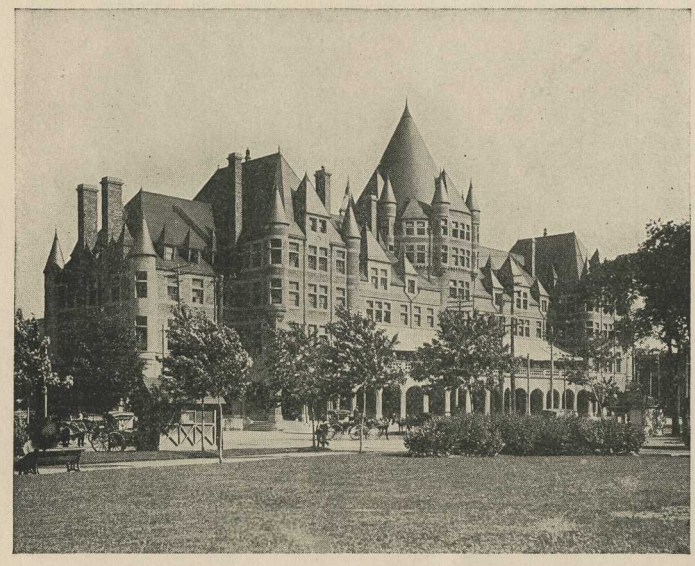
E/Cleland 1907

A PACKAGE OF POST CARDS AND A "WIRELESS"

A Bride's Story



CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

Place Viger Hotel
Montreal.
June 10 - 07.

Dearest Mother

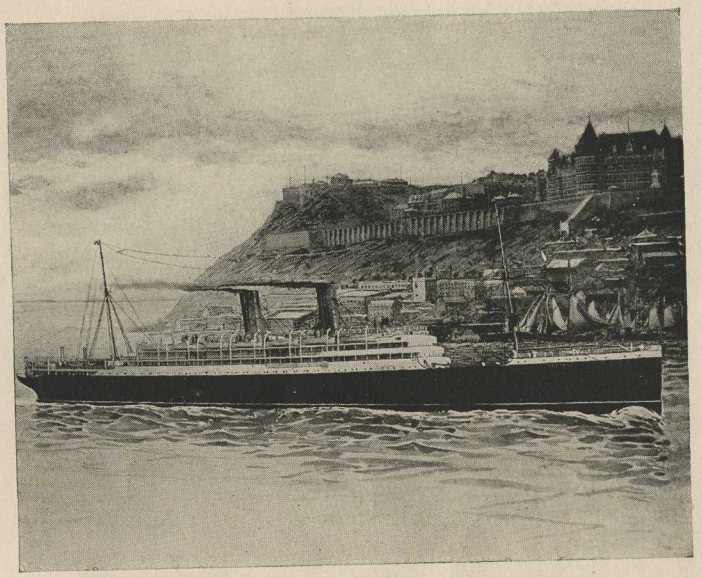
We are just leaving by the C. P. R. train for Quebec! Montreal is charming in the early summer. Jack is a dear tho' he wears over the face which still showers from my blowings. Love to all.

Kate.

Chateau Frontenac
Quebec
June 13 - 07

Three days of romance (old & new!) in this delightful spot. From any window in this hotel, I can catch a glimpse of the "Empress of Ireland," lying in the harbor below. We go on board tomorrow. Lovingly dear Mother,

Kate.

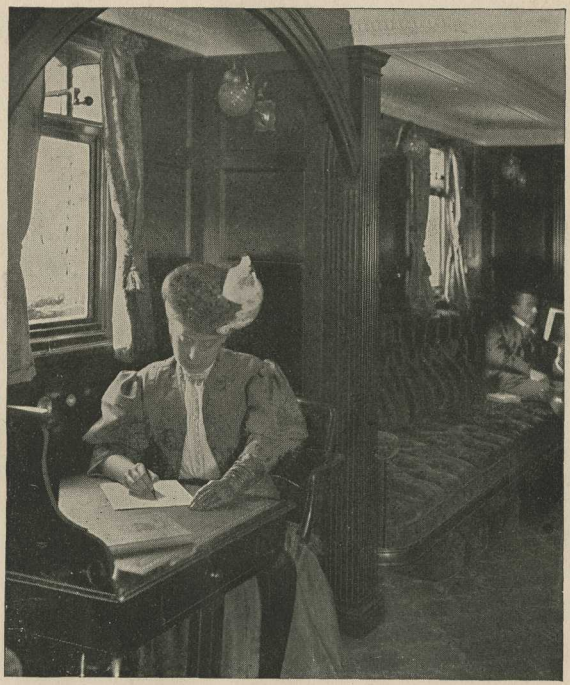


CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

S.S. Empress of Ireland
June 14 - 07

We're off! I scribble this sitting on deck as we glide down the river. The Chateau and the ramparts fade into the blue. I wonder if foreign shores will show anything more picturesque than "old Quebec"?

Lovingly
Nell



S. S. Empress of Ireland
Near Rimouski.
June 14. 07

A last line dear Brother for the pilot to take ashore. I shall send you some "Empress" post cards as well as a letter, from Liverpool. The St. Lawrence river is wonderful. We have another whole day before we leave its sheltered waters, and face the open sea. And love to all

Kate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

No. 1a.

MARCONI WIRELESS TELEGRAPH COMPANY OF CANADA, Limited

MONTREAL.

No. 64 Cape Ray STATION June 15 1907

Prefix Code Words 14

Office of Origin R.M.S. Empress of Ireland via Tusket Point

Service Instructions:

RUSH

Station Rec'd from	Time Rec'd	By whom Rec'd
C.B.	5:10 p m.	C.B.
Station Sent to	Time Sent	By whom Sent
F.P.	5:55 p m.	G.A.

To Mrs. Eshleman, St Louis, Mo.

Sea like on waived life
without a ripple clip and service like ours Splendid Jack

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

S.S. Empress of Ireland
June 17–07.

Jack played cricket on deck this a.m., and made 110 runs, before the bugle brought him down to lunch, when he ate straight through the menu. He says this route has all the others "skinned to death", whatever that means.

Kate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

S.S. Empress of Ireland
June 18 - 07.

Have just had a "Sun-bath" on the upper deck. Many of the passengers are charming, and everybody seems so gay. Apparently old "Mal-de-mer" does not patronize this boat! I think everyone knows me for "the bride. Jack can't help a "prideful" air.

Kate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

Liverpool
June 21, 07

Just leaving for London, by the "Empress Special." We had no trouble in landing, everything done for us. We did hate saying good-bye to the dear old "Ireland". Hope you are enjoying this chaine of "picture posts". Yours lovingly Nate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

London
June 22 - 07.

Here we are in "London Town."
Weather, and everything else, delightful.
Have quite lost my heart to the Soldiers. Jack says they beat anything he ever got for Xmas.
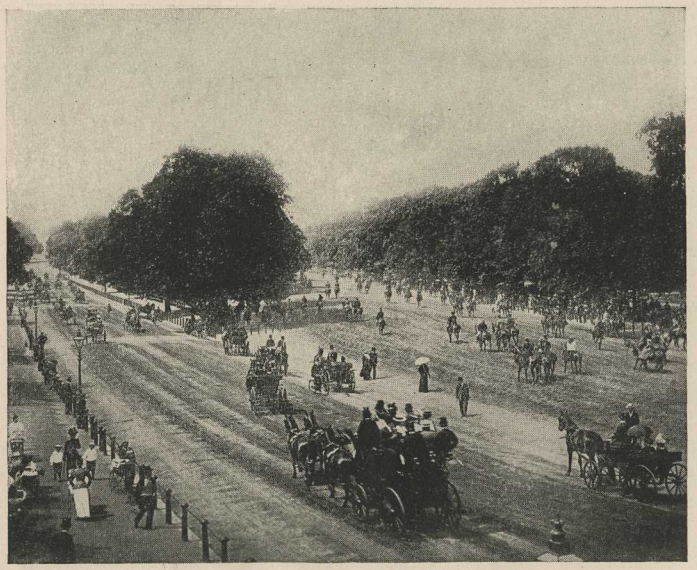
Pity dear! He's jealous.
Kate



~CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.~

London

June 24 - 07

Yesterday we drove in the Park. It was a glorious day, and there were crowds & people. Such stunning clothes! The men's "frocks" & hats, are almost as wonderful as the women's. Thanks goodness! I've got a few pennies to spend in Bond St. Wish you were here to help me.

With love dear Mother, Hale.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES

Lake of Killarney
Ireland
June 29 07

We are thoroughly enjoying the "Emerald Isle". Such hills and lakes and brogues and buttermilk! I could spend weeks touring the country. But I wish we had our own machine. I think the national conveyance should be called a "Jolting Car". You must come next year dear mother

Kate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

Amsterdam

July 3 - 07.

My last card was from Ireland. This country is in its own way so as picturesque. So glad I have my camera I get "snap shot bits" at every turn. Jacks comment on Amsterdam is that it "a wet town". Men seem to have a language of their own. Of course I've brought some old Delft.

Yours Kate.

~CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.~

Paris
July 6 07

Have no words for this enchanting city: This must do as a letter till I have time to catch my breatte. Such sights! Such contrasts! This morning we strolled in visions of the historic past, gazing through the St. Denis gate. In the afternoon we drove in the Champs Elysee & took in the fashions of the future.

Kate.

CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.

Paris
July 9, 07.

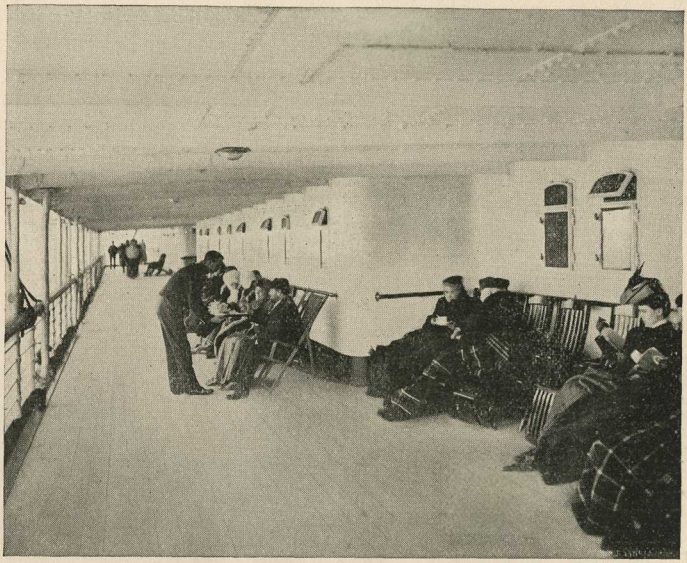
wrote yesterday. Hope my letter was coherent, but I'm literally intoxicated with the miles, yds miles & pictures statuary, carving, gold, silver, and jewels, which have displayed themselves to my astonished eyes We cross to England tomorrow!

Lovingly Kate.

~CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.~

London
July 10. 07

Back again for a few final hours of sight seeing. Then we pack our bags for the last time and take the C. P. R. Empress special for Liverpool. I shall send the last link in the "picture post chain" from there. I dare say we shall get on together for the Atlantic take the mails
Britain slate



~CAN. PAC. ROYAL MAIL S.S. LINES.~

S.S. Empress of Britain
July 12. 07

Here we are, safe on board, our faces turned towards home. Everything seems so cheery and comfortable as on the "Empress of ~~Brita~~ Ireland. Already we feel at home. A new moon is climbing up the sky & I know it will be a "honey" one too. Until we meet dear Mother Yr loving Kate

The St. Lawrence Route

THE TWO-DAY TRIP to the sea on the River and Gulf of St. Lawrence, that mighty stream of such grandeur and historic interest, shortens the actual Ocean Voyage on the Canadian Pacific "Empresses" to four days.