This facility will be of special benefit to passengers landing on the Continent and embarking at a British Port or vice versa.

Checking of Baggage to and from Southampton.—The Southern Railway England, has inaugurated a baggage checking system between all stations on that line, including Southampton docks, which will be a convenience to Canadian Pacific passengers travelling via Southampton.

Southern Railway employees meet all Canadian Pacific steamships on arrival at Southampton for the purpose of accepting and checking baggage for despatch and delivery to hotels, residences, railway stations, etc., in London, Southampton and other stations on the system.

Passengers sailing westbound by Canadian Pacific steamships from Southampton may have their baggage collected at their residence or hotel and despatched to the ship by application personally or in writing—in the case of London to the Parcel Superintendent, Waterloo Station, and elsewhere to the Station Master at any Southern Railway Station.

The checking fee, viz: 25 cents per package, will cover the service of collection and delivery, as the case may be, of baggage at any address in London within two and a half miles of Somerset House (Strand) or within one mile of the docks or railway stations of all other principal points on the Southern Railway.
