Railway Services

Trans-Continental

An all year, daily train service each way, including—

THE IMPERIAL — Montreal to Vancouver. Colonist, first-class, tourist, and standard sleeping cars—in winter, compartment observation cars also. (All year.)

VANCOUVER EXPRESS — Toronto to Vancouver. Colonist, first-class, tourist, standard sleeping and compartment observation cars. (All year.) Summer—fast de luxe trains—each way—Montreal—Toronto—Vancouver.

TRANS-CANADA LIMITED — Standard sleeping cars, compartment cars, and observation cars only. Canada's finest and fastest—no extra fare.

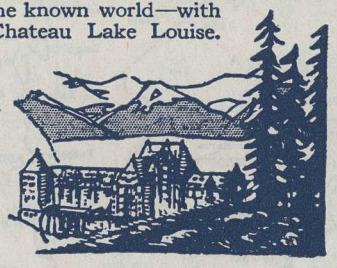

THE MOUNTAINEER — Chicago, St. Paul — Minneapolis — Vancouver. First class standard sleeping and compartment observation cars. (In winter, through cars attached to "The Imperial.")

Resorts in the Canadian Rockies

600 uninterrupted miles of stupendous scenery.

Banff—set amid glistering peaks—the choice of all mountain resorts—with the Banff Springs Hotel, re-inlarged to the finest establishment of its kind.

Lake Louise—undoubtedly the most exquisite scenic gem in the known world—with the sumptuous new Chateau Lake Louise. Emerald Lake — another masterpiece of nature. Yoho Valley . . . with its living glaciers and spun-lace cascades. Trail Riding — hiking — camping — motoring.

Alaska and the Pacific Coast

1,000 miles north to Alaska—via Victoria and Vancouver. Commencing with June, a four-day cruise twice a week, by Canadian Pacific's famous "Princess" Steamships over this Wonder Route of the Pacific Coast—calling at Alert Bay, Prince Rupert, Ketchican, Wrangel, Juneau, Skagway. Optional trip over White Pass and down the Yukon River to Dawson City.

Triangle Route — Vancouver — Victoria — Seattle. Sailing twice a day each way.

Vancouver Island — Nanaimo Steamer Service; twice daily.

Vancouver and Victoria—with magnificent hotels, and a year-round balmy climate.

Ontario and Great Lakes

Ontario's virgin forests, streams and lakes offer the widest appeal. Muskoka Lakes, Kawartha Lakes, Georgian Bay, Temiskaming—with good living, guides, canoes, the best of fishing. Bungalow Camps; at French River, (open June 15 to Oct. 15), Nipigon River and "Devil's Gap," Kenora. (Open from June 15 to Sept. 15.)

Great Lakes S. S. Service—A two-day trip on Clyde-built steamers; twice a week each way, from Port McNicoll (train connections from Toronto) via Soo Locks; across Lake Superior, to Ft. William. (Connections with trans-continental trains.)

Quebec and Laurentians

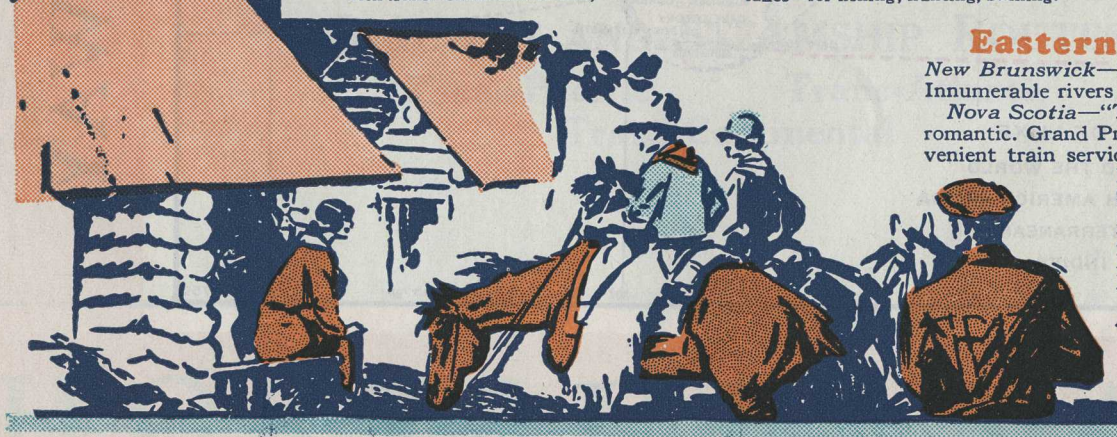

Montreal—the great inland commercial port with its blended atmosphere of the new and the old. Quebec — Birthplace of North America . . . the ancient capital of old France in the New World. With mediaeval streets winding up a bold cliff to the magnificent Chateau Frontenac, center of its social life . . . headquarters for winter sports. St. Anne de Beaupre, with its religious shrines . . . the Falls of Montmorency . . . the resorts along the great St. Lawrence.

Laurentian Mountains—Delightful, unspoiled! Interspersed with rivers and lakes—for fishing, hunting, bathing.

— Bungalow Camps —

At eight inspirational points in the Canadian Rockies—Castle Mountain, Vermilion River, Radium Hot Springs, Lake O'Hara, Wapta, Yoho Valley, Moraine Lake, Lake Windermere. Cosy sleeping cabins, built of logs and clustering around a club house that serves as dining room and social center. Open from June 15 to Sept. 15. Guides, ponies, trail rides, camping trips. Offering a rare opportunity to rusticate amid glaciers, snow caps and jade lakes. And all this at $5.50 a day.

These Camps are easily accessible from the Canadian Pacific Railway main line.

Eastern Canada Resorts

New Brunswick—St. Andrews by the Sea. Golf courses. Innumerable rivers and camping sites. Fishing; big game.

Nova Scotia—"The Land of Evangeline"—quaint and romantic. Grand Pré, Annapolis Royal, Bear River. Convenient train service from Yarmouth, along the Bay of Fundy to Halifax. S. S. service from St. John, N. B., to Digby, N. S.

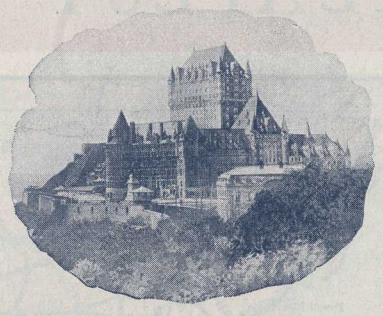

Maine Coast—Direct train service to Maine's coast and lake resorts — Bar Harbor, Old Orchard Beach, Rangeley Lakes, etc., etc.

ALWAYS CARRY—Canadian Pacific Express Travelers Cheques—Good the World Over.

Canadian Pacific Hotels

These hotels were built by the Canadian Pacific in order that passengers over its lines, desiring to stop over en route, might be assured of the same high standard of service as when travelling on its lines.
