At that date 317 insurers were licensed under the Act to transact business. The following summary indicates the origin of the insurers, how many hold only Provincial licences, and how many had Federal registry in addition to a Provincial licence:—

A complete list of insurers will be found on pages 10 to 34. A similar list is published in The British Columbia Gazette. For the purposes of convenience, the present list is made up to June 30, 1970, so that it includes insurers licensed since December 31, 1969, and shows the classes of insurance for which each is licensed.

On analysis, the list shows that 83 companies (exclusive of fraternal societies) were licensed for life insurance, 186 for fire insurance, 185 for automobile insurance, and 77 for marine insurance. These figures cover only the major classes of insurance, and it should be understood that the same company may be licensed, for example, for fire, automobile, and marine insurance.

The annual statements of those companies incorporated by or under an Act of the Legislature are set forth at length on pages 37 to 59.

There is one underwriter's agency licensed under the Act, as shown on page 36.

The taxes collected on unlicensed insurance amount to $21,294.

The number of insurance agents' and salesmen's licences issued for the year 1969 is given below, together with a comparative table for the previous four years. All licensees in the insurance industry now have a pre-licence examination requirement.
