Bungalow Camps in The Canadian Pacific Rockies

Nine wonderful Bungalow Camps with cabins clustered round a Community House in the heart of the most spectacular Alpine country in the world.

Alpine trails for riding and hiking—linking the camps at Lake Wapta, Lake O'Hara, Yoho Valley and Emerald Lake.

Or on the Banff-Lake Windermere Road, over the Great Divide and down into the Columbia Valley. Camps at Storm Mountain, Vermilion Crossing, Radium Hot Springs and Lake Windermere. Autos, radium springs and warm Lake Windermere for bathing; trail riding and canoeing.

THREE IN ONTARIO—

At Devils Gap, Kenora; Nipigon River, Nipigon; and French River. All especially suited for those desiring good fishing, yachting, etc.

Each Bungalow Camp—a group of cosy bungalow cabins encircling a community lodge for music, dancing and social diversions. All situated on Canadian Pacific main lines. Inexpensive.
