LABOR DAY

THE CELEBRATION WAS MADE A SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY.

Labor Day has come and gone and may be said to have been a thorough success. It had been the intention earlier in the year, to hold a race meeting in Cranbrook this fall. This being the case, those who are usually in charge of the Labor Day celebration held back, not wishing to interfere in any way with the proposed racing. For various reasons the race meet was called off and then, at the eleventh hour, it was decided to celebrate Labor Day, which, as everyone knows, has always been Cranbrook's own day. It is much to the credit of J. Bathie and S. McDonald that the celebration was the success it was, for it was their ceaseless work that the celebration was made possible. With only a week to work on the committees were formed and all did their share to make a success of every part of the proceedings. Considering the short notice and the fact that several of the camps in the neighborhood are closed at the present time, the day may be said to have been a huge success. The sister towns of Movie, Fernie, and Wardner contributed liberally of their population to swell the crowd, which thronged the streets and grounds and everyone seemed to have had a good time. And one thing that goes to prove, what the Herald has always mentioned, that Cranbrook is an orderly and law-abiding town, there was not one single police court case the next morning. One institution that must not be overlooked, for it contributed largely to the enjoyment of the day, is the Cranbrook band. Although just now the band is without a regular bandmaster, still, under the leadership of David Chalmers, they did themselves proud.

A. L. McDermot, the genial secretary of the Board of Trade, and the inimitable David "Harum" Elmer, rendered yeoman service to the management, which is most thoroughly appreciated. Taken all in all, while not the largest celebration Cranbrook has known, still Labor Day was a happy and successful holiday. Following is a list of the events and a statement of accounts:

FOOTBALL AT NELSON

The Cranbrook football team met the Nelson team at Nelson on Labor Day in a friendly game. The lineup was as follows:

Nelson—Goal, Ritchie; backs, Taylor and Fear; half backs, Wood and Taylor, Williamson and Skuce; forwards, Gill, Robson, King, Magnoll and Ramsden.

Cranbrook—Goal, Morgan; backs, Watson and Reid, half backs, Burns, Cummings and McEwen; forwards, Robb, Rogers, Henderson, Barnes and McLaren.

The Cranbrook boys showed lack of practice so that at half time the score was three to nothing in favor of Nelson. Cranbrook succeeded in making one goal during the second half, which left the score 7 to 1 in favor of the home team at the end of the game. The boys report very kind treatment on the part of the Nelson team and hope to have another contest with them in Cranbrook later on.

HOSE REEL RACE

In this event the Movie team played in hard luck. When they got their hose attached to the hydrant, something went wrong with the nozzle and it was impossible to get it attached before the watr came. This was, no doubt, due to the fact that the Movie boys were using the Cranbrook equipment (their own not being in perfect order) which was strange to them. The Cranbrook boys made the run in 30 seconds and were named as the winners.

The make up of the teams was as follows:

Movie—C. A. Foote, manager; J. Donahue, captain; D. McDanald, lead; A. Danderand, H. Scott, A. L. McIntyre, D. Ayres, J. Grant, H. J. Lowes, E. McQuail, H. Stuart, M. McNeil, J. F. McClaren.

Cranbrook—J. Brechin, captain; Geo. Manahan, W. DeBeck, J. C. Newmarsh, J. R. Loomis, F. H. McKay, J. McKenzie, E. Johnson, D. Elmer, A. Shankland, W. Harris.

MOYIE SENIORS VS. CRANBROOK SENIORS.

In the afternoon on the upper grounds the last match of the season between Cranbrook and Moyie was played. This game finishes season of baseball which has brought about very happy relations between the sportsmen of both towns. The game was a good one and was enjoyed by a large army of spectators. The result was a score of 18 to 7 in favor of the home team. The names of the players were:

Moyie—Ayers, Potter, Erford, Crowe, Friers, Pierce, McCreary, Fulton, Kyle.

Cranbrook—Matthews, McKee, Wilson, Reed, DeBeck, Miller, Sullivan, Jorgenson, Stinson.

BASEBALL.

Moyie Juniors vs. Cranbrook Juniors.

On the forenoon of Labor Day a very interesting and good game of ball was played between the Moyie and Cranbrook Juniors on the lower grounds. The game was watched throughout by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The result of the game was 20 to 15 in favor of the home team. Mr. Stinson acted as umpire. The line up was as follows:

Moyie—A. Crowe, P. Conrad, E. Crowe, C. Norderman, H. Crowe, R. Hawke, —. Attwood, L. Crowe.

Cranbrook—V. Brown, S. Borthwick, S. Elmer, A. Brown, L. Steward, G. Kerr, H. Bathie, D. McLeod, C. McCowan.

FATS VS. FATS.

The Fernie Fats played a game of ball against the Cranbrook Fats on Monday afternoon. Fernie overcame the averdupois of the Cranbrook team. The Herald has no desire to state the result. The lineup was as follows:

FOOTBALL

Moyie vs. Cranbrook.

A good game of association football was played last Monday afternoon between Moyie and Cranbrook. The boys put up a very spirited game which resulted in a draw. Both teams worked hard and gave the public a run for their money.

IMPROVING CRANBROOK HOTEL

HOGGARTH & ROLLINS TO MAKE THEIR HOSTELRY STILL BETTER

The Cranbrook hotel is recognized from Halifax to Vancouver as one of the best equipped hotels in Western Canada, and travelling men are ever persistent in their words of praise for the hotel and the genial proprietors. Yet Messrs. Hoggarth & Rollins are not satisfied, and next week the work of putting in a plate glass front on the old part, remodeling and enlarging the bar room and adding a large and comfortable reading room, will be inaugurated. When this is completed there will not be a more attractive hotel in the west. Hoggarth & Rollins are making a great success of the Cranbrook, but their success is entirely due to their energy, their willingness to spend money for improvements and their universal courteous treatment of the public.

COUNCIL MEETING

There was a meeting of the city council at 8.30 last evening at the council chamber. There were present Acting Mayor Ryan and Aldermen Baker, Jackson and Johnson.

A GOOD THING FOR BOYS

To the Editor:

Dear Sir: Will you kindly allow us to draw attention through the medium of your columns to the fact that we are endeavoring to inaugurate a boy's brigade for the lads of Cranbrook, and invite all boys between the ages of ten and seventeen to join. The object of the brigade is "The advancement of Christ's Kingdom among boys, and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect, and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness." We need hardly say that this is purely an undenominational affair, and we have asked all the pastors of the city churches to assist us, as they may be able. The brigade headquarters is in Glasgow, and was started in 1883, and has since spread to all parts of the world. The list of distinguished patrons includes H. R. H. the Prince of Wales and the Archbishop of Canterbury, the honorable president being the Earl of Aberdeen. We purpose to work along the lines laid down by the brigade manuel which includes drilling and gymnasium work generally, and feel confident that the high aims of this movement will practically guarantee the sympathy of all who have the best interests of the lads at heart. The drills will be held every Monday night at 7.30 prompt, and after six weeks, those who are found suitable will be enrolled and fitted with cap, regulation belts and haversacks. We invite the interest of parents in this movement which will mean a great deal to the boys if taken up with the earnestness that it deserves. Those who attend the drills will be allowed to spend part of the time in gymnasidm work and will be instructed free. On enrollment, a fee of 25c. will be made, and the small sum of ten cents per month afterwards for the necessary expenses of the brigade. There will be nothing to pay until the boys are actually enrolled after six drills.

We are, dear sir,
Yours faithfully,
Robert Hughes,
Charles O. Main.

Cranbrook, September 8th, 1908.

BRECKENRIDGE-MOFFAT

(Wardner Correspondent.)

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday, August 24, at 7 a.m. at St. Andrews manse, Peterborough, by the Rev. J. D. Potter, when Miss Annie Moffat, daughter of Mr. Peter Moffat, of Peterborough, was united in marriage to Mr. David Breckenridge, formerly of Peterborough but now of Wardner. The bride, who wore a neat travelling costume of blue cloth, was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Moffat, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Thomas Breckenridge. The happy couple left on the 8.25 G.T.R. train for their future home in Wardner and will visit Toronto, Woodstock, Chicago and Calgary en route. Both parties are well known in this city, and their friends will wish them success and prosperity in the west. Mr. Breckenridge, who is a son of Mrs. Wm. Beeckenridge, of 108 Boundry street, formerly lived here, but for the past four years has resided in the west.—Peterborough paper.

Mr. Breckenridge and wife arrived in Wardner Saturday last. Here's wishing them all success as to their future health and happiness. Congratulations.

E. J. COYLE RESIGNS

E. J. Coyle, who has been connected with the C.P.R. passenger department on the coast for the last fifteen years, has resigned the position of assissant general passenger agent, which he has held for ten years. It is Mr. Coyle's intention to go into business in Vancouver in the near future. Mr. Coyle has many friends in Cranbrook, which city he has visited many times since 1898, all of whom will wish him every success in his new undertaking.

FIGHTING JOE FIGHTS

Joseph Martin had a one round contest with a C.P.R. policeman at Vancouver last week. It seems that Mr. Martin was trying to board the S. S. Victoria while she was discharging her passengers at the wharf which, it appears, is against the rules of the company. However, the well known politician took the law into his own hands and after putting the constable out, was finally held back by three policemen until the proper time to go on board. It is said that a suit for damage may follow.

DIED.

At Wycliffe, on September 4th, Matilda, the wife of Carl Alexanderson. The funeral took place on Sunday from Beatty's undertaking parlors, the Rev. Main officiating. Mrs. Alexanderson leaves a husband and five children, the youngest of which was born just prior to its mother's death. Mr. Alexanderson, who is a rancher on the St. Mary's prairie, has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

OBSERVATIONS
BY THE OLD MAN.

Thomas A. Edison recently visited Spokane and told the reporters that if he was a young man he would go to the west. Same old gag by another man.

Col. Lowery has returned home from a visit to the cent belt, and came alone. That marriage story was a canard, and the colonel's new shirt and clean socks can be put away until he stopes out enough pay dirt for another trip east.

Peep Show Ames spent twenty-five thousand dollars to be elected in the district that he represents, and then he goes over the country making statements that he was compelled to retract on the floor of the Dominion house. Mr. Ames' "effort of his life" will prove a great boomerang for the Conservative party, simply for the reason that he is reckless in his declarations, brazen in his partisan presentation of alleged facts and extremely weak in his entire work, as the records reveal that he has selected only certain parts and woven them in an apparent whole to misrepresent the real situation. Mr. Ames is working for a cabinet position in the event of a Conservative victory, and the great wealth inherited from his father, who made his money as a favored son of industry under the Conservative tariff, he expects to boost him along. The people want the truth, and are not to be lead astray by cunningly concocted stories proposed by an ambitious politician.

Why is it that no word of the proceedings of the Colchester Conservative frauds and debauchery appear in the Conservative organs of British Columbia? Are the editors of these papers such servile slaves of party that they forget what they owe to the people? The rottenness of the Liberal election at London was bad enough, and was condemned by the Herald and other Liberal papers that were not hidebound in their partisanship, but so far not a single Conservative paper in B. C. has had the nerve to raise its voice in condemnation of this last outrage on Canadian integrity and Canadian decency. A thieving Conservative is as bad as a thieving Liberal, and vice versa. God pity Canada if all the press is to be naught but hypocrites and party slaves.

In the New York zoo the keepers are endeavoring to teach the monkies to talk English. Out in British Columbia there are many monkies who talk.

The Herald has been charged with being a booster for Cranbrook and the district. Guilty, your honor.

The grain crop of Western Canada is the greatest advertisement that the Dominion has had this year.

Every man should be proud of his country's flag, but no man should make a fool of himself on the flag question. Too many men are willing to yell for his flag who wouldn't fight a second to save it from an enemy.

A. S. Goodeve, Conservative candidate for the Dominion house in this district, spent two hours last Friday evening telling a number of Conservatives that they should vote the Conservative ticket. That really seems like a waste of time, since those present would vote that ticket under any circumstances.

The Nelson Liberal has a libel suit on its hands. The Liberal is jumping to the front in the journalistic field at a rapid rate.

The best figuring that the Toronto World (a staunch Tory organ) can do is a majority of three for the Conservative party, and no other representative of the party in the brightest moment of optomistic anticipation has been able to increase it. This shows that the Conservatives virtually admit Premier Laurier will be sustained.

Some of the young Conservatives of Cranbrook are already figuring on the post office and customs collectorship. There is no chance this time, boys. Better stay with your present jobs.

Misrepresentation and slander never won an election. But prosperity, statesmanship and a square deal administration has won many. That is why the Laurier government will be returned by a good, safe majority.

"Beautiful Cranbrook," is growing more beautiful each year.

Some men remain on the political fence until they hear the jingle of the coin. A purchased vote is an uncertain vote.

Five dollars a week invested in Cranbrook property will make a Cranbrook booster out of any young man. Try it once and see if what we say is not true.

The man who expects to help himself financially by gambling is the man who is always borrowing five or ten.

The British suffragettes say that their fall campaign will be more strenuous than ever before. The British government should draft a bunch of those fool women into military service, send them to India and let them fight to their hearts content.

The Vancouver World says that it has been marked by the "System" for annihilation. The World has said things that have not pleased certain corporations in British Columbia, and it is about the only daily paper in the province that has been independent so far as powerful organizations are concerned, hence there may be some truth in its statement.

W. W. B. McInnes will be elected in Vancouver, and he will be elected by Conservative votes. They play politics differently at the coast than they do in the upper country.

The Herald's offer to send the paper to December for twenty-five cents has proven a great attraction and many are taking advantage of it. To boost it along we will make this additional offer: To every one who sends in twenty names for three months subscription and five dollars in cash before Saturday, September 19th, we will send the Herald one year free to any address they may designate in Canada. This is the last chance.

F. B. Helm, manager of the Northern Bank at Calgary, succumbed to the effects of an operation for appendicitis last Wednesday afternoon. The death of Mr. Helm was a severe shock to the people of Calgary, where he was a great favorite in business and social circles, and the news was received in Cranbrook with great regret by many here who knew him well.

It looks more and more as if Bryan was running in the right year this time. His speeches, showing as they do, the highest idea of statesmanship, have done much toward bringing the large conservative element of the east in line, and has not injured his standing with the more radical element of the west.

The residential portion of Cranbrook made a showing this year that is sufficient cause for every citizen of this city to feel proud.

The Saturday Sunset asks a very pertinent question when it asks if $3,500, the sum the Daily Province alleges the Daily World wanted to support the Liberal party, is larger than the sum received by the Province last year for supporting the Conservative party.

The Congress of the United States have adopted a new grouping of the stars on the national flag. The original thirteen states are formed in the shape of a large circle of thirteen stars. The balance of the States are represented within this circle by a series of smaller stars, arranged in the shape of a five-pointed star. Each star is intended to represent a distinct state. Although the design may be artistic, still it seems a pity to disturb a design that has flown for so many years.

The Conservatives of the Kootenay riding enjoy a joke as well as any one. They are talking on the outside as if Goodeve would be elected. They believe in the stiff upper lip policy.

If Mr. Ames firm had not enjoyed the high tariff on shoes perhaps he could not have afforded to have made the great trip that he did. His firm got the benefit and the people paid the price.

The laboring man does not believe in a tariff that increases the profits of the autocratic manufacturer, but does not increase the wages paid, and he knows that if the Conservative party is placed in power the tariff will go up, the price of living will be increased and the wages will be lowered if any change takes place. That is why the laboring men of the Kootenay district are favoring Smith Curtis for the Dominion house. They want a friend at court who has the ability and the courage to stand up for their rights, the same as he has done during his whole public career.

No paper ever made headway by trying to boost its town by decrying others in the district. The district that can support only one town is a good district to move away from.

War has been declared again. This time it is between the Province and the World, of Vancouver.

Peck MacSwain is working in Fernie. What!

The Creston Review is boosting the sale of lots in the new cemetery in that place. Atherton is a rustler.

It is said that Mr. Nichol, editor of the Vancouver Province, is wondering which party the C.P.R. is going to support in the Dominion campaign.

If Sifton runs in the Brandon district Sifton will be elected. The people of that district appreciate what Mr. Sifton has done for the advancement of Western Canada.

Nine out of ten people from the United States who have come to Western Canada to make their homes will vote the Liberal ticket, because they remember that prior to the Laurier government Canadians were migrating to the United States to make a living and the Canadian west was naught but a great wilderness. Twelve years of unprecedented prosperity in Canada, during which time the west has been developed and populated, is sufficient guarantee to every one as to the wisdom of the policies of the Laurier administration.

Canada wants honest elections, and what every newspaper in the land should do is to condemn dishonest elections. The Herald believes in condemning Liberal and Conservative alike when they are caught in nefarious work at elections. There is only one place for election thieves and that is in the prison cell.

The junior ball team of Movie is a bird. It has four Crowes and a Hawk in its personnel.

What Western Canada wants is railroads that will take care of the great grain crop of this year. It is up to the C.P.R. to get busy and save the situation in Canada.

The labor vote of the Kootenays naturally feel like supporting a party that has by its policies brought about the development of the country and furnished employment to thousands of laborers at good wages. That is why the laborers of the west and especially of the Kootenays, will support the Liberal government at the coming election. The pocket is a strong argument.

The Winnipeg Telegram has killed its usefulness as a party organ by its extreme partisanship and generally conceded unfairness on the treatment of public questions.

Mr. Goodeve will think he is in a Marathon race before he gets through with this campaign.

The meal ticket prize fighter should give stricken Fernie a rest this winter.

The Herald is being condemned by a few because it is strenuous in its efforts to support the Liberal government during this campaign. The Herald is doing this because it believes that it is the best for the people generally throughout the country that the Laurier government should be sustained. The Herald believes it is better for East Kootenay and Cranbrook that the Laurier government should be sustained. Believing and thinking as we do, the Herald will do all it can in a legitimate way to assist the Liberal party in this campaign. It will not indulge in petty abuse, slander or personal villification, but endeavor to treat public questions from a fair standpoint. The editor of this paper is entitled to his views politically the same as any other man in business, and he takes no exceptions to the one who cannot see as he sees. We have never allowed politics to interfere with our business, but we intend to make a fair, honest, fight for Liberal success this year for we are honest in the belief that a continuation of the Laurier administration is the best gift that Canada can receive.

The Victoria Colonist quotes F. W. Taylor, manager of the London, Eng., branch of the Bank of Montreal as saying that Canada's credit is still high in London. Why should it not be? Has not the policy of the government the past twelve years been such as to make Canada's credit good the world over?

Conservative papers unite in saying that if W. T. R. Preston is appointed to the position of trade commissioner at Birmingham it will not meet with the approval of the people as a whole. Certainly not. We do not know of a single Conservative who would approve of it.

The big rush for lands in the west is a high tribute to the sagacity of Clifford Sifton, who formulated the policy that resulted in making the lands of Western Canada attractive to the civilized world.

The Victoria Colonist fails to meet fairly the criticism of the Herald on its partisan condemnation of Mr. Templeman.... The Colonist is a very able paper and always fair, except during a campaign.

Richard Croker, the former Tammany boss, has been given the freedom of Dublin by the Lord Mayor. When "Dick" Croker had the freedom of New York people felt shy about their back doors being left unlocked.

The small men of Canada are kicking at the expenditures of Finance Minister Fielding, and overlook the large revenues produced by his wise policies. Some people persist in looking at the hole in the doughnut instead of the doughnut itself.

Rev. W. F. Andrews, pastor of the Centenniary church of St. Louis, has announced that he will have the church parlors kept open during the fall and winter months for the reception of young men and their sweethearts. This will beat hanging over a gate or walking along shaded streets with the thermometer at zero, and will hasten the day of the marriage fee. Rev. Andrews is evidently a far seeing parson.

The wage-earner of the Kootenays have nothing to expect from a Tory victory.

Smith Curtis has one plank in his platform and his platform is his public career—that has never been misunderstood by the laborer, and that is his eternal advocacy of politics that would prove beneficial to the working classes. Mr. Curtis has been consistent in his work along this line, in office and out of office, and that is why the people have confidence in him.

D. M. ROSS, Townsite Owner, Claresholm, Alberta

The Herald is in receipt of the Canadian Annual Review of public affairs for 1907. As in years past J. Castell Hopkins has gotten out a volume which literally teems with information and portraits of distinguished Canadians. The Annual Review is a most welcome annual visitor to the Herald office.

I went to church a few Sundays ago and saw three most estimable ladies of the city most devout in their observations of the services. Among their friends these ladies rank as good Christians and women of charitable inclinations. I also saw two men who never miss a church service and always contribute to the support of their church. Yet, I have been told that these three ladies and the two men, all five living in luxury, refused to pay a poor woman who was employed by them to do washing or housecleaning over one dollar or one dollar and fifty cents a day for ten or eleven hours of the hardest kind of toil, and begrudged them a decent noonday meal. Many people indulge in charity as a personal advertisement, and attend church because it helps in business, but when it comes to giving a hard working woman decent treatment and a fair wage, Shylock was a spendthrift compared with the petty, miserable meanness of these people. They may fool the people by outward display of charity and Christianity, but when the judgment day comes every little mean act, toward the needy and the helpless will be recorded against them. No woman nor no man has been yet born who can fool God Almighty.

LIBERALISM AND LABOR

From the commencement of its term of office in 1896 the Liberal government has advocated and carried into effect a progressive labor policy.

Its attitude towards labor has not been one of promise and pretence such as that of its opponent has been, but one of actual performance. Here are some of the actual achievements of the government during its eleven or twelve years of office in the direct interests of the working class of Canada.

The abolition of the sweating system in connection with government contracts.

The passing of an act to aid in the prevention as well as in the settlement of strikes or lockouts in all industries connected with public utilities and requiring that an investigation shall take place before a strike or lock out in such industries is declared.

The passing of an act to restrict the importation and employment of aliens.

The passing of an act to prevent immigrants being induced by fraudulent representations to come to Canada: as a consequence of representation from the government a similar law was enacted in the Imperial parliament to prevent immigrants from Great Britain being induced by fraudulent representation to come to Canada.

The passing of an act for the protection of workmen engaged on public works.

The placing of a prohibition tax of $500 on Chinese labor, this for the protection of Canadian labor.

Legislation for the prevention of accidents on railways.

The appointment of important labor commissions to investigate matters of immediate concern to labor, for example, the commission to inquire into the conditions under which the Bell Telephone company's employes were obliged to work, and which resulted in a reduction of hours and other improvements.

The conclusion of arrangements with Japan for the limitation to a number satisfactory to Canada of immigrants from that country to Canada and reducing Japanese immigration to nominal figures.

An arrangement effected with the British government for a practical cessation of immigration from India.

It is true the question of the formation of a labor bureau has been considered by the Conservative party—as long ago as 1889, and had been recommended in that year by a royal commission, while in 1891 the Conservative government of that date actually passed an act authorizing the establishment of such a bureau and appropriating the money necessary for the same.

It was, however, a case of promise without performance. No bureau was formed, and the act remainded a dead letter, being finally repealed by the Tory government in 1905. With the advent of the Liberal party to power, performance took the place of promise. No commission was appointed to discuss the necessity of creating a department of labor. It was taken for granted that as there was a department of agriculture and of trade and commerce, so also should there be one that directly identified itself with the interests of the working man and woman who were the greatest single factor in building up the Dominion of Canada. In 1900 provisions were made for establishing, not a bureau of labor merely, as the Conservative government had proposed, but had not done—but a department of labor, and the moment the act was passed the work of organization was begun.

Rambling Reveries

BY A DREAMER

BAD BOYS.

There is one very noticeable feature about boys that has been gained by observation, and in nine cases out of ten, those observations prove correct. Every town school has its "bad boys," generally not known, rarely less than three or more than five. After their first two years, or they have passed the primary age, this troublesome disposition begins to crop out and they soon become the chief annoyance, and though there are but one or two, they keep things in an uproar and almost ruin every good intent of the school. And thus they go on severely taxing teachers as to know what course to pursue. They forbear with them much, persuade not a little and try all means and methods to win them to a course of right, but it seems all in vain. Thus these boys put in a few years of school life and then away, but their course in the world is no better than when in school. These few "bad boys" become the annoyance of the town, and now the authorities are put to their "wits end" to know what to do with them. Parents, perhaps, highly respectable, honorable and among the best, for their sakes much is forebornе—much overlooked; but these boys go right on despite pleadings or warnings and next day they are before our courts—and next would be behind the bars but for the influence of friends and money.

Where is your boy today? Is he just at that stage of life that our first picture portrays? If you ever hope to reserve it do it now, for if it ever can be done this is the auspicious time, and in all probability by just and judicious means you will succeed and save yourself many a heart ache—many a tear, many a sleepless night, and have the satisfaction of realizing in the future all the fond anticipations you have had concerning your boy.

Where is your boy today? Did you hope the picture portrayed at the beginning would reverse of its own accord and that in aftes years he would "learn reform" and grow up in all that was good and useful? You would indulge him now in every whim, hoping by and by he will in turn thank you for it and do your slightest bidding. Does he? Now, honestly, is not our picture true to life—our observations correct? They are portrayed right in our midst—they are portrayed everywhere, and, dear parents, we only bring the picture to you, hoping as you gaze on it and you realize its truth and correctness, it may prove a source of good—to you—to many.

OUR GIRLS.

It should be the aim of all to give the girls just as broad a business education as the boys. It makes them capable of taking care of the family, if such responsibilities are placed upon them. It broadens their ideas and makes them nobler and better. Girls, as a rule, are fully as clear-headed as boys when young, but if, as is the common practice, the girls are brought up to do nothing, to think but little except of dress and amusements, they fall far behind the young man, at the age of 20, in mental ability.

What is needed is, that at home and at school, they be taught that to shine in social circles or to roll in wealth is not the highest aim of womanhood. But let them be taught to make a home joyful and happy, and yet be prepared, if necessary, for life's bitter struggles. Let them understand thoroughly the details of every-day life, the value of all kinds of commodities used daily, how to make a check, draft, note and receipt. Let them be told the truth about themselves and about the world. They should know something about the snares and pitfalls that beset. Let them be thoroughly impressed with the fact that on themselves, in a large degree, depends the success of the men they marry. Let them know how to cook, giving them a thorough course in the kitchen. Let them begin where their mothers left off, and we shall have a generation of girls strong, hopeful, ambitious and self-reliant, that will elevate the men, and make a hardier and more aggressive people, and thousands of firesides happier and better.

HOME.

What beautiful and tender associations cluster thick around that word! The thought of it is a very shield; the name of it has a spell to call back the wanderer from the path of vice, and far away where the myrtle blooms and the palm trees wave, and the ocean sleeps upon coral strands, to the exile's fond fancy it clothes the naked rock, or stormy shore, or barren moor, or wild height and mountain with charms he weeps to think of and longs once more to see. Of all places on earth, home is the most delicate and sensitive. Its chords move with a breath, its fires are kindled with a spark; its flowers are bruised with the least rudeness. Here our hearts wear no covering, no armor. Every arrow strikes them, every cold wave blows full upon them. If we would have a true home, we would guard well our thoughts and actions. A single bitter word may disquiet the home for a whole day, but like unexpected flowers which spring up along our path, full of freshness, fragrance and beauty, so do kind words and gentle acts and sweet dispositions make glad the home where peace and blessings dwell. The heart will turn lovingly toward it from all the tumults of the world, and home, "be it ever so humble," will be the dearest spot under the sun.

LOST CHILDREN.

Children lost! lost! lost! Harken to the startling cry. Children lost! lost! Oh, men, your cities are full of them; and they are your children, your own little tender ones; mothers, the babies that lay in smiling innocense upon your bosoms; the dear, brave boys that looked up to you in perfect confidence and warm impulse love. Your homes are lonely without them, your hearts are hungry for their love. Oh, you miss them now the darlings of other years; you want the little hands in your own once more, you want the warm kiss upon your aching brow. But life hurries on, and lost! lost! ever rings through the darkened aisles of time. One by one the drunkard's graves yawn wide and somebody's darling is gone. The midnight revel and the gambling den covers its ghastly dead, and the homes are in sackcloth and sorrow sits a familiar guest by many a hearthstone. Brave, beloved boys, noble men, fair browed maidens and nature womanhood. Oh, how they fall and perish; and the lands is full of "Rachels, weeping for their children who will not be comforted because they are not."

Things have been humming in Canadian Order of Foresters' circles in Wardner during the past week. Due to the efforts of Organizer Muir, of Vancouver, the order has been increased in the Wardner lodge by from fifteen to twenty members, and as an appreciation of the lodge to the organizer, they gave him a banquet after lodge meeting Friday night last in the Wardner hotel. Plates were laid for about forty guests, and after all had partaken of the good things provided by Mine Host Bohart and wife, songs and speeches concluded the evening's entertainment, all proclaiming Mr Muir a jolly good fellow, and Mr. Bohart and wife capital providers for the inner man.

CRESTON

(From the Creston Review.)

The subdivision of the Dow's addition to the townsite of Creston, consisting of fifty acres, is now complete, and several lots have been sold. Mr. Riel has a number of men clearing the streets and avenues and the subdivision generally. The size of the lots in the new addition are fifty feet in frontage by one hundred and twenty feet in depth. All streets and avenues are 60 feet wide and alleyways 12 feet wide. Prices, we understand, are $100 a lot upon reasonable terms.

The fishing on Goat river is splendid. Big baskets of the finest trout are brought in every day.

The game season opened on Tuesday. September 1st, but very few citizens were to be noticed leaving for the haunts of the birds. Although the birds are reported to be plentiful this year in the district, all the sportsmen of the town have taken an unregistered oath not to molest the birds this year—which is good. Game is becoming scarce, an assertion no one will challenge, and we consequently endorse the judicious action of the true sports.

Blue grouse are beautiful, and when the weather gets cooler, hunters will be after the deer and caribou.

Mr. J. H. Schofield, M.P.P., and family, were camped last week on the Leadville flat, about six miles up the Goat from here, where they entertained a party of guests. The fishing was excellent and the huckleberries abundant.

Lord Sholto Douglas and family are camped at Anchor creek, and they also are entertaining in an open-hearted fashion.

Some of the Indians are complaining that the approaching government land sale and consequent settling up of the country will deprive them of ancient game and fishing privileges, but Mr. Galbraith, the Indian agent, who was in town Tuesday, informs us that no official protest has been registered, and he does not anticipate any trouble. He added that some of the Indians are residing upon public lands.

Our prize rubberneck saw Mayor Little inspecting with great interest some baby chairs outside Myer's store one day this week. Can his worship be contemplating—but no, perish the thought.

Mr. L. Durno has arrived from Belleville, Ont., to relieve Mr. W. E. Bray, at the Bank of Commerce, who is leaving this week for his vacation.

C. O. Rodgers is having 200 acres of his fruit lands surveyed this week by C. E. Moore, P.L.S. Another thousand acres will be surveyed shortly.

W. S. Drewry has had a large crew of men on survey work around the district the past few weeks. The new bridge that will span Arrow creek this fall has been laid out, and the levels for a 220 foot bridge across Goat river in the same direction have been found. The gang left Tuesday for Kootenay flats where the 700 ft. bridge across Goat river is to be made. When that is surveyed Mr. Drewry will begin on the new government road between Creston and Duck creek. The new road will be above the railway track.

M. J. McPeak's store is near completed. It will be one of the best stores in Creston.

W. F. Teetzel is in town today from Nelson. He reports everything going satisfactory for a successful sale on October 14th. Enquiries are coming in from all parts of the continent.

MOYIE

(From the Moyie Leader.)

E. A. Hill returned Tuesday from the coast.

D. A. Ayres' father is here on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ayres.

Harry Dimock has taken over the bowling alley near his hotel.

V. S. Liddicoatt, of Geo. R. Leask & Co., Cranbrook, was here this week finishing up some work which the contracting firm had in hand.

Calder Bros. have just about completed their work on the new Conrad building, next to the Hotel Kootenay. The tailor shop of C. A. Foote and the store of A. B. Stewart have been enlarged considerably, and the upstairs will be used as a lodging house.

Rev. Hughes, of Cranbrook, was here Thursday and held services in the evening at the Methodist church.

Mrs. A. F. Sherman is here from Molson, Wash., and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferris.

Harry Lalonde writes that he has purchased a farm near Notre Dame de LaSalette, Quebec, and will probably not come to the west again.

Harry Deshesne, who has been in the Cranbrook hospital for some time suffering from blood poisoning, is recovering speedily, and will soon be able to return to work.

Robt. Lenox and family returned Thursday from Newport, Idaho, where they have been on an outing for the past ten days. Mr. Lenox is timber foreman at the St. Eugene.

It is understood that S. F. Morley, a Cranbrook capitalist, has in view the putting up of another building in Moyie on the lots adjoining his present building, now under lease by J. W. Fitch. Mr. Morley is noted for his good business investments, and he looks upon Moyie as an absolutely safe place in which to put money. The new building will be at least as large and as substantial as the present one. Mr. Morley will not look for a tenant before he builds, being of the opinion that when the building is up some person looking for a business opening will drop in and lease it.

There is a movement on foot to install an electric lighting system in Moyie. The proposition is meeting with popular favor. More particulars will be given next week.

John Macdonald was forced to give up the Creston school on account of his health. He is again back in Moyie and is working at the St. Eugene concentrator.

GATEWAY

(From the Gateway International)

Mrs. Minteer and Masters Bill and Ben Minteer visited Mrs. Mills last week end.

Mrs. Lenwood and her two daughters leave this week on a visit to Missoula, Montana.

Dr. Bonnell passed through Gateway Thursday morning en route to Fernie.

Mr. H. C. Smith, the express messenger o the passenger train, left Tuesday morning on a trip to Spokane and other points. He was accompanied by his mother.

Mr. B. A. Bryson relieved H. C. Smith, who left on a trip to Spokane.

Trafford and Frank Joule spent Sunday with Judd Mills, across the river.

Mr. Fred Rock returned from Spokane early in the week, where he has been in the hospital, having a bad knee attended to.

Miss Anna Mills paid a flying visit to Gateway on Saturday.

Mrs. Burlingham anh Mrs. J. A. Spencer spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. McCannon.

Miss Bessie Carpenter was in town Saturday.

Holidays are over and the children are back to school again. Mr. Sam Carpenter is teacher for this term.

Mrs. McCannon and family have left the section house and are now staying at the depot.

Mr. Merrill and Mrs. Anderson drove to Eureka, Mont., Monday.

We regret to say that Mrs. McCannon intends leaving Gateway very soon.

MOYIE'S PULL.

(Moyie Leader.)

A. P. Macdonald and E. A. Hill while at the coast last week, went to Victoria and conferred with the government on several matters for the benefit of Moyie. These men pointed out the large revenue which the government derived from Moyie and to the small expenditure which was made on the town each year in return. A promise was made to have the government engineer, Mr. Gamble, come to Moyie and look into the work requested. And there has been no delay on the part of the government, for on Wednesday of this week both Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Gamble were here. The work planned is the rounding of Victoria and Tavistock streets and Moyie and Queen's avenues, and the opening up of several of the other streets. The flume from Campbell creek is to be brought down Queens avenue to the lake, and the sidewalks are to be put in repair. In all an expenditure of several hundred will be made by the government in Moyie this fall.

THE FOOTBALL BOYS PAY A TRIBUTE TO W. A. ROLLINS THEIR PRESIDENT

Last Saturday evening there was an informal meeting of the football boys of Cranbrook at Carmen's hall. The attendance was large and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all. The occasion was the presentation of the cup to the Rovers, the winning team of the season, and a wedding gift to Mr. Rollins from his friends and admirers among the football players of the city, as evidence of their appreciation of his efforts to make the game a success during the past summer. The meeting was called a smoker and it was a success in every way and the programme presented was one that would have done credit to a professional concert. There were songs by J. Burns, A. Black, C. McMillan, J. McLaren, M. Hillary, J. Gibson, D. Morgan, W. Henderson, R. Baldwin, J. Finnessey, R. Hepworth, H. L. Stratham, quartette by Messrs. McLain, Reid, Sorby and McNeil, trio by Messrs. Morgan, Reid and Sorby, speech by S. McDonald and recitation by R. Nafe. The accompanists were. J. Edmondson and J. Ferguson. During the proceedings a set of pearl handle knives and forks were presented to Mr. Rollins, the president of the association, who thanked the donors in appropriate terms for their thoughtfulness and kindness. Afterwards Mr. Rollins took the chair and in his official capacity presented the cup to the winners of the season. The evening was one that will be long remembered by those present, as it gave them an opportunity to get better acquainted and understand the good that there is in human nature.

AT THE THEATRES

Miss Marie Van Tassel and her company held the boards at the Auditorium the first three days of this week. On Monday night "Wife in Name Only" was the bill. In this melodrama Miss Van Tassell as Bess is at her best as she always is in heavy parts. John Lawton as Jas. Meredeth, and Bert Hedley as Davie, divided the honors as leading men, while Miss Bettie Windsor, as the adventuress played a difficult part well. On Tuesday evening "The Mysteries of Audley Court" was presented. This is, of course, a dramatization of the famous novel "Lady Audley's Secret." Miss Van Tassel as Lady Audley was good, Bert Hedley as George Tallboys was really first-class, as was John Lawton as Robert Audley. Miss Windsor, as Phoebe, the maid, showed herself to be a firstclass juvenile lead. On Wednesday the western drama "Wyoming" was put on, in which Miss Van Tassel does a very clever double, playing the parts of Nancy Williams and Billy Pieper. J. Sinkins as the judge, Miss White as Captain Tommy and Bert Hedley as the parson, all played their parts with vim. John Lawton as Sandy eclipsed himself. Mr. Lawton has been in Cranbrook several times before and is known as a versatile actor, having not only played leads but many character parts. The Van Tassel company is above the average of repetoire companies touring the west.

The Edison was packed to the doors on Monday evening when the moving pictures representing the Quebec celebration were presented. Everybody who saw them were delighted with their clearness. The fact that so many notable people appear in these pictures made them of great interest. The rest of the performance, consisting as it did of other animated pictures and songs by Mrs. Devett, was greatly appreciated. The Edison have a change of programme every night this week and there is no doubt about the pictures always being good.

Starting this evening there will be moving pictures at the Auditorium during the balance of the week, with a change of programme each evening. The pictures are of the very best and good houses will be the order for the balance of the week.

WHEN SIMON FRASER CAME

(Daily Columbian.)

Mr. R. E. Gosnell, provincial archivist, who is devoting his attention to the preparations for the centenary celebration of the exploration of the Fraser river by Simon Fraser, is considering a proposition of sending an expedition up the river to run some of the canyons in canoes while a moving picture machine records the scenes for reproduction at the celebration. The plan has been discussed with Mayor Keary, manager of the exhibition, who is also of the opinion that representatives of the explorer's voyage by moving pictures would prove to be one of the leading features of the centenary celebration.

The rectory of Christ church has been re-roofed this week. The rectory was the first residence built on Baker Hill, that was in June, 1898.

At the Liberal meeting tonight features by the Edison theatre staff will be introduced, including songs, motion pictures, etc.

The Rev. Flewelling met with a painful accident yesterday. Slipping on the verandah of the rectory he sprained his ankle severely.

M. A. Macdonald, of the law firm of Harvey, McCarter & Macdonald, returned today from a two months' trip to eastern points.

Walter Reed, of the Cranbrook Co-Operative Stores, had the misfortune to fracture his shoulder blade last week. Mr. Reed is attending to business, although his arm is in a sling.

Hoggarth & Rollins, of the Cranbrook hotel, have had a new advertising stand placed on the counter of the office. This is a very handsome piece of furniture and adds very much to the appearance of the handsome rotunda of the hotel.

Alex. Maycock, who is associated in the banking business with his brother at Gillette, Wyoming, was in the city for a day or two this week, having brought his mother, Mrs. Maycock, here to visit her daughter, Mrs. O'Hearn.

Judge Forin is expected home in Nelson about the 27th of this month from his tour of the Old Country. During Judge Forin's absence Judge Wilson has been taking his duties in West Kootenay. Judge Wilson, on Judge Forin's return, will be relieved of these duties and will simply look after judicial matters in East Kootenay.

Furnished room for rent. Apply to J. Leask. 25-tf

A lodge of Odd Fellows will be installed at Kaslo on the 17th of this month and the members of the Nelson lodge will have charge of the work. The members of Key City Lodge, of this city, have received an invitation to be present. As the Kaslo fruit fair will be on at that time special rates to Kaslo can be secured.

George Pedlar, editor of the Fernie Free Press, was in town yesterday. Mr. Pedlar says that part of their machinery has arrived and the rest will be there this week and that in all probability they will be ready for business next week. The Fernie papers have had a hard time of it and the Herald trusts that they may enjoy an era of prosperity and not have another fire for at least three years.

Colonel Lowery, editor of the Greenwood Ledge, passed through Cranbrook last Thursday. The colonel has been "on the hike," down in the cent belt. When the colonel was leaving a few weeks ago there was a rumor in the press that he would not return alone, but even after a careful examination of the Pullman no sign of a bride could be discovered. Mr. Lowrey says he had a very pleasant time, but is glad to be back among his beloved mountains.

The people of Rock Creek and Benedict Siding have a serious grievance against the C.P.R. Under the old regulations the trains stop at Mayook, where nobody lives, but does not stop at Benedict Siding nor Rock Creek. If a platform was put in half way between these two places it would give satisfaction to all concerned. As it is now there is nobody satisfied. What is the matter with a change that would meet the demands of the public?

Tom Proctor, one of the best boosters that Nelson ever had, and a man who never said a word against another town in boosting his own, was in the city yesterday and today. Mr. Proctor is largely interested in the development of the Kootenays and never tires in singing the sweet song of prosperity in this part of the country. If British Columbia had an army of men like Tom Proctor, Fred Hume, George Wells, Fred Starkey and a few more of that kind this province would be a whirlwind.

W. A. Pratt has returned to the district after an absence of nearly three years. While away Mr. Pratt has been in California, Nevada, Utah, as well as in northern British Columbia. Speaking of the north country Mr. Pratt said: "Rupert is bound to be a large city and there will be the same opportunities there as presented themselves here years ago, but it is a little early to think of going there yet." Mr. Pratt will remain in Cranbrook and has accepted a position with J. F. Huchcroft, the contractor.

Cranbrook is, in proportion to its population, the best show town in the province and is now being educated to a keen discrimination between exhibitions worth the money and those below par. Manager F. W. Reeves, of the Auditorium theatre picture show, "Western Canada's famous baritone," is greatly aiding in the public education and has now a picture show of a singularly attractive character, containing amusement without vulgarity, instruction without boredom and songs of the highest excellence. The crowds at his house prove that his efforts are appreciated fully. 25-1t

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. L. F. & E. will give their social and dance at the Auditorium on the evening of Wednesday, September 16th. The committee in charge of the affair are leaving nothing undone to make the event a great success. The tickets are being sold for $1.50, which includes the social, dance and refreshments. The Moyie orchestra will be in attendance. This promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the early fall season, and no one should miss the opportunity to be present.

Hugh Fulton, of Ladysmith, grand master of the Odd Fellows of British Columbia, will meet with the members of Key City Lodge and the Rebekahs of this city next Saturday evening at the lodge rooms. The committee in charge will arrange for a closed meeting and later there will be a banquet and the members of the Rebekah lodge will be present with the Odd Fellows. Owing to the short time to give notice the committee has asked the Herald to invite every Odd Fellow in the city to be present on that occasion and join in extending to the grand master a most cordial welcome.

The banks in Greenwood have withdrawn their advertising patronage from the Greenwood Ledge. That newspaper in commenting on the incident says: "The banks of Greenwood have quit advertising in the Ledge. It is believed that this course was taken owing to The Ledge's position on labor questions. The paper will probably pull through. We are, of course, sorry to lose advertising patronage, but would be more sorry to lose our self-respect and retain the adverisements of the banks. Some day the bank managers of Greenwood may need a good word even from The Ledge. Bank managers are human like other mortals."

There is nothing that appeals to a woman in the way of the artistic more than cut glass, and history has never recorded a case where a present of cut glass failed to please and give the utmost delight. There has been displays of this favorite ware in western towns time and again, but perhaps there never was such a display as that being made by Beattie & Atchison at the present time. One of the large windows in the store was filled last week with every conceivable design of cut glass, from the smallest tray to a lamp that reaches the price of $150. Hundreds of people have lingered in front of that window and thoroughly enjoyed the beauty presented by the artistic arrangement made by E. H. Small, who delights in handling a window when he has the right kind of goods to make a display. Some have asked what the firm will do with so much cut glass. Mr. Beattie meets this inquiry with a smile, as he has dealt with the people of this district for years and fully realizes that they want the best when they do buy, especially when they can get such a class of goods at the price that these are being sold at. There is a reason for the low prices, and that is that the firm bought direct from the big factory in Vermont and cut out the middle man's profits. This can only be done when one buys on a large scale as Beattie & Atchison have done this year.

AT THE ST. EUGENE

(Moyie Leader.)

A new boiler room is to be built near the Lake Shore working of the St. Eugene, and a high trestle is to be built out over the railway track, over which the waste will be carried out over and dumped. There was a larger shipment of ore from the St. Eugene last week than for any week previous during the current year. The mine now has more ore in sight than ever before in its history.
