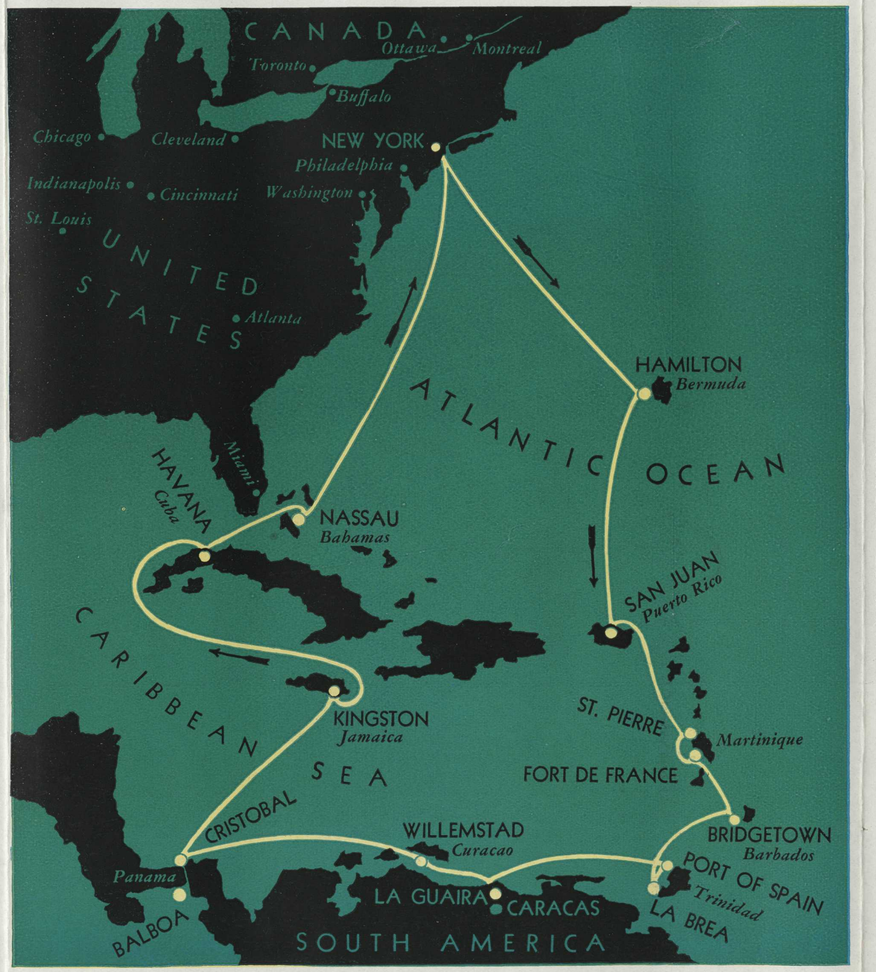
①No single beds sold in these rooms at the two-in-room rate. ③These rooms have Folding Upper Berth over Bed M, fare $270.
United States Revenue Tax and Venezuelan Port Tax are to be collected in addition to above fares—See General Information.



Examine this 6121 mile itinerary. It embraces not only the West Indies but Bermuda, the Spanish Main, South America and the Canal Zone. 13 interesting ports to explore. Four weeks of happiness!

GENERAL INFORMATION

DEPOSIT . . . To secure reservation, a deposit of 10 per cent of the fare for accommodation selected is required at time of acceptance of accommodation offered. Balance of fare is payable three weeks prior to sailing date.

CANCELLATION . . . Accommodation cancelled after deposit receipt, passage order or ticket has been issued will be placed on sale, and, when resold, refund will be made of the amount paid, less expenses incurred.

No cancellations or alterations may be made for the Shore Excursions after books are closed, date for which will be announced on board the ship.

STEAMSHIP FARE INCLUDES . . . Stateroom accommodation, meals, landing and embarkation facilities and the services of Canadian Pacific representatives throughout the cruise, both aboard and ashore. Shore Excursion fare includes services specified in Shore Excursion section shown elsewhere in this folder.

FARES DO NOT INCLUDE . . . Government Revenue Tax on tickets issued in the United States, Venezuelan Port Tax, personal items such as beverages not ordinarily served on board without charge, laundry, baggage insurance, gratuities to stewards on the ship, conveyances or guides specially ordered by members on individual excursions and not ordered by the Cruise Director.

PASSPORTS are not required by members taking the entire cruise.

SAILING HOUR AND PIER NUMBER . . . The DUCHESS OF BEDFORD will sail at 12 noon, January 20 and February 21; embarkation will commence at 9 a.m. and all members are requested to be aboard not later than 11.30 a.m. Pier number will be announced later.

DECK CHAIRS, RUGS AND CUSHIONS . . . Deck Chair, $3; Rug, $3; Cushion, $1.

CLOTHING FOR THE CRUISE . . . Light summer clothing is required for the greater portion of the cruise. Ladies should take plenty of wash dresses, and gentlemen white wash, tropical worsted or Palm Beach suits. Sports clothes and masquerade costumes will be useful.

Gentlemen will find a dinner jacket meets all ordinary requirements.

BAGGAGE . . . Although there is practically no limit to the amount of personal baggage which may be carried on the steamship, it is inadvisable for members to burden themselves with too many trunks and bags. Large trunks and other baggage not regularly needed or which cannot be conveniently accommodated in the stateroom, will be placed in the baggage room, which will be accessible throughout the cruise. Trunks for staterooms should not exceed fourteen inches in height.

Every care is taken in connection with baggage, but on board the liability of the Canadian Pacific is limited, and no responsibility is assumed ashore. Members are recommended to protect themselves by insuring their baggage against loss, damage or pilferage. This may be done at reasonable rates.

Baggage may be checked from many points through to the ship at New York upon payment of the New York transfer charge. Consult your local Baggage Agent.

LAUNDRY may be sent ashore at San Juan and Cristobal. Apply to stateroom steward for laundry bag and list, insert name of owner and stateroom number, and deliver it to your steward the day before arrival at above ports. Laundry will be returned before the ship sails. The Canadian Pacific suggests the foregoing merely as a convenience for members and accepts no responsibility for loss, damage or delay. Members are requested to check their laundry immediately it is returned and report any discrepancy to the Chief Steward, who will render assistance in obtaining adjustment.

TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES . . . Members will find Canadian Pacific Express Travellers' Cheques convenient on the cruise. They are issued in denominations of $10, $20, $50, $100 and $200, and may be obtained from any Canadian Pacific office at the regular rates.

MAIL AND CABLES . . . Members of the cruise will be furnished, when tickets are issued, with full instructions regarding addressing of mail and cables to reach them en route.

MESSAGES TO RELATIVES AND FRIENDS AT HOME . . . The offices of the Canadian Pacific will receive advice of the arrival of the DUCHESS OF BEDFORD at each port, and will notify relatives and friends of members by mail if list of names and addresses is left with them.

THE SHOP . . . The DUCHESS OF BEDFORD has an attractive, modern shop at which may be purchased a variety of articles, such as books, candy, toilet requisites, photographic films, souvenirs, post cards, fancy goods and dolls.

PHOTOGRAPHY . . . As a cruise offers exceptional opportunities for photography, a staff of experts is carried to develop and print films for members. Cruise members should not take a large supply of photographic films with them, as hermetically sealed films are required in the Tropics and may be purchased at The Shop at regular prices. Ciné Kodak films are also available but must be developed on shore.

FACILITIES . . The DUCHESS OF BEDFORD has every facility of the modern hotel—stenographer, barber, ladies' hairdresser, manicurist, chiropodist, masseur, masseuse, surgeon, trained nurses, valet service, photographer, novelty shop, daily newspaper, etc.

WIRELESS . . . The DUCHESS OF BEDFORD is equipped with long range wireless for the handling of news dispatches and members' messages.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES . . . Divine Service will be held on Sundays when the ship is not in port. An altar set is also provided for the celebration of Holy Mass. There is usually a Roman Catholic priest among the members.

MANAGEMENT . . . The DUCHESS OF BEDFORD is owned and operated by the Canadian Pacific; the Shore Excursions are arranged and executed by the Canadian Pacific—one management throughout—one standard of service—the best.

Canadian Pacific representatives, experienced in cruising, will accompany the cruises to attend to the comfort and entertainment of members aboard and ashore.

GENERAL CONDITIONS . . . The Canadian Pacific acts only in the capacity of agent for the passenger in all matters relating to travel away from the DUCHESS OF BEDFORD, whether by steamship, railway, automobile, or any other means, and as such holds itself free of responsibility for any delay, loss, accident or sickness occasioned by fault or negligence of any person or company, or from whatever cause.

The right is reserved to withdraw the cruise, subject to refund of the net fare received by the Company. Should it be deemed necessary or desirable by the management on any account to make changes in the itinerary or arrangements, or to omit any section of or port named in the program, such change may be made, and no member shall be entitled to compensation on such account.

The right is also reserved to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of the cruise, at any time, but in such cases where money has been received the full or a proportionate amount will be returned, according to circumstances.

In the possible contingency of quarantine, any additional expenses, living or otherwise, must be defrayed by the member.

CHILDREN over one year and under 12 years, half the adult fare for accommodation occupied. Infants one year and under, $20. Twelve years and over, adult fare for accommodation occupied.

SERVANTS accompanying employers, $270, when berthed and served with meals in special accommodation set apart for their use. When servants are berthed in other than servants' accommodation, tariff fare will apply. If servants are participating in shore excursions they are required to do their sightseeing with their employer or other servants.

GOVERNMENT REVENUE TAX on tickets issued in the United States—$5 additional each person.

VENEZUELAN PORT TAX . . . Collect fifty cents each person and endorse it on ticket.

SHORE EXCURSIONS are optional at extra charge. Details are shown elsewhere in this folder.

Our first port is HAMILTON, BERMUDA. The white coral houses stand sharply out against the dark green cedars. Ashore we may visit the Aquarium with its multi-colored fish and the magical subterranean caves with their glistening stalactites and stalagmites. Then PUERTO RICO calls us. American today, but still showing the Spanish influence. Here Columbus rested and from Puerto Rico Ponce de Leon set out in search of the Fountain of Youth.

MARTINIQUE was the birthplace of Napoleon's Josephine and is the site of that tragic Caribbean Pompeii, St. Pierre, devastated in 1899 by Mont Pelee. BARBADOS is a little bit of England, complete with its Trafalgar Square and Nelson's Monument. TRINIDAD has at least three unique features—fish which sing, oysters that grow in trees and the unfathomable "self-filling" pitch lake where Raleigh caulked his ships. To these should be added the Botanical Gardens. At LA GUAIRA we touch South America. Venezuela, or "Little Venice," the navigators called this island-dotted coast and it was the first part of the mainland sighted by Columbus. From La Guaira we take the dramatic road to Caracas, 7,000 feet up in the Andes. The road is twenty-three miles long though the air-line distance is but six miles! With its vine-covered haciendas, Caracas is typically Spanish.

CURACAO, as Dutch as the liqueur to which it gave its name, is noted as a shopping centre where perfumes, embroideries and lace may be had for a song. PANAMA appeals to the shopper, too, but its chief interest is that engineering marvel, the Panama Canal. Across the Isthmus in other days came the old Spanish gold trains of laden mules—and the heavy hand of Henry Morgan is very evident in ruins of old Panama.

JAMAICA, "Queen of the Antilles," is renowned for its tropical beauty. Give a passing thought to Port Royal as you enter Kingston, for this was once the rendezvous of swaggering pirates, the most dissolute town in the world. In HAVANA the old and the new are sharply defined. Typically Spanish is the old quarter. In its historic Cathedral the bones of Columbus lay enshrined for a hundred years. Sophisticated, cosmopolitan is the new Havana with its casino, clubs and cafés. And in NASSAU there are the tea gardens, the native quarter, the sponge market—and the tree-lined beaches where leisured sophisticates lazily sun themselves. Between ports there is sun bathing under blue Caribbean skies, swimming, deck games, talkies, music, dancing and a happy social life with congenial cruise mates.

Shore Excursions

Members are urged to avail themselves of these excursions, as they have been carefully organized with a view of seeing all that is worth seeing. Furthermore, in the case of motor trips, it should be borne in mind that each group of cars is accompanied by a Canadian Pacific representative and in some cases by police escort; cars are not filled to capacity, and spare cars are supplied to avoid delays in event of break-downs. Meals are also included in many instances. Local drivers in many places offer similar trips at reduced rates but members are warned to beware of such "bargains," as they afford none of the protection or service outlined above and the cars are usually crowded.
