Dear Mr. Omelusik:

Last Monday I was discussing the Library Assistant II position that is to be cut from the Library (Reading Rooms Division) with Erik de Bruijn. He suggested you were the best person to provide the union with information as to what will happen to the duties currently being done by the LA II.

The Union's concern is that no other AUCE member will be required to do this work in addition to their regular duties. Also, no person outside the bargaining unit should be doing the work either.

Please provide us with information as to what will happen with the work currently being done by the position to be cut. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Carole Cameron
