Re. Ritchie and Associates

This is a rather belated response to your letter of Feb. 13, 1985, addressed to Fairleigh Wettig.

We appreciate having been advised of the analysis being conducted by Ritchie and Associates. We have assured those of our members who have shown concern that their individual performance is not being monitored. However, we have not been able to allay all of their concerns, since we ourselves have not been fully informed of the purpose of the analysis. We would like to be able to assure them that this administrative review will not lead to reorganization that will directly effect their work, or lead to a reduction in staff. Would it be possible for us to be supplied with a copy, or at least a synopsis of this review and its recommendations?

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Ted Byrne
Union Coordinator
