

CHIEF CONSTABLE'S OFFICE,

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C. 2 May 1911 191

A. Forsythe Esq,
Provincial Constable,
Port Essington.

Sir.

Chief Constable Owen Shewed me the letter that you had forwarded to him, complaini g about myself, whilst at Essington. At the wish of the Chief Constable, I may say that anything that I said or did then, was not done under his instructions. Mr Owen is forwarding to you by this mail my side of the case, and you will be able to judge who is in theright. If anything I have said or done whilst in Essington, has affected your prestige in any way, all I can do is to offer my sincere apologies to you and hope that you will accept same.

Yours Truly

W. Godson
