PEOPLE YOU MAY KNOW

Visitor Here and There People Who Come to Cranbrook and Those Who Go Away.

J. W. McLean of Fernie was in town Friday.

Mrs. Clayton of Marysville was a Cranbrook visitor Monday.

L. Munroe of Victoria was a guest at the Cranbrook Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Feugan of Marysville spent Monday in Cranbrook.

D. R. Yates, manager of the Otis Staples Milling Co. of Wycliffe was in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Staples returned Monday from an extended eastern visit.

A. E. Watt of Wattsburg was at Cranbrook Monday attending the Conservative meeting.

W. M. Walker, of Vancouver, R. M. Smith of Montreal, were guests at Cranbrook Friday.

The mayor and aldermen elect will be sworn in Monday afternoon at 3:15.

A. B. Fenwick and George Geary of Fort Steele were in Cranbrook Monday.

Robert Dewar, William Myers and Frank Tracy of Marysville attended the big Conservative meeting on Monday evening.

W. W. B. McInnes of Vancouver, and the Kentucky Colonel were registered at the Cranbrook Thursday.

E. B Fuller of Millwaukee, Wis., and H. J. O'Neil of Portland, Ore., were Cranbrook visitors Friday.

Robt. Dempsey of Wardner was in town Friday. Mr. Dempsey is on his way to the coast on business.

The St. Eugene mine at Moyie that was closed down on account of cold weather will start up full blast next week.

H H. Epstein of Vancouver, a commercial man, was transacting business at Cranbrook Monday.

The audience that greeted Premier McBride, Mr. Bowser and J. A. Harvey on Monday evening was the largest political gathering ever held in Cranbrook, about 500 people were in attendance.

Frank McMahon, Mayor of Moyie, attended the McBride rally here Monday night and listened to the truisms fired into the enemys camps.

H. H. Knight of Nelson, W. A. Fay of Calgary, F. A. Maclean of Hillcrest and Chas. Macdonald of Wasa were guests at the Cranbrook Monday.

N. C. McKinistry left on Monday for Penticton where he will purchase several carloads of horses for use in the lumber camps of this vicinity.

P. Lund, manager of the Crow's Nest Pass Lumber company, was in town Monday, and during the evening attended the Conservative meeting.

D. McFarland of the North Star mine was in town Monday. He was at the Conservative meeting during the evening, and said that the McBride administration looked good to him.

Malcolm McInnes (no relation to W. W. B. McInnes) of Elk mouth, attended the Liberal rally Thursday night, and had a smile on his face, after the meeting, that denoted he believed everything his namesake had said.

R. J Burde, known to the coast press gang as "Smiling Dick," news editor of the Victoria Colonist, accompanied premier McBride and W. J. Bowser on their tour of the interior. "Dick" is an old timer in the west, having been connected with papers from Santiago in the South to White Horse on the North. He told a representative of The Prospector that Cranbrook looked good to him and would some day be what Chicago is to Illinois—the commercial metropolis of the interior.

All singers in Cranbrook are cordially invited to join with the Methodist choir in giving Immanuel on next Good Friday. For the present the practices will be held every Friday evening from 8:30 to 9:15 in the Methodist church.

Last Monday night Mrs. Shaw kindly placed her home at the disposal of the young people who are practicing the Scotch dance for the Burn's concert and dance January 25th. Patronella, the most stately Scotch dance, reels, strathsreys, highland flings, etc., are being most assiduously practiced by the enthusiastic Scots and argues well for an enjoyable evening on the 25th. May the Cranbrookites show their appreciation by turning out in full force on Burn's night to welcome those who are doing their utmost to make the entertainment a success.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The Liberal Meeting of Thursday Night Turned Into a Conservative Rally.

The most enthusiastic friend of Dr. King will admit that his reception at his own meeting here Thursday night was most austerely chilling. The doctor received a few unconvincing cheers from a few rooters at the back of the hall and at long intervals during a long address some of those in the body of the hall were moved to applause of the drawing room or academic variety. The speaker did not appear to believe in his own arguments and this was reflected in the cold reserve in which it was listened to. J. A. Harvey followed Dr. King and was splendidly received. The meeting was Harvey's meeting if hearty and long continued applause counted for anything. About the best point made by the doctor was that Harvey was the dispenser of the government patronage during the life of the McBride government. Harvey in his reply turned the point beautifully on the doctor by saying he was delighted to have it stated on a public platform and by a political opponent that he (Harvey) was responsible for whatever good came to the Cranbrook division while its parliamentary representative sat in the cold shades of opposition. That touch of cut and thrust caught the ear of the house which fairly rose to him. And once again when he referred to McInnes as the young political Moses, who was brought down from the frozen tundra of the Youkon, to lead the hordes of the Grand Trunk to the "Promised Land"—of the spoiling of the prosperity of British Columbia—the house fairly shook with laughter and cheers. "I think," continued Harvey, "that Mr. McInnes is less likely to lead a majority of the Liberals to the treasury benches than he is to land them in the soup." Harvey was in splendid form and delighted his supporters, who were if anything more numerous than the Liberals. He turned the Grit assemblage into a great Conservative rally which will make its effect felt far and wide in the constituency.

W. W. B. McInness, the next speaker devoted much time in fighting as bad a frost as ever chilled a budding politician. He then explained how and why he left his Yukon job. He said, "that he left his $12,000 in the Yukon to leave him free to enjoy the scenery on the political firing-line, and there is no doubt but that Mr. Harvey left him just where he wanted to be, on the line of the G. T. P., and the Ottawa machine. There is no mistake McInnes was loaded for bear and was shooting chestnuts, of scandal, from his G. T. P., firing line. He made no attempt to disprove any statements made by the Premier or Mr. Bowser at the Conserative meeting Monday night. Taken as a whole the meeting was a splendid Conservative rally.

A vote for Harvey is a vote for McBride and Prosperity.

A vote for King is a vote for Macdonald and Stagnation

No Yukon Carpet Bagger for Premier of British Columbia.
The Ottawa Machine Shop manufactured McInnes

Do you want a continuation of the prosperity British Columbia is at present enjoying? If you do, mark your ballot for J. A. Harvey, supporter of Premier McBride. If you want to go back to the old days of stagnation and graft, vote for Dr. King, supporter of J. A. Macdonald.

FOOLISHNESS OF GUFF

Mr. Dooley Getting Tired of This Campaign and Waxes Hot.

"I'm gettin' tired iv this campaign," said Mr. Dooley. "Dead tired iv it."

"Why?" asked Mr. Hennessy.

"Because," answered Mr. Dooley, "I'm not shure whether I or the man we're supportin' should be more scar-red be th' attacks iv the inimy or at the dam fool nonsinse iv our friends Forgive me fer callin' 'em friends. Wance there was a chap that prayed to be spared from his friends. We have a few that we could sell chape as a bargain counther lot. An' mind ye, they think they're the cheese An' so they ar-re. The limburger cheese. No matter how good our cause is, it don't give us a licence to play the blag-gard. No, sir. A few nights ago the Tories had a meetin' an' nawthin would plase some iv our boosthers wid enthoosiastic jags aboord iv 'em but to go down to the hall an' shout 'Yer a liar' to men they'd be glad to lick the boots iv fer $2 a day if the job was a steady wan. Ay' an' a sight worse than 'Yer a liar.' Be such manes they think the man we're supportin' will come to call them an' the likes iv them 'war horses' an' other things iv akel value. In time they'll find out they're the rale asses-iv-war. Our man could find a few bums at a dollar a day that could fling filth where the chaps I'm spakin' about have only the courage to throw dirt. The bums could do the work betther, if that kind iv campaign orathery was worth payin' fer. Only it isn't. Wan per cint iv it may sile the temper iv the other fellah, but ninety nine per cint iv it comes back an' sticks in the face iv the party, fer it can never rise a blush on th' jaw iv wan iv the famous asses iv-war. The jawbone iv an ass done wondhers in th' ould times, but it isn't a marker to the mischief it can do in the mouth iv a fool. An' there's others. There's the man that thinks he is worth listenin' to, the man that'll tell you the science iv runnin' a chicken ranch or an election campaign Some iv them can make low comedy comadians of themselves in private an' tin times bigger fools iv the party in public. They're towers iv strength to the other side an' the champeen vote getters fer the inimy. They're so strenuous, as Tiddy Rosenfelt ses, that they set even our frinds aginst us. They over cook the mulligan to such an extint, Hennessy, that the dogs on the street can smell the fire that scorched it. Be the same token, Hennessy, there's men goin' round wid the swelled head (natural or acquired, as the case may be) that'd be betther dead than takin' what they call facts an' argyments. They think they know it all, an' fer that class iv man. Hennessy, there's no hope here or hereafter."

"They're dangerous min," said Hennessy.

"That's what they are," said Mr. Dooley. "Whin they're not hoodoos they're political boomerangs."

Caledonian Society Meets.

The Caledonian Society held its regular meeting in Watt's hall on Friday evening, the 11th, inst, Chief Jas. Findlay in the chair.

The Society is doing a great work in bringing together the sons and daughters of Scotland, in this district, thereby helping to atone for the loss of friends, by its social and interested care of those who are known to its members. Any of Scottish descent should not miss the opportunity of attending their sessions and becoming members, as a pleasant evening is always assured.

Following was the program of the evening:

Recitation, "Tam O' Shanter," J. F. Smith; dance, reel, members; song, "Ye Banks and Braes," Mrs. Shaw; dance, "Highland Fling," A. McCowan; song, "John Anderson My Joe," Mrs. Dunbar; dance, "Highland Scottische," members; soug, "Afton Water," A. McCowan; dance, "Flowers O' Edinboro, members; song, comic, M. Gillis; dance, "Petronella," members.

Puck Chasers Meet

The first hockey match of the season was played on the ice at the rink on Saturday last at 4 p.m. The opposing teams were Moyie and Cranbrook. Mr. Burton acted as referee to the satisfaction of all. The game was clean and exciting at times. The first rush was made by the home team, who scored in thirty seconds. Soon after the Moyie team found the nets. This happened twice more during the first half. During the second half a hard struggle ensued, the home team rushing things, and found the nets once, making the score 3 to 2 in favor of Moyie. A return match will be arranged soon.

Harvey at Marysville.

J. A Harvey, and Thos. Cavin addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting a Marysville Friday night.

POLITICAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Picked up by Our Preambulator From All Parts of the District.

Mr. William Dickens, who was selected in July last by J. A. Macdonald and manager Lindsey, as the standard bearer of the Liberal party in Fernie, on Saturday last, midst thunderous applause, that echoed from Crow's Nest mountain to the international boundary, very modestly thanked one and all of the delegates present for their hearty tendering of the nomination.

A convention of "Bills" will be held in this province during the next three weeks, which is possibly the reason that carpet-bagger "Bill" McInnes chose this time to return to this province and the Liberal fold. It will be up to big "Bill" Gallaher, "Bill" Templeman to return at once and attend this convention of "Bill's" held under instructions from the Ottawa machine.

The political pot is now boiling in Cranbrook riding. Three candidates are in the field. Premier McBride and W. J. Bowser addressed a meeting of Conservatives on Monday night. The Yukon carpet-bagger "Bill" McInnes, attended by the Kentucky Colonel and Dr. King had the stage on Thursday night. The Labor candidate, Mr. Kelly is short of speakers, but following the precident of the Liberal party will have "Jim" Wilkes, of Butte, Mont., here shortly to speak for him.

"I state positively that I will not affiliate with any of the political parties that have been, or may be, represented in the House." Extract from Thos. E. Kelly's labor platform. This is a broad assertion. If Mr. Kelley is elected, in order to accomplish any good for the wage earner or the district he must affiliate in some way with the party in power, be it Socialist, Labor, Independent, Tory or Grit.

The following conversation was heard on the street the other day by a Prospector representative. "Laurier is the greatest man in the world. He stopped the sun, the stars and moon for 24 hours." "Hold" on, says one of his hearers, "where did you get that?" "I see him in the book." "What book?" "Any d—— book," was the reply.

The question is not "Who bit Billy Patterson?" but "Who wound up Billy McInnes?"

Premier McBride is sure of 11 seats on the Island, the solid five in Vancouver, one in New Westminster, one in Dewdney, two in Cariboo, one in Lillooet, one in Nelson, one in Ymir, one in Fernie, one in Kaslo, one in Kamloops, one in Cranbrook 'Nuff ced. This will give him a nice working majority of 12.

A coast paper had an article this week headed, "The Passing of Bill." The article was not about the passing of Bill Miner, the outlaw, but the passing of Bill McInnes from the British Columbia political arena on February 2.

The main thing that is troubling the small bore editor of the Nelson News these days is not "How old is Ann?" or "If the half of nine was four, what would the quarter of twenty be?" but "Why did Green resign?" The Prospector will venture to say it is Mr. Green's business why he resigned, not the editor of the newless News.

The Prospector learns that at the Liberal convention held at Fernie last week F. E. Simpson was nominated as a candidate, but declined. This is one time the "Old Man's" head was level. He would have lost his deposit.

Everybody works but the "Old Man" these days for a big majority for Harvey on Feb. 2.

The Liberals held forth in Wentworth hall Thursday night, and although McInnes took the platform, the building was left intact.

Before the Prospector forgets —Has the McBride administration made you poor?

Has McInnes ever done one single act in his political career that has benefitted British Columbia? Beg pardon. He did; by leaving the province for the Yukon for a short period.

McInnes was properly wound up Thursday night. All the Liberals needed was a cad to fan Mac to keep him cool.

The Way the Wind Blows

Wandering Willie Blatherskite McInnes sacrificed a $12,000 year job as governor of the Yukon to run for member of the British Columbia legislature at $800 per year. It looks to any sane person that McInnes' head lacks brains. But perhaps Wullie has his specs on something "big." The electors of Vancouver, on February 2, will put him in cold storage as a reminder of the good job he threw up in the frigid zone.

Gym Anniversary

The anniversary of the opening of the gymnasium will be held next Tuesday evening. A hotly contested basket ball game will be played at 9 p.m. After this a social time will be spent. During the year many good and enjoyable times have been spent; many hard battles fought and many victories won. The citizens well remember January 22 of last year, the night of opening. The re-election of officers will take place after the anniversary proceedings are over. Keep the date open Tuesday, January 22.

Mitchell Lund

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The contracting parties being Mr. John Andrew Mitchell of Erickson, B. C., and Miss Carlena Lund of Nelson. The Rev. J. P. Westman was the officiating clergyman.

Municipal Election

Monday was nomination day in Cranbrook municipal affairs. James Finlay was nominated as mayor, and being the only candidate was declared elected by acclamation. The following gentlemen were nominated as aldermen: W. J. Flowers, J. P. Fink, J. B. Henderson, Harold Hickenbotham, T. S. Gill, A. McCowan, V. Hyde Baker, J. Jackson, C. H. Knocke and James Ryan.

On Thursday the election took place and passed off quietly without any excitement. The following is the personnel of the new council:

Mayor—James Finlay.

Aldermen—J. P. Fink, James Ryan, A. McCowan, H. Hickenbotham, T. Gill, J. Jackson.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING

Splendid Rally to Hear Premier McBride, W. J. Bowser and J. A. Harvey.

The conservative rally on Monday night was a complete success. Wentworth hall was filled to over-flowing with a most appreciative and representative gathering of Conservatives. The special train, conveying the Premier, Mr. Bowser and Mr. Harvey, did not arrive at Cranbrook until 9:30, just one hour and forty minutes late. The large audience began to assemble at 7:30, and at the appointed hour every seat was filled, many ladies being present, and though the night was cold none left the hall but waited patiently the arrival of the premier and his party.

Mayor. G. T. Rogers was chairman. On the stage were seated, besides the Premier's party, Thos. Cavin, A. E. Watts, G. H. Thompson and Mr. Lehaney, who represented Mr. Kelly, the Labor candidate.

The first speaker introduced by Mayor Rogers was Mr. Lehaney, who spoke for Mr. Kelly and the Labor party.

Mr. J. A. Harvey was the next speaker and expressed his keen regret that the administrative party was not on hand at the appointed hour, also his pleasure and gratitude to the audience for patiently awaiting their arrival. He heartily thanked them and then for fifteen minutes spoke on the principal topics of the day.

W. J. Bowser, K. C., of Vancouver, was the next speaker, and in a rousing speech gave a review of the political situation in this province. He stated that they had gone to the country on the record of the government for the last three years, that the affairs of the country had been conducted honestly and straightforwardly and on that record they confidently appealed to the people to return them to power. He then gave his attention to the record of the spell-binder and carpet-bagger W. W. B. McInnes, who, he said, was elected to the Dominion House in 1896. In 1900 McInnes resigned his seat to contest Nanaimo as a follower of Joe. Martin In 1903 McInnes was again elected to represent Alberni, resigned and was appointed governor of the Yukon, That he was distrusted by the Liberals and turned down by the Socialists. That he was now posing as a Yukon carpet-bagger in the interest of the Liberal machine at Ottawa.

When Premier McBride was introduced by Mayor Rogers he was greeted with loud cheering. It was plainly evident that Mr. McBride was out for business, and that business was to refute the slanderous attack of the opposition, re the Kaien Island deal. He presented a map of the island, gave a complete history of the deal, and charged the opposition with adopting disgraceful methods of dragging a woman's name into the case to discredit the government. It was at this juncture that Dr. King entered the hall and took a place on the stage. Mr. McBride dealt to some length upon the record of his government and in conclusion stated that he and his government would give a square deal to all.

Watch Baker Mountain

The Cranbrook Herald says: "There is no more chance of Harvey being elected in this district than there is of Baker mountain turning upside down." During this age of volcanic eruptions and earthquakes Baker mountain might any old time take a notion to turn a somerset and throw forth the same kind of stuff that is appearing in the Herald—mud and corruption.

The Prospector.

ESTABLISHED 1895

A. B. Grace,

PUBLISHER AND EDITOR.

The Prospector.

SATURDAY, JAN. 19, 1907.

No brilliancy of speech, no inflation of oratorical appeals to the gallery on the part of Willie McInnes will deceive the electors of Cranbrook riding. The facts are too plain. His throwing of a life preserver to the wrecked party by order of the G. T. R. and his patron, Laurier, will not prove effective. His number is 23.

* * *

Two and a half columns of political matter set up last week by the Herald staff, and which did not appear in its regular issue, proved useful for an extra published on Monday. The old man must have had a Conservative on shift to hold back such interesting matter in cold storage for a week.

* * *

Cranbrook is certainly getting its fill of politics of one kind and another this month. The municipal election was warm this week; but the provincial elections are nearing the boiling point. The wake of the provincial opposition will be held on Feb. 3.

* * *

"Willie" McInnes plays a great game of politics. The only party that he has been true to is himself.

* * *

It looks as if Victoria is going to return a bunch of winners for the government. "Dick" McBride will head the bunch.

* * *

"What does McInnes get?" He reached for the governorship of the Yukon, with a salary of $12,000, and got it for deserting the party that is now heralding him back as the savior of that party. The question before the electorate is "What does McInnes get?"

* * *

The end of a political farce was reached last Saturday night when the Liberals of Fernie nominated William Dickens as the Liberal standard bearer for that riding. When at Fernie in July last J. A. Macdonald, leader of the opposition, in consultation with Mr. Lindsey, manager of the Crow's Nest Coal company, selected Mr. Dickens as the Liberal candidate for Fernie riding. Mr. Dickens looked good to them. As a strong labor man, holding the position of president of Gladstone union, with the support of the Liberals, he might, it was thought, carry the riding for the Liberals. After the nominating seance in the office of the coal company, Mr. Macdonald consulted with a number of leading Liberals who emphatically declared that they would have nothing to do with Dickens or his sponsors in their cowardly efforts to bolster up a wrecked cause at the expense of the workingmen of the Pass. Frank Sherman, president of the Mine Workers, having political aspirations which he hoped would be sustained by the mine workers of the Pass by means of a strike, determined to put Dickens out of business politically as well as out of the Gladstone union He succeeded in putting Dickens out of the union and himself out of politics. The farce of holding a convention to nominate an already selected candidate was carried out on Saturday last. After placing in nomination the names of six or seven gentlemen, who emphatically declined to accept, the Lindsay-Macdonald candidate was nominated. A large number of disgruntled Liberals, as well as the majority of the mine workers will resent this untimely interference on the part of Lindsay-Macdonald on February 2.

A Good Baker

The oven in the Kootenay Range is scientifically proportioned to the size of the fire-box, so that no more fuel can be burned than is absolutely necessary to heat the oven.

The oven is lined with heavy sheet steel, which is a great radiator of heat and insures a uniform heat throughout the oven—no danger of a loaf of bread being half done on one side and burned on the other.

The Kootenay Range is built on scientific principles throughout, and should be carefully examined before buying any other.

From Deficit to Surplus

When the Hon. R. G. Tatlow delivered his first budget speech on March 28th, 1905, he pointed out that for a period of twelve years the finances of the province had been falling into arrears at the average rate of $750,000 per annum For the financial year preceeding the advent of the McBride administration the deficit reached the enormous sum of $1,510,000. He stated further that at that date the excess of current liabilities over all current assets was $820,129. On March 3rd, 1906, completing the second full year of his financial control, Mr. Tatlow was able to announce a surplus of $268,265. He did not attempt to take credit to himself or the government to which he belonged for this phenomenal change, but wisely and safely left the inference to the intelligent and fair judgement of the electors. He did, however, point out that the excess of revenue was due to the growth and improved condition of our industries, and to the natural expansion of receipts through gratifying provincial development. He might have added to the already over bearing debt of the province by further mortgaging its splendid natural resources, but he had the courage to adopt what was at the moment an unpopular course, but one which was based upon correct business principles, practically the "cutting of one's coat according to the cloth"; in other words increasing taxation in order to pay operating expenses. It is not too much to say that those who were loudest in their denunciations of this policy when it was announced have long ceased to criticise, and are today amongst the most loyal supporters of the government. The end has amply justified the means. The finance minster had the prevision to recognize that if he was giving hostages to Fortune, they would be redeemed at an early date. He rightly judged that the province was on the eve of wide-spread development, and of an era of prosperity with the advent of which taxpayers would speedily forget the extra impost they had carried to insure the winning of the race. The result is that instead of having to face the electors today with a depleted treasury and an augmented provincial debt, the finance minister will shortly be able to announce to the Country a surplus exceeding $500,000 for the last financial year, a reduction of the provincial debt, a vastly increased contribution to much needed public works in districts of the province and probably what will be more appreciated than all, a moderate reduction in taxation. The whole administration shares in the honor of this achievement, but by universal consent the finance minister is entitled to a special meed of praise. There is a time-honored warning for the man of whom all men speak well, and if, Mr. Tatlow were not the most modest of men it might have some application to him in view *of the fact that even the oppo*sition organs agree that he is an excellent minister. In the face of this testimony, to say nothing of the highest opinion of his colleagues it is difficult to see how the province could fail to suffer by his removal from Cabinet rank.—The Week.

AS OTHERS SEE US

Words of Praise from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"The veteran editor of the Cranbrook Prospector, A. B. Grace, is a veritable thorn in the flesh of the 'Old Man' who runs the Opposition organ. The latter has been for more than three years in possession of the field with Dr. King, the Liberal whip, as his supporter, when down swoops the despised Prospector from Fort Steele, camps right in the heart of the Liberal fold, permeates the constituency with good sound Conservative ideas and secures the nomination of the strongest and best candidate ever named by a party in that district. Editor Grace deserves and will receive the unstinted praise of all loyal Conservatives for the excellent work he has done, and will undoubtedly have the satisfaction of seeing his nominee head the poll by a large majority on February 2nd. This is how he speaks of the Conservative candidate:

"Mr. J. A. Harvey, as the candidate selected by the Conservative party to represent this riding in the next legislative assembly, is a man that every Conservative and Independent voter can support without evasion or apology. He is the strongest and best man ever named by a party in this district. Mr. Harvey is too well known in every corner of this riding to need any newspaper or other introduction of commendation, and the vote of confidence given by the convention that selected him will be ratified by the electors on election day."—Victoria Week

The Prospector.

SATURDAY, JAN. 19, 1907.

LOCAL NEWS.

Wm. Carlin of Fort Steele was in Cranbrook Friday.

James Wilson of Creston was in the city Monday.

P. W. Gordon and W. B. Grant of Nelson were guests at the Cranbrook Friday

Constable A. A. Ward of Marysville was in the city Friday on legal business.

Rev. W. Vance of Kimberley was a Cranbrook visitor this week.

Dr. J. W. Coffin of Marysville was in town Thursday attending the King rally.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Mighton and daughter Cora, of Saskatoon were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. "Sam," Mighton this week.

P. Jenson of Wasa, was at Cranbook Friday on business. In conversation with a Prospector representative he said that he heard the Yukon windbag speak Thursday night.

George Geary, H. Mather, D. Monroe, J. Wirth, C. Macdonald and R. Dewar of Fort Steele was in Cranbrook Thursday attending the McInnes meeting. We wonder if these gentlemen represent the entire Grit vote at Steele.

Mrs. James Finlay entertained at the tea hour last Wednesday afternoon. Her friends took the opportunity of complimenting her on her position as mayoress of Cranbrook. The Scottish element feel particularly proud of the distinction of having the mayor's chair twice filled in succession by a son of Scotia. No more worthy successor to mayor Rogers could be had than in the person of Mr. James Finlay, a man of sterling character and unlimited generosity. Long may the people of Cranbrook show their good sense in selecting men of unblemished character to fill public positions.
