Deputy Minister of Labor Arrives From Victoria to Get Information on Strike

J. D. McNiven, deputy minister of labor, Victoria, was in Cranbrook from Friday last till Monday, when he left for Fernie. He was here to get first hand information with regard to the loggers' strike. It is understood that representatives of the I. W. W. were seen, as well as some of the operators.

It is stated that the striking lumber workers swore in seventy special constables on Thursday,, to see that the men did not obtain liquor. It is understood that information will be laid against any party selling to a lumberjack during the strike. This is prohibition that prohibits.

It is learned that an order has been placed in Winnipeg by the provincial and dominion government employment service for seven hundred and fifty men for this district. If there is any response to this call the men would be arriving shortly, when the real crux of the strike would be reached.

WEDDING

HILLSCHER — MILLER

The wedding took place on Thursday afternoon of this week of Miss Effie Miller, of this city, to Mr. Joseph Carl Hillscher, also of this city. The ceremony was performed at 3 p.m., by Rev. B. C. Freeman at the Methodist Parsonage. The bride has resided here for a number of years, and is a sister of Mrs. A. Saunders, her parents residing in Scotland. She is well known in Rebekah circles, being an active member of that order. The groom is a fireman in the employ of the C. P. R. The ceremony took place quietly, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders being the only relatives present. The bride and groom will make their home in this city and their friends will unite in extending to them all good wishes for the future.

DOG RACES ATTRACT CROWDS ON STREETS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Friday afternoon last one would have thought that the world's fair was being held in Cranbrook, Baker Street being lined from the Mount Baker Hotel to the Cranbrook Hotel, the attraction being the big dog race which Mr. T. M. Roberts, the local insurance man had sponsored, for the fun of the kiddies. It certainly was a dog-gone good race, for no sooner had you placed your money on the leading dog when he would be gone to the tall timbers after some other member of the canaine family.

The race attracted about half a dozen starters. Dinty, the dog owned by Ernest Kennedy, was the favorite, and carried away the bulk of the prize money.

The first race, for $2.50, $1.50 and $1.00, presented by Mr. Roberts was run by Ernest Kennedy, Harry Christerts, and Harry Christian.

The second race was won by Colvin McBurney, Ernest Kennedy and Archie Roberts. The third race was won by Ernest Kennedy, Harry Christian and Jack Farrell. The prizes for the second and third races were raised by the crowd. It is now expected that the Dog Derby will become an annual event in Cranbrook.

S. W. Wilson, of Regina, brother of W. J. Wilson, has decided to locate in the city and will open a garage in the Armour building on Baker Street, adjoining his brother's place of business. The necessary alterations are now being made to the place.

CRANBROOK LOSES TO KIMBERLEY IN SELKIRK LEAGUE

Locals Team is Weakened But Home Team is Held to 6-5 Score

Sunday last Cranbrook's invasion to Kimberley resulted in a tieup of the league standing when the local's lost in an exciting fast game 6-5.

Cranbrook presented a weak line up, Mitchell and Tom Hogarth being unable to go. Rev. Father Ehmann and Whitehead were also absentees, the latter having a cracked rib due to a previous game. Jimmy Jones is also reported as being out for the season. Cranbrook scored two goals in the early part of the first period Kimberley evened and were two goals to the good at the end of the second. Cranbrook rallied, tied things up and the miners by the use of substitutes finally notched the winning goal. The game was fast and clean, Caldwell of Kimberley being referee while Larry Piper was judge of play.

It is reported that the Kimberley club will charter a special to bring their supporters here on Wednesday, January 30. Fernie in communication with Fred Scott are anxious for the play off games with the league winners home and home, playing in this district February 5, and at Fernie, February 7.

East Kootenay winners will travel to West Kootenay (Rossland) playing in the Golden city February 11 and 12. The race is getting interesting and the interest running so high, it will be a grand finish. Fans come out and help.

Lecture on Tuberculosis

Gov't Speaker Addresses Meeting Here and Illumines Hearers on Subject

The public meeting held in the K.P. hall on Monday night under the auspices of the Women's Institute was fairly well attended, about fifty being present to hear Dr. A. S. Lamb, Medical Officer, appointed by the B. C. government to lecture on "Tubercular Problems of the Day."

In the absence of the Mayor, Mr. J. P. Fink acted as chairman, and in introducing the speaker referred to tuberculosis as the unseen foe, and said while the scarlet fever and small pox signs were shunned, people were indifferent to a more dreadful foe, that is taking heavy toll year by year. There was a great urgency that preventive measures should be properly used and precautions taken.

On being introduced, Dr. Lamb stated that the question of tuberculosis had been before the public for the last two decades during which time a campaign for the lessening of the death rate from the disease had been conducted principally through publications of different natures. The method the provincial government was adopting was one of personal appeal, and in accordance with this plan he was visiting all the points outside of the large centers, deliverng lectures on this subject in order that if possible the disease that was responsible for at least ten per cent. of the deaths as well as the untold misery that accompanies it, should be combatted. It was the desire of the government the people should know the symptoms, the elements of prevention and the importance of early diagnosis. In its early stages it was difficult for the doctor in general practice as well as the specialist to diagnose, A doctor may be in doubt and wish a patient to come back, which he rarely does, and thus the history of the case ceases.

It is the duty of the patient to return for further tests, this being particularly true where X-ray facilities are wanting.

The disease, the speaker claimed, was an infectous one, due to a small germ or bacillus, so small that one thousand could pass through a pin hole in a piece of paper without touching the paper or one another. These multiply only in the body and not in sputum. It is an acquired, in contradistinction to an hereditary disease. It is important that this be understood.

How the Disease Develops

The disease as the layman sees it, is a rapidly developing disease, whereas as the doctor sees it, it covers a considerable period from its early to its chronic stage. It appears in various forms, the most common of which affects the lungs, or the bones, joints, glands, intestines or the membranes of the brain, the same process occurring in each type. All matter is but a number of cells breaking down and reforming, and when germs are inhaled they throw out a poison that attacks these cells. Through a resisting force in the system these germs are enclosed in a sack as it were and if the tissue is sufficiently strong the germ is quiescent; if there is not this resistance the cells again break down and the germs are given up and so the process continues.

There may be a permanent arrestment at any point, or resistance may not develop as is sometimes seen and consumption ensues. It is the purpose of treatment to develop resistance and prevent multiplication of the germs. All nationalities are subject to tubercular infection. Indians, negroes, and Chinese most and Hebrews and Irish least.

The infection principally takes place in children 75% under 15 years being infected. The system however resists the disease and a very small proportion develop it. The early infection acts as a guard against future infection. The aim of all treatment is to avoid the formation of a mass of infection and final dissolution.

Saskatchewan has done more than any other province to combat the disease. In 1921 a survey was made of four schools. 1346 children were examined and of those under the age of six 44% showed tubercular infection. Under 14 61%, while under 18, 80% reacted to the test. However, less than 1% showed active clinical disease. Out of 907 pupils in two schools in Vancouver 28% showed positive infection, whereas 3.7% showed active clinical symptoms and a great number were sufficiently marked to require constant watching.

The danger of early infection is that while the germs become dormant they are apt at any time to become active. Few, if any become reinfeced as adults practically only when in contact with an active case.

There are two forms of tubercular bacilli which cause the disease; 1, the Human; 2. the Bovine. The bovine causes 25% of the infection in children through the use of milk infected with it. This type does not cause infection in adults and can be guarded against by pasteurizing or boiling the milk.

The great majority is due to the contact with the active human type. A person infected with it will give off millions of bacilli in a single day. Sputum which has become dried from contact with the sunlight and becomes suspended in the air and thus inhaled is the principal cause of infection in adults. Coughing or droplet infection

ANNUAL MEETING OF CRANBROOK RETAIL MERCHANTS' ASSOC.

The annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association was held in the city hall on Wednesday evening when the work of the past year was reviewed The newly elected officers are as follows:

President ..... J F Scott
1st Vice-Pres. ..... W. E. Worden
2nd Vice-Pres. ..... G. Sinclair
Treasurer ..... H. Hinton
Executive ..... A. Class, A. D. Bridges
B Class, A. Raworth; C Class, G. W. Patmore.

The question of the classification of certain members was considered, and certain adjustments made. A committee on new members was appointed and a canvass will be made. It is felt that if the merchants who are not members thoroughly understood the advantages to be gained by membership in the R. M A., none would remain outside. Besides the advantage of the bad debts collection feature of the association, it should also be remembered that the central association is at all times working in connection with matters such as legislation that would be beneficial to the merchants

What may be accounted an exceptionally happy dance was given at the House at Patten's Lake, last Friday, January 25th. About thirty couples gathered together including practically all of the neighbors, thus rendering it in the nature of a delightful house party. The musicians, consisting of Messrs. Sly and Owens with violins; Mrs. Sly, banjo; and Miss L. Owens at the piano as accompanist outdid themselves in keeping the guests in lively time. The floor and supper were excellent, and judging from the expressions of pleasure in general, all enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Plans are being made for a Valentine dance to be given on February, 12th. Everyone will be cordially welcome.

LOCAL BONSPIEL IS GIVEN FESTIVE TERMINATION ON TUESDAY

Trophies Are Presented to Winning Rinks at Pleasant Little Function

The banquet at the Cranbrook Hotel on Tuesday evening marked the completion of the maiden bonspiel of the newly formed Selkirk Curling Association, which from all appearances will be an annual function for some time to come. The spiel, though not favored with weather that was conducive to good curling, was enjoyed by all those taking part, and, many believe, did more to create a spirit of good fellowship between the neighboring towns and Cranbrook than anything else could have done. The tenor of most of the remarks at the banquet was that all should try to foster the good feeling that has been created through the starting of the new league at the little party in Kimberley, when Cranbrook recently visited there.

The toastmaster for the evening was Dr. G. E. L. MacKinnon, who has become known as the father of the league.

The toast to the visitors was proposed by C. R. Ward and responded to by Messrs. Montgomery and Markle, of Kimberley and Bull River respectively.

The Bowness Cup was presented to the new league by Mr. Bowness and will be open for competition by teams from any place within forty miles of Cranbrook. F. C. Douglas of Bull River was made the first custodian of the silverware having won the right in defeatng Kimberley.

R. Crerar was presented with the Cosmopolitan Cup, while W. F. Cameron was given the Gault and E. H. McPhee became the possessor of the Crand Challenge. All the winning curlers ably responded. Mr. Dan Burton presented the winners of the Bowness Cup with four boxes of cigars.

The evening was enlivened by songs from Messrs. Cooper, Collier, Marsh and Shannon.

Mr Burburas, a visitor of Mr. J. Martin's delighted the banquetters with several monologue selections. R. J. Collins representing the C. P. R., conveyed to the meeting the best wishes of the company for the success of the league.

CHRIST CHURCH VESTRY MEETING HELD MONDAY EVENING PARISH HALL

Reports Received and Committees Appointed for Coming Year's Work

The annual vestry meeting of the members and congregation of Christ Church was held on Monday evening at the Parish Hall.

The financial report was presented by Mr. C. A. Cock, the secretary-treasurer, and showed for the general fund a total income from all sources of $4,291.37, and indicated a substantial reduction in indebtedness connected with the church and its undertakings. Reports were also read from the various organizations connected with the church. The rector, Rev. F. V. Harrison, presented his annual report covering other aspects of the church's work, and outlinging suggestions for the future.

The lay delegates to the diocesan synod were re-elected for another year, and the church committee was elected to consist of Messrs. H. B. Hicks, F. Foote, Judge Thompson, H. L. Harrison, Mrs. Miles, M. A. Beale, Dr. W. A. Feggie, H. J. Collier and W. R. Grubbe.. The Parish Hall committee will remain unchanged, and the rectory committee will also be the same as before with one member less, Mrs. Miles not being able to continue on the committee.

Mr. N. A. Wallinger was named as the rector's warden, and Mr. C. A. Cock was appointed the people's warden. This is the seventeenth year in which Mr. Cock has acted in that capacity.

During a discussion on the work of the boy scout troop, which since the departure of Mr. Cyril Shaw has been carried on largely by the rector, it was mentioned that the Anglican troop will soon be conducted as an organization by itself, and not in connection with the troops of the other churches.

Votes of condolence were passed to Mrs. W. E. Haslam and Mrs. G. Hogarth, two members who suffered bereavements during the year.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. A. Raworth for assistance given in procuring for the church the memorial tablet to the late Rev. Mr. Flewelling, a former incumbent of the parish.

At the close of the business, refreshments were served and enjoyed by those attending.

Verne Woodman has gone with his father to Kitchener for a time.

Farmers in Conference Here

District Gathering Attended by Deputy Minister From Victoria; Banquet is Held

The meetings of the Farmers' Institute District Convention opened in the council chamber of the city hall on Wednesday afternoon, when the delegates from the various institutes were received and introduced, and the resolutions to be considered at the convention meetings were presented. The following delegates were in attendance:

Mr. Draper, Cokato; Mr. Crowe, Jaffray; G. D. Quail, Fernie; R. G. Newton, Invermere; Mr. Tompkins, Windermere; Mr. Harper, Glenlily; Capt. Barnard, Baynes Lake; Mr. Lawson, Wardner; Mr. L. Mott and Mr. A. B. Smith, Cranbrook.

At 6 p.m., the delegates and a number of others interested sat down to a dinner at the Masonic Hall, where after satisfying the cravings of the inner man with an enjoyable and bountiful repast, a very pleasant and profitable time was spent for an hour listening to some after-dinner talks.

N. A. Wallinger, M.P.P., as chairman expressed the pleasure he felt in filling that position, at a meeting of those whose occupation was the basis of every country's prosperity.

Mayor Balment extended a very cordial welcome to the delegates and visitors on behalf of the city, expressing the hope that their deliberations would be of much benefit to them.

The speakers were all listened to with marked attention. Many referred to the useful work that the Institute was carrying on and the advantage to be derived from the co-operation of the merchant and the former. The work of Mr. A. Hay, the local district agriculturist came in for a lot of very favorable comment, he being given full credit for the many successes achieved by the district since he has been here.

The speakers of the evening were the following:

W. H Wilson, president of the board of trade.

T. R. Flett, superintendent, Cranbrook Division, C. P. R.

R. G. Newton, superintendent Dominion Experimental Farm, Invermere.

Dr. Warnock, deputy minister of agriculture, Victoria.

C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, secretary to the Provincial Advisory Board, Farmers' Institute.

A. L. Hay, District Agriculturist.

Dr. Rutledge, dairy inspector, city of Cranbrook.

Besides the delegates the boys of the district who won the judging competition events at the New Westminster Fair were present. Allen Keer, Stewart McClure and John Clark. It had been hoped that the medals they had won would be ready for presentation to the boys at this time but these have not yet been received from the coast.

After the dinner the meeting adjourned to the city hall, where the second session of the convention took place. The speakers were Dr. Warnock, D. O. Bricker, district representative on the advisory board, and C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, secretary. Mr. Whitney-Griffiths dealt principally with the activities of the association during the past year. Mr. Bricker dealt principally with the question of agricultural credits.

A fuller report of the proceedings of the session will be given in next week's issue.

Thursday morning and afternoon very profitable sessions of the conventions were held. A central District Institute was formed comprising about twelve individual districts, the headquarters of which will be in Cranbrook, where all conventions will be held.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the K. P. Hall on Tuesday, February 5, 1924 at 3 o'clock. Mrs Ernest Jones will give a paper on "Miscellaneous Household Economy." Mrs. Hayman has charge of the musical program and afternoon tea will be served. New members are invited. In connection with the Institute there is a splendid lending library for members, in charge of Mrs. T. Baynes and Miss Emslie.

The meeting of the Associate members will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening, February 1st, at 8 o'clock. New members also invited.

Joseph Savaria, of Elko, who has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is now doing fairly well.

Review of Session Just Brought to Close

By N. A. WALLINGER, M.L.A., Member for Cranbrook

In the first few days of the session little was done, the King's Speech taking priority, but some bills were brought down and indefinite discussion took place. Many questions went on the order paper and some returns asked for, notably one referring to the Coast Steel Company and all correspondence between the government and Landahl et al; this drew a blank, as the minister maintained no offer had been made and no tentative offer on hand, so there was absolutely no information to be given to the house with respect to any iron industry being started on the coast or elsewhere; but the questions brought out a statement from the minister that the government intended to bonus the production of pig iron and to assist the formation of any bona fide company, whenever such a company, whose status would have to be above suspicion, was in a position and had the necessary financial backing to enter upon the installation of a plant with a fair prospect of success.

After the address in reply to the speech was moved, the member for Esquimalt certainly tore it to pieces, particularly with respect to the general conditions of the province claimed by the Liberals to be in such perfect shape. Referring to the administration of the Liquor Act, Mr. Pooley went into details as to the conditions in Prince Rupert, the home of the Attorney-General, referring particularly to the Skeena Club, which was situated on a scow tied up to the government wharf, so that everyone going to and from the boats would have to pass it. This property was then owned by Olie Besner, one of the delegates to the Liberal convention held at Nelson. The condition of the farming industry in the north was then gone into, and the speaker, who had made a personal tour of inspection through that country, explained how hundreds of families had left the district as the transportation and assisance from the government which had been promised had not materialized, and apparently the government had forgotten them except in the way of taxes. These same wrecked conditions in the farming industry, which should be the basic prosperity of the province, are general throughout and the agriculturists including the fruit farmers, after all the flowery promises of the 1916 and 1920 elections, are a sadly disillusioned body of men.

While the wholesale hiring of stool-pigeons not only showed an execrable want of principle, but was an insult to the constabulary and sets a precedent of a system of spying, involving also incitement to infraction of the act that tends to demoralize the respect of any community not only for this law but incidentally for all law and order. There should be an "open season" for "stoolpigeons" under the Game Act.

Attention was drawn to the imports of farm produce into this province, which have reached a very large value, over 30 millions of dollars worth, and the minister of agriculture was asked if some scheme could not be devised whereby B.C. could supply at least her home market, and as well keep the farmers on the land by the economic distribution of their products. This, of course is one of the chief equations of the province, hundreds of people out of work in some places, in other places hundreds of tons of produce going to waste for want of help or distribution, thousnds of boxes of fruit rotting for the want of picking and a market, and yet thousands of tons of produce and fruit are imported into this province at the same time. What is the trouble? Is there no one with brains enough to size up an economic question such as this and find some means of solving it even partially? It is apparently more than the department of agriculture can do and there is no indication that these matters are improving. Who is going to supply the solution? It is a matter of great moment to the province and should be tackled at once. A judicious amount of protection backed up by a central agency for collection and distribution of produce might work wonders; but every detail would necessarily have to be studied carefully.

In spite of the above conditions the government proposes to promote immigration from England without apparently making any move to improve such conditions with the natural result that it would more than likely increase the amount of unemployment. This province must first take care of its own residents and see that the conditions are such as do not tend to drive people away, the exodus of the last few years must not occur again.

CRANBROOK TAXES AND THE B.C. LIQUOR ACT.

Editor,
Cranbrook Herald.
Dear Sir:

I have been digging up some interesting figures at the city hall to discover as nearly as possible the financial advantage which the city derives in these days of stringency from the profits of the B. C. Liquor ("Moderation") Act. The B. C. Prohibition Act came into force May 31st, 1916, and the B. C. Liquor Act April 2nd, 1921. So the calendar years beginning 1916 and 1921 are the nearest we can get for starting points for comparison. The department chiefly affected is that of police administration. Other items related to the question, such as cost of distress relief, etc., though important for the present must be neglected. In the following comparison of the expense of police administration during these two periods, the figures are given from the city records as authentic, with the reservation that the 1923 books have not yet been audited, but the figures are no doubt correct.

The figures total and average as follows:

	TOTALS
	1916-20	1921-23
	5 years	3 years
Keep of Prisoners	655.94	...
Salaries	$21,411.00	*$22,004.50
Expense and Supplies ..	3,814.75	6.098.66
Keep of Prisoners ..	655.94	1,112,60
Total	$25,881.69	29,215.76

*This does not include the $1807 provincial charge for 1923.

	AVERAGE
	5 years' prohib.	3 years' moder.
Salaries	$4,282.20	$7,334.83
Expense and Supplies ...	762.95	2.032.89
Keep off Prisoners ..	131.19	370.87
Total	$5,176.34	$9,738.59

Offsetting the above charges, we have the city's revenue from fines, which runs as follows:

Total fines 1915-1920, $14,738.00; 1921-1923, $10,318.05; Average, 5 yrs. prohibition $2,947.60; 3 yrs. B.C.L.A., $3,439.35. Average annual gain to the city in fines is $491.75. Of course this gain is taken directly out of the pockets of our citizens, but then—!

Note that the average fines for the year have increased nearly sixteen and two thirds per cent., and the average cost of prisoners per annum has multiplied by nearly three times.

Now the net cost to the city of administering the B.C. Liquor ("Moderation") Act is obviously the difference between the average in cost under prohibiton and the average under the present law, less a questionable gain in fines; i.e., $9,738.59, less $5.176.34, less $491.75, which is $4,070.50.

To meet this net cost to the city we have the provincial appropriation from profit on liquor sales which this year, after deducting the $1,807.00 chrges of provincial police, was $4,235.59. Although even of this balance. $1,210.17 is set apart by the government especially for school purposes and may not be diverted by the city administration, let it be included as a legitimate resource, since schools must be supported.

We have, then, as net gain to the city under the "Moderation" Act, $4,235.59 less $4,070.50, or $165.09. This gain (?) represents on the $1,214,225 taxable assessment of Cranbrook less than one seventh of one mill on the dollar, or less than fifteen cents on every thousand dollars of assessment.

But here is the colossal folly of it all financially. For that paltry $165.09 per annum the Cranbrook liquor vendor took out of the community for liquor sold from June 25, 1921 to September 30, 1922, the sum of $191,505, an average of $12,700 per month, or $152,400 per annum, equal to a tax of 127 mills on every dollar of city assessment. That is, we are paying out at the incredible rate of a thousand to one for every dollar we gain under the "Moderation" Act.

A VIEW OF THE STRIKE FROM THE INSIDE

To the Editor,
Cranbrook Herald.
Dear Sir:

I would like space to take up Striker's invitation to give the opinion of another lumber worker about the strike that we are in.

My mate and I come in from the prairies every winter to work in the bush. We come in to earn money and we want to earn it. This year we worked one week when thirty or forty men entered our camp and forced the crew to come out.

Now that is a sample of the kind of freedom we are going to enjoy if our strike leaders and their I. W. W. mates force Bolshevism on us.

For don't you ever think, mates, that that isn't what is at the bottom of this strike. Don't ever think that money is pouring in from every I. W. W. centre across the line and likely from Russia — to get us the eight hour day and four dollar minimum. This strike isn't what a good many think it at all.

Our strike leaders are using one hand to point out to the men that they are slaves and to the citizens that the strike is to get rid of packing blankets, top bunks, unsanitary conditions and such like, and with the other are writing hurry calls to I. W. W centers for money to hold this strike for the I. W. W., because grand stand play has to be made now to get in lumber workers in other parts of Canada.

These Ontario lumber workers that they want have their own organization and deal with their grievances in a satisfactory manner. Why are we losing a winter's pay to get them to join the I.W.W? Not for our benefit, you can bet.

As for the grievances they tell the citizens about, I have worked in five camps in East Kootenay without seeing a top bunk or packing a blanket. The shacks are clean and the grub good. I worked for four dollars a day and worked shorter hours than I did on the farm. And yet I am out on strike. A lot of us have had time to do some thinking about it.

It may be said that I am only a scab worker and have no interest in permanent benefit to the lumber workers. Maybe. But if I was a steady man on the job I would be wondering where my summer's work was coming from, with no logs in for the mills to cut.

I am a farmer sometimes and a lumber worker sometimes but I fought for Canada and am a Canadian 365 days in the year. Canada is better off without these foreign agitators. Why are we striking to release class war prisoners on the other side? Do we want these anarchistic bomb throwers to flock to Canada now that the U.S.A. is getting too hot to hold them?

Well then, here and now is the time to stop encouraging it. Striker says we have been like a flock of sheep but it looks to me as if we have been made the goat as well.

The I.W.W. overd'd things at Kimberley. Their strength there now is 0. There is not a red card among the employees of the mines. Maybe a lesson should have been taken.

Our strike bulletin tells us that the mill men are desperate and are hourly expeted to come to the hall and give in to the demands and ask for men. In the meantime nothing of the kind happens. And I for one am not kidding myself that it will.

The I.W.W. headquarters are sending us money to tide us along but all the money in the world is not yet in the hands of the I.W.W. leaders and maybe the bosses will be able to get a hold of some that is left to tide them over for a season or two.

There is a movement among older and more responsible lumber workers to form a separate union of our own. It looks to me to be the quickest way for workers to get what they want.

ANOTHER STRIKER

A number of interested readers have requested the publication of the following vigorous letter on church union, now becoming a burning question.

DR. GANDIER AND CHURCH UNION

To the Editor of the Herald,
Sir:

Dr. Gandier has issued another pastoral letter on church union. May I note a few points.

1. The opening paragraph of that letter is a misstatement. Dr. Gandier in referring to somebody's request for another vote, says that the people voted "at the only time when, according to our Constitution, they could vote, viz., before action was taken by Presbyteries under the Barrier Act." That statement that the people voted before the question went to Presbyteries under the Barrier Act is simply not a fact. The question, in spite of protest, was sent down to Presbyteries under the Barrier Act before ever the people were given an opportunity to vote. See Assembly Minutes 1910-1911. And when it was finally sent down to the people, their vote was unfairly influenced and handicapped by the previous vote of the Presbyteries under the Barrier Act.

"According to our Constitution" there is no time when either Presbyteries or people have a right to vote the Presbyterian church out of existence, or drive others out of it who wish to remain in it. The Constitution of the church has no provision either in the Barrier Act or any other Act, for its own extinction. The whole coercive procedure in re "Church Union" is unconstitutional and illegal.

2. Dr. Gandier repeats the time-worn fiction that three thousand congregations have already gone into Union on the faith that the Churches were pledged to Union. Where are these three thousand congregations? Who ever saw them? How many of them are known to any reader of these lines? Take up the Statistical Tables in the Assembly minutes and see how many—or rather how few—of the congregations are now missing that were there a dozen or twenty years ago. In some districts one or other of the denominations has withdrawn and needless overlapping has been eliminated. But official reports a few months since gave a total of only 55 independent union charges in all Canada, and these 55 are free to remain independent, or to form any connection they may desire. This worn-out fiction of "three thousand congregations" is a monstrous misrepresentation of the facts.

3. Dr. Gandier asks "whether our church is to be untrue to covenants solemnly made with others"—and he states "There are some things the Presbyterian church in Canada does not do, and one of them is to ask questions of herself or of anyone else as to whether she is to keep faith or not."

The Presbyterian church in Canada never pledged herself to any such covenants with others. A few men in Church Courts, Dr. Gandier and others, who had no manner of right to do so, and on a vote of less than one third of the membership, attempted to rob the people of their freedom, called themselves the Church, resolved to wipe out the Church and drive its membership into a new Church or on to the street, and notified the other churches of that resolve. But they had no more right to "resolve" others out of the Church than they had to resolve them out of house and home. If Dr. Gandier and others consider themselves pledged to other Churches let them go and fulfil all they had a right to pledge and that is themselves.

But Dr. Gandier omits to mention his own unkept faith and the breach of faith which he is attempting to force upon the Church, the failure to keep covenant with our own people, the disregard of the unanimous covenant of the Assembly and its declaration to the people in 1905 that Union "must carry the consent of the entire membership;" and the similar and unanimous covenant and declaration in 1912 as to "practically unanimous action. These are the Covenants with which all are bound to "keep faith" and which Dr. Gandier, while discoursing on "keeping faith" treats as "scraps of paper."

4. Dr. Gandier's treats with thinly veiled contempt the many thousands who believe it their duty and have declared it their purpose to remain in their own church. It says in substance and effect that their convictions of duty and right are not worth heeding and will soon disappear; and they will all fall in. This shows the Presbyterians of Canada two things, viz., Dr. Gandier's estimate of the worth of their convictions and his estimate of themselves and their character as ready to give up their convictions.

Statements like those of Dr. Gandier given above and other similar statements in his letter, equally misleading and foreign to fact, while painful to think of and speak of in connection with the Church of Christ, show the nature of the obsession miscalled "Union" and the lengths and depths to which its advocates are sometimes led. No wonder the people in ever-growing numbers are turning against it as they learn to know it for what it really is.

May this evil spirit of ambition for worldly bigness, and its twin spirit of illegal, unchristian coercion soon be cast out, and the sister churches of Canada be free as heretofore to go forward side by side in their work for the Kingdom of God.

Vicks Relieves Her Catarrh

"Cannot Praise It Too Much" Says Mrs. Cayer.

Melt a little Vicks VapoRub in a spoon. Inhale the vapors. Then insert some in nostrils, snuffing it well back. You will be delighted to see how quickly it clears the head.

Catarrh sufferers seem to think they have to endure it forever because they live in a "catarrh climate." The disease is hard to get rid of, but Vicks brings welcome relief and in many cases persistent use has brought permanent benefit.

Vicks is a quick acting treatment for all cold troubles—absorbed like a liniment and the same time inhaled as a vapor.

Mrs. J. B. Cayer, Ste. Anne, Manitoba, says: "I am a sufferer from catarrh and Vicks has done me a great deal of good. I tried everything without success until I used your salve. I cannot praise it too much. I will never be without it. I recommend Vicks to all sufferers form catarrh and cold in the head."

At all drug stores 50c a jar. For a free test size package, write Vick Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal, P.Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

CRANBROOK'S FIRE LOSS IN 1922 NOT SO LARGE AS GIVEN OUT

In what purports to be a resume of the first report of the Fire Marshal for B.C., covering the year 1922, a number of papers have quoted figures given therein covering fire losses for that year in the towns of the province. In this table the loss from fire in Cranbrook is given as $23,569. Comment has been made in some instances that this seems high, ranking the place eighth in all the province.

Figures published last year in the Herald from the annual report of the fire chief show the loss to have been actually only $11,225, or about half the figure given in the fire marshal's report. What the basis was for the fire marshal's report is not known, but the fire chief's annual report is more likely to be an accurate source of information, it might be thought. The biggest part of the fire loss in that year was the conflagration at Worden's shed near the tracks, which would in itself take about half the total reported by the fire chief for that year.

Operating Revenue Gains:—Official figures covering Canadian Railway operations from January to the end of October, 1923, show that Canadian National lines have increased their operating revenues by $5,117,741 and the entire system, including the lines in the United States, increased the net operating revenue from $3,823,007 to $12,021,285. Canadian lines of the C. N. R. converted a deficit of $315,925 into a net operating revenue of $4,801,788 during the time reviewed and the net earnings of the American lines of the Canadian National Railways jumped from $3,823,007 to $7,219,496.

LUMBERTON CHIPS

(Too late for last week)

The Lumberton Clubrooms was the scene of the First Annual banquet of L.O.L. 2915 on Wednesday night of last week. Covers were laid for members of the organization and their friends to the number of forty. The guests started to arrive shortly before the hour for the festivities to start, namely, nine-thirty. A musical program furnished entertainment for all those present prior to the serving of the banquet. Mr. E. A. Cook acted in the capacity of chairman of the evening, while Mr. O. N. Jacobson was the occupant of the toastmaster's chair. The chairman of he evening extend d a welcome to the guests of the members of L.O.L. and the festivities began. The long table which extended the length of the hall had been nicely arranged and nothing was lacking which would make the evening an entire success. Mr. E. A. Cook, who had charge of the arrangements, certainly did himself proud. A program had been arranged to take place after the banquetters had satisfied their wants and several good talks were listened to. Rev. Lancaster, of Moyie, enlightened all the guests as to the purpose of the organization, its ideals, and some of its accomplishments of the past. The program for the evening was as follows:

Address of Welcome .... E. A. Cook

GOD SAVE THE KING

An enthusiastic crowd witnessed a hockey game between Neuman's Cyclones and Avery's Flashes last Sunday afternoon. This was the first game of hockey that has been played on the Lumberton rink and from all indications it will not be the last. The married men, who were scheduled to appear against the men who have no ties that bind, failed to make their appearance in a sufficient number to get a team together, so it is hoped they will be able to get together next Sunday. The game ended in a deadlock, both teams scoring seven points.

The lineup:

Cyclones		Flashes
McIntyre A.	Goal	Wodiske, A.
Neuman A. J.	Defense	Avery G.
Tulloch F.		Allen B.
Dobson A.	Forwards	Downey P.
Robson J.		Dodson T
Lancaster J.		McCray J.

The Lumberton rink has become an important factor in the social life of the town, for everyone, both young and old, is taking advantage of the excellent skating for the past few weeks. A dressing room has been provided to add to the comfort of the skating enthusiasts. One casualty has been reported so far this season. Mrs. E. J. Dobson, who fractured her wrist is rapidly recovering.

The Lumberton Club continues in popularity as a social center. Nine tables of whist were in play on Wednesday evening. Ladies' honors were awarded to Mrs. A. Christenson and ladies' consolation to Mrs. A. J. Neuman. Gentlemen's honors were won by Mr. F. Kosovich and the consolation went to Mr. A. J. Neuman. A luncheon was esrved after the prizes had been awarded, by the committee in charge, which was followed by dancing till the hour of midnight.

Mr. Alex Stewart, camp accountant, has been down from the tall timbers for the past few weeks. Several of the fellows around Lumberton are beginning to view his stay with some misgivings for he is taking notice of some things not connected with the regular routine of the day's proceedings. He has developed a peculiar fondness for coasting, however, he does not enjoy that sport alone for he always manages to have member of the fir sex with him, and sometimes he is not content with only one.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE B.C. DIVISION OF THE C. I. M. M.

Arrangements in connection with the Annual General Meeting of the British Columbia Division of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, in the Hotel Vancouver, Vancouver, on February 13-15th, have now been completed, and an excellent program has been prepared. All the subjects to be discussed at the technical sessions are of timely interest and involve considerations in which the general public is equally concerned with those directly engaged in the mining industry of the Province.

The material welfare of British Columbia is largely dependent on the prosperity of the mining industry All will agree that everything possible should be done to ensure that general conditions shall be as conducive as they can be made to an uninterrupted and progressive expansion of the industry. Certain existing economic and industrial conditions are exerting a retarding effect on our mining industry, and these may be removed or at least ameliorated. The promotion of the welfare of the mining industry is the principal purpose of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy as set forth in its charter. In keeping with this purpose, attention at the forthcoming meeting will be mainly directed to a survey of industrial conditions as affecting mining in the province, with a view to their betterment. The subjects to be immediately considered are included under the respective heads of: "Conditions Favorable and Unfavorable to Mining in British Columbia;" "The Disabilities of the Coal Mining Industry in British Columbia and Possible Remedies;" "The Possibilities ffor an Iron and Steel Industry in British Columbia" and "Research in Connection with local Metallurgical Problems."

The meetings are open to the public.

Grain From Vancouver:—Vancouver grain men are endeavoring to send more than 14 million bushels of grain out of that port this month. Deliveries at the Pacific coast port by the Canadian National Railways during the present grain movement season are eclipsing all former records.

Gold Strike:—Prospectors working north of Sudbury, Ontario, have struck a rich vein of gold ore close to the line of the Canadian National Railways. At a depth of 30 feet, to which distance a shaft has been driven, the vein has widened out to 14 inches and assays of the ore show values averaging $28 per ton. Specimens of the ore exhibited at Sudbury show small nuggets embedded in the rock.

Church and Hospital at Windermere Report for Year

Latter Continues to Make Good Showing and New Church is Also Registering Progress

(Special to the Herald)

Invermere B.C., Jan. 26:—Two important annual meetings pertaining to the religious and charitable interests of the community were recently held in the schoolhouse here. The first of these was the vestry meeting of christ Church and of the Church of England missionary parish of Windermere. A review was made of the affairs of the year just closed and it showed conditions to be in remarkably good shape in so far as the financial and temporal conditions were concerned. Most excellent work has throughout been performed by the separate organizations of the ladies and the young women of the district. The vicar, Rev. F. B. Atkinson, gave a most excellent review in the following words:

There have been 136 services held in the parish during the year 1923 of which 65 were celebrations of the Holy Communion. There have been 627 individual communions made last year as against 604 the year before. The communion was administered at Easter to 80 communicants.

There were also

8 Baptisms, as against 16 in 1922.
10 Confirmations " "
1 Marriage " 4 "
5 Burials " 1 "

The Sunday School has had a happy and successful year thanks to able teachers. Miss Susie Nixon is now helping with Primary.

The Women's Auxiliary has been very active helping with donations, cleaning the church and now setting to work to get the pews.

The Girls W. A. donation to church funds bought the altar frontal and green hangings for Trinity season.

While not actually a part of the parish work, but rather a community service, the Boy Scouts and the Girl Guides have been active this year. The Scouts held a camp on Columbia Lake in August, 26 boys being present Girl Guides were recently organized, also Brownies and already show evidence of the "good turn" spirit by cleaning the windows of the church.

Thanks are again due to Miss E. M. Kittie and Miss Dora K. Bodecker for organ playing.

The outstanding feature of the year's work has been the bringing to completion of the church, or at least to such a state that it is usable. The total contribution from all sources during the past year to the church building fund was $1497.40. Of this $300 came from the Dominion W. A. and £20 through the S.P.G. from St. Saviour's Church, Bristol, which two were the only outstanding donations from outside the parish. We may congratulate ourselves that there is no debt upon the building, and we must press forward this year to bring the building nearer completion and to furnish it in a more dignified manner. Mr. George A. Bennett, as architect of the building gave his services gratis. The gifts received by the parish in the shape of furnishings for the church have been many and valuable. The brass altar cross came from the W. A. of Holy Trinity cathedral, New Westminster; the brass altar vases from the local W. A; the altar candlesticks from Mrs. J. Sinclair. The altar itself was the work of Mr. J. Cartwright; the sanctuary carpet from Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gore; a brass alms dish, anon; lectern from Christ Church, Cranbrook; lectern bible from Major Young; olivewood altar btokrest from Mrs. F. B. Young and an altar service book given by the Confirmation class; cocoa matting from Mrs. Rayson; framed picture from Mrs.Newitt; a beautiful picture, unframed from Mrs. Docking; altar hangings from Miss Cross, Yorks., Girls W.A. Mrs. Payne New Westminster; Honor Roll from G.W.V.A. (temporary); and a splendid altar mat from Major F. B. Young.

The furnace has been installed and has been a great comfort. Mr. L. Diehl and Mr. G. Erickson are to be thanked for giving their time freely in this connection. Mr. Erickson has also very kindly spent some time in cleaning the grounds.

The second meeting was that of the Windermere District Hospital Association. At this the reports for the past year were read by the secretary and showed good results, the unfailing exertions of the Ladies' Aid coming in for special praise. The directors have throughout been unremitting in their attentions. A full financial statement is given below. The excellent manner in which this was set out by the secretary-treasurer and the comparative results as compared with 1922 brought words of commendation to Mr.. H B. Gore, the secretary-treasurer.

Mr. A. G. Cuthbert was reelected president for his fourth term in office, the other officers being A. E. Fisher, vice president; A. G. Cuthbert, sec.-treas; directors: Frank G. Stockdale, E. M. Sandilands, R. R. Bruce, Dr. F. E. Coy, Mrs. B. G. Hamilton, Mrs. J. Lake, Miss E. M. Kittle, R. G. Newton, Mrs. E. M. Sandilands, W. Wier, A. M. Chisholm and A. Ashworth. Messrs. Christenson and A. E. Fisher were appointed auditors.

WINDERMERE DISTRICT NOTES

(Special to The Herald)

Invermere, B.C., Jan. 26:—The directors of the Windermere District General Hospital gratefully acknowledge gifts from various persons to this worthy institution. Amongst other articles and donations were, holly from Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Newton and Dr. and Mrs. Coy; oysters from John A. McCoskrie; two gramaphone records from Mr. Pirie; a generous gift of eggs from Mrs. A. M. Chisholm; box of Japanese oranges from Mrs. A. Taylor and a goodly supply of apples from the promoters of the Invermere Christmas Tree entertainment.

A splendid lantern equipment has been added to the agricultural campaign supplies of the Dominion government experimental station here. It is under the control of Mr. R. G. Newton, the superintendent, and is intended for use by him and his assistant for lectures any place within the territory to which the station ministers. A wonderful range of slides, beautifully prepared, is available by the superintendent from the Dominion's department of natural resources upon due request being received. Mr. Newton this week visited Cranbrook to attend the district meeting of representatives of the Farmers' Insitutes.

HISTORICAL ASSOC. WILL HOLD REUNION OF PIONEERS

The British Columbia Historical Association is contemplating having a reunion of Pioneers of British Columbia, and would be glad if those persons who arrived on the Island or Mainland prior to 1871 would furnish their name and address to the Secretary, J. Forsyth, Provincial Library, Victoria, who will issue invitations when arrangements are completed.

In order to have the list of pioneers as complete as possible, all persons who may know old-time residents will confer a favor by furnishing names.

Local organizations who are interested in the early history of the province are also asked to co-operate with the Historical Association. This body is affiliated with the Canadian Historical Association, and is also an auxiliary to the Provincial Archives Department, wherein are preserved the records, journals, diaries and photographs relating to the Colonial days of Vancouver Island and British Columbia.

Prepared forms for the personal records of pioneer residents may be obtained upon application to the Provincial Library and Archives Department, Victoria, B.C.

Good Business at Coast: — Conditions in Vancouver following the holiday season look unusually promising stated G. A. McNicholl, of Vancouver, genoral pasenger agent of the Canadian National Railways, on his way to Montreal a few days ago. Merchants claim to have done the largest holiday business ever transacted in Vancouver and prospects for the coming of American and Canadian tourists for the winter are exceedingly bright, Mr. McNicholl added.

BRITAIN'S LABOR GOVERNMENT

Now that the first gasp of astonishment has passed at the spectacle of a labor government taking hold of the reins of state in the British Isles, it is seen clearly that there is little need to fear that any very drastic legislation will be introduced.

Apart from the fact that the Labor party as such represents only one quarter of the representation in the House of Commons, which means that the two parties in opposition could at any time unite to defeat it it precisely the same manner that the late Baldwin government went out, it is noticed that the personnel of the Labor government includes a number of a class who might rather be described as advanced thinkers or insurgents from the other parties, rather than pronounced Laborites. These men could be relied upon to act as a brake on the wheel if there was any tendency to toy with such radical proposals as a capital levy, inheritance curtailment, and other drastic departures from the comparatively moderate trend of British legislative practice.

Organized labor in Great Britain came into its own during the war period, when some marvellous productive standards were reached. Many during those times came into a degree of comparative affluence by taking to war work, and became definitely enrolled under the labor banner. Since that time with two big jumps the party has landed in the seats of the mighty at the helm of state, and whether they are in the occupancy of the treasury benches for long or not, a new page in British constitutional history has been written, and the probabilities are that the government of Ramsay McDonald will not tarnish in any respect the shining escutcheon of the Mother Country's politics, but rather add some lustre to it. And this in spite of the distrust which faced the Labor leader when he took over the government.

One might well ponder if politicians on this side of the Atlantic have yet learned to take defeat with the same stoicism and equanimity of the British Leaders. It was no secret that the Liberals and the Labor members were going to unite to defeat Baldwin on a lack of confidence vote, but he did not attempt to wriggle out of an untenable position. He met his defeat, passed out and now joins Balfour, Asquith and Lloyd George, from whom little backbiting or vindictiveness has been heard since they laid down office.

What a lesson in the ethics of politics!

NOTE AND COMMENT

Reviving all the excitement of three years ago, when the Crows Nest train was held up at Sentinel, the capture of the third bandit concerned in this episode came like a bolt out of the blue to most people who imagined that with the passage of time the police would relinquish their efforts to trace the man. Time apparently lulled the hunted man into a sense of false security, and when a watch, one of the articles of the loot, was disposed of, the dragnet was drawn in upon him. Less than a week from arrest sentence of seven years had been imposed, and with two of the bandits dead and the other behind prison walls, finis is written to an exciting chapter of Crows Nest history after a lapse of three years.

From Our Exchanges

THE ENGLISH PREMIER STEPS DOWN

Since the days of Gladstone, Stanley Baldwin is the first Englishman representing an English constituency to attain the position of British Premier; and, indeed, Gladstone, during his last three administrations, was M.P. for the Scotch constituency of Midlothian (1880-1898). The only other Englishman who has been premier since Gladstone, was Asquith, who then, as now, was a Scottish member. Campbell-Bannerman and Balfour were Scotsmen, Lloyd George a Welshman and Bonar Law a Canadian, representing Glasgow.—Toronto Star.

LIQUOR IN BRITAIN

Commenting on the expenditure of £354,000,000 on liquor in Great Britain last year, which was one of widespread unemployment, Sir John Simon says that, even excluding the sum which represented taxation there was left an outlay of £200,000,000 in drink, or more than the total public expenditure on education, and six times the cost of old-age pensions.—Toronto Globe.

MACKENZIE KING MAY MEET DIFFICULTIES

Within a little more than a month the government at Ottawa will be forced to meet a House of Commons in which it stands four short of a majority. It may be able to survive the session, because the parties opposing it are not a unit on any question that has yet come up. But to exist from year to year on the opposition's sufferance is not good for the self-respect of any government, and it is more than possible that the federal premier may choose the lesser of the two evils and face the electors. If he decides to cling to office there is always the chance that the various groups to the left of the Speaker may unite in a division some day and force him out.—Exchange.

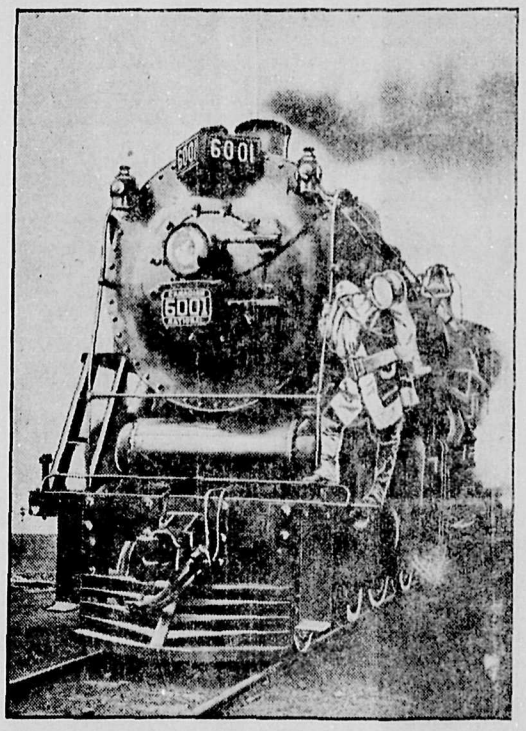
A MODERN SANTA CLAUS



THE world is getting so big and there are so many little folks and big folks in it who look forward to a visit from Santa Claus, all on the same day, that the genial old gentleman is forced by the pressure of his duties to discard his reindeer and his sleigh on occasions and to travel on the fast passenger trains that are speeding people home for Christmas Day. Nothing but the very best will do Santa Claus, and that is why, as you see here, he has chosen as his steed one of the huge locomotives of the Canadian National Railways. These locomotives, known as the 6000 type, are the biggest passenger locomotives in Canada. Santa Claus posed for this picture when he was inspecting the engine so that all the boys and girls, and grown-ups, too, could be sure that he would reach them on Christmas Eve.

He comes to the Star theatre in his latest William Fox production, "Do and Dare," next Wednesday and Thursday.

CONSTANCE TALMADGE STARS IN SCREENING OF "EAST IS WEST"

"East Is West," the outstanding stage success of the past decade, with a record of two seasons on Broadway alone, has reached the screen.

Constance Talmadge finally secured the most coveted play, which has been dangled before the longing eyes of motion picture producers, and will be seen as Ming Toy, the lovely heroine, when this First National attraction is shown here on Friday and Saturday, February 8 and 9, at the Star.

Constance Talmadge crowns a meteoric career with her temperamentally brilliant interpretation of the role of Ming Toy, the girl who was reared according to the strict tenets of the Chinese, relegates woman to the role of slave, nevertheless absorbs the culture of the oldest existing civilization.

Fresh from an Oriental background, Ming Toy is plunged into the complexities of life as it is lived in America. Her beauty attracts unwelcome suitors in America as it did in China, a matter which leads to thrill after thrill.

But the chiefest charm of Ming Toy lies in the refreshingly unsophisticated way in which she regards American ways seen through eyes tutored to the sauvity of the Oriental.

It is here that Miss Talmadge has her great opportunity for her ability as a commedienne, an opportunity which she utilizes to the fullest extent. The piquancy and the verve which made the "mountain girl" of "Intolerance" loved by millions make the Ming Toy of "East Is West" a never to be forgotten characterization.

A friend in a strange town looks like a dollar in a collection plate.

His Second Worst

"Do your worst!" she whispered hoarsely.

His heart failed him.

"Do your worst!"

The fateful words rang in his ears, and he was just as anxious as his wife to get rid of the visitors who had called, but he concluded at the last moment to do only his worst but one.

Accordingly, he played but did not sing.

Swimming a Feature of Banff Winter Carnival

TOP RIGHT: The Cave and Basin.
BELOW: The town of Banff.

BANFF Winter Carnival, it has been definitely arranged, will take place this year from February 2nd to 9th, both dates inclusive, and will be run concurrently with Banff Bonspiel, which will be held from February 4th to 9th inclusive. The Carnival programme is practically the same as last year.

When mother nature undertakes to make Banff wonderful in winter time she does her work in a finished manner, and when she has completed her task she leaves behind a frozen world held in terrific frost and deep snows—snows which sparkle in brilliant sunshine like some scene in fairyland—and frost which gives just that tang to the air which invigorates both mind and body, and holds even the unromantic spellbound.

As a summer resort Banff is known and recognized throughout the Dominion, but the Winter Carnival is only just becoming known, and by those who know it—loved.

The attractions are many for the camera enthusiast. There are bright, glorious days, when the pulse beats high and the long icy stretches on Bow River beckon the skater; long, snowy slopes glittering in the sunlight give joy to the skier; smooth, glistening trails woo the snowshoes into paths — wonders hitherto unknown; and toboggan slides thrill alike the old and young. These are but a few of the joys which Banff has to offer the world in winter time.

In addition there are treks through that wonderful mantled forest with dog teams, or hikes to snow covered peaks which surround the valley during the day, or better still, in the evening when overhead is a most wonderful of all wonderful moons, looking down and smiling on a romantic world, wrapped in snow.

The only artificial thing about Banff is the ice palace—all else "just happens."

Those readers who remember the thrill of a "slide down hill" of childhood days can live those days again on the toboggan slide constructed on the natural slope of Tunnell Mountain and running straight down to Banff Avenue. At night the slide is brilliantly illuminated and makes a beautiful picture in a setting of pines and snow-clad mountain peaks.

The mountains also afford another sport—ski jumping. World's records in this sport have been made at Banff, but there are little hills for the amateurs. The largest Banff ski hill has been constructed on the northern slope of Tunnell Mountain and is now recognized by the ski fraternity to be the best natural ski hill in America.

Hot sulphur baths are one of the chief attractions of Banff at all times, but in winter, with the water in the two public baths at a temperature of approximately 100 degrees, and the atmosphere down to anything as far as 40 degrees below zero, icicles decorating the surrounding walls and snow-capped mountains all around you, with only the blue vault of the sky for a roof, is a unique experience. The baths are known as the Upper Hot Springs and the Cave and Basin. During the winter carnival a programme of swimming events is arranged for various championships.

The sleigh dog races also provide an interesting part of the festivities.

The beautiful Bow River, swift and turbulent in summer, remains during the entire winter a solid block of ice. Here the curling rink and the natural skating rink have been enclosed and fancy skating and hockey form one of the chief sports.

Beautiful Banff is situated at the gateway of Canada's great National Park. It is a place which, summer or winter, provides for those whose lives are otherwise cast in busy cities, a wonderful rest among the hills, which stand as silent sentinels and spell that peace which passeth understanding.

The Story of "DO AND DARE"

Blonde, with cheery eyes and a cheery disposition, Mary Lee was the one big concern of her father, Col. "Handy" Lee, post commandant of sun-baked and desolated Fort Bend. She was the pride of the camp and beloved by all.

One spring morning, Mary and two soldiers rode through the stockade gates. From a distant foothill, Yellow Crow, renegade Indian, watched them with eager eyes. Crow's chief point of hatred was the "pony soldiers" of the command and Col. Lee, who had sent him to prison for theft. There was a sinister gleam in the redskin's eyes as he saw the girl and escort leave the army confine. Three hours later Mary was Yellow Crow's prisoner.

Riding toward the post at that moment was the army chief of scouts, Kit Carson Boone, a young plainsman. Boone's quick eye caugh' sight of the two bodies of the fallen scouts. With a spark of life still left one told of the assault.

Into the desert rode the scout. He found Mary in an Indian tepee an hour later. Together they crawled to the edge of the now sleeping Indian village, and fled toward the post. The galloping hoofs aroused the Indians. Led by Crow they pursued. Many shots were fired. Sighting the stage coach they hastened toward it. Boone told the driver the Apaches were coming and, as he rode, handed the girl up to the coach passengers. An exciting ride followed. The girl was shot, but by a flying leap he managed to catch the coach and pull himself inside. A second later, an Indian's bullet killed the driver. The scout grabbed the reins and piloted the four horses to the post stockade and to safety.

The Indians attacked the stockade and Boone rode to a distant camp for reinforcements. Though wounded he then returned with three troops of cavalry and won the day.

And then it depelops that all this is but a group of incidents narrated by an old timer to a group in a corner drug store. But there was among those who listened was mild mannered Henry Boone, lineal descendant of the great scout, Kit Carson Boone. Carried away by his emotions, Henry whipped out his two revolvers and proceeded to shoot up the place. Hearing the fusillade, the sheriff came running up and then only did Henry realize what he has done. He fled, panic stricken to the desert. Into the night he rode, and sighting a camp made his way to it. As Henry came up a hooded figure arose. It proved to be Zita, a beautiful Spanish girl.

Zita and the two men with her offered Henry $1000 if he would do their bidding. Henry accepted when told that he had only to deliver a message to Francisco Cordoba, Tamale Avenue, city of Panaram, in the distant republic of that name, and at dawn he was off in an airplane.

Near midnight on the outskirts of Panaram, the airplane descended for repairs. Federal soldiers pounced upon Boone and dragged him to a cell where his packet was taken. Zita's message told of a conspiracy. The rebels were to mass near an old ruined mission, she said and attack the city at midnight.

A firing squad at daylight took Henry out for execution. In the midst of proceedings an air plane dropped a bomb. It threw the soldiers into confusion, during which the pilot came near the ground. Henry seized a rope hanging from the air machine and was pulled to safety. Later he wandered back to the city and sought safety.

Rebel soldiers mistook Henry for the girl's brother, and he said he would go with them, thus giving the brother time to escape. Later, when Henry was about to be released, Zita entered. "There," she hissed, pointing to Henry, "is the traitor."

Henry was ordered shot, but in a dramatic turn of events he routs some approaching rebels and everything ends happily.

The Way It Felt

Little Johnny, aged six had been to church, and had displayed more than usual interest in the sermon, in which the origin of Eve had been dwelt on at some length.

On his return from service, there being guests at dinner, he had also displayed a good deal of interest in the eatables, especially the pie and cakes.

Some time afterwards, being missed, he was found sitting quietly in a corner with his hands pressed tightly over his ribs, and an expression of awful anxiety on his face.

"Why, what on earth is the matter?" asked his mother in alarm.

"Mamma, I'm afraid I'm going to have a wife," little Johnny replied.

School Inspectors Report

Covers School Year 1922-1923; Close on 70 Schools With 136 Teachers

The Public Schools report issued by the Department of Education for the year 1922-1923 contains the following from Inspectorate No. 14, under the supervision of Mr. V. Z. Manning, inspector. As will be seen the territory embraced is a large one and includes practically all classes of school condition found anywhere, from the large graded city school to the ungraded, one-roomed school.

Mr. Manning's report reads as follows:

"The boundaries of this inspectorate remained unchanged during the year. It extends from Sandon and Willow Point on the west to the Interprovincial boundary, and from Cooper Creek at the northern end of Kootenay Lake and Larchwood school at Skookumchuck southward to the International boundary. Included in its limits are the city schools of Cranbrook, Fernie and Kaslo, with forty-five teachers, and sixty-one rural and assisted schools with ninety-one teachers.

To care for an ever increasing school population two teachers were added to the Cranbrook staff and an additional room was opened in each of the Elko, Kimberley, Wardner and Yahk schools. The Roosville school, which had been closed for two years, was reopened. The Curzon school did not open as there were not sufficient children available. In Fernie and Cranbrook the School Boards were unable to find suitable temporary accommodation until permanent additions were ready for use, and it was necessary to put classes on the "double shift" plan, the former city having six such classes and the latter four. But in both cities the ratepayers realized the advantage of having good buildings, and with the opening of school in September 1923, ample accommodation was available for full time instruction. In the Michel school district the accommodation was not only insufficient but the two four-roomed buildings were in a very dilapidated state of repair. In McGuire Assisted School District, now Grasmere, the ratepayers have built a modern school of which they might well be justly proud. New standard schools built by the department at Wynndel and Willow Point have been much appreciated.

All schools were inspected during the year, and with the exception of the Fernie schools I was able to make two inspections. A few of the ungraded schools received a third visit. As the supply of qualified teachers was more plentiful, the number with temporary certificates was greatly reduced. Even the fully qualified teachers are realizing more and more the necessity of "refresher" courses, and each year larger numbers of them are taking advantage of the summer courses offeared by the Department at Victoria and Vancouver. It is pleasing to note the improvement in the teaching of those who have availed themselves of this instruction.

Entrance examinations were held at seven centers. If we are to judge the year's work by the pass list, the results must be considered as satisfactory. Of those writing the examination 60 per cent. were successful. A feature of this work was the splendid showing made by the rural schools where, although much handicapped, a large percentage of the candidates were successful in qualifying for admission to high school.

In the competition for excellence in physical training the prize for large graded schools was awarded to Division 4 of the Fernie school, taught by Mr. G. H. Stocks. The prize for small graded schools was awarded to Division 1 of the Sandon school, taught by Mr. E. B. Broome. In the ungraded schools the prize went to the Hosmer school, where Miss A. L. Kerr was the teacher.

During the year I was able to test 200 pupils with intelligence tests, the two forms used being the Otis Group Intelligence Scale and the National. The results proved most interesting to the principals, teachers and myself. An effort was also made to assist the Faculty of Education of the University of Toronto in compiling Canadian scores for the Ayers' Spelling List. Over thirty thousand words were given to 2,000 pupils of the city and rural schools of this inspectorate. Up to the present the results of this research work in spelling are not available.

Dog Derby Plans:—Teams are in training and extensive preparations are being made for the holding on March 11 of the seventh annual Dog Derby at The Pas, Manitoba. Special carnival features are being arranged and accommodation will be provided for the visitors. A carnival queen contest is adding to the interest in this annual event.

Buffalo Meats on Trains:—Buffalo tongues, tails and steaks are being served on Canadian National diners on transcontinental trains, the company having contracted for the entire supply of tongues and tails from animals slaughtered at Wainwright buffalo Park. Buffalo steaks and roasts are being served in hotels of the Canadian National system.

NATIVE SONS URGE PROPER RECOGNITION AS CANADIANS

Pass Resolution Accordingly Which Will Be Forwarded To Ottawa

At the last regular meeting of the local branch of the Native Sons of Canada an important resolution was put through which has been despatched to Hon. W. L. McKenzie King and other assemblies of the Order for endorsation. The resolution reads:

"Whereas Canada has by its admission to membership in the League of Nations acquired the status of a nation within the Empire:

"And whereas it is recognized by international law that a person born within the jurisdiction of a nation is a native and national of that nation;

"And whereas it is in the best interests of the spiritual and material growth of Canada as a nation and a unit of the Empire that Canadian birth and nationalism should be fostered to the end that pride of country should be foremost in the minds of the native born and to those admitted to the privilege of Canadian citizenship;

"And whereas though the Census and Statistics Act requires at the taking of each census that the population shall be classified by nationality and race, etc., it has in the past been the practice of the Department with the duty of taking the census to deny the right of one born within Canada to classify himself as a Canadian national and of Canadian descent by reason of his birth within Canada;

"And whereas this practice is detrimental to the creation of a true Canadian national spirit and in effect proclaims to the nations of the world that the Government does not recognize Canada as a nation;

"Therefore be it resolved that this Assembly of Native Sons of Canada, No. 22, of Cranbrook, B.C., place itself on record as protesting to the government of Canada against the practice of not recognizing those born in Canada as Canadians when enumerating the regular census;

"And furthermore be it resolved that we respectfully petition the Honorable the Premier of Canada, the Rt. Hon. W. L. McKenzie King, that the regulations of the Census Bureau and of the Vital Statistics Branch be so altered as to have in future all native born residents of Canada enumerated and recorded as Canadians;

"And be it further resolved that the Secretary forward this resolution to the Grand Secretary requesting his co-operation in securing the endorsation of it by all other assemblies as soon as possible."

FERNIE GIRLS TAKE LONG END OF SCORE IN GAME WITH LOCALS

Win Out Saturday Last By a Score of 7 to 4 in Fast Encounter

Though beaten by the Fernie Ladies' Basketball team, the Cranbrook representatives have every reason to be proud of the game they put up against their more experienced opponents. The local girls have been organized but a short time and have had only three weeks of practice. Being without a second team also makes it difficult to develop the fine points needed. Cranbrook played the same five players through the three periods wheras the Fernie team had spare players. This was of course an advantage. Both teams were guilty of unintentional fouling, which for beginners is hard to avoid. Three periods of ten minutes each were played. In the first period the Fernie team got a field goal and a foul shot while Cranbrook succeeded in getting a field goal, making the score 3-2. The second period was fast and was in favor of Cranbrook as far as tries were concerned, but they could not make them count. Neither side scored during this period. The third period was a fast one, Fernie getting two field goals and Cranbrook one, making the score 7-4.

It is expected that the local girls will play a return game at Fernie in the near future.

Mr. George Auld of Fernie, manager of the team, accompanied the girls and engineered the game form the side lines The lineups were as follows:

Fernie		Cranbrook
Peggy Paterson	Center	Annie Moir
Helen DeCew	Forwards	E. Anderton
Edna Johnson		Nora Heme
C. Mercer	Guards	M. Barton
L. Corbet		Jane Wolfe
E. Nicholson	Spares
E. Bean

After the game the visitors were entertained at a dance at which a most enjoyable time was had. Tempting refreshments were also served.

B.C. WILL GAIN ONE SEAT UNDER THE REDISTRIBUTION BILL

Total Seats in Dominion House Will Be Increased From 235 to 245

Ottawa:—Under the new Redistribution Bill which is called for by the last census, there will be 245 members instead of 235 as at present. The gain will go to the west, while one eastern province, Nova Scotia, unless an amendment is made to the British North America Act, will lose. British Columbia will gain one member and will have fourteen members; Alberta will have sixteen, an increase of four; Saskatchewan will have twenty-one, a gain of five, and Manitoba seventeen a gain of two. Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and the Yukon remain unchanged, with 82, 65, 11, 4 and 1 respectively. Nova Scotia, under the existing law loses two seats and will have fourteen members.

The next session will probably be the last before an election, and redistribution must be dealt with.

LECTURE ON TUBERCULOSIS

is another cause. Small globules of spray suspended in the air contain many of these germs, which are inhaled by anyone in the vicinity. Direct sunlight will destroy them in a few hours and daylight in a few days, but poorly lighted factories are favorable to their existence.

A Few Symptoms

Tiredness, loss of weight, a dry hacking cough, nervous instability, rapid pulse, slight temperature in the morning, below normal, in the afternoon, above; chronic indigestion is also a sign, while a persistent cough, hoarseness, or recurring colds should be looked into. Hemorrhage however slight, and pleurisy are sure signs of the disease. Ninety per cent. of hemorrhages are tubercular while about the same percentage of cases of pleurisy are tubercular.

There has been great progress made along preventive lines. Care should be taken to guard against reactivation of the germs. People should guard against overstrain, overwork and overworry in fact any overindulgence of whatever kind.

The early infection can be lessened by careful inspection of all cows. This is now being generally done and the people are demanding it. People with the active disease have to be taught to properly take care of the sputum. If this were done the disease could be wiped out in two decades. The death rate from tuberculosis is gradually being reduced. It is most important that all sh uld cover their mouth when they cough and those infected with the germ should carry a gauze or other cloth in which to cough and which could be destroyed.

People should not delay going to Sanitariums as three times the number can be taken care of in the early stages than in the more advanced.

Children should not be kissed or fondled by persons witl the disease.

A Message of Hope

The great majority of the cases taken early are cured. One may have to take more rest and forego some pleasures. Early infection does not produce active disease, but if they are active they can be cured if taken in time. This is where the value of a school nurse comes in, to follow up such cases. Cancer and goitre are close seconds and should also have early diagnosis. In early youth goitres are not particularly harmful. If it develops serious symptoms it should be looked after.

The death rate from tuberculosis in Saskatchewan in 1911 was 43 per 100,000; in B.C., 79, and 87 in the whole dominion. The deaths in the Dominion were 7,900.

At the conclusion of the address Mr. Fink thanked the speaker for his very interesting and valuable lecture, and also complimented the Women's Institute for their activities along these lines and for arranging for the lecture that they had listened to. A A hearty vote of thanks was given the speaker and the Institute.

Passion Players Awe-Struck But Unaffected Amid New York's Glitter

From the valley of Oberammergau, in Bavaria, where their lives are molded to the character they aspire to portray in "The Passion Play" (produced every 10 years) has come a small band of wood carvers to sell their wares, all returns to help feed their starving women and children. It is their first trip away from their valley. Though awe-struck and marvelling at the life and glitter of New York, they refuse to be moved from their simple Christian thinking and ways of living. Heading the group is Anton Lang, who is the present Christus, having portrayed Jesus in the last three productions, his brother Andrea Lang Peter, and Guido Mayr, Judas.

Hockey enthusiasts were given a good, fast, clean game to watch on Sunday last. From the first hit-off to the finish it proved interesting. First blood went to the Cranbrook men, who scored two points before Kimberley got started. However, when they did get started the handicap only proved an incentive for better play, and when the final whistle blew Kimberley had won with a score of 6-5. Such enthusiasm was shown by the supporters that a special train was chartered for Wednesday evening's game in Cranbrook.

I'll meet you at the Club Cafe, Cranbrook. 35tf

The Kimberley Curling Association was represented at the Cranbrook bonspiel by two rinks. The curlers were R. Crerar, E. G. Montgomery, E. James, E. S. Shannon, E. Marsden, D. L. Thompson, A. Higgins and Wm. Poole.

SELKIRK LEAGUE BONSPIEL PLAYED IN POOR WEATHER

Kimberley Rink Captures Cosmopolitan Trophy; Other Two Events to Homers

The curlers were not very fortunate in their choice of dates for the Selkirk District Bonspiel, or perhaps they had displeased the weather man, for he served up about as poor a sample of January curling weather as it would be possible to imagine. A sheet of water covered the ice during the entire spiel, making the playing anything but satisfactory. It was a good deal of throw the rock and trust to luck. The finals were reached Tuesday evening. In the Gault, Crerar of Kimberley and Cameron of Cranbrook were in the finals, the trophy going to the former.

In the Grand Challenge McPhee and Halcrow were the contenders, the former carrying away the cup, while the Cosmopolitan was won by Crerar of Kimberley. Two rinks from Kimberley skipped by Montgomery and Crerar, two from Bull River, skipped by Messrs. McGrath and Douglas, with twelve Cranbrook rinks, were in the bonspiel.

After the conclusion of the spiel the curlers repaired to the Hotel Cranbrook where a banquet was enjoyed.

For the new Bowness Trophy, Bull River becomes the first holders, two games being played between the Kimberley and Bull River rinks. McGrath of Bull River beat Crerar of Kimberley 9 to 3, and Douglas of Bull River beat Montgomery of Kimberley 12 to 9.

WYCLIFFE NOTES

Bert Sang, disciple of our lady nicotine, spent an hour or two in Wycliffe on Tuesday, exhibiting a fine line of pipes, tobaccos and persuasion.

Lloyd Crowe came out of the woods to pose in the nets for Cranbrook during the hockey game in that city last Wednesday evening, incidentally covering himself with glory.

A number of Wycliffe people attended the curlers ball in Cranbrook on Friday ught last and are giving evidence of satisfaction at the evening's enjoyment afforded by the patrons of "the roarin' game." The local contingent included Ivan Johnson, Pete Franzen, Walter Staples, Bert Johnson and Bruno Bourgeois.

A hockey game was scheduled to take place on the local rink last Friday night, bringing together the Sawdust Leaguers and the Cranbrook Rinkrats. However, the Cranbrook team had to keep a date on their own league schedule and were unable to make the trip, nevertheless the evening was not wasted, for on being communicated with, the Lumberton club agreed to bring their team for the game; and some game it was. Between the noise of battle, and Fred Hunter rooting for Lumberton most of the snow slid off the dry-shed roof. The score stood 4-4 at full time and an overtime period had to be played to decide the issue, which proved to be in favor of Lumberton, the final score being 5-4. Nearly all the players did a star turn on the ice so it would be difficult to pick out the shining lights; even one of the goal umpires, craving attention, did a little interpretative dance suggesive of a nigger with the spring halt. Good feeling prevailed throughout the game and it is to be hoped that a return game will be played at the neighboring lumber center in the near future.

More than the usual number of Wycliffe hockey fans went to Kimberley, Sunday night for the league fixture and were rewarded by a good fast game, witnessing the unusual sight of a badly crippled team, Cranbrook having but two regular players on the lineup, and no subs, carrying the fight throughout the game, against the usual strength of the opposing team, and losing out by only one goal; in short, a mighty fine performance, and hardly expected. Indeed, most who witnessed the game agree that had it not been for the sterling work of Peever in goal for Kimberley, the score would have had a different appearance.

Lloyd Crowe turned in a classy performance in front of the strings at Kimberley, Sunday night, particularly in the second period, when he was forced to strike an attitude of prayer time and again in order to protect his citadel.

Dick Whitehead is the latest casualty in hockey circles, having met misfortune in the shape of a cracked rib. We hope that he will soon be in the Cranbrook lineup again, representing the home town in his usual effective style.

Rev. F. V. Harrison conducted service in the English church, Thursday evening. After the service a vestry meeting was held and the following church officials appointed: Vicar's warden, Mr. C. O. Staples; people's warden, Mr. J. S. Staples; Sec.-treas., R. E. Trew; church committee: Mrs. C. O. Staples, Mrs. Chas. Johnson, Mrs. W. J. Cox, Mrs. R. E. Trew, and Mr. J. A. Yager.

Harbor Record:—Vancouver harbor created a new record for deep sea shipping on January 12 with 34 deep sea ships at anchor at wharves loading for all the world. Six of the ships were loading cargoes of wheat for the orient and ten for full cargoes to Europe. The remainder took part wheat and general or full cargoes of lumber to various parts of the globe.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Insure with Beale & Elwell. 49-50

R. P. Moffatt has taken over the agency for the Willis Symphony Gramophone.

At Yahk a few days ago two Airedale dogs chased a deer down off the mountains into the C.P.R. yard fence where it had to be killed by a couple of citizens.

Miss Bessie Woodman left on Sunday to return to Corbin, where she will resume her work on the teaching staff at Corbin, B.C.

"TRIAL BY JURY," Friday & Saturday, February 1st and 2nd. 46-48

Mr. Fred Woodland arrived back in the city last week to spend a few days with his mother and sisters here. He was accompanied by his bride, who was formerly Miss Kathleen Babbitt, the wedding taking place in Vancouver on Tuesday, the 22nd inst. Mr. and Mrs. Woodland left on Monday for Golden where they are making their home.

Cranbrook has made the first of its annual pilgrimages to Fernie in an attempt to uproot the Fleshman Cup which has been ornamenting the coal city now for several years. Each year hope beats high in the breasts of the Cranbrook curlers as their champions hie forth to Fernie bent on bringing back the trophy, but their hopes have never been rewarded yet. On Saturday W. F. Cameron with a doughty rink, consisting of N. A. Wallinger, lead; Jno. Martin, second, and A. Graham third, lost out against Herchmer's rink by one point in an extra end, 14 to 13, but D. A. Burton playing the other game with Kastner lost out 18 to 8, the series thus going to Fernie. The second rink was made up of D. A. Burton, skip; Robinson, third; F. W. Burgess, second and Jack Taylor lead.

B. Keer, a St. Marys Prairie farmer of Cranbrook, was a business visitor here on Thursday last, and during his stay made the purchase of six head of Holstein cattle from C. O. Rodgers, part of the dairy herd he is wintering on the former W. V. Jackson ranch.—Creston Review.

The Rebekah Lodge held a very enjoyable sleigh ride on Wednesday evening, when two sleigh loads started out from the Auditorium and went out over the Lumberton road for a few miles, with all the customary musical and unmusical accompaniments of such occasions. The snow was melting pretty fast, but there was enough remaining to make good going. At the conclusion of the sleigh ride a dance was enjoyed at the Auditorium, Robinson's Orchestra providing the music. A bean supper was served at midnight, along with other appetizing refreshments for which the Rebekahs have made a name for themselves, and it was after 2 o'clock before the happy crowd dispersed.

The Burns' Nicht curlers' dance on Friday night last proved the same big success it always is, and the big crowd of dancers could not all get on the floor at once. There were the customary appropriate decorations, and the front of the platform was edged with the various curling trophies. Robinson's four piece orchestra was in attendance, supplying the best of music from the time the dance opened till the day was almost breaking, when the "Home, Sweet Home" waltz came. The event opened with the grand march to the music of the pipes played by Alan Graham, and interspersed in the dances were a number of interesting items, including a highland fling, danced very prettily and effectively by Miss Marguerite Caven and the two younger Misses Home. There was also a genuine Scotch reel, danced by four real exponents of this dance which is still so strongly in vogue in the land o' the heather, and the Scottish schottische, which was essayed just as energetically, if not quite as gracefully, by some onlookers. W. F. Cameron, in the regulation kilts, made a fine looking Scotch master of ceremonies, even if he didn't have the brogue that ought to have gone with the costume. Delightful refreshments had been provided by the committee in charge, this essential part of the proceedings greatly adding to the pleasure of the evening.

After an absence of seven weeks in Eastern Canada and the United States, W. F. Attridge returned to Cranbrook Tuesday last after having spent one grand and glorious time among friends and relatives in the cent belt. "Bill" says he never imagined he had so many relatives. He should remember, however, that the last time he was back he was merely a groom whereas this time he was a daddy. Besides visiting at his old home in Hamilton, Ontario, and Mrs. Attridge's home in Pittsburg, stops were made at Toronto, St. Catherines, Thorold, and Chatham, Ontario. A two days stay was made to see the sights of Chicago, and here, besides gazing at the tall buildings, time was found to attend a Rotarian luncheon where 400 members sat around the festive board. At Hespeler, Ontario, Mr. Attridge had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Francis and Mrs. Leigh, parents of Earle and Bill Leigh of this city. Mr. Attridge is telling a good story about some country cousins, ask him about it. Mrs. Attridge and Miss Mary Louise will not be returning until March.

Hemstitching.—Mrs. Surtees, Garden Avenue. 2tf

Fernie skips are lining up rinks for the district bonspiel, which takes place at Lethbridge, opening on the 4th February. There will probably be six rinks from Fernie, two from Cranbrook and two from Natal to represent British Columbia. — Fernie Free Press.

In connection with the recent suit of Drs. Garner & Asselstine against the city of Fernie, in which the doctors were successful in collecting from the city a sum of about $2800, money received from the government as liquor profits, the city has just paid a legal bill for $436.26, the cost of their defence.

"TRIAL BY JURY," Friday & Saturday, February 1st and 2nd. 46-48

Some people at least can claim to be lucky with raffle tickets. C. A. Towriss on Saturday night won with a ticket that cost him 18c a new saxophone worth about $250, formerly the property of R. L. Burtch, and raffled for among the Oddfellows. Coal will now be sold to music.

Rev. E. W. McKay of Cranbrook, is expected to arrive on Saturday and assume charge on Sunday evening of the united Methodist-Presbyterian special meetings in the latter church which will continue throughout next week. The attendance each evening this week has been quite encouraging. —Creston Review.

Another program of special music is to be given at the Methodist evening service next Sunday by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. F. G. Novak. The numbers will be: Anthem, "There is a Holy City," (Shelley); Solo, "The Plains of Peace," Mrs. H. C. Kinghorn; Solo. "Shadows," Miss A. McCarthy.

On Tuesday evening at the K. P. Hall the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Cranbrook Co-Operative Society was held. A fairly good attendance had the financial statement explained to them, and the feeling was that there was every room for encouragement, especially on the showing being made under the present manager. The meeting was followed by a dance, the music for which was provided by the Edmonson orchestra. Refreshments were also served.

"TRIAL BY JURY," Friday & Saturday, February 1st and 2nd. 46-48

Word has been received from R. L. Burtch that he had arrived at his destination, Douglas, Arizona, after making short stops at Spokane, Portland, Sacramento, Los Angeles and other points, and that he had stood the long journey well. Mr. Burch was given a hearty send-off last week when he left, by the Rebekah Follies, who made him the recipient of a substantial remembrance in the form of a gold watch chain. His brother Oddfellows are also taking steps to give to him some token of their esteem with an appropriate gift. Bro. Burtch having just completed his term as Noble Grand of the local lodge.

At the last meeting of the Fernie city council the customary temporary loan by-law was introduced, for the purpose of financing till the revenue from taxes is available. Fernie finds it necessary to borrow from the Imperial Bank for this purpose the sum of $57,000 Following the passage of the bylaw, Mayor Henderson stated that it was a crime that such a by-law should have to be brought into effect, when the councils of the past four years had worked hard to bring the city into the strong financial position it held previous to the Home Bank fiasco. Nowithstanding the enormous expenditure during the year 1923, when the council had replaced the wooden water main with up-to-date cast iron pipe, there would have been a small credit balance in the bank had it not been for the "Home Bank steal."

The cup presented by A. C. Bowness for competition among the Selkirk district curling clubs arrived last week-end, and was at the store of A. E. Leigh, through whom it was procured, where the curlers cast many admiring looks upon it. The trophy stands upon an oak base, and is sixteen inches in height. It represents a miniature curling rock with handle balanced on four brooms, and these in turn stand over a minature tee, with a rock right on the button. On the side of the larger rock which forms the cup part of the trophy, is a handsome engraved design of Scotch thistles, and the base of the trophy bears some maple leaves and beavers worked into an appropriate design, as national emblems. Bull River rinks are the first holders of the handsome trophy, and it was presented to them on Tuesday evening at the banquet. The presentation of this trophy, which has quite a substantial intrinsic value, is another sign of the wholehearted interest which the donor has always taken in the great winter game.

Though not attended as largely as had been hoped for, nor as prerartion had been made for, the sum of about fifty dollars resulted from the tea and sale of home cooking held by the Parent-Teacher Association at the K. P. Hall on Saturday afternoon last. The teachers had made very thorough preparations for the event, and had been assisted ably by some interested officers and members of the Association, and while the proceeds will go a good way towards providing the lantern which it is sought to provide for the schools it had been hoped that more would have manifested an interest in the work of the association by attending.

Saturday evening the Mission had a lively blaze when the shops where the gasoline and oil are stored went up in smoke. It appears that two boys went to get some oil and used matches to find what they wanted. This started the place on fire but the boys got out all right. A barrel filled with gasoline was adjacent to the building and became so hot that fears were held that it would blow up, with dire results. A rifle was obtained and several shots were put through the steel container thus relieving the pressure, and incidentally making a pretty blaze.
