Officers.

Recorder of Brands. 3. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint a Recorder of Brands, who shall carry out the provisions of this Act and be subject to the directions of the Minister.

Board of Brand Commissioners. 4. (1.) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint a Board of Brand Commissioners, to consist of three persons, each of whom shall be the owner of stock and the proprietor of at least one registered brand and be resident in the Province of British Columbia.

Meetings. (2.) Such Board shall meet at such times and places as the Recorder shall appoint, and shall advise him on all matters connected with the administration of this Act.

Tenure of office and payment. (3.) Each member of such Board shall hold office during the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and shall serve without remuneration, but shall be reimbursed for all travelling expenses actually paid by him.

Record of proceedings. (4.) The Recorder shall be the Secretary of such Board and shall keep a record of the proceedings of every meeting thereof, which shall be certified to be correct by the members of the Board present at such meeting, and shall be preserved among the records of the Department of Agriculture of the Province of British Columbia.

Inspector of Brands. 5. (1.) The Minister may from time to time, by writing under his hand, appoint any person or persons to inspect brands, sale-marks; carcasses, and hides of stock and to carry out the provisions of this Act, and any person so appointed shall perform such duties and within such area as the Minister shall determine, and shall have, in addition to the powers conferred by this Act or the rules thereunder, all the powers of a police constable under the "Police and Prisons Regulation Act."

(2.) Any Inspector under this Act may, by writing under his hand, appoint one or more persons to be a Deputy Inspector or Deputy Inspectors, and a Deputy Inspector shall have all the powers of an Inspector under this Act and shall receive such remuneration as may be fixed by the Minister. Deputy Inspectors of Brands.

Register of Brands and Sale-marks.

6. There shall be kept at the Department of Agriculture for the Province of British Columbia, for the purpose of this Act, a book called "The Register of Brands and Sale-marks," wherein shall be entered all registered brands and all registered sale-marks, with the names, addresses, and descriptions of their proprietors, notification of assignments and transmissions, and such other matters relating to such brands and sale-marks as may from time to time be prescribed. The register shall be kept under the control and management of the Recorder. Register of brands.

7. There shall not be entered in the register any notice of any trust, expressed, implied, or constructive, nor shall any such notice be receivable by the Recorder. Trusts.

8. The register of brands and sale-marks existing at the date of the coming into force of this Act shall continue to be the register of brands and sale-marks under this Act, and such brand or sale-mark shall retain its original date, but for all other purposes it shall be deemed to be a brand or sale-mark under this Act. Incorporation of existing registers.

9. The register kept under this Act shall at all convenient times be open to the inspection of the public, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed, and certified copies, under the hand of the Recorder, of any entry in any such register shall be given to any person requiring the same on payment of the prescribed fee. Inspection of and access to registers.

Registration of Brands and Sale-marks.

10. (1.) Any person desiring to use any brand or sale-mark may make application to the Recorder for registration thereof. Application for registration.

(2.) Such application shall be in writing signed by the applicant, and shall contain a statement of the name, address, and description of the applicant and the part of the body of any stock where such brand or sale-mark is to be affixed, and shall also contain embodied therein or annexed thereto a facsimile of the brand or sale-mark which the applicant desires to use, and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee. Form of application.

(3.) Upon receipt of such application, the Recorder shall submit the same to the Minister, with a report showing whether the brand or sale-mark applied for is identical with any registered brand or registered sale-mark, or so closely resembles the same as to be calculated to deceive. Duties of Recorder.

Decision of Minister.

(4.) The Minister, in his absolute discretion, may approve the brand or sale-mark applied for, or may himself assign to the applicant any brand or sale-mark which the Minister may select in place of the brand or sale-mark applied for: Provided that no registration of such brand or sale-mark shall be made without the assent of the applicant.

Registration.

(5.) When the Minister shall have approved the brand or sale-mark applied for, or shall have assigned a brand or sale-mark, the Recorder shall register the brand or sale-mark so approved or assigned in the name of the applicant.

Cancellation.

11. (1.) All brands and sale-marks registered under this Act and all rights of the proprietor therein and thereunder shall be cancelled and shall determine at the expiration of the thirty-first day of December in the fourth year during which the same shall have been registered unless renewed as hereinafter provided.

Notification of date of cancellation.

(2.) The Recorder shall, prior to the thirtieth day of September in every year, notify the proprietors of all registered brands and registered sale-marks which fall due to be cancelled at the expiration of such year of the date when such brands and sale-marks will become cancelled.

Form of notification.

(3.) Such notification shall be given by registered letter addressed to such proprietors or their authorized agents at their addresses as appearing in the register.

Renewal.

(4.) Upon application in writing by the proprietor or his authorized agent from time to time made to the Recorder not more than three nor less than one month before the date of cancellation of any brand or sale-mark, the Recorder may, with the approval of the Minister, renew the same for a further period of four years from the date of cancellation, and so on upon successive applications for successive periods of four years.

Reregistration.

12. No brand or sale-mark after the cancellation thereof shall be assigned to any person other than the former proprietor until after the lapse of four years from the date of its cancellation, but the former proprietor may at any time within the period of four years from the date of cancellation of any registered brand or registered sale-mark make application in writing to the Recorder, accompanied by the prescribed fee, for reregistration in his own name of such brand or sale-mark, and thereupon the Recorder may, subject to the approval of the Minister, again register such applicant as the proprietor of such brand or sale-mark.

Brand certificate.

13. Upon the registration, renewal, or reregistration of any brand or sale-mark, the Recorder shall issue to the proprietor a certificate (in this Act referred to as "the brand certificate") under the hand of the Recorder containing a facsimile of such brand or sale-mark, and the position thereof upon the hide of any stock, and the name, address, and description of the proprietor and the date of registration, renewal, or reregistration, as the case may be.

Rectification of register.

14. The Recorder may from time to time, upon the application in writing of any proprietor, remove from the register the address of such proprietor, and enter therein any other address and amend the brand certificate accordingly.

Alterations.

15. (1.) Subject to the provisions of section 24 of this Act, the Recorder may, with the approval of the Minister, upon the application in writing of a proprietor or any other person, accompanied by the prescribed fee and the costs of advertising, make any alteration in the pattern or position of any registered brand or registered sale-mark.

Notice of alteration.

(2.) Where any such application is received by the Recorder, he shall cause notice thereof to be published for thirty days in the British Columbia Gazette and in two issues in each of two successive weeks of a newspaper to be appointed by the Minister.

Cancellation by Minister.

16. The Minister may at any time, upon notice to and after hearing the proprietor concerned, in his discretion cancel the registration of any brand or sale-mark.

Effect of Registration.

Property in brands and sale-marks.

17. All registered brands and all registered sale-marks shall be personal property and shall devolve as such.

Exclusive right of user.

18. While any brand or sale-mark remains registered the proprietor shall have the exclusive right to the use thereof.

Rights conferred by registration.

19. While any brand remains registered the impression thereof upon any stock not impressed with the registered sale-mark of the proprietor of such brand shall be prima facie evidence in all Courts and in all proceedings that the proprietor of such brand is the owner of such stock.

Assignment.

Mode of assignment.

20. Any proprietor wishing to assign the right to any registered brand or registered sale-mark shall deliver to the transferee a transfer thereof in writing, and a declaration in the form prescribed in Schedule A hereto, and the brand certificate; and the transferee may thereupon make application in writing to the Recorder, containing the name, address, and description of the applicant, accompanied by such transfer and declaration and brand certificate and the prescribed fee, to be registered as proprietor of such brand or sale-mark.

Substituted mode of assignment.

21. Where it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Recorder that any proprietor who has transferred any registered brand or registered sale-mark is dead or absent from the Province of British Columbia, the Recorder may, with the approval of the Minister, accept in lieu of the declaration by the proprietor mentioned in section 20 hereof a declaration by the transferee in the form prescribed in Schedule B hereto.

Notice of assignment.

22. Where application is made to the Recorder, accompanied by a declaration in the form prescribed in Schedule B hereto and the cost of advertising, he shall cause notice of such application to be published for thirty days in the British Columbia Gazette and in two issues in each of two successive weeks of a newspaper to be appointed by the Minister.

Registration of assignment or devolution.

23. Subject to the provisions of section 24 of this Act, where a person becomes entitled to a registered brand or registered sale-mark by transfer, transmission, or other operation of law, the Recorder shall, on application made in the prescribed manner, cause the name, address, and description of such person to be entered on the register as proprietor of such brand or sale-mark, and deliver to such person a fresh brand certificate and cancel the former brand certificate.

Opposition.

Notice of opposition.

24. (1.) Any person may, within forty days from the date of the first publication in the British Columbia Gazette of notice of such application as is mentioned in section 15 or in section 22 hereof, give notice to the Recorder of opposition to such alteration or registration.

Form of notice.

(2.) Such notice shall be given in writing and shall include a statement of the grounds of opposition.

Counter-statement.

(3.) The Recorder shall send a copy of such notice by registered letter to the applicant, and if within thirty days of the mailing of such registered letter the Recorder shall not have received from the applicant a counter-statement in writing of the grounds upon which he relies for his application, the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

Hearing.

(4.) If the applicant send such counter-statement, the Recorder shall furnish a copy thereof to the person or persons, giving notice of opposition, and shall after hearing the parties, if so required, and considering the evidence, decide whether such alteration or such registration is to be permitted and as to the disposition of the costs of the proceedings.

Appeal.

(5.) The decision of the Recorder shall be subject to appeal to the Minister.

Final order.

(6.) On such appeal the Minister shall, if required, hear the parties and the Recorder, and shall make an order determining whether such alteration or such registration is to be permitted or refused and as to the disposition of the costs of proceedings, and such order shall be final and without appeal.

(7.) On the hearing of any such appeal any party may, by special leave of the Minister, bring forward further material for his consideration. Further evidence.

Sale of Stock.

25. (1.) Where any stock impressed with any registered brand is sold by the owner of such stock, such owner shall at the time of such sale either impress such stock with his registered sale-mark or transfer his registered brand to the purchaser of such stock, or deliver to the purchaser of such stock a declaration in the form prescribed in Schedule C hereto. Proceedings on sale.

(2.) Where any owner of stock fails to comply with the provisions of this section, any Inspector may, on application by the purchaser and after hearing the parties, in a summary way affix or cause to be affixed the registered sale-mark of such owner to the stock so sold. Application to Inspector.

Stock in Transit.

26. (1.) Where the owner of any stock or his agent or servant is removing such stock from any point or place in this Province to any other point or place distant more than twenty miles from such first-mentioned point or place, or to a point or place beyond the boundaries of this Province, the person in charge of such stock while being so removed shall have in his possession either the brand certificate of the owner of such stock, or a declaration made by such owner stating the kind and number of such stock and the registered brands and registered sale-mark of the owner of such stock. Removal of stock.

(2.) Where any person having bought stock is by himself or his agent or servant removing the same from any point or place within this Province to any point or place without this Province, and such stock is neither impressed with the registered brand of the purchaser nor the registered sale-mark of the vendor, the purchaser shall cause the person in charge of such stock to carry with him and have in his possession the declaration in the form prescribed in Schedule C hereto. Removal of purchased stock.

(3.) Any person or Inspector shall be entitled to inspect such stock being removed as in this section mentioned, and the brands impressed thereon, and also such certificate or declaration, and the person in charge of such stock shall, when required, submit such stock brands, certificate, or declaration to inspection. Inspection.

(4.) Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this section, and any person who interferes with such inspection or attempts to prevent the same, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act. Infraction of Act.

(5.) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any stock at large, nor to any stock being driven from and to points or places both west of the Cascade Mountains. Application of section.

Mixed stock.

27. Where any person driving stock shall find that any other stock of which he is not lawfully in charge has become mixed with that which he is driving, he shall separate such stock and return the stock of which he is not lawfully in charge to the place where such stock first became mixed.

Carriage by land or water.

28. (1.) No carrier by land or water shall receive for carriage or carry any stock or hides unless the consignor shall at the time of consignment deposit with such carrier or his agent a certificate of an Inspector stating the kind and number of such stock or hides, and containing a facsimile of all registered brands and registered sale-marks thereon.

Application of section.

(2.) This section shall not apply to the consignment of any stock or hides from any point or place west of the Cascade Mountains.

Inspection of Hides and Carcasses.

Sale of beef.

29. (1.) All persons, not being licensed as wholesale or retail merchants under any Statute or under any by-law of any municipal corporation, offering beef for sale, either by wholesale or retail, shall, upon demand in writing, deliver to any Inspector and to any other person to whom such beef shall have been offered for sale a declaration showing the number of carcasses and containing a full description of all brands and sale-marks upon the skins or hides of the carcasses from which the beef so offered for sale has been cut.

Application of section.

(2.) This section shall not apply to any such person carrying on business west of the Cascade Mountains.

Declaration or certificate to be made or procured before slaughtering cattle.

30. (1.) All persons, not being licensed under any Statute or under any by-law of any municipal corporation to carry on the business of dealers in cattle, shall, before slaughtering any cattle, cause to be made a statement by the owner of such cattle and by two other responsible persons, or procure a certificate of an Inspector, which statement or certificate shall contain a description of such cattle and of the brands and sale-marks thereon, and if any of such cattle be under the age of one year shall also contain a description of the dam of such cattle and of the brands and sale-marks thereon, and in any case shall state the day of the month and year when such cattle are to be slaughtered; and such statement or certificate shall, within one week from the date of slaughtering such cattle, be sent under registered post by the person so slaughtering such cattle as aforesaid to the Inspector of the district where such person resides, and a true copy of such statement or certificate shall be delivered to every person purchasing not less than one-quarter of any carcass.

Application of section.

(2.) This section shall apply only to such portions of the Province as may be prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council by Order in Council.

31. Every person slaughtering or dealing in cattle, beef, or hides shall keep a book in which shall be entered the names of all persons from whom such cattle, beef, or hides have been bought, the number of such cattle, carcasses of beef, or hides, the date of the purchase of the same, and a full description of the brands and sale-marks upon such cattle, carcasses, or hides; and every such person shall, at least once in every calendar month, send to the Inspector of the district where such person carries on business a copy of the entries in such book verified by declaration. Duties of persons slaughtering and dealing in cattle, etc.

32. (1.) Where any stock has been killed, the hide of such stock shall not be removed from the place where such stock was killed, ~~nor shall the brands or sale-marks upon the hide of such stock be obliterated, altered, or defaced,~~ for a period of at least twenty-one days from the date on which such stock shall have been killed, and during such period of twenty-one days such hide shall be submitted to the inspection of any person requiring the same. Removal of hides.

the brands or sale marks upon the hide of such stock shall not be obliterated, altered, or defaced, and

(2.) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any hide which has been inspected by an Inspector or is in transit to an Inspector for the purpose of inspection or in that portion of the Province west of the Cascade Mountains. Application of section.

33. No person shall sell the hide of any cattle which has been slaughtered to any other than a licensed dealer in hides. Sale of hides.

34. No person shall remove the hide from the carcass of any stock found dead, other than the owner of such stock or his duly authorized agent. Stock found dead.
