MHOA Will Run Candidate - Tenants Urged To Register

A spokesman for the mobile home owners in Langley district last week, told the Star that his association plans to enter a candidate in the upcoming municipal elections. In this connection, the MHOA urges all mobile home owners to register their names on the voters list. These people are, like other tenants, not automatically included on the municipal lists, but can by contacting the municipal hall in Murrayville become eligible to cast their votes in a civic election. votes in a civic election on all but money matters. Registration must be done in person before September 30th. The mobile home owners feel they are being discriminated against by many municipal by-laws and policies, and by fielding their own candidate they hope to alleviate this situation. "If all our members take enough interest we are sure to elect our own representative," the spokesman said.

Chamber To Press For Sunday Mail Pick-up

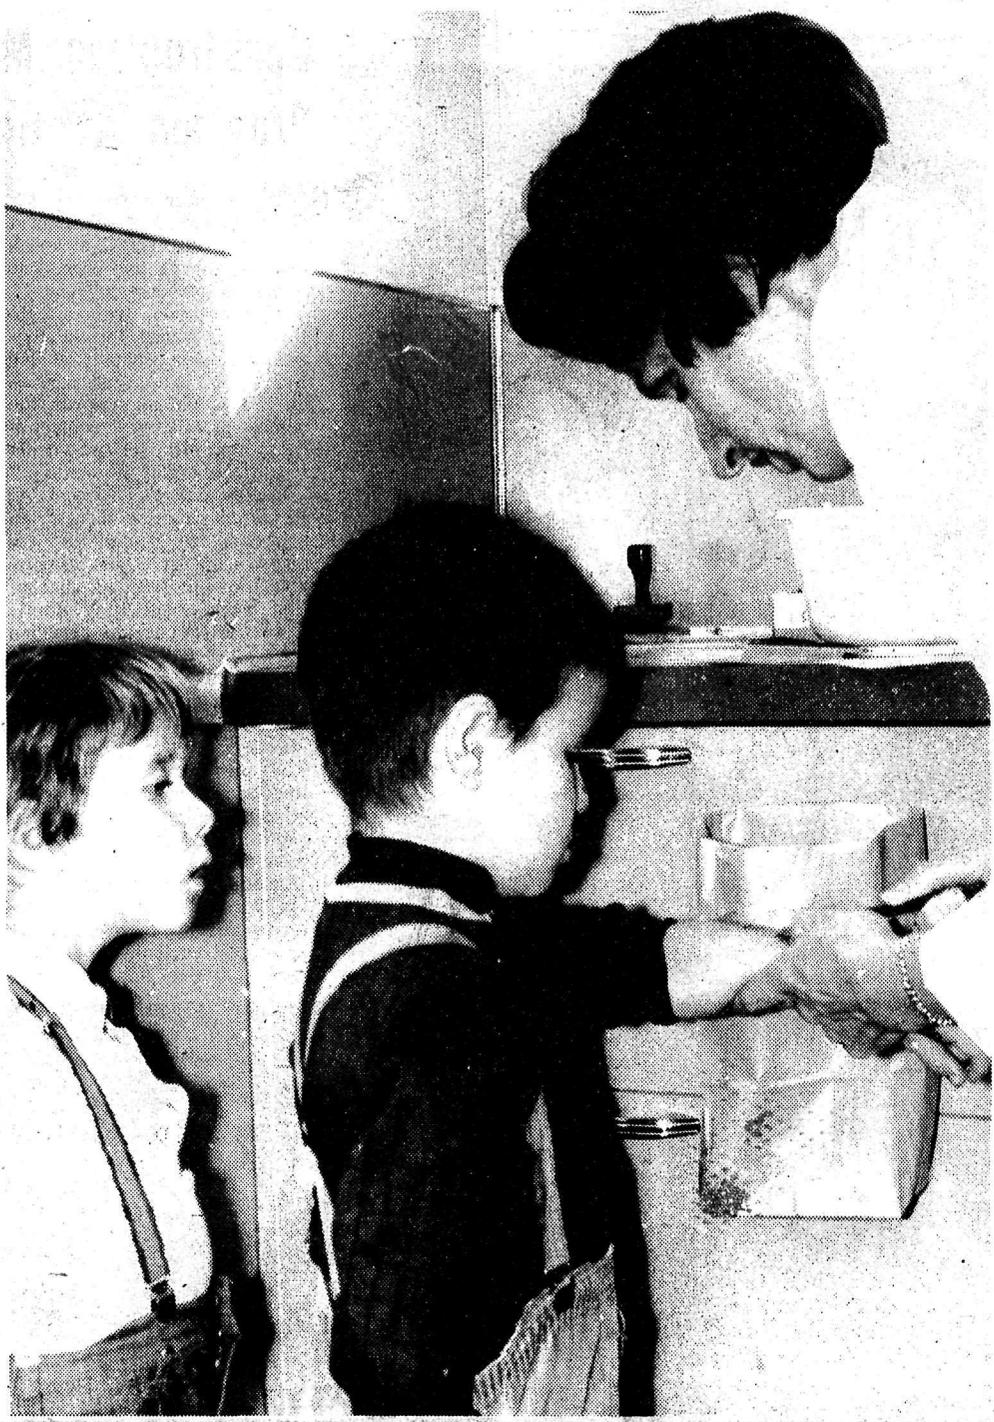

The Aldergrove and District Chamber of Commerce reassembled for the first meeting since summer recess, last Tuesday. There was a very poor turnout of members. The Chamber decided to press the postal department for mail pick-up at the Aldergrove Post office Sunday evening. A while back this pickup was stopped, but as Cliff Watt explained to the members, it means in effect that there are no letters going out of the Aldergrove Post Office from Saturday evening pick-up at 6:00 p.m. till Monday evening at the same time. In a letter to the postal department the Chamber will ask that the service be reinstated.

No Scouts This Year

Mr. Kinnie told the Chamber that there would be no Boys Cubs and Scouts Divisions in Aldergrove this year due to the lack of Leaders in the area. The United Church Group Committee who are the sponsors have seen it fit to cancel the programme this year in order to find and train leaders for next year's programme. Last year 32 boys from Aldergrove enjoyed the programme.

Convention Chairman is Peter McDonald of Haney, President of the Fraser Valley West Liberal Association. This is Phase II of the long range policy program started in B.C. at Harrison in 1969 when Prime Minister Trudeau and national Liberal leaders met with M.P.'s, academics and non-political groups to hear what Canada's problems were. Regional conventions, such as he local one-day event on Oct. 3rd are to go over the suggestions from Harrison (Phase I) and send on their opinions to Ottawa by mid-October for

Operation Doorstep In Aldergrove, Murrayville And Langley

The two large green Christmas Seal mobile chest x-ray clinics are relocating daily along the North Bluff Road (16th Ave.) to Carvoith Road, then north towards Langley. At this point the clinics will operate in Murrayville then into Langley on Tuesday, September 29th. Survey organizer Ed McLachlan said that the clinics would cover Langley in eight separate locations ending up on Friday, Shopping Centre and Highland Shopping Centre from 1 to 4 and 5 to 9 p.m.

McLachlan said that everyone six months of age and over would be tested in the clinics and that anyone who had missed the tests in their own area south of the Fraser River could still attend the clinics at any of the eight locations. Shoppers in the area on Friday would also find the clinics convenient.

Dr. C.C. McLean, medical director of surveys for the B.C. Division of T.B. Control reported that a total of 17,720 persons had attended the clinics since August 4th. There were 2,060 persons who had a positive reaction to their tuberculin skin test and 253 persons had been referred to their family physicians for further observation. In addition, 142 men between the ages of 50 and 59 had volunteered for the special lung cancer research program being carried out by Operation Doorstep for the B.C. Cancer Institute and B.C. Cancer Society.

Dr. James M. Robinson, director of the Central Fraser Valley Health District, urged all residents to attend with their families. He pointed out that school children would be tested on the mobile clinics and NOT in school. Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Survey organizer McLachlan praised the women of the community for recruiting the large force of volunteers for needle-cleaning, registration clerks and canvassers. Mrs. Dorothy Pearce, president of the Lady Lions, Mrs. Evelyn Swensson, president of the Kinettes; Mrs. D.J. Linwood, Mrs. J. Kiess, Mrs. Ann LaFavor, Mrs. P. Chant, Mrs. Christenson, Mrs. C. Gandy, Mrs. R.A. Chell, Mrs. P. Porter, Mrs. B. Gowe, Mrs. E. Pratt, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs. L. Oja, Mrs. C. Buehler, Mrs. T. Thompson, Mrs. P. Quiring, Mrs. G. Tucker, Mrs. M. Foster, Mrs. M. Welsh, Mrs. S. Stuart, Mrs. S. Seifred, Mrs. J. Dornan, Mrs. R. Pipus, Mrs. M. Isaak, Mrs. E. Jantzen, Mrs. P. Hooge, Mrs. V. Smith, Mrs. E. Jones, Mrs. M. Yates, Mrs. L. M. Avison, Mrs. M. Olson, Mrs. C. Wishart, Mrs. M. Kirkham, Mrs. I. Hunter, Mrs. J. Dunn and Mrs. G.T. Rawluk have all worked diligently as convenors recruiting up to ten volunteers each. McLachlan said that letters of thanks would be sent out to all concerned. Appreciation was also expressed to Mr. Reg Easingwood of Easingwood TV for donating a fridge for storage of medical supplies and to the Boy Scouts under the guidance of Mr. Bill Monckton for delivering posters to the merchants of Langley.

Ag. Assn. Trophy Awarded

The Aldergrove Agricultural Association Centennial Trophy was this year presented to Driedigers Farms, Langley. Mrs. Dietrich (June) Driediger received the trophy from MLA Hunter Vogel at the close of the Aldergrove Fall Fair.

Housing Project Discussed By Chamber

by Inge Langmann
Mrs. Frank Wright, president of the Aldergrove O.A.P.'s told the Aldergrove and District Chamber of Commerce at their first meeting after summer recess, of the progress made on the Senior Citizen's Housing Project. They had applied and received their charter and had met with council to explain their project. They had further met with Municipal Clerk D. Doubleday, who had informed them of a new bill passed April 1st, in which a Municipality can apply for Low Rental Housing for Senior Citizens Grant to the B.C. Government. According to this bill the municipality applies for a grant to cover the full cost, and the municipality is responsible for the managing of the project. The other section under which they as a society can apply, they must own either the land or equivalent to ten percent of the total cost, and the society is responsible for the managing. Council in order to agree to apply for the grant to build a senior citizen's housing project must have a list of persons intending to rent the units as to determine the size of the project and possibilities for keeping the units rented out at all times. Mrs. Wright told the Chamber the they presently had enough names signed up to build a 20 unit complex, but, she explained, we would have to find that after building 20 units that we needed 40, and with approximately 600 pension cheques being distributed in the Aldergrove area alone we can almost be certain that 20 units will be obsolete before they are finished.

Where Did The Great Life Go?

Scared out of his wits because of the invasion of the nunslib movement last week, the Nutty Newsmonger had sought refuge in the Priest's ivory tower on top of Mt. Garble, where he sat trembling and shaking praying for the rapid return of his friend and protector.

Finally there was a hissing sound and the Newsmonger sensed that he was no longer alone in the room.... In the dimness of the twilight he could at last see the shape of the Paranoid Priest take form as he returned in his good ship 'The Time Warp' along channel 26, the strip left for emergency landings. The Newsmonger grabbed the fire extinguisher from the wall but fortunately he didn't have to use it as the touch down occurred without a hitch. The craft came slowly into focus and the Priest emerged.

The two friends embraced and stood for a long moment crying on each others shoulders.

"I overstepped my boundaries," sobbed the holy man. "I knew I shouldn't have done it, but I couldn't resist the temptation to explore just a bit deeper into the future. I went past 1991, you know."

"But what took you so long?" the Newsmonger sniffed; the great big teardrops running from the tip of his nose.

"Well," said the Priest, "it was interesting enough to travel on. I even think I zipped past the year 2000 A.D., but I didn't have much time to linger as my batteries were running low. Out of power I had to pedal this darn thing back from 1983. (Affectionately he patted the ship). And then to top it off I had to hang around for a while before I could obtain landing clearance."

"I have missed you so," sniveled the Newsmonger. "You don't know what's been going on here while you've been on holidays."

"Oh, yes," answered P.P. "I kept a close watch on you all the time through my magic wristwatch-vision-mike. But if you think you've had troubles... That Spurious Suffragette - or whatever her name was - almost sank my ship as she came whizzing by in the left side of the time tunnel. And then she just smiled..."

After the emotions had calmed down a bit the Priest added, "I had hoped to be home in time to attend in spirit the yearly conference of famous Canadian Machiavellians. But through an orbiting politician I learned that our beloved Wacky Bombast went to the annual party attempting to sell 'The Sluggish Society' and 'The Deprived Life' as a package deal for half a billion pieces of silver. Is it really true that Peter Elsewhere Trueblue turned his generous offer down?"

The Newsmonger nodded sadly and the Priest added thoughtfully, "I guess he lost out because he didn't get sufficient publicity this time in the leading Wall Street publications. The world truly needs to know how British Bicumbola is suffering.... If only your honorable colleagues at No Time magazine had featured this story with his picture on the cover."

Construction Management Program At Douglas

"It has been estimated that Canada's growth over the next 30 years will entail as much construction as has been done to date in the country."

This quotation, from a publication prepared for the British Columbia Chapter of the Northwest Plaster Bureau, goes on to say, "In other words, the number of existing structures of every kind will have to be doubled by the end of the century."

Douglas College, recognizing in the construction industry an urgent desire to improve techniques of construction management, has instituted a Construction Management Programme.

The College serves a region made up of many municipalities experiencing annual growth rates of up to 23 per cent, which is a Canadian record. The Construction Management Programme being offered by Douglas takes this real need for upgraded management techniques as a basis for the Programme.

Labor and management in the Construction industry jointly recognize the mutual benefit to be derived from sound business practice and improved construction management. The fruits of better management are a free flow of capital, more job opportunities and a greater degree of job security.

Construction in B.C. represents 12 percent of the Canadian total, and 12 to 23 percent of the Gross Provincial Product. The industry employs more than 77,000 people directly and 130,000 indirectly in the Province.

It has been predicted by an industry representative that by the year 2000 Canada will have 10 to 15 million more people, indicating a need for about 7.5 million additional jobs and six million more houses. Canada's per capita gross national product will climb from about $3,500 in 1970 to more than $10,000 in the year 2000 in constant 1970 dollars.

These figures suggest that there will be a great demand or improved construction management techniques in this three-decade period. The editorial in the Plaster Bureau publication, representing a large block of the construction

'Grove Girls Tour Part Of Europe

Donna Dams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dams of Aldergrove, returned recently from a two month tour of western Europe.

Donna joined her sister, Marlene, who is teaching school at the Canadian Forces Base in Lahr, Germany.

Marlene met Donna at Gadget Airport in England and the girls spent the next two months touring in a V.W. Camper Marlene had bought.

Donna Dams

They headed south from London over Dover to Chalais, and drove through France to Belgium. In Brussels they visited the site of the World's Fair held there ten years ago.

The girls crossed the border into Germany and headed for Oberhammer. This little town highlighted their trip, as they were able to take in the world famous "Passion Play" which was in production at that time. This rare experience is only enjoyed every ten years.

The play was quite impressive and extremely well done considering that it is performed by townspeople not professional actors. In order to qualify for a part in the play the performers must be born and reside in Oberhammer.

The Performance started at 8:30 in the morning and carried through to 5:30 in the afternoon with a two hour lunch break.

After Oberhammer the girls headed into Switzerland where they enjoyed the majestic splendor of the Matterhorn.

Austria was next and Salzburg was visited. Back into Germany the girls went through the Black Forest and up the Rhine. This part of Germany could be compared a little with the Fraser Canyon only on top of the steep mountain sides there are old castles towering, some quite forbidding. Some of the castles are only ruins, but quite a few are kept open for the public and made into museums. They display the culture of the families who in many cases still own the castles, and all tell the history of old Germany. From the torture chambers and cobblestoned prison cells to the elegant music salons and ballrooms on the upper levels.

One family really had it over the merchants who were travelling on the Rhine. Their castle was situated on a small island in the river near "The Lorelei". The castle was fully equipped with cannons, and every boat wishing to pass through the narrow strait by the island was forced to pay toll to the owner or else see his vessel shot full of holes. Traffic on the Rhine even in those days was busy so that family had no problems surviving.

Towards the end of July Marlene and Donna headed back towards England. Here they visited Shakespeares birthplace at Stratford on Avon and also Ann Hathaway's cottage.

Further north again and this time the stop was Edinburgh, Loch Lomond and Robert Burn's Cottage.

They went to Ireland next and were horrified to see the street battles in Belfast so close at hand.

"It was terrible," Donna said, "to see the houses shot to pieces, and many still lived in. It was good to get out of there again."

No visit to Ireland is complete without kissing the Blarney Stone - this task performed and photographed the girls went across the strait to a small island called Achill, off the west coast of Ireland.

"It was like being transferred back to the 1800s," Donna said, "Here the turf was still cut and hauled on Donkeys, carrying Panniers on their backs and the women here still knit those famous Irish Fisherman Sweaters. This is a real piece of the good old Ireland."

Back to London for a last swing. This time the girls took in several theatre performances from "Canterbury Tales" to "Hair".

They also report that the 'midi' is really taking hold on Carnigie Street in London.

They had really enjoyed the trip, and found the Europeans much more relaxed than the North Americans. They especially enjoyed being able to go out for dinner at a restaurant and stay in the same place for an evening of full entertainment.

"They know how to have fun in Europe." Donna concluded.

90 Adult Classes Ready To Start

More than 90 new adult classes sponsored by the Langley Board of School Trustees are ready to begin during the next two weeks. Details on each of these are listed in the new adult education program brochure which was delivered last week through the mails to over 12,000 postal boxes throughout the Langley School District and its immediate bordering areas. Persons who have not yet received a copy should telephone the Langley School Board Office (534-3267) for one.

With counsellors busy this week during evening interviews with prospective adult students who are interested in completing their school programs, academic and vocational classes will begin this week, September 21 to 23. Most remaining classes begin the following week, Sept. 28 to 30. A few classes begin at later starting times through the fall.

A number of new courses are offered for the first time this year, including two Douglas College classes (Literature on Mondays and Sociology on Wednesdays), one new English course for UBC, an intermediate level course in typing, a new simplified shorthand course (Take 30), as well as a course on servicing small engines, and one on how to finish the basement area of your home.

The sewing program has been reorganized under the supervision of Mrs. E. Bloedow, well known and experienced instructor for the Langley Night School during recent years. Mrs. Bloedow will be training a number of new 'teaching assistants' personally during the year in her classes. These new instructors are enabling the dressmaking program to expand with their regular classes as well as the addition of a new class in sewing stretch fabrics.

This fall the night school will be offering, in co-operation with the Langley Players, a new class in teaching techniques of reative drama. This class will be conducted by Mrs. Betty Keller who is well known for her work with Playhouse Holiday.

The usual Art classes which have been offered in recent years are being joined by a new class in Textile dyeing given by Mrs. Barbara Henderson. This class will deal with both batik and tie-dye techniques.

A new course developed by the Department of Recreation and Conservation for the training of hunters, especially emphasising safety and conservation techniques, is being offered under the instruction of Mr. Gib Clark, well known in Langley sporting circles.

One of the new features of the fall program this year is the introduction of a limited number of Saturday morning classes for adults. These will include classes in welding, building maintenance and custodial work, dressmaking and defensive driving.

Dress To Cover Up Or Show Off?

by Laura Neame

Over the last week I have been reading a book called "Modesty in Dress" by James Laver. Mr. Laver has a very interesting theory which he calls the 'shifting erogenous zone'. It is his contention that the motivating factor in women's fashions is sexual interest. Low necklines are in vogue when the breasts are a focus of sensual interest. Satiation produces boredom however, and after a few years the focus switches to perhaps legs.

This would explain the mini. Presumably, men have now had their full of legs, and they are to be covered by the maxi. I sincerely hope that this is not true. And although the erogenous zone theory has validity, I certainly hope that it cannot be applied as an unrefutable fact of nature.

According to Mr. Laver, clothes are governed by the Seduction Principle, that is, they are sex conscious clothes. During periods of puritan repression women are clothed excessive modesty, with modesty itself becoming a sexually attractive commodity.

It seems that no matter how dressed or undressed men and women will continue to find each other attractive. Many young women today eschew make-up, nylons, highheels, and other symbols which not only constrain her to a certain stereotyped relationship with the male sex, but mark her as a commodity, having a certain value in the sexual market place.

Their dress conforms to the Utility Principle rather than the Seduction Principle. Blue jeans are long wearing, warm, and may be cleaned easily and cheaply.

Yet it is strange that many of these women who dress with a non-sexual modesty most certainly unequaled by our corseted great grand mothers, are scorned as promiscuous hippies, flaunting the banner of sexual excess in the name of sexual freedom. Sexual freedom is not possible in nylons which constrain the wearers of physical freedom, and at the same time proclaim look at my legs. Sexual freedom means freedom from twenty minutes in front of the mirror in the morning applying foundation make-up, rouge, eyeliner, mascara and false eyelashes. It means freedom from all the expensive commodities which so falsely and so loudly claim 'wear me and you will be more of a woman, more beautiful and more desirable.'

Sexual freedom means freedom from a man's fashion world which says, 'last year I decreed that you would wear your dresses six inches above the knee and you did, this year I proclaim six inches below it and you will.'

And so it seems more than passing strange to hear a woman dressed in short skirts, much make-up, and all the accoutrements designed to provoke desire, pouring scorn on a woman who disdains these signs of sexual servility.

Time For A Treat - Plum Bars

Any time is a good time to serve these flavorful Plum Bars made from choice, ripe plums. They're a delicious "pick me up" treat plum full of old fashion goodness. Serve them plain for mid-morning coffee break, or pass them out to the youngsters with milk for an afternoon snack. For an extra-special after dinner or late evening dessert, top with a spoonful of whipped cream or vanilla ice cream ... delectable to the very last crumb!

PLUM BARS
2 cups prepared bisquit mix;
2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 cup milk;
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine.

Combine all ingredients with fork. Knead gently 8 to 10 times on floured board. Pat or roll out and fit into greased 9-inch square baking dish, building up edges slightly. Spread Plum Filling over dough and bake at 400 degrees for 25 minutes. Cool. Cut into bars and serve plain, or with whipped cream or vanilla ice cream.

PLUM FILLING
3 cups sliced fresh plums (8 to 10 plums) 1 c. sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt; 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon; 2 tablespoons cornstarch; 1/4 cup water or fruit juice; few drops red food coloring, if desired; 2 tablespoons margarine or butter.

Combine plums, sugar, salt and cinnamon in saucepan. Add cornstarch to water and blend with plum mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until thickened and clear. Add butter or margarine and red food coloring, if desired. Cool slightly before spreading over dough.

Open Letter To An Unknown Driver

by Sandra Peardon

At approximately 10:00 o'clock Monday night, September 7, while driving east on Vye Road, Sumas municipality, you ran over a little black dog. The veterinarian put her away shortly after, her spinal column being completely severed, a hopeless case be it man or beast.

The point of this letter is not to rail or denounce you for the accident itself. The night was dark, as was the dog and the road, the black skid marks testify that you did try to stop. What does baffle and anger me is that you did not pause for a moment to register a concern or an acknowledgement for a creature you hurt.

Ironic isn't it, that some people have the fearlessness of a Kamikaze pilot as they hurtle about in half a ton of steel and glass, but lack the guts to face a helpless pup?

Are you now snorting in disgust at this obviously sentimental woman who makes such an issue out of a dog? Really, in the scheme of things, what does a dog count for? Incidents like this appear to be a common occurrence these days, a fact that causes me to ponder on what manner of person the hit and run driver must be.

At this point you may choose to stop reading, it would merely be a display of your characteristic tendency to flee from life's gritty moments.

At best, you can be assured that you will never be charged and found guilty of compassion. Frankly, I regard you as a junior version of some very real and dangerous sicknesses in our society.

What, for instance, is the difference between you and the world's filthiest litterbug? You had no way of knowing the animal was alive, it could have remained there on the road, a rotting putrid carcass.

I find you in game trophy hunters who are blind to the inherent beauty in each and every living creature.

There's your big brother, the Canadian who went to Blaine, Wash., and wrecked private property apparently with divine dispensation to waive personal liability.

Then there's your cousin, the hijacker of airplanes; the one who sees only his goal and to hell with people whose lives are touched and changed en route.

I shudder to think of a person with your standards as the captain of a Russian trawler; a chief of staff in the Pentagon; a director of an old folk's home; for how does one know where human beings rate on your scale of values.

So, there once was a dog.... and as I reflect on how she protected her human from a rampaging steer, how she gently carried in her mouth a tiny kitten, I know well her scale of values. And in the evening when the house is still, I miss her and long to bury my face in her fur again; at those times I review my own set of values.

Up near the top, amid maturity, courage, love and a true sense of one's place on this earth, full marks go to the dog.

$400. Damage

A 1967 Chev driven by Nancy Rowe of Glover Rd., Langley sustained $400.00 damage in an accident on September 19th with a 1969 Toyota driven by Harry Edward Olund of Fort Langley. The Toyota also sustained $400.00 damage.

The vehicle driven by Nancy Rowe was parked on the shoulder of River Road and pulled out into the lane of traffic into the vehicle driven by Mr. Olund. Investigation into the accident is continuing.

Winter Is On It's Way

Not only the weather is getting chillier but the Social Assistance rolls are ever increasing.

As I have said before and will say again most of our troubles are caused by our worship of the God Almighty Dollar. I repeat once more that it is the breakdown of family life that is causing this. I can remember a time when I knew all my neighbours and now our only concern seems to be what we can get out of them. As I write this I admit that I am just as bad as most of you.

We seem to forget that the first war broke out after a depression and I, along with thousands of others, joined up to defend our Empire. Everyone not in the Forces was working. When the 1914-18 war ended those that were alive came home, got married, had children - and in 1929 the market crashed. Millionaires were broke overnight and had to draw their $20.00 a month relief cheques. Those who had a few dollars called the penniless ones bums, many of who rode the trains to what I called 'Slave Camps' working for board and 20 cents a day.

These so-called bums became the heroes of the second world war. They fought and won that war through hell on earth. After the second world war those who fought were given a better deal by those in power than after the first world war.

And yet I wonder how many of us realize what it was like for those children to be brought up through two wars and a depression. Their parents had a life before them and as times got worse the families started to break up. Those few words are the main problem today, the breaking down of our systems.

Thousands of people rejoice when school starts because it take the responsibility of raising children from the parents and unloads it on the poor old schoolteacher. These students want excitement, and our schools, most of which I call 'Chicken Coops' just cannot fill the gap. Then our youth, mainly the boys, leave the school system, and where can they go from there - on the road just like the boys in the hungry thirties.

Now we've got to remember that a war can kill millions without effort, and our manpower is not needed for a war, we need our youth to make an effort for peace.

I wonder how many of us realize how short our span of life on earth is. The famous words, "Ashes to ashes", we come into the world with nothing and no one has been able to take it with them. So I say our life on earth should be an effort to assist in making an earth fit to live in. Yes, I wonder when that idea will take place, do you?

Bombing

How many of you watched the bombing by the allies in the 1940's war on Germany. Thousands died but what about the 'little' war in Vietnam. As I have said before, the U.S. has dropped more than ten times the amount of bombs in this war as used in the Second war. Up to February 1969 the total was 3,200,000 tons, which as I have said ten times, makes me wonder how much of Asia will be destroyed by the most powerful nation in the so-called free world. By the way those bombs are about ten times as powerful as the ones used in 1944.

Do You Know

I had a dream. After consuming some of my homebrew I dreamed that all the millionaires in Canada had decided to forget about their other projects and instead put their money into a fund so that all Old Age Pensioners could have a 20 per cent increase in their pensions - sure it was a dream but I ask this question - Old Age Pensioners are supposed to be organized - when are we going on strike. We old chaps could picket every Federal Building in Canada, after all the average Pensioner has nothing to lose. We could embarrass our Prime Minister into an increase. I know that when he stands on his head it could be a wonderful advertisement for the menace of dandruff.

I Hope When The Boys Come Home

I hope when our municipal leaders come home from their convention they don't forget the lecture they got from Mr. Campbell, Minister of Municipalities, who told them about of inefficient the operations of councils are. I think it was very nice of him to use Britain, New Zealand and Australia as examples where the state pays for education and social service. Maybe it's a good thing none of those countries have much of that stuff called Social Credit - how lucky they are.

By the way I think the actions of the Social Creditor government are twenty years behind.

Visitors From Scotland

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn of Telegraph Trail, Fort Langley will be visited this week by Mr. Gavin Dunn and family. The Gavin Duns come to Fort Langley from Scotland via Brazil where Mr. Dunn was involved in quality control testing for IBM.

Socreds Elect New Slate

Social Creditors of the Langley Constituency held their annual meeting at the O.A.P. Hall, Aldergrove, September 16th, at 8 p.m. New officers elected were: President, Mr. Les Hague; 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. Julia Mulligan; 4th Vice-president, Mr. Steve Dornian; 6th Vice-president, Mr. Dick Treleven.

Guest speakers at the meeting were; M.L.A. Hunter Vogel and B.C. Social Credit League President, Mr. George Driediger.

Resolutions to be brought up at the annual convention were discussed and approved. Refreshments were provided by the Langley and Clearbrook Women's Auxiliary Groups.

Woman Killed

Florence Zaitsoff, 38, of 1027 Harood, Vancouver, was killed following a one car accident on the Port Mann freeway near Langley.

The eastbound car in which she was a passenger went out of control by the Glover Road overpass at about 4:00 p.m. on Saturday.

The driver and another passenger received minor injuries and were later released from hospital.

Integrated Pest Control

Counting mites doesn't sound like the most glamorous summer job in Canada. But for 18 students in B.C.'s Okanagan Valley it was a prestige occupation this year. That's because their chores contributed directly to the fight against pollution.

As part of a new system of integrated control of apple orchard pests, the students were trained to take leaf samples, use a brushing machine to remove mites and eggs from the leaves and to identify and count the various plant-feeding and predaceous mites.

The Great Escape

A year or so ago during a visit to the Cariboo, we bumped into a new Canadian development for the first time. It concerns the growing popularity among many young people for current-day pioneering, for shucking off the glitter and tinsel of civilization and heading out to undeveloped and often remote areas to carve new lives for themselves. Their tools, usually, consist of the simple basics — axe, shovel, saw. Many exist in tents or casual lean-tos, at least until a cabin or shack can be erected. Some claim abandoned buildings and make dwellings of them. Many do not have radios or other communications instruments.

Now, in the Terrace district, along No.16 and more recently here in Kitimat, we have heard reports of similar escapes from the relentless pressures of urbanized, "civilized" existence. Relatives and friends of the daring ones are usually loathe to identify the escapers, but are not at all reluctant to express admiration for their acts and to admit, wistfully, that they only wished they had courage enough to make the same break with the society which spawned all of them. They are under no delusion. They are fully aware that going to a primitive area with only bare hands, a few tools and determination takes a rather special kind of courage — a commodity usually strongest in the young. Thinking of this, one wonders where society passed the point of extreme tolerance, that increase of living pressures which could cause strong, young people of imagination to make the decision to cast aside their places in the community, to stride, as many have done, off into the forests and the bush to be seen no more. Into seeming oblivion, yet to a hopeful new existence free of the soul-bending pressures so characteristic of modern existence. May they all find happiness.

Alvin Lorne Jackson

Alvin Lorne Jackson, 66, late of the Rose Garden Motel, Aldergrove, passed away at Langley Memorial Hospital on Sept. 17th. He was born May 11th, 1904 in Morris, Ontario. He lived in B.C. for the past 47 years. He was a coast logger by trade and lived for many years at Texada Island before moving to Aldergrove where he has been a resident for the past 11 years.

Funeral services were held at Columbia Funeral Chapel (Anderson) Langley on Saturday, September 19th at 1:00 p.m. Reverend G. Hyde officiated, cremation followed.

He is survived by four sons; Mel of Aldergrove, Arnol and Claude of Merritt, and Raymond of Langley; 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren; three brothers Lyle and Jim of Sylvania, Saskatchewan and Norman of Vancouver; two sisters Mrs. J. (Myrna) McNab of Tisdale, Sask., and Mrs. Esma Laycock of White Rock.

industry, further emphasizes: "The immediate problem is to face times that more than ever call for a tough-minded business approach to keep your company on the profit road. This requires techniques that top executives are using successfully."

Mr. K. W. Moore, Coordinator for the Programme offered by Douglas, stated: "At the present time there are approximately 35,000 union construction people and because of the nature of the industry there are always some who are unemployed and available when a new job begins. At the professional level, partly because of the attractive geographical location, there is little difficulty recruiting. There is, however, an area in between these levels where there is a great shortage of trained people and the situation will get worse unless some remedial procedures are initiated."

To solve this problem, Douglas College, with advice from the Amalgamated Construction Association, created its Construction Management Programme.

Mr. Moore said: "The Advisory Committee for the Course, a group made up of experts in the construction industry, felt that, when a graduate joins a company, he should be able to understand why people do what they do in the construction industry and he should be able to relate everything that is done to earning a profit for his company. To accomplish this, he will study construction materials. These materials will include soil, concrete, aluminum, steel, wood, masonry, plastic, and glass.

"In keeping with Douglas College's general policy of teaching the 'whole' student, the Construction Management Programme will introduce the student to a wide range of problems that will prepare the student for dealing with the entire set of management tasks.

"The Programme has been designed to help the student see that work in this field is not merely a 'job' but that it may be a 'way of life', one that can be personally as well as economically rewarding.

"The Course will cover drafting, blueprint reading, communications, management, surveying, estimating, industrial relations and human development. The student will also be allowed four options which may or may not be directly related to this Programme in Construction Management."

relief auction exceeds hopes

by Lloyd Mackey

British Columbia's first ever Mennonite Central Committee auction is sure to be repeated next year, if committee enthusiasm over results of the September 12th event is any barometer.

Early "educated guesses" indicate that up to $15,000.00 may have been raised, as approximately 5,600 people clogged the Matsqui Fairgrounds near Clearbrook.

J.P.Rahn, chairman of the M.C.C. of B.C. auction subcommittee noted that in almost every way, auction results far exceeded expectations his group envisioned.

He noted that a total of 4,000 auction items were donated and that most had been hauled away by mid-afternoon.

Actual auctioneering was handled by five professionals from Cloverdale, Abbotsford, Chilliwack and Langley who all donated their time.

The five were Roy Chapman, Peter Bransma, Peter Kristoff, Bill Gardner and Gordon Gardner, who were joined later in the day (when things became busier) by committee member J.J.Wall of Abbotsford.

The event was opened by Hon. W.K.Kiernan, provincial recreation minister and Mayor Douglas Taylor of Matsqui who offered the nearby municipal public works yard for overflow parking facilities.

(Every spot in the fairgrounds was taken for several hours, and at least 150 vehicles were parked on side streets surrounding the auction area).

Dr.Jacob Quiring, pastor of Clearbrook's Bakerview Mennonite Brethren Church led in the opening prayer, and from then on the auction took on all the exuberance of a well-run country fair.

Although all auctioneering was done in English, talk on the fairgrounds was an excited mixture of both that tongue and German. Often the mixture of language came from the same person as bidding reached highly competitive levels.

Aroma on the grounds indicated a mixture of cultures as well. Various concessions operated by the MCC offered a variety of fare ranging from borscht to barbecued chicken.

Pastry sales proved highly popular with the ladies. All items were sold out within an hour of the 10 a.m. opening, and many women had their arms piled high with baked goods waiting anxiously for the opening signal.

Mr.Rahn told this reporter that actual figures on the amount raised through the auction and related sales would be reported to MCC (B.C.) before being released. He said that the committee would take a close look at results at its October 31st annual meeting before deciding whether or not to repeat the event next year.

Commenting on the prices, Mr.Wall (the auctioneer-committeeman) indicated that they were generally good but not always as high as those obtained in local church auctions.

He said that types of quilts which went for $200 in auctions in his home church (Ebenezer, Clearbrook) appeared to be drawing about $130.

Auctioneer Roy Chapman of Chilliwack displays his wares under clear blue skies Sept. 12 at the M.C.C. (B.C.) relief auction at Clearbrook.

Approximately 20 Associated Mennonite Bible Institutes students and other young people were "up to their ears" in paper work and money, some of them for three days.

One of them, Bev Baerg, who had been tagging items for two days previous to the auction, said that about four times the number of items expected came in.

Jake Isaac noted that none of the committee members or other workers had previous experiences with such auctions (which are now a regular part of the prairie Mennonite scene).

He said that the only preparatory training came when a film about an Ontario auction was shown to committee members.

George Baerg, secretary-treasurer for MCC (B.C.) had some interesting stories to tell about the auction. He told of one man who would not buy what he wanted, so he came to the office with a $100 donation.

Mr.Baerg said that by 4 p.m. on the day of the sale, a total of $1,500 in across-the-counter donations had been received.

He told of his writing to Mennonite churches in the Okanagan, suggesting that if members could not participate in the auction because of the distance, they might want to donate famous Okanagan fruit.

"The response was excellent — and the fruit was sold within two hours," he said.

He indicated that if the committee decides to go ahead with an auction during British Columbia's 1971 Centennial year, "we will most certainly need larger quarters."

One unidentified committee member suggested he believes possible locations for the 1971 auction are almost limited to commodious quarters at Chilliwack or Cloverdale.

September 15th had the record low date, old record 34 degs in 1969.

September 17 held the record low maximum for date tied with 60 degrees in 1960 and in 1966.

Means normal for the period, maximum 69 to 70 degs, minimum 42 to 44 degs., precipitation 0.88 inches.

Cool, moist air which arrived late Wednesday replaced the cool dry air which had given us a rainless period of eight days, Sept. 8th to 15th. The maximum of 69 degs. on the 16th is the warmest day so far this month, a very unusual feature. All the maximums for nineteen days have been below normal (Aug. 31 had 76 degs.). Last September had four days in the eighties and seven over 70 degs. The average maximum temperature to date is 64.1 degs, six degrees below normal, compared to 68.2 degrees for the same period last September.

Rainfall to date totals 3.29" not far from the September average of 3.63 inches. The same period last September had 4.83 inches including 2.27 on the 19th, a record 24 hour total for the month. Total rain during July and August this summer was 2.70", of which almost all, 2.61 inches fell in the period July 24 to 29th. Last year the same two months had 3.79 inches, most of it in August, with 1.32 inches on the 27th, B.C. Election Day.

Langley Recreation Commission Introduces "Gymboree"

Langley Municipal Recreation Commission has announced the following activities for their 1970 Fall programme.

Boxing is being offered at a fee of $3.00 for 8 sessions with coaches Ross and Austin, starting September 21st, at Langley Secondary School.

A new course of Gymboree is starting, the course which will offer physical fitness and fun with lots of variety for the whole family can literally be called a supermarket for physical fitness with who else but Tommy Ruben as instructor. The fee for eight sessions starting October 13th is $4.00.

An after school gymnastics course is also being offered for students in the Langley School District. School children will be bringing home time-tables for the courses, the fee of which is $3.00 for eight sessions.

Mr. Heger will be the chief instructor of the Ski Sessions which are again being offered this year. Transportation costs and instructors fees have gone up but if possible the costs can be held at that level if at least forty skiers sign up and pay ahead of time. Weather permitting the first trip will be at the end of November.

Ballet will also be offered, instructed by Miss Patti Caplette R.A.D. The fundamental ballet technique, National Character and Mime, etc. will be offered for students five and up. The course will be broken down into age groups if enough participation is shown. The fee is $3.00 and classes start on October 7th, from 4 to 5:30 p.m. at Murrayville Elementary.

The Langley Camera Club will also be holding meetings in the Municipal Hall basement every second Tuesday and 4th Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m. Any interested are asked to kindly contact Miss Peggy Price, at 534-6983, or Mrs. Nora Coulter at 532-2040.

Sports Club Set Back

Div. 3 Sportsmen fell 7-0 to a good city club in Vancouver Saturday. Coach Timmerman had no excuses, "They trapped he ball and controlled it," he said, "and they out-hustled us." Score at the half was 2-0 and things didn't look all that bad, but in the final minutes, things got out of hand.

Excellent Contest

Dons, making their debut in Valley Div. 2 play were set back 3-0 of what John Potter described as an excellent contest. Cards are a fair ball club, the one place where they had dominance was in the air. "We'll keep you in touch," says John. "Watch us."

Borsatos of the Valley Div. 1 won it 4-1 over Semianhoo.

In Div. 4 exhibition 'Grove Legion 3, Langley Georgians 1.

First Student Body At Douglas Sept. 24th

"An adjustment of ten days in ten years of planning is amazing. That's close to a perfect batting average," said the chairman of the college council, J.V. Smedley yesterday, when commenting on the opening date for Douglas College.

"We had aimed at September 14th. This date we announced when it appeared we were assured of full financial support, were involved with two construction companies, had adequate leasing funds for all furnishings and what appeared to be a green light from Victoria on the entire $2.6 million package to launch Douglas!

"What happened is now history, a cutback in our leasing budget, construction difficulties and site preparation problems are a matter of record. The obstacles could have created months of delay. Instead, ingenuity telescoped the time element into ten days. Ten days in ten years of planning isn't bad."

"It is with pride in all those who have made this accomplishment possible that we will welcome the first student body to Douglas College on September 24th, on the campuses at New Westminster, Surrey and Richmond.

Portable Units Approved

Premier W.A.C. Bennett, who is also chairman of the Treasury Board, announced last week that approval had been given by the Board to the Department of Education to award a contract for the moving of two portable units to Fort Langley Elementary and Aldergrove Secondary schools. The contract price approved is $1,150,00.

Excelsior '70 Edged

Edmonds of Burnaby scored two goals in the final ten minutes to steal a ball game from excelsior, the Langley club playing their 3rd match of the year were the much stronger side in their contest played Sunday at South Burnaby High. There was no score until the 60th minute when Richardson stroked home Deglan's cross. At the 70th minute Edmonds equalized. The winner went in with but three minutes remaining - dubiously onside, but a counter. The season continues.

All-Class Championship Are Now History

A big crowd attended and the weatherman was all smiles. Trophies were distributed for the four-lap dashes as follows:

Early Late, Lou Ferguson (Surrey).

Modified Stock, Dave Angus (Surrey).

B Super Stock, Brad Baerg (Surrey).

A Super Stock, Gordie Hemrich (Vancouver).

A Modified, Ray Smith (Victoria).

The Early Late A Championship had a 'Grove and a Fort machine running second and third, but Lou Ferguson (Surrey) took the glory followed by Tom Fentle and Frank Fletcher. Incidentally - as a yardstick for judging the pressure, three machines were belted out in lap no. one.

With Modifieds, Dave Angus (Surrey) carried it off.

Don Fletcher (Delta) ran second, and Andy Fentle ('Grove) third.

Brad Baerg completed his whitewash by collecting the D Super Stock title. Allan Mackie (Surrey) and Garwin Wilson (Burnaby) placed 2nd and 3rd respectively.

Jim MacMillan (Surrey) nosed out Gord Hemrich (Vancouver) for the Super Stock crown. John Rothwell (Burnaby) was third.

The A Modified show had a feature act. Barry Chamberlain did a grand finale for the year by flipping his car out and over the fence for a record of sorts. Some say it was more like through the fence, but all agree that he was out. Barry was uninjured, the machine was not so fortunate. 1st Roy Smith (Victoria), 2nd Dennis Goldstraw (Van.), 3rd. Roy Morris (Coquitlam).

Next weekend - weather allowing is the year's last Langley 2500 where many Superstockers go for the jolly dollars.

Shorthanded Kin Squeaks One

Div. 3 Langley Kin, with a bare eleven men eked out a thin victory Sunday over Wesburn of the Burnaby League. The city club had a slight edge in field play but a stubborn defense managed to keep them at bay. Inspired work from Neil Brill and Russ Bradley effectively settled the ball and sprang the forwards loose, never allowing Wesburn's backfield to settle. Rob Nagy struck for Kin early in the game, nodding home Gary Howard's corner kick and shortly after the interval, Randy Vaydo shook Rick Massey loose for number two. Westburn pushed back but couldn't puncture.

'Grove Dons 0, Surrey Cardinals 3

'Grove Rihans Off To A Good Start

Coach Harry Larson and manager, George Shaw report their Div. 6 proteges off and running. When the dust settled Sunday after their friendly with Fort the tally was 6-0 'Grove. "Frankly, I didn't realize that they were quite that good. I don't know what got into them," remarked Harry. In actual fact, the inspiration was probably provided by sharp new strip on the Rihan crew. Goals were hammered by Don Charlton - 3 (the first hat-trick on record this year). Dan McLean - 1, Chris Larsen - 1, Jeff Meyer - 1, score at the interval was 3-0.

Well, it's back to school for another year at 'Grove and the 1970-71 season has really started with a bang.

On opening day, students and teachers were welcomed back by principal, Mr. N. Sherritt and School District Superintendent, Mr. C. Cuthbert. A special welcome went out to new teachers Mrs. Hopkins as Girl's Counsellor; Mrs. B.L. Henderson; Mrs. G. Charnley; Mr. R. Sutcliffe; Mr. M. Clark, and Mr. Alex Goostrey who has returned as Boys' Counsellor.

The Students' Council, under second year President, Bob Dorna, held its first executive meeting, Friday, September 11th. Elections for class representatives and secretaries were held on September 15th and the first full Council meeting will be held in the very near future.

Already, there have been numerous sales at Aldergrove. Among them are school sweat-shirts, P.E. Strip, and year-books.

Wednesday, September 16, saw many smiling faces as student pictures for the yearbook were taken. Also on Wednesday, during period 5, a Grade 8 Assembly was held in order to inform the newcomers as to just what is expected of them. The Students' Council executive was also introduced.

Sports are playing an important role in School Activities, volleyball, cross country, and football teams are all holding regular practices. Saturday, September 19, was the date of the first football game of the season. Many enthusiastic spectators and cheerleaders appeared to watch what proved to be a very exciting game. But the Chilliwack Frontiersmen seemed to be a little too much for the Aldergrove Team as our 'Totems' were defeated by a score of 28-14.

Nevertheless, the spirit at Aldergrove is still there. It looks as though this year is going to be one of 'Grove's best.

Airshow '71

The Abbotsford Airshow will be a three-day affair for B.C.'s Centennial '71, instead of four days as this year.

Manager Ron Thornber said the show will be held Aug. 13-15 next year.

The president of the 1971 show is F. A. Welbourn of Pacific Western Airlines.

Centennial Winter Games

The British Columbia Centennial '71 Winter Games will kick-off the athletic phase of celebrations marking the 100th anniversary of British Columbia's entry into Canadian Confederation.

Honourable L.E. Peterson, chairman of the Provincial Physical Fitness and Amateur Sports Fund, and L.J. Wallace, General Chairman of the British Columbia Centennial '71 Committee, jointly announced the Winter Games as the first of a series of sports projects during the Centennial year.

With the co-operation of sports governing bodies affiliated with the British Columbia Sports Federation, sixteen sports events will be staged in 11 centres throughout the province early in January, with the highest concentration of events on the January 9 and 10 weekend.

"They will challenge British Columbia's leading athletes to reach their best form before representing the province at the Canada Games. The Physical Fitness and Amateur Sport Fund, and the Centennial '71 Committee, will help defray expenses. Special Centennial '71 Winter Games medallions will be struck for the winners, and all participants will receive Centennial '71 scrolls."

Jack Bain, Chairman of the Centennial '71 Sports Sub-Committee, explains the objective of the British Columbia Winter Games is to help assure the top calibre of teams and athletes represent the province at the Canada Winter Games.

The events will be held in widely scattered areas of the province, in line with Centennial Celebrations which will be held throughout British Columbia. With exact dates to be announced later, this is the Centennial '71 Winter Games line-up: Victoria, basketball, judo; Prince George, boxing; Trail, hockey; North Vancouver, figure skating; Langley, gymnastics; Kimberley, skiing; Dawson Creek, speed skating; Burnaby, synchronized swimming; New Westminster, wrestling; Vancouver, badminton, fencing, table tennis, and weightlifting.

Housing Project

ished. By building what we need now we can keep the rents down, for with construction costs going up every year, even if these projects are designed to add on as needed the cost will be higher and consequently the rents too. Presently a single person pays $68.00 per month and a couple $78.00, and we would like to get ours build so they can be rented out at this price too. We would like to get in touch with the people who have not had a chance yet to be in-

"We would like to get in touch with the people who have not had a chance yet to be informed of the project," Mrs. Wright said, "and this is why we came to the chamber to help us do some of the footwork."

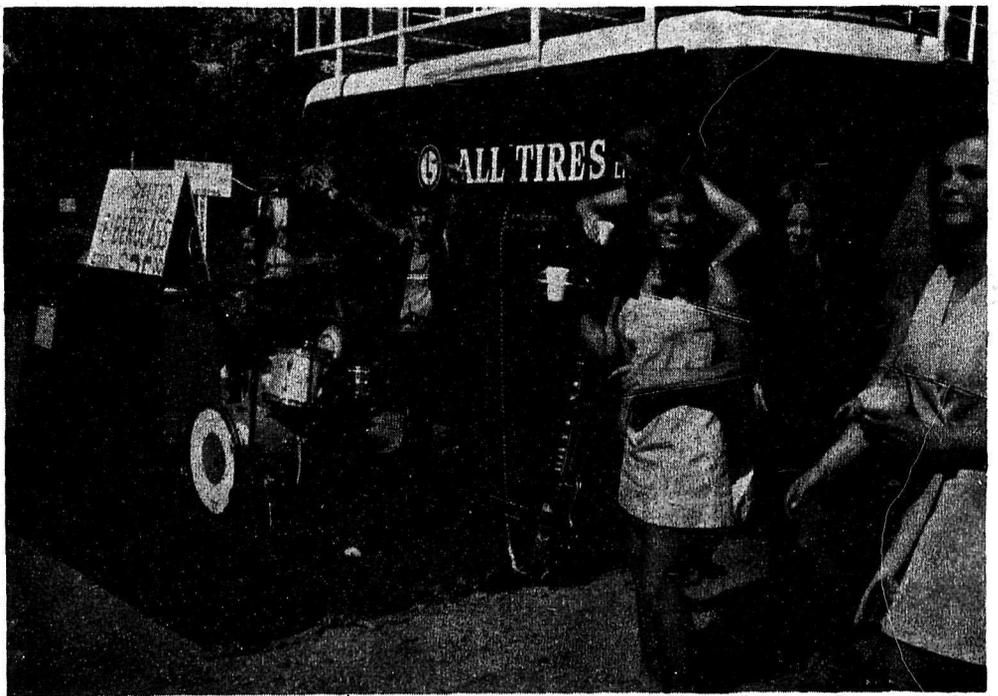

Wehn asked how the society fitted in now with the municipality taking care of the financing Mrs. Wright explained that they would act as a liason between council and senior citizens, help in screening applicants and etc.

The Aldergrove Chamber had at a previous meeting pledged their full support on the project and six members volunteered to help in the actual footwork in getting in touch with person who would benefit from such a housing project and explain the project to them in general.

"A lot of people," Mrs. Wright said, "associate a Senior Citizen Housing Unit with an 'old folks home', while in reality it is like an apartment house, with one or two bedroom units, all self-contained with kitchens and bathrooms etc. They have laundry facilities and a common recreation room where tenants can go if they want company or for a game of whist etc. You are on your own just as you would be in your own house, only the rent is lower than if you were to rent anywhere else."

If you are interested and wish to find out more about the housing project please phone Mrs. F. Wright at 856-2682.

Owners Roy Korb and Len Saluta of "All Tires" corn of Johnston and King George Highway were happy with their successful first year anniversary sale and celebrated it with a fine band accompanied by GoGo Dancer.
