In the far reaches of Western Canada, at the foot of an enchanting island, you will find a charming city steeped in the timeless traditions of its British heritage, Victoria. In the heart of Victoria stands The Empress. The Empress, painstakingly restored in 1989, is a beacon to tell all who hold grandeur and elegance of a simpler time dear.

Exquisite gardens like Butchart Gardens make a statement about the graceful style of living that you will find in Victoria and at The Empress.

Tasteful traditions. Savour the sophistication of fine dining in The Empress Dining Room, world famous Afternoon Tea and elegant luncheons in the colonial Bengal Lounge.

483 rooms and suites of distinguished character evoke an image of stately beauty of the Victorian era.

For a challenging workout or a few quiet laps to unwind, try our health club and fitness facilities.

From the elegance of the mirrored ballroom to the uniquely detailed meeting rooms, The Empress offers your meeting magnificent facilities. The Empress is also conveniently connected to the Victoria Conference Centre.

Victoria is a glorious combination of Old World traditions and New World spirit. From the charms of horse-drawn carriage rides and historical sights to world-class museums and entertainment. The pleasures of shopping for the finest British and Canadian goods are only steps away. The Empress welcomes all who visit this scenic harbour town.
