EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN WAS OPENED SUNDAY LAST; GOOD AUDIENCES

Rev. F. A. Robinson And Assistants Engaging In Three Weeks' Effort Here

Rev. F. A. Robinson, M.A., occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church on Sunday morning last, the service being the opening of the interdenominational mission of evangelism which is being conducted by Mr. Robinson, assisted by Miss C. B. Grunert, pianiste, and Miss A. B. Niven, soloist.

After the pastor, Rev. W. T. Tapscott, had opened the service, an Easter anthem "The Light of Easter Morning," was rendered by the choir.

In reference to the special meetings commencing, Mr. Robinson asked for the co-operation of all, in order that the meetings might be the more successful. Choosing as his subject "The Revelation of Immortality," and as his text the great question of Job "If a man die shall he live again?" the speaker in an interesting and forceful address showed how an answer to the great question might be arrived at by deduction from various analagous material examples.

REV. F. A. ROBINSON, M.A.
Conducting Evangelistic Services

MISS A. B. NIVEN, Vocal Soloist

The writings of the men of the Old Testament showed that while they all longed for immortality, they had not the hope. Job disconsolately reflects that there is hope for the tree; it may be cut down but it will sprout again. But man dieth and wasteth away. The speaker pointed out that the one great answer to the question was given in the resurrection of Christ. In reality it is the only answer. To all, death was certain; but it should not terrify. It was but the changing of the habitation of the soul. In things material it was a scientific fact that nothing can be destroyed; the form may be changed but the matter still exists.

Mr. Robinson also made reference to the 23rd Psalm, and other works of literature and art, and asked if it was logical to suppose that the influence of these works should remain and their authors perish? He could not conceive of this life, with its disappointments and shattered hopes and ambitions being the "be all and end all." Surely there was a future state where the apparent inequalities and the unfair rewards for good and evil would be adjusted, where the thwarted ambitions of life might be realized; where Beethoven and Raphael might complete the works which they but commenced on earth. To see the eagle hitting the bars of its cage is to realize that it is not in its intended sphere, and is striving to be free. So with the personality; it is limited by its habitation in the body, and will not find true expression until it is freed. In everything there is seen a demand for a future, and it would be inconsistent with the completeness of things to be otherwise.

The speaker closed his address with a very touching story of the dying child telling her father that she would see him in the morning. To her it was but the breaking of another day.

Miss A. B. Niven, whose singing has been much appreciated wherever she has been heard, rendered a very pleasing solo "There's a Beautiful Land on High," Miss C. B. Grunert accompanying her on the organ.

The church was very prettily decorated with flowers for the service.

Before an audience that filled every available seat in Knox Presbyterian Church, the evening services of the series of evangelistic meetings being at present conducted in Cranbrook were commenced.

The meeting was opened with the singing of some of the old familiar hymns, and the reading of the 23rd Psalm. Miss Niven and Mr. Robinson

To Go Ahead With Hatchery

Rod and Gun Club Will Depend Solely Upon Local Effort To Establish This

On Wednesday evening a very important meeting of the Rod and Gun Club was held in the City Hall to consider the matter of the establishment of a local fish hatchery.

The chairman, Mr. E. T. Cooper, announced that it would be impossible to count on any assistance from the Department, and if the work was undertaken that it would be up to the Club to meet the expense incurred. As to a hatchery location the committee had practically decided on that about three-quarters of a mile out of town on the Wycliffe road, a dam already being located there. A little labor would be necessary to put it in shape. This could be leased from H. L. Stevens for a period of five years for a rental of five dollars per year. He reported having taken up the matter of a man for the hatchery with Mr. Motherwell, at present in Vancouver, who recommended Mr. H. J. Ryder of Mt. Lehman, B.C. A wire was read from Mr. Ryder offering to come for $115 per month.

Mr. McKowan reported that the committee had estimated that a suitable hatchery could be put up for $200.

The report of committees being received, it was unanimously decided to go ahead with the project, as it would only be a short time till the local streams would be totally depleted.

The meeting after some discussion decided to accept the offer of Mr. Ryder and instructions were given to wire him to report at once. A wire was also sent to Mr. Guimont who is at the Coast to get in touch with Mr. Ryder re. his engagement and possible requirements for the operation of the hatchery here.

It is the intention of the Club to use Fish Lake, an application to the Government being sent asking for the closing thereof. Native fish of the Cut Throat variety will be stocked.

To raise the necessary funds to carry on for this season a committee of management was appointed consisting of W. Lamb, H. Mott and W. H. Wilson, and a committee on subscriptions of Geo. Hogarth, W. H. Wilson, A. Hurry and G. B. Willis.

Much credit is due the Club for their initiative in going ahead single handed in the establishment of a local hatchery, the Government deciding that they could not render any assistance. The importance of this step cannot be over estimated. At this tive every effort is being made to attract tourists to this district, and one of the principal drawing cards is the wonderful fishing possibilities. The fish each year in the streams and lakes are gradually being depleted, and unless something is done to secure restocking, the fishing will be gone.

YOUNG LADIES STAGE SUCCESSFUL EASTER BALL IN AID OF THE HOSPITAL

If the number in attendance at the big Easter Ball at the Auditorium on Monday evening is any criterion, the St. Eugene Hospital holds a much esteemed position in Cranbrook and the surrounding district. In point of numbers the attendance almost equalled that of any dance ever held in Cranbrook. For several weeks energetic committees of young ladies have been working to insure the success of the dance, for which they had taken the responsibility, and it should be very gratifying that their efforts met with such success.

A ticket selling campaign was put on and so thoroughly was the canvass made that every person from Dan to Beer Sheba got an opportunity to help. At the dance it seemed as though every one from Sirdar to Crow's Nest were there, and the hall was only half as large as it should have been to accommodate those wishing to dance.

The refreshments were served on the stage, the arrangements for which were perfect. The young ladies attending strictly to business, took care of the large assembly without the slightest hitch. The good things were there in abundance and the "Go Easy" sign was nowhere to be seen. On the floor there was a jamb, but all were in the best of spirits with little evidence of the best of spirits being in anybody. The music was in the hands of Mr. W. Smith, the Melody Five playing for the supper numbers.

Ticket Committee: Miss Sybil White secretary, Miss Helen DeCew, Miss Virginia Wolfe, Miss Della Drummond, Miss Hazel Trembath, Miss Janette Carlyle, Miss Doris Kershaw, Miss Mary Terrace.

Music Committee: Miss Frances Drummond, Miss Della Greaves.

Refreshment Committee: Miss Muriel Baxter convenor, Miss Lauretta Armstrong, Miss Myrtle Martin, Mrs. A. G. Schell.

Club Presents Good Concert

Clef Club Orchestra At The Star Theatre On Thursday Evening

On Thursday evening of this week at the Star Theatre, a very ambitious concert program was presented by the Clef Club, but the attendance, perhaps due to the return of winter conditions for a day or two, and the close proximity of other big events in the city's social life, was very far from being what it should have been. No matter under whose aegis programs of this nature are presented, this is distinctly discouraging to those who work indefatigably to prepare music out of the ordinary.

The nine piece orchestra under the leadership of Mr. F. G. Novak contributed five items to the program, undoubtedly the best they have yet been heard in. An innovation in this connection was the introduction of the organ, played by Miss Ivy Bidder, in addition to Mrs. Novak at the piano. Probably the strongest number by the orchestra was the descriptive "Battle of the Nations," where there was some realism quite true to the spirit of the piece. The Il Trovatore selection was also exceptionally well rendered, and the jazz selection at the conclusion of the program was something at the same time novel and striking.

Assisting the Club members on the program was Mrs. E. Paterson, who appeared with Mrs. Novak in a very effective vocal duet, a Southern negro song, for which they were recalled, when they gave a vocal setting of the well known and melodious "Barcarolle" from "The Tales of Hoffman." The other vocal number on the program was the rollicking solo "Tom Bowling," rendered by Mr. W. A. Burton. He was also given an encore.

What might be called the piece de resistance on the program, without implying any detriment to other numbers, was the 'cello solo by J. K. Chorlton, Golterman's Concerto No. 4, which is a particularly pretentious concert number, but to which Mr. Chorlton did full justice. This was appreciated no less than the more popular encore number he gave, "To the Evening Star," from Wagner's "Tannhauser."

W. H. Bevan's cornet solos as in previous concerts were well finished and showed how he gave to his instrument the mellowness and smooth tone often absent when the cornet is taken from the ensemble. His first number was a Jacobs-Bond song, and his encore D'Hardelot's well known "Because." Another instrumental solo ranking high in the program was the Rachmaninoff Prelude in C sharp minor by Mrs. Novak on the piano.

The ubiquitous saxophone, usually associated with jazz and syncopated effect has been elevated to the concert platform, and made two very creditable appearances in the program on Thursday evening, including a duet arrangement of the famous sextette from "Lucia," and a quartette in march time. A trio number by the violin, 'cello and piano seemed to deserve a more prominent place on the program than almost at the close, and was quite deserving of the encore it elicited.

It is hoped that the meagre support musical organizations seem to sometime encounter in events of this nature, will not discourage them from their efforts. A first class concert program calls for abundant hard work and concentration in its preparation, and for the good name of the city, one hesitates to say they are allowed to pass entirely unappreciated.

WEDDING

WOOD — SANDERSON

On Monday morning of this week, at eleven o'clock, the wedding took place of Miss Edna Sanderson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sanderson, to Mr. Clifford Wood, of this city. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Bald Hill, Rev. B. C. Freeman officiating.

The bride wore a becoming dress of white satin and veil with orange blossoms, and carried a pretty bouquet of lilies and carnations. Miss Ivy Sanderson, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid, was attired in a dress of sand and brown while Mrs. Sanderson, mother of the bride, was gowned in black satin and lace. Mr. W. C. Adlard acted as groomsman. The Wedding March was played by Mrs. Turner, who also accompanied for Mrs. Adlard when she rendered a vocal solo after the ceremony, "Perfect Love."

The happy couple left that day for the Coast to spend the honeymoon, going to Vancouver and Victoria, and intending to return via Seattle and Spokane. The groom, who is now with the B. and B. department of the C. P. R., served during the war with the merchant marine service. They received many wedding gifts from friends, testifying to the wealth of good wishes that are extended to them at the outset of their married life.

Among the guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. Linnell and Miss Irene, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Adlard, Mrs. A. C. Shankland, Mr. R. Hansen, and Mrs. Turner.

UNITED MEMORIAL SERVICE TO BE HELD SUNDAY EVENING

The annual memorial service organized by the G. W. V. A., in memory of the soldiers who laid down their lives in the war, is to be held on Sunday evening next, at the Auditorium, at the close of the regular evening services. Last year, when this service was held in connection with the unveiling of the memorial, the day closed with one of the largest religious services ever held in the city.

The date is an auspicious one, being the nearest Sunday to the anniversary of Vimy Day, recalling the Eastertide of a few years back when so many Canadoans contributed with life and limb to one of the most glorious chapters of arms in the nation's history. The service is to be a united one in the true sense, and the occasion is surely one that should be kept green.

PATRICIA CONFECTIONERY PARLORS ARE SOLD; NEW OWNERS TAKE OVER

The Patricia Confectionery Co. have purchased the business formerly owned by Charles Smith, and have possession this evening. One of the partners is an experienced candy maker, and they purpose making every line of candy on the premises. Considerable alterations will be made with a view to making the Patricia one of the most attractive places of its kind in the interior of British Columbia.

The deal was put through by Martin Bros. and only finally closed this afternoon, Friday, being one of the outstanding deals locally for some time past.

An interesting inmate at the hospital at present is Mr. Thos. Melville, O. B. E., a native of Edinburgh, and decorated with the Order of the British Empire for services rendered during the war. An accomplished linguist, he saw exciting thrilling secret service in Germany and Russia out of which he was lucky to emerge with his life, considering the risks taken. He also saw much service with the merchant marine, having the rank of commodore, and tells of being torpedoed twice within a very short space when the German submarines were active in the waters adjacent to the Old Land. Mr. Melville relates his varied experiences without embellishment, leaving one to gather a good deal more by inference than by admission. It is gratifying to know that there is a possibility that Mr. Melville may decide to settle here.

HALL CAINE'S BIG STORY "THE CHRISTIAN" COMING TO THE STAR

The Star Theatre announces the closing of a contract this afternoon, Friday, for the appearance in this city of one of the biggest film productions they have yet brought in.

This is the screen version of Hall Caine's famous book "The Christian." It has been booked for Tuesday and Wednesday, May 2 and 3. It has been the custom of the Star to place its big pictures as far as possible on the last two days of the week, but in this case it was found necessary to take the dates offered or put off till later in the year.

The Star has endeavored to get the big pictures while they are still new, and it was decided to take a chance on the public responding to their enterprise rather than wait till the picture could no longer be said to be new.

"The Christian" has been extremely well spoken of in the big cities where it has lately been played.

A. E. Leigh returned on Thursday from a short visit to Calgary.

Labor Party to be Organized

Meeting Sunday Last Discusses Matter And Decides To Form New Party

Seeing that no active steps have been taken in regard to re-organization of the Progressive Party in Cranbrook since December 31st, 1922, a meeting was called for 3.30 p.m. last Sunday afternoon, through the initiative of the local lodge of Carmen, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of forming a local branch of the Dominion Labor Party. Notices had been sent to all trade unions in the city.

There was a fully representative gathering present of the various trade union organizations of this city. Mr. Jas. Lunn was voted to the chair and Alderman Tom Bronsdon as secretary pro tem. Mr. Jas. Simms of Athalmer, who is so well known in labor circles, was present at the meeting and treated the large number at the meeting with a forceful, invigorating address, basing his remarks chiefly upon the equity, justice and humane principles of the world-wide labor movement.

Ald. T. Bronsdon declared his whole hearted support and urged upon the meeting taking immediate action.

School Trustee Henderson also laid stress upon the fact that in the two last elections the true labor principles have been the foundation of the local party, notwithstanding that different names have been inscribed upon their banners.

Mr. Harvey Gammon, another of the prominent members of the local labor movement, also spoke very strongly in favor of the suggested move, and offered many valuable and instructive pointers. Mr. R. Tiffen also added a few words of seasoned advice, and displayed the warmest support to the labor cause. Mr. Mat. Newlands also threw himself into the movement.

A motion was eventually put to the meeting, moved by Mr. Jas. Simms, seconded by Mr. H. Gammon, "That this meeting go on record that it is in favor of forming a branch of the Dominion Labor Party, and that a meeting be called at a future date to ratify same and proceed with organization and election of officers."

It was finally decided to hold the meeting on Saturday evening, April 21st, at a hall to be arranged for. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed throughout the meeting, and all motions passed unanimously.

Mrs. O. Thompson returned home on Saturday from the hospital.

Local Men Form New Company

To Operate Sawmill at Wolfe Creek, north of Wasa; Capitalized at $25,000.

Under the name of the Kootenay River Lumber Co., Ltd., a number of local men have formed a syndicate to operate a sawmill at Wolfe Creek, about four miles north of Wasa, on the Kootenay River, where it is estimated they have a cut lasting for a number of years. The process of incorporation into a limited liability company is now under way, the names of those interested in the new venture being Messrs Malcolm Horie, T. M. Roberts, George Leitch, J. A. Arnold, M. A. Beale and I. Baxter. The capitalization of the company will be registered at $25,000, and it is expected operations will start about the beginning of May. Some of the plant was shipped north this week, comprising a car of equipment formerly belonging to the Bridges Lumber Company.

Several experienced lumbermen are included in the personnel of the concern who will personally be in charge of operations.

EMINENT CATHOLIC PRIESTS TO CONDUCT MISSION IN THIS CITY

Rev. Jos. Moriarty, O.M.I., has sent word that he will arrive from Seattle Wednesday, April 11th. He is to give a series of missions to Catholics in B.C. and Alberta. Cranbrook, Lethbridge, Fernie, Kimberley, Creston, Saskatoon are the places at present marked his itinerary.

There can be little doubt regarding the success of his preaching, seeing the reputation he has acquired during the past winter, doing the same work in California, Oregon and Washington. Father Moriarty is a native of Kingston, Ont., and is a boyhood acquaintance of Messrs Byrne and Magnet, of Slaterville.

The mission for adults in St. Mary's Church, Cranbrook, will open Sunday morning, April 15th, and close Sunday evening, April 22nd.

Classes for children preparing for Confirmation and first Communion are being conducted daily in St. Mary's Church, and will continue until April 29th, on which date Archbishop Casey of Vancouver will confer the sacrament of Confirmation.

G. C. Hunt of Kitchener visited Cranbrook on Thursday.

WHERE EXAMPLE IS BETTER THAN PRECEPT

A few weeks ago the department of the attorney-general at Victoria sent out a very moving appeal to employers urging that every possible consideration be given the returned men in filling positions that might be available. This tenderly worded letter dwelt upon the tremendous sacrifices these men had made; how all they sought in return was a chance to re-establish themselves into civil life again; and finally how returned men were being given the preference in the filling of government positions.

All of which is nothing short of sheer hypocrisy on the part of the government, as witness the fact that only this week in the filling of a vacancy in one of the government departments in this city, returned men with various stages of disability sustained in the war were ignored. If this were an isolated instance it might be passed over. Small wonder that the veterans very vigorously express their condemnation of such proceedings. To perpetrate injustices of this kind is bad enough; but to attempt to hide them under a cloak of hypocrisy is despicable, and many staunch supporters of the government have not been loath to express themselves forcibly in regard to this incident.

THE FRUIT OF VICTORY — DEATH

A cruel irony has robbed the great British Egyptologist, Lord Carnarvon, of the fruits of his persistence during years of research in the land of the Pharohs. He spent a fortune in money and almost a decade in excavation and search for the hidden tombs in the valley of the kings, and when his patience is rewarded by a glimpse of discoveries the real worth of which have yet only been valued from the material standpoint, death strikes the discoverer down.

Carnarvon's thought was never to desecrate the tomb of the king Tut-anhk-amen. The burial places of the Egyptian monarchs of old were spacious, and the practice was made of enclosing in the tomb an incredible mass of material of all descriptions which opens the pages of history and sheds a full light on the times of the buried monarchs. Tut-ankh-amen was one of the obscure Pharohs, but the wealth buried with him indicates that the opulence of his court must have been dazzling, even when viewed with modern eyes.

GETTING CONFIDENCE IN OURSELVES

It is a hopeful sign when local capital can be obtained to take advantage of the industrial opportunities of the district. There are many indications in evidence at present proving that the people of this section are alive to the possibilities at their doors. Outside capital will continue shy and backward where local capital is seen to keep clear of the opportunities right here in Cranbrook and vicinity. It is another sign of normalcy when local capital loosens up for legitimate purposes, as it seems to be doing at present in undertakings of different natures.

NOTES

Another sign that the country is getting back to normalcy is seen in the talk at Ottawa anticipating a reversion shortly to the two cent. postal rate which obtained before the war. The extra cent was added, not to increase the postal revenue, but to add to the general revenue to help meet the strain imposed by the war.

Having apparently given up the Conservatives as a bad job, Premier Oliver is now diverting the channels of his well known vituperative oratory to pour abuse and criticism upon the newly born Provincial Party. In the course of an address recently in the Okanagan, after having referred characteristically to the new party, the Premier made the bombastic statement that he could win a by-election in Vancouver without ever going near the city himself. It is quite conceivable after the way he won the Cranbrook by-election last year, that his party in Vancouver would stand more chance if he did stay away, but seeing that there has been a vacancy in the Coast city for many months now; that Vancouver went through the last session a member short and without any cabinet representation, is there not ample opportunity for the Premier to back his statement up by trying it?

FROM THE VIEW-POINT OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES

MORE UNDIGNIFIED LANGUAGE

Hon. A. M. Manson made a very serious attack upon the new party leader's reputation last Wednesday in publicly stating: "When we consider the various enterprises with which General McRae has been connected in the past, I am inclined to believe that he is hardly worth considering; the less said the better, I think."

Instead of answering Mr. Manson with personal abuse General McRae is to be commended on his understanding of modern public opinion. General McRae has demanded full publicity be immediately given to all facts reflecting upon his character.

The Liberal Party and the Attorney General are still suffering from the unanswered Stevens charges and the undignified language used by Mr. Manson at that time.

Using official position instead of facts to attack the personal reputation of private citizens or political opponents, is attempting Government by blackmail.

In the interests of both the Party and himself Mr. Manson must lose no time in making good his charges.

MUST CURTAIL NATIONAL EXPENDITURE

Parliament's duty during the present session is to compel the ministry to turn off the taps of expenditure. It should compel the Government to realize that the existing revenue, flowing from extra-normal taxation, is for the payment of our debts, and not for extra expenditure. It should impress upon Mr. King that the public is sick and tired of taxation, and that facile talk of buoyant revenues is only a reminder to the public of the extent to which it is being taxed. In a word, Parliament ought to compel the Government to apply to its financial policy, and like any individual or corporation, cut its financial cost to suit its financial cloth.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Extracts from The Cranbrook Herald of this date, 1903.

According to those in close touch with the progress of the town, great strides have been made in the last five years in every direction. The population is now estimated at 2,000 and there is not an idle man in the place.

Direct postal communication has now been arranged between Cranbrook and the Windermere, which is going to prove a boon to both places.

Word comes from Montreal that Dr J. H. King had gone to the hospital there and successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The annual meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid reported a revenue of $360 for the year, and an enrolment of 40 members.

The volunteer fire brigade has decided to hold weekly practices, and a large number enrolled at a meeting, when the appointment of J. P. Fink as chief was confirmed.

DISTANT FIELDS NOT ALWAYS AS GREEN AS THEY LOOK

It is now calculated that B.C. investors have lost approximately three quarters of a million dollars in the collapse of the L. R. Steel Service Corporation. With plenty of opportunity to invest surplus capital in our own province, this loss may be a blessing in disguise, as it may lead to B.C. residents opening up their own undeveloped territory instead of supporting enterprises in other lands.

G. W. V. A. NOTES

All ex-service men are asked to be at the G.W.V.A. headquarters at 8 p.m. sharp next Sunday, April 8th.

We will parade in a body to the Memorial Service at the Auditorium. The ushers are asked to appear in uniform if possible.

Remember this is our annual service held in honor and memory of those who did not return.

24th May Celebration

The G.W.V.A. has been fortunate enough to secure the Exhibition grounds on the hill for the coming 24th May Celebration. There will be horse racing aplenty and other attractions which we hope will outclass anything previously offered in Cranbrook.

Baseball and football games will be on the programme of the day, and a big dance in the Auditorium in the evening. Watch for the advance posters.

Smoker

Don't forget the smoker at our Club Rooms, on Saturday, April 7th, at 8 p.m. A meeting will follow it, at which very important business is to be discussed. So be present and tell the other fellow.

BOY SCOUTS

What the Cranbrook Troop is Doing

General Sir Robert Baden-Powell is in Canada now and addressed the annual meeting of the Canadian General Council, Canadian Boy Scouts Association at Ottawa on March 28th. Dr. James W. Robertson was re-elected Dominion Chief Commissioner, and occupied the chair.

Sir Robert Baden-Powell expressed pleasure at the splendid record of advancement contained in the report of the year, and referred briefly to the part to be taken by the Scouts in the forthcoming British Empire Exhibition in 1924 in London.

The use of the Empire Stadium had been secured for a week, and already South Africa and Australia had signified their intention of being represented by a contingent.

Wm. Johnston has been appointed distributor for Oldsmobile cars for this district with territory extending from Burmis, Alberta to Kootenay Landing, B.C., and the Windermere district. Bill says that the Oldsmobile is making a great name for itself wherever used, being a very popular car for this country on account of its great hill climbing ability. He has already received orders for one carload of four cars for the Hillcrest Garage and an order for five Model 43-A Oldsmobiles from Paulsen and Fenwick of Cranbrook. A car load of the very latest models are now on the road from the Lansing, Mich. factory, and will be on exhibition in Fernie very shortly at the new show room on Wood Street.

A little child in the city had a narrow escape last week from poisoning, when it got into the cellar and discovered some food which had been sprinkled with strychnine to poison mice. A few minutes more and there might have been a more tragic ending to the incident.

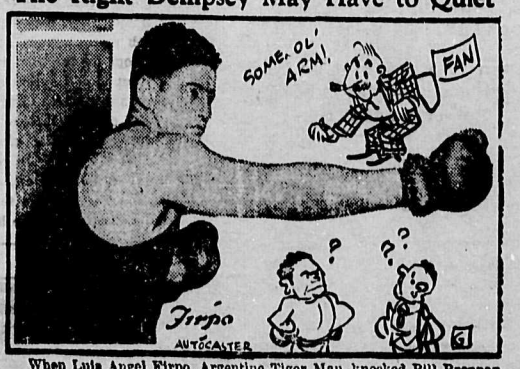
The Right Dempsey May Have to Quiet



When Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine Tiger Man, knocked Bill Brennan cold in twelve rounds (the same number it took Dempsey) at New York last week, South America made its first serious bid to fistic titles. This big dark man without a smile weighs 210 pounds and proved his fighting heart when he took all Brennan could shoot at him and still had a mighty knockout wallop left. If Firpo comes through a summer campaign with a record in keeping with his defeat of Brennan, a match with Dempsey for the title will likely be staged in the fall—if not in America, then at Buenos Ayres, S. A.

Miss S. V. McCallum, who spent the Easter holiday at her home at Kaslo, was compelled to undergo an operation for appendicitis a few days ago, and will not be returning in time to recommence her duties next week. It is probable that Mrs. P. W. Willis will again be substituted in her stead.

The canned goods campaign put on last week by the city grocers proved a great success. Backed by the Western Grocers, they put on an active advertising campaign, and as a result approximately $1,000 worth of canned goods were disposed of. At the same session of the Sunday School on Sunday last, another special feature was a presentation made by the Rector, Rev. F. V. Harrison, on behalf of the officers and members of the school, to Mr. F. G. Morris, the superintendent, of a handsome mantle clock. This was in appreciation of the hard work put in by Mr. Morris in organizing and directing the activities of the school till the present healthy condition of affairs has come about. ALTERNATIVE MEETING OF WINDERMERE WOMEN TO HEAR ADDRESSES

Conservative, Labor and Liberal Speakers to Explain Aims of Parties

(Special to The Herald

Invermere, B.C., March 30.—Before an audience of over thirty women of the district, Mr. A. M. Chisholm of Windermere, on Wednesday of last week, set out in a very forceful manner the chief planks in the platform of the Conservative Party. He was listened to with interest and attention.

On Friday of this week Mr. James Sims, of this place, will explain the main features, hopes and aspirations in the political world of the Labor Party.

Mr. John A. Buchanan, M.P.P. for Columbia Riding, has promised to give a review of the last Session before the ladies of this community.

These meetings are all held at the home of Mrs. Basil G. Hamilton, Invermere Heights. They are entirely non-partizan, but have as their main object more light on what moves and controls the various political bodies, and a desire for a more intimate knowledge of any possible candidate for election to office. The number in attendance at each meeting is constantly on the increase.

Finds The Right Thing for Asthma

Ontario Lady Just Rubs Vicks Over Throat and Chest

Here is the last word in treating cold troubles—rub Vicks well in over throat and chest. Get into bed and have the coverings loose about the neck. All night long you breathe in the healing vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Turpentine, etc. The application also acts like a heating liniment or plaster. It is almost sure to loosen the cold before morning.

Mrs. J. Saunders of 235 Barton St., East Hamilton, Ont., says: "I was bothered with asthma and a very bad cold on my chest. I applied Vicks VapoRub, rubbing it on with my fingers, and found it gave me wonderful relief. I would be pleased to recommend it to anyone having a bad cold or in case of burns. As a family medicine it has no equal. I know it will help others and it has helped me."

Treatment with Vicks is especially desirable for children as it avoids so much dosing. Just as good, too, for cuts, burns, bruises, sores and skin itchings.

At all drug stores, 50c. a jar. For a free test size package, write Vick Chemical Co., 344 St. Paul St., W., Montreal, P. Q.

WHY BABIES CRY

It's often hard to find the trouble—It may be teeth—it may be stomach—but oh! so often it is just a chafed irritated skin on which poor Soap has been used.

The remedy for this is so simple! Hours of suffering—night after night of disturbance—have been avoided by mothers, who have insisted on—Baby's Own Soap. Of course it costs a little more, a very little more, however—than what is often bought and used—but four generations of Canadian Mothers are there to vouch for its purity, for the soothing healing effect on Baby's delicate skin, for the lovely pure flower fragrance it leaves when Baby fresh and clean is taken from his bath.

Don't you think, Madam, it's worth paying the 15c. a cake, a little less if you buy a box (3 cakes) which your dealer asks for Baby's Own Soap. Adv.

MAUNDY THURSDAY RECALLS OLD CUSTOM STILL OBSERVED

(Special to The Herald)

Invermere, B.C., March 31.—Thursday last, the 29th, was Maundy Thursday. This is a day of great humiliation throughout the higher church orders of the Christian world, being specially observed by prelates of the Church of Rome, including the Pope himself. The name is derived from the early Saxon word "maund," a command, and has special reference to the command given in the Gospel of St. John to wash one another's feet.

In England the strict observance of the practice of washing the feet of twelve persons by the sovereign was last performed in person in the days of the Stuarts, but it is still observed by Great Britain's sovereign in a more practical manner, to wit, the giving of money to as many deserving men and an equal number of women as the ruling sovereign has lived in years. Each man receives a white purse containing £2 5s. and each woman one containing £1 15s., this amount being in lieu of clothing. In these purses is the Maundy money, consisting of silver pennies, twopenny pieces, threepenny and fourpenny bits, all fresh from the Mint. These cute little coins are in great demand and each set brings quite a premium to the worthy recipient.

Each of the chosen persons also receives a red purse in lieu of provisions, to each man goes £1 10s., and to each woman £1. The purses are distributed in Westminster Abby in each year after the holding of a very solemn service.

WASA NOTES

Henry Osborne, a conspicuous figure at the Lovering Lumber Co.'s camp during the winter months, is contemplating making a trip home to Montreal in the near future. Mr. Osborne has been in the service for the Company in various capacities, sometimes as porter and sometimes as a teamster, and again as kitchen assistant. However, he has delivered the goods in due form.

Mr. Andy Edgar who is known from the rock bound shores of Maine to the timbered areas of the Pacific slope, left Wasa a few days ago to renew friends and acquaintances in Cranbrook. Mr. Edgar is a man of varied experience in the lumber business, and is also endowed with a pleasing personality. His friends here wish him success and happiness on his journey.

Mr. Charlie Skiet, chef at the saw mill boarding house for the Company, is delivering the goods as chef. Mr. Skiel is formerly from the middle west, it is said. Minnesota and Wisconsin were formerly his base of operations or former abode.

Wolf Creek, a tributary of Kootenay River, is to be the scene of another saw-mill, according to report. Plans are now being drawn up for a large mill, and considerable timber is available for its operation for a number of years to come. Among the directors are Mr. Malcolm Horry, Mr George Leitch, and Mr. Baxter, all of Cranbrook.

Mr. Faulko is spending a few days with Mr. Gould at the ranch near Wolf Creek. Mr. Faulko, who was stable boss at the Lovering Co.'s camp during the first winter, has been suffering from a nervous breakdown for some time, but is now recovering somewhat and will soon be able to take nourishment, it is reported.

Otto Thede and Henry Osborne, who have worked at the Lovering Camps during the past season, are making preparations for their return home to Montreal. The boys while in the West have had varied experiences, first in the harvest fields and finally the lure of the forests of B.C. concluded their exploits, so far as conditions would allow. Mr. Thede is somewhat of an athlete, while Mr. Osborne divides his time between the dairy business and Y.M.C.A. work in the East.

WASA CAMP NOTES

Robert McBean has accepted the position of kitchen assistant at Lovering's camp, upon the departure of Mr. Tom Beggs, who will assume the position of edgerman at the mill.

Jim Burns and his partner Mr. Haynes, have resigned their contract of sawing logs, and will proceed to Spokane to their former home.

Mr. Fred Green, who left here some time ago for McGillivray, returned for his personal effects a few days ago, and may continue on his journey for Spokane and other points across the border.

Mr. Jimmy Beggs, skidding teamster at this place during the past winter, has resigned to visit Cranbrook, and possibly the prairie before taking up his vocation as setter in the mill.

Mr. Henry Osborne has taken up the position of porter at the Company's camp. Mr. Osborne is a young man overflowing with energy, and constructive ability as it were, who will deliver the goods, it is expected, in due form.

Mr. Jack Taylor of Cranbrook has taken up the position of camp foreman for the Lovering Lumber Company, upon the resignation of Mr. Andy Edgar, who was at the helm during the past winter.

Mr. Gooderham of Cranbrook, who has been in the service at the camp as porter, has resigned to take up his duties on the ranch near Cranbrook in the future.

Mr. Eddie Bickford is now on the water wagon, and will in the future manipulate as barn boss, to succeed the former stable boss who is on a vacation for an indefinite period, it is reported.

Mr. Scraggs, superintendent for the Lovering Lumber Company, has returned from a trip to Spokane, and reports that the mill will be started up as soon as conditions will permit.

Mr. Cretney of Fort Steele is making good progress with his work of cutting and skidding logs for the Lovering Lumber Company, near Wasa.

Mr. Pete Jaffray, who owns and operates a ranch some four miles from the Company's Camp, makes occasional visits to his home and farmstead to ascertain how things are running. At this season of the year very little is being done save to look after the stock, but Pete states that although he is somewhat advanced in years he still has plenty of "pep" or ambition to make good. His only drawback, it seems, is that he has been a little shy with the fair sex, and has as a result been a bachelor all his life. Why not speed up a little and join the benedicts?

Mr. Carson of Cranbrook motored to the camps on Sunday last, en route to Skookumchuck. Mr. Carson was accompanied by two friends, also of Cranbrook.

Lewis Magrath, formerly with Mr. Cretney as teamster, has resigned to take a position as edgerman with Mr. Leask on Wolf Creek.

Douglas Dean spent the week-end at Cranbrook, where he enjoyed the hospitality tendered him very much by the people of the metropolis. Mr. Dean, of course, hails from the prairie, where the whispering winds do not carry the ozone and nectar common to the timbered areas of British Columbia, and where the husky lumberjack is seldom to be seen save when he is obliged to render his services to gather in the sheaves for his daily bread.

Robert McDonald, teamster for Mr. Cretney, resigned his position and may return to Superior, Wisconsin, his home across the border. Mr. McDonald, although American, believes Canada's opportunities are par excellence for the man who has the right stuff in him to help himself.

Fred Weller who was in the service here for the Company during the past winter, returned from Spokane, where he has been for the past month, and reports that the Falls City is quite lively in a business way.

Mr. Fletcher McDonald, former cook at the Lovering Lumber Company's camp, was a visitor to the burg a few days ago, and stated that the water is fine in Cranbrook, although somewhat cloudy at times.

Robert McBean, kitchen mechanic for a few days at the camp, has resigned his position, and may devote his time in the immediate future to self improvement work. A little avoirdupois would do no harm Bobbie.

Peter Jeffrey and Stuart Jeffrey, contractors, sawing logs for the Lovering Lumber Co., have completed their original tract, and have decided to take more work in order that the season's work will have been completed in this section of the country, as well as all available timber which can be had, so far as is known, on the outside.

Mr. Fred Weller, former operator as a logger in the forests of the middle west, can be regarded as a man who can take any part of the work to be done in the bush, having acted as foreman when 17 years of age. He can adapt himself to any job, and feels quite at home when in the discharge of his duties.

EASTER SUNDAY

Easter Sunday at the camps was observed in due style. Although no Easter services were held to mark its religious tendencies, one could see here and there a tear bedimmed eye, which in most part may have been due to the memories of bygone days at home, and in some cases it is assumed that the Government vendors were too far distant to be tributary to the arid community of which this is a part.

Mr. James McClary made a trip to Fort Steele over the week-end, presumably on business and pleasure. Mr. McClary, who is somewhat reserved about things doing regarding his personal welfare. Hence we must read between the lines.

Bernhardt's Farewell to America

Just one hour and a quarter before she died in her son's arms at her Paris home, aged seventy-eight, Sarah Bernhardt, the "Divine Sarah," the world's greatest actress, sent this message to America, the land of her many triumphs "I am deeply touched with the sympathetic interest of my beloved American friends" So ended a great life.

Mr. Joe Reedy and Fred Weller were visitors to Wasa on Easter Sunday. Of course one must take on a little variation and change of environment occasionally, lest we may step backward. These are the days of the strenuous life, and where there is life there is always an object for the progressives, even though we live in seclusion.

Mr. Ted Cretney, the Fort Steele jobber, is making good progress with his contract and will soon complete the work.

Mr. Alfred Lieburg was a business visitor at Wasa a few days ago. During the past winter Mr. Lieburg, together with the O'Berg brothers, completed a tract of timber which contained some 45,000 pieces, or logs, of which they had the cutting or sawing into logs of the above number. Mr. Lieburg comes from Calgary at this time, and reports that he will spend the summer on the prairie.

Peter Jaffrey, the contractor, tells quite a good one on himself, which took place when he was on the road as an entertainer, and with a side show with one of the big circuses. His part consisted of two fools, a turkey and a large rooster, which he kept in a cage provided for his feathered performers, underneath which there was a gas jet, which he could turn on when he demanded—his audience to see the dancing birds in action. Of course, the heat was turned on with the result that the bottom of the cage got hot, and the big performance was on, and the public paid in good money for a few minutes of lively entertainment. So much for Peter Jeffrey's palmy days.

WORK CONTINUES ON POWER COMPANY'S PROJECT AT ELKO

(Fernie Free Press)

The East Kootenay Power Company have started work on their new Hydro Electric development on the Elk River at Elko. H. W. Battin, construction superintendent for Winston Bros. Co., of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived at Elko March 20th. Winston Bros. Co. were the successful bidders for the contract work. The camp and engineering have been completed and the work will be pushed rapidly ahead.

The development at Elko includes a rock tunnel 2,000 feet in length and 12 by 14 inside dimensions. Work is well along on two 7,500 horse power turbines by the Dominion Engineering Co. and two 6,000 kilowatt generators by the Canadian General Electric Co., all to be used at this site. All machinery will be delivered at Elko about June 15th.

It is expected that the work will be completed by the early fall. This power plant will be connected up to the present lines of the East Kootenay Power Company, and will more than treble the present generating capacity of this company.

About 70 men will be put on at once and 150 later on.

Mrs Craig Gains 27 lbs. on Tanlac

Declares It Overcame Indigestion And Rheumatism, Restoring Her Weight And Strength

"Tanlac has relieved my fourteen years' suffering and made me so healthy and happy that I just go about my housework singing," recently stated Mrs. Margaret Craig, of 10 Sutton Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

"I had rheumatism in my lower limbs so bad my ankles and feet would swell up until I couldn't lace my shoes. I just hobbled about almost like a cropple, and the pain was so dreadful at times I thought my end was near. I also suffered from stomach trouble, nervousness and sleeplessness, was amazingly thin and felt terribly weak and run down.

"Well, when I saw how the Tanlac treatment was helping me, I was overjoyed, and just kept on taking it, and now I have a ravenous appetite. I've actually gained twenty-seven pounds, and I'm sleeping like a child. Best of all, every sign of rheumatism is gone and I can get about as good as I ever did. I wouldn't think of being without Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.

The contract for the addition to the Central School has been let to Moncrief & Vistaunet, of Vancouver and Victoria, for $29,935.00. The firm is at present building a school at Trail and is about to commence another at West Vancouver.—Fernie Free Press.

rendered a beautiful duet entitled "I've Come to the Garden of God," which was attentively listened to and much appreciated.

In his opening remarks the speaker referred to the deep rooted prejudice that existed against evangelism, touching upon the various methods adopted by different men engaged in similar missions to his own. He assured his hearers that his method would not be in the least embarrassing to them. He claimed that they were there with but one mission, and that was to play and sing and preach the Gospel, to try to show Christ's power to redeem, if possible to give hope to the hopeless and help to the helpless. It was his hope that through their mission they would think more of God. The financial end of the campaign was explained, showing that all monies were strictly accounted for, that the workers only received a stipulated salary, and that there was no compulsion on the part of any to give. If there was a surplus it would be devoted to the work of the mission.

Short addresses were given by the pastors of the co-operating churches, in which all solicited the earnest co-operation of all in order that the meetings would be a great success.

Miss C. B. Grunert then gave as a piano solo "Nearer My God To Thee" with pleasing variations, and was listened to with marked attention and interest by all present.

Choosing as his text Philippians 2: 9, "Wherefore God also has exalted Him and given Him a name which is above every name," the speaker pointed out that with the passing of years we are likely to change our estimation of a man; one is apt to confuse prominence with greatness. There have been many great men—Nero, Paul, and others. There had been, however, no name so revered as that of Jesus. There were those who sneered at the Crurch, but this could only be the result of a superficial consideration. If one were to take out of Cranbrook, or British Columbia, or Canada, the influence of the Church, they would be places not fit to live in—it would mean the cutting off of ourselves from the root of human progress.

It was a notable fact that in the crises of life man pays tribute to the influence of the Church. In the hour of need he seeks it. To the man landed on a lone island the sign of the Church spire is an assuring sight, but still there are those who jeer at the Church and its members. One gets tired of the talk of some people about the inconsistency of church members. As the counterfeit suggests the real, so the measuring up of church members by some people indicates an ideal in their minds, which if they would but strive to reach themselves, they would be the better for. A man has to be a little smaller than the thing he hides behind. One should, therefore, be careful lest one should misconstrue criticism of church members for an excuse for their own shortcomings.

The speaker claimed that Jesus was admittedly the highest type of manhood. There was something about His life that compelled others to follow Him. Even the lowest type of man will pay tribute to Him when they see the evidence of the influence of His life on people. He had drawn to Himself the loyalty of the choicest souls, church history being replete with Latimers and Ridleys. Scholarship men and gold medalists will forsake their work to go to the mission field, in many instances facing almost certain death in order that all should know the teaching of Him of Whom the worst that could be said was that He received sinners.

Miss Niven's singing of the hymn "I know a name, a precious name" was a great pleasure to hear. Those who had the privilege of being present are convinced that all that has been said about this pleasing singer is not extravagant in the slightest degree.

WHAT TO DO WITH EIGHT THOUSAND BABY CHICKS

We have none for sale, so this article is written for the purpose only of giving you an idea of what it requires to care for eight thousand baby chicks.

Our first four thousand arrived by Express in Cranbrook Friday, March 30th. We have two thousand more chicks booked to arrive the second week in May, and are now booking two thousand for the first week in June. Just now it is our business to hustle these four thousand orphant babies along into featherhood and on to the perches to make room for the May arrivals.

These chicks were packed in heavy pulp board boxes that were divided into four sections containing twenty-five chicks to the section. Each section is provided with twelve three-quarter inch port holes for ventilation. No feed or water is necessary. A small amount of cut straw is placed in each section to absorb the moisture and keep the chicks clean.

Immediately upon arrival each box was opened and inspected. They were then placed in a motor truck and hustled to our ranch, where eight coal burning brooders of one thousand chick capacity each were properly heated, waiting to mother these little fellows, giving them a home with a temperature of 100 degrees, or their choice of any heat between 100 degrees and 70 degrees.

These brooders were placed in position on Wednesday, March 28th, bedded with dry sand, and the brooder room floor covered to the depth of one half inch with cut wheat straw. Fires are kept burning and the thermistats adjusted so the heat would be properly regulated by the time the chicks would arrive.

Five hundred chicks were placed under each brooder. We use thousand capacity brooders for five hundred chicks to insure ample room. Eighteen inches from the outer circle of the hover was placed a circle of building paper eighteen inches wide and so arranged with supports to stand and remain upright. This was to protect the chicks from any possible draft while doors were being opened by the attendant passing in and out of the brooder house. Also to insure the proper temperature within the heat circle and to prevent chicks from piling up in bunches.

Mrs. Brown, myself and one assistant remained with these chicks all night, keeping constant watch, patrolling from brooder to brooder and placing any chick that might have strayed outside the heat circle back under the hover.

Just sufficient light was maintained to enable attendants to move about the houses. Too much light will start the chicks to toe picking.

These chicks were hatched on the 29th, and were not ready for feed until the 31st. At daylight they were started on buttermilk with two beaten fresh eggs to the gallon. They consumed about six gallons to the thousand and in six hours.

At ten o'clock we fed them very sparingly a ration of dry rolled oats, using the shipping box lids for feeding trays. In the afternoon the building paper was removed from around the brooders, as by now the chicks had become thoroughly acquainted with their tin mother, and had learned where the heat was to be found.

When this paper was removed the chicks found a number of drinking founts placed on blocks and filled with buttermilk. They knew what to do with it too. A little later dry rolled oats was scattered in the litter and they all danced the two-step until bed time, when they again received the protection of the circle of paper and were left alone until one o'clock A.M., when all brooders were patrolled to see that proper heat was on, and all was well.

The following morning the paper was removed at daylight, fires stoked up, milk distributed among various fountains and a small amount of scratch feed thrown in the litter. This scratch feed is made up of equal parts of No. 2 rice, pin head oats, No. 1 cracked wheat; fine cracked corn sifted, cracked pearl barley and chick bone. Granulated charcoal in self-feeding containers were placed in several places about the brooders, and small chick bone on trays for their own helping.

We feed the rolled oats and the scratch feed sparingly four times on the second day. After that we feed the scratch feed five times a day and place before the chicks for an hour each day a dry mash consisting of equal parts pure wheat bran, pure flour middlings, bone meal and barley meal with about five p. c. fine charcoal added. (Do not feed anything that contains ground screenings unless you want to kill your chicks. Even small quantities of it will stunt their growth).

When the chicks are a week old we will place before them in self feeding hoppers a dry mash of equal parts fine ground corn, pure wheat bran, pure flour middlings, pure fine ground oat meal and fine ground barley meal, ten per cent meat meal, ten per cent bone flour and ten per cent fine charcoal.

On the third day the chicks were given an outside run on clean earth that had been spaded, planted with wheat and oats and covered with sand. If you can find any time for sleep during the first 48 hours after the arrival of 4,000 day old chicks, it must be in the broodhouse with the chicks, outside the hover too, for you might turn over in your sleep and mix matters a bit with the babies.

See that the chicks get their feed on time. Never mind your own meals. We took our first meal the next evening after the chicks arrived.

It will do you good to fast for 24 hours, but it will be death to the chicks. The brooders are patrolled every hour during the day and at one o'clock in the night. Visitors are always welcome.

LOGGING ACCIDENT AT KITCHENER, B.C., TAKES LIFE OF LUMBERMAN

Alan Cameron Passed Away on Thursday Last On Train en Route To Hospital

The uncertainty of life was evidenced on Thursday last, when in the twinkling of an eye, as it were, Alan Cameron of Kitchener passed over to the great majority.

The late Mr. Cameron was an employee of the Paulson Lumber Co., and while engaged in his work in the bush on Thursday met with an accident soon after lunch, from which death resulted in a few hours. It appears that as a large tree was being felled, deceased was standing to one side thinking himself in perfect safety, when it hit another small dead tree, which in falling struck him and rendered him unconscious.

In an effort to save his life he was rushed to Kitchener just in time to catch the east bound train. Dr. Henderson of Creston, who was returning home on that train rendered all the aid possible, but without regaining consciousness death ensued before Yahk was reached.

Formerly a resident of Bruce County, Ontario, the deceased came west with his wife seven years ago, engaging in work with the Adolph Lumber Co. at Baynes Lake. About four years ago he removed to Kitchener, and for two years he was with the Cranbrook Sash and Door Co. For the last two years he was with the Paulson-Mason Co.

Besides a sorrowing wife there are left to mourn his loss four children. The funeral took place on Monday morning to the local cemetery, the Rev. E. W. MacKay officiating. The pall bearers were Omer Geroux, Victor Geroux, Frank Geroux, Alphonse LePage, George Iyotte, Louis Guilmet. Many floral tributes showed the esteem in which the deceased was held, received from the following:

Mrs. Allan Cameron, heart; Miss Alice Cameron, spray; Mr. Victor Geroux, anchor; Mr. and Mrs. Omer Geroux, cross; Mr. Ernest Geroux, spray; Mr. Zennon Geroux, spray; Miss Edith Geroux, spray; Mrs. Thomas, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McGonejl, spray; Mr. A. "Lady Dot," a famous White Leghorn hen holding a Canadian egg laying record, died as the result of an internal rupture after performing her duty in the Poultry Department of the Dominion Government Experimental Station here, where she had been hatched in March, 1920. Descended from a high grade of layers, bred on the Experimental Farm of the Dominion Government, Sydney, B.C., she eclipsed all their records by laying 325 eggs the first season, 224 the second season, and by 36 in that many days was starting another good record. All the eggs she produced were either hatched on the local Experimental Station or shipped out to one of the Dominion Government Experimental Farms, so the identity of her progeny is not by any means lost.

Sandy Watson will visit Cranbrook on Sunday in quest of a game of golf. Down in the Banana Belt the dust has been flying for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Drummond are making their home at the Coast, this step having been decided upon in the interests of Mrs. Drummond's health. Their daughters are remaining in the city. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Guimont are now occupying the Drummond residence on Lumsden Avenue.

OBITUARY

MRS. EDITH AMELIA ROBERTS

On Thursday, March 28th, there passed away at the St. Eugene Hospital, Mrs. Edith Amelia Roberts, wife of H. Roberts, of Burton City.

The late Mrs. Roberts, who has been under treatment at the hospital for about nine weeks, contracted pneumonia on the Sunday previous, and in her weakened condition was unable to throw it off.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and family had formerly resided at Kimberley for about seven years, but for the past three years had resided at Burton City, B.C.

Impressive Funeral Held at Marysville, on Sunday, April 1st

On Resurrection Day, April 1st, 1923, at the Schoolhouse, Marysville, B.C., the funeral services for the late Mrs. Edith Amelia Roberts, dearly loved wife of Mr. Herbert Roberts, of Burton, B.C., were held in the afternoon.

Services were conducted by Mr. Charles Evans and the Rev. Evan Baker. The deceased lady leaves to mourn her loss a bereaved husband and family of eight children, also two sons-in-law: Mr. Herbert Roberts (husband), Violet (Mrs. George Ellis), Ernest, Doris (Mrs. Steve Waite), Bertha, Herbert, Evelyn, Stanley, Gladys Madeline, and Messrs. George Ellis and Steve Waite (sons-in-law), besides a host of other sorrowing relatives and friends. The pall bearers were Messrs. Wm. Bartholomew, S. Hodgson, Ben Keer, Wm. Evans, Ernest Bidder, and Mr. Parks.

Mr. Charles Evans conducted the first part of the services, reading from St. John's Gospel, Chap. 14, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in Me, believe also in the Father." He addressed the bereaved with tender pathos, which must have been very comforting to them. Rev. Evan Baker of Kimberley offered up prayer, and read at the graveside impressive portions of the burial service. Mr. Steve Waite officiated at the organ in the school.

The hymns were Cardinal Newman's Lux Benigna ("Lead Kindly Light"), Lyte's "Abide With Me," also "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," which were sung with a lovely subdued undertone by the men.

The floral tributes were exquisite; consisting of Easter lillies, roses, carnations, yellow jonquils, and pussy willows. From the bereaved husband and family there was a floral pillow bearing the name "Mother" in gold letters on a white back ground. Also a beautiful cross from Vi. and George, an emblem of faith; an anchor of hope from Mr. and Mrs. John Horman; spray from Mr. William Bidder; spray from Mr. and Mrs. James and Leslie; spray from Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bidder; spray, Mrs. Tibbetts; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Keer; Mrs. Robichaud, crown; Mrs. McLellan of Kimberley, an unique cross broidered with pussy willows; Signor B. Rodio, crown; Mrs. Fred Caire of Kimberley, yellow jonquils; Mr. Harry Drew of Kimberley, spray; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Awmack of Marysville, spray.

The chief mourners were Mr. Herbert Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis, Mr. Steve Waite, Mr. John Horman, Mrs. John Horman who was prevented by sickness from attending, Mr. William Bidder, Miss May Bidder, Mr. Ernest Bidder, Mr. Alfred Bidder. The bell tolled out the lady's age, which was 40 years, and the school flag was at half mast.

A beautiful life has passed away
Into the realms of eternal day,
To be with the master—Christ the Lord,
In His garden of love to reap her reward.

Specialist Said ECZEMA Was Incurable

—but he reckoned without Zam-Buk

Writing from Sweetwater, Tenn., U.S. Capt. Oscar V. Petty, says:—"For four years I had an obstinate dry eczema.

"My skin peeled off, and disfiguring splotches of the eruption appeared on my face and head. A well-known skin specialist said the eruption could not be cured, but friends out in Maine got me to try some Zam-Buk. To my great delight, I soon saw an improvement. The peeling skin stopped within a week. At the time I started with Zam-Buk the eczema had spread all over my body, so that it took reasonable perseverance for the balm to be thoroughly effective. However I am delighted to inform you, that now, by the use of Zam-Buk, my skin has been restored to normal healthy condition."

"I have a friend who also suffered from a similar distressing skin affection. In his case too, within a few days Zam-Buk was acting splendidly. He tells me that Zam-Buk beats anything he has ever known."

Zam-Buk cannot be equalled for ulcers, boils, abscesses, piles, ringworm, poisoned wounds, and all sores, wounds and injuries. Purely herbal. All dealers 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

The Standard of Comparison

A "Four" That Sets a New Standard

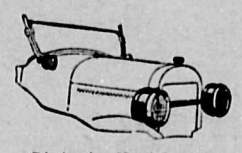
The "Master Four" Touring Model, 23-35 Special

In beauty of appearance, dependability and economy of operation, this "Four" touring has established an entirely new standard for four-cylinder cars.

Its low body, with its clean, straight lines, accentuated by the high radiator and straight hood, give it a long, racy appearance that is new to cars of its class. Massive crown fenders add to this distinction, as do the snug-fitting, shapely top and the handsome drum type head and cowl lamps.

And with this beauty has come a new riding comfort. The seats are deep and low. A transmission lock, a windshield adjustable from the inside, a bumper, combination tail and stop lamp, scuff plates, etc., are among the many refinements of this model.

Material changes have also been made in motor, chassis and body construction which contribute still further to the wonderful performance record of McLaughlin-Buick cars.



Distinctive Head Lamps

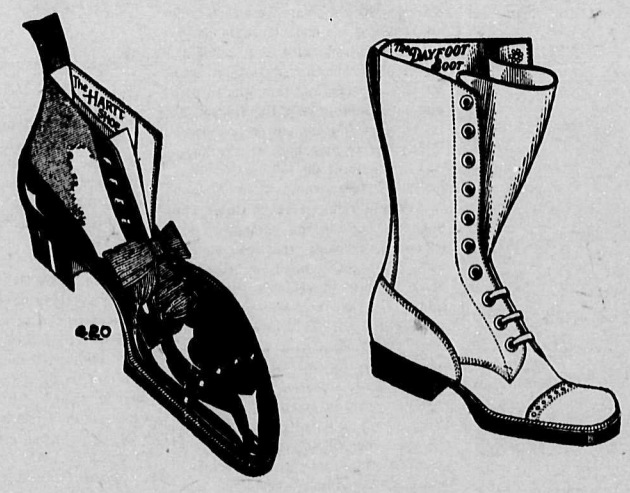
For Fifteen Years

We Have Sold

Hartt & Dayfoot Shoes



During all that time we have made adjustments on only two pairs of HARTTS, and we have our first pair of DAYFOOTS to go bad. We believe this is a record that none can surpass, and very few equal. In both the Hartt and Dayfoot it is not a question of how cheap, but HOW GOOD they can be made. The first cost is of little consideration if one knows the repair bills are not going to amount to more than the first cost of the shoes.

In buying HARTT or DAYFOOT SHOES you have our guarantee, as well as that of the makers, of comfort as well as service.
