GLOBE TROTTER IN CRANBROOK ON BIG JAUNT

HE MUST MAKE 28,000 MILE JOURNEY IN ORDER TO ANNEX WAGER

WILL GET $10,000 IF HE SUCCEEDS

Leaves Here for Calgary Soon —Not the Soft Snap Many Would Think

Frank Fletcher, better known as the "globe trotter," who is on a 28,000 mile world's record hike, dropped into Cranbrook on Saturday evening last and made a call of the Herald office, exhibiting his small hand grip, which bears many postmarks of the places he has visited en route.

Fletcher came here from Nelson and will leave Cranbrook soon for Calgary. The "globe trotter" explained that he is out to win a ten thousand dollar wager made by the American Athletic Association and that he left San Francisco on June 20, 1920, on a 28,000 mile hike to Buenos Ayres and return, and said that the terms of his contract means that he must be back in San Francisco before June 20, 1929, or he "loses out."

The route specified by the Association includes a complete circle of the United States and Fletcher cannot use trains, automobiles, trolley cars or even roller skates while on his tour of the globe. He is also forbidden to sleep, eat or drink under a roof of any kind and is not allowed to ask for any support of charity. His sole means of maintaining an existence is to be from selling sume useful article on the road.

Fletcher must also secure a letter from the chief of police of every city or town he visits en route and a postmark on a piece of paper at postoffices.

The "globe trotter" expects to leave Cranbrook soon and will go direct to Calgary through the Windermere country and from Calgary sets out for his journey to Boston, Mass., New York and east coast cities.

Fletcher is 49 years old and was born in Brewster, Ala., Nov. 4, 1870. He claims to be the only man who ever crossed Death Valley, Arizona, desert afoot, claiming he has crossed the desert three times.

Moving about the city in his close-fitting clothes, Fletcher, because of the small metal container in which he carries an outfit for the preparation of his meals, attracted considerable attention. Evidently the out-door life is very beneficial to him, for he looks none the worse for for his experiences, appearing to be in perfect health and enjoying the trip.

Fletcher made his bed near the skating rink where he found that a fence there had kept the snow from falling on a spot sufficiently large to permit of him lying down for the night. He will "room" there during his stay in Cranbrook unless he finds a better outdoor spot.

The noted long distance walker is willing to work at anything in order to earn a livelihood as he goes along. His pack consists of blankets and a tarpoleon of sufficient size to permit of him rolling himself up in it several times when preparing his "bed."

Notwithstanding, Fletcher's time is getting short in which to make the trip, he is reluctant to leave British Columbia and enter upon his tour through the prairie provinces where the mercury is registering far below the zero mark and may remain in B. C. until late in March.

WOMENS' INSTITUTE— OFFICERS ELECTED

The annual meeting of the Womens' Institute was held in the Parish hall on Wednesday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Constantine was unanimously elected president, Mrs. D. Campbell first vice-president, and Mrs. O'Hearn as second vice-president. Mrs. Geo. Taylor was elected by acclamation as secretary-treasurer and Mrs. F. Clark Wycliffe and Mrs. L. Clapp as directors.

The treasurer's report showed an income of $614.00 with an expenditure of $462.66, and a balance of $151.34.

The officers and members take this opportunity of thanking the following business people and others for their generous support and contributions towards making the flower show a success:

McCreery Bros., L. Clapp, F. Kummer, F. Parks, E. A. Hill, Little & Atchison, P. Burns, J. Walkley, E. H. McPhee, R. Frame, Slocan Mercantile, R. J. Binning, Rex Theatre, J. BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED AT SHOWER

A very happy function was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 at the home of Mrs. F. Wasson, when about tweney-seven friends met to do honor to Miss Bertha Brown, a popular bride-to-be. The affair took the form of a linen shower, and Miss Brown was the recipient of many beautiful presents during the course of the afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in a scheme of red and white, with appropriate hearts and darts, and carnations in the same colors, while over the seat of the guest of honor was a large white bell. The parcels were brought in and presented by two little misses, Gwendolyn Bowness and Muriel Little, who were dressed as cupids, and trundled little red wheelbarrows laden with the mysterious packages for the happy bride-elect. Tea was served during the afternoon, and the affair was voted a first-class success by those taking part.

This evening Miss Brown is to be the guest at a second shower to be held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Bowness.

TRAIL SMELTER RECEIVES LARGE TONNAGE IN '20

MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND TONS RECEIVED

COMPANY MINES ARE THE LARGEST SHIPPERS

Many Small Shippers Listed in Report of the Consolidated Company

Although the receipts of ore and concentrates at the Trail smelter for 1920—estimating the final nine days at 10,000 tons—approximate 381,275 tons, a magnificent gain of 60,797 tons over the receipts for 1919, the total ore production of the Kootenay-Boundary district necessarily declines, owing to the elimination of the Granby smelter at Grand Forks, which in 1919 handled over 156,000 tons of Granby ore. If ore of United States origin is excluded from the receipts of both years Trail's gain on Canadian ore alone is 67,273 tons, and if only British Columbia ore is considered, the gain increases to 67,777 tons.

Owing to the number of Slocan mines out of operation for the greater part of the year on account of labor troubles, that district did not export to the United States as great a volume of concentrates and crude ore for treatment as usual. Of the 8,000 tons of concentrates given in the reports as exported, 5,000 are estimated to be lead concentrates, valued at probably $90 a ton, and 3,000 tons would be zinc concentrates worth $50 a ton, all being from the Slocan.

Receipts at the Trail smelter up to May 21 showed the Great Sullivan mine at Kimberley to have produced 59,532 tons of zinc ore and 2,955 tons of lead ore. After that date the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company of Canada, owning the smelter, lumped the receipts from all company properties, and the origin of company ore, as to districts, is not distinguished. There is no reason, however, to suppose that the East Kootenay's tonnage failed to keep up its pace.

Following is the total ore receipts in gross tons at the smelter of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Limited, at Trail from January 1st to December 21st, 1920, many small shippers appearing in the list, the mines of the company supplying the bulk of the ore:

Trainmen's Ball A Grand Success

Attendance on the Annual New Year's Event was Unusually Large

The Fifteenth Annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Ladies' Auxiliary to the B. of R.T. was held in the Auditorium theatre on New Year's evening and was unusually well attended.

As usual the trainmen had arranged the Auditorium in a manner most pleasing, and no effort had been spared in catering for the complete satisfaction of those attending. Refreshments were served during the evening by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the B.R.T. in the form of a substantial turkey supper and many embellishments, this taking place on the stage.

Edmonson's orchestra supplied the music and the Fifteenth Annual ball will go down in history as one equalling any ever held here in appointments and pleasure afforded those who participated. Dancing lasted until well into the morning, the New Year being ushered in with appropriateness.

The B. of R.T. and Ladies' auxiliary are to be congratulated on the smoothness with which every arrangement was carried through.

RESPECTED RESIDENT PASSED AWAY TUESDAY

Mrs. A. A. Thompson, who passed away at her residence on Burwell Avenue, early on Tuesday morning, has been a respected resident of this city for over twenty-one years. Although in failing health for some time, this did not lessen the shock her friends felt at her passing.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Catholic Church. Father Murphy conducted the impressive Catholic service for the dead at St. Mary's Church, and interment was made in the Catholic burial ground. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Wilson, W. D. Gilroy, E. H. McPhee, J. H. Cameron, A. C. Bowness and C. J. Little. Many floral tributes were in evidence from friends testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held locally, especially among the olded residents.

Much sympathy is felt for the two sons who are mourning the loss of their mother; Nigel, who returned a short time ago from overseas service, and Orville, of this city.

SENDING DELEGATE TO PROVINCIAL POULTRY ASSOCIATION MEETING

Local Fanciers Meet and Discuss Matters of Concern to the Poultryman

A meeting of the Pountry Association was held on Tuesday night at the City Hall, when the following were present: Mrsers. Wm. Harvey, J. Johns, Ogden, A. B. Smith, H. E. Sainsbury, E. . Cooper and L. P. Sullivan.

Mr. Cooper occupied the chair as president, and Mr. Sainsbury acted as secretary.

Mr. Harvey reported he had received notice that the Directors of the B. C. Poultry Association would meet at Hastings Park, Vancouver, at the time of the provincial pountry show there, on January 12th.

On a motion by Messrs. Sainsbury and Johns, Mr. Harvey was instructed to attend and report at the next meeting of the association. Resolutions of instrurtion for Mr. Harvey were passed on different matters of interest to local fanciers, including one requesting a poultryman for the Kootenays, to be appointed by the provincial government.

The annual meeting of the local association was set for Tuesday, Jan. 25th, at which time Mr. Harvey will present his report of the provincial show at the directors' meeting.

A motion was also passed asking for the District show, and suggesting that the dates be the first week in December.

FORMER RESIDENTS OF CITY BEREAVED

The many friends in Cranbrook of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Robertson, until recently residentss of this city, Mr. Robertson being manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, will regret to learn that their little son, Ralph Clayden, their only child, died at Nanaimo on Christmas day, aged 2 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

LEGISLATURE WILL MEET AT VICTORIA EARLY NEXT MONTH

Vancouver. — That the provincial legislature will meet on Tuesday, February 8, 1921, was the statement of Hon. J. W. deB. Farris, attorney-general last week.

It has been customary in former years for the Legislature to hold its formal opening session on a Thursday, but this year a departure has been made from this rule.

NOMINATIONS MONDAY; VOTE ON THURSDAY

PRESENT INDICATIONS ARE ELECTIONS WILL PASS OFF QUIETLY

MAY ALL GO IN BY ACCLAMATION

By-Law to Ratify Agreement With Power Company to be Voted on

While municipal politics have been engaging a certain amount of attention in some quarters this week, there cannot be said to be a great deal of interest manifested in the civic elections. Certainly in view of the fact that nomination day is on Monday next, January 13, with elections, if necessary, on the Thursday following, one would expect a little wider and more animated discussion of municipal affairs abroad in the city. But it's "let George do it" in the civic elections as in many other things, apparently.

One of the interesting factors in the situation is that the nominating committee appointed by the Citizens' League at a meeting before Christmas has recommended two names of lady candidates, and it is pretty certain that these names will be in evidence at nomination time on Monday. They are Mrs. J. Laurie, for alderman, and Mrs. J. Jackson, for school trustee.

As to the mayoralty it is understood now that Mayor Genest has practically consented to stand for another term of office, and is this is the case, it is not likely he will be opposed. Of the six aldermen who have been serving last year, only four are in a position to stand again, even if they are willing, these being Aldermen A. A. MacKinnon, A. J. Balment, R. Flowers and A. E. Jones. Assuming that Mrs. Laurie gains a seat, there will have to be at least one other new name advanced.

As will be noted elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Harry White, who has served for the past eleven years on the Board of School Trustees, the major portion of that time as chairman, is not allowing his name to be brought forward as a candidate this year. Many will learn of Mr. White's decision with regret, believing that he has rendered sterling service to the city during his long tenure of office on the School Board. Nothing has been learned of the intentions of the other two trustees, Messrs. Nisbet and Henderson, whose terms also expire. If they are again nominated, it is likely that with Mrs. Jackson they would go in by acclamation. If Mrs. Jackson is elected, the Board of Trustees will number two ladies in its make-up, Mrs. F. B. Miles being elected about a year ago on a two year term.

Just before going to press we are informed by Rev. R. W. Lee that he will not be a candidate for the vacancy on the Police Commission. This decision, it is understood, ras been arrived at in deference to the wishes of some on the board of the Methodist church. On Tuesday a petition was circulated asking Mr. Lee to accept tre nomination, and to this was secured about thirty signatures of representative business men throughout the city, including a number also who are members of the Methodist Board. No oth r names have been suggested as possible candidates in Mr. Lee's stead, and Mr. Balment, the retiring member of the police commission, will probably be re-elected by acclamation if he stands again. Mr. Balment being out of town for the past two days, we have been unable to learn his intentions.

The presence of the electors is required at the polls on Thursday next, he 13th inst., in any case, to vote on the proposed agreement between the city council and the B. C. and Alberta Power Co., the text of which has been published in the Herald for the past two weeks.

ACTIVITIES AT TRAIL OUTLITED IN 1920 REVIEW

CONDITIONS OF MONEY MARKET WILL GOVERN BIG PROGRAM

ACCOMPLISH MUCH IN TREATMENT OF ORES

Big Reduction Works' Program Means Much to Future of The Kootenays

Metallurgical progress of a striking nature in the treatment of the Sullivan zinc ore may be set down as one of the leading achievements of the great family of smelting plants and refineries collectively referred to as the Trail smelter, during 1920, says a writer in the Nelson News. With the smelter's output of the highest value, excepting only two war years, in the history of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company of Canada, and zinc providing more than one-third of the total value of the metals produced, improved processes of treatment have been important contributing factors in securing this result.

One of the developments of 1919 was the erection of a large-scale experimental mill at Trail to treat the Sullivan ore, and this plant, designed for 600 tons, was one year ago handling 400 tons daily. Now, owing to various advances made, it is treating from 800 to 900 tons. At the beginning of 1920, magnetic separation was giving excellent results. In March an improvement in the flotation process deleted the magnetic machines from the flow sheet. An important modification in June gave still better results. Twice during October further improvements were introduced. These various improvements either increase recoveries or bring about economies which contribute to reducing the cost per pound of producing the marketable product.

Three years ago the Consolidated company, as the result of years of experimenting, was able to produce refined zinc for the high market then existing. The market since 1918 has steadily declined, till now it is slightly below the pre-war level, but constant improvements in process of treatment, aided somewhat by more economical mining, have enabled the company to still produce zinc profitably. Two years ago this accomplishment would have been beyond belief.

Further development of the company's zinc industry, as to time, will probably depend on the money market. A site has been acquired at Kimberley for the projected mammoth mill, and one of the possibilities is that one unit of this mill, a unit of 2,500 tons capacity, could be proceeded with without entailing too heavy a draft on the money market. At present the Sullivan is stoping at the rate of about 800 tons of lead-zinc ore a day, and the mill could be operated up to 1,000 tons capacity without necessitating further power development at the West Kootenay Power & Light company's plants at Bonnington Falls. Incidentally, the factor that has reduced mining costs at the Sullivan is that selective mining has ceased, and the ore being treated is run of mine.

It is said that the power company, now a subsidiary of Consolidated, in order to furnish current to operate a unit of 2,500 tons at Kimberley, would have to double its existing plant at Upper Bonnington, and that when the mill is extended to 5,000 tons, recourse will have to be made to further development of the lower falls.

The operation of a 2,500-ton mill at Kimberley would require doubling parts of the present zinc plant at Trail.

A production of 5,000 tons a day from the Sullivan is said to be considered well within the mark of economical mining, and this would equal 40 per cent. of the world's zinc output.

One year ago it was thought that the construction of the proposed concentrator for the Rossland ores was more imminent than of the Sullivan concentrator, but the financial situation, and the rapid advance of the processes for treating the Sullivan ore, have altered the betting.

It is now pointed out that if one

CIVIC ELECTIONS

It does not appear that there is going to be much of a flurry in regard to the civic elections which take place next week. There has been an attempt on the part of some to bring out candidates for the offices which become vacant at the end of the year, but there has not been much success encountered by those who have sought in this way to stir up some public sentiment on behalf of civic matters. This might be taken as a compliment by those who have been filling the public offices for tor the past year. So long as there is no opposition, it might be argued, there is no criticism. Unfortunately, however, many of those who have refused under any circumstances to consider any nomination which might be proffered them for the coming year are by no means averse to offering criticism of what has been done by those who at least have shown some degree of public spirit. It almost seems as though a good many people, in refusing to accept any nomination for themselves are only seeking an excise for the position they take up. In saying that "no one takes any interest in civic elections, anyway," there is a suspicion that some are trying to cloak their own indifference with a general reflection on the seeming apathy of others. The organization of the Citizens' League was a step in the right direction, and it is noted with satisfaction that two lady candidates are to be brought forward, and will in all probability be elected as representing not any particular sectional interest in the city, but with only the interests of the ratepayers at large at heart. There will not be a plethora of candidates when nominating time arrives on Monday, but it is hoped the city will be spared the humiliation of witnessing an eleventh hour scurrying round to secure sufficient candidates to fill the vacancies.

THE POLICE REPORT

The annual report of the police department published in this issue is a document worthy of everyone's close study. It goes to show that it is no use attempting to charge inactivity against that department. As to the causes which have necessitated such activity, there may be some room for discussion. The police are called upon to deal only with effects, but too often are saddled with causes as well, which is altogether outside their province. Perhaps one can find an indication of what underlies conditions in the city in the remark made in the report anent the enforcement of the city's curfew regulation. "Without the co-operation of the parents . . . it is impossible to enforce it as it should be done." There is the crux of the whole situation, and if the police department is compelled to work as best it can without the co-operation of parents and citizens in general, it is being unfairly handicapped right from the start.

INAUGURAL MEETING OF LOCAL CHINESE NATIONAL LEAGUE

A branch of the Chinese National League has recently been formed in Cranbrook, the chief officers being given as Mah Kwong, president, and Wong Hong, secretary. The Chinese National League is a strong body all over the Dominion, and especially in the west, with many influential branches established in the Chinese colonies of the larger towns and cities. While ostensibly a political body, being understood to stand in strong support of Dr. Sun Yet San and his republican ideas, the League still has very prominent moral, social and educational ideals to live up to, and is quite a strong factor in the life of the Chinese republic itself, and is becoming more so.

At the inaugural meeting of the League held on Wednesday afternoon at the League Rooms, at 102 Clark Avenue, there were present a number of city business and professional men, representatives of the League from Nelson, Lethbridge, Fernie and other places, and also local members. Congratulatory speeches were made during the afternoon by Messrs. J. H. McQuaid, A. D. Bridges and Rev. R. W. Lee. Luncheon was also served.

In the evening the League met for organization purposes and for the transaction of business.

Why Not a Living Wage

The B.C. government should make a note of the request of the chief of police of Chicago, who has asked for an increase for his force of $500 each. Another Federal By-Election

The federal by-election in West Peterboro promises to be a very interesting political event indeed. In accordance with prevailing custom, there will be a considerable number of candidates in the field, with Mr. J. H. Burnham, the former member, acting in the role of d'Annunzio. Mr. Burnham is a Conservative in principle, but has doubts about the motives of Hon. Arthur Meighen and the government. His resignation was based upon this distrust, but in what manner the pending election will clarify the situation it is not easy to understand. Ir re-elected there is no doubt that he will do as he always has done—give the government his independent support. He has no great regard for Mr. Mackenzie King and probably just as little for Mr. Crerar. —Colonist.

Is He Trying to Crawl

Attorney General Farris, and other members of the fovernment, are preparing the public for an unsatisfactory liquor act, and are already blaming the Dominion government for not giving the province a monopoly of the booze business in B.C. The day for blaming the other fellow is gone. The present members of the provincial government were elected by the people who believed they were big enough to handle the liquor act, especially after those same voters had emphatically stated their views on the matter. Thus the provincial government will be held strictly to the line, both for the act itself and the enforcement of it. That cry about the bootlegger continuing in the business as long as he can import liquor is a bogey. Unless the government purposes to graft on the liquor business and sell poor stuff and by the ounce once a week, the boot-leyger cannot exist and will not try. It looks very much as if the attorney general is afraid of the act and its enforcement. But they might as well face the fact that they must shoulder the responsibility and play the game. The Dominion government will only be protecting the people if a monopoly is refused the province.—Omineca Herald.

DENY REPORT ABOUT GUSHER IN BURNABY

Denial has been made by officials of the Spartan Oil Company in connection with an article that appeared in various papers last week and which caused a flurry over the prospect of a gusher at the Spartan well in Burnaby. The article was in the form of a despatch, dated from Vancouver, but Spartan oil men disclaimed any responsibility, declaring that no such announcement had been made. The despatch follews:

VANCOUVER, Dec. 28.—Announcement by Sydney Miller, oil drilling expert, of the striking of oil early today by the Spartan oil well, started a boom in oil drilling in all the fields in the Vancouver-Fraser Valley area.

The Spartan well struck oil at 1,500 feet. Contracts were immediately let and work started on the building of two storage tanks to hold huge quantities of the crude oil as it comes from the gusher until it is shipped away to the refineries.

Mr. Miller has absolutely denied giving out any report which would indicate that a gusher of oil has been struck at the Spartan well.

"We are down 1,500 feet and at that depth we ran into heavy showings of oil, therefore we took extra precautions and ceased drilling until 12½ inch casings would be put in and a thorough test made of what has been struck. While putting in the casings other men have been putting up small storage facilities in case some oil might be forthcoming, but at the very best it will require 30 days to make a proper test of the oil and its volume," was the statement of Mr. Miller.

MASONIC LODGE AT CRESTON INSTALLS ITS OFFICERS

S. A. Speers, D.D.G.M., of District No. 8, was in charge of the installation of officers of Creston Masonic Lodge on Monday night last week, for which ceremony there was a fine turnout of members, and a number of visitors. Following the installation adjournment was made for the usual banquet, at which the usual round of toasts were proposed. James Compton has been elected master for the ensuing year, with H. Young and A. D. Hendren, senior and junior wardens respectively. R. J. Long, the retiring master, was presented with a pastmaster's jewel.

HOLDERS OF TIMBER LICENSES ASK RELIEF

No decisions has as yet been arrived at by the provincial government relative to representations made by many timber license holders for an extension of time within which to meet their arrears of license fees on holdings in this proyince.

All timber license fees must be paid up by the end of the year or the licenses will revert to the Crown. Many of the holders who have been holding timber arrears for years and have paid many thousands in fees are finding it almost impossible to secure money to meet the arrears which have accummulated against their holdings.

The late Conservative government when the war broke out brought into effect a species of moritorium which permitted the postponement of fees in arrears. At that time there was little expectation that the war would continue as long as it did. The present government, when it came into office, found that there was a very large amount in arrears and it enacted legislation which did away with the previous arrangement. Not to have done so would have meant the cutting almost in two of the revenue subsequently derived. But is was provided by legislation passed in 1918 that license holders in arrears should be required to pay up, with the current year's fees, one year's arrears. It is against that provision that representations have recently been made, holders pointing to their inability to secure money and asking for an extension of time within which to meet the arrears.

Just what the total amount of the arrears are at present is not certain, but they will probably aggregate nearly a million.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, stated the other day that so far no decision has been reached by the government as to whether the relief asked for would be granted or, if so, to what extent.

RECENT SNOW BRINGS OUT THE SLEIGHS

The snowfall the first of the week, with the ground in good condition to receive it, afforded those who posses sleighs a good opportunity to bring them into play and many such vehicles were to be seen on the thoroughfares of Cranbrook on Monday and Tuesday.

Many of the business houses found the sleds made better progress in making deliveries, and they were soon made use of generally.

Tuesday night's snowfall will make sleighing permanent for the winter.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Extracts from the Cranbrook Herald of this date, 1900

M. A. Beale has been in town the past few days.

A. Leitch and R. E. Beattie were Moyie visitors last Saturday.

In all probability there will be a skating carnival at the rink one week from this evening.

The long-looked-for snow has arrived at last and everybody is feeling good in consequence.

Chas. Estmere, the hustling mining operator of Kimberley, was in town the first part of the week.

There will be a hockey meeting at the rink on Friday nght for the purpose of organizing a team.

What Cranbrook needs just now is a hall large enough for the needs of a town of its size. A good hall should be a profitable investment.

CHRISTMAS IN THE WINDERMERE

(Special to the Herald.)

INVERMERE, B.C., Jan. 3.— The holiday season throughout the Lake Windermere district passed off in good spirit and was marked by public and private functions of a social nature. One blessed feature that marks this part as compared with many less fortunate is that there is not one solitary person but who has employment. In fact there is a slight scarcity in a way.

Work on the Banff-Windermere road is being pushed along but not with any marked vigor from this end. There are reported to be two camps in existence with an average of about fifty men employed.

The opening of winter has up to date been all that could be desired for this part. Enough snow to make it feel like Christmas, but only a slight sensation of cold in the air. At times we have been favored with a thaw.

Special services have been held in different parts in keeping with the season. One marked the re-opening of a small church at or near Spillimacheen. Watch night service was held in Wilmer and the Christmas services were held in the little parish church of Windermere.

WILL USE AIRPLANES FOR FORESTRY WORK

VANCOUVER.— Major McLaurin, superintendent of the air station at Jericho Beach, has been advised that the Provincial government will include a vote of $20,000 in the estimates for 1921, to be devoted towards the use of airplanes for various work of the government Lands Department.

This decision follows a series of demonstrations carried on during the past month.

THROAT SORE?

Don't neglect it because you think it is "only a sore throat!" It is often the beginning of serious trouble, which can be avoided if proper precautions are taken. Peps will safeguard you.

"Sore throat" is a sign that your power of resistance has been temporarily lowered, and your system is therefore unable to withstand the attacks of harmful germs which are being constantly breathed in. The germs have, therefore, settled in your throat and caused inflammation, and to prevent more serious trouble these germs must be destroyed.

A Peps pastille dissolved on the tongue throws off Pine vapor, which is as certain a germ-destroyer as the Pine laden air of the Swiss Mountains, which doctors so highly recommend. These Pine fumes are breathed down into the air passages and lungs, soothing and healing the inflamed membranes that medicine swallowed into the stomach could not possibly reach.

Nothing can equal this breathable remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, etc. All dealers or Peps Co., Toronto. 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

LUMBER OUTFIT IN KOOTENAYS IN 1920 WAS BIG

Secretary of Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' Association Gives Data

A lumber cut valued at $10,000,000 is the feature of the past year in the Kootenay lumber industry. Shipments during the year are estimated by I. R. Poole, secretary of the Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' Association, at 240,000,000 feet, which are estimated to have sold, taking an estimated average price for the year, at $8,160,000. The cut is placed at 325,000,000 feet, for the purpose of this compilation, and deducting shipments or sales the surplus of 85,000,000 feet over shipments, if sold at the low prices now prevailing, could hardly fail to boost the valuation past the $10,000,000 mark.

The lumber cut is estimated to be larger by 67,000,000 feet than that of 1919. With more winter operation, some mills working extra shifts in the summer, old mills returned to the game, and a number of new ones sawing, this increased activity having been due to the strong market with which the year opened, an enhanced cut was fairly inevitable, eve nthough the season was materially shortened in the fall, in consequence of the market depression that had supervened.

Shipments, on the other hand, fell below the figures of 1919 by 75,000,000 feet, but, owing to a higher level of both cost and sale price, were even in value. The buoyant market early in the year, which was featured by heavier sales to the United States and to eastern Canada than were ever recorded here before, materially increased the number of operators, and also the extent of their operations, the winter log cut in anticipation of an active summer having been much larger than usual. When the market had become quiet in June, it was not immediately necessary for the Mountain mills to begin to hedge, as the year had started with depleted stocks. The first curtailment was in the woods. In the course of time, however, the market position had to be recognized, and the season closed early, with yard stocks the largest since pre-war years, and double of one year ago.

Of the year's shipment, the United States absorbed about 22 per cent. of the total, eastern Canada about 12 per cent., the local market 8 per cent., and the balance, 58 per cent., went to the prairie provinces.

At present the market continues depressed with the prairie dealers placing only necessary orders. It is recognized, however, that the prairie must sooner or later catch up on its arrears of building, and that the good crop must have its influence. The increase in freight rates has already put the eastern market out of consideration.

Although during the early part of the year, the mills obtained good prices for their product, the costs of production went to the highest levels on record, and continued after the market demand ended. As a result, some of the mills have made sales at prices that are less than the cost of production, and the coming year's operations must be conducted with the probability of continuance of lower prices than the average of the past year. Logging operations now in progress are generally on the basis of lower wages than prevailed during the summer.

Making every effort to get production costs down, the Mountain mills generally are ready to operate on the scale trat the situation may demand. The amount of logging the coming winter will depend partly on the ability of the mills to finance that operation, and partly on the maret outlook. A betterment of the market would quickly be reflected in enlarged operations.

HOUSE THE LORD PROTECTOR BUILT

More secrets that are to be found in any other building in England, and probably in the world, repose in Somerset House, today a colony of government offices, of which the most interesting are the Inland Revenue, the Probate Registry, and the Registrar-General's office.

The records held in these offices are the favorite hunting ground for inquisitive people, often actuated by malicious motives.

In the Probate Registry are to be found tens of thousands of wills proved since 1858, any one of which can be inspected on payment of a search-fee of one shilling.

It is easy to see what a valuable mine of information is thus available, and what improper use may be made of it. Many of these wills reveal familiar secrets worth a good deal to unprincipled people. In fact, not long ago, a gang of London sharpers kept a man constantly employed in searching for such "skeletons," and reaped a rich harvest by blackmailing the families concerned.

To money-lenders and traders this facility for examining wills is very valuable, for this enables them to know the financial position of their victims or customers.

The lists of shareholders, too, which are to be inspected in the Inland Revenue offices have their secrets to disclose. They are especially dangerous to the man who omits a few of his investments from the Income tax return, for they disclose his little deceptions to the official searcher.

Somerset House had its beginning in 1547 when the walls of the original Somerset House began to rise at the bidding of Protector Somerset, maternal uncle of Edward VI., who swept away four bishops' palaces, two churches, the great north cloister of St. Paul's itself to provide a site and material for his mighty, magnificent, and costly building, which was not completed until long after he had lost his ambitious head on Tower Hill.

Princess Elizabeth, Edward VI.'s sister, held her Court there; Queen "Bess" rode regally from "her house in the Strand" to the Royal Exchange, and the bodies of James I. and his Queen lay in state within its walls.

Henrietta Maria, Charles I.'s wife, queened it in old Somerset House; and Inigo Jones died there. From it Cromwell's body was taken to its grave, and it was the palatial home of Queen Catherine of Braganza after the "Merrie Monarch's" death.

unit of the Sullivan concentrator should be constructed—and operated in a limited way to take care of the present Sullivan production — the present mill at Trail would be available for the Rossland ores, and could tide over the period until the company should decide to go into the market for funds for its extensive program.

That the "Rossland" concentrator will be at Trail, or near Trail, is now said to be assured, the weight of the argument being in favor of the Trail location. One of Rossland's handicaps in the matter is insufficient water. The million-dollar plant, when built, will have a capacity of from 1,500 to 2,000 tons, and when eventually it comes into use, the output of the campany's Rossland properties will be doubled or trebled.

One of the developments of 1920 has been the enlargement of the copper refinery from a 30-ton capacity to a 50-ton capacity, or, in the case of low grade ores, a 70-ton capacity. This was done as a move toward more economical production of refined copper through reducing the proportion of overhead, and it was arranged that the Canada Copper company's concentrates from the Allenby plant should go to Trail. The low price of copper, that metal now being slightly below the pre-war level, caused the shutting down of the Allenby mill recently.

Early in the year, to increase the market for its copper product, the Consolidated company projected and commenced the erection of a mill for the manufacture of copper rods which are the raw material used by wire mills. This rod mill is now nearly completed, and will be finished within a month. It will be able to roll 50 tons of rods in an eight-hour shift.

The company also finished re-building its silver refinery, and now has one of the best silver refineries on the continent.

Another of the year's developments was the building of a concrete pumping plant in the Columbia river, independent of the rise and fall of the water.

While no notable changes have been made in the silver-lead smelter, or in the lead refinery, the company continues as the only refiner of lead in Canada, as well as the only refiner of copper, and the only refiner of zinc.

Under the dictation of general conditions, the Consolidated company has greatly reduced construction work to what is considered essential, and is reducing work in a number of its mining properties that are not at the time important as shippers. Outside of the Sullivan and Rossland ores, it is only shipping ores to the extent that they are required as fluxes. A readjustment of wages is also in progress.

MAKING MONEY IN TEXAS OIL FIELDS

(Fernie Free Press)

H. L. Stevens, formerly proprietor of the Alexandria hotel at Morrissey Mines, is a Fernie visitor. Mr. Stevens, who located in Calgary after he left this district, has been for the past few years down in the Texas oil fields, where he has large interests. H. L. says that quite a number of B.C. speculators have done well in the Texas fields. One teamster whom he knew at Cranbrook in the early days, invested a few hundred dollars and sold out for $1,600,000. Dave Elmer, formerly of Moyie and well known here, he says, holds valuable oil leases and is in the way of cleaning up big money. Mr. Stevens says that the report that Tom Grahan had died recently is not correct. Tom is in the automobile business at Los Angeles.

Rev. W. R. Lee's injured wrist has progressed so far towards recovery to permit of allowing the removal of the splints this week.
