THE GOVERNMENT OF
THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

CHIEF CONSTABLE'S OFFICE

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., August 24th, 1917.

K. F. Birchall, Esq.,
Provincial Constable,
Port Essington, B.C.

re Moiety of Fines to Provincial Constables.

Sir:-

I would be pleased if you will let me know whether there is any correspondence in the office at Port Essington in connection with Provincial Constables being allowed to accept moieties of fines when they have been the informants in cases coming under the Dominion Fisheries Act.

Obediently Yours

Ernest Tammon.

Chief Constable.
