No. 20.

An Act to abolish Road Tolls on all Articles coming from the Interior of the Colony, in the direction of the Seaboard.

[28*th March*, 1871.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is desirable to encourage the transmission of Articles of Export from the Interior of this Colony;

Be it enacted by the Governor of British Columbia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Frees Cattle and articles coming from Interior from Road and Ferry Tolls. I. From and after the passing of this Act, all Cattle and all Articles and things coming in the direction of the Seaboard, from the Interior of this Colony, whether intended for Export or Home consumption, for the purposes of manufacture in the Colony, or any other purpose whatsoever, shall be exempt from liability to any Road or Ferry Tolls in this Colony, payable to the use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Interpretation Clause. II. In the construction of this Act, the word "Cattle" shall extend to and include Horses, Mares, Fillies, Foals, Geldings, Colts, Bulls, Bullocks, Cows, Heifers, Steers, Calves, Sheep, Pigs, Mules, and Asses.

Short Title. III. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Tolls Exemption Act, 1871."

Passed the Legislative Council the 24th day of March, A. D. 1871.

CHARLES GOOD,
Clerk of the Council.

PHILIP J. HANKIN,
Speaker.

Assented to, in Her Majesty's name, this 28th day of March, 1871:

A. MUSGRAVE,
Governor.
