
CANADIAN PACIFIC WIRELESS PRESS

R.M.S. "Montcalm"

Commander - H. SIBBONS, R.N.R.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1925.

LOUISBURG, N.S.
May 5, 1925.

A bootlegger has won his appeal to the Supreme Court against being assessed for income tax on an annual income of $92,000. The man declared his occupation in his return, and claimed that money gained in illicit trade was not taxable. This the Supreme Court has confirmed, though a lower court ordered otherwise.

Ottawa.—A severe earthquake was registered here this morning.

Toronto.—A campaign is in progress to have women banned from public taverns in the province after 4.4 % beer goes on sale this month.

Ottawa.—A body found two days ago in the river here has been identified as that of Dr. F. H. Powell, who disappeared some months ago.

New York.—The Grand Masonic Lodge of New York has severed its relations with the Grand Lodge of Belgium because it was discovered that the latter did not require belief in God as a condition of membership.

LONDON,
May 5, 1925.

The weather played havoc with the opening of the cricket season. Two county championship games, Sussex v. Leicester at Brighton, and Lancashire v. Warwickshire at Manchester were abandoned drawn.

The Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Devonshire and Lord Chesham were among distinguished guests at Wembley Garden Club luncheon today. The Duke of York opened the club as president.

The Bank of England announces the sale of £186,000 in bar gold, and the withdrawal of £400,000 in sovereigns for South America, and £5,000 for Egypt.

The stupendous scope of the Widows and Orphans Old Age Pensions Bill is shown by voluminous pages issued in print today. The explanatory memorandum alone occupies fifteen pages, whilst the actual report on financial provisions requires forty pages close print.

The King and Queen attended the matinee of "No, No, Nanette," at the Palace Theatre.

Chester Vase result.—Vermillion Pencil 1st, 7-4: Gyges 2nd, 6-1; Son of Spring 3rd, 10-1.

Berlin.—The widow of the late President Ebert is to receive a pension equivalent to half the salary of her late husband. It is felt that the present pension, which is equivalent to £25 per month is inadequate and unworthy of the dignity of the State.

Rome.—The cabinet has adopted a bill, proposed by Mussolini, to install a museum for the collection and exhibition of Italian army relics.

Geneva.—It is reported that a Swiss village has been uncovered in the valley of Saas, after submersion of nearly three hundred years. The cause of the original destruction was a landslide, which formed a lake, the level of which is now lowered by shrinkage.

Cairo.—Ibrahim Bey Helbawi, a well-known liberal barrister, has accepted a brief to defend Shafik Mansur, in the Stack murder trial. Much difficulty has been experienced in the defence of accused, owing to the reluctance of members of the Egyptian bar to undertake this work.

New York.—Nineteen coastguards have been arrested and charged with betrayal of the offensive planned against rum row.

It is understood Pola Negri has briefed as counsel William Hayward, former United States District Attorney, to defend her. She is charged with failing to declare gems to the customs valued at 300,000 francs.

Betty Nuthall, the thirteen-years-old tennis wonder, has been selected to play for England in the international match against Scotland, starting at Glasgow on Thursday.

Brisbane.—Captain Wilkins, the British Museum travelling expert, sent a wireless from Thursday Island announcing his arrival and successful collection of specimens.

London Stock Exchange.

Consols 56¾	De Beers 11¼
War Loans 100	Rand Mines 3 3/16
French Fives 17½	Burmahs 5 1/32
Mex. Fives 40	Mex. Eagle 17-1½
Can. Pacs. 148½	Royal Dutch 30¾
Mex. Rails,	Shell 4¼
1st pref. 24	Royal Mail 99
Chartereds 25-3	Pand O 285
Crown Mines 2 27/32	Hudsons Bays 5

New York Stock Exchange.

Central 118	Pan.Am.Pet.B. 78½
Reading Railr'd 79⅛	U.S. Rubber 41⅝
Baldloco. 113⅝	U.S. Steel, 115½
Inter. Marine	Beth. Com B. 41
prefs. 43⅛	Consolidated Gas 83
Royal Dutch 50⅛	Pacific Oil 58⅞

Sales 1,500,000 shares.

For information as to Baggage, Telegrams, Sales Department, &c., please turn overleaf.

BAGGAGE INFORMATION.

BAGGAGE ROOM.

All baggage labelled "Wanted," and too large or unsuitable to be placed in the Cabin, will be placed in the Baggage Room, access to which may be obtained at the following hours:—Morning : 10 to noon ;
Afternoon : 3-0 to 5-0

The Baggage Master will be in attendance during the times stated. Other times by appointment.

NOTE. Passengers using the Baggage Room should repack their trunks the day before arrival at the port of landing, as the Baggage Room is cleared early in readiness for debarkation.

The Cabin Baggage Room is accessible from "B" and "C" Deck forward (Starboard side). 3rd Class from "C" Deck forward (Starboard side).

ASK YOUR STEWARD TO SHOW YOU.

LABELS.

All baggage labelled "Not Wanted" is stowed in the Hold, and is not obtainable during the voyage.

It is important that baggage should be well labelled with the initial of the surname before landing, to facilitate correct grouping in the Customs' Examination Shed, also with the name and inland address to provide a means of identification in case it is overlooked or mislaid.

Passengers should apply to the Baggage Master early in the voyage for such labels as may be required.

EASTBOUND.

Where the port of landing is LIVERPOOL, all baggage will be landed and placed in Customs Shed under initial letter of surname for examination.

Passengers must attend personally to the Customs examination of their baggage, and see it checked to its inland destination.

In all cases baggage left unchecked, either on board or in the Examination Shed on shore, will lie at owner's risk.

All duplicate baggage checks should be endorsed on the back with the owner's name and European address, and handed to the Baggage Master (who will give a receipt for them if required), as early as possible during voyage.

Passengers to London by the special train should apply to the Baggage Master for "LONDON" labels.

Complaints regarding damage, etc. should be made to the Baggage Master immediately.

Passengers requiring further information or advice concerning baggage should apply to the Baggage Master.

MONEY EXCHANGE.

The attention of passengers is directed to the facilities afforded to them by the Company for the exchange of money.

The rates of exchange allowed are exhibited on the Notice Boards and in the Smoke Room. The hours during which the Purser undertakes to exchange money are regularly posted on the Notice Boards in each Department.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAMS.

Passengers desirous of sending Telegrams should hand same into the Purser's Office, where all rates may be obtained. The Telegrams will be dispatched immediately on arrival in port.

WIRELESS TELEGRAMS.

This vessel is equipped with Marconi's Long-distance Apparatus, and is in constant communication with land.

Messages are accepted for all parts of the world.

The Standard Rate through British Coast Stations to England is 11d. per word.

The Canadian Coast Station charges vary.

☞ OCEAN LETTERS, for posting in country of departure, via fastest available steamer, are accepted at 5/- for 20 words, and 2d. per word afterwards. Maximum number of words, 100.

Apply Purser's Bureau.

CONDUCTRESS.

A Conductress is carried to give information and assistance to unaccompanied women, and may be interviewed in her Cabin "C" Deck, at the following hours:

Cabin Passengers—11 a.m. to 12 noon
3rd Class—4-30 to 6 p.m., in 3rd Class Dining Room

SALES DEPARTMENT.

Well Equipped Shops are available for the supply of a large variety of articles.

Ladies' & Gentlemen's Soft Goods and Toilet Requisites. Tobacco, Cigars, Cigarettes, and Smokers' Requisites, Souvenirs & Fancy Goods, Books, Toys, Games, Confectionery, &c., &c.

THE LATEST NEWSPAPERS WILL BE ON SALE ON THE VESSEL'S ARRIVAL IN PORT.

The Shops (Cabin & 3rd Class) will be open for the Service of Passengers as follows:

Morning, 9.0 to 12.30 Afternoon, 2.0 to 6.30
Evening, 8.0 to 9.0.

TICKET AGENT.

London & North-Western Tickets for the following destinations ONLY can be obtained at the Ticket Office:

LONDON, GLASGOW, BRISTOL and BIRMINGHAM.

Passengers holding orders for tickets for the above named places should exchange them for Railway Tickets

Orders are not good on the trains.

Passengers may also make arrangements for return passage on the Company's ships.

DECK GAMES.

Golf, Quoits, Shuffleboard and Tennis.
Apply Cabin Deck Sailor.

CHILDREN'S COTS

will be supplied to Cabin passengers on application to the Stateroom Steward.

Dominion Express Money Orders or Traveller's Cheques accepted on board.