UNIONIST CONVENTION ELECTS CANDIDATE

DR. S. BONNELL OF FERNIE CHOSEN AS CANDIDATE FOR FORTHCOMING DOMINION ELECTION

The Unionist Convention held in Cranbrook yesterday was very largely attended from all points of the District. Delegates poured in on every train and at 2 p.m. the Hall was filled.

T. T. McVittie, President of East Kootenay Federal Unionist Association called the meeting to order and owing to his not feeling in the best of health asked the meeting to appoint a chairman to act in his capacity. Mr. Sherwood Herchmer of Fernie was unanimously chosen and business was commenced with at once. The first matter of business was to write a letter to the Liberal Convention which was in session here to form a committee of 6 to meet a like number of Conservative Unionists to see if they could arrive at some decision to agree on a Union Candidate. Word was received they would meet on these plans at the Cranbrook Hotel and delegates were immediately elected and proceeded to the Hotel and after a long consultation no agreement was reached. The bone of contention being the Liberals wanted the seat as a Liberal Unionist. Mr. Herchmer pointed out that the Liberal Unionists of the Province had already claimed the four seats allotted them by the heads of the Union Government at Ottawa; he suggested if any of the four mentioned seats already claimed by the Liberals would drop out in favor of a Conservative Unionist then this seat could go to the Liberals. The meeting ended here without any agreement. At 6 p.m. a letter was received from the Liberals saying they could not entertain this proposition. A letter was then written the Liberals that a joint convention be held on a fifty-fifty basis consisting of 30 Conservatives and 30 Liberals in person (not proxy) and the voting to take place for a Union Candidate by ballot. The answer from the Liberals was that they would meet on a fifty-fifty basis with this addition "that the vote be by a show of hands and that the nominee receive a three-fifths majority." The Conservative Unionists answered that they were still anxious that there be a joint convention but the vote must be by secret ballot and a majority rule as it was the opinion of the meeting that the suggestions in their letter would be neither fair to either parties or to the country. The Liberals' answer was that they would concede to voting by ballot but the majority of three-fifths should stand. Another letter was written the Liberals stating that it was the decision of the meeting that majority should rule and hoping that they could see their way clear to accept this decision. Answer received was that the Liberal meeting decided that the term re three-fifths majority must stand and that this was final. A verbal offer was brought back by Mr. Leitch and Mr. Manning that the Liberals offered to hold a joint convention and take three votes and the candidate receiving a majority of 36—24 be elected and if such majority was not secured by either party then it was off. An answer was despatched at once to the Liberals agreeing to this and in the event of this 3-5 majority not being received a fourth ballot be taken and the candidate with a majority be nominated. The answer to this was that they could not accept and the matter be now closed, as they had offered different concessions none were accepted. The Unionist Convention then proceeded, at the late hour of 12.30 p.m. to nominate their candidate. A. E. Watts of Wattsburg nominated Dr. S. Bonnell of Fernie to be the candidate in the forthcoming election; this was seconded by Mr. J. D. McBride of Cranbrook. No other nominations were made and Dr. S. Bonnell was then made the unanimous choice of the meeting. Dr. Bonnell then addressed the Convention thanking them very heartily for the honor bestowed on him by nominating him as a candidate in the forthcoming election. He gave an outline of his experiences during the year he spent at the front. He referred to the great devastation caused by the Huns in Europe. The Doctor dwelt at some length on the great work the Navy was carrying on; it was the bulwark which the enemy could not face. He also referred to the devastation of Servia where the people were driven ahead of the Hun and families had become broken up and members were lost from one another not knowing whether they were alive or prisoners of the enemy. He said "If I am elected to go to Ottawa, I go there to strengthen the hands of the Government and not to be just merely in the political game." He said he was a Canadian and was in the war to the last man and last dollar. He again thanked the audience for the honor bestowed on him and asked all present for their undivided support in the coming election.

R. F. Green, M. P., came in to the city yesterday afternoon and was present at the convention. Mr. Green addressed the delegates and outlined the operations leading up to Union Government and he advised all present that he was not here to take any part whatever in the convention but advised them to take plenty of time and give the Liberals every chance to come in and have a joint convention to choose a Unionist Candidate.

RETURN OF DONALD LESLIE

Sapper Donald Leslie returned to Cranbrook on Friday. He enlisted from Niagara with the 2nd Cyclist Corps in August 1915, but on arriving in England was made Staff Sergeant Instructor. In May, 1916, he voluntarily reduced himself to the ranks in order to get to France, and he went through the Battle of the Somme with the Canadian Engineers.

He unfortunately fell a victim to arsenic poisoning in October, 1916, and has since been under medical treatment. He returns to Hospital in Victoria on 22nd November.

VICTORY LOAN COMMITTEE ORGANIZES

The Cranbrook Committee in charge of the Victory Loan Issue has had several meetings and is at present completing its organization. It has been considered advisable to have the Organization in perfect shape before bringing the Issue directly before the public by personal canvass

The organization as at present arranged is as follows:

A Central Executive Committee who have the general supervision over the affairs connected with the Loan.

The Advertising Committee will be in the hands of Mr. W. A. Nisbet. Messrs. W. H. Wilson and F. M. McPherson will have charge of the canvassing, and the recording of the applications, and all work incidental thereto will be done by Mr. A. L. McDermot. Local sub-committees have been appointed in Kimberley, Moyie, Kingsgate, Yahk, Fort Steele, Marysville, Wardner, and Bull River. Fort Steele and Bull River are in the Fernie District, but at the request of the Fernie Committee, these districts are being looked after from Cranbrook.

A meeting of the Canvassers will be held in the Town Hall on Thursday night, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. All details in connection with the Loan will be then explained, and the canvassers allotted to their particular districts. It is the intention of the Committee to have a public meeting in Cranbrook probably on Sunday evening the 25th, but details connected with this will be announced later on. Several of the outlying districts are also arranging meetings and representatives from the Cranbrook Committee will go to these meetings to explain the details of the Victory Loan and assist the Local Organization in any way possible.

CAPT PEARSON VISITS CRANBROOK

On Tuesday evening, a dinner was given in the Y. M. C. A. Grill Room in honor of Captain Pearson who was in the city on behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association. About 65 prominent citizens were present who had the pleasure of listening to a stirring address by Captain Pearson.

Mr. R. T. Williams was chairman and introduced the speaker who in the course of his address told of the miraculous strides in organization the Allied armies had made on the Western Front since the commencement of the war, of the shortage of guns of large calibre and ammunition in the early stages and the enormous gun power now available; in stirring words he spoke of the work of the air-craft—the eyes of the artillery; and how the Allied airmen had gradually become masters of the air; great applause greeted the speaker's glowing tribute to the work of the British Navy, and the fact that it had transported millions of men and supplies across the channel without the loss of a single life.

Captain Pearson declared that the decisive battles of the war must be fought on the Western Front; he gave a graphic description of the Y. M. C. A. huts, and what they meant to the soldiers and explained the urgent necessity of financial aid.

Mr. McKellar, Secretary, made an earnest appeal to those present to assist in the campaign for funds.

At the conclusion, a strong committee was appointed to canvas the city on Wednesday.

Captain Pearson later addressed a large audience in the Rex Theatre in which an account was given of the establishment of Y. M. C. A huts right up to the firing line, within 1,000 yards of the German trenches.

PTE. ROBT. ERSKINE BACK IN CRANBROOK

Private Robert Erskine, a battle scarred veteran of the war, returned to Cranbrook on Sunday.

Pte. Erskine enlisted in August, 1914 in the 13th Royal Canadian Highlanders and has been fighting almost continuously since February, 1915; he took part in the 1st battle of Ypres, on 22nd April, 1915, after which a reorganization of the Canadian Divisions was found necessary; his next engagement was at Festubert, in this famous battle, commonly called the Battle of the Orchards, the 13th Royal Highlanders and the 16th Canadian Scottish carried off the honors; Pte. Erskine was seriously wounded in the face by shrapnel but recovered in time to take part in the fierce battle of Civench—known as the "Windy Corner"; in this fight the Canadians were attached to the flower of the British army, the Scots, Irish and Coldstream Guards; he was again wounded by shrapnel, this time in the leg. On recovering, he went through the battle of Messines Ridges, Bloegstrasse Wood, Kemmel, Dicky Bush, the Bluff when Brigadier General Mercer was killed, and General Williams taken prisoner; and the battle of the Somme; this battle Private Erskine declares was the hardest fight the Canadians had been in. He was sent back to the base for a rest but was again in the thick of it at Vimy Ridge, where the French in 1914 suffered such heavy casualties.

R. E. BEATTIE TO REPRESENT LIBERAL PARTY

It is reported that Mr. R. E. Beattie is the choice of the Liberal party as candidate for the coming election.

The campaign for funds in aid of the overseas work of the Y. M. C. A. progressed very satisfactorily on Wednesday. A canvass of the city was undertaken by a number of the business men and the ministers of the city churches.

It was not possible to complete the canvass, but the day's work resulted in securing subscriptions amounting to about $550.00 and when the returns are all in it is anticipitated that the total will be considerably more than this amount.

BE ONE OF THE MILLION

A million small subscribers must do more for the cause than a hundred thousand large ones!

Why? Because the spirit of a million people is ten times stronger than that of one hundred thousand. You must put more than your money into this thing when you subscribe for a Victory Bond. You put yourself into a joint, purposeful movement to VICTORY. You strengthen the national WILL to success. You plant a well directed kick at the Kaiser. Subscribe what you can, and subscribe with a will. If you positively may not subscribe money—then anyway, WILL the Loan SUCCESS, join in spirit, and plan that you may subscribe next time.

THE NEED FOR UNION

"Discention among ourselves is fatal to the success of any and every campaign. Let us have endurance, concentration and unity. Personal and sectional differences, suspicions and resentment must be forgotten or postponed. This is no time to talk of parties. There is but one party, the nation's."—Premier Lloyd George at Albert Hall last week.

There could be no more patriotic creed than the above for the Canadian people to-day. Union Government is clearly carrying with it a great majority of the best brains of the country. But the good will and support of every man counts. If there are Canadian Liberals who are still in doubt as to what their course should be, we hope they shall weigh the words of Lloyd George, that great champion of British Liberalism, and decide to join with Rowell and Carvell, Guthrie and Sifton, Crerar and MacLean in "concentration and unity" here, rather than with the Lauriers and the Oliviers, the Murphys and the Lemieuxs.

THE PITY OF IT

We deeply deplore having to announce that the result of the East Kootenay Convention held in Cranbrook yesterday is a three cornered contest in the coming election.

The delegates representative of the different Associations were unable to get together to cast away their party affiliations, to eradicate suspicion that one party was attempting to gain political ascendancy over the other; and the cause of unity so essential to the cause of Empire is, in this District made subservient to the cause of the political machines. It is apparent the East Kootenay politicians have yet to learn the spirit of self-sacrifice so necessary to secure victory over our enemies.

The pity is the greater in that we are satisfied the decision does not represent the wishes of the large majority of the District electorate.

Full credit must be given to the many delegates of both parties who gallantly strove for Unity.

Recriminations are useless, we must bow to the inevitable but the pity of it.

WHAT OF THE VICTORY LOAN AS AN INVESTMENT ?

An experienced investor considers security first. Well, security is absolute: the Dominion of Canada signs the bonds. That means that we are all joined: we and our lands and our cattle and everything that is ours—from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Boundary to the North Pole.

Return

Interest is 5½%: this compares favorably with other "Gold Bond" securities. It is a much higher rate than will maintain at normal rates in future. Dominion bonds.

Negotiability

The Bonds will be "listed" on change, and prevailing market quoted in the newspapers. Investors may sell at any time through Bankers or Brokerage houses.

Market

The Bonds are such a sound and productive investment as to indicate that quotations are likely to remain firm, and so that investors could get their money out without loss.

Future

The Bonds are not subject to income taxes which may be imposed by Dominion or Provincial Governments. The foregone conclusion that we will have heavy income taxes in Canada after the war makes this feature a valuable one.

THE BONDS may be had in large or small denominations.

THE BONDS may be registered in the name of the owner.

THE BONDS will always be excellent collateral at any bank.

Future

Experienced Bond dealers predict that selling quotations will advance to a handsome premium with a return of normal business conditions.

"I AM BLIND"

Did you ever see sitting in a little recess of a building on a busy city thoroughfare, a man who piteously held out a little tin cup, while from a cord around his neck was a card inscribed, "I am blind?" It is not an uncommon sight, and more common in the Old World cities than in the new.

In St. Dunstan's Hostel, (which was established and is maintained by the National Institute for the Blind) there are 464 blind soldiers and sailors taking the course of training. Two hundred more are on the waiting list. From this can be judged fairly well the number of blind men the war is creating. Are they to become as the beggars on the streets with the pitiful card "I am blind?"

Not one of those St. Dunstan's has the opportunity of training will ever descend to that state—or if they ever do, it will be from weakness of character and not from lack of opportunity. The Institute gives to every blinded soldier a training which fits him to be useful to himself and to the world throughout his life, and which moreover makes him independent of charity or any need of assistance. To the soldier who goes into St. Dunstan's blind, helpless, and usually hopeless, the Institute offers a course of training to enable him to follow any one of a dozen occupations, poultry-farming, shoe-repairing, carpentering, stenography, telegraphy, and many others. No one is either helpless or hopeless after a few days in St. Dunstan's. Lady Jellicoe is one of the many qualified observers who pay tribute to the wonderful cheerfulness which pervades the atmosphere of the famous hostel.

To carry on this work St. Dunstan's relies upon voluntary contributions. Before the war the National Institute for the Blind depended almost entirely upon contributions received from the British Isles. The war, which made it necessary to open St. Dunstan's also widened the scope of the work greatly, as it is a truly Imperial Institution treating patients from every part of the Empire. Now the National Institute feels that the people of the whole Empire will be glad to share in the cost of the noble work the Institute is doing, and to that end has sent W. E. Cowen to Canada, to receive the contributions which may be made. He is now visiting Cranbrook and we confidently expect that Cranbrook will show its appreciation of the work of the Institute in the best way possible.

MONEY MAKES THE WHEELS GO ROUND

A great national benefit can readily grow out of the floating of the Victory Loan among our own people.

Supposing 100,000 people who have never put a cent into savings banks can be induced to subscribe for even a $50 Bond. Each subscriber would be required to pay down in actual cash only $5 at the time of subscribing; he would arrange with a bank to pay the balance in instalments spread over a year. The banks are very ready to help, so that it must easily be possible for 100,000 people to do this.

Well, we are supposing a case, and that the 100,000 have subscribed. The total of their subscriptions, $5,000,000 is a small piece of the Loan, it is true. But would it not truly be a great thing to have started on the road to thrift a great body of citizens who have lived pretty much from hand to mouth? This first five millions might well prove to be seed for future hundreds of millions of savings. We might as a nation grow in thrift to rival France. And what prosperity might we, in this great country of Canada, not attain to could we do that? For, "money makes the wheels go round."

Become a saver now. Determine to buy a bond. Get in on this thing. Your savings will help. The man-at-the-front will know the difference in what he eats, what he drinks, what he puts on, and what he has to fling the enemy. YOU will know the difference of a habit of thrift which will be comfort in old age, and you will take your proper place in this great movement. And finally, Canada must eventually appreciate the fact because of increased national prosperity.

It is just such a turn-up as occurred at the nomination convention yesterday which causes the Laurier to smile.

Show your patriotism, chivalry and generosity by subscribing to the Victory Loan.

You love your country and the blessings you enjoy in it, the purchase of a Victory War Bond will help to preserve these blessings.

We want the boys at the Front to be backed up. We must not disappoint them; Victory War Bonds provide the necessary ammunition to put them.

Cranbrook Drug & Book Co., Cranbrook, B. C., also at the best druggists in all B. C. towns.

A divided Canada is what the Kaiser wants. This war can only be won by unity; one single aim by a united government. Let this be the aim of every voter who has the national crisis at heart.

If the Victory Loan fails and we fail in winning the war, our assets in Canada won't count for much. This is unthinkable almost, but the situation is serious and Canada must see to it that the Victory War Loan does NOT fail.

The Kaiser is eagerly watching for the result of the Victory War Loan campaign: for its failure means wavering, its success, determination, and the Kaiser is very much concerned. He will either smile or curse. Let him curse.

AMERICAN COMMENT

American papers, now that the United States is in the war, are naturally particularly interested in the part Canada is going to continue to play in the conflict. They have uniformally rejoiced over the formation of a National Government. They realize that Canada will now continue to play a big part in the ultimate triumph of the Allies. Here is a sample comment from the Christian Science Monitor:

"In forming the new National ministry in Canada, Sir Robert Borden has done a fine thing, and done it in a great way. It will not be disputed it is to be imagined, by anybody, least of all by a Canadian, that party feeling runs particularly high in the oldest of the Dominions. It has been the rule in Canadian politics for the winner to take his pound of flesh, and anything over and above the pound which might be within his power. In a great National crisis Sir Robert Borden has broken through tradition. He has gone back to the golden age of the Roman Republic, when none was for a party, when all were for the state. In plain English, in the very height of his power, he has formed a National ministry in which the offices are divided equally between his own party and the Liberal party."

"DAMAGED GOODS" IS WELL HANDLED SEX PROBLEM PLAY

Artistic Presentation is Given by Richard Bennett in Film Masterpiece.

The Mutual Film Corporation's presentation of "Damaged Goods" is free from the taint which inheres in most "sex problems plays." It does not linger over the horrid and morbid titillate perverted tastes under the pretense of preaching a great moral lesson.

There is distinct and powerful dramatic element in the story. A variation of the tragic idea that consequences are unpitying, that the will and the virtue of a man or woman are assailable on a thousand points and that few of us will emerge scathless from the conflict with temptation.

A young man of excellent home training and of honest ambition has a jolly evening with the boys. He is engaged to be married and this is a final fling and a farewell to the boys of bachelorhood. He drinks too much and with a boon companion visits two women of the kind whom G. B. Shaw tried to chaperon on the stage in "Mrs. Warren's Profession." It is not long before he discovers that his indiscretion has brought a horrible punishment upon him. Driven to despair he seeks a cure. He buries his secret [illegible] cannot hide it from [illegible] is the point of doing away with [illegible] he is rescued [illegible] of the girl who had him astray. [illegible] own salvation [illegible] considerations of a highly skilled physician. The doctor tells him it will take at least two years to regain his health. He adds the significant warning: "If you marry before that time you will be a criminal."

In the meantime his mother, his fiancee and all his relations ply him with questions as to the delay of the marriage. He evades them and follows the advice of the doctor until he finds the girl of whom he dreams, who promises to cure in three months' time. Despite the promptings of his conscience a success. Get the right kind of powder for stumping

"The farmer needs to know that he is getting quality in the powder that he is purchasing," says the Western Farmer. "If he secures the right kind of powder, the cost of removing stumps is greatly lessened."

The right powder to use for stump blasting is because it is made in British Columbia especially for blasting the kind of stumps that are found here. It has been used by British Columbia land clearers for 32 years. It is the original Giant powder—the pioneer Canadian farm explosive.

Giant Stumping Powder has a greater heaving and lifting effect than ordinary powders. It therefore goes further and gets the stumps out cleaner than explosives that merely shatter.

Get our book; save money

Our book, "Better Farming with Giant Stumping Powder," will show you how to cut down your blasting costs. It explains the latest powder-saving ways of loading and firing. It is free. Mail the coupon or ask for it on a post card.

MOTION PICTURE OF ST DUNSTANS INSTITUTE FOR BLIND

To Be Shown at the Rex Theatre under the Auspices of the I. O. D. E. Next Sunday Evening.

Arrangements have been made for the exhibition here of a special film brought by W. E. Cowen, representative of the National Institute for the Blind. The National Institute established and maintains St. Dunstan's Hostel, now famous the world over as the training home for soldiers and sailors who have lost their sense of sight.

St. Dunstan's (which is one of the many activities of the National Institute for the Blind) is far away from Cranbrook, and words are poor, weak things to describe the wonderful work that is done there", said Mr. Cowen today. "When I arranged for my Canadian tour, therefore, I brought along the most graphic picture of St. Dunstan's I could get—actual living pictures of the everyday life of the soldiers and sailors in training there. It doesn't show everything, but it does show enough to indicate to people here what is being done. St. Dunstan's has 646 soldiers and sailors in its care, and there are seventy-two teachers for them. They are taught Stenography, carpentering, massage, poultry-farming, shoe-repairing and other occupations equally astonishing for men totally blind. Just how they do all these things I can't explain half as well as you can see for yourselves in the film.

The people of Cranbrook have shown a great interest and are giving helpful support to the cause I represent", said Mr. Cowen, "but even those who have been so generous already I want to invite to see this film, because to them I know it will stand as proof that they are making one of the greatest humanitarian investments open to them."

The film will be shown at the Rex Theatre on Sunday evening next at 8.45, by courtesy of the management, and under the auspices of the I.O.D.E.

RESCUED COMRADES IN MIDST OF RAKING FIRE

Late R. M. Reid Showed Daring and Coolness at Battle of Lens—Work Admired by Officers.

Robert Morgan Reid, son of Mr. W. T. Reid, the well known merchant of New Westminster, and formerly of Cranbrook, is officially reported as killed in action on October 23. His record as a soldier was highly commended by his superior officers. One of these writing recently said. "At the battle of Lens I noticed two young men, Robert Reid, and Arthur Osterhout, whose coolness and daring entitled them to receive special recognition. In the midst of a raking fire they returned again and again to rescue comrades who had been wounded."

At the time of his enlistment with the 196th Western Universities Battalion, Robert Reid was a student at Columbian College and had secured matriculation standing in the University of British Columbia. To the staff and student body of Columbian as well as to many other friends, the news of his death brings a great sorrow, for he was well liked by all. In his death a promising young man of excellent character has proved his supreme devotion to duty and to the cause of the Empire.—Vancouver World.

THE PRICE SHE PAID

One of the most absorbing stories ever projected upon the screen is "The Price She Paid," in which the popular Selznick pictures star, Clara Kimball Young, will be seen at the Auditorium Theatre, Friday and Saturday, November 16th and 17th. This story by David Graham Phillips, deals with the problems of a young woman who has always lived in luxury, and who finds herself practically penniless. It is not merely a few isolated dramatic incidents, but goes into the details of the life of the heroine, Mildred Gower, and her efforts to achieve independence and save her own self-respect. She marries for money, and finds herself little more than a slave. With the aid of a farmer suitor she studies for an operatic career and again meets with many disappointments. At length she learns that there is no royal road to success, and giving up all her habits of ease and luxury, plunges into a Spartan routine, and by sheer determination finally wins. It is discovered that she has not been legally married, as the husband she left had a wife still living, and so she is free to make her life what she chooses. Miss Young has not, in a long time, had a role which affords such opportunity for beautiful costuming, and her charm of personality is revealed as it seldom has been in any of her work for the screen. The director of "The Price She Paid" is Charles Giblyn, a new member of the Selznick forces, who has many successes to his credit.

Monday and Tuesday, "Fatty" Roscoe Arbuckle will be seen at the Auditorium in "His Wedding Night," and Dustin Farnum in "Son of Erin", on Monday and Tuesday, November 19th and 20th.

Wednesday and Thursday program will feature Violet Mersereau in "The Little Terror" a special Bluebird production.

EAST KOOTENAY CHAPTER I.O.D.E., WALDO, B.C.

The silver teas which were given by members of the I. O. D. E. last winter will be continued now that cold weather has come again.

The first of these was given by Mrs A. C. Wright, at her home, October 16. The sum of $8.90 was realized, which will go towards purchasing articles for soldiers' comfort bags.

The school children of Baynes Lake gave $2.00 for the Tobacco Fund for soldiers, forwarding the money thru the Chapter.

A concert was given in Ross' Hall, Waldo, on October 23rd, under the auspices of the East Kootenay Chapter. The program was made up of vocal and instrumental music, and a one act farce entitled "Chiselling."

The affair was very successful, a large audience gave encouragement to the performers, and made a financial success of the evening. The net proceeds were $82.

Several more parcels have lately been sent off to France to local men now in the fighting line. Altogether 21 parcels were dispatched, each containing a pair of hand knitted socks, tobacco, cigarettes and gum. All told over 50 of these parcels have been sent by the Chapted.

Cranbrook Taxidermist has RE-opened for the season's hunting.

On the eighteenth of October, "Our Day" for the British Red Cross Society, was the occasion for a supreme effort. On that occasion the Windermere District was thoroughly organized and parcelled out under the various heads which came under the directions of the various committees of the Canadian Red Cross Society and the whole territory canvassed in an energetic effort to collect funds to aid in this good cause, with the result that the sum of three hundred and seventy dollars was netted, which amount inculdes a generous contribution from the friends residing in and about the post office of Spillimachene.

One of the most ardent canvassers for the fund, has possibly been Mrs. T. A. Pope of Westcliffe ranch, wife of Thomas Archdale Pope, late of Edinburgh, Scotland. Mr. Pope has already had one son who has given his life up in the cause of freedom and has a younger son who has been once wounded and who is again back in the trenches doing his bit. On this "Our Day" it fell to the lot of Mrs. Pope to visit the employees of the Paradise Mine, a property well over twenty miles from here, situated at a great height, near the foot of Mount Nelson. Mrs. Pope was very successful in her visit to these workers and in a short account has set out the result of her visit in the hope that it might be of interest to others engaged in similar work and stimulate them to go and do likewise. She says:

"Various members of our Red Cross Committee having undertaken to visit different parts of our scattered district for "Our Day" it fell to my lot to interview the miners half way up Mount Nelson. As it meant a drive of about twenty-two miles along a fairly difficult road a kind friend offered to take me up in a rig. We started at six thirty in the morning and at twelve o'clock we arrived at the mine office, and from there up to the mine, a ten minute walk, landed us breathless, in a room where the miners were waiting for us—impatient at the interruption, I thought, but looking very interesting with their little mining lamps all lit, just ready to return to work. A few words addressed them about the needs of our poor wounded boys' touched their hearts and they all responded most generously. The journey we had taken, generally done in two days, may have appealed to them, also the unusual sight of a woman in camp, but whatever the reason, they certainly made the trip very well worth while, for we started on our return journey with over one hundred dollars collected, having left a small Union Jack flying in the room as a souvenir.

There was still more collecting to be done at Jack Pine and even the Chinaman cook did not hesitate to open his purse. When we reached home it was seven-thirty and dark, we telephoned our success to Mr. Randolph Bruce, the owner of the mine, and on hearing that we had collected over one hundred and thirty dollars he added twenty five dollars to the sum and we felt that our share in the day's work had certainly been worth while."

RETURNED SOLDIERS, ATTENTION!

Now that there are a number of returned soldiers in Cranbrook and district, the question of forming a Branch of the Great War Veterans' Association has been raised.

To the present some ninety branches have been formed throughout the Dominion, with a membership of over 25,000. Nelson has had a branch for some time, and one was recently formed at Fernie.

In order that a meeting may be called to further consider and, if possible, take some action in the matter, all returned soldiers in this district are requested to communicate with R. T. Williams, Cranbrook.

$4 Saved Two Fingers

The fingers were those of Mr. J. W. Besnard, of 539 Craig St. E., Montreal. He says, —"A falling beam badly smashed my hand. Two fingers were so severely crushed that the doctors said they would have to be amputated. Naturally I didn't want this, so decided to try Zam-Buk first. I applied Zam-Buk daily, and by the time I had used $4 worth, the injury was completely healed. My fingers were saved!"

Just another illustration of the healing power of Zam-Buk. Accidents will happen. It may be your turn next. Better get a box and keep it handy. Accidents are less frequent than skin diseases, and remember this—

Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, ulcers, skin diseases, and piles, as for cuts, burns, bruises.

MEETING OF WOMENS INSTITUTE

Secretary Reports 100 Christmas Parcels Sent Overseas.

A well attended meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. B. McFarlane presiding. A letter of acknowledgement was read from Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman thanking the members for their united vote of sympathy with her in her loss sustained by fire while she was attending the recent conference. Mr. Scott's grateful note of thanks was also read expressing hearty appreciation of the gift of $25 from the Institute to the British Empire Agricultural Relief of the Allies Fund while a third letter of thanks was read from Balfour acknowledging safe arrival of cushions and quilts.

The Secretary gave a detailed report of articles given at the October shower and the work of packing the parcels recently despatched to France and the wounded in England. One hundred parcels had been sent containing socks, fruit cake, smokes and comforts of all kinds to the extent of 21 articles in all and at a cost of $275 approximately. The report was received with applause, everyone wishing the parcels a safe journey and in time for Yuletide. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. D. Campbell who so kindly made the cakes.

A donation of $10 was granted Balfour Sanitorium to be sent to Miss Forrest, Matron, to assist her in her efforts for Christmas cheer for the inmates.

The Annual meeting falling on New Year's Day it was arranged to hold the same on the Thursday instead of Tuesday and members were reminded of their subscriptions running out on December 31st and that to be eligible for voting at the election of officers on January 3rd their fee of 50 cents would have to be renewed meanwhile.

The President expressed the regret of the Institute in losing Mrs. Christian, Senr., and Miss Mills, through their removal from Cranbrook, the former going to Calgary while the latter takes up her abode in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Erickson very kindly described how socks should be properly made to suit Red Cross requirements, giving measurements and particularly detailing the "Kitchener" toe so necessary in army socks.

Lengthy correspondence was read from the University of B. C., re the Conservation of Food movement, including among other things the appeal to the women of Canada from the Food Controller, Mr. Hanna. Mrs. Hersey was appointed convenor of a committee to take charge of this. Several pairs of socks were given in, while 30 pairs had been made during the past two weeks to pack in the parcels.

After the conclusion of business Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Keyworth kindly rendered vocal contributions which were well received. Mrs. A. A. MacKinnon read an eloquent article on "Home Influence, and How to Manage a Husband." At the outset Mrs. MacKinnon stated that if her hearers expected something humorous they would be disappointed, and if she (the speaker) could have chosen her subject she never would have selected "How to Manage a Husband." Particularly did she dislike the word "manage." When preparing her subject the speaker attempted to imagine a company of intelligent men assembled together to discuss the problems of "managing" a wife and in her mind's eye could she see the victim of the society butterfly type giving advice to the husband of the deep-chested home-loving mother. All men had their own individuality and needed different methods of dealing on behalf of the wife. The perpetual scold, the fault-finding and the crying wife were all condemned equally as much as the woman who indulges in intermittent protests made as forcibly as possible. The policy of cultivating in our own lives, as well as fostering in our husbands' those virtues we deem so essential was the only way whereby two lives

The Ford is Now Considered a Necessity for Large-Scale Farming

WHETHER you are doing work on a large scale, or a small scale, you endeavor to reduce the delays of your farm machinery to a minimum and save time. A Ford will assist you in doing these two things.

If your tractor runs short of gasoline, the Ford will bring a few cans right to the spot and greatly shorten the delay. Or if you need a repair, or some new plow points, you can "run" the errand to town and back in one-third the time it would take with a horse and rig.

With a Ford you can supervise the work on your ranch much more thoroughly. You can get your mail and supplies oftener, and take more enjoyment out of prairie life. A Ford will do all these things and many more, and at the same time save you money.

The strength and endurance of the Ford has been proved the world over. It is equal to the western roads and the distances.

The Ford is the car for the Western Farmer.
