You are cordially invited to make suggestions to the Staff Captain which, in your opinion, will improve the service.

Eastbound steamers gain one day when passing the 180th Meridian, which is called "Antipodes Day."

Westbound steamers drop one day when passing the 180th Meridian.

Mail and Telegrams.—On arrival at Victoria a representative of the Canadian Pacific Railway's Telegraphs meets the steamer and will accept telegrams and cables for all parts of the world. Please call at Information Bureau for mail and telegrams, also be sure to enquire before leaving ship at Vancouver.

Passengers are cordially invited to make our offices their headquarters and to have their mail and telegrams addressed in our care.

Passengers should leave their addresses so that Mail received after their departure can be forwarded.

Wireless.—Rates at which messages can be transmitted may be obtained from the Purser. Passengers wishing to communicate with any of the C.P.O.S. offices during the voyage may, by applying to the Purser, take advantage of the Company's code.

Baggage on Steamer.—Only handbags and trunks which will fit underneath the berths are allowed in staterooms. All large or heavy baggage containing articles required during the voyage must be placed in the baggage-room, to which access may be obtained daily.

Baggage Arrangements.—Canadian and United States Customs Officers, also Baggage Checkers, accompany the steamers from Victoria to Vancouver. This enables passengers to have baggage inspected and checked to destination, avoiding delay and inconvenience at Vancouver.

Baggage in use in the staterooms and required at the hotel or on the train should be left in stateroom for Canadian Customs inspection.

Baggage in stateroom which requires to be checked should be sent on deck for Customs examination and checking to destination.

Baggage in ship's baggage room will be checked and inspected there.

Baggage for United States points should be checked before Customs examination can be made.

Passengers stopping over in Vancouver can leave baggage in bonded baggage room, in the Canadian Pacific Railway Station, free of charge.

Hand Baggage—If requested, room steward will carry hand baggage ashore, where porters will transfer it to train.

Baggage cannot be inspected or checked until railway tickets have been procured.

Passenger List.—Passengers wishing to forward a copy of this list to friends may obtain it on application at the Purser's office, together with envelope for mailing.

Deck Chairs can be rented for the voyage at a cost of $1.

The Surgeon is authorized to make customary charges, subject to the approval of the Commander, for treating any passengers at their request for any illness not originating on board the ship. In the case of sickness contracted on board no charge will be made, and medicine will be provided free.

Valuables.—The Company will not be responsible for money, jewellery and other valuables of passengers. Passengers are advised not to keep such articles in their staterooms, but are recommended to hand them, sealed and marked with the owner's name, to the Purser for deposit in the safe, but as no charge is made the Company can accept no responsibility for loss or damage, however arising.

Quarantine Inspection by the Canadian Government Health Officer will take place on arrival at Quarantine Station, Williams Head.

The Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Limited

They will be located in the Dining Saloon.
