Now Forming Amateur Body

Meeting Monday Evening Appoints Officers; Take Up Matter of Ice for Hockey

At a largely attended meeting of citizens at the city hall on Monday evening to consider the matter of the formation of a branch of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada and to take up the question of providing accomodation for skating and hockey playing for the coming winter, the former was accomplished and action started with regard to the latter.

The meeting appointed Mr. G. T. Moir as chairman and Miss Della Drummond as secretary pro tem.

The chairman then outlined briefly the objects of the meeting as already stated, pointing out different reasons for the necessity thereof. He referred to a letter from Dr. Davidson in which the latter recommended that a branch of the Association be formed in Cranbrook and that said branch by resolution decide as to whether they desired to come under the B.C. or the Alberta jurisdiction. It was pointed out that belonging to or coming as they do at present under the Alberta jurisdiction the hockey team would not be eligible for competition for the McBride cup. With the object of the formation of such a branch, he suggested that nominations for officers be called for. Rev. E. W. McKay strongly urged the formation of such a branch, pointing out the success of the efforts of those backing amateur baseball as well as the results shown by the amateur hockey team last season warranted such action. The meeting accordingly elected the following executive: President W. M. Harris; Vice-president, Dr. Huffman; Sec. Treas. G. T. Moir. Executive: Miss E. B. Paterson, Miss Della Greaves, J. F. Scott, F. Constantine, J. M. Clark.

It was then moved by W. M. Harris, seconded by Dr. Huffman, that the Cranbrook branch of the A. A. A. make application for affiliation with the B. C. branch of the association rather than the Alberta branch and that copies of the resolution be sent to the secretaries of the Alberta and B.C. branches. This was carried unanimously.

Following this peaceful consideration and happy conclusion, came the discussion as to the providing of ice for the hockey and skating this winter, which proved more turbulent. It was quite evident that the action of the council in granting the rink to the curlers did not meet with the approval of the majority of those present, there being no mincing of matters by some in regard to their opinions. Mr. Moir read the original by-law authorizing the purchase of the rink showing that the rink was secured for the purpose of skating, hockey and other athletic purposes. In answer to a question by Miss F. Drummond it was learned that it would cost $5,000 to provide extra accomodation for curling at the rink. Some were of the opinion that hockey had never paid and that the council were therefor justified in taking the action they had in renting it to the curlers. Others pointed out that the curlers having had no authorized representative there the council should have consented to the two weeks deferring of the consideration, and that hockey had not been given a fair deal. Mr. Salter felt that the question of the expenditure of $1000 should not stand in the way of providing adequate facilities for the amusement of the young people. Mr. Grubbe, as a member of the curling club felt that he was voicing the opinion of the curlers when he said that it was his wish to see that the desires for skating and hockey were obtained. He showed that on an estimated cost of $5,000 the interest and other fixed charges necessary to retire a debenture issue large enough to provide that amount would be about $500 per year. He recommended that the curlers and hockey players get together and obtain some estimates as to the cost of a suitable addition to the rink for the use of the curlers, and that the council be approached and their sanction obtained for the presentation of a plebiscite to the people authorizing this expenditure and that the skaters and hockeyists guarantee the $500 per year.

Acting along these lines the following amendment by Mr. Salter and W. H. Wilson to a motion by A. D. Bridges and F. Constantine was carried:

That the present executive of the Cranbrook branch of the A.A.A. of C. be a delegation to interview the curlers and the council with a view to providing accomodation for winter sport. The motion called for the naming of a committee.

It was felt by some present that

SUBSTANTIAL GIFT MADE TO POPULAR MEMBER OF G.W.V.A.

Mr. W. Johns Made Recipient of Handsome Gift From Comrades

On Saturday evening after the regular monthly business meeting of the G.W.V.A. an enjoyable smoker was held by "the boys." An impromptu program was arranged consisting of songs, recitations and story telling, all of which were most thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The choruses were sung with a vim reminding many of the old days at the canteens.

The most important item however, on the program was the presentation of a very nice token of friendship from the members to Mr. Bill Johns, the popular steward of the G.W.V.A. Major Hicks, who was called upon to make the presentation of a Brunswick gramophone, paid excellent tribute to the service of Mr. Johns to the organization and stated that while the unqualified success of the organization could not be credited to any particular individual entirely he felt that its success must be attributed in a very large measure to the valuable services rendered the association by Mr. Johns. It gave him therefore very much pleasure to present him on behalf of the boys with the Brunswick gramophone as a slight token of their appreciation of his services to the association as well as serving as a little present to mark the big event in which their worthy steward had so lately been a participant. Mr. Johns made a suitable reply in accepting, thanking his friends for their thoughtfulness and only wished that Mrs. Johns could have been present to share with him the pleasure that the occasion afforded. He had only done what he thought was consistent with playing the game square. It was indeed very gratifying to hear all the good things that were being said about the Cranbrook branch of the G.W.V.A. practically from coast to coast and that so long as the boys stayed behind him he had no doubt but the future would be marked with the same measure of success as had the past. During the evening refreshments were served, which added much to the enjoyment of the affair.

At the meeting held previous to the smoker it was decided that the association in accordance with the suggestion from Dominion headquarters would deposit wreaths in a suitable place in each of the churches in the city on Armistice Sunday.

J. Maitland, of Winnipeg, Man., the western representative of International Proprietaries, of Atlanta, Georgia, U.S.A., manufacturers of the well known Tanlac, was in the city early this week on one of his periodical trips through his big territory. He has been checking up Tanlac sales all over the west and finds the volume of business still being maintained. Over thirty-eight million bottles of Tanlac have now been sold, representing a retail sales value of just about that many dollars, in the short time that Tanlac has been on the market. The company has now established a plant in South America and plans are now being considered to extend the field of operations to Great Britain and Ireland, as well as Australia.

REBEKAHS ATTEND ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE ON SUNDAY

Sunday evening a number of the members of Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge attended the annual memorial service in the Methodist church when Rev. B. C. Freeman preached a very appropriate sermon. He selected as a text for his remarks the 16th verse of the first chapter of Ruth. He read, 'Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee, for whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge, thy people shall be my people, and thy God, my God.' These words of Ruth pledging herself to remain with her mother-in-law in her hours of adversity remain for all time the expression of the utmost devotion to faithful friendship.

To the Rebekahs he said in part: The story figuring as it does largely in your ritual is of extreme importance showing as it does the allegiance of the Moabitish woman to the Jewish race from whence springs David and afterwards Jesus.

"The first chapter of the book is of much importance as it delineates the character of Ruth, an ancestor of Jesus.

"Other watch-words of the lodge, Fellowship, Love and Truth form a mighty chain in the linking of God and humanity. They are beautiful in conception, mighty because they bring into life the only divinity that we know, all we know of God being summed up in these three words.

"Friendship is sympathy, it is that willingness to go out of one's way to take up the burden of another.

"In the great cathedral of St. Peters one passes amazed from under one vault to another still higher till great central arch or vaut is reached which seems but the ceiling of heaven itself. So the vault of friendship leads on to the vaster arches of love, built on sacrifice. There is nothing that the human heart dreads so as loneliness."

These were but a few of the many beautiful thoughts thrown out by the speaker.

During the offertory the choir rendered a very pleasing anthem."

A score or more of the Rebekahs attended the service, gathering at the Auditorium and marching in a body to the church.

MOTORISTS URGED TO ADHERE TO PROPER TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

At Saturday's police court no less than eight automobilists of Cranbrook and the surrounding district appeared to answer charges of operating without the necessary lights lit after the hour of sunset. Several appeared to answer charges of contravening the traffic regulations, such as cutting the corners and driving on the left side of the street.

As a police official expresses it, it is regrettable to have to take such action, but the carelessness of the motoring fraternity renders it such that mere cautioning has no effect.

With the advent of the dark winter evenings particular care should be taken that the lights are in good condition, as it is most unfair to pedestrians and to the motoring public, several serious accidents being directly attributable to the neglect of proper illumination.

Spectacular Blaze On Cranbrook St.

Old Steam Laundry Building Is Scene of Blaze on Thursday Evening; Cause Unknown

Fire Chief Adams had the biggest blaze to contend with since his appointment on Thursday evening when fire broke out in the big frame structure on Cranbrook Street occupied many years ago by the Steam Laundry. The building was owned by Thos. Doris, and had not been used for a good while, till this summer it was rented by T. E. Austin of the Model Dairy for use to store his winter hay.

How the fire started has not yet been determined, but when the alarm was turned in shortly before seven o'clock the fire was well under way on the inside, and the brigade was handicapped in finding it difficult to get to the seat of the trouble with a hose line. The dry timbers burnt readily, and as the hay caught clouds of extremely dense smoke made the work of fighting the fire that much more difficult. A third hose line was brought into use, but the fact that some of the walls were insulated with sawdust made it difficult to attack the flames from the outside. After the south end of the roof collapsed and the fire opened up, the work of the firemen began to tell, and the three streams of water got the mastery. By dark the fire was well under control, though the smouldering hay was turned over and played upon well into the night to make sure the blaze was out. Fortunately the night was still, or the menace to nearby property, including the Sash and Door factory across the track, and many smaller buildings close at hand, would have been considerable.

Mr. Doris carried insurance with Martin Bros, for $1,500 on the building, which would not represent half its value, and Mr. Austin is thought to have carried insurance on the five cars of hay which were put into the building.

The spectacular blaze drew a large crowd of onlookers to the scene, the fire being the biggest in the city since the Van Horne Street warehouse fire two winters ago.

"Buster" Huffman returned on Thursday last from Priest River, Idaho, where he has been employed for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Martin and Mayor and Mrs. W. F. Cameron are expected to return home tomorrow, Friday, from an auto trip to the Coast.

On Thursday, October 11th, Cranbrook will have a visit from the Rt. Rev. John Cragg Farthing, Lord Bishop of Montreal. The distinguished visitor will address a meeting in the Parish Hall, in the evening at 8 p.m.

Mrs. H. A. McKowan left on Friday last to be present at the triennial meeting of the Canadian Women's Press Association, the Vancouver sessions of which were concluded on Wednesday evening of this week, Mrs. McKowan being a member of the association.

BAPTIST CHURCH TO COMPLETE CHANGES BY OCTOBER 21st

Work on the improvements at the Baptist church has advanced to such a stage that the date has now been set for the re-opening and dedicatory services. This will take place on Sunday October 21st. As the meeting of the Kootenay Baptist Synod is to convene here on the 23rd, at which it is expected Rev. H. H. Bingham, of the First Baptist church of Calgary will be present, efforts are being made to secure Mr. Bingham for the Sunday services.

Mr. Bingham was a delegate to the conference of Baptists which was recently concluded at Stockholm, at which there were forty nationalities represented.

On Wednesday afternoon the children of the Baptist Sunday School gathered in the new school room, where a "junior church building fund" supper was served by the ladies of the congregation. The affair was a very interesting one. At the time of the recent building fund contribution social held for the grown-ups of the congregation, the children were promised that at a later date they would be given a social at which they could make their offerings to the cause. At the gathering on Wednesday afternoon each child donated what they had saved, and told how the gift had been obtained. Some worked for it, and others denied themselves certain pleasures to secure it. As a result about $50.00 was added to the fund, which was considered very satisfactory.

STIRRING LECTURE ON THE "MAKING OF A NEW WORLD"

Dr. Charles H. Huestis Speaks in the Presbyterian Church on Reconstruction

In the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening Rev. Dr. Charles H. Huestis of the Lord's Day Alliance, lectured on the problems that are facing the world to-day in the process of reconstruction. It was unfortunate that more did not take advantage of the opportunity to hear this most interesting address by one who has apparently a thorough grasp of the subject he was treating.

The world war had shaken the old order of things, but unfortunately nothing much had been done since the war came to an end to put a new order in its place. Following the close of the war in 1919 the danger of trying to piece together the broken fragments of the new order of things into which we had been born, had been pointed out but had been unheeded. Various systems of government had been overthrown and never would be built up again, and systems of economics were being discredited more and more every day by the very industrial classes that they had produced. The speaker said that people were beginning to question whether or not the Japanese statesman was right when he predicted the end of civilization, and as others were saying, was civilization destined for extinction? Lloyd George, speaking before an assembly of eminent English clergymen said that civilization was cracking, and that the one thing only that could save the world was the religion of Jesus Christ. Lloyd George knew only too well what politicians had done to save it. Versailles, Washington, Geneva and the Hague were all disappointments.

The day seemed to be dawning, however, to which the New Testament prophet referred when he said "Behold I see a new heaven and a new earth." The new heaven was in God's hands and was waiting for men of a new spirit, and the evidence of a new spirit could only be seen in the effort we make to realise a new earth. The future lies with men who look to the dawn.

Browning says "God's in his heaven." What was more important to realize to-day was that God's in his world, and that only through the presence of God could a new order of things be evolved that would be successful. The trouble with the politicians of the world was that they had tried to build a new world after the pattern of the old.

The industrial magnates were thinking the old commercial system could be continued, but God was waiting for a new world, founded on a new system, and that nothing else would bring peace was at last dawning upon men. The one foundation upon which it could be built was the religion of Jesus Christ. The editor of "Life" had recently written an editorial on the subject supporting this belief, and the editors of financial papers were in accord with it. Leaders in commerce were now propounding the same doctrine, while every magazine was emphasizing the importance of religion.

There was, as it were, a new current flowing. Bodies like the Rotary club and certain lodges were centralized round a religious idea and the day was coming when men possessed of the new spirit would live a new life in the new world with religion as the pivotal point.

The speaker pointed out the duty of the church in connection with this re-awakening. At present there was an indifference that shouuld not be allowed to grow. While one does not go to church themselves they want their children to go to Sunday school. Man is incurably religious. In the new order there would be less of profit and more of service. While Germany is regarded as the cause of the war, he considered that historians would record that it was due to the failure of a false philosophy and the commercializing of human life. He claimed that politicians had made a mess of things and that it was now up to the people to save the world.

In reference to the work of the Lord's Day Alliance the speaker said that Sunday was the one day to bring to men the consciousness of God, it was the day of spiritual opportunity. The great problem to day of the English speaking world arose out of the desire to make Sunday a holiday instead of a holy day. It was striking a mortal blow to religion and civilization.

Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific and party are expected to arrive in Cranbrook on Sunday evening about midnight, and will leave for the east Monday morning. At Lethbridge the president is scheduled to address a meeting of the board of trade of that city.

Jaffray Pioneer Killed On Monday

Frank Desrosiers Loses Life When Gun Discharges While Getting Through Fence

On Monday the community was shocked to hear of another tragedy not very far from the scene of the one recorded last week. On that day Mr. Frank Desrosiers of Jaffray, lost his life in a shooting accident at his own ranch. It is learned that Mr. Desrosiers left the house soon after breakfast, about eight o'clock, on a hunt for coyotes with a gun borrowed from a neighbor. It would seem that he was getting through a fence about a hundred yards from the house, when the trigger caught, or the gun may have gone off from receiving a jar. The charge struck him at point blank range, practically blowing off the right side of his face. The body was found by a little girl hanging over the fence.

The late Mr. Desrosiers was one of the old timers in the district, coming in from Kalispel over thirty years ago. He was a highly respected rancher and at one time in the early days was engaged at the North Star mine provisioning some eighty men and supplying meat from his ranch all over the East Kootenay. Later he built a hotel on his property which was under the management of his wife and was well spoken of. Of French-Canadian descent, he was of a quiet retiring disposition, and never very often in the public eye. He had no children but an adopted daughter died in the local hospital a few years ago. Besides his wife there is left to mourn a brother, Joseph, who has been located at Kitchener. Mr. A. B. Fenwick, of Bull River, a friend of many years standing of the deceased, is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Desrosiers. At one time Mr. Desrosiers had the well known Fenwick ranch under lease and farmed there. Deceased was sixty-eight years of age.

With the untimely passing of Mr. Desrosiers is severed another link with the early days of the East Kootenay. One by one the pioneers are passing on who laid the foundations for the prosperous communities later to spring up where in their time was virgin country, and with the rest Mr. Desrosiers had done his part towards the opening up of this part of the country.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30, from the Catholic Church, Father Murphy officiating. The pall bearers were all neighbors and friends from Jaffray, Messrs. Samuel Childs, Robert Dempsey, Peter Hurry, A. K. Leitch, George Leitch, and Andrew Rosen.

Flowers were in evidence at the funeral from the following friends:

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fenwick, wreath; Mrs. R. Miller, Bull River, spray; Nieces, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Wilson, Fernie, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brault, cross; Mr. and Mrs. George Dockenson, spray; Mrs. Henderson, Jaffray, spray; Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hunter, Lumberton, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Rosen, Jaffray, spray; Mr. John Johnson, Jaffray, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Childs, Hanbury, spray; Mr. and Mrs. J. Walkley, spray; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barter, Lumberton, spray; Mrs. S. W. Brown and Miss Harris, Lumberton, spray.

ALL FREE, OR SOME FEES

The school board is understood to be approaching the matter of making a small charge against some scholars for high school tuition. The idea is not to preclude any who may desire to take the course from doing so, but only impose a small fee on those in whose cases special conditions are encountered. Many school boards in the province have gone farther than this and imposed a fee ranging up to five dollars per month per pupil for those from outside who attend a city high school. Figures will probably be available shortly to show just how many there are from outside the school district of Cranbrook who are taking advantage of the high school facilities provided by the ratepayers. In this case it may not be sufficient to warrant the levying of a fee, which undoubtedly many rural residents would consider objectionable, as discriminating against rural districts. This may be true to some extent, but it is merely one of the measures to which school boards are being forced to make both ends of swelling budgets come together. School costs have increased inordinately from causes entirely out of the control of school boards, but government assistance has not increased in proportion. The result has been to throw heavy burdens on the ratepayers in organized territory, so that many have come to look askance on any proposed expenditure on behalf of education, seeing only it means added taxation.

The government has not turned a very kindly ear to the suggestions that it assist education to a more generous extent, but the least it could do would be to see that rural children are not deprived of a high school education when neighboring city schools do not feel they can afford to extend the privilege of free attendance any longer. A per capita grant in the proper proportion would only be right to remove an undeserved reproach from some school boards.

SHOULD STILL CO-OPERATE

It is stated in some quarters there is a feeling that it would be wise, now the Banff-Windermere road had been completed, to transfer the efforts that have been made to especially popularize what is known as the Canadian circle motor tour, and bring them to bear on other routes leading up from the south. It is said that with the completion of the road there is no need for Cranbrook to take any further part in advertising it, but that attention should be turned to other channels.

This is the argument being advanced by those in favor of the Cranbrook board of trade withdrawing its support from the B.C. and Southern Alberta Tourist Association. This body has been drawing its support from the various towns and cities on the route of the circle tour, and collective advertising has been issued.

Cranbrook is happily placed where it can draw tourists from north, south, east and west. In this respect it has the advantage over other places, and tourist traffic through the city is bound to grow by every line of reasoning. Cranbrook is reaping the benefit of what advertising other localities are doing to attract the tourist, because it lies on so many lines of route. Having consistently raised its voice in unison with other towns in the district, Cranbrook cannot yet afford to attempt to crow vigorously on its own. As this city climbs to the position of tourist supremacy which people of perception see is coming, it will not be altogether due to its own efforts, but by the grace of all the places that have helped by membership in the Tourist Association to give effective advertising proper distribution. Then why turn round and scuttle the ship that has carried us so far?

A word as to the work of the Tourist Association of Southern B.C. and Alberta may be illuminating to those who have only had a hazy conception of what that body has done. If there has been any feeling that the money contributed by the different localities represented in its membership has gone for any purpose other than advertising, it can be dispelled by understanding that grants received from outside sources, such as the governments, C.P.R., and other corporations, this year, have been more than sufficient to take care of all salaries and overhead charges in connection with the undertaking, leaving the contributions made by the various boards of trade one hundred per cent. effective for publicity. It has been proved that a large proportion of the tourists who have come into this locality this season have been armed with publicity matter distributed by the Tourist Association and primed with information from the same source. With a good harvest being garnered in the Canadian west the circle tour is going to prove a popular one for the farmers of the prairie provinces next year, and would prove a good sheet anchor to center this city's publicity efforts round.

NOTES

Germany is said to have lost its second war in Europe with the abandonment of its passive resistance policy in the Ruhr district. At the same time this seems to vindicate the strong-arm method which France and Belgium have maintained in the occupied areas. "Germany can pay and will pay"—France has reiterated this diplomatically, repeatedly, and politely refers those who question it back to 1870, when Germany imposed upon France a burden which was heavier for those days than the reparations now sought are in this.

In reply to a threatened onslaught by Premier Oliver to reduce the price of gasoline in B.C., it was voluntarily dropped a very few cents at the coast. But even this drop was slow in reaching this part of the interior, and it is felt that the price in B.C. is still at a high level compared to south of the line, even considering the disparity in the volume of the gallon measures. A humorist has suggested that motorists should wean their cars from the gasoline barrels till the price comes down to the level it should.

FROM THE VIEW-POINT OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES

WHAT IS THE TOURIST TRAFFIC WORTH?

A Victoria financier estimates the value of the tourist travel to British Columbia this year at $30,000,000. With the season not half over Vancouver alone is rated as having profited to the extent of $10,000,000. No gold mine in the province ever declared such dividends.

It is not alone in the money spent by transient visitors that the benefit of tourist travel is to be reckoned. While this is an important item it is not nearly so valuable as the advertising the resources of the province in scenery and natural wealth will have as a result of the observations of visitors. In the end this must be of incalculable worth.—Vancouver World

ONCE MORE THE PUBLIC PAYS

For the settlement of the coal strike every consume of anthracite has cause to be thankful. Both sides, operators and miners, have been obliged to eat their words with what grace they could summon. It is no small victory for the consumer. Yet a succession of victories of this sort will soon or late ruin either the consumer or the anthracite industry. They are but a postponement of the day when the anthracite business must be dealt with. We have by great good fortune muddled through to a coal supply for another winter. On the other hand, we are paying for the respite and will pay more in the end for the negligence which allows a national service to degenerate into a hold-up game.—New York World.

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage last Friday, September 21, when John Andrew Rosaski of Lethbridge, Alta., was united in matrimony to Miss Rachel Davies of the same place, by Rev. B. C. Freeman. Mr. Rosaski is employed on the C.P.R. as trainman, running into Cranbrook. The Herald joins with their many friends in wishing them every possible happiness.

The theft of good linen from a clothesline one night last week at a house on the outskirts of the city would seem to indicate that the sneak-thief is still at large. A theft of this kind seems doubly contemptible, representing a real loss to the owner, and but little gain to the perpetrator.

MISS SIEGEL, ELOCUTIONIST, PRESENTS STRIKING PLAY ON MONDAY NIGHT
Well Known Monologist to Render Play Descriptive of Poor London Life

"The Dawn of a Tomorrow," the play to be presented by Miss Theresa M. Siegel on her visit to Cranbrook, on Monday, October 1st, is a wonderful portrayal of East London life. The play centers around Glad, a child of the streets and tenements, who sees sunshine behind the darkest clouds and finds happiness and contentment in the most sordid hopeless part of grim old London.

Tears and laughter mingle in the story and its sweet optimistic spirit is irresistible. It sends one away to face the world with a higher purpose and look at life through rose colored glasses. Glad is a brave, bright spirit that finds beauty in what seems ugly and hope where others would find despair. She has a keen sense of humor and her sunshiny spirit sheds its radiance over every scene.

The story is both a sermon and a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. Miss Seigel comes to Cranbrook under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society and will be assisted musically by Mrs. Forrest, Miss Wanda Fink, Miss Sarvis and Master Frank Roy.

It is stated there is a likelihood that Constable G. C. Mortimer, formerly of this city in the service of the provincial police, may return here shortly. Constable Mortimer was transferred to the Peace River district about two years ago.

VIOLA DANA STARS IN "JUNE MADNESS" SHOWING NEXT WEEK

"June Madness' is the title of the new Metro picture which comes to the Star theatre next Wednesday for two days, and it depicts the madcap adventures of a sprightly young miss, played by Viola Dana, who breaks away from her own wedding ceremony leaving a million dollar bridegroom flat and speechless.

She is chased by Mamma, friends, ushers, clergyman and relatives of the million dollar fish, but outside the church she meets a hundred dollar Jazz King and orchestra leader in his roadster. He helps her to escape from the horrors of a life of luxury. The Jazz King, played by Bryant Washburn, is no inconsiderable party himself, and makes a lot of unwilling people dance to his tune. Even the little runaway bride cannot bluff him, although he has his troubles with her. The escape is only the beginning for the complications complicate until little Miss Clytie's adventures seem without end or untanglement. The two are no sooner out of one trouble than they are in another, the only things they miss being possibly mumps and the taxes. It is a speedy story full of thrills.

There is a picturesque scene at a roadhouse, where Miss Dana does an unusual "Wedding Dance" in an unusual costume. Miss Dana's gowns, also, are a feature of the production which holds special appeal to feminine photoplay patrons.

R. E. BEATTIE, HARBOR COMMISSIONER, SAYS NO RIVALRY EXISTS

Vancouver Not Anxious to Build Up Port at Expense of East

"There is not the slightest occasion for any feeling of rivalry between the ports of Montreal and Vancouver. Each has its own part to play in the country's affairs and there is plenty of business for both," declared R. E. Beattie, commissioner for the port of Vancouver, in an interview given out at Montreal last week.

Mr. Beattie, accompanied by W. D. Harvie, secretary of the Vancouver harbor commission, has gone to Montreal to view harbor works now under construction there.

"Recent reports sent out from Vancouver to the effect that the port of Vancouver claimed to have wrested from Montreal the position of Canada's premier port, were not based on any statement by the Vancouver harbor commissioners," said Mr. Beattie. "The report as published was entirely unauthorized, and I believe was based on a misapprehension as to figures. In any case the matter is now disposed of. We are not trying to take any business away from Montreal. On the contrary we are trying to work with Montreal in building up a great Canada, by keeping the traffic of the country within its own borders. We are indebted to Montreal for the very fine support accorded us in connection with our own port developments, and I assure you that we heartily reciprocate the spirit of friendship shown us."

CABINS IN THE CLOUDS

To climb 6,875 feet above Lake Louise and to enjoy a cup of tea in delightful surroundings is one of the attractions offered visitors to Lake Louise, Alta. Tea houses on mountain peaks were unheard of a few years ago, but to-day there are at least a dozen of them situated in the Canadian Rockies.

Two of the most picturesque are the "Beehive" on the shores of Lake Agnes, about two miles and a half from the Chateau and the other a rustic log cabin on the top of Mount Fairview. Walking and pony excursions over the mountains in the vicinity of this picturesque lake are among the popular pastimes of visitors from all parts of the globe to "the lakes in the clouds."

From the "Beehive" one can get a perfect view of Mirror Lake and Lake Louise, which, with Lake Agnes, are known as "the lakes in the clouds." This cosy little tea room is owned by Miss B. Dodds and operated during the season by Miss Goddard. Its furnishings are quaint and rustic.

The foodstuffs are delivered every morning by pack pony from the Chateau Lake Louise—even fuel for the cook stoves is transported in this way.

In addition to the tea room there is an attractive assortment of antiques from various parts of the globe, collected during the winter months by Miss Dodds, who usually goes abroad.

There are many surprises of scenic beauty along the trail to the tea room, but perhaps the most interesting fact is that one can obtain a delicious cup of English tea, with equally delicious home cooking within sight and sound of whistling marmots and squirrels and chipmunks that leap from bough to bough, and often within sight of friendly bears who come close to the kitchen door in search of tasty food.

One of the most interesting trips at Lake Louise is by a narrow, winding path on Mount Fairview to Saddleback Tea Room and Rest House, which is 2,500 feet higher than the Chateau. This quaint little log cabin, situated on Mount Fairview, overlooks Saddleback Mountain, so called because of its rock formation being similar to a saddle. It takes almost two hours by pony to make the trip over a steep zigzag trail, from which can be seen winding streams and rushing brooks thousands of feet below.

This tea room and rest house, like "Beehive," is owned by Miss Dodds and operated by Miss A. E. Whyman. Its surroundings are most artistic and restful. The view of Paradise Valley and Mount Temple from the tea house is one of the finest in the Rockies.

Daily supplies of food and fuel are transported by pack ponies from the Chateau to serve approximately 25 guests a day, who are well rewarded for their journey to the "highest tea house in Canada."

There is a lively competition between the advocates of the Hope-Princeton route and the Fraser river route for the transprovincial highway and the Provincial government must soon come to a definite decision in the matter and publicly announce the result. As the best possible route for the Trans-Canada highway from the east is through the Kicking Horse canyon to Golden and on to Revelstoke, it is perfectly obvious where the connection on to the coast should be located.—Golden Star.

National Champion and Only 17

Helen Wills, 17 year old California girl, is the new National Women's Tennis Champion, defeating the seven time champion, Mrs. Molla Mallory, at New York last week, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1. Now the youthful star is returning home to take up esthetic dancing to improve her footwork upon the courts. She will not play in any more tournaments this year.

WASA NOTES

Mr. Areson is among the new arrivals in Milltown. Mr. Areson is only recently from South Africa where he was for a number of years in the service of the British government. He has travelled quite extensively in Europe, Asia and the South Seas and is now bent upon seeing North America—Canada first, coming here from Calgary in his Ford car.

Al Manning accompanied by Theodore Estabrook motored to Cranbrook on Saturday.

Mr. Defoe, who was employed at the Lovering mill as setter, left for Cranbrook and Nelson on Saturday of last week.

A social hop and entertainment was held at Ta-Ta Creek on Saturday evening last and a good time was reported. The attendance was representative of the Wasa and Ta-Ta Creek school districts.

James Barbour, motor truck driver for the Lovering Lumber Co., returned from a visit to Cranbrook and Kitchener where he spent a few days on business and pleasure.

A goodly number of the dance enthusiasts of Wasa were patrons of the dance at Fort Steele on Thursday evening last.

Miss Leese of Saskatchewan is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mannell, Milltown. Miss Leese is a niece of Mrs. Mannell.

Mr. Joe Ross, lumberman of Waldo, was a business visitor here a few days ago.

Fletcher McDonald left here on Monday of last week for Cranbrook, where he has accepted a position with Dale's bakery in that city.

"My, oh, my—Labor Day has come and gone; the last picnic day of the year. We will now have to eat our sandings indoor."

WARDNER FARMERS' INSTITUTE DISCUSSING CO-OPERATIVE EFFORT

Successful Meeting of New Body Held at Mayook on Saturday Last

(Special to the Herald)

A brisk general meeting of the newly-formed Wardner Farmers' Institute was held at Mayook on Saturday evening the 22nd inst. when the president, Mr. O. Holmes, took the chair, and some go-ahead business was put through with promptness and dispatch, which augurs well for the future of this branch.

In reporting progress of the committee on co-operative threshing, Mr. A. J. H. Donahue gave some very interesting items on an effort of this nature made lately in Alberta, in which he had been a partner. He outlined the system followed, which had worked so well that the cost of the outfit had been cleared off in three years. He promised to obtain full particulars of the latest type of outfit at a moderate price against the next meeting at Wardner, on October 6th next, at eight o'clock, when the full report of the committee on this most important live question will be presented.

Another indication that the branch is trying to do its best for the oldest industry is seen in the fact that a resolution was passed to discuss at the next meeting the question of "Co-operative Sales Fairs", and "How best to develop the social side of branch meetings", and that a cordial invitation to this meeting be extended to non-members, which is here made.

Brotherhood, as the only foundation of success in co-operative ventures was emphasized strongly by those present, and there is no doubt that any such movement will fail or succeed according as the whole membership works heartily together, avoiding personalities, sinking differences, so as to reach the goal of united and successful effort through wise and kindly compromise. Those directing the work of the branch are by no means satisfied with the present membership of 27 in good standing, good as it seems, for up-to-date progress on the lines indicated above can only come through numerous, wide, and above all, earnest membership.

The C.P.R. Co. is about to undertake the survey of another route for their projected railroad from Beaver to Surprise Rapids in connection with the proposed electrification scheme for this division, which is now considered to be a certainty for the near future. The line already surveyed is not altogether satisfactory, and it is thought that an improvement can be made on the right hand side of the Columbia, especially in the vicinity of Bush River. The idea that a better route might be secured up the Bluewater and the Blackwater, has apparently been discarded—Golden Star.

18 CELEBRITIES IN NEW "SPOILERS" FILM REX BEACH'S BIGGEST

The new screen version of Rex Beach's famous Alaskan novel, "The Spoilers," which Jesse B. Hampton produced for Goldwyn distribution boasts a cast of 18 famous motion picture players. Mr. Hampton, before beginning production on this new version of "The Spoilers," determined to make it surpass in every way, the picture made from it ten years ago. Milton Sills was selected for the role of the hero, Roy Glennister, because of his popularity with screen fans, because of his physique, and because of his success in roles which required physical prowess as well as acting ability of the first water. Barbara Bedford was selected for the role of Helen Chester, the heroine, not alone for her brunette good looks but for the success which she has achieved in other screen productions in the past two years.

For the role of Cherry Malotte, which made Kathlyn Williams famous in the Selig version of "The Spoilers" Mr. Hampton selected Anna Q. Nilsson, the blonde beauty from Sweden, who has a large following in America. Robert Edeson, noted stage star, was engaged to play Glennister's partner, Joe Dextry and for the villainous Alex McNamara, Noah Berry, one of the screen's premier villians, was engaged.

The Broncho Kid is acted by Wallace MacDonald, while Mitchell Lewis is Marshall Vorhees; Ford Stirling Flapjack Sims; Robert McKim, Struve; Sam de Grasse the Judge Stillman; and John Elliot the Attorney, Wheaton.

No more brilliant cast has been assembled for a motion picture, as all fans who see the picture at the Star theatre, where it will play two days, beginning October 5, will agree.

The story of "The Spoilers" is too well known to millions of American readers and picture goers to need recounting here. It deals with the attempt of certain unprincipled characters to gain unlawful possession of the richest mines in the Klondyke and work them for their own profit. Rex Beach founded his novel on well known facts which lent themselves to one of the best adventure stories that recent American literature can boast. The life which he depicts was raw and rugged, the men bold adventurers and often unprincipled. The result is a picture that far outshines 99 per cent. of screen productions.

BOY SCOUTS

What the Cranbrook Troop is Doing

TROOP OF SCOUTS AT WORK TO EARN COMPLETE RADIO SET

The Second Cranbrook Troop of Boy Scouts, and Pack of Wolf Cubs, held their first meeting of the fall season on Friday night last, in the parish hall.

The meeting took the form of a bean feed, which was much enjoyed by the boys and visitors. Mr. A. Earle Leigh in the course of a short address put before the boys the offer made by the Canadian Forestry Association to give to Scout Troops a complete radio set in return for forest protection work. From the opinions expressed by various scouts and cubs it will not be long before the second are the proud possessors of their own radio outfit.

The visitors present included the rector, Rev. F. V. Harrison, Mr. A. Earle Leigh and Mr. Frank Morris, the popular local secretary.

SCENES WITH REAL THRILL SHOWN IN "THE SNOWSHOE TRAIL"

Face to face with a man-eating grizzly; grappling with the snarling brute till the man tottered on the very brink of eternity; hurled into a surging ice jammed river in a blinding snowstorm to rescue a girl who was caught in the swift currents; both being borne on the tide over jagged rocks to the very edge of a great waterfalls—these are but a few of the thrills that combine to make Jane Novak's melodrama "The Snowshoe Trail", which will be shown at the Star theatre on Monday and Tuesday one of the outstanding thrill subjects of the season.

The screen has produced many a super-thrill in the course of its career but seldom, if ever, has a single production possessed such a stirring succession of gripping scenes as "The Snowshoe Trail". Miss Novak and Roy Stewart, her leading man, risked their lives not once but a dozen times in filming this subject in the snow covered reaches of the Northwest. The scene in which they are spilled from the backs of their horses into the raging waters of the ice-jam in the midst of a blinding snowstorm is almost in a class by itself in point of sheer thrill.

Beautiful, delicately charming Jane Novak and rugged Roy Stewart risked their lives repeatedly in the filming of this thrilling episode which will be shown with crushing realism on the screen. Once they were caught in the swift moving currents they had to trust to luck and the grace of God they'd come out of it alive.

The adventure in the rapids, during a lashing blizzard, is but one of the big scenes that combine to make Miss Novak's latest, one of the most thrilling in which she has ever appeared.

WARM TRIBUTE PAID TO WORK OF FATHER BISSETTE IN KOOTENAYS

(From the Creston Review)

Irrespective of denominational preferences, the many residents of the Valley who have enjoyed the acquaintance of Father Bissette will hear with regret of his transfer to take up work in Vancouver. In the choice of men to minister to Holy Cross Church the archbishop has been fortunate in sending to the local parish spiritual heads who invariably have had the happy faculty of maintaining friendly relations with their own parishoners and with the non-Catholics with whom they came in contact, but in at least nine years never has it been the good fortune of Creston parish to have a priest who entered so heartily and widely into the life of the community as Father Bissette.

Whilst upholding always the dignity of his high calling he had an informal genuineness that won him the fast friendship of the many he encountered. In the time he had at his disposal on his visits to Creston he always exemplified a brand of clerical everyday citizenship that it was a real pleasure to encounter, and in good measure had its effect on the life of the men of the community in particular.

Operating on the broad guage prinicples that characterized him whilst here Father Bissette will be a power for good wherever he may be stationed, and he takes with him to Vancouver the best wishes for success of a host of friends in the Creston valley.

Canadian Blue Trail Towns Meet

Invermere Gathering Discusses Plans to Further Advertise Big Tourist Circuit

A meeting for the formation of a British Columbia division of the Blue Trail Association was held at the David Thompson memorial hall, Invermere, on Monday last. Among those present were six representatives from Banff, Alta., J. M. Wardle, chief engineer of the National Parks Branch, and C. A. Davidson, of the highways branch, of Banff, Messrs. J. P. Fink and L. P. Sullivan, of Cranbrook, the president and secretary of the Calgary Auto Club, J. W. Davidson, president of the Alberta Good Roads Association, and president of the Blue Trail International Association, J. Fred Spaulding, of Fernie, commissioner for the Tourist Association of South Eastern B.C. and Southern Alberta, H. B. Jackman, of Ottawa, representatives from Lacombe and Claresholm, Alta., R. R. Bruce, president of the Windermere District Board of Trade, B. G. Hamilton, secretary of the Associated Boards of Trade of South Eastern B.C., Messrs. J. C. Pitts, G. A. Bennett, A. G. Cuthbert, Frank Richardson, of Invermere and Windermere and others.

R. R. Bruce introduced the delegates and opened the meeting. He suggested Mr. J. W. Davidson act as chairman. This was approved, and Mr. Davidson on accepting suggested that B. G. Hamilton act as secretary.

In his opening address Mr. Davidson outlined the objects of the meeting, which he said were to promulgate the interests of the Blue Trail. route. Any efforts being made in this direction were not in any sense in opposition to any other route. He pressed for the hearty co-operation of the towns, cities, villages and settlements through which the trail passes, and in the territory tributary to it. He considered that Banff was the center of attraction for the incoming tourists, and he urged that no efforts be made to detract from it by any other points unduly pressing attractions locally.

In the election of local officers for the Blue Trail Association, Mr. R. R. Bruce was unanimously elected as the B.C. director for the association.

It was decided that the marking of the trail could best be undertaken by the local organizations, and the Cranbrook and Windermere boards of trad will see that this is done from the western entrance of the national park to the international boundary. The last Wednesday in May was thought to be the best time in each year for undertaking this.

J. M. Wardle, chief engineer of the national parks, stated that up to August 31st, 1923, 33,000 cars had come to Banff, and of these 7,776 had stayed at the camp. It was thought to be good policy by the delegates to have the official camp sites marked on the maps, and also that where a responsible caretaker was put in charge of a camp, a small charge against those using it should be levied.

Mr. Wardle stated later that 8,020 cars had entered the national parks this season, of which 2,001 had been American cars. Up to the 23rd of August 4,520 cars had passed over the Banff-Windermere road, which on a basis of four and a half people to a car represented over 20,000 persons, a large increase over former years.

The maps of the blue trail will be corrected to bring them up to date, and reprinted for distribution next year. These will be put out on two different kinds of paper, a light sheet for free distribution, and a heavy one for which a charge of twenty-five cents will be made to the local bodies absorbing them, to be charged on or not, as they think. The mileage shown on the maps will be changed to show the distance from place to place.

The cost of the publication of these maps is to be ascertained by Mr. Davidson, and he will suggest what it is thought each local body should contribute.

The condition of the roads connecting with the Banff-Windermere highway was discussed, and the B. C. and Alberta governments will be urged by resolution to do all possible to put these in good shape, and also urging that the proceeds from the motor licenses and gasoline tax be allocated for roadwork.

It was urged that a uniform system of marking the trail be adopted, and that arrow markers be erected pointing to any important physical features along the route.

Before adjourning hearty votes of thanks were accorded to Messrs. R. R. Bruce, and Mr. Davidson of Calgary, for bringing the meeting about, and to Mr. B. B. G. Hamilton for his work in connection with his work as secretary.

PRESIDENT BEATTY ENJOYS MOTOR TRIP OVER NEW HIGHWAY

Urges Importance of Keeping All Road Connections in Good Condition

President E. W. Beatty of the C.P.R. Co., accompanied by a party of directors, motored from Banff to Lake Louise, and from Lake Louise to Windermere recently. The visitors were impressed with the trip, but stated that obviously the last twelve miles into Windermere, and they were advised, the portion between Windermere and Cranbrook, will require to be speedily improved.

"If it is hoped to induce American tourists to use this road," said Mr. Beatty, "it appears that the work must be completed, otherwise the reputation of the route will be gained by the unsatisfactory portions rather than by the excellent construction of the mileage recently completed."

While the railway has been working on plans for the electrification of the system through the mountains for several years, Mr. Beatty stated that those plans had not been completed yet and it was too early to make an announcement regarding them.

Mr. Beatty stated the company lost heavily in the Japanese catastrophe, but notwithstanding, was contributing $25,000 for the sufferers in Japan and transporting free over its rail and steamship lines Canadian foodstuffs and clothing donated or purchased with monies for relief.

F. W. Peters, general superintendent for British Columbia, met the special train at Golden on its arrival from Banff and proceeded over the Kootenay Central to Lake Windermere. Returning to Golden shortly after midnight, the party remained until morning, leaving for the west soon after eight o'clock. Accompanying the president were D. C. Coleman, of Winnipeg, vice-president and five directors—W. N. Tilley, K.C., of Toronto; Sir Augustus Nanton, Winnipeg; F. W. Molson, J. K. L. Ross, and Sir Herbert Holt of Montreal.

Superintendent T. R. Flett, of this city, met the president and his party at Banff, and accompanied them to Windermere and over the portions of his division.

WYCLIFFE NOTES

Mr. George Tanner has returned from Vancouver and has resumed the daily grind.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Staples and family returned to Wycliffe on Sunday last from Detroit, Michigan.

Miss Amy Williams and Miss Frances Chelmick of the St. Eugene hospital staff were Sunday afternoon visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fontenella are taking a trip to the fruit country in the vicinity of Creston. They are making the trip by auto and expect to return Thursday of this week.

Mr. Charles Mower, setter on the carriage at the mill met with rather an unfortunate mishap Tuesday afternoon, when a short log rolled clear of the carriage and crushed his leg. After first aid had been rendered he was taken to Cranbrook for a thorough examination of the lim. It is believed that the leg is not broken but in any event will necessitate his being laid up for some time.

Mr. Hartley Dewey, alias "Admiral", "Sitting Bull", etc., shook hands all round last Thursday and then took the train for Snake Hill, which, history informs us, is situate somewhere near Moosejaw, Sask. Eventually Hartley will resume his course at the Manitoba varsity.

Listed among the returned this week is Mr. Cyprien Gontard who arrived back in our midst at the conclusion of a two weeks holiday spent in Spokane.

Mr. A. Erbanks, familiarly known as "Monk" is leaving this week for Yank. Monk has catered to the needs of the inner man at the cookhouse for some time and has done so both capably and well. It is a well known fact that several married men who enjoyed his bill of fare during the absence of their better halves, took on weight in the process till they were hardly recognizable, one of these was knock-kneed and 'tis said that at his first meal at the cookhouse he ate so hearty and long that when he stood up afterwards he was bow-legged. Name on application.

If a certain local bachelor doesn't come out of the fog and either confirm or deny the persistent rumors of his approaching marriage he will be subjected to the third degree; this suspense is too awful. Why don't the poor unfortunate be hisself?

Diner: "This is not chicken."

Waiter: "No; oh, no, sir. We call that half and half. It is beef and chicken. Yes, sir; one cow—one chicken."

C. E. Ussher, general passenger traffic manager of the C.P.R., accompanied by A. Allerton, general superintendent of hotels, was in Vancouver recently and was quoted as stating that the company was ready to build more hotels as soon as the traffic warrants the development and that the increased traffic would be cared for. When the C.P.R. realises the necessity of providing additional attractions for their tourist patrons, they can find almost unlimited scope investment in hotel accomodation for tourists in and around Golden and Windermere, the Columbia valley and the country tributary both east and west. A tourist hotel at Golden would be fully warranted in the immediate future, and would be a valuable factor in popularizing this district.—Golden Star.

F. W. Dowling, formerly superintendent at Prince Rupert, who has succeeded W. H. Stevens as superintendent of Dominion government telephones for this district, has just completed a tour of inspection of this part of his territory. He was accompanied by Mr. Stevens in his trip over the new ground, and Major Joseph E. Gobiel, superintendent at Ottawa, was also one of the party. The connection between Windermere and Cranbrook is making satisfactory progress and is expected to be completed this fall, when this district will become linked up with the south and West Kootenay and the prairie systems. It is understood that a new line along the Banff-Windermere road is under consideration, and that when the Golden-Yoho Park road is ready, a direct connection over that route will receive prompt attention.—Golden Star.

In converation with Alderman A. J. Balment, he states that notwithstanding the impression being given out, he is not in favor of the city purchasing the old fair grounds from Mr. Uren. The council has been approached many times by Mr. Uren to take over the grounds at what the owner considers a fair figure, and it is in order to dispose of the question finally Alderman Balment is introducing a by-law by which the people can register as they see fit on the matter. It is well known that there are some in the city who favor the acquisition of the grounds, and Alderman Balment feels that the city council cannot be accused of not giving the matter proper consideration if a vote is taken on it, thereby giving Mr. Uren a final answer. Personally Alderman Balment said he would not vote in favor of it himself.

Saturday afternoon last the Marion Oliver Mission Band of Knox church held a garden party on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Carlyle. Mrs. Grady, the leader of this energetic body of young people has reason to feel proud of the success of the affair. The sale of candy and ice cream was conducted by the young people assisted by several of the older members of the congregation and the sale netted the band about $45 which was considered very good. The Mission Band are much indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle for their kindness in donating the use of their garden for the sale.

Mr. C. D. Devlin, general superintendent for the Confederation Life Insurance Co., Toronto, who is making an inspection of agencies in the west was a visitor in the city on Wednesday and Thursday, with C. H. Phillips, of Cranbrook and Lister, the district representative. Mr. Devlin is very optimistic with regard to the future of business conditions generally throughout Canada, and more particularly with respect to the East Kootenay district. This improvement is naturally reflecting itself in increased business that his company is doing. He hopes at a later date to return to the district to enjoy a few days' fishing and hunting.

On Wednesday evening last at her home Miss Muriel Baxter was the hostess at a jolly cup and saucer shower when about twenty girl friends joined in doing honor to Miss Helen Jones whose marriage is to take place on Saturday next. The first part of the evening was taken up with a contest which besides being quite pleasant, was also momentous to some. The party was a merry one that sat down to the delightful luncheon the hostess had prepared. Following this the judge declared the bride-to-be the winner of the contest, the prize being a beautifully decorated case containing the cups and saucers, the gifts of those present. The guest of honor gracefully thanked the hostess and her friends for the pleasure their thoughtful gifts gave her. After a merry sing-song the company separated, all giving Miss Jones the best of wishes and joining heartily in the chorus, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

WATERMELON PARTY IS ENJOYABLE EVENT FOR MISSION RESIDENTS

Locally Grown Fruit Made the Occasion For Enjoyable And Unique Event

On Thursday evening last what proved to be a most enjoyable and novel affair was the watermelon party given by Mr. and Mrs. Campsall in the schoolhouse near the Campsall ranch. If the number of watermelons consumed is any criterion this somewhat novel feast to northern climes was an unqualified success, no less than 75 of the "citrullus vulgaris" being required to satisfy the appetite of the banquetters. It is of interest to note that the melons which were particularly luscious and of excellent flavor were all grown at the Campsall ranch. Following the feast an excellent program of solos, recitations, and other forms of entertainment was rendered, this being as follows:
Song, "Behind the Plow" Mr. Campsall; Recitation, "When he took his girl to the Circus" Mr. J. Wallace; Song, "Somewhere in France, dear Mother" Mr. Wallace; Recitation, "Bucking Broncho" Mr. Henry Campsall. Pencil Drawings by Mr. Diebolt.

Mr. Clark Wallace in a short address voiced the sentiments of the company when he thanked Mr. and Mrs. Campsall for their generosity.

At midnight a dainty supper was served and this was followed by a dance Mr. Harry Sheddy being floor manager and Mr. Clark Wallace furnishing the music. Early morning brought to a close what was one of the jolliest times that could be desired.

this would necessarily take considerable time before any action could be taken provided all parties were favorable to the cause, and that in anticipation of the delay that steps be taken to otherwise provide the means of proceeding at once to put into effect any plan decided upon. With the endorsation, by a vote of the representative meeting such as was present, coupled with the assurance that might have been obtained from the councillors present that they would pledge themselves to the support of the by-law in council, sufficient money might have been forthcoming from private sources to have been placed in the trust of some responsible committee of both curlers and hockey supporters for immediate use. Unfortunately the suggestion by one present that some such action be taken to strengthen the hand of the committee only led to further discussion as to the action taken by the council at their last meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

It is getting near the close of the tourist season now, but this week cars from far afield have been in the city, parties from Quebec and San Francisco being among those noted.

P. W. Willis took possession this week of a new Superior Chevrolet touring car from the Kootenay Garage, with the added smartness of his name artistically panelled on the side.

J. Fred Spaulding was in the city at the first of the week on his way back from Invermere, where he attended the Blue Trail Association meeting, which was also attended by Messrs. J. P. Fink and L. P. Sullivan from this city. Mr. Spalding has been laying before the board of trade the matter of affiliation with the Tourist Association of Southern Alberta and B.C., for another year, though on a reduced assessment basis.

Mr. Arthur Ashworth received notice of his transfer this week to the bunch of the Imperial Bank at Invermere, and left on Thursday to spend a short time there, before arranging to remove his family. Mr. and Mrs. Ashworth will be missed particularly in Methodist Church circles, where both have been active and wholehearted workers. Mr. Ashworth has also been secretary of the G. W. V. A., and connected with the direction of the affairs of the Musical Society ever since its organization, two other spheres in which he will be sorely missed.
