To Whom It May Concern:

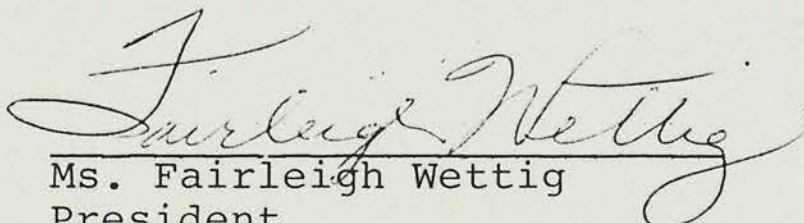

RE: Reference letter for
Ms. Mary Forkin

I am very pleased to have the opportunity to recommend that Ms. Forkin be accepted into the litigation course offered by your institution. Mary has been an extremely active member within our organization for over a year. As the Chairperson for our Technological Change committee, Mary is a representative on our Union Executive. In this capacity, she has been working closely with our negotiating team in putting together contract language pertaining to protections from mass automation.

Mary has a demonstrated ability to formulate her thoughts well and to make clear and concise presentations publicly. I have found her to be a thorough researcher and a dedicated individual. Mary has shown a great deal of interest in career advancement and is currently registered in an eleven week course on the B.C. Labour Code. We have supported her in this undertaking as it is our position that it is to our advantage to educate our committees as much as possible.

In summary, Mary Forkin is a very responsible and capable individual. It is my opinion, having had a little background in labour litigation, that Ms. Forkin is very able to meet the expectations of your course outline. If you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me during working hours at 224-2309.

Sincerely,

Ms. Fairleigh Wettig
