MEMBERSHIP

XVII.

Classification of Members.

The Club shall consist of resident, non-resident and absent members, and those on the privileged list, and honorary and temporary subscribers, and such other sub-divisions as may be decided on at a general meeting.

XVIII.

Privileged Members.

The Committee may place such persons as they think proper, not more than three in number at any time, upon a privileged list without ballot, entrance fee or monthly subscription.

XIX.

Members.

All persons who have already paid their entrance fee, and three months' subscription, and all persons who shall be hereafter duly elected under the Constitution, and shall pay their entrance fee and quarterly subscription for the time being, shall be members of the Club. All members shall be bound by and may be required at any time to sign a copy of the Constitution, Rules and Bye-Laws of the Club.

XX.

Resident member.

A resident member shall be one who, in the opinion of the Committee, shall reside or have a place of business within a radius of ten miles from the Club.

XXI.

Non-resident member.

A non-resident member shall be one who does not, in the opinion of the Committee, reside or have a place of business within a radius of ten miles of the Clubhouse.

XXII.

Absent member without the Province.

Any member who notifies the Secretary that he intends to remain absent from the Province during one year, shall be deemed an absent member, and shall pay a subscription of five dollars per annum in lieu of his ordinary subscription; but in the event of such member returning at any time within the year to British Columbia, he shall pay his ordinary subscription or a proportionate amount thereof, calculated from the day of his return. Written notice of such contemplated absence shall be given to the Secretary in advance. If any absent member shall be in arrear in the payment of his subscription for two years, the Committee may suspend him without posting, and may at any time, if he has always thereafter continued absent from the Province, and if adequate and sufficient reason is shown for such non-payment, re-instate him by unanimous vote of the Committee, upon payment of his arrears.

XXIII.

Members to pay reduced subscription.

Any member who shall remain ten miles distant from the Clubhouse during the whole of any month in the calendar, and notifies the Secretary thereof, shall pay the subscription of an no-resident member for that month. But residence for 15 consecutive days in any month named in the calendar shall be deemed residence for the whole month, and entail the liability of a resident member for that month's full subscription.

XXIV.

Bank officials.

Bank officials, duly elected, shall be charged an entrance fee of $20.00 and a subscription fee of $7.50 per month, the difference between such subscription and that of ordinary members to be credited towards their entrance fee until the same shall have reached the full amount of ordinary members, at which time the subscriptions of such bank officials shall become the same as ordinary members.

XXV.

Mode of ballot.

All candidates for election as members shall be admitted to membership of the Club by ballot, but (except as provided in the last preceding section hereof) they must have been residents of the Province of British Columbia for six months prior to being proposed for memebrship; provided, however, that the Committee may, in special cases, by a unanimous vote, waive this residential qualification. No such balloting, however, shall take place at general meetings, but only at ballot meetings (at which no business will be transacted except the election of new members), and the said ballot meetings shall be held monthly on the first Tuesday of each month. Every candidate must be nominated by one member, and seconded by another member. The name and address and calling of the candidate, and the names of the proposer and seconder, must be posted up on the notice board and also on such other place (if any) as the Committee shall think fit to direct, for at least two weeks before the ballot meeting. The ballot box shall be left open from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m., and shall during those hours be in charge of the Secretary or two of the ordinary members of the Club. At 6 p.m. the ballot box shall be opened and the ballots counted in the presenec of three members, one at least of whom shall be a Committeeman. If only one Committeeman be in the Club at 6 p.m., then he shall request such two members as he may think fit to assist in counting the ballots in the presence of the Secretary. If there be no Committeeman in the Club at 6 p.m., or if there be less than two other members then present, the ballot box shall remain unopened in the custody of the Secretary till the following day, when the same shall be opened at 1 p.m. and the result declared in the same manner as if the proper number of Committeemen or members had been present at the closing of the ballot the previous day. If there are not three members present (one being a Committeeman) on the following day, then the whole of that ballot shall be void as if it had never taken place. If any candidate has less than 21 votes in all, the ballot shall (but as to such candidate only) be null. One black ball in seven shall exclude. The result, election or non-election, shall be immediately declared, but no other particulars, except in case of a deficiency of the total number of votes. No unsuccessful candidate shall be again proposed until a lapse of three calendar months, unless such candidate was not elected on account of a deficiency of the total number of votes, in which case he may be again proposed for election at the next ballot. A candidate twice unsuccessful shall not be proposed for a third time until twelve months from the last occasion.

The minutiae of the mode of balloting shall be at the discretion of the Committee.

XXVI.

Re-election of ex-member.

The Committee may, in their discretion, by unanimous vote submit for re-election by ballot without entrance fee the name of any ex-member who, while in good standing, for adequate and sufficient reasons, may have resigned from membership, or of any ex-member who may have been suspended under Section XXXII., provided that the name of such ex-member shall be submitted for ballot under all the conditions named in Section XXV. of the Constitution, except as regards the form of nomination, which shall be as follows:

The Committee unanimously recommend for re-election:

By order,

.....

Secretary.

If re-elected, such member shall pay the sum of $25.00 unless he shall have been suspended under Section XXXII., in which case he shall pay a sum equivalent to the subscription of a resident member, or if non-resident, throughout the time computed from the day of his suspension to that of his re-election, the subscription of a non-resident member, or, if absent throughout that time, the subscription of an absent member.

XXVII.

The quarterly subscriptions shall be $12.50 for resident members and $4.50 for non-resident members. The subscriptions of members shall be paid quarterly in advance, and those of honorary subscribers as provided by Section XXVIII.
