GARDEN CITY OF THE KOOTENAYS

LAWNS AND FLOWERS ALL OVER TOWN LOOKING WELL

A walk around the city will convince anyone that Cranbrook is rapidly becoming a city of beautiful homes. Gardening and beautification has been the order of the day for the past month and the results are beginning to show on all sides in the wealth of bloom and greenery already in sight. It is safe to say that more ornamental trees, shrubs and flowering plants have been set out this year in Cranbrook than in all other years of her existence put together. On Baker hill nearly everybody is a gardner. J. F. Armstrong's pretty garden is a mass of tulips, other bulbous plants and Iceland poppies. A. L. McDermot has laid out his grounds with rose trees and other flowering shrubs, and has also started a privet hedge. The Rev. Flewelling has the church grounds and those of the rectory in perfect condition, the green sward of the lawns setting off the beds of bulbs, pansies, Iceland poppies and other spring flowers. P. DeVere Hunt's lilac are showing flower buds and Chas. McGee's well known pansies are in full bloom. Richard Joyce, M. McEachern and B. Carter have gardens that show much care and attention. Richard Fraser has his place planted in potatoes so as to get the ground into shape, and George Thompson has had his maples pruned and his lawn put into shape. Wm. Colpman, Mrs. Gurd and William Cameron are all gardening and making their homes more attractive. M. B. King is having his beautiful lawn put into the pink, or rather the green, of condition. H. H. Hickenbotham has made many improvements about his home on the corner of Edwards street and Burwell avenue. E. Home, Mrs. Hamilton, L. Patmore and J. F. M. Pinkham have been hard at it to prevent the spring weeds getting a start. One of the prettiest streets in the city is Pooley avenue. On this street such well known amateur gardners as S. H. Hoskins, Edward Elwell, R. T. Brymner, A. C. Nelson, S. F. Morley and W. F. Gurd, and all of these gentlemen are very busy as they are every spring. They have all been experimentalists and it is largely due to their efforts that such a large variety of flowering plants are found to do well here. Others who are busy on the hill are Chief of Police Dow, Joseph Jackson, Joseph Hall, Frank Parks, J. F. Smith, Dr. Connolly, James Caslake, W. Neilson, John Kennedy and William Harris. Dr. Green's lawn and handsome grounds are a picture of neatness. W. W. Wilson is preparing for a summer's gardening campaign and so is J. J. Cummings. The Rev. Main, J. A. Harvey, R. P. Moffatt and J. G. McCallum are around with spade, rake and hoe doing business along horticultural lines, while James Ryan's miniature ranch looks as if it would raise enough vegetables to supply the whole neighborhood. D. J. Murphy is devoting his energies to his lawn and mountain ash trees and Mayor Fink to his carnations and current bushes. The lawn and trees at the J. D. McBride and E. Patterson residences look fine and the home of Superintendent Brownlee, as usual, is a beauty spot. The grounds around the homes of H. Y. Parker, James Henderson, A. C. Bowness, F. Wasson, Rev. Taylor, S. R. Carson and George Powell show signs of the care that has been bestowed upon them. Although just outside the city limits a tour of the city would not be complete without a visit to V. Hyde Baker's magnificent garden. For years Mr. Baker has been planting flowering shrubs and perennials of all kinds, until today his garden is one that would be hard to beat in any part of the interior of the province. Coming down town, while gardening has, of necessity, to be done in a more restricted area, still there are many beautiful gardens, notably those of George Rogers, with its magnificent paeonies, Dr. J. H. King, with its beautiful flower beds and lylac trees, B. H. Short's well kept lawn, Joseph Brault's Italian garden at the Canadian hotel and H. A. McKowan and A. M. Black's neat gardens. Then again there is John Cholditch's miniature experimental station on Hanson avenue, with its iris, apple trees, strawberries and roses. On the same street George Hoggarth has had his grounds swept and garnished while the Rev. Robert Hughes has made a veritable bower of the Methodist church grounds. A half circle has been fenced in at the government-municipal office and this will be planted under the direction of J. F. Armstrong, the government agent, and will include a Privet hedge. The Canadian Pacific railway's garden at the station is a good example of conventional bedding and, pretty as it looks now, in another month it will be a sight worth walking a long way to see. At the St. Eugene hospital the Sisters will have a great garden, which will be a delight to the patients of that institution, whose every comfort and pleasure is the first thought of the Sisters. To the west of the town on what is known as Conductor's Hill, Richard Stewart is laying out the grounds surrounding his new home in splendid style. D. Morton, G. P. Tisdale, J. Taylor and Thomas Wardman each have done a lot in the way of tree planting and lawn making. P. Moffat, J. Finnessey, C. Reed and R. McNeil are all doing a lot in the way of making their homes attractive. R. Baldwin, G. Nellis and D. McKenna have made great improvements to their surroundings. A. Piggott has a wonderful place. Besides a very pretty garden and lawn Mr. Piggott has a great chicken run and hundreds of little chicks and young turkey's may be seen running round the various yards looking in the best of health and condition. Taking the matter of gardens and lawns as a whole, Cranbrook is second to no town in the interior, but there is always room for improvement, and although so many residents of Cranbrook have taken to the gardening habit, still there are a number who have not, and to them be is said, it is not too late to start now. Even at this late date lawns can be made and by sowing the seed a great deal of bloom may be had in the late summer or early fall. Make Cranbrook beautiful. The names mentioned in this article, do not in all probability, include all those who have devoted time and attention to gardening, because it is almost impossible to gather this information absolutely accurately. The Herald will be glad, from time to time, to make additions to the list of Cranbrook gardners and would be glad to hear from anyone who has, by inadvertance, been overlooked.

ALDERMAN HUNT VISITS THE OIL FIELDS

P. DeVere Hunt visited the property of the Canadian Northwest Oil company, southwest of Pincher creek this week. In conversation with a representative of the Herald last evening, Mr. Hunt said:

"In company with Mr. Marcy D. Couca, the agent of the company, I drove forty miles southwest of Pincher Creek to the scene of the oil drilling operations. The company have a camp which is most comfortable and thoroughly up-to-date. The buildings are all that could be desired and, when I tell you that J. M. Chatterton, whom everybody in this district knows as one of the best cooks in the west, is chef, you can readily understand that the food supply if of the very best. Mr. Chatterton is himself the holder of 3000 fully paid shares in the company and is one of the most enthusiastic of the working staff and already can see himself driving around Cranbrook in an automobile, the result of some of his profits in oil. The derrick is 84 feet high and the shaft, bit and jars, are 99 feet long of 4½ inch iron. This is controlled by a 2½ inch Manila rope, of which they have 3000 feet. At the present time the boring is down 1600 feet. The drillers in charge appear to be experts at the business, at which they have had almost a lifetimes experience in the Pennsylvania and other oil fields. These experts are satisfied with the indications and are unanimous in the belief that they are working in an oil belt."

Mr. Hunt is satisfied that the company is being run on a business basis no expense or trouble being spared to gain the object in view.

"Drilling is continued throughout the 24 hours and some idea of the amount of steam necessary to run the plant may be gathered from the fact that six cords of wood are necessary to keep the boiler running," continued Mr. Hunt, "and, as a speculative investment, I have no hesitation in saying that the company is doing everything in its power to give the shareholders a fair and square deal. If successful, those who have invested in this stock will have every reason to congratulate themselves on one of the most successful investments they ever made. Mr. Slater is in charge of the work and feels very confident as to the ultimate result."

LEAVING FOR THE COAST

On next Saturday or Sunday Dr. F. E. King will leave for Vancouver, where he will practice his profession as a dentist in future. Dr. King has been in Cranbrook for some five years and during that time has built up a large practice. Owing, however, to the ill-health of Mrs. King, it has become necessary for the doctor to seek a location near sea level, hence the change of location. Cranbrook's loss is Vancouver's gain as the metropolis of the coast is getting one of Cranbrook's most public-spirited citizens. Everybody in Cranbrook will be sorry to see "Fred" go, but at the same time will wish him every kind of good fortune in his new home "down by the sea." Mrs. F. E. King, during her residence in Cranbrook, by her pleasing ways, has made friends of all who know her, and her departure will give rise to a feeling of sincere regret among her acquaintances. Dr. F. E. King is a brother of Dr. J. H. King, who represents this riding in the provincial house, and M. B. King, manager of the King Lumber Mills, Limited.

OVER BONNINGTON FALLS

Last Sunday at about noon three men met their death by being swept over the falls of the Kootenay river at Bonnington. Their names were "Paddy" Miles, Jack Sharples and John Richmond. "Paddy" Miles had been in British Columbia since the seventies and at one time was provincial constable at Nelson. He was well known all over the Kootenays and was supposed to be 65 years of age. Jack Sharples was at one time an instructor in the Coldstream Guards and served in the late South African war. He was a great athlete and played football with the Nelson team. He was about 35 years of age. John Richmond was a young Englishman, 22 years of age, and had only recently come to the Kootenays. It seems that the three men were endeavoring to cross the river in a small boat and that they got too far down stream and were eventually swept over the falls, though, eye witnesses say, they fought hard to bring the boat into the shore.

ATTENTION, REBEKAHS!

There will be a special meeting of Maple Leaf Rebekah lodge at their hall Friday evening, May 29th, at 9 o'clock to arrange for delegate to the Grand Assembly. A full attendance is desired.

A SUGGESTION

Dear Sir: Allow me to suggest through your columns the advisability of some attempt being made to secure for the trades-people in our town an early closing day once a week through the summer. I have no doubt the majority of the business men would gladly welcome such a proposal, and that some arrangement that would suit the wishes of all concerned could be adopted. It is particularly desirable that those who serve us so well should have more liberty during the warm weather, and more time to enjoy the best season of the year. A good long walk, or a drive, or a game of ball would go a long way to make life happier, and it would certainly make the week less monotonous. It would be well for us to avoid the bad habit to which many of us are addicted, viz.: doing our shopping just before the stores close. This is causing unnecessary trouble and work, and very often all through our own carelessness. I most sincerely trust the business men will take this matter up, and that if some plan can be adopted to close one day a week at an early hour, the saloons will have the courtesy to close the bars also, and thus give the bartenders a chance to get some fresh air too.

I am, dear sir,
Yours faithfully,
Robert Hughes.

BOYS BRIGADE FOR CRANBROOK

The Rev. C. O. Main and the Rev. R. Hughes are making preparations to start a boys brigade in the near future. Correspondence has been going on for some time with the authorities and the arrangements are nearing completion. Boys from ten years of age will be eligible, and after six drills, those who have attained proficiency will be allowed to wear the regulation cap, belt and haversack. In addition to drilling, practical instruction will be given in gymnasium work and altogether the scheme will be a good thing for the lads in the city. Announcements will be made later regarding applications for membership.

CRANBROOK BASEBALL LEAGUE

The last league game played was on Tuesday evening when the C.P.R. team beat the Town team, the score being 15 to 14. The next game is tomorrow evening, when the Town will play the Independents and on Tuesday, June 2nd, the Town will play the C.P.R. At the present time the standing of the respective teams is as follows:

	Played	Won	Lost	P.C.
C. P. R. 3	2	1	.667
Town 2	1	1	.500
Independents 3	1	2	.333

May 22. Town vs. C.P.R., tie, 14-14

An exhibition baseball match between the C.P.R. team and the town team was played last evening, resulting in a score of 16 to 13 in favor of the town. A special feature of the game was the scoring of four runs with one hir, by William Matthews. When he went to bat the bases were full. He struck the first ball that was pitched, and sending it nearly over to the hospital, brought the three men home and scored a home run.

NEW FLAG FOR SUBMARINE VESSELS

All submarines in the British navy now fly a flag, a part of the design of which is three white mice. There is a reason for this. When the submarine is submerged the air is under pressure and is apt to become foul and it is for this reason that the white mice are carried as part of the ships company. These little animals are so sensitive to every variation in atmospheric pressure that if anything goes wrong with the air supply they show it at once by their actions and thus enable the crew of the submarine to bring the boat to the surface before any harm could take place. The navy department allow three cents a day per mouse for the maintenance of this service. This is the reason why the three white mice are on the flag of the submarine.

A GREAT AUTO TRIP

V. Hyde Baker, J. F. M. Pinkham, Dr. J. H. King and Dr. Bonnell made a trip to Windermere in Mr. Baker's big white steamer car last week. At Wasa they were joined by R. E. Beattie and E. H. Small, who, together with N. Hanson went north in Mr. Hanson's Rambler car, the two autos travelling in company. The party express themselves as delighted with the look of the north country and the advancement it is making. All were loud in their praises of the hospitality of the people of Windermere, Athalmer, Wilmer and other points in that district. The steam car behaved perfectly, no hitch of any kind having taken place to mar the trip.

HALF THE MILLS RUNNING

W. A. Anstie, secretary of the Mountain Lumbermen's association, who has made a tour of the district covered by his organization, states that one-half of the mills are running and while some more will start up within the next few weeks, there will be many which will not run this summer. The demand for lumber comes entirely from the northwest territories and is dependent upon the state of the crops there. Last year's crops being a failure to a large extent the cut up lumber remained in the hands of the mills.

Next fall and winter it is probable that conditions will again be normal. In the meantime the lumbermen are asking for a duty of $2 per thousand on lumber from Washington and the United States generally. It is understood this is likely to be sustained by the government.

WHAT BONNERS FERRY SAYS

Speaking of the baseball games in Cranbrook on the two race days, the Bonners Ferry Herald says:

"Several hundred people witnessed the game, including quite a crowd from Bonners Ferry and all are well pleased and say it was one of the best games played in that part of the country for some time. Our boys were well cared for while in the city. There was nothing too good for them. The Cranbrook boys are a fine bunch of sociable lads, and they made every effort to show our boys a good time, and from all reports the boys enjoyed every minute of theirs. Come and see us, boys, for Bonners Ferry will extend to you the "glad hand."

PROVINCE GETS A FAT CHEQUE

The poll tax of $500 on each Chinese immigrant into Canada brought the Federal treasury last year no less than $690,000. The total arrivals of Chinese were 1,380. Under the terms of the act, half the tax goes to the Dominion and half to British Columbia, where nearly all the Celestials remain. The finance department is forwarding a cheque to the provincial government for $345,000, being half the total amount received. The entries of Chinese in other provinces were as follows: Ontario, 1, Saskatchewan, 1; New Brunswick, 4; Nova Scotia, 3; Quebec, 74.

PREMIER McBRIDE AND MINISTERS WILL BE HERE FRIDAY

Premier McBride, Hon. H. E. Young, minister of education, and W. J. Bowser, K.C., will be in Cranbrook tomorrow evening and will address a non-partisan meeting. On Saturday the ministers will visit Fernie.

HINTS ON GARDENING

First, see that your soil is suitable. If you have a light rich loam in your backyard, or garden, you are fortunate, but this is unusual so a treatment with well rotted stable manure, wood ashes and bone meal will be in order. Where clay predominates, sand also should be added.

The soil must be thoroughly dug, mixed and made fine and smooth. After that it need only be stirred occasionally, which may be done during weeding. The weeding should be thorough.

Plant your vegetables in rows, as this is always a convenience in working them.

By economy of space and time you may double your results, as, for instance, when the spinach is done, beans may immediately be put in its place, and peas may follow the beans in the same spot. Spread fertilizer as soon as the ground is cleared before putting in the next crop. As a rule, a variety of crops is better in one spot, though if the soil is well enriched, beans may follow beans and peas, peas, etc.

Enough asparagus for a family of eight may be grown in four rows twenty-five feet long and three feet apart. The trenches should be sixteen inches deep, with six inches of well rotted manure in the bottom, and four inches of good garden soil above. Spread the roots of the plants out carefully, and set them eighteen inches apart. Then fill up with soil.

Cauliflower may be grown to advantage between the rows of asparagus to get the benefit of the rich soil.

Beans must not be sown until the season is fairly assured, as they are sensitive to frost. They need not be sown more than two inches deep in rows eighteen inches apart. When the first crop is about four inches high the second may be put in and so on. For a family of eight plant two quarts.

The beets may be put in quite early and crops grown at intervals of three weeks. Sow two inches deep and thin out when a few inches above the ground.

A rich heavy soil is needed for onions. Corn is planted in hills three feet from each other, four or five kernels to a hill. Enrich the soil well for corn.

If the weather is dry for the later plantings of the peas, soak the seeds for twenty-four hours before putting in.

MARKET GARDENING FOR WHITE MEN

In spite of Chinese competition, there is a splendid opening in this district for white men as market gardners. Although the heathen Chinee lives on less than the white man, still the white man's intelligence, properly applied, will enable him to out-class the Chinaman, both in quantity and quality. Intensified market gardening, as practised in the British Channel Islannds and in the north of France, of course modified so as to suit this climate, is probably the coming method whereby the white man can make a good living off a small acreage by growing vegetables. In the north of France it is no uncommon thing for a man, with the help only of his family, to make $1500 a year off of half an acre of land by the use of frames, hand glasses and so on. A full description of these methods are published from time to time in the various agricultural papers. The main thing needed to create a market is quality. Frank T. Shutt, chemist of the Dominion experimental farm, recently delivered an address to the vegetable growers of Eastern Ontario and speaking on the subject of quality, said:

"Quality ranks in importance with earliness and is to be considered before quantity. It is essential. It is the factor that largely determines the commercial value of our product though I regret to say that in this country our people, the purchasers and consumers, are not as particular in this matter as they might be. Appearance and size are fairly good indications of quality, but they are always infallible. I think one ought to be able to establish a reputation in vegetables as one can in butter and milk and eggs.

Quality in vegetables implies succulency, crispness, good flavor, absence of woody fibre or stringiness and pungency and bitterness. Take, for instance, the early beets and turnips—to be palatable there must be no development of woody fibre; radishes must be crisp and free from pungency, lettice must not be tough and bitter. How are we able to obtain quality, apart from that inherent to and governed by the variety? By a quick and uninterrupted growth—the development must be rapid and continuous—herein lies success as regards quality—and to a large extent earliness, an important matter from the standpoint of profit. It is thus evident that the first question we have to answer is what are the factors, the conditions that lead to this rapid growth?"

Mr. Shutt went on to say that the texture of the soil itself was of the greatest importance. "It must not be too heavy," he said, "that is, sand rather than clay must be predominant and it must be rich in vegetable matter as derived from the liberal application of farm manures." Drainage is a matter that Mr. Shutt goes into very fully, the aim being to have a warm, moist, mellow, well-aerated soil, so as to allow for rapid root development. The soil, so as to allow of rapid growth, which is the secret of crisp and well flavored vegetables, must be capable of retaining moisture, of holding air, of readily warming under the sun's rays and of being responsible to application of manures and fertilizers. Outside of manures and commercial fertilizers, the compost heap should be a cherished asset of the market gardner, and there should be always a young mountain of chopped up sod piled in alternate layers with stable manure that from the cow stable being the best. This is allowed to rot and should be spaded over and thoroughly mixed and wetted down from time to time and applied to the land as required. There are other very important points, such as the quality of seed used and this is a point where the Chinese gardner falls down, because he will not pay the price. Arranging operations so as to get early crops of the various vegetables is a matter which should be studied, and preparing the product for market in an attractive form should not be overlooked. There is no reason why this district should not become a great producer of vegetables of all kinds and that the market gardners of this part of the country should not make a reputation as growers of vegetables of quality, just in the same way as Mr. Wigen, of Creston, has made a reputation for his strawberries. Keep an eye on market gardening as one of the coming industries of the Cranbrook district.

A GREAT BALL GAME

THE LEANS BEAT THE FATS BY ONE RUN

On Monday afternoon a procession, headed by the Cranbrook city band, might have been seen wending its way down Baker street and moving in the direction of the baseball grounds near the station. The occasion was a game of baseball between the Fats and the Leans to aid of the Cranbrook city band. The procession was worth walking a long way to see. The costumes of both teams were such as to entitle them to the term unique. Among the Fats, George Hoggarth, as a Tyrolise peasant, F. R. Morris as "Baldy Pasha," the unspeakable Turk, H. Jones, as the "Bowery Kid," A. Bullock, as the "Big Swede," D. J. Elmer, as a cross between an ancient Roman soldier and the Mikado of Japan, Charles Yeandle as Mrs. Hagarty, T. Phillips as "Patrick Hogarty," J. P. Fink as "Alkali Ike," and James McNeil as "Dutch Jake" were as funny as funny could be. The Leans were represented by William Laidlaw, as "Rob Roy McGregor," W. W. McDonald, as a New York white wing, W. R. Grubb as a New Brunswick lumber jack, J. T. Burns, as "Mary Ann of the new directoire gown, F. K. Beach, as "Dolly Varden," F. Patton as a newsboy, Bill Jones as a "Snowball," W. S. Ward as a lumber baron and W. Harrington, who was not in costume and who took the place of Beach when he was hurt in the beginning of the fourth inning. The game itself was one continual round of surprises. Hoggarth proved himself a veritable three year old colt, when it came down to stealing bases. "Baldy" Morris was a host in himself, his white bloomers and red fez were the cause of much merriment as he ran from bag to bag. "Jimmy" McNeil, with his low crown Dutch hat, kept those spectators who were near second base in a constant uproar by his antics. "Charlie" Yeandle made a first-class catcher and added a great deal to the hilarity of the game by his running fire of remarks. D. J. Elmer and J. P. Fink, as pitchers, created a great deal of enthusiasm. J. T. Burns, in a wonderful costume of the directoire type and a merry widow hat, was one of the most amusing figures among the Leans. W. R. Grubb was the only man in the two teams who did not score, but he made up for it by the magnificent way in which he portraved a lumber jack. Bill Jones (Snowball) was a great catcher and the way in which he sprinted after George Hoggarth time and time again was amusing. He is the only baseball catcher in the world who can put on a protector feet first. A collection was taken up for the band which amounted to something over fifty dollars. Throughout the afternoon the band rendered selections which, as usual, were much enjoyed by the large crowd present. Fred Ritchie and Chief Dow made excellent umpires, despite the fact that from time to time they were called down by the players and the spectators. For an impromptu game there has been nothing more enjoyable in Cranbrook for many a long day. Following is the score:

Fats—
Geo. Hoggarth, 1st base	1
Jas. McNeil, 2nd base	3
Phillips, 3rd base	1

A BREAK IN THE CONSERVATIVE CAMP

Ottawa, May 22.—"Killed in the camp of my friends" was the obituary written over one of the campaign "scandals" of the opposition today. The reckless and unpatriotic attack begun yesterday by His Majesty's loyal opposition upon Canada's national army, a spectacle in itself unique and unparalleled in any other country assumed an amusing phase today when the attacking force was suddenly assailed with a raking fusillade from their own camp. The guns were hurriedly reversed and instead of being turned on the government were directed at one of the opposition's friends to wit, Col. Sam Hughes, to apply the term used against the Ross rifle by its enemies, the bolt which the opposition shot yesterday "blew back" and scattered in dismay and confusion those who shot it. The government members sat quietly enjoying the delightful spectacle of seeing the gallant Colonel from Victoria Haliburton administer a scathing criticism of the unjustifiable and unpatriotic attempts of his own political friends to make political capital regardless of facts or fair play. Col. Hughes arraignment of the chief critic of the Ross rifle, Col. Worthington as a disappointed place hunter, venting his anger in cooking up charges that might reflect on the militia department was delivered with characteristic bluntness and vigor. The mistakes of the Conservative party were told to them on the floor of the commons in terms that did not mince matters. Caucus secrets were blunted out in open forum.

The Conservatives, he declared, knew he had done right in voting against the Manitoba School Act, and for the Yukon Railway Bill. The day would come when they would have to admit that he was right in defending the Ross rifle. Sir Chas. Tupper, he declared, had urged upon the ex-minister of the interior, the necessity of an all Canadian railway to the Yukon but when the bill was introduced the Hon. G. E. Foster had led such an agitation that Sir Charles had been compelled to capitulate and vote against the very measure he himself had suggested. In the last Conservative caucus Sir Charles had attended in Ottawa, continued the outspoken Colonel, he had spoken of two mistakes the party had made, one being their failure to loyally support the Liberal party in securing a Canadian route to the Yukon. To Mr. Foster himself some hot shot was handed out. The promptness of the latter to suspect graft in every government action was effectively referred to.

George W. Fowler followed. In an ill-judged impact to offset the effect of Col. Hughes criticisms, the member for Kings Albert bitterly attacked his party colleague, practically accusing him of cowardice and being kicked out of South Africa. His remarks displayed neither good taste nor any sense of dignity and brought back some bitter retorts from Col. Hughes in which the word "cowardly" was flung out with straight effect. Mr. Fowler's reply only added to the discomfiture of the leaders sitting in silent dismay on the opposition front benches.

When the vote came on Colonel Worthington's amendment to the motion to go into supply, only eighteen supporters could be rounded up by whip Taylor.

The unedifying spectacle of leading opposition members flying at each other's throats was most illuminative, as showing the utter lack of control which Mr. Borden has over his following. He has had many uncomfortable experiences with his friends of late. Today's experience $8,000 and that of the associate judges $7,000 each.

THE CRANBROOK CITY BAND

It was impossible last week, owing to the rush, for the Herald to speak adequately about the Cranbrook city band and the splendid work they did in helping to make the race meeting the unqualified success it was. Under the leadership of Bandmaster Austin the band looked very smart in their new dark blue uniforms and their rendition of the various selections during the races, on both the first and second day, left nothing to be desired. Outside of special occasions the band give regular weekly open air concerts at their band stand, which are enjoyed by a large number of the citizens. Cranbrook has now a first-class band and it should be encouraged and supported as it deserves, as one of the best public institutions in the city. Every credit is due to the band boys for the way they have stuck to their work and it is to be hoped that they will be able to keep the good work going.

A BIG FURNITURE CONTRACT

The contract for supplying all of the furniture, carpets, linoleums, beds, bedding, etc., for the new Great Northern hotel at Michel, of which Messrs. McCool & Moore are proprietors, has been awarded to Hill & Co., of this city. Considering the number of large business houses in East Kootenay it speaks volumes for the quality of the goods carried and the prices charged by Hill & Co. Mr. Halsall left for Michel on Thursday evening to superintend the installing of the furniture and W. Harris followed on Friday morning to assist in the same work.

VICTORIA DAY

Last Sunday was the anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria. The 24th of May has been a holiday for most of us from our earliest youth and the continuation of its celebration, to keep green in the memory of Britons everywhere, the remembrance of "Victoria, the good," of an act which is highly to be commended. Victoria day should be kept up as a permanent institution, not only in Canada but througout the British Empire.

FOOTBALL

The Beavers and the Rovers played a great game on Thursday night. The game was a very even one, though the Beavers got three goals before the Rovers scored. Archie Elwell saved the situation with two magnificent dribbles taking the ball from one end of the field to the other and putting through the opponent's goal on both occasions. The score was 3 to 3.

FATHER COCOLA TALKS OF THE NORTH

New Westminster, May 19.—Rev. Father Coccola, of the Roman Catholic Mission at Stuart Lake, is a visitor in the city and brings the latest and probably the most authentic news from the scene of the Findlay river gold excitement. He knocks the bottom out of the report that the Ingenika is a second Klondyke, although he affirms that some good paying mines are being worked in that country. When he left Stuart Lake on the way out to Ashcroft, the land was still deeply covered with snow, and work was impracticable for a month or so. The only report of a large clean-up that the reverend father heard was from three men who claimed to have taken out six thousand dollars in a very short time. As to the authenticity of the report he could not say. Father Coccola states that there has been considerable trouble over the ownership of the discovery claim at the new fields, the final decision of the gold commissioner giving the title to Johnson Bros., who proved that they had staked the claim before the parties who had been holding it. Candle brothers are working on Manson creek, a tributary of the Omineca. All the miners who went in last year he states, are well satisfied with their findings, although none of them have struck it very rich.

The rush to the Findlay country has already commenced and the route to Ashcroft was lined with a stream of fortune-seekers, some "hoofing it," others with pack horses. That they will have a hard journey is the opinion of the reverend father, although the road has been much improved by government work at the canons last year. Supplies are still very scarce in the country as a result of the wrecking of two of the provisions boats on the Skeena river last year. Many persons were forced to leave the country during the winter for this reason.

Work on the G. T. P. is being rushed on this section of the country, three parties laboring on the location of the transcontinental between Fort George and Fraser lake. Other parties are working in the vicinity, although Father Coccola did not know exactly where they were camped. He had also heard that there were parties of Canadian Northern surveyors in the vicinity, but he had seen nothing of them himself. In view of the competition between the two railroad companies for first place to the coast he thought that the report was probably correct.

A great deal of interest in the northern country attaches at the present time the action of the Guggenheims at Bullion creek, fifty miles above Williams lake. This mine is a puzzle which the miners are unable to solve. Last year it was fully believed that the Guggenheims intended to abandon the property, operations had ceased and all the plant was sold. Now, within the past few weeks, an army of men have appeared on the scene, new buildings are going up and the construction of a large ditch that will cost millions of dollars, has been commenced. The company is running special stages to and from Ashcroft, fetching in more men, mostly Japs, to work at the mine. The work has been hampered in past years by a lack of water, and this defect, it is evident, the new ditch is intended to remedy, although there will be sufficient this year for all purposes, from present indications.

Settlement is steadily advancing in the Stuart Lake country, says Father Coccola, who expresses regret that so much of the lands has been permitted to pass into the hands of companies. One corporation, he says, has two and a half million acres of land, which it is selling to settlers at twelve dollars per acre, holding out as an inducement easy terms and the loan of all necessary farming implements. Quite a large number of farmers have made the district their home, and last year secured excellent crops, mostly oats, from the land. A large crop of oats was sown in expectation of a heavy demand by the survey parties of the G.T.P., to whom it is being disposed of at five cents a pound.

Trapping during the past winter has been very slack, owing to the wildness of the weather, which has enabled the furbearing animals to enjoy more freedon than is usual.

$5,000,000 FOR COAL

Washington, May 24.—Approximately $5,000,000 is the estimate of the cost of the coal consumed by the Atlantic battleship fleet when it will have finished its course around the world. The estimate of the cost of coal necessary to move the fleet from San Francisco to Hampton Roads by way of Honolulu, Manila and the Suez canal has been reported by the chief of the bureau of equipment as amounting to $2,039,000. The navy department has been in receipt of an official communication from the Australian government offering to furnish without cost the coal required during the visit of the command in Australian waters. Of course the government could not think of accepting such an offer and arrangements have been made to use American coal for the entire cruise.

JAPS WILL NOT COME

Ottawa, Ont., May 21.—The Japanese consul general, Mr. Shimizu has informed the government here that his instructions from Tokio are to discourage any further influx of Japanese into Canada. Every indication this year and every report received by the immigration department point to the fact that the question of Asiatic immigration has been sufficiently settled so far as this country is concerned.

NEARLY DROWNED

Nelson Daily News: Geo. P. Wells and a companion had a narrow escape from drowning on Sunday afternoon. They were fishing up the lake and were engaged in bringing in to the canoe a good sized char when the canoe capsized. The cries of the men brought some nearby ranchers to their assistance and they were finally brought to shore after being in the icy water some 35 minutes.

MEETING OF PRIESTS OF KOOTENAY DISTRICT

There was a meeting of all the priests of this district last Monday at the St. Eugene Mission, for the purpose of installing in office their new superior, Reverend Fasher J. M. Tavernier.

Rev. Father Tavernier came to this district in the month of September, 1905, and took up his residence in Fernie, from which place he visited the Catholic population of the surrounding towns. He is now by the duties of his charge superintendent of all the Catholic missions and stations from Kootenay Landing to Crows Nest.

At the same meeting Rev. Father J. Meissner, O.M.I., of Fernie, was chosen as a delegate to represent the Fathers at a convention of the clergy which is to take place next July, in the bishop's palace at New Westminster. Father J. Meissner is a D.D. of the Gregorian University in Rome. Born in Germany in 1878 and ordained priest in 1903, Father Meissner came to Fernie in November, 1904, and has helped the Father in charge, devoting his particular attention to the Catholics of Italian and Slavonian nationality. Father J. Meissner speaks fluently in the German, English, French, Italian, Slavonian and Latin languages and is thus able to meet all the exigencies of the cosmopolitan Catholic population of this country.

Rambling Reveries

BY A DREAMER

He who is false to present duty breaks a thread in the loom, and will find the flaw when he has gotten the cause.

Look for the sunshine, and it will come. The clouds are transient, as things of earth; the sun is always behind them, and sometimes when we least expect it the glorious light will shine through.

DON'T SAD EACH OTHER

Young wives and husbands should be too strongly reminded of the probable shipwreck they make of their happiness if they yield to that ill-temper that expresses itself in discourtesy, want of compliance, unnecessary opposition, and above all that most disastrous amusement "nagging" and creating a row. Hundreds of households have gone wrong from the mere want of checking in time the habit of annoying as a relief to monetary feelings of irritation or discomfort. The wife who gets into the way of opposing "checking" her husband, or opposing him in small things and branding him in larger ones; the husband who is sneering, tempestuous, tyrannical, fault-finding, perhaps neither side knowing the whole extent of its folly, but just giving way to it as more easy than to fight and conquer it. These young people are doing their best to dig the grave of their married peace, and some day poor fainting little love will fall into it stark and plumeless, and will never rise to life again. In the beginning these little tiffs and discomforts are made up with a kiss from him and a few tears from her to add cement to the reconciliation. By still more time this never comes at all; and things get into that chronic state when there is never an open breach and never a formal healing, but an ever-widening rift and a never-ending coldness. Then the two lives jar and grind like rusty hinges. The peace of home, like a dying ember, goes out. Coldness and formality takes the place of tender love and happiness, and home, the heaven on earth, is darkly veiled and the sunlight of peace and happiness for ever flown.

CHOOSING A HUSBAND

Husbands are not made to order; they just grow. To get a good one you have to know him when you see him. He may not look like the man your fancy painted, yet you will recognize in him the qualities that go to make up the reliable, enterprising, amiable man. As a rule, women are not possessed of acute business minds, and are not as observant as they might be. One after another they will fall into the same open trap, just as though they were blindfolded or were impelled by some uncontrollable force. The majority of them seem to think they must marry, and all that is necessary is to find a man that is good-looking or rich. The average girl first takes a fancy to a pretty man, and thinks and dreams of his lovely hair, charming eyes, elegant dress, divine mustache and dove-like voice. She declares that he is too sweet for anything. This fever passes off in time, but too often leaves a perverted taste. A dandy figure, swell manners and clattering tongue are apt to even outweigh a good heart, industrious habits and moral worth. Even after marriage visions of the early ideal rise up to disturb the serenity and tranquility of the domestic scene. Better such an ideal had never been formed.

HOME—WOMAN'S REALM

Home is the habit of woman. In the home all that is characteristically feminine in woman unfolds and flourishes. Home without woman is a misnomer, for woman makes home and home is what she makes it. If she is illiterate, her home partakes of this quality; if she is immoral, her home cannot be the abode of virtue; if she is coarse, refinement does not dwell where she resides. If she is cultivated, pure, refined, those qualities will characterize the home which she creates. The higher the degree of her culture, her purity, her refinement, the more will these qualities characterize the home of which she is the center. The self that a woman takes with her in her marriage is her real dower. If her dower can be reckoned in numerals only, no matter how many they may be, wretched indeed will be her husband, impoverished her children, but if she possess industry, gentleness, self-abnegation, purity, intelligence, combined with capability, she is in herself a treasure of treasures.

PUSH

If there was more push in the world there would be fewer hungry, half clothed, homeless, suffering children; fewer broken-down, dissipated men and women; less need of alms-houses, houses of correction and homes for the friendless. Push means a lift for a neighbor in trouble. Push means a lift for yourself out of the slough of despondency and shiftlessness, out of trouble, real and fancied. Push never hurts anybody. The harder the push the better, if it is given in the right direction. Always push up hill. Don't be afraid of your muscles and sinews; they were given you to use. Don't be afraid of your hands; they were meant for service. Don't be afraid of what your companion may say. Don't be afraid of your conscience. It will never reproach you for a good deed—but push with all your heart, might and soul, whenever you see anything or anybody that will be better for a good long, strong, determined push.

Push! It is just the word for the grand, clear morning of life, it is just the word for strong arms and young hearts; it is just the word for the world that is full of work as this is. If anybody is in trouble, and you see it, don't stand back, push.

At a meeting held in Nanaimo Hawthornthwaite was unanimously nominated by the Socialists at a meeting on Thursday to contest Nanaimo seat in the forthcoming federal election.

HERALD CONTEST.

A Calgary Paper Giving Away Pianos and Other Valuable Prizes.

The Calgary Herald has established one of the popular subscription voting contests for the ladies of the Province covered by that city's newspaper which is one of the finest ever made by a newspaper in Canada.

The Herald offers as prizes one grand prize of an approximate value of $1,000, two handsome pianos, four full-course business scholarships and four gold watches.

All of these valuable articles are to be given away by The Herald to ladies who will collect ballots and secure subscriptions to that newspaper. The territory has been divided into four districts; the grand prize goes to the most successful worker in the entire territory covered by that paper; one piano will be given away in Calgary and the other in the country, and a scholarship and watch will go to each one of the districts.

This is a fine opportunity for a lady to secure a full-course scholarship for a few weeks' pleasant labor, and if she is industrious, to win a prize worth hundreds of dollars. Any lady in western Canada may become a contestant for these prizes. It costs nothing to enter the race; you do not even have to be a subscriber. A letter addressed to the Contest Manager, Herald, Calgary, Alberta, will bring the writer full information regarding this splendid opportunity offered the ladies of this section. There are in all twelve prizes, no two of which can be won by the same person, which gives each contestant an equal chance to win a prize.

FOR 5 YEARS EACH SPRING FACE AND SCALP ERUPTIONS

TROUBLED THIS LADY TILL ZAM-BUK CURED.

Mrs. Mary Desquenne, 54 Stadacina St., Hochelaga, Montreal writes:—"I have found Zam-Buk an excellent remedy for skin eruptions. Up to this Spring I was bothered for almost five years with a red rash, small pimples and sores on my face and on the scalp thro' the hair. Nothing I used would clear this rash from the skin until I began using Zam-Buk. This salve has effectually and I believe permanently taken off those unsightly pimples and sores from both scalp and face. I shall recommend Zam-Buk to all my friends."

For healing eczema and all skin disease Zam-Buk is without equal. Herbal Soap 25c per tablet when well rubbed in. Free from animal fats. All druggists and stores, 50c. or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 400 testimonials in every box.

THE CRANBROOK HERALD

$2.00 A YEAR | THE PAPER THAT IS READ BY THE PEOPLE | MAY 28, 1908

CRANBROOK HERALD
By the Herald Publishing Company, Limited.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION LABEL NO 540

E. Simpson
Editor and Manager.

A scientist of Chicago has demonstrated by practical experiments that a man can have three wholesome meals a day, well ventilated room, clean bedding and a bath at the cost of nine cents. That is getting living down to a fine point.

There was consternation in the Conservative camp of the Dominion house last week, when Sam Hughes turned upon his colleagues and berated them for their childish obstruction tactics in their endeavor to prevent the passage of the new election bill. Mr. Hughes, in his characteristic manner, showed up the minority in a very poor light indeed.

The country generally have come to the conclusion that the opposition in the Dominion house have overreached themselves in their attempt to gain a political advantage.

The servile political organ is getting discredited more and more in Canada, and its influence is sadly on the wane.

It may be a little quiet just now for the reason that in commercial sense the season is between hay and frost, but there are better times coming than the Kootenays have ever experienced and that period is not very far away.

The demand for fruit lands in this district is growing by leaps and bounds.

The Herald editor had the distinguished honor of naming this city "Beautiful Cranbrook" in the first issue of his paper. It was beautiful at that time, and its beauty at this time surpasses the expectations of the most loyal and enthusiastic.

The opposition in the Dominion parliament have developed into a bunch of unreliable muck rakers.

The Kootenay district will return at the coming election a supporter of the Laurier government. The people of the Kootenays, who are not politicians, those who are more interested in the commercial progress in this district than they are in the political advancement of any party or individual, appreciate the fact that the policy of the Laurier government has been one of progress and prosperity. William Galliher will be succeeded by a Liberal, and W. A. McDonald will have neither patronage or office.

Reports from the prairie country are more encouraging day by day, and it looks now as if Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba will all have bumper crops this season.

Watch the lawns grow.

While you are thinking about the progress of your own business don't forget to boost Cranbrook.

The Hon. Richard McBride, Hon. H. E. Young, minister of education, and Hon. W. J. Bowser, K.C., attorney general, will be tendered a public reception by the citizens of Nelson this evening. After the reception a public meeting will be held and S. S. Taylor, a prominent Liberal was selected to officiate as chairman, but will be unable to do so owing to his absence from the city. The Herald is pleased to see a meeting of this character in honor of the visiting ministers of the province. Messrs. McBride, Young and Bowser have displayed good judgment in making this tour of the upper country for the purpose of ascertaining the needs of the various districts regardless of political conditions, and the Conservative party of Nelson are also displaying more excellent judgment in making the public reception and public meeting absolutely a non-partisan affair. There should be more of this kind of work on the part of public ministers and the people, as it would result in increasing benefits for the province. Premier McBride evidently appreciates the fact that in his official position he represents the whole people of the province, and is governing himself accordingly on this tour.

The hoodo struck Cranbrook on Friday. The gentle art of pitching horse shoes might be seen in progress on some of the vacant lots around town.

The banana crop is going to be a big one this year.

The Herald keeps on growing.

The Herald pays out in wages alone over $9000 a year, and that money is all spent in Cranbrook. The Herald is a pretty good institution for Cranbrook.

If you place your ear to the ground you can hear Cranbrook grow.

Now let everybody work for the fall races and fruit and agricultural exhibition.

The next member of the Dominion parliament for the Koatenay district will be nominated at Nelson on June 4th, and he will be a Liberal.

The people of this town owe a heavy debt of gratitude to the directors of the Cranbrook Park, Limited, and those who assisted them in making the first race meeting such a grand success.

In the interest manifested in the coming election don't forget to boost for Cranbrook.

Beautiful Cranbrook is growing more beautiful every day.

It pays to own property in Cranbrook.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite has been nominated for the Dominion house by the Socialists of Nanaimo district to contest the seat now held by Ralph Smith. It is evident that Mr. Hawthornthwaite is bound to keep up his reputation as an office-holding Socialist.

A French newspaper, Le Gaulois, of Paris, expresses some views which Canadians may well lay to heart, although they are addressed to Englishmen. The article referred to reads as follows:

"England has given France a great lesson. The English are a great people. The political adversaries of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, those whom he had fought and beaten, associated themselves with the Liberals, of whom he was chief, in rendering a supreme homage to his remains. Before the tomb of the former prime minister conflicts of opinion subsided, and political rancours disappeared. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman was a good servant of his country. Like all British statesmen he only thought of the greatness and prosperity of England. No doubt the Conservatives and Liberals have not the same programmes and their methods bear no resemblance to each other, but their sentiments with regard to their common country are identical, and that is why all parties united to honor the memory of him who devoted his time and in a great measure sacrificed his life for "Greater Britain."

A Washington despatch says that during the last seven months 39,000 people left the United States for Canada, and estimated that collectively they carried forty million dollars. Canada has plenty of room for all such settlers.

A man in New York has gone insane because he made money too rapidly. The people in East Kootenay are mad because they don't make it fast enough.

When Cranbrook does a thing she does it right.

The fruit land proposition in South East Kootenay is an important one, and the development of this industry promises to rapidly increase the population and the revenue of this district.

M. Fallieres, the president of the French Republic, was accorded a very hearty welcome to London by the King, the Prince of Wales and the ministers of the crown. Shades of Napoleon what a change.

The supreme court of New York state has come to the conclusion that Harry K. Thaw is still insane. This will be a relief to the minds of most people.

Most men prefer the merry widow to the merry widow hat.

Prince Halie de Sagan and Mme. Gould should get married or can it off so that the general public might know for a certainty whether Mme. Gould is Mme. Gould or the Princess Halie de Sagan.

Talk about petticoat government. What if Clara Brett Martin beats Hon. Dr. Pyne, for the riding of Toronto East for the Ontario house?

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." The butchers of Lisbon are suing the Portugese royal family for a $210 meat bill.

The fact chat the crops never looked better all over the provinces of the Middle West is an encouraging sign to the province of British Columbia. Given a bumper crop in Saskatchewan and Alberta British Columbia will get her share of the general prosperity.

The full details of the great naval disaster off the Isle of Wight on April 25th, when the American liner St. Paul rammed and destroyed the British cruiser Gladiator, have now come to hand. The disaster has once more shown the world the magnificent discipline which has always characterized His Majesty's navy. As the great warship keeled over the crew perched themselves on her slippery sides fully exposed to the blizzard that was blowing, benumbed by the snow and ice-cold water. Then the nine hundred souls on the St. Paul witnessed a never-to-be-forgotten sight. Standing as near as possible to attention with the ships officers at their head, the gallant blue jackets sang "Sons of the Seas."

"Vain mightiest fleets of iron framed,
Vain those all shattering guns;
Unless proud Britain keep untamed,
The strong heart of her sons."

Such are the words that were the funeral dirge of a number of British sailors on that day. The incident recalls the sinking of the Birkenhead, a British troopship, when all the troops on board stood in unbroken lines until the vessel sank beneath them. Between April 2nd and 28th, sixty-three lives were lost in carrying out practice manoeuvers by the British fleet. It is an awful price to pay for efficiency, but so long as it is necessary for the British Empire to be mistress of the seas so long will it be necessary for British sailors to sacrifice their lives on the altar of imperialism.

We ask the people of this district to compare this issue of the Herald, or the issue of any other week, with any other weekly paper published in Western Canada as to news and articles of general interest. It costs money to get out a paper like the Herald, but the people like it. That is why the Herald keeps on growing.

WHAT IS GALL?

(Vancouver Saturday Sunset.)

The Cranbrook Prospector accused the "Old Man" of the Cranbrook Herald of having "enough gall to entitle him to the whole grit bakery." Then the Prospector calmly appropriates as an original editorial without credit, a leader from the Saturday Sunset's front page. What is gall, anyhow?

ALL OFF.

The arbitration and conciliation board appointed to deal with the C.P.R. mechanics' grievance on western lines, was dissolved last Thursday morning, the C.P.R. having withdrawn their representative, C. YUKON MINING

The spring cleanup is in full swing in the Klondyke camps of Quartz Creek and Lower Dominion. Twenty hydraulic plants are working and eighteen dredges will start next week, eight of them Guggenheims. The first electrical conveyor in the territory will be started next week by the Guggenheims.

THE DIFFERENCE

What's the difference between level and flat? Don't you know? Well, Dr. Pugsley, M.P.W., is level headed, and Geo. W. Fowler is flat headed. That's all.

He kissed her on the cheek.
It seemed a harmless frolic.
He's been laid up a week—
They say with painter's colic.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FIRE HALL

Spring doors have been put on the fire hall, so that all the driver has to do is to pull a lever and the doors open automatically. It is understood that spring doors are going to be put on the horse stalls, so that the ringing of the alarm will release the fire horses and allow them to come up to the pole of the hose wagon.

George Pushee, who went up with Mr. Erickson, remained at Port Essington.

News of the District

FERNIE

(From the Fernie Free Press.)

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Rev. Father Tavarnier on Wednesday morning, when Mr. J. H. Reid, of the Reid Furniture company, was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Smith, of Dublin, Ireland. Mr. Walter Harwood assisted the groom and Miss N. Legal acted as bridesmaid. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. The happy couple left on their honeymoon trip to western points by No. 5 after a wedding breakfast was served at the Imperial hotel.

T. Lebel, of Pinchet Creek, was transacting business along the line this week. Mr. Lebel says that he will retire from business at the end of the year. While all his staff will be pleased that he is able and prepared to enjoy life as it is best after the new year, they will, for one personal reason, be extremely sorry to see him resign the helm, as his employes think that "Tim" is the best and most considerate employer in the west.

Fernie will not have a daily paper for some time to come. At least that is the opinion of those who are competent to figure out the feasibility of such a proposition. The Daily Entertainer has suspended publication and no other publisher seems ready to jump into the breach.

"Blue" Jones, ex-poundkeeper of the city, who was arrested on Thursday morning, charged with stealing $650 of Frankie Smith, a dusky demimondaine. It is said that he threatened her with a razor in order to get the cash. When he got the money he promptly came up town and commenced to pay his bills announcing at the same time that he was leaving town. He had disposed of a considerable fraction of his "pickings" in this praiseworthy manner when he was ruthlessly seized by the police. Those of Blue's creditors whom he had not reached are sore on the police for spragging him so early in the game. He will be tried tomorrow.

Owing to recent rain the road between Hosmer and Fernie is almost impassable, but the government has a force of men at work hauling gravel from the river bed and it will soon be in good condition. $5,000 will be spent on this road within the next four months.

Jas. Houden was struck by the lever of a stump-pulling machine at Hosmer on Tuesday and painfully hurt, but, it is hoped, not seriously injured. The arm of the machine struck him over the heart causing collapse from the shock.

News comes from Kalispel, Mont., of the death of E. Flannigan, at one time a well known figure on the streets of Fernie. He was a victim of heart disease, and died at Wallace, Idaho. He was buried at his former home in Kalispel.

At a meeting of the Fernie Football club the other evening the following officers were elected: Honorary president, J. D. Hurd, honorary vice-president, Charles Simister, president, R. H. Moore; vice-president, Patrick Hughes; secretary-treasurer, James McCullough; committee, J. Neil, J. S. Stewart, sr., James Chesney, J. Marr, H. Barr, J. Barr, W. Evans, J. Stewart, jr., T. Anderson and J. McNicholas.

Chas. Richards, formerly of the Trites-Wood grocery staff, who left Fernie last October to go on the road for Wilson Bros., wholesale grocers, of Victoria, has come rapidly to the front at the coast. Charlie is a hustler, as the increase in Wilson Bros. island business during the past six months eloquently testifies. He has just been appointed general manager of this big grocery house and he has won the appointment on his merits.

H. Oldland's masons on the coke oven construction work at Hosmer went on strike yesterday at noon. The men were receiving $3.50 and $4.00 per day for 10 hours. They were on dry work and many of them were not masons at all. The following ultimatum was presented and the men did not turn up after the noon hour: "We, the undersigned bricklayers and stonemasons of Hosmer, B.C., agree to abide by the minutes of a special meeting held on the 21st day of May, 1908. A nine hour day at 55 cents per hour and all over stated time, Sundays included, time and a half, the day to commence at 7 o'clock in the morning till 5 o'clock at night."

(Signed)

Signatures of Workmen.

Mr. Oldland was at Crows Nest. He immediately returned and told the men to go to the office and get their time. He proposes to bring action against the men for breach of the Conciliation Act. About thirty men are affected. There are lots of men available and the work on the ovens will not be seriously delayed.

(From the District Ledger.)

Mayor Tuttle was very much pleased to receive a very largely signed petition from the Fernie ladies, to the number of about 140, requesting him not to allow the fight that was advertised for Wednesday night to take place. The ladies have the satisfaction of knowing that their petition was not in vain.

Yesterday being the anniversary of the explosion which occurred six years ago, whereby one hundred and thirty-nine miners met their death, the mines were closed all day, and a large procession headed by the Fernie band paraded in honor of the dead heroes of the mines.

We understand a movement is on foot to secure a piece of land in the north part of the city with a view to having a race track and recreation ground. This is a move in the right direction and so should receive the support of every enterprising citizen. The ground that has done service in the past for all athletic events is no longer available for that purpose and it is now up to Fernie to do something to secure proper grounds for all summer games. We wish the parties interested all success.

"Kid" Scaler, who was to have fought Lombard in Calgary next Tuesday has worked the double cross in no uncertain manner according to the Calgary Herald. He must have got cold feet, as he hit for the south during the night and is now in Spokane preparing for a fight with Nelson.

Mr. Reynolds, of Cranbrook, was in the city Thursday. He was at one time yardmaster at this point.

"Paddy" Hughes is meeting with great success with his list for the Fernie football club. Sure more luck to you Paddy.

The pulpit in the Methodist church last Sunday evening was filled by Miss McMillan, of the Salvation Army, Cranbrook. She took the place of Mr. Boulton, the regular pastor, who was away to Vancouver attending the conference meeting.

Russell Hawke, printer's "devil" in the Leader office, will leave on to-morrow's Flyer for Spokane, where he will spend a few days with Arthur Lutner, Cecil Larson and Alfred Carlson, Moyie boys who are attending the Blair business college. Russell is a good faithful boy, and richly deserves his little vacation.

MICHEL MEN RESUME WORK

(Fernie District Ledger.)

For some time there has been rumors of impending trouble at Michel, though nothing definite could be gathered as to the cause of any trouble arising. However, it appears that for some time friction occurred between the local union committee and the management. A miner by the name of Henry Marchant came to Michel and obtained employment from the pit boss of No. 8 mine and was informed that he could not start because there was a "cave" in the place they intended to give him and that he had better see the superintendent. Marchant, however, went to the No. 5 mine and asked for a job, and upon informing the pit boss of his name was told that the mine was already employing all the men they required. Marchant then reported to the union committee what had transpired. They interviewed the superintendent, who finally refused employment to Marchant. At a special meeting of the miners last Sunday it was decided to suspend work although some members wanted to submit the matter to the district officers and continue work as per their agreement with the company.

On Sunday night District President Sherman arrived in Michel from Morrissey for the purpose of adjusting contract rates for a new mine. President Sherman was informed that a "vacation" had been ordered that night. He interviewed the local officers and committee and asked what was the trouble and why he was not informed before any suspension took place. He was told that they intended to fight it out themselves in their own way. President Sherman then informed the committee that they were wrong in breaking their agreement and that the U.M.W.A. would not sustain them in such actions. On Monday summons were issued against Jas. Douglas, Chas. Garner and Wm. Whitehouse at the instance of the company for a breach of the Lemieux Act in inciting men to strike. On Tuesday evening a meeting was held in Michel hall. President Sherman and Sec.-Treas Macdonald being present. The district officers pointed out to the men where they were wrong and urged them to resume work and abide by their agreements. It was decided by a small vote to await the action of Fernie men who are expected to strike in sympathy and also the result of the committee's trip to Fernie.

On Friday another meeting was held and the men decided to return to work and place the matter in the hands of the district officers.

The company from the commencement took a strong stand. General Manager Hurd insisting that the men must resume work before he would consider the grievances.

GONE OUT AGAIN

Michel, May 26.—The miners at Michel are on strike again. After agreeing to return to work on Saturday morning, the men reported, but when they found that twelve men, including some of the leaders of the union, had been told to report to the superintendent, where they were given their time, the men decided that this was due as a punishment to the union and refused to go to work.

At the meeting of the union the men voted to strike, claiming the company had broken their agreement to settle the matter in dispute amicably.

The entire union at the end of the meeting presented themselves to the superintendent and told him they would not return to work until the men discharged were reinstated. The superintendent informed them he could not act until he had received word from Fernie. Everything is quiet, but the men are determined to fight to the last ditch.

A GREAT NURSERY

Martin Burrell, of Grand Forks, is owner of what is probably the largest and finest nursery in the province, situated in the fertile valley near Grand Forks. His shipments of trees and shrubs this season has far exceeded that of any previous year, and he considers fruit growing in British Columbia will expand with leaps and bounds during the next few years. He employs about fifty men at his nursery during the busy season, and has set out some 250,000 young trees this spring, 175,000 of which were apple trees.

UPPER, OF COURSE

A professor in the University of Berlin, who came over here a year ago much surprised the first time when he traveled in a sleeping car to be asked by the porter for his berth ticket. "My birth ticket?" he said, "I have my passport, I have my letter of credit, and I have even in my trunk my certificate of vaccination; but why the railway company should want my birth ticket I do not see." "But," said the porter, "I must know whether you have lower or upper berth." "Upper, of course," said the German. "Look at my passport; does it not say 'Well and highly born.'"—Ex.

THE PASSING OF AN EARLY PIONEER

(Written for the Herald.)

There died on Saturday, the 16th inst, at Fort Steele, one of the pioneer residents of the district, namely, Robert Duncan Mather, of the Windsor hotel, aged about fifty years. Mr. Mather was a native of Tayport, Fifeshire, Scotland, and left his home land in 1873, when a mere lad, reaching the Kootenay district the following year, on horseback from Walla Walla, Wash., in the at that time sparsely settled territory of Washington. Here he acted for some years during summer, as assistant in the store kept by his aunt, Mrs. Milby, on the famous and then busy Wild Horse creek, going down in winter to attend school at Victoria. When about nineteen he was accustomed to bring in by pack train goods for his aunt's store, from Walla Walla, Wash., over the long trail, by way of Sand Point and Bonners Ferry and up the Moyie river to Galbraith's Ferry, now Fort Steele. After his aunt's death he for some time took charge of the store and the Cherry Creek ranch, but from 1889 to 1891 he gave his whole attention to the ranch, building in the latter year a hotel in Fort Steele and calling it by the maiden name of his wife, The Dalgardno. Mr. Mather married when a very young man, in 1882, and leaves a widow and seven children, all girls. Two boys of the family died, one in infancy, the other, as our readers will remember, meeting an untimely death by drowning in the Kootenay river. Mr. Mather's mother is still living in Scotland, his father having died only last November, aged 73. The deceased, who was familiarly known to every one by his given name, was a favorite with all old-timers, and was noted for his kindness and goodness of heart, and hence his early death will be very generally regretted by his acquaintances and all his old friends. His bereaved wife and family have the kind sympathy of the community. He leaves here also a younger brother, Harry, who is now conducting the hotel.

FEW IDLE MEN THERE

Says the Prince Rupert Empire: People who come to Prince Rupert as sightseers are somewhat surprised in not finding conditions here as described by the newspapers of Vancouver. Instead of being met by a thousand idle men, who look as if hungry, they see a good-sized crowd of men and women and children, well dressed, and none of them hungry looking. The truth is, there are few idle men in Prince Rupert. Wages in Alaska and the Yukon are from $1 to $2 a day higher than at Prince Rupert, and few laboring men will work for $2 or $2.50 a day when they can get a place where the wages are $3 and $1 a day. As long as there is work in Alaska and the Yukon at a comparatively higher rate of wages there will be very few good men idle at Prince Rupert. There is as much building in Alaska as here; there is work for thousands of men in the mines, while there is no mining here; there are hundreds of business houses scattered throughout Alaska and the Yukon, and only half a dozen here. Then why should men hanker to stop off at Prince Rupert and go hungry?

FOR CITIES BEAUTIFUL

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, in discussing the matter of the beautification of Canadian cities and towns, in Montreal the other day said: "It is a laudable ambition—this desire to improve and beautify the places where humanity congregates and make them more pleasing, more enjoyable and more attractive to the dweller and the visitor. Not all centers of population are so favorably blessed with nature's beautiful gifts that they may become more than an aggregation of houses, but even in these unfavorable places existing eyesores and the ugliness of dirty streets or unsightly structures, of uncared for parks and general untidiness may be removed at little expense and trouble."

NEW SLEEPERS AND DINERS

A large number of new sleeping and dining cars will be put into commission by the Canadian Pacific railway during the present month, and early in the month of June. Eighteen new sleepers and six new dining cars are now being built for western lines in the shops of the company in Montreal. All of these cars are being built according to the latest plans, and no expense will be saved in their furnishing or equipment. They will be used on the main line between Montreal and Vancouver.

3. Every merchant, trader or other employer of labor within the City of Cranbrook, shall pay the Road Tax as the same becomes due from any person or persons in their or his employ, and may deduct the amount so paid from the salary, wages or compensation due or to become due to such person from such employer upon the production and delivery of the receipt therefore to such person. Every such merchant, trader or other employer of labor shall furnish to the Collector when required by him so to do, a list of all persons in his employ liable to pay such Road Tax.

6. When such Road Tax is due and unpaid after demand made therefore, the Assessor or Collector of the Municipality may by himself or his Agent, levy the same with costs, by distress of the goods and chattels of the person who ought to pay the same, or of any goods and chattels in his possession wherever the same may be found within the Municipality, or of any goods and chattels found on the premises of such person, the property of or in the possession of any other occupant of the premises, and the costs chargeable shall be those made payable in cases of distresses for rents and penalties by "An Act respecting the costs of levying distresses for rents and penalties," and if no sufficient distress can be found, then upon summary conviction before a Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the Municipality, on the refusal or neglect of such person to pay the said sum, he shall incur a penalty of Five Dollars ($5.00) with costs, and in default of payment at such time as the convicting Justice shall order, shall be committed to the common gaol and be there put to hard labor for any time not exceeding ten (10) days, unless such penalty and costs and the costs of the warrant of commitment and of conveying the said person to jail are sooner paid.

7. The Assessor or Collector of the Municipality may by himself or agent demand from any person liable to pay such Road Tax the production of his receipt for the same, and in case of the neglect or refusal of any such person to produce, when demanded by the Assessor or Collector, a receipt lawfully issued by him, the Assessor or Collector may by himself or agent, levy the amount of such Road Tax in the manner provided in the next preceding section of this By-Law.

SHUFFLING THE GAMBLERS

(Fernie District Ledger.)

At a meeting of the police commissioners held last night the case of Chief Pennycuick was taken up charge by charge, and resulted in some heated arguments on both sides.

Looking at the matter from the standpoint of the public, which is the only way it can be looked at as the mayor, the commissioners and the chief of police are public servants, placed there to look after the best interests of the public in general, the matter just resolves itself into this: The commissioners, to do justice to the city of Fernie, cannot leave the present chief in his position. He admitted enough of the charges to lay him open to dismissal; as a man to dispense the law to the law-breakers of all classes must be more exemplary in his character than Pennycuick openly admitted he is.

The chief's excuses were all very lame, and while Mayor Tuttle may have taken a little too much upon his shoulders without consulting the commissioners, he apologized to them for it, and as it was done in the best interests of the city, and has already been of material good, we cannot blame the mayor one whit. We will not name the many cases that were brought up, as we only want to acquaint the public with what will be of interest, and naming the charges would do no good to anyone. The commissioners, however, in fairness to Chief Pennycuick, granted his case a remand till Monday night.

Before going Mayor Tuttle moved a resolution that "All gambling be stopped by the police in the city of Fernie." Commissioner Broley seconded the motion, and on being put it carried without a dissenting voice. This edict is to go into effect at once.

We consider this one of the finest and most progressive steps that has ever been taken, and think that the citizens of Fernie in general will be much pleased to hear it.

Gambling in this town has been too open, too rank, and the workingman's family have suffered from it as from the excessive drinking to an extent that is appalling. So that in doing away with the gambling it is one forward step to the workers and their families.

IT IS NOT EASY

To apologize.
To begin over.
To be unselfish.
To take advice.
To admit error.
To be charitable.
To keep on trying.
To be considerate.
To avoid mistakes.
To endure success.
To be a clean man.
To obey conscience.
To keep out the rut.
To profit by mistakes.
To think and then act.
To forgive and forget.
To make the best of little.
To subdue an unruly temper.
To despose underhandness.
To maintain a high standard.
To shoulder a deserved blame.
To recognize the silver lining.
To accept just rebuke gracefully.
To smile in the face of adversity.
To value character above reputation.
To discriminate between sham and real.

But it always pays.—Ex.

THIS IS THE REASON

In the senate the other day in reply to a question by Senator Macdonald of British Columbia, who asked if the government had acted upon his suggestion that former governor generals of Canada be invited to visit the Dominion at the time of the Quebec celebrations. Hon. R. W. Scott said there was an unwritten law but one which had never been broken that a governor general should never visit Canada after his term had expired. The reason for this was that coming officially he would have to take a much lower place than he formerly occupied and give precedence to those whom he ranked above when governor general. The government had, therefore, not acted on Senator Macdonald's suggestion.

FINDLAY RIVER RICH IN GOLD

C. H. Durley and Wm. Ellis, Vancouver men who have sent a number of prospectors into the Ingenika country, recently received personal letters from the men at McConnell creek, under date of the middle of April, stating that all the claims are exceedingly rich. Even better looking prospects were struck by a party 80 miles to the northeast, but lack of provisions compelled them to return before a full inspection could be made. The top gravel is said to go $30 to the pan and the dirt runs 40 cents to the pan at a depth of 32 feet. Provisions are very short at the camp and it is expected that a pack train will leave Hazelton about June 1.

THINGS LOOKING UP

Canada Lumberman: A British Columbia report says that lumber camps in the interior are beginning to open up, and this is having a good effect upon general trade. There is already a good demand for supplies. City trade continues fair, with staple lines doing a normal business. The outlook for summer business is good. Collections are generally fair to good, with some improvement noted from interior points.

MILLIONS FOR CANADA

A despatch from Washington says that during the last seven months 39,000 people left the United States for Canada. At least 5,000 of these were farmers, who sold their farms in the United States to buy similar property in Canada, ann it is estimated that they each carried an average of $8,000 from that country. They thus collectively carried $40,000,000 into Canada. The other emigrants who left the United States for Canada, carried, it is estimated, between $1,500 and $2,000 each.

Dave Griffith, of Wild Horse creek came in yesterday, bringing with him the usual amount of gold dust from the diggings in that section. Mr. Griffith says that Wild Horse creek and the Kootenay river are now nearly to the high water mark, and if warm weather sets in there would be no telling as to how high the water would go.

Monday next is the first of the month. The Herald has been exceedingly lenient with a number of its debtors during the past few months, but next week expects to ask those owing this office to pay their bills, as it takes money to run a newspaper like the Herald and neither a bank, the wholesale houses nor the employes will accept stand offs.
