meeting the children were shown movie films by Mr. Walter Friesen of Otter Road.

LANGLEY & DISTRICT MINISTERIAL MEETS

The Langley and District Ministerial held their monthly meeting at Salem Tabernacle in Cloverdale on February 3rd beginning with a 9:00 a.m. prayer meeting.

Rev. Ross Wrightman, host, opened the 10:00 a.m. session with a challenge for us to allow the Spirit of God to direct and empower us in all our activities.

The ministers present were: Rev. Roger Maggs, Rev. Bob Gish, Rev. N. N. Friesen, Rev. Howard Johnstone, Rev. Vic Stable, Rev. D. D. Johnstone, Rev. John Kunst, Rev. Carl Klassen, Rev. Ross Wightman, Rev. J. N. Cres., Rev. Ralph Haynes, Rev. J. Ehrhardt, Rev. John Stewart, Pastor Miss J. Clerc and Rev. George Penner.

Rev. Maggs, our newly-elected president, introduced and welcomed Rev. John Kunst of the Langley Christian Reformed Church to our ministerial. Rev. Gish as our new secretary-treasurer read the minutes. Appreciation of Dr. Thompson's counselling classes on Monday nights at Langley secondary school was expressed.

Rev. Ralph Haynes told us about the possibility of a youth centre in Cloverdale under Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. He emphasized the aspects of leadership training, bible study and a study of the great religions of the world. It was hoped that ministers would give their support so that the program would have a Christian emphasis. For a start the existing community facilities could be used and the New Westminster Y.M.C.A. would possibly be willing to assist in leadership.

The Ministerial executive presented plans for the United Easter Rally to be held in Langley Secondary Gymnasium on Wednesday, April 14th at 7:30 p.m. Then regular business was attended to with special reference being made to the Home Prayer meetings to begin during the week of February 9-11. The Leighton Ford-Billy Graham campaign will be upon us in three short months so action is necessary in phases like operation Andrew and Counsellor training classes. Enrollment for these classes could be made now through the local Church Committee or the Minister. Ministers were also informed about the Teen Valentine Banquet in Langley on Feb. 13th.

"Give to the Heart Fund - so more will live" is the slogan of the 1965 Heart Fund drive being conducted during February throughout British Columbia.

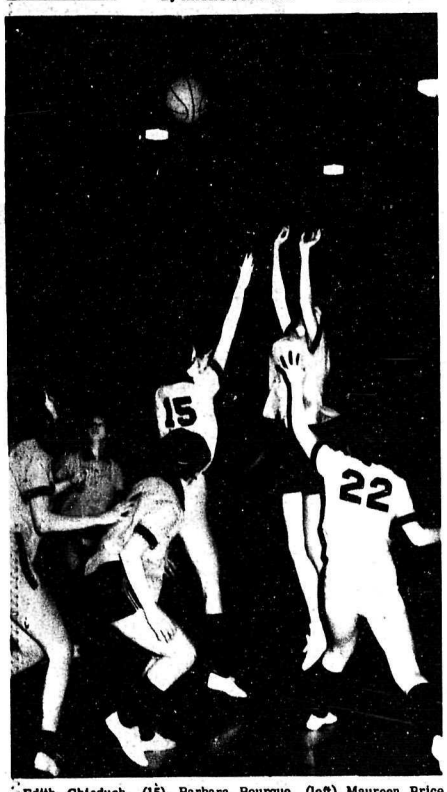
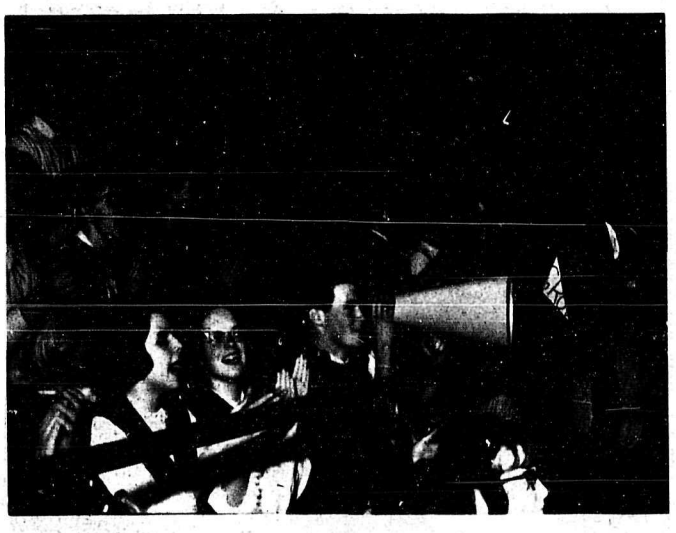
"CHIT-CHAT"

By KATHY FRANCIS



Edith Chieduch, (15), Barbara Bourque, (left) Maureen Price (centre) and Bev. Chieduch (22), closely guard Langley and prepare for rebound in the Senior Girls game against Langley. Final scores: Senior Girls AHS 30, LHS 25; Intermediate Boys AHS 28, LHS 29; Senior Boys AHS 35, LHS 34.

A game was never won without enthusiasm and A. H. S's enthusiastic spectators cheered their teams on to two victories in three hard-fought games.



Junior cheerleaders Laura Borsato and Bente Pedersen join the crowd of A. H. S. supporters in applauding A'grove basked in Friday's games against Langely.

Langley Walk Will Be Shorter

A slightly shorter trek for the third annual Langley Walk this year has been announced by Langley Recreation Commission director Pete Swensson.

Decision of the route has not been reached but Mr. Swensson says that it will be restricted to about 15 miles this year. This will be three or four miles less than the strolls were the first two years that the Langley Walk was held.

Date for the event has been set for Sunday, May 2nd. Mr. Swensson declared that people planning to enter the event should start training for the walk now. In past outings numbers of men, women, boys and girls have suffered blistered feet, and overly sore muscles by not being in condition.

Hopes that the walk on May 2nd will attract over 1,500 participants were expressed by Mr. Swensson. Last year more than 1,000 started the 20-mile hike and the year before that one less than 500 set out on an 18-mile trek. Entries are being invited from all over the province and Mr. Swensson hopes that there will be some entrants this year from the United States.

Two trophies have been offered. One is for competition among high schools with enrollments over 700 and the other is for high schools whose enrollment is less than 700. Number of students who complete the walk will determine the winners of the cups.

Vocational Program Approved By Authorities

The proposed new vocational program in the Abbotsford Senior Secondary school has been approved by federal and provincial authorities.

The cost of new buildings and equipment is set at $554,000 with the M.S.A. area to pay 10% of the cost.

Although the program has been approved in principal an order must be obtained from the Lt.-Governor in Council to approve financial arrangements. News of this is expected within a short time.

Superintendent of School District 34 W. Mouatt reported to the school board meeting last night that immediate attention to planning of the equipment problems is necessary in order to have the new wing ready by September. He stated that there was no guide line for a new curriculum such as this and that a great deal of research is necessary to provide the best facilities. $90,000 dollars worth of equipment will be installed in the new vocational shops with $44,000 equipment necessary for the Commerce rooms. There is no curriculum ready for the agricultural program so that equipment installed with have to be available for a flexible program.

Scouts plan paper drive

Plans for a paper and bottle drive on Saturday, Feb. 27th, were made at the Coghlan Scouts and Cubs group committee meeting last week at Mr. and Mrs. L. Rennie's home on Coghlan Rd. The group also planned a pot luck supper for parents, Scouts and Cubs for March 5th.

Scouts and Cubs of Coghlan are now meeting in Coghlan community hall because the roof of County Line hall has been damaged by heavy snow.

M.B.B.I. Missionary Conference Challenges Church

BY IRWIN WARKENTIN

The Mennonite Brethren Bible Institute sponsored their annual missionary conference this week in the Clearbrook Church with services Sunday through Tuesday and Friday night. "Other Sheep -- Bring them in", the striking theme for the sessions, was masterfully bannered at the fore of the sanctuary. The conference featured a very fine slate of missionary speakers:

Rev. H.R. Wiens -- Born in Kansas and raised in Oklahoma, Rev. Wiens took up studies at Labor College in Hillsboro. Soon after, he was entrusted with the position of preacher-teacher and ever since has been accumulating vast stores of experiences in both areas. He pastored among others the Reddley and Dinuba churches in California and occupied the principal's chair at the Immanuel Academy in Fresno. Now General Secretary of the Board of Missions, Rev. Wiens is an authority on every aspect of missions.

Rev. Herman Buller - Born in Nebraska, Rev. Buller found the Lord in 1948 and after his marriage, he and his wife accepted a missionary call to Montevideo, Uraguay in 1954. Upon the expiry of their five year term, they spent a 9 month furlough and then resumed Spanish language study in Costa Rica in preparation for service in Colombia where they then complete two terms.

Miss Annie Dyck - Miss Dyck was born in Winkler Manitoba. Immediately upon her conversion at the age of 12, she felt a strong missionary urge which was strengthened through the influence of an uncle. After several years of waiting, Miss Dyck finally found it possible to enroll at Winkler Bible School. She felt a strong urge that she was to go to Colombia and after applying to the Board, she was chosen to assist in the pioneering of the work in that country. Miss Dyck, now on furlough after 3 terms on the field, is studying at M.B.B.C. in Winnipeg.

Rev. A.J. Esau -- Rev. Esau, raised in Yarrow B.C. was converted at the age of 13, and soon after attended Bible School there. He expelenced a call to service and in obedience to, took up studies at M.B.B.C. Before going to the Congo, the Esaus spent some valueable years in the home missions work. They were serving their second term when the political eruptions in the Congo forced their evacuation in 1960. Soon, however, all seemed peaceful and the Esaus returned to resume service. But in 1963 new flare-ups again forced a retreat and at present the Esaus are waiting for a new opportunity for service.

George Martens -- Born in Southern Russia, Rev. Marens experienced salvation at an early age. He came to Canada and took up farming in the Crowfoot district of Alberta. But the Lord had other plans for him and soon in obedience he began Russian language study in Toronto, in preparation for a possible opportunity for service behind the Iron Curtain. Then a call came from the Kootenays in British Colombia and the Martens accepted and began a work among the Doukhobors in Grand Forks where they have been serving for 17 years.

Rev. Ed Ratzlaff - Converted at the age of 12, Rev. Ratzlaff studied at Pamburn Bible Institute as well as in Minnesota. After his marriage, the Ratzlaffs served for 7 years in a pastorate and then accepted a call to Ethiopia under the Sudan Interior Mission. He is now B.C. representative for the S.I.M.

Mrs. Ed Ratzlaff -- Mrs. Ed Ratzlaff was born in Saskatchewan into an Anglican setting. Her conversion marked the turning point in her life and she realized that if she wanted to be in the Lord's will, she would have to yield herself completely to Him. She enrolled in a Bible School. Soon after, she was married, and stood by her husband through the 7 years of pastoral work and then accompanied him to Ethiopia.

Rev. Henry Thiessen -- Born in Winnipeg and raised in the Aldergrove district of the Fraser Valley, Rev. Thiessen attended the former Abbotsford Bible School. After he was married, he and his wife felt a call into missions and in preparation both attended and graduated from Prairie Bible Institute in Three Hills, Alberta. The Thiessens then left to serve in Borneo for one term. They returned to the field after a furlough but 13 months later had to be recalled because of the tightening political situation.

Rev. C.D. Loews - Rev. Loews born in 1900 in western Russian. He entered teachers training at the age of 19 and completed it 3 years later. In 1926, after his marriage, he and his wife came to Canada and settled in southern Manitoba where Rev. Loews taught and served in the Neverville district. In 1943 the Loews moved to British Columbia where he served as minister in CO camps till the end of the war. From 1945 to 1961 Rev. Loews taught in various schools in the Fraser Valley. In 1961 they went to Europe where he served as M.C.C. housefather in Frankfurt, Germany, as Bible instructor at Bienenberg, Swit, and as missionary in Heidleberg.

In 1964, they returned and, are now pastoring the Aldergrove church.

Rev. Percy Wills - Rev. Wills, a member of the Shantymens Christian Association, assisted in its pioneer work among workmen in lumber champs, oil fields, and mining and construction camps both in the backwoods of Northern Alberta and on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. Rev. Wills and his wife have had the privilege of leading many men and women to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ; men and women who had become victims of the "hungry thirties", who, wrapped in rags and chilled to the bone, slept under shelters of driftwood, tar paper, and cardboard. The Wills opened a refuge, "The Strangers Rest", and during their first 18 months more than 11,000 men sought shelter there.

Sunday.

The missionary conference was officially opened on Sunday afternoon by President Barn. He introduced the double theme "Other Sheep -- Bring Them In" and "Pray for us." The latter was particularly striking because it was composed of missionary cards, each with the picture and name of some M.B. worker. Sets of such cards were for sale throughout the conference. Miss Annie Dyck addressed the assembly speaking on "The new role of the missionary". Miss Dyck emphasized that every believer is a missionary no matter where he is. Turning to the worker on the foreign field, she explained that his role is no longer as conspicuous as it used to be. He must fit into the culture and then from an ordinary position, even one of a servant, he must seek to influence others with his personality. Miss Dyck closed with the prayer that we would remain on our knees and not fall asleep on our knees. Effectual prayer is no pastime.

The first message of the series was then given by Rev. Wiens on "Bringing them in requires complete personal committment" in the German language. We rejoiced to see the support from the surrounding pre-dominantly German-speaking people who turned out in large numbers for every session.

M.B.B.I. students gathered in the chapel at 9:00 for a prayer meeting. Rev. Buller presented a challenging message on "For vent Prayer" and thus introduced an atmosphere of prayer.

At 10 o'clock, students and public assembled in the Clearbrook church for the second public service. Rev. Buller presented a testimony on his experiences, emphasizing particularly that "We are Workers together with God." Rev. Martens followed with a report on the work among the Doukhobors in the German language. The second message in the series was then given by Rev. Wiens on "Who are the other sheep?". The presiding faculty member was Rev. J.B. Epp and music was by the senior ladies trio.

Monday afternoon, Rev. Wiens lectured to the students of the school gathered in the chapel. Speaking on "Changing Policies in Missions", he emphasized that although many methods come and go, two remain basic; evangelism and churchplanting. He proceeded with illustrations of changes in Mexico. Since indigenization is an absolute must, the biggest thrust will be made by the "professional missionarry "... one who is hired by the national government as a civil worker and who witnesses on his job. After the lecture, the students gathered in four seminars or workshops in which "The national and his need" were discussed. The four groups dealt with the top in four goegraphical areas: Colombia, Congo, Europe, and Home Missions. Following the seminars, time was allotted for individual counselling with missionaries.

With Rev. A.J. Klassen presiding over the evening meetings, Rev. Wiens presented a survey of MB Mission Fields and needs. By far the greatest need he said is prayer. After this come many needs such as adjustment, workers, means, literature, etc. Rev. Wiens mentioned that he was glad that his mission did have need because if there were no needs, there would be no interest and there missions would disintigrate. Music for the evening was furnished by a ladies quintet. Rev. Percy Wills then preached the third sermon of the series, "Bring them in through personal contact". Rev. Wills presented a very stimulating report of his experiences in witnessing in his home, in tract distribution, etc., work which he has been doing along the B.C. Coast.

Tuesday.

The students again assembled at 9:00 for a prayer meeting. Rev. George Martens addressed the fellowships.

Then at the morning service with Rev. H.H. Nikkel chairing the session, Rev. C.D. Loews presented No. 4 in the series of sermons, "Bring them in, in spite of Hindrances" in the German language. The greatest hindrance, he said was division; division between Jew and Gentile, Greek and Barbarian, between races, cultures, denominations and even between church members. And for all hindrances there is one sure-cure answer: LOVE. Miss Annie Dyck then gave a report on the role of literature and its significance in Colombia. "Bringing them into the Fellowships", sermon 5, was preached by Rev. Buller. He presented three steps which must be followed (1) proclamation (2) organization (3) indoctrination, and without any one of these, the process is incomplete. All are essential. The music for this service was presented by the "Torchbearers" the M.B.B.I. male quartet.

The afternoon sitting featured a panel involving all the missionaries. Three problems were discussed and here are some of the comments.

1. The Call

Rev. Ratzlaff: "The Bible is the source for the will of God and to find you must keep yourself in it."

Rev. Buller: "Bible School is an ideal place to find His will"

Rev. Esau: "The search for the will of God involves struggle"

Rev. Wiens: "Calls do not come the same to each. Be sure that you are in His will at the moment and be willing to stay in it. God calls busy people."

2. Training

"You should get all the training possible. Remember that Bible training should precede secular because often a vision is lost if this is not the case."

3. Adjustment Problems

Miss Dyck: language and food

Rev. Esau: application of theory

Rev. Martens: patience

Rev. Buller: urban to rural setting.

Mrs. Ratzlaff: intermissionary relationships.

A brief period of questions followed and there students again assembled in 4 seminar groups, this time to discuss churchplanting, evangelism, literature and radio with the missionaries specializing in these areas.

The climactic evening service, chaired by Pres. Barn, featured music by the Institute Chorus. A stimulating report of the work in Borneo was presented by Rev. Thiessen. Rev. Wiens then gave a special mission challenge. "What is God looking for?" he asked and then he said, "God wants someone to stand in the gap, someone whose heart is perfect (sincere) toward Him; He wants consecrated and dedicated Christians!" Rev. Ed Ratzlaff then presented the final message of the series with "Who will bring them in?" Speaking from the Gospel of John, he drew a very striking comparison between Jesus and His followers, "As the Father hath sent me, so send I you." He developed the comparison and capped it with "Except a corn of wheat fall in the ground and die, it abideth alone." Christ speaks to the other sheep through us! President Born closed the service with a moving plea for the dedication of lives for Jesus Christ.

Displays.

A special word of commendation is due Ben Stobbe and his committee for their untiring efforts to make this conference a success. The fruit of their labours was evident in the attractve displays and banners. There were displays of work in Ethiopia and Brazil as well as general ones indicating the fields, the needs, the means and the methods of missions world wide. A striking banner posted the words of the late Jim Elliot, "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose."

Strokes are no longer hopeless, according to the B.C. Heart Foundation. Invalidism resulting from strokes now can be reduced or prevented through new drugs and rehibilitation techniques and many stroke victims can be restored to productive lives.
