Banff

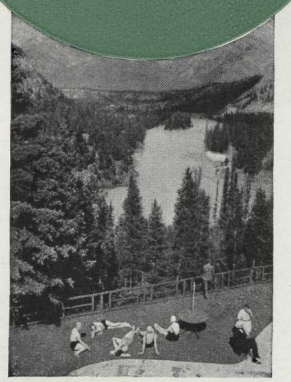
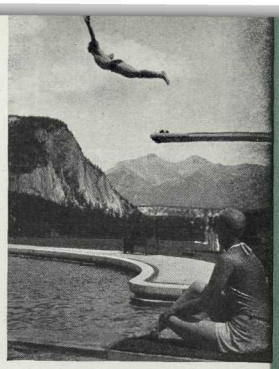
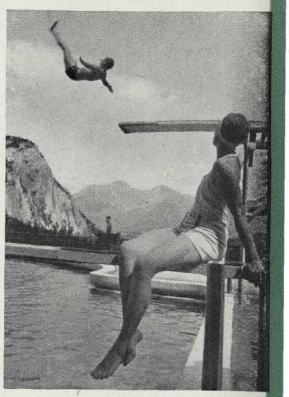
WHERE MAGIC PEAKS LOOK DOWN ON VERDANT VALLEYS AND FAERY FORESTS

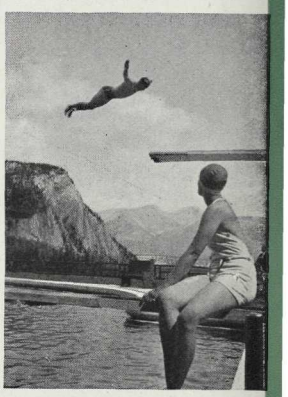
Hours before you arrive at Banff you begin to feel the spell of the Canadian Rockies. Then suddenly the peaks grow taller and wilder, reminding you of fantastic giant architecture, frosted with snow. The air grows perceptibly lighter, keener and fresher. Already you begin to feel the sparkle of living in a rarefied atmosphere . . . far above the din and dust of cities, the heavier air of lower lands. You are entranced by the whisper of great spruce forests, growing green and glistening in the rich, rolling valleys and wandering far up the mountain sides. Your arrival at Banff is a thing of glory. Up the great courtyard winds your car to the portals of Banff Springs Hotel, that looks like some great castle. And a castle it is, in its setting . . . with 600 beautifully appointed guest rooms, each with its own modern bath. There are suites of metropolitan elegance . . . drawing rooms, dining rooms and lounges as regal as this mountain kingdom.

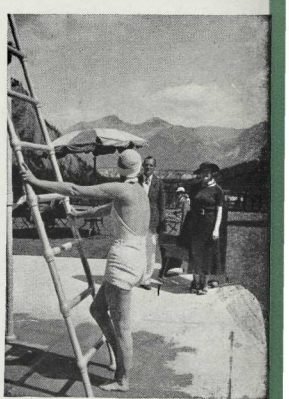


You can see the rolling Bow Valley from Banff's top-of-the-world pool.







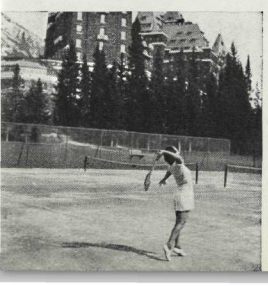


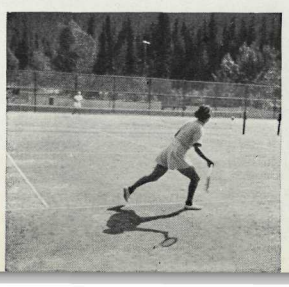
At Banff there are two pools. The outdoor one filled with warm, health-giving sulphur waters . . . and cool, clear fresh water sparkles in the inside pool. A spacious lawn adjoining the pool is an ideal place to get that mountain suntan . . . and fraternize with new people.

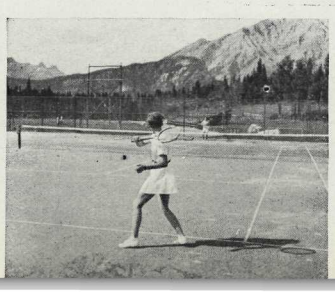
Sitting on Top of the World

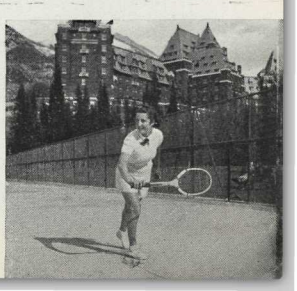
You'll have a "high" time at Banff . . . basking on cool green terraces, splashed with sun . . . dipping into the exhilarating waters of the beautiful pools . . . swinging your racquet on a fast clay court encircled by mountains . . . golfing down the Bow Valley that winds like a ribbon of green from Banff's front door! There are horses to ride . . . and fascinating mountain trails to explore. With such thrilling scenery all around and so many things for every one to do, it's no wonder Banff has for years been the favorite top-of-the-world vacation spot for smart visitors from near and far . . . where casual outdoor togs, feminine frocks and dinner coats are equally at home all summer long! A mountain paradise invites you to mingle invigorating sports with restful leisure . . . just as you please! A heavenly haven of glamour out under the Alpine sun, and under a silvery mountain moon!

Tennis is another sport that reaches its high peak at Banff . . . on fast clay courts with thrilling views on every hand. Spectators enjoy it, too, in this picturesque setting.





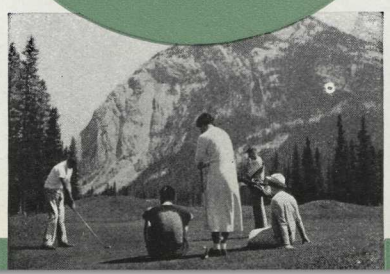


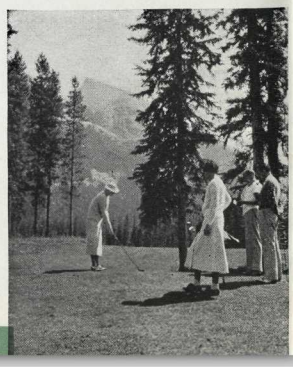


Play Banff

THE BOW VALLEY IS YOUR FAIRWAY. . . . THE GIANT PEAKS YOUR GALLERY

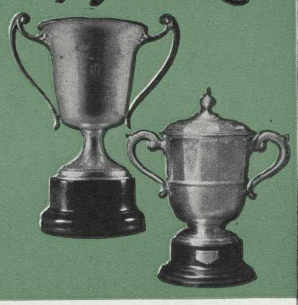
Every turn of the course reveals new hazards! And the fairways are like velvet from green to green! It's the golfer's dream . . . come true, up on top of the world!





If golf is your game then Banff is your vacation spot! A course that's matchless in beauty and golfing thrills! 300 yards from Banff Springs Hotel its wide, double fairways begin . . . winding for 6,640 yards down the verdant Bow Valley, with fascinating views of the silvery Spray and Bow rivers. It's a course that thrills professionals . . . yet a course even the beginner can play with enjoyment! There are three sets of tees . . . making, in reality, three courses . . . long, medium and short. Its variety of plays, its backdrop of majestic mountains and spruce forests put zip into your game! Soft-eyed deer peer out from the brush to watch you. Interesting new people for your foursomes and informal gatherings in Banff's turreted club house at the end of the eighteenth hole add to the enjoyment. The tang of the mountain air, the fragrance of spruce-clad forests combine to make this top-of-the-world golf an experience you'll never forget.

Golf Week



Cup presented by His Majesty, King Edward VIII, when Prince of Wales

Trophy presented by Viscount Willingdon, when Governor-General of Canada

An annual event of keen interest to every golfer.

Participants play under club handicaps. Tournaments open to amateurs in good standing at any recognized club.

MILE-HIGH GOLF THAT EVEN 'PROS' CAN NEVER FORGET!

Kingly Comfort

YOU'RE LAVISHED .. WITH HAPPY LIVING INDOORS & OUT - at BANFF

Majestic Mountain Peaks Inspired the Noble Lines of Baronial BANFF SPRINGS HOTEL

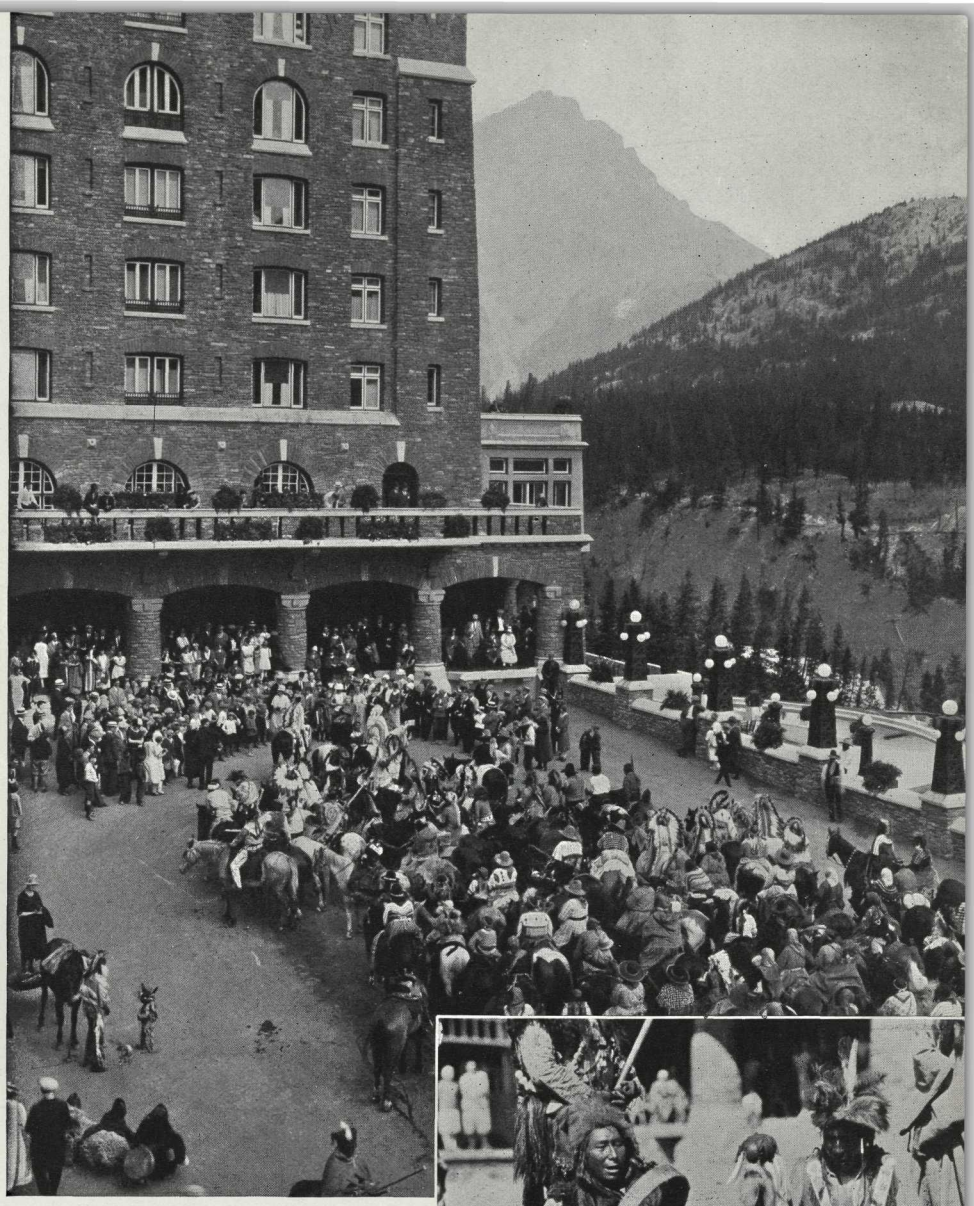
All the deft courtesies and gracious services that the Canadian Pacific is so famous for . . . all the comforts that make a vacation utterly carefree . . . are yours at this castle-hotel.

Wouldn't you like to live in a castle . . . for the romance of it? With the conveniences of this modern world . . . for the comfort of it? That's what you do at Banff where the spectacular scenery of this land, a mile nearer heaven, makes every moment dramatic. Your home here is baronial Banff Springs Hotel . . . with its high-vaulted, massively-beamed ceilings, its spacious public rooms, brilliant ball room, beautiful suites and charming individual rooms. In this massive 14-story castle are 600 guest rooms each with private bath. A background of snow-topped peaks, a view of the Bow and Spray rivers at their meeting point . . . forests below and about you . . . glorious top-of-the-world pleasures on every hand. Your palate gets a vacation too . . . from everything ordinary. For Banff's famous chefs make even breakfast a banquet for the gods. Copper-skinned braves, cowboys in chapps and four-gallon hats and Royal Canadian Mounties in their vivid scarlet coats add to the colorful character of this heavenly spot a mile above the rest of the world. Here are facilities for all of summer's outdoor sports . . . and entertainment when you're in a leisurely mood! Musical programs by a skilled concert orchestra . . . a nature guide to lecture on the mountain lore of flowers, birds, glaciers and mountains. Interesting companions at bridge! There's glamour from the rise of the Alpine sun to the hours when a silvery moon rides over peaks that soar towards the skies!

YOURS FOR GLORIOUS LEISURE

SUITES DESIGNED FOR GRACIOUS LIVING

Restful beds . . . gracious period furniture . . . spacious rooms and suites where life has the comforts of a luxurious home! And you'll feel at home at Banff Springs Hotel . . . where courtesy is the order of the day. It is wise to make your reservations for these beautiful suites well in advance.



Indian Days

Calgary Stampede

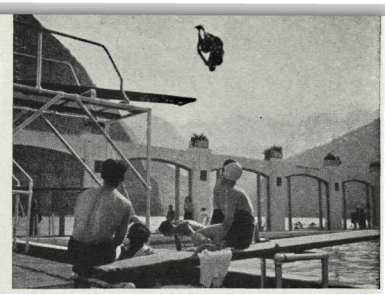
The beat of the tom tom . . . the rhythm of barbaric tribal dances . . . the feathered finery and the riotous coloring of Indian costumes will make your pulses throb as you witness the picturesque parade. From Morley reserve come three to four hundred Stoney Indian chiefs, tribesmen and squaws for the annual festivities at Banff . . . riding fine horses with the poise of a noble race!

Besides, there is the annual Stampede at Calgary, gateway to the Canadian Rockies, a week-long colorful carnival of frontier sports and contests. Cowboys, Indians, Mounties and "old timers" participate in this epic of the West! Color, music and daring riders blend into a memorable pageantry of Western life in these unforgetable days. Be sure to ask your Canadian Pacific agent for the dates and full particulars of these historic celebrations.

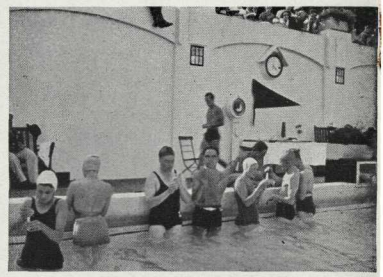
Heavenly

PEAKS CRESTED WITH ERMINE SNOWS BORDER THE SPARKLING SAPPHIRE WATER OF LAKE LOUISE

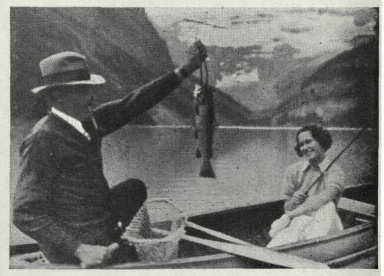
Forty miles from Banff lies this rainbow land of the Canadian Rockies. You can speed there by train . . . or go more leisurely by motor, stopping, after sixteen winding miles, to see the rock-walled Johnston Canyon. Then motor on past the natural architecture of Castle Mountain. See as you go, the famous Ten Peaks and snow-topped Mount Temple. After this dramatic panorama you marvel to find a spot that surpasses even these in color and charm, lovely Lake Louise. So magic in its changing colors that you can watch it with fascination from the glow of dawn until dusk deepens its brilliant hues into warm violets and purples. All the colors of the rainbow are mirrored here . . . from pale jade green to vivid blue . . . and pierced with the gold of sunlight and silvered with the reflection of snowy peaks! Around its banks grow vivid flowers . . . flaming poppies, deep tinted violets, anemone, columbine and sheep laurel. Into its depths peer tall spruce forests, towering peaks and the glittering Victoria glacier! A land of colorful romance . . . of changing scenes!



Swimming and sunning at beautiful Lake Louise pool, with its crystal-clear waters.



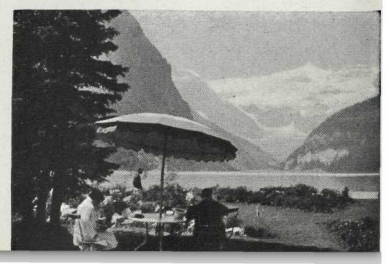
The candle race . . . one of the many interesting events for spectators and participants.



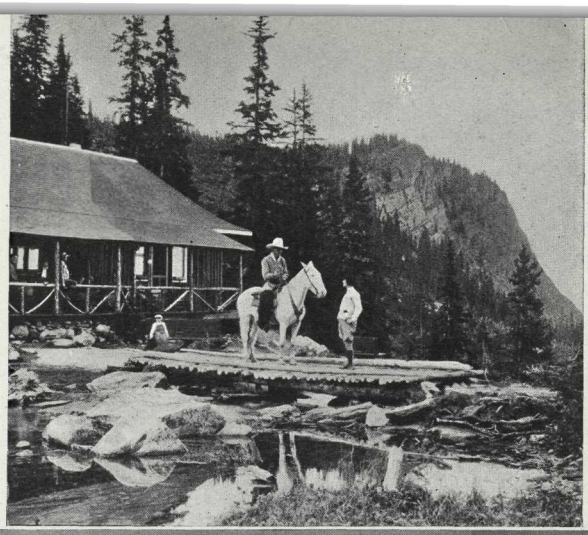
Lake Louise offers good boating and trout fishing

Fascinating mountain trails from Lake Louise bring new thrills to the equestrian.

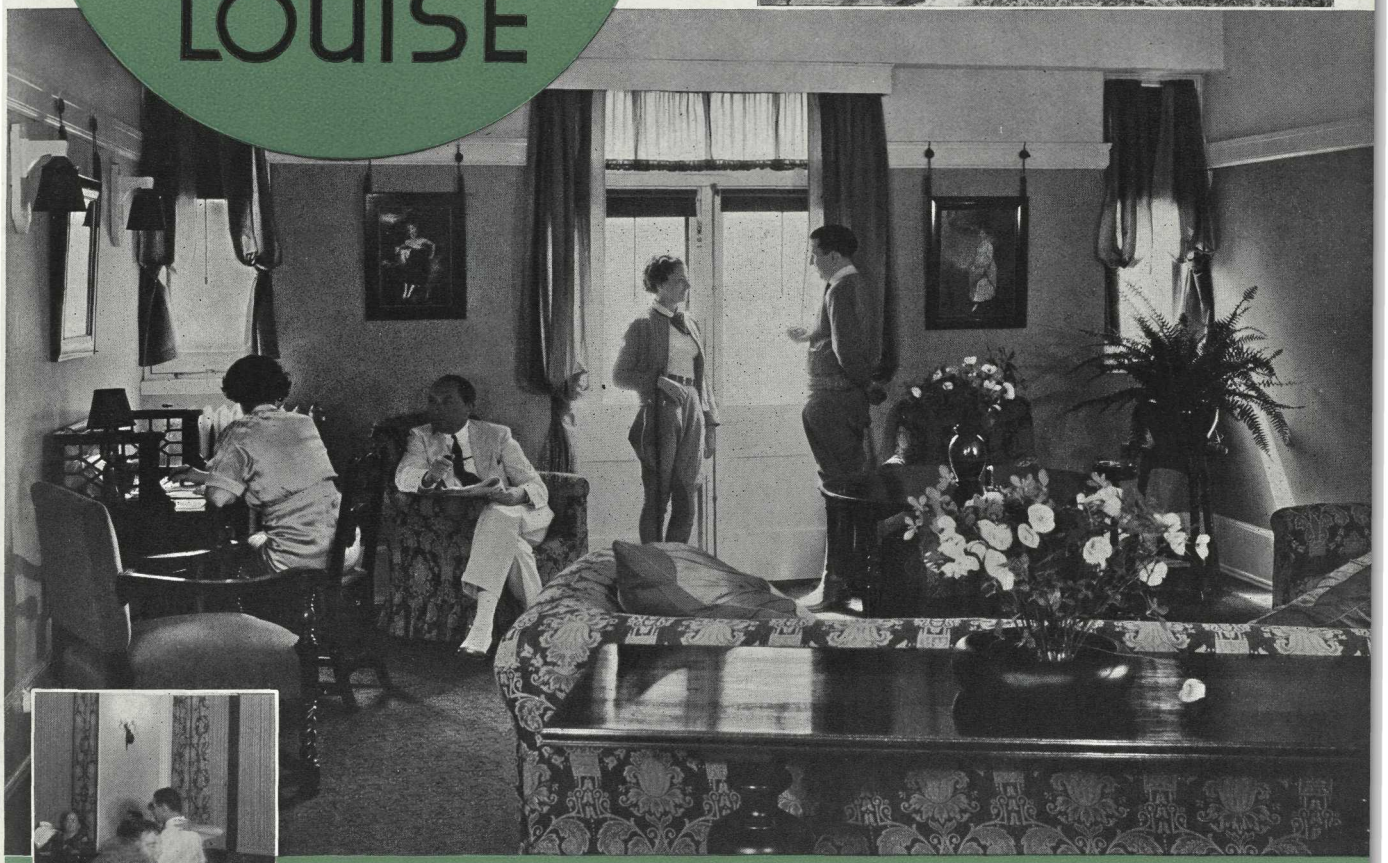
Follow the high-road to adventure over sky line trails from lovely Lake Louise.

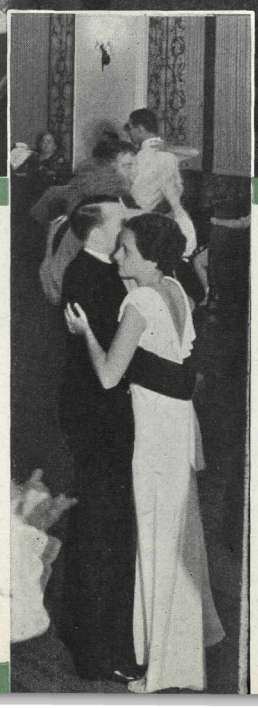


Lovely LAKE LOUISE



Lake Agnes Tea House

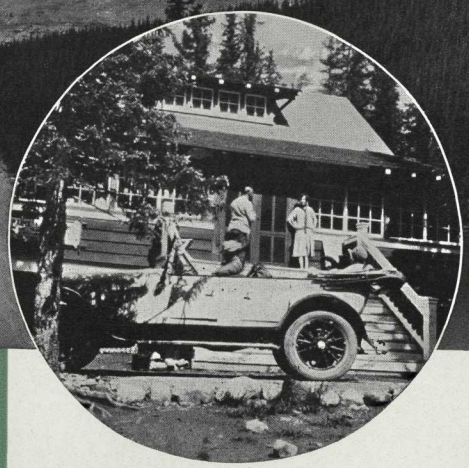




MOONBEAMS OR SUNSHINE THERE'S ALWAYS GAYETY AND CHARM IN THIS MOUNTAIN CHATEAU

Here is an idyllic setting for idyllic days. Chateau Lake Louise . . . its windows tall and broad so that not a moment of beauty escapes you indoors or out. A silvery moon looking down as you dance to the dream-like music that floats through the air at night. A gloriously golden sun beaming through the majestic windows as you chat in the lounge by day . . . calling you out to a game of tennis, a clamber up the Rockies, a stroll on the lawn, an exhilarating swim in the Chateau's long, broad, open-air pool! There's fishing too, and dreamy hours for drifting around this lake of sapphire blue. And then triumphs of culinary skill to satisfy that keen appetite the mountain air will give you! Enjoy, too, the restful, charmingly-decorated rooms and suites in this spacious, modern, fireproof hotel that accommodates 700 guests.

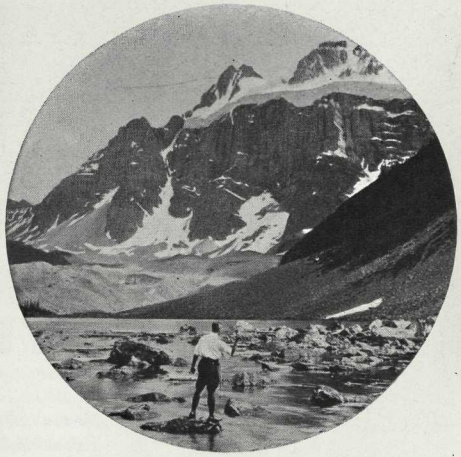
Moraine LAKE



As Swiss-like as the Alps is the central chalet at Moraine Lake with its veranda that looks out on such glorious Alpine views.

A GLOWING JEWEL SET IN A CROWN OF MOUNTAINS LACED WITH EVER LINGERING SNOWS

Deep in the heart of the Canadian Rockies . . . yet only 9 miles from Lake Louise . . . is an exquisitely peaceful lake, visited each year by lovers of the Canadian Rockies. Guarded by the famous Ten Peaks . . . the least of them over 10,000 feet high . . . only a handful of rustic log cabins and a cheery Chalet-Bungalow Camp hint of the joys of civilization. And what comforts the Canadian Pacific provides . . . with all the atmosphere of the primitive. Here is North America's "Tower of Babel" . . . strange architecture of rocks that nature built! And nearby is famous Consolation Lake . . . well stocked with trout . . . and a happyland for anglers! There are trails through dense pine forests . . . new natural wonders to see. Brilliant star-spangled nights about glowing open fires! A mountain haven for lovers of outdoor living!

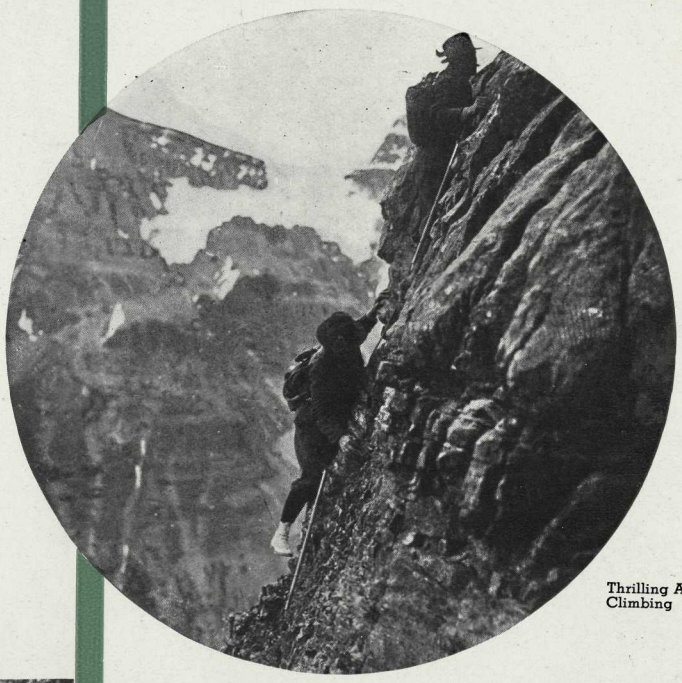


Consolation Lake—a quiet, dreamy spot with lots of mountain "catch" for anglers.

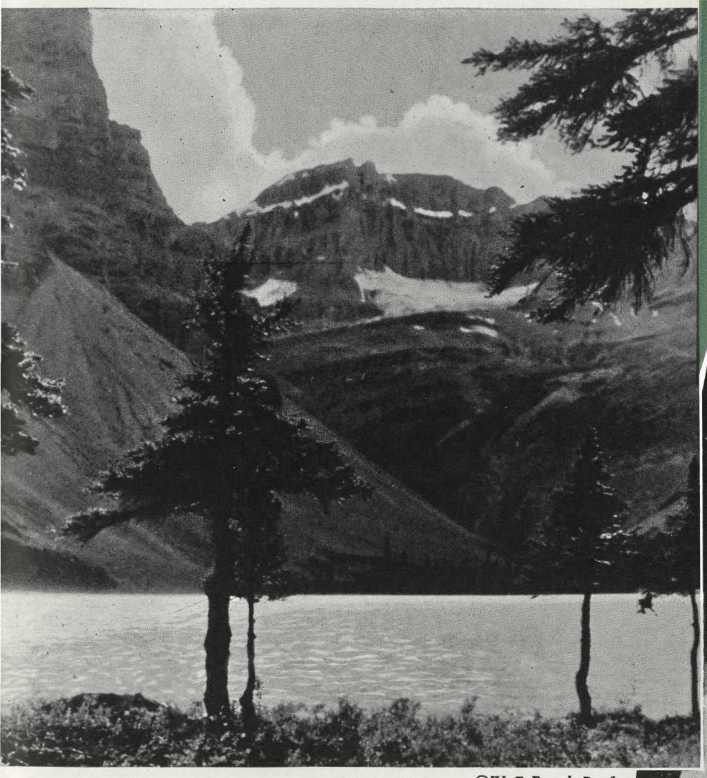
Rusticity is a mild word for the rugged, dramatic beauty you'll find here! Tumbling, rolling mountains, rushing waterfalls, limpid lakes . . . a composite of the most picturesque and the most unusual scenery found in America!

A LAND FOR DREAMS-
AND DEEDS OF DARING TOO

Sit on the dreamy shores of Moraine Lake, watching it throw back lights as brilliant and sparkling as the Alpine sun . . . catching the beauty of snow-clad peaks in its deep blue waters. Or clamber up mountain sides if your legs are sturdy and your togs are tough! Discover for yourself why Alpine enthusiasts from all over the world call this region the "Fifty Switzerlands in One"! Sit on high peaks with fleecy clouds floating by at your feet . . . so far up that the blue heavens seem just above your head! There are real Swiss guides to show you the high spots (and they're so popular it's wise to arrange for their services as far in advance as you can). And if you're a real mountain-climbing enthusiast you'll be welcomed into the Alpine Club of Canada, if you wish . . . an organization with over 600 members, and headquarters at Banff.

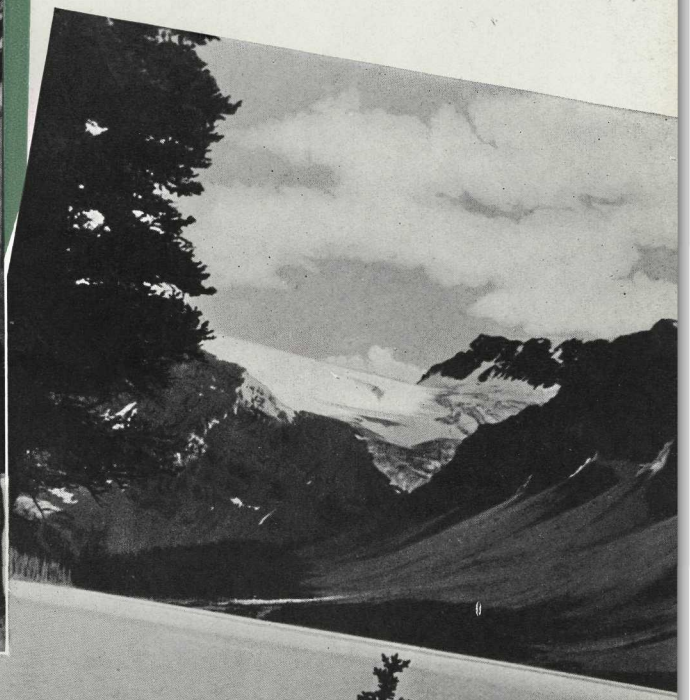


Thrilling Alpine Climbing

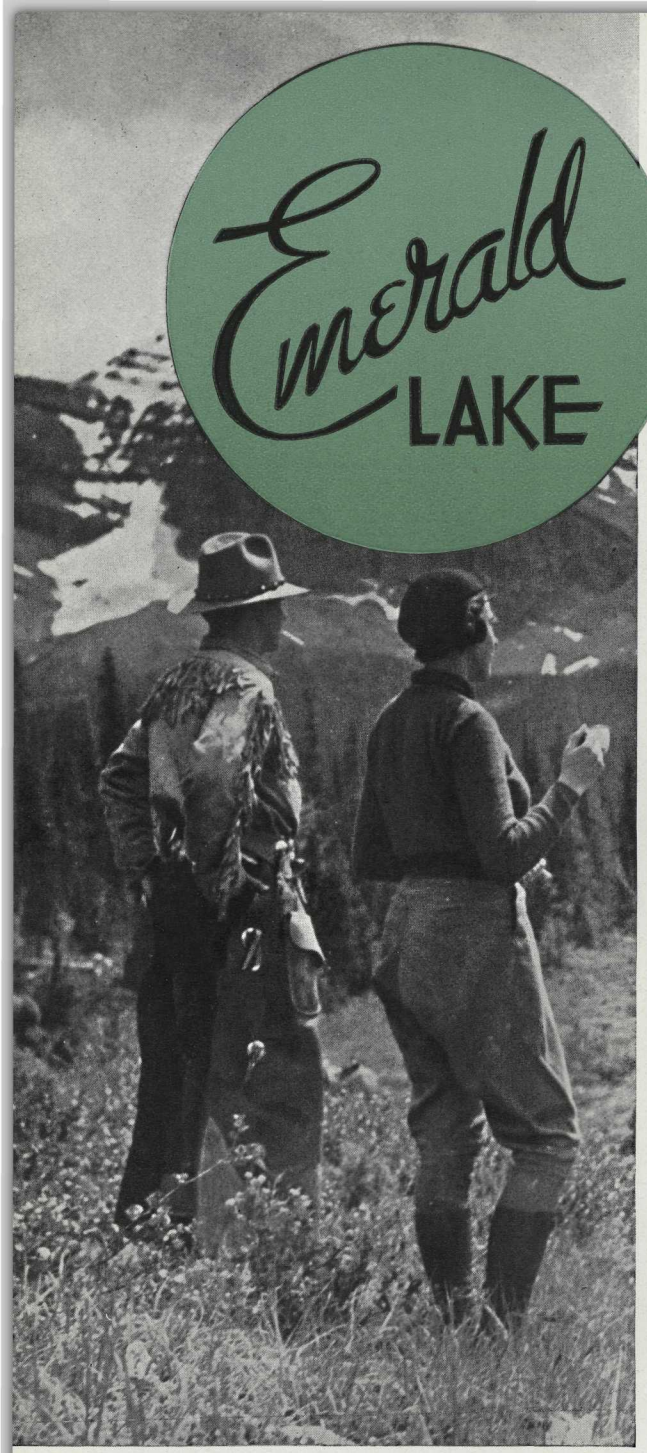


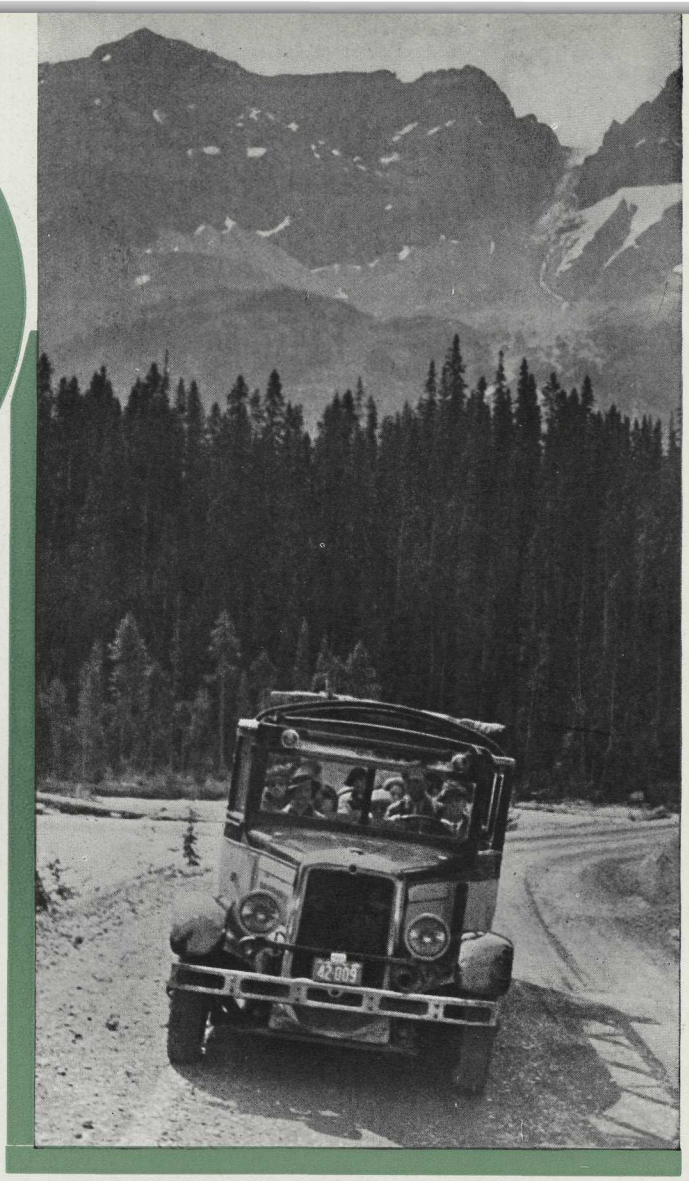
Bow Lakes

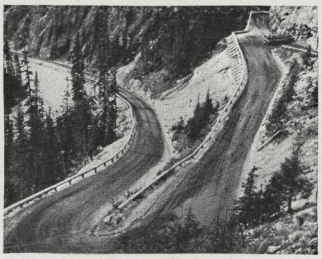
©W. E. Round, Banff



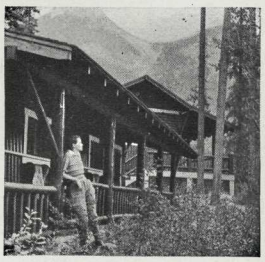
Bow Lake, lying at the foot of Bow Glacier, [the source of the historic Bow River] and Bow Pass, overlooking Peyto Lake and the mountain range culminating in the great Columbia Glacier, are now accessible from Lake Louise by a new motor road to the north. Two other spectacular glaciers are seen from the road: that of Mount Hector and the curiously-formed Crowfoot Glacier, shaped like the frozen claws of a bird.







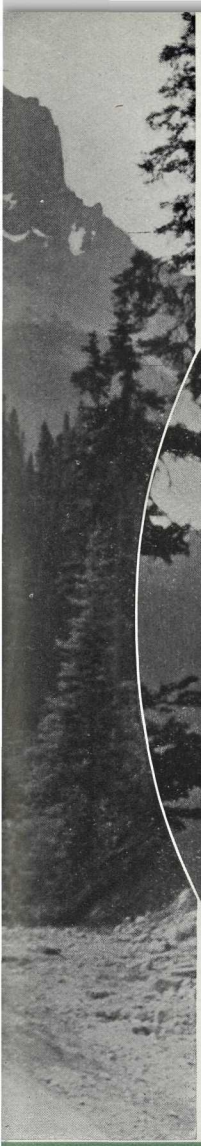
A snake-like switch-back on a smooth, modern mountain highway is one of many dramatic moments when motoring through the Canadian Rockies. An unforgetable drive!

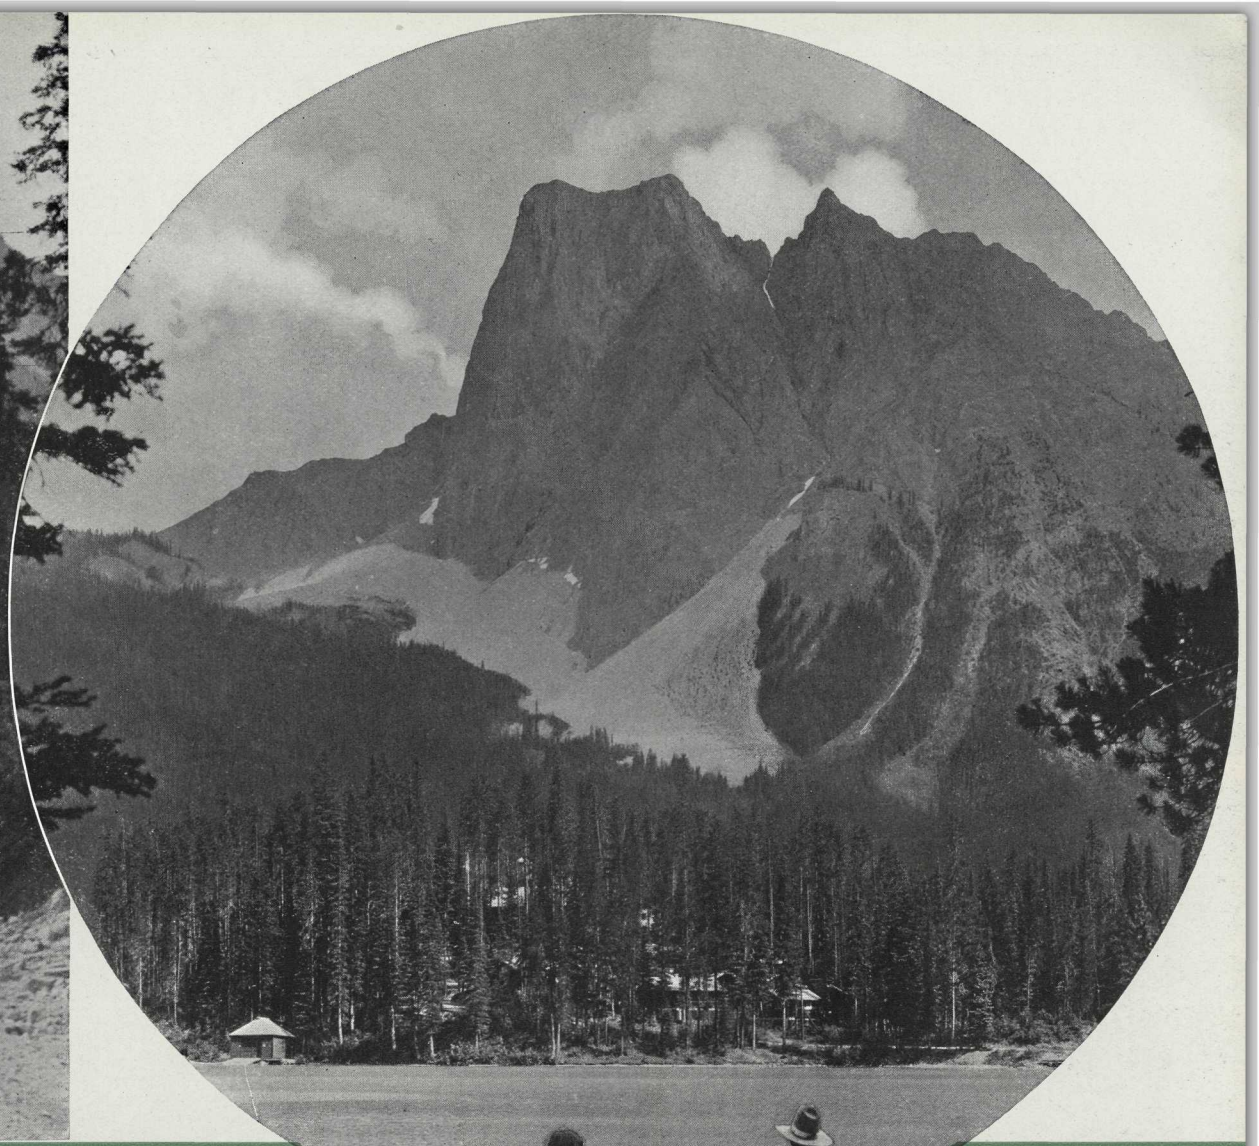


Live in a cosy bungalow with its own veranda, tasteful furnishings, hot and cold running water, bathrooms, stove ... and chalet close at hand for delightful meals and gay companionship.

WHERE GIANT PEAKS BECKON TO SKYWARD TRAILS ! . . .

Two miles of trail were hewn through a vast spruce forest to bring you to this gem of the Rockies . . . Emerald Lake. Often as green, as glittering as its name . . . often a mysterious, milky jade color, typical of the moods of glacier waters! What marvels of scenery you see when motoring down Snow-Peak Avenue and beyond! The foaming, wild running waters of the Kicking Horse. Emerald Peak and Mount Vaux, soaring skyward. An adventure into a mountain wilderness where only loveliness reigns! A beauty spot set in the heart of Yoho National Park . . . one of the six great national parks to which the Canadian Pacific brings you. It is fitting that Emerald Lake Chalet should be rugged in character . . . charming in its simplicity! Yet the delightful accommodations, the wholesome, appetizing food prepared for you and the variety of entertainment always at hand, assure you of the comforts of civilization that we of the twentieth century are loath to leave behind. And here they have an extra tang . . . contrasting with the unspoiled pleasures of nature at her most dramatic.





Modern buses transport you smoothly over fine mountain roads to rustic Emerald Lake Chalet . . . with its convenient central chalet and bungalows. Enjoy the simplicity and charm of a hide-away hunting lodge!

PLACID WATERS AND MASSIVE MOUNTAINS BLEND IN A . SETTING OF INFINITE . . . . PEACE . .

You'll love the informality of life at Emerald Lake . . . with its central chalet of great squared timbers, its spacious rooms and overhanging balconies. Just like a Swiss village! And at easy distances from your cosy headquarters you'll see some of the most talked-about mountain spots in North America . . . the shimmering peak of the great Wapta pinnacle, Emerald Peak and the shining President Glacier! Delicate orchids growing in the wilds! Seen in a stroll around Emerald Lake: dozens of easy trails . . . steeper ones, too, for the veteran Alpinist! Austere mountains capped with snow and veiled with soft hazes of mingled blue, gold and purple! A land of endless contrast. Open fires glowing hospitably at night . . . and tales of adventure going the round. Card games. And plenty of good books in the library when you'd like to be alone with an interesting volume. Just the right diversions for every mood . . in a paradise for rest or play.

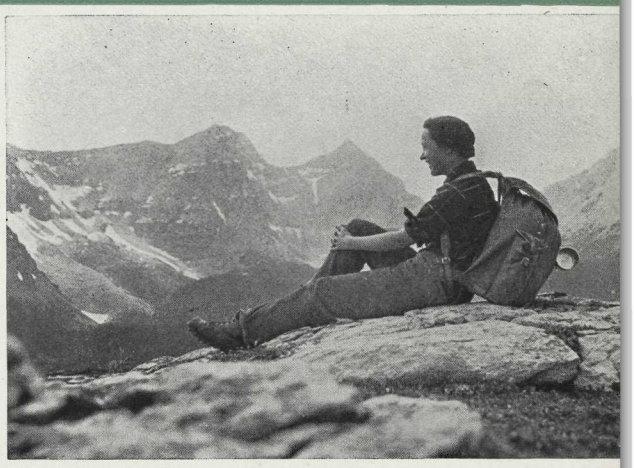
SERENE IN ITS SETTING OF MOUNTAINS AND FORESTS

Have you ever dreamed of what fun it would be to live deep in the heart of the wildwoods . . . cloistered from the world by lofty peaks . . . with every trail leading to new adventure . . . right from the door of your own cosy bungalow? And a rustic Chalet is right at hand for playing and dining in carefree style! That's part of the fun of Canadian Pacific Chalet-Bungalow Camps in the Canadian Rockies! There's Lake O'Hara . . . beloved spot of John Singer Sargent, painter of renown. And Yoho Valley Camp, in sight of the Takakkaw Falls (Yoho is the Indian name for wonder!) . . . Then Radium Hot Springs Camp on the Banff-Windermere Highway, noted for its curative waters. Moraine Lake in the awesome Valley of the Ten Peaks. Wapta Camp (Hector, B.C.), standing near the Great Divide at Wapta Lake. And Mount Assiniboine Lodge (owned and operated by Mr. Erling Strom) reached by several trail routes, 35 miles from Banff with overnight stop at a half-way cabin. Here are "back to nature" delights for dreamer and adventurer alike!

TRAIL RIDERS...SKY LINE HIKERS
of the Canadian Rockies

Fording a mountain river

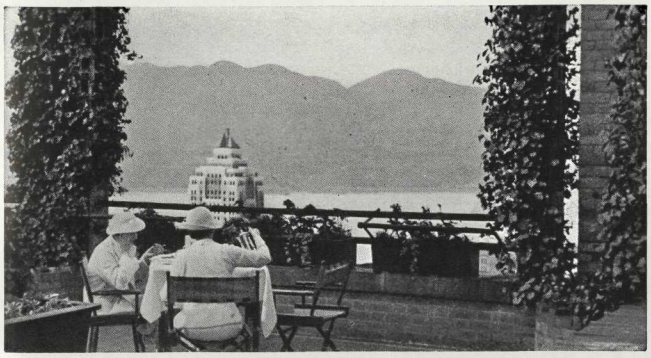
Do you want to find fascinating trails that few people know? To explore the secrets of the mountains . . . to discover mysteries you have never dreamed of? There is an organization of beauty lovers . . . nature lovers . . . that will take you there! It's the "Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies!" It will have its twelfth birthday this year, and how it is growing! More than 1,500 enthusiasts from United States and Canada belong to it. Becoming a veteran is fun! Your "mileage" rates you . . . with distinctive buttons to show how many miles you and your pony have rambled over mountain trails . . . looking down on the world!



On top of the world

The "Sky Line Hikers of the Canadian Rockies" is a fledgling of the Trail Rider organization . . . but a fast-growing one! It gives you such intimate knowledge of the Rockies . . . their wonderland of flowers and brush and trees . . . their "high spots" in beauties! Young and old belong . . . enjoying the well-planned hikes that lead to interesting and remote places. Wild life will thrill you! Camp fires at night will cheer you! And the silver bands on your alpenstock will tell how thorough-going an Alpinist you are! Find out about this fascinating organization from any Canadian Pacific agent . . . or at the hotels and chalet-bungalow camps—ask about this year's hike with Lake O'Hara as its central camp!

VANCOUVER GOLDEN JUBILEE
Ten Weeks of Festival, Sport and Fun-July 1-Sept. 7-1936



View from roof-garden of Hotel Vancouver

Vancouver's Golden Jubilee in 1936 will be fittingly celebrated by ten continuous weeks of festival and fun, complete with gayety, carnivals, military, naval and air displays, Olympics, historic pageants and folklore exhibitions. 1936 is Vancouver's gala year: stop-over on your way to and from Alaska and join in the festivities.

Visit Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, the famous Triangle Trip . . . on your way to California and the Pacific Northwest . . . at any time of the year! Your ticket includes these extra miles and extra thrills when you go Canadian Pacific . . . it costs no more!

Beauty spots like this abound in Stanley Park

Vancouver is known far and wide for the wonders of Stanley Park—a natural reservation of 1,000 acres within the city limits, famous for the primitive unspoiled beauty of its giant trees and luxuriant foliage.

Enjoy also its outdoor sports . . . golf, fishing, swimming, sailing! Live luxuriously at the Hotel Vancouver, centre of gayety and charm . . . overlooking Canada's greatest western seaport, its hills and forests. See great liners plying to and from the Orient . . . from Vancouver's harbor. Make this a part of your trip to the great Pacific Northwest . . . it is so near, so fascinating!

Mighty Taku Glacier—a highlight of your Alaska cruise

Alaska and the Yukon

A 2,000-Mile, 9-Day Cruise

It is a fitting climax to your journey through the Canadian Rockies—this 2,000-mile, 9-day cruise to Alaska and back. It is a land of flowers, of glaciers, fox farms, salmon, Indians and totem poles. It is the "land of the unsetting sun." For nine days, going and returning, the Canadian Pacific "Princess" liners glide along the almost land-locked "Inside Passage", winding through mountain-hemmed, fjord-like waterways with fascinating Alaskan towns and quaint old settlements as continuous episodes.

Regular sailings are operated from Vancouver (also Victoria and Seattle) and six ports are visited en route. Why not complete your journey through the Canadian Rockies with this cruise? A companion booklet, describing cruises to Alaska more fully, may be obtained from your own travel agent or any Canadian Pacific agent listed opposite.

FEATURE EVENTS • 1936

Calgary Stampede—July 6-11

Calgary Stampede is the greatest event of its kind in the world, contestants coming from all parts of the continent to compete. All the typically "rodeo" events are featured—roping, broncho busting, covered wagon racing, Indian races, etc. Each year, too, there is the Stampede Ball when all Calgary goes carnival. No visitor to the West should miss this spectacle.

The "Hotel Palliser," owned and operated by the Canadian Pacific, is the ideal headquarters. Rates range from $3.00 per day, European Plan.

After the Stampede, why not plan to spend a vacation in the Canadian Rockies? Banff is situated only 82 miles west of Calgary and can be reached either by a short train journey, or by driving over an excellent motor highway. Lake Louise is also within easy access, being only two hours west of Banff.

Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies July 31-Aug. 4

An order called the "Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies" holds an official riding and camping trip each summer, starting from a convenient centre. The dates of this year's ride are July 31-Aug. 4, and the rate is $45. which includes horse, food, service of guides, and share of tent.

The 1936 Trail Ride will start from Banff, going north by way of Edith Pass, returning to Hillsdale, 14 miles west of Banff. Motor buses will take riders to and from start and finish of Trail Ride.

Further particulars from the Hon. Secretary-Treasurer, Room 318, Windsor Station, Montreal, or from L. S. Crosby, Western Secretary, Banff, Alta.

Sky Line Trail Hike—August 7-10

To encourage the more extensive use of trails in the Canadian Rockies, this organization was started three years ago after a four-day hike from Lake Louise over two high passes to Lake Wapta. Headquarters for this year's hike (August 7-10, 1936) will be Lake O'Hara Chalet-Bungalow Camp. Rate for the four days is $20. for tent accommodation with meals at Bungalow Camp; $22.50 for accommodation and meals at Bungalow Camp, two or three in a room as necessary. Rate includes packing of duffle to and from Wapta. Membership in the organization costs $1.00 a year and a record of twenty-five miles of hiking qualifies for the silver insignia of the Sky Line Trail Hikers.

Further particulars from the Hon. Secretary-Treasurer, Room 318, Windsor Station, Montreal, or during July and August from Dan McCowan, Banff.

Indian Days—July 24-26

Indian Days at Banff is one of the most colorful spectacles on the North American continent. Between three and four hundred Stoney Indians come from the Morley reserve, 40 miles east of Banff, for their tribal sports. The tribe is mounted and the color schemes of their beaded costumes are fascinating.

Two Amateur Golf Championships

Prince of Wales Cup, August 16-22. Presented to Golf Club by His Majesty King Edward VIII, when the Prince of Wales. Open to all amateur members in good standing of any recognized Golf Club. The winner to receive a suitably engraved miniature of the cup.

The Willingdon Trophy, August 16-22. Presented by Viscount Willingdon, former Governor-General of Canada. Open to Amateurs, members in good standing of any recognized Golf Club, and playing under club handicaps. Also to members of Banff Golf Club. Winner to receive an engraved miniature of the original trophy.

In addition, minor periodical competitions are held throughout the season. Full particulars from any Canadian Pacific agent or Manager, Banff Springs Hotel, Banff, Alta.

The Banff School of Fine Arts August 1-28

This popular summer school, under the direction of the Department of Extension, University of Alberta, offers courses of instruction in Drama, Music and Art.

Fishing and Hunting Seasons

Special regulations concerning fishing in Banff, Yoho, Kootenay and Glacier National Parks of Canada:—

License.—No fishing license is required to angle for sport purposes only in the waters open for fishing in the Parks. The open seasons in the Parks are:

Great Lake Trout:—May 16 to August 31. Limit of catch: 50 pounds per day, unless one fish weighs more than 50 pounds. In no case may more than 5 Great Lake Trout be caught in any day, even though the 5 fish caught and killed weigh less than 50 pounds.

Other varieties of sport fish.—July 1 to September 30. Limit: 10 fish (limit 20 pounds). No fish less than 8 inches in length may be retained.

For Fishing and Hunting Information write to: General Tourist Agent, Windsor Station, Montreal.

Swiss Guides' Rates

Swiss Guides are men thoroughly experienced in mountain climbing, gained by years of service in the Swiss Alps and latterly in the Canadian Rockies. They were engaged in Switzerland and placed in the Canadian Rockies some years ago by the Canadian Pacific Railway, to guide patrons desiring to climb in the Rockies and requiring the services of expert climbers. The Swiss village, "Edelweiss," has been established one mile west of Golden, as their permanent residence.

During the season the Guides' headquarters are at Chateau Lake Louise, but, if required, they will arrange to accompany parties for climbing trips from other resorts.

Application for their services should be made to the Manager of Chateau Lake Louise at least a week or two in advance of time required.

Rate for each Guide is $7.00 per day and sustenance, the Guide providing ropes and ice axes.

Rowboat and Canoe Rates—Banff

	Per Hour	Per ½ Day 5 hrs.	Per Day 10 hrs.
