Tourist

Programme

Tuesday, July 3, 1956

4-00 p.m. AFTERNOON TEA will be served in Public Rooms and Promenades.

4-00 p.m. AFTERNOON TEA CONCERT in the Lounge.

5-00 p.m. BOAT MUSTER. A practice Boat Muster will be held, at which all passengers will attend on the Promenade Deck wearing their lifebelts.

The object of the practice muster is to acquaint passengers with the location of their Muster Station, and with the correct method of wearing and adjusting their Lifebelts.

In the event of an Emergency, the Alarm Signal will be given by the sounding of the Steam Whistle and the Alarm Bells throughout the ship. Passengers should then put on their Lifebelts and proceed immediately and quickly to the Promenade Deck. Do not move around, but remain stationary and await instructions. Should it become necessary to abandon ship, the Lifeboats will be lowered to the Promenade Deck and passengers will enter them through the embarkation Doors when directed to do so by the Officer in charge of the Boat Station. Passengers are not assigned specific Lifeboats but will be embarked in those most convenient to their Muster Stations.

5.00 p.m. CHILDREN'S TEA will be served in the Restaurant.

6-30 p.m. DINNER (First Sitting) will be served in the Restaurant.

7-30 p.m. DINNER (Second Sitting).

9-15 p.m. DANCE MUSIC will be relayed to the Empress Room.
