Property was purchased in the Village of Alert Bay, January 24th, 1958, for use as a site for a Government Liquor Store. Property was also purchased in the Village of Golden, January 29th, 1958, for use as a site for a Government Liquor Store.

The premises acquired by the Board for use as a Government Liquor Store at Merritt and North Vancouver in June, 1934, and June, 1942, respectively, were sold by tenders called March, 1958.

In order to give added service to the public during the Christmas season, the Board arranged that all its single-shift stores throughout the Province should remain open to the public on Saturday, December 21st, and Monday, December 23rd, 1957, until 9 p.m.

Multiple-shift stores in Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster, and Prince Rupert remained open until the usual closing-hour on the above dates. All of the Board's stores closed at 6 p.m. on December 24th and December 31st, 1957.

These added hours, as in the past, proved beneficial in serving the public.
