Empress Hotel . . . . .

Facing the Inner Harbor of Victoria is the Empress Hotel, famous the world over for its luxury and comfort—its hospitality and charm. The great lobby, conservatory and rotunda radiate a spirit of graciousness and warmth. The five hundred and seventy beautifully appointed rooms include a number of luxurious suites. In the spacious dining room, where music and dancing are featured, the service and cuisine are unexcelled, and most reasonable prices prevail. The ivy-covered Empress, surrounded by velvety lawns, beautiful trees and gardens is one block from the Parliament buildings and grounds. It is just a step to Crystal Gardens, the largest warm salt-water natatorium on the Coast, whose features include also a large dance floor, badminton court, tea garden and promenade. With all its comforts and luxuries, rates at the Empress are as low as $3.50 per day, European plan.

Victoria and Vancouver Island . . . . .

in "Canada's Evergreen Playground"

The City of Victoria, often referred to as "a bit of old England," offers much of interest to the tourist and vacationist. Sightseers find delightful charm in the beautiful residential districts and formal gardens, the scenic marine drives and the many public parks; Parliament buildings, Museum, and the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory; and Butchart's famous gardens, noted for their beauty at all seasons of the year, which are viewed by thousands annually. Visiting golfers are welcome at a number of beautifully designed golf courses in and near the city. At Victoria one has the choice of the many vacation opportunities abounding on Vancouver Island. Throughout its length of three hundred miles there are popular beach resorts, mountain lakes and rivers, where unsurpassed fishing, camping, yachting, golf and tennis may be enjoyed. Transportation facilities to all points of interest are available to those not driving their own cars. With your headquarters at the Empress Hotel, Victoria and Vancouver Island offer ideal vacation facilities, for either a long or short stay.

Vancouver and The Mainland .....

in "Canada's Evergreen Playground"

Arriving at the City of Vancouver on a "Princess" liner — with your car aboard — or driving over the broad Pacific Highway, you find a growing, progressive city. From this port, located on a natural land-locked harbor between the Fraser River and Burrard Inlet, great Canadian Pacific liners sail to the Orient. The many attractions of Vancouver and its environs are novel and distinctive, and every year the city is becoming more widely known as an ideal vacation center. Your holidays will become still more enjoyable by making your home at the Hotel Vancouver. Among the popular recreations may be included driving or walking through the thousand-acre Stanley Park; trips to Grouse Mountain, Capilano Canyon and the wonderful bays and beaches; the finest of salt and fresh-water fishing. The golf player will get the most out of his game on the many fine courses that are open to visitors. From Vancouver the motorist may drive over the historic Cariboo Trail, through beautiful scenery, on to the magnificent Canadian Rockies.
