VOYAGE 4 HOMEWARD.

Sailing from

YOKOHAMA to VANCOUVER

THURSDAY, 13th NOVEMBER, 1913.

R.M.S. Empress of Russia

Empress Hotel, Victoria, B.C.

VISITORS to Victoria should make it a point to stay at the Empress hotel. This is the latest of the Canadian Pacific Railway's chain of high class hotels across Canada and it is one of the most popular. Victoria is one of the most charming cities in the new world, and situated as it is overlooking the shores of James Bay travellers find the Empress hotel a most convenient point from which to start on their sightseeing expeditions. The hotel is thoroughly up to date in every respect. Its furnishings are lavish without being extravagant; its service is excellent, and its rates reasonable.

The Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg, Man.

THE Canadian Pacific Railway's hotel at Winnipeg is a fine example of the modern fire-proof hotel. The predominant feature of the Royal Alexandra is the sensible arrangement of the various public departments and the uniform comfortable atmosphere that prevails at all seasons owing to the perfect ventilation and heating systems in use. The rotunda of the hotel is one of the largest in America and the drawing rooms, smoking rooms, tea rooms, etc., are beautifully fitted up, the furniture in all cases being of a distinct and special kind.

This hotel is a favorite stop-over point for transcontinental travellers.

THE Place Viger Hotel at Montreal is hardly less renowned than the Chateau Frontenac at Quebec. The company has spared no expense to make it one of the most comfortable hotels on the continent and that they have succeeded is evidenced by its wide popularity with the travelling public. It is built of grey limestone, and is crowned by a great tower rising into a huge circle of turrets and gables. The total length of the building is 300 feet and it has a depth of 60 feet. The main facade has a magnificent arcade of twenty-one arches, broad granolithic steps leading up to it from the street.

The Atlantic "Empresses."

OPERATING in the Atlantic service are two of the finest vessels in the Canadian Pacific Railway's whole fleet of sixty-seven steamships. The Empress of Britain and the Empress of Ireland are both huge, solidly built, speedy boats and inasmuch as their run is one of the most picturesque and novel in the world, they are immensely popular. Perhaps the greatest advantage of the St. Lawrence route is that it lessens the actual sea voyage to Liverpool to four days. Leaving Quebec the traveller has two whole days amid the glorious scenery of the St. Lawrence, before the open sea is reached.
