

I..... have this day bought of the OREGON NURSERY CO., Limited. Salem, Oregon,
 The following bill of Nursery stock, at the price set opposite each respective article below, to be delivered at the town of

..... in the
 ..... 190..... in good condition. The Apple, Pear, Plum, Cherry and Crab trees to be 4 to 6 feet in height; Peach and Apricot trees to be 3 1/2 to 5 feet; Quince not less than 3 feet, except when otherwise specified herein. I agree to come or send for the goods purchased herein on the day set for delivery, at which time said goods are to be in good order, but after that date will be at my risk, and if through any unavoidable delays the goods should not arrive on the date set for delivery, I agree to come again for them upon being notified when they are ready for delivery, and make no charge for second trip. If the varieties herein named cannot be supplied, others of the same class adapted to the same locality and ripening at the same time may be sent instead.
 Prices of any articles omitted to be deducted at settlement. It is agreed that the entire contract is written and printed herein, and that no agreement or outside bargain by the agent shall in any way effect this contract, and I agree not to countermand this order.

No.	Varieties.	Dollars	Cents
12	[Handwritten: 12 ...]	3	[Handwritten: 00]

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS FOR EVERYBODY.

Christmas comes but once a year, with all its joys and sorrows; with all its noise and hilarity. Then comes January 1st with its bills. Just now husbands are thinking what to give their wives, wives are thinking how much "Hubby" will cough up without apoplexy. Young men are thinking what to give their best girls, and young ladies if their best fellow would appreciate a slipper-bag made from a remnant of 8-cent cretonne, or a necktie case made of watered silk with his name worked upon it, all because she did it with her own little hands. The merchants are helping the good work along by their window displays and their advertising suggestions in the daily papers. But if you have not yet made up your mind, here are a few disinterested hints. They don't cost you anything.

If Premier Prior is on your list, send him a sack of potatoes, but be sure they are not Ashcroft Murphy's. Send ex-Premier Dunsmuir a copy of "When Knighthood Was in Flower." It will recall pleasant memories. Send Sir Wilfrid Laurier some of our British Columbia choice sweet fruit. He has had enough of "Tarte." Hon. Clifford Sifton would appreciate a fur overcoat made in the Doukhobor fashion. Any kind of fur would do but Marten. Martin would make it too warm for him. If among your beneficiaries you number any members of the Liberal Association of Vancouver, send them a red necktie. They enjoy red so, all but ex-Lieutenant-Governor McInnes' election address. They would rather it was not read. Mayor Neelands would thank you for a clear field, rather than a B-field. Licence Commissioner Taylor would like a dry dock. He wants to build a city ship without a saloon. To your telephone girl send a hammer and anvil. She likes to strike. To Manager Ricketts send a play-house, and mark it "all seats $1.50." Be sure, however, that the house is full. Your Chinese domestic would appreciate a set of alphabet building blocks, all but the Q: he has one. To your friends in Manitoba send a trunk and label it "Grand." Send the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Winnipeg some grass seed. For the next three years it will grow well on their streets on Sunday. Send your best girl a box of candy with a diamond ring in it, and have the diamond grade according to your salary. If you get $10 a week, buy a $300 ring. If you get $10 a day, buy a $30 one, and if you are a millionaire or a newspaperman, buy a $3 one, and nobody will question its value —this is such a funny old world.

If, however, you wish something for father, mother, son, daughter, sister, brother or friend, that will be really appreciated (if they are troubled with defective eyesight), follow the crowd to the Jordan Optical Institute, and buy the best glasses made in the world. Then they will thank you, and they will be able to see what to send you.

In col specified, that may before Au
 No of Ord Miles from Occupatio Agen

Cles as herein retail price all failure on or
 , Ltd.
 Salesman. is order.