RETURN

To an Order of the House shewing—

- (a.) The total amount of fines collected by Justices of the Peace and paid in to the Treasury in the two years ending 30th June, 1894.
- (b.) A list of the fines so collected and paid by each Justice of the Peace, with the names of the parties fined, and the dates and offences.

J. H. TURNER,

Treasury Department,

7th February, 1895.

(a.)	Total amount, 1893 .....	$10,451 56
	do 1894 .....	9,389 27
		$19,830 83

(b.) A considerable amount having been collected by the Government Agents in places where the Court was held in the Agent's office, the Justices of the Peace in such instances, where the particulars are on record in the plaint books kept in the Agent's office, have not in all cases made returns of the convictions. The particulars as to "names of the parties fined, and the dates and offences," cannot therefore be given.
