3. When a person wishes to apply for a superannuation allowance he shall send to the Commission a notice in writing, duly signed, requesting that he be granted the superannuation allowance to which he may be entitled under the "Superannuation Act." The Commission shall forthwith make inquiry to find whether that person comes within the scope of the Act and whether he is entitled to receive a superannuation allowance under the provisions of the Act. This inquiry may consist of searching the record of the person kept in the office of the Commission or of requiring information to be given by affidavit or otherwise, at the discretion of the Commission.

4. Each of the following may be deemed to be a group of contributors for the purpose of section 26:—

(a.) Civil Service exclusive of the Provincial Police:
(b.) Provincial Police:
(c.) Police in any municipality:
(d.) Firemen in any municipality:
(e.) City Hall staff in any municipality:
(f.) Employee of a municipality exclusive of the Police, Firemen, and City Hall staff:
(g.) Teachers employed by any School Board:
(h.) Employees, other than teachers, of any School Board:

5. A person holding a permanent position in the Civil Service who wishes to be exempted shall:—

(1.) Prove that he has ample provision for his old age; and

(2.) Agree that he will sign an undertaking that he will not make any claim for a superannuation allowance or a gratuity upon the Government.
