Gentlemen:

OCEAN TRAFFIC - VANCOUVER, B.C.

Last April, we wrote you requesting that you address all communications in connection with business effecting our Trans-Pacific Service, covering the traffic we handle with you, to our Mr.Seto More, Asiatic Passenger Agent.

To enable us to give you still better service and to avoid any possible delay in letters reaching their proper department, kindly arrange to address any such communications from now on, to me.

This will not in any way effect your dealings with Mr.Seto More who will at all times be only too glad to give you any assistance you may desire in this traffic.

Yours very truly,

J.J.FORSTER.

Dear Sir,-

Referring to the following Second Class tickets issued by me on the 3rd inst to Mr. Lim Duck Sheu and family for the Ex."Empress of Russia" Voyage 41 outward on the 5th inst. namely;-

Tickets Form P5 Number 12791 to 12792 inclusive ( 3 adults,4 half fares and one infant).

I shall be glad if you will kindly arrange for refund of their passage money, as he was prevdnted from leaving by some legal dispute.

Mr. Lim Duck Shew told me that they will proceed by some other Canadian Pacific Steamship,Ltd. Steamer as soon as his private affairs had been settled.

Your early attention to this matter will oblige, Thanking you in anticipation, I remain.

Yours very truly,
