IT is with pleasure and pride that we call attention to the desire and willingness of all our employees to give their utmost in service and special attention, and they as well as ourselves would appreciate your criticisms as well as your commendations.

WHEREVER you travel on the Canadian Pacific, you will find the same desire to maintain that excellence of service for which the Company has been noted for over forty years.

IT will be a great aid to the service and will avoid any possibility of mistakes if passengers will kindly ask for meal order blanks, and upon them will write their orders, because stewards and waiters are not allowed to serve any food without a meal check.

W. A. COOPER, Manager, Sleeping, Dining, Parlor Cars,
Station Restaurants and News Service, Montreal.

Winter Sports at Banff

VERY likely you have been to Banff in Summer. Did you ever know that Banff in Winter has an appeal and charm every bit as distinctive?

THE AIR is brisk without being freezingly cold, for the icy mountain winds are kept out of the beautiful white valley by the encircling peaks. In the hotels, merry laughing crowds go and come from before huge, open fire-places which roar away night and day. Parties troop off on ski-ing jaunts across country. Others seek the thrill of tobogganing down Sulphur Mountain. Others are away behind scampering dogs or spirited horses. For some there is skating on the Bow, or a place beside the sulphur-water pools watching friends disport themselves in the comfortably warm waters.

WINTER is a whirl of gaiety in Banff, reaching its merriest height during Carnival Week, this year February 4 to 11. Indians, Rocky Mountain guides, professional ski-jumpers, hockey teams, fancy skaters: all these join in Banff's colorful pageant.
