① For day use these four rooms are each fitted with one folding bed and one bed convertible to a sofa.

② Rooms A83 and A122 are each fitted with a folding upper berth, for which minimum rate is applicable.

Round trip fares are the sum of the applicable half round trip fares shown for the accommodation to be occupied, according to seasons, and tickets are valid for twelve months from date of outward embarkation to date of embarkation on return journey.

Children's fares: Under 1 year, when accompanied by adult—First Class, $40.00; Tourist, $20.00, each way.
1 year and under 12, when occupying room with adult or adults—one-half the applicable adult fare for accommodation occupied.
12 years and over—full applicable adult fare for accommodation occupied. (The age on date of sailing governs fare to be paid.)

Servants' fares, when accompanying employers: Thrift season $248 one way; $223 half round trip; summer season $270 each way (berthed in first class minimum room).

DEPOSITS—First Class: 20% of passage fare with a minimum of $50 each way. Tourist: $30 each way.
For half-fare children, half the corresponding amount quoted for adults.

Balance of passage money to be paid on delivery of ticket or upon demand of Company's agent, but not later than six weeks prior to sailing date.

No accommodation will be considered as engaged until a deposit or payment in full is made.

The Company reserves the right to decline the sale of any room for less than its capacity.

EMIGRANT FARES: Special Low First Class Fares for Westbound Emigrants are available during the St. Lawrence Season, except between July 1 and October 31 and will be quoted on application — from $240 up, according to ship used and accommodation occupied.

FOR INFORMATION ONLY AND SUBJECT TO CHANGE AT SHORT NOTICE

GENERAL INFORMATION

CANADIAN PACIFIC PIER AT MONTREAL—Empresses sail from Pier 8 located at foot of St. Lawrence Boulevard, Montreal.

EMBARKATION—Empresses sail from Montreal at 11.00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time and embarkation commences at 8.00 a.m. Local Time. Passengers are urged to arrive at pier in ample time to allow for examination of their travel documents. Embarkation time and pier for Beaver sailings will be given at time of booking.

Passengers embarking at Quebec are required to provide their own transportation to Quebec.

Passengers disembarking at Greenock are required to provide their own transportation from Greenock.

CONDITIONS—The attention of passengers is particularly directed to the conditions of passage set forth on steamship ticket which govern the fares published herein.

FARES INCLUDE—Fares quoted are for adult passengers and include transportation, a bed or berth in a room, and meals from port of embarkation to port of debarkation.

SHIPBOARD—Table and Deck Chair Reservations: When arranging their ocean booking, passengers may make application for seats at tables in ship's Restaurant also for deck chairs. While no guarantee can be made as to a particular table or location of deck chair, everything possible will be done to meet these requests.

On occasion two sittings in the Restaurant may be necessary according to the number of passengers travelling. Passengers are asked, therefore, to indicate their preference for main or second sittings. To avoid "queueing up" on board at sailing time, restaurant reservation cards are available through booking office for advance completion by tourist passengers.

Children under 12 years of age will be served luncheon and dinner either at a special sitting for children or at the first sitting for luncheon and dinner.

While at sea, "Empress" passengers can, at reasonable prices, buy many articles of everyday need, also suitable gifts and souvenirs. from the vessel's shop.

DIETS AND CHILDREN'S FOODS—Dietic foods, children's strained and milk foods are available. Details of such requirements should be advised booking agent at least two weeks before sailing.

DECK CHAIRS, CUSHIONS AND RUGS may be hired on board upon application to the Deck Steward at an all-inclusive charge of $3.00 or £1.0.0 for the voyage.

VALUABLES AND MONEY—Passengers are advised not to keep valuables or money in their bedrooms but to deposit such articles with the Purser. As no charge is made, the responsibility of the Company for loss or damage, however arising, shall be governed by the conditions on the passage ticket.

FOODSTUFFS—Passengers contemplating taking foodstuffs with them to the United Kingdom should first enquire as to the regulations in effect at the time of travel.

MAIL FOR PASSENGERS—Mail intended for delivery to passengers sailing from or arriving at Montreal or arriving at Quebec should be addressed in the following manner:—

Passenger's Name . . . . . Class . . . . .

Arriving or Sailing S.S. . . . . Date . . . . .

Montreal Sailings or Arrivals—c/o Canadian Pacific S.S. Pass. Dept., Room 290. Windsor Station, Montreal.

Quebec Arrivals—c/o Canadian Pacific S.S. Pass. Dept., 55 Henderson Street, Quebec. While every effort is made to distribute mail promptly, no responsibility is accepted for non-delivery, mis-delivery or delay.

PARCELS—Passengers booked westbound, when arranging for parcels to be addressed in care of the ship or Company's office, should communicate particulars to the Canadian Pacific office at Liverpool.

STEAMSHIP SPECIAL TRAIN, LIVERPOOL—LONDON—Steamship special train will be operated in connection with Empress arrivals and departures between Landing Stage, Liverpool, and Euston Station, London.

STEAMSHIP SPECIAL TRAIN, GREENOCK—GLASGOW—Steamship Special Train will be operated between Greenock and Glasgow.

RESERVATIONS AND DEPOSITS—Reservation of accommodation may be made through any authorized agent upon payment of the following deposit:

First Class: For each adult, 20% of passage fare with a minimum of $50 each way.

Tourist: For each adult, $30 each way.

For half-fare children, half the corresponding amount quoted for adults.

Balance of passage money to be paid on delivery of ticket or upon demand of Company's agent, but not later than six weeks prior to sailing date. No accommodation will be considered as engaged until a deposit or payment in full is made.

TRANSFER TO LATER SAILING—If passenger is prevented from using passage as engaged, a transfer to a subsequent steamer of the Company may be arranged if notice is given not less than three weeks prior to the date of sailing for which passage was booked without forfeiture of the amount paid, and similar accommodation will be allotted as circumstances permit.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVATION—Should notice be given that passenger is prevented from using reservation after deposit or passage money in full is paid, such reservation will be placed on sale, and any amount received therefrom, less expenses incurred, will be for credit of passenger.

REFUNDS—In making refunds due to cancellation of bookings, or other reasons, the following will be deducted: (a) Agency Commission, if any; (b) other expenses incurred.

BAGGAGE—Baggage should be forwarded to reach port of embarkation 48 hours previous to sailing. Baggage consists of wearing apparel, toilet articles and similar effects and should be enclosed in trunks, valises, suitcases, etc. Articles intended for other persons or for sale should not be included in baggage. Household effects, furniture, books, glassware, etc. must be forwarded as cargo. Baggage should be plainly and securely labelled. "Wanted" baggage will be delivered to bedroom, or, if too large for bedroom, will be placed in the baggage room, to which passengers have access daily.

CHECKING OF BAGGAGE—Baggage may be checked from principal stations in Canada and the United States direct to the ship at port of embarkation under prepaid delivery checks. Passengers from points where prepaid delivery checks are not obtainable should arrange at port of embarkation for transfer of their baggage from station to dock.

FREE BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE—On Canadian and American Railways—150 pounds per adult ticket, 75 pounds each half-fare ticket. On tickets endorsed "Trans-Atlantic", originating on the Pacific Coast, Alaska, California, Oregon, or Washington, 350 pounds per adult ticket, 175 pounds for each half fare ticket. The maximum weight for each piece is 250 pounds.

On Canadian Pacific Steamships, each adult or half-fare passenger is allowed free carriage of 25 cubic feet of baggage or, at Company's option, 125 kilos or 275 lbs. all classes, consisting of personal effects.

EXCESS BAGGAGE CHARGES—The charge on the ship for the carriage of baggage consisting of personal effects in excess of the free allowance is $1.00 per cubic foot or 20¢ per kilo or 2 lbs. weight.

BAGGAGE INSURANCE—As the Company's liability for baggage is strictly limited, it is recommended that passengers insure their baggage, as in the event of loss or damage the Company cannot, under any circumstances, accept liability beyond the amount specified on the steamer contract ticket. Facilities for insuring baggage are available at any of the Company's offices or authorized agencies.

BAGGAGE TO OR FROM LONDON—Passengers for London via Liverpool, may, at reasonable charge, arrange with ship's Baggagemaster for through booking of their baggage to London, or for delivery direct to their hotel or residence in that city.

Passengers sailing westbound from Liverpool may have baggage collected at residence or hotel in London by application to the Canadian Pacific Office, 62 Trafalgar Square or 30-34 Mincing Lane.

BAGGAGE STORAGE—Facilities for storage of baggage are available at ports of call and at Canadian Pacific Office, Trafalgar Square, London, England, and Paris, France, at reasonable rates.

Arrangements for storage should be made with the Baggagemaster of the ship.
