Organized events—from the annual "Stampede" at Calgary to Banff Golf Week—are regular features of the Canadian Rockies.

Calgary Stampede—a week of real Western rodeo ending with the Stampede Ball at the Hotel Palliser, a Canadian Pacific hotel. Held usually the second week in July.

Indian Days at Banff—For four days each July, the Stoney Indian Reserve at Morley, east of Banff, is deserted when Braves, Squaws and Papooses go to Banff for tribal sports.

Trail Rides—Conducted each year under the auspices of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, these July expeditions explore the Rockies area. An all-in rate includes horses, food, guides, tent accommodation and gratuities.

Banff Golf Features—
Edward, Prince of Wales Cup, for Men,
Brewster's Cup for Ladies.

Seventy-two holes medal play, no handicap. Replica of cup and prize for winner and prize for runner-up. Amateur Golfers of any recognized Golf Club, in good standing, are eligible on producing evidence of amateur standing and golf membership card.

Willingdon Cup for Men,
Associated Screen News Cup for Ladies.
Banff Springs Hotel Trophy for Men,
Chateau Lake Louise Trophy for Ladies.

Seventy-two holes medal play handicap. Replica of cup and prize for winner and prize for runner-up. Amateur Golfers of any recognized Golf Club, in good standing, and being registered guests of Banff Springs Hotel during entire period of either of these tournaments, are eligible on producing evidence of amateur standing, golf membership card and verified handicap.

Trail Hikes—From annual camps in the mountain area the Sky Line Trail Hikers of the Canadian Rockies, an order similar to the Trail Riders, travel Mountain trails — usually in August.

Banff School of Fine Arts — An increasingly popular summer school, operated by the University of Alberta. Courses include painting, the theatre, music. Open in July and August.

Twin Falls guesthouse, a rustic, comfortable overnight stop for riders in the Yoho Valley.

Moraine Lake in the Valley of the Ten Peaks. Here Moraine Lake Lodge offers restful mountain holiday life.

Lake O'Hara, brilliant gem in Canada's Rocky Mountain diadem, is site of a Canadian Pacific lodge. (Right) Powerful busses, plastic-topped for full observation of snow-capped peaks, thread mountain highways, dramatic passes, lovely valleys.

For mountain holidays where the evening atmosphere is less formal Canadian Pacific owns mountain lodges throughout the most spectacular regions of the Canadian Rockies. Sited amid mountain peaks beside lakes of limpid beauty, these lodges comprise central chalets surrounded by individual cottages.

Operated on the American plan, Canadian Pacific Lodges at Lake O'Hara, Wapta, Yoho, Moraine Lake and Emerald Lake specialize in riding, climbing, fishing, hiking and just plain loafing.

Motorbus connections with Banff, Lake Louise and Field are maintained by the Brewster Transport Company — except Lake O'Hara, reached on horseback.

At Athabasca Glacier, beyond Sunwapta Pass, the Columbia Icefield Chalet, (owned and operated by Brewster Transport Co.,) is open during the summer months.

Emerald Lake Lodge, noted mountain resort, commands this view of the aptly named lake.
