TEN IMPORTANT POINTS

PORT REGULATIONS—ARRIVAL

1 Landing at most ports is prohibited until after the ship has been passed by the Health, Immigration and Police authorities. Due notice will be given regarding attendance of Cruise Members and delay and discomfort to all will be avoided by prompt attention to these important matters.

PARTY REGISTRATION

2 On account of sightseeing facilities at most ports it is necessary to divide Cruise Members into separate parties, viz., A, B, C, D, etc. Prior to reaching each port shore programmes will be distributed to enable Members to study shore and party arrangements. It is realized that Members will wish to move with friends and for this reason it is not desirable that allotments to parties should be made by the Cruise Management without giving Members an opportunity to voice their preference for one party or another. Members should decide with whom they would like to go sightseeing and keep their parties together.

Timely advice will be given Members as to method of party registration and party allotment cards will be distributed accordingly.

SHORE EXCURSIONS

3 To avoid congestion and confusion and to ensure their own comfort Cruise Members are respectfully requested to adhere to the hour shown for the movement of their party and to move only with that party.

DISEMBARKATION

4 Members will best study their own comfort and convenience by avoiding crowding in the corridors or at the gangway. Fifteen minutes before the assembly hour for each party, a gong will be sounded throughout the ship. Members should remain on deck or other convenient place pending such notification.

MOTOR CARS

5 In filling motor cars for shore excursions, the Cruise Management work, wherever possible, on the rule of placing four persons in each seven-seated car and three persons in each five-seated car, in addition to the driver. Cruise Members constituting themselves into small party groups for motor car trips should proceed ashore promptly together to give themselves every opportunity of securing the desired space, keeping in view car loading as already stated.

It is respectfully notified that conveyances cannot be held for those arriving late, as the common comfort and convenience of all must be studied by the Management.

The co-operation of Members of the Cruise is earnestly solicited by the Management, looking to the convenience, comfort and pleasure of all concerned.

SUGGESTIONS TO CRUISE MEMBERS

While in India and other Tropical Countries

Always wear a sun-helmet (topee) or carry a thick sunshade when exposed to the direct rays of the sun. Particularly protect the back of the neck.

Avoid drinking plain water unless satisfied it has been boiled recently. It is much safer to drink only bottled waters ashore. Water on the ship is perfectly safe at all times.

Avoid milk except in cooked puddings and the like.

Avoid salads and uncooked vegetables.

Avoid shellfish and ice cream ashore in any form. All foods on the ship, however, are carefully selected and prepared. They are free from danger.

Any fruit with a peel is safe, but if the peel is cracked or broken do not eat it.

Spend as little time as possible in the native quarters.

Keep out of the sun in the middle of the day.

CLOTHING

Take an overcoat and wraps ashore and especially when travelling up country. While the days are warm the evenings are cool and every precaution should be taken against contracting a cold in these latitudes. Light-weight clothing (linen or thin silk) and walking shoes should be worn. Take as little baggage as possible.

In sleeping, whether on land or sea, care should be taken to have the abdomen well covered as a preventative against chills which may cause dysentery.

India offers many climates. The days may be warm and the nights distinctly cold. Warm clothing and a good coat will be found very comforting up country in India.

Firearms are positively prohibited.

IMPORTANT

TRAVEL ON INDIAN RAILWAYS

The conditions governing railway travel in India vary considerably from those to which most persons are accustomed when travelling by trains entailing night journeys.

The majority of Indian railway coaches contain four or five compartments, each containing four berths, two uppers and two lowers. To each compartment is attached a bathroom, in which will be found a shower bath and hand basin, in addition to the usual toilet facilities. Each compartment is provided with curtains suitably dividing the compartment, as will be noted from diagram on the opposite page. Each coach contains compartments for the use of native servants.

The trains are of the non-corridor type, the compartments occupying the full width of the coach, with doors on either side.

The conditions governing travel in India are such that passengers carry their own bedding, towels, soap, etc., the compartments not being equipped with bedding nor the bathrooms with towels. Each night the native servant makes up the bed from the passenger's own bedding roll, each morning returning the bedding to a "holdall" for comfortable and convenient stowing by day.

To meet the exigencies of four-berth compartments it is the practice to separate the sexes, it not being possible to accord the use of four-berth compartments to two persons, even upon payment of extra fares.

The foregoing conditions govern the trains operated by the Indian railways on behalf of the Canadian Pacific. The Canadian Pacific, however, undertakes fully the matter of equipping the trains with bedding and "holdalls" and provides a staff of native servants to look after the comfort of its Cruise Members.

A full supply of clean bed linen, towels and soap from the ship will be carried on the trains.

In allotting accommodation on the trains it is realized that, rather than separate into different compartments, many married couples will prefer to share a compartment. In other cases ladies will prefer to make up their own groups of four; similarly gentlemen. Cruise Members desiring to avail themselves of the foregoing arrangement should send in to the Cruise Office the names of those comprising their parties, when every effort will be made to allot berths accordingly.

Cruise Members are respectfully requested to confine their baggage to bags or hat boxes. Baggage tags will be delivered to staterooms and should be securely tied to handles.

"Holdalls" containing bedding will each bear a tag showing member's name.

An allotment card, showing compartment number, will be issued in due course.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Light fingered gentry are very common in India. Never leave articles or pieces of clothing near open windows. Do not leave your compartment unguarded.

It is wise to refrain from sampling native sweetmeats or drinks.

Beggars abound. It is wiser to ignore them.

Bookstalls will be found at most important stations.

Do not be deceived by the Indian "cold weather" climate. In Bombay it may be hot, while up country the nights are decidedly cold.

During the trip from Siliguri to Darjeeling, reaching an elevation of some 7,000 feet, warm clothing is very necessary.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION

6 When hotel accommodation ashore is included in tickets due regard will be given, as far as practicable, to Members' requests for one hotel or another, consistent with the amount of accommodation available, but no guarantee can be entered into.

Attention is drawn to the fact that rooms with bath are not included in Cruise fare. The Cruise Office should be given early advice of any special hotel requirements when every effort will be made to secure same, but no guarantee can be entered into thereon.

OPTIONAL SHORE EXCURSIONS

Members holding Exchange Orders issued ashore for Optional Shore Excursions are respectfully requested to turn them in at the Cruise Office promptly when called for, in order that final arrangements may be made in respect of each party.

7 As the Optional Excursions are limited in respect to numbers, Members desirous of availing themselves of such, and who have not already purchased orders for them ashore, should enquire at the Cruise Office as to vacancies available.

The Canadian Pacific makes arrangements in advance for the Optional Excursions and Overland Tours and is required to pay for all facilities ordered, therefore no cancellations or alterations may be made in connection with such Excursions and Tours after the books are closed, the date for which will be announced aboard ship.

MEALS ON BOARD

8 Two sittings will be arranged for meals on board ship, to be served at fixed hours. Necessary alterations in meal hours to conform with shore excursion arrangements will be notified on ship's Bulletin Boards. Where a continuous or running meal is notified, Cruise Members should take any seat available and not wait until their own becomes vacant.

Regular meal hours on board will be as follows:

	First Sitting	Second Sitting
Breakfast.....	8.00 a.m.	9.00 a.m.
Luncheon.....	12.30 p.m.	1.30 p.m.
Dinner.....	6.15 p.m.	7.30 p.m.

PORT DEPARTURES

9 Cruise Members are respectfully requested to advise their Room Stewards of their re-embarkation on the ship preparatory to its sailing. Sailing date and departure hour from each port will be conspicuously posted. The ship will sail promptly at the hour advertised to meet tidal or other urgent reasons of operation and the Company cannot accept any responsibility for Members failing to re-join the ship.

CRUISE OFFICE

10 The Cruise Office will be open daily from 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. except while the ship is in port, when the Staff is engaged with shore excursion duties.

Firearms are prohibited everywhere.

PLEASE WATCH THE SHIP'S BULLETIN BOARDS FOR ANY ALTERATIONS IN SHORE PROGRAMMES AND FOR OTHER MATTERS ESSENTIAL TO THE COMFORT OF MEMBERS AND GENERAL CONDUCT OF THE CRUISE.

Memoranda

THIS PROGRAMME IS ISSUED SUBJECT TO GENERAL CONDITIONS IN SHORE EXCURSIONS BOOK.
