Strike Averted

Engineers and Railroads Settle Dispute

Increase of More than Ten per Cent. in the Wage Scale

The wage dispute between the engineers and 61 railroads west, north and south of Chicago, was settled to day. There will be no strike.

Instead, the engineers will receive an increase of 10 1-3 per cent of their 1910 wage scale, giving them a Christmas present of an average of approximately 192 dollars for each of the 32,000 men involved for each subsequent year.

Specifically the agreement provides for a raise of 40 cents a day for all engineers, with a differential in addition of 25 cents for 215,000 lb engineers, an added differential of 75 cents a day for the smaller Mallet engines, and a differential of $1 a day for the heaviest Mallets.

In a letter to United States Commissioner Charles P. Neill, who, as mediator under the Erdman Act, brought the settlement out of the otherwise disagreement, Grand Chief Engineer Stone of the Brotherhood gave as the reason for accepting the terms offered the suffering and loss which would attend a general western strike.

Numerous specific working conditions are improved by the agreement signed formally late to-day and engineers are given control of electric and gasoline motor cars used as locomotives, with an increase of 50c. a day in wages. Hostlers are given an increase of 25 cents a day. The new rate is effective with the signature of the agreement to-day.

Will Settle in Elk Valley

J. A. Formey, formerly city superintendent of Spokane schools, is now in London, England, where he has established the British Empire Agency (British Columbia) Limited, with a capital of $100,000. His advisory committee is headed by Lord Alwyne Compton, M. P., D. S. O.

In a letter, Mr. Formey says:—

"I am delivering a course of lectures at the agricultural colleges of Great Britain and also at the Royal Horticultural show in London on the advantages and opportunities of the Inland Empire in general and with special references to the East Kootenay district in British Columbia.

"I shall return to Baynes Lake, B. C., March 4, and will have a good colony of choice English settlers next spring, and many more to follow in the future.

"The Grand Trunk railway company is co-operating with me in this campaign."

The titles of lectures being given by Mr. Formey and others at the magnificent hall of the Royal Horticultural society at its annual exhibition are "Cider Making," "Methods of Growing Fruit," "Cider Fruits," "Fruit Bottling," "The life of a Fruit Farmer in East Kootenay." They seem well adapted to excite interest in the fruit industry of the northwest, Canadian and American districts alike.

The cool-headed farmers of western Canada will not enthuse over the shuffling of Sir Wilfrid on the subjects which most vitally affect their interests.

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES AT MASONIC TEMPLE

St. John's Night was celebrated by the Masonic brethren, with joint installat on ceremonies in the Masonic Temple.

There were in attendance a large number of the craft from Moyie, Fort Steele, and other towns in the district.

District-Deputy Grand Master M. A. Beale was the installing officer, and the ceremonies were carried out under the supervision of officers of Cranbrook Lodge.

Following were the officers installed for Cranbrook Lodge :

A. Shankland	W. M.
D. J. McSweyn	S.W.
Dr. F. B. Miles	J.W.
J. F. Armstrong	C.
J. G. Sutherland	Treasurer
E. W. Connolly	Secretary
H. Hickenbotham	Tyler
H. White	I. G.
C. A. Abbot	S. D.
Percy Coe	J.D.
T. H. Banfield	S.S.
C. R. Ward	J.S.
J. S. Peck	Org.
W. H. Wilson	D. of C.

Following were the officers installed for Selkirk Lodge, of Moyie :

D. A. Ayres	W.M.
H. G. Lown	S.W.
N. W. Burdett	J.W.
H. Chapman	Treas.
A. Potter	Sec.
C. A. Joslin	Tyler
F. Eggie	I. G.
J. Arthur	S.D.
Wm. Payne	J. D.
Wm. Chamberlain	S. S.
J. T. Powell	J. S.
Wm. Short	Org.

The Deputy Grand Master made very impressive the great responsibility devolving upon each officer, and the necessity that they should be living exponents of the grand principles which are the foundation and life of the order.

St. John the Evangelist was one of the patron saints of Freemasonry, whose festival is celebrated on the 27th of December by the craft. His constant admonition in his epistles to the cultivation of brotherly love, and the mystical nature of his apocalytic visions, has been the reason for the veneration shown him by the craft.

After the ceremonies of the evening were over, some sixty brethren sat down to a spread which had been prepared in the banquet hall. After partaking of refreshments the following were called upon: D. G. M. M. A. Beale, P.M. J. F. Armstrong, P. M. W. F. Attridge, P. M. Chapman, Moyie, W.M. D. A. Ayre, Moyie, P M. W. H. Wilson, Bro. D. J. McSweyn, who responded with appropriate remarks and praises for the order.

Farmers' Delegation Angry

Expressions of Dissatisfaction by Prominent Delegates

After Sir Wilfrid Laurier had given his answer to the delegation of farmers on Dec. 16, newspapermen in ottawa interviewed the leaders. Following are the answers returned by several of them:—

W. J. Tregillus, Vice-President of the United Farmers of Alberta:"Sir Wilfrid Laurier does not seem to have grasped the true nationalism of this movement. He had plenty of time to think over our demands, the effect of which he learned on his trip West. I am keenly disappointed with his reply."

E. J. Fream, Secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta: "We are keenly disappointed just now, and have arranged to meet the Premier again on several of the points."

J. Maharg, Moose Jaw, member of the executive National Council of Agriculture: "It always seems strange to me that when we get an interview with the Government, time is so limited. I am not at all satisfied. It's peculiar that the Government can adjourn for the holidays, and yet limit the time of hearing a deputation such bs ours coming such a long distance. Put two and two to-gether, and it seems as if we were not getting a deal."

Dr. Hill, Kenlis, Sask., executive Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association: "We were treated lightly by Sir Wilfrid. He does not seem to realize the greatness of our movement."

J. S. Wood, director of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association: "He should have given us a more definite understanding regarding the terminal elevators. He acknowledged that we have a grievance, and yet did not say that he would give us a relief. Wheat pays its way and he should have given us something to take back to the farmers of the West on this question."

R. McKenzie, secretary of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association: "I am not at all satisfied, but prefer not to express my opinion as yet."

W. Chipman, editor of the Grain Growers' Guide: "Not satisfactory at all.

Jos. Speakeman, executive United Farmers of Alberta: "I would have liked a more definite reply regarding the chilled beef proposition. We could not expect very much on the tariff, as the negotiations with the United States are still in progress."

E. A. Partridge, Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association: "It's an insult, and we should hold an indignation meeting."

T. W. Knowles, executive Manitoba Grain Growers' Association: "I am very much disappointed."

John Hyatt, Prince Edward Island delegation: "Darned little porridge in the salt. What I mean by this is that we got little satisfaction."

W. T. Murphy, Saskatchewan: "Personally I am not satisfied with the response; it did not have the right ring in it. He wrapped a cold blanket around the whole thing."

The foregoing were outspoken criticising. E. C. Drury, secretary of the National Council of Agriculture; F. W. Green, Secretary of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association; P. W. Scallion, honorary life president, Manitoba Grain Growers' Association, and A. G. Hawkes, executive Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association, took an apologetic line even more significant. They said:

E. C. Drury : "No opinion to offer at present. Am awaiting further developments. We could not expect Sir Wilfrid in the presence of his political adversaries to enunciate the tariff policy."

F. W. Green : As really the chairman of a large committee, Sir Wilfrid could not be expected to give definite answers to those things to which he could only give a definite answer after consulting his colleagues. Any man in his place, surrounded by rivals, where every word would be picked up and used against him, would naturally be careful of his statements. He could not make promises which he might not be able to carry out because he depended on the will and action of those associated with him. The effectiveness of our meeting with him will likely be brought about by the cohesion and force represented in the movements in the opinion of those who have the power to give effect to the expressions of the representations."

P. W. Scallion : "We could not expect much. Sir Wilfrid, when all is said and done, is only one member of the Government and not the whole authority."

In short, the delegation was bitterly disappointed.

WHAT THE CITY DADS HAVE DONE FOR CRANBROOK

In an interview given by Mr. T. M. Roberts, the City Clerk and Assessor, Mr. Roberts, in reply to a question as to the meaning and effect of the increased assessment of the city, made the following explanation, which should convince the citizens of Cranbrook of the stability and progressiveness of the city and of the authorities who have had the supervision of the city affairs since Cranbrook became a Municipality; and should be a cause of congratulation and encouragement to the citizens in general.

"The assessment," said Mr. Roberts, "of the yegr 1910, was $387,795 on lands and $839,880 on improvements. "The taxable value of lands is the actual saleable value of such lands." The taxable value of such is legally called improvements, in other words, the buildings, is 50 per cent of their saleable value. "The total taxable value of the City for the year 1910, therefore, was $806,-705.00. The assessment for 1911 is $728,495.00 on lands and $948,680.00 on improvements, making a total assessable value of $1,677,175.00 and a total taxable value of $1,202,835 00

"The rate of taxation last year was, on lands, thirty-five mills, on improvements nineteen mills. In making up the assessments for 1910, especially of the business portion of the City, I had no recent sale of any moment to indicate to me the value of lands. In 1910, however, there were numerous sales ol business property on Baker Street, and a large number of residences were built during the winter of 1909 anh the year 1910, and in considering a proper valuation to be made upon the real property of Cranbrook, I was enabled to arrive at a more proper valuation than I had previously. I considered that the valuation hitherto, especially in cases of business properties, was altogether too low and in the case of residential properties, while not as low as the business district, the valuation was still considerably lower than directed by the Municipal Clauses Act; and I believe that tne present valuation, with very few exceptions, wi,l stand before the Court of Revision, or any Court, should the decision of the Court of Revision be appealed against.

"A great misapprehension seems to exist in the minds of some citizens as to the amount of taxes that they will be called upon to pay next year. They fear that they will be called upon to pay more than last year because of the increased assessment. This is a mistake. The average rate on lands and improvements in 1910, was twenty-seven mills. Should the same expenditures be made in 1911 as in 1910, then, on the increased assessment, the rate would average about eighteen mills, probably a little bit lower. The rate, however, will probably be lower than eighteen mills and in my opinion nearer to fifteen or sixteen, firstly—because the revenues of the City should increase in the ordinary course, in fact I may say, they have shown a steady increase from year to year; and secondly—the expenditures should be less. One of the largest causes of expenditures last year and the year before was due to the extension and re-laying of the water works system. I understand from the City Engineer that this work is now practically completed, especially the work within the Municipal limits and next year there will be no outlay of any moment under this heading. This should cause a decrease in the expenditures of about $3,000.00. On the whole, therefore, I believe that next year through the increase of assessment, the increase in revenue and the probable decrease in expenditure, the average rate of taxation on lands and improvements will be reduced from an average rate of twenty-seven mills to between fifteen nd seventeen mills."

The foregoing statement by Mr. Roberts shows a remarkably healthy growth in the City of Cranbrook and shows also that, with a progressive spirit on the part of the different Councils and officials of the City who have had charge of civic affairs since the inception of the Municipality, there has been a combined and proper appreciation of the financial position of the city, and an economical method of expenditure which we are safe in saying will not be excelled by any growing City in the Province.

J. M. Agnew, of Elko, was registered at the Cranbrook Wednesday.

A Happy New Year! And may it be as it now promises—The most prosperous yet experienced in the Cranbrook District.

In municipal bodies, the law of life is development. Improvement and progress are the governing rules of civilized people. Those who do not seek to get ahead, to spur the city officials to a strict attention to their official duties, degenerate and fall behind.

Christmas, the season of good will and cheer has come and passed. It was a merry Christmas in Cranbrook.

WANTED: The fairest, and best best city council that is possible to obtain for the city of Cranbrook. The business men's ticket will fill the bill, and give to the city a council that will give prosperity and good government.

Next Sunday will be New Year's Day. The commencement of the year 1911. A day of resolutions, some of which will be kept, while many, in fact most of them will be broken and forgotten long before the first month in the year comes to an end.

The Mayor and City Council of Cranbrook are simply committees elected by the citizens of Cranbrook to conduct city business, and in the proper conduct of that business every citizen has a common interest.

It is satisfactory to see that a number of our leading business men and leading citizens, who appreciate the necessities of a firm and stable city government, have put their shoulders to the wheel, and they form the best guarantee of city government, city progress and development.

Have you any suggestions to make for the coming municipal election? If so, now is the time to arrange for them, and have them presented to the candidates on the business men's ticket. Every want of the citizens will receive due consideration.

The Prospector, with this issue, ends its 17th year, and with its next issue will commence its 18th year. It is the pioneer paper of Southeast Kootenay.

The Liberals seem suddenly to have made up their minds to abandon reciprocity. When the debate on the address opened Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared that the question of reciprocity was engrossing public attention. Exactly a week later Mr. Paterson spoke in the same debate. Now, the Canadian members of the reciprocity conference of November were Mr. Fielding and Mr. Paterson. Mr. Fielding is away ill, and Mr. Paterson is the only man in the House who sat in the conference.

He naturally is the person best qualified to speak on the subject which is "engrossing public attention." Now Mr. Paterson did not open his mouth an the subject. He did not even utter the word "reciprocity."

What does this sudden silence mean?

It means this. The Liberals, after coming to parliament and comparing notes have made up their minds that they have lost Quebec, and have resolved to appeal to English-speaking Canada as the truly loyal party which is being persecuted in Quebec for its loyalty.

And just at the moment that it became convenient to wave the old Flag they were tied up with reciprocity; they had been squinting towards Washington.

So they have dropped reciprocity like a hot potato.

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

At the Opera House

Our local managers are quite busy at present, arranging their "menu" for the present season. Of course of all the first-class attractions scheduled to appear at the Opera House for Tuesday 3rd January, 1911, none will be welcomed more generously than "The Burgomaster," with that sterling actor, Gus C. Weinburg as Peter Stuyvesant, the old governor of New Amsterdam. Pixley and Luder have written many musical successes, namely: "Prince of Pilsen" "King Dodo," "Woodland," and "Grand Mogul," but it was the greatest of all these, "The Burgomaster" that they scored their first great and everlasting triumph. The present season's offering is the new edition of this musical masterpiece, and manager Cullen has given it a sumptious mounting.

A real and no mistake beauty show is "The Burgomaster," the big musical attraction at the Opera House. It is said that "The Burgomaster," has more beautiful girls than any other musical show on the road. A splendid cast is promised with Gus Weinburg as Peter Stuyvesant, the old one-legged governor of New Amsterdam.

WILL TAKE VOTE

Local option leaders announce that in spite of the severe setback experienced in Prince Rupert and in Chilliwack, petitions for a reference to the people of the question as to whether or not the Canada Temperance (Scott) act shall be substituted for the present provincial high licence and strict regulation plan will at once be circulated in Victoria, New Westminster and the Slocan district. The backers of the movement desire also to see a poll in Vancouver city but action will not be taken there at the present time.

Members of the Lord's Day Alliance, in a meeting held in Toronto, said that the golf links of that city were crowded on Sundays; that now the toboggan slides were patronized on the Lord's Day, and that bridge was played for money on the "day of rest." Truly the Lord's Day Alliance does not seem to have a great sway.
