Sir.

I have been touched and need your assistance. I live for the summer at Thornhill place estate, now owned by R.Tolmie, Minister of Mines and Mr Clifford. I left for Prince Rupert on May 27th returned May 30th and find that window had been forced open and following articles taken -

Two feather ticks or mattresses hand made, value $20.00
1 axe small wedge out of end, battered
1 dishpan, large, round, tin, cover for same.
1 stewpan, enamel, blue.
1 sugar bowl, fancy white and red or pink.
1 small table knife tan handle
2 bread baking pans.

I find that stolen articles were put in a canoe or skiff in front of the house as feathers were strewn about landing. It seems very probable that Indians going down stream to fish at Spokshoot are the guilty parties. The feather ticks old fashioned should be easi ly identified also dish pan quite large with one handle broken, and hanging. I am confident that Indians got them.

Yours Respy.
