HELP TO WIN THE WAR BY ECONOMY AND PRODUCTION

FOOD CONSERVATION COM. ORGANIZED

Mr. J. P. Fink has been appointed Chairman of the National Food Resources Committee for the Cranbrook Electoral District.

The object of this organization is to form local committees composed of merchants engaged in different branches of business and to spread a propaganda of education to the people regarding the saving of all foods by conservation and elimination of waste and the stimulation of home and garden production.

Food conservation is the patriotic duty of every citizen and the co-operation of all merchants is desired so that the necessary supplies of food may be forthcoming to send to our men at the front and to our Allies.

Food is as important as ammunition, and if we can supply more to Great Britain, France and other Allied Countries by a strong conservation movement on the part of the people of Canada, we will be relieving a critical food situation and helping to bring about early peace.

Further particulars with regard to the organization of the conservation campaign in Cranbrook will be published in the near future. In the meantime Mr. Fink is doing all in his power to ensure a satisfactory result being obtained in the district and proposes to do some preliminary work at Kimberley on Friday.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The monthly meeting of the Cranbrook Women's Institute was held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of 107. Twenty-seven subscriptions were handed in, making the paid-up membership for the current year 102, and with this number reached at the February meeting there is every prospect that last year's record membership of 143 will be eclipsed within a few months.

The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada", Mrs. Edmondson acting as accompanist. The president, Mrs. W. B. McFarlane expressed her appreciation of the honor conferred on her by re-election for a fourth term of office as President and spoke briefly on the promising outlook for a successful year's work.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. J. W. Burton and adopted.

The following members were appointed conveners of the various committees:

Patriotic, Mrs. J. P. Leslie; Knitting, Mrs. G. H. Thompson; Library, Mrs. J. E. Brake; Musical, Mrs. N. A. Wallinger; Sick and Bereaved, Mrs. J. F. Smith; Cook Book, Mrs. Drummond; Conservation, Mrs. B. C. Hersey; Social, The Directors.

The memberships of the Committees were not completed, this being left to the conveners.

The correspondence read included a letter from Police Commissioner R. C. Eakin, thanking the Institute for their letter recently published in "The Herald" with regard to the work of the Police Commission and promising careful consideration of any suggestions that might be made by the Institute at any time.

A letter was also read from W. E. Scott, advising that Mrs. V. S. McLachlan of Garden City has been appointed secretary of the Advisory Board in place of Mrs. Davies recently resigned.

A communication from the Provincial Board of Health was tabled for further consideration. Several letters were read from the boys at the front acknowledging receipt of parcels. Some of these letters are printed elsewhere in our columns.

The care taken by the authorities with regard to delivery of parcels is shown by a letter received from the Military Postal Dept. stating that the parcel addressed to the late Private Bidder had been handed to some of his comrades.

The usual Valentine Social will be held on Thursday next 14th inst. There will be a Whist Drive commencing at 8.15, followed by dancing. There will also be a knitting competition and refreshments will be served. The boys in the trenches need socks, to provide the socks the Institute needs yarn, to provide the yarn, this social needs to be a financial success.

Various resolutions passed at the District Conventions were considered and adopted.

Miss Florence Erickson who has recently returned from England where she was a member of the nursing staff of a Military Hospital read an excellent paper on her experiences. Her work in England gave her an insight into conditions which she dealt with in a most interesting manner.

In the course of her address Miss Erickson stated:

There are at the present time Voluntary Aid Departments or as they

WAR SERVICE BADGES

Official Military Service Badges are now being issued and all men entitled to same should make application for same. Application forms may be obtained from E. B. Offin, Secretary, Cranbrook Branch Great War Veterans Association.

The Badges are issued in four classes, as follows: "A" for active service at the front; "B" for active service in England; "C" for service in Canada. There is also a Class "D" badge for men who have volunteered and been refused. This is known as the Honourably Exempt badge and application for Class "D" badges should be made direct to the Officer in Charge of War Service Badges, Military District No. 11, Victoria, B. C.

The Class A. Badge is similar to the badges issued by the Patriotic Fund. Class B badges are somewhat larger and are similar to those issued to the Imperial Forces. Class C badge has a maple leaf centre with the word "Canada" underneath.

WAR VETERANS ASSN. ELECT OFFICERS

The Cranbrook branch of the Great War Veterans Association, having completed organization arrangements, proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year at the regular meeting held at the City Hall on Tuesday evening.

The following officers were elected, Honorary Presidents, Dr. F. W. Green, Mr. C. H. Phillips, Mr. A. E. Watts; President, Speery S. Phillips; Vice-President, A. E. Goss; Secretary-treasurer, E. B. Offin; Executive Committee, W. Hewson, E. Gummer, J. George, W. Soden, A. Holling, Relief Committee, S. S. Phillips, A. E. Goss and E. B. Offin.

It is expected that arrangements will be completed in the near future to secure a permanent home for the G. W. V. A. and the Ladies' Auxiliary. The Treasurer's report showed the financial affairs of the branch to be in a very satisfactory condition.

The Misses A. McLennan, H. Harrison and A. Woodland attended the meeting to discuss arrangements for the St. John's Ambulance Association Tag Day on April 9th, being the anniversary of the battle of Vimy Ridge.

are popularly known "V. A. D." Hospitals throughout England. In pre-war days there were 3 V.A.D. Nursing Societies, viz The British Red Society, St. John Ambulance Assn. and the Territorial Forces Assn. To qualify for membership it was necessary to pass "First Aid" and "Home Nursing" Examinations. These organizations were not taken very seriously by the general public prior to August 1914, but on the outbreak of war the three associations were amalgamated and V. A. D. staffs were placed in charge of military hospitals and soon demonstrated their capability.

In V. A. D. Hospitals the sisters or trained nurses are on half-pay and the charwomen are paid. With these exceptions all services are given voluntarily.

The Hospital at which Miss Erickson was nursing contained 200 beds and many interesting details of hospital life were referred to in the paper. The adjustment of accommodation to meet the requirement of convoys of wounded soldiers and the method of procedure on their arrival, the arrangements made for renewal and repairs of clothing and various other phases of the work were also dealt with.

The musical items included an instrumental duet by Mesdames Wallinger and Edmondson and a patriotic solo by Mrs. A. B. Macdonald.

Following is the program drawn up for the year's meetings:

March 5th—The Conservation Problem, Mrs. H. McKowan; Demonstration War Menus; Question Box.

April 2nd—Domestic Science and Household Economics—Essential Studies for our Girls, Mrs. F. Miles; Demonstration, Parker House Rolls, Mrs. G. H. Thompson.

May 7th (Grandmother's Day)—Address (to be arranged); Roll Call, Home made articles for cookery sale; Knitting Competition, Kitchener Toe.

June 4th—Paper 'Clives' Mrs. J. D. McBride; Demonstration, Vinegar-making, Mrs. W. B. McFarlane; question box.

July 2nd (Children's Day)—Education through Play; Entertainment by Children.

August 6th—Arrangements for Flower Show; Suggestions for Conference; Demonstration, Summer Salads.

September 3rd—Address, Mr. G. J. Spreull; Roll Call, My Pet Economy.

October 1st (Patriotic Day)—What can we do for our returned soldiers? Mr. R. T. Williams; Demonstration, Making and packing of candy for soldier's overseas parcels, Mrs. W. W. Wolfer; Gift Shower for Soldiers.

November 5th—Medical Lecture, Dr. F. W. Green; demonstration, Raised Pork Pie; Roll Call, My Pet Idea.

December 3rd—Social Afternoon; A Christmas Story, Christmas Music.

MINING NOTES

The "Welcome" and "Enterprise" Claims on the St. Mary River—The "Great Dane" Group

In last week's Notes reference was made to Rose, who fancied Sam Lovatt had jumped certain claims of his. These claims form part of what was then, and still is, known as the Big Copper Group, lying almost behind the old office shack. The lead, or one of the leads, is exposed in an escarpment about 400 feet above the river level and then continues, up the hill, to the sky-line, a matter of 6500 feet over the sea level. The outcrops of the copper show for a length of about six claims, or approximately nine thousand feet. The ore is somewhat low-grade, say from 4 to 6% copper with some values in gold and silver. The lead, or leads, occur in a shattered schist, the gangue being quartz. The formation is a most puzzling one; certainly it is one with which we have very little acquaintance in this part of the Province. The mineral zone, or system, on the Big Copper maintains itself clear across the river and occurs strongly, on the opposite, or south side, of the West Fork of the St. Mary River. Here two claims were staked and crown granted under the names of the Welcome and Enterprise and quite a lot of good work done thereon. In August, 1902, L. D. Siver, E. M. of Spokane, made a very extended examination of the two last mentioned claims and furnished the only intelligent report of the formation prevailing around the Old Office Camp that the writer has ever seen. Referring to this zone Mr. Siver says:

"Following a north and south course for an indefinite distance, but known to be two miles in length, the schists along this line, or zone, from six to forty feet in width, were more or less disturbed, rent by pressure, split, parted, separated and cross-fractured by force—such crevices, openings, fissures and seams being filled with quartz and minerals, while the intervening schists, within the confines of the zone are also more or less mineralized, in accordance with favorable or unfavorable local conditions for impregnations of minerals and ore deposits. The whole mass of the zone filling presents either contorted irregular sections of ribbons and bands a few

REA MARTIN

Popular Morocco Star to Interpret Leading Role in "The Brat"

REA MARTIN
"THE BRAT"

UNUSUAL interest has been shown in the first presentation here of the big New York comedy success, "The Brat," which comes to the Auditorium Theatre on Wed., Feb. 13th.

No big production of recent years has been so successful as has been the present tour of Oliver Morosco's comedy, record business being the rule.

"The Brat" is a clever comedy of types, and the cast presenting it here is headed by the distinguished American star, Miss Rea Martin, of whom that astute dramatic critic, Alan Dale, said: "Rea Martin is the cleverest young actress in America today." The cast supporting Miss Martin is of exceptional ability, every member of the company being well known on Broadway.

Bert L. Robinson, the leading man, was with Julia Dean up to joining for this tour. Arthur La Rue, one of the finest young actors on the stage today, was formerly leading man in the Winnipeg Permanent stock. Edwin Burke, who plays Bishop Ware, was with Robert Mant II when that famous Shakespearean actor was last in Canada. Arthur Pace-Ripple will be remembered by all those whose home was formerly in the "Old Country" as the principle tenor in the D'Oyly Carte opera company.

The ladies of the company are also exceptionally well chosen. Leonora Ginito possibly has no peer in the portrayal of grand dame roles, and will be remembered for her work in "The Molting Pot," in which she created the Baroness Revendrant role. Edna M. Holland, formerly a Paramount and Famous Players movie star, is also in the cast.

"The Brat" was written by Maude Fulton, and is centered around a waltz girl taken out of a night court by a novelist for the purpose of providing matter for a new book. How this little girl, with her great knowledge of life, proves more than successful in solving one of the many problems of an aristocratic home.

"The Brat" was loudly praised by the New York press and hailed as the legitimate successor to "Peg o' my Heart."

NEWS OF THE BOYS AT THE FRONT

The following letters have been received by the Women's Institute, thanking them for parcels sent at Christmas:

Somewhere in France, Dec. 30
Dear Mrs. Burton—Thanks very much indeed for the lovely parcel you sent me for Xmas and which I received in good condition. You can imagine how welcome it was to get something from dear old Cranbrook out here and I sure appreciate it. It reached me a few days before Christmas and I kept the pudding until Christmas day and my chum and I had a dandy feed then, it was lovely. My address just now is No. 895545, 4th Lab. Bn., Canadian Ex. Army P. O., France, B. E. F.

Fritz is very quiet just now but he makes a raid once in a while and I guess he is ready to quit any time now. I met young McNab over in blighty about a month ago. He is looking well. We have been having some very cold weather here and a little snow and lots of mud, but we are fairly comfortable.

The boys are all glad the Government has been returned in Canada and I suppose we shall be getting lots of reinforcements now. Kindly remember me to all the Cranbrook people. I hope everyone is quite well and thanks again for the Christmas parcel. Wishing you the compliments of the season, yours very truly, Pte. WM. MAISEY.

A Coy, 6th Reserve Bn., South Camp, Seaford, Dec. 18, 1917.
Secretary Women's Institute.

Dear Madam—Wish to thank you for the parcel which arrived last week. Was certainly surprised and needless to say, pleased to learn that even after four Christmas seasons you have kept track of the Cranbrook fellows. Thanking you again for your kindness, I remain, C. McCOWAN.

France, Dec. 15th, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Burton—Just a few lines to let you know I received a very nice box from the Cranbrook Ladies' Institute. It reached me in the best of order and it was also gratefully received and makes one think of old times and people that one left at home. I am well and getting along O.K. Hoping this finds you all the same and thanking you for past favors I remain, Yours very sincerely, L.C.W. B. KAY.

Dec. 14, 1917

To The Women's Institute, Cranbrook.
Dear Friends—Just a few lines to let you know I received parcel O. K. for which I tender my sincere thanks for same, wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year. I remain, Yours sincerely, No. 2368353, Pte. Shaw Briggs, 76 Coy C. F. C. Secteur Postale 164, Armee, Francaise.

On Active Service, France, Dec. 15.
To the Ladies' Institute, Cranbrook: I have just received a parcel sent by the Ladies' Institute, which I thank you one and all for. At the time of receiving it I had several of my chums paying me a visit so I opened the parcel in front of them, and we certainly did justice to the contents. It is nice for us to be able to think we are not forgotten by those at home. Once again thanking you all for the most welcome parcel and kind wishes, I remain, Yours truly, Corp. B. W. Tolfree.

Acknowledgements of parcels have also been received from Sapper C. W. Bilfield (227634) and Private George Holmes (703881).

Class B: Harry Roy, Ethel Mitchell, Frank Stojack; Class C: Naomi Pow, Winnie Stewart; Class D: Fred Emery, Laurel Niblock. No. Enrolled 40, percentage of attendance 86.9.

On Wednesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell was filled with members of the Grand International Auxiliary and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and a few friends who had gathered as a surprise for one of their number. After whist and guessing contest, delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. J. T. Sarvis was presented with a beautiful cut glass bowl. Mrs. J. Roy making the presentation and the following address was read:

President G. I. A. to the B. of L. E.
Dear Sister—We have gathered here tonight to honor one of our charter members. Eight years ago Div. 473 was organized and it is with feelings of thankfulness that we look back tonight over the period of your membership with us. You were ever an earnest worker, coming to us in pleasure and sorrow, always with us when we need you most. We trust you will accept this small token of esteem and that it will always recall all that has been pleasant and helpful in the years devoted to exemplifying the motto of our Order: Sobriety, Truth, Justice and Morality.

Let the Toller cheer the fellow at his side.
And the world will move more smoothly, like the passing of the tide.

Signed on behalf of the members:
Nellie E. Barney, Past Pres.
Florence Cameron, Secretary.

BIDDER-RYCKMAN

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. W. S. Ryckman, Creston, B. C., on Wednesday, when her youngest daughter Ella was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest Bidder, of Greenwood, B. C. THAT NIGHT COUGH

Could anything be more trying or more exhausting? Peps will end it! The Pine vapor breathed down the air passages when a Peps is dissolved in the mouth relieves their irritation, soothes the inflamed place and stops the cough.

Mr. John Dunsen of Little Current, Ont., says: "I was troubled with an irritating cough that kept me awake at nights. Nothing I took gave me relief until I used Peps. This wonderful breathe-able remedy, however, has entirely rid me of the cough."

For asthma, bronchitis, laryngitis, sore throat and colds use Peps. All dealers, 50c. box.

PEPS

TO ORGANIZE LOCAL FOOD CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

Education Office, Victoria, B. C.
To The Mayor of Cranbrook:

Dear Sir—The Food Controller has requested that each city in British Columbia organize a local Food Conservation committee for the purpose of directing and co-ordinating all activities in connection with the conservation and increased production of food stuffs. It has been considered advisable to have this conservation committee organized under civic auspices, and I am writing you therefore to ask that you and the aldermen of your city take immediate steps to arrange for an organization meeting on Saturday, the 16th day of February, at the hour of 3 p.m. when I shall be present to assist you in completing the organization.

It is expected that this local civic committee, which, if possible, should not exceed twenty in number, will include representatives from the city council and from those local organizations which have already taken an active interest in food-conservation work or that may be induced to do so. I need hardly emphasize the great importance of selecting men and women to act on your local committee who are well-informed and genuinely interested in this work, which has now become a pressing national service. With this end in view I would respectfully suggest that you discuss the matter informally with the other members of your city council and with some of your leading citizens, after which you will be good enough to notify those whom you have decided upon as provisional members of the committee to meet at the above-mentioned hour. The place of meeting you will kindly arrange for. The permanent committee and various sub-committees will then be appointed in the usual way and the various lines of work designated. The holding of a mass meeting is a question which I must leave with yourself and your colleagues to decide upon.

J. W. GIBSON,
Prov. Organizer of Food Conservation Committees.

THE ARRIVAL IN BERN OF GENERAL LEMAN

The arrival in Bern, the capital of the Swiss confederacy, of General Leman, the hero of Liege, liberated after more than three years of captivity, was made the occasion for a most affecting manifestation. The minister legation, several members of the Allied missions, the leaders and officials of the internment works, a large number of Allied officers and soldiers, together with a very dense crowd that had spontaneously gathered, cheered and acclaimed on the evening of December 19, 1917, General Leman, upon his entrance in the station.

In the speech of welcome the Belgian minister recalled those epic days when General Leman sustained, in Liege, the first shock of the enemy. Then spoke the French Ambassador who glorified the hero and the whole Belgian army, on behalf of his Government; the prime minister of Serbia afterwards greeted the General in lofty terms of praise and the General, delegated by the Swiss internment work, heartily welcomed their glorious guest, to whom he wished an early recovery.

General Leman seems to have endured much suffering, but the impression gathered from his personality is that of extraordinary energy combined with moral courage. Greatly impressed by the welcome tendered him, General Leman responded by expressing his joy at being upon a land of liberty.

Baron de Broqueville, Minister of Foreign Affairs has sent the following telegram to Lieutenant-General Leman:

"It is with a deep feeling of joy that I have learnt of your arrival upon a free and united soil. I remember, as if it were only yesterday, our long conversation of July 30th, 1914, and the calm and resolute manner with which you then considered the possibility of the attack upon the place entrusted to your keeping. A few days later, the defence of Liege was affirming before the eyes of the world the glory of our arms and the indomitable energy of the nation. The foe himself has paid due homage to that heroic resistance against greatly superior forces. We have never ceased thinking of you all through your long term of captivity. I am sure, that over there, you must have felt how proud we are to measure all the consequences produced upon the German offensive by the courage and spirit of sacrifice of your forces and of their leaders. The old friend of yours that I am wishes to send you his most affectionate souvenir and his hearty wishes for the speedy recovery of your health."

(Signed) de Broqueville.

PASSING EVENTS

There appears to be a serious divergence of views between Germany and Austria, and it is expected that the latter country will endeavor to arrange a separate peace.

Mondays and Wednesdays are to be observed in the United States as wheatless days, and one meal each day as a wheatless meal. Tuesday will be meatless, and on Saturday there is to be no consumption of pork.

Bakers from various parts of Canada are conferring with officials of the Food Controller's department in Ottawa with a view to framing regulations to govern the production of the "standard bread."

That we are at the threshold of a new social era in which labor will assume dominance throughout the world is the prediction of Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Reforms in the Canadian Civic Service will be submitted in Parliament next session, including extension of the principle of the present Act to the outside service, with the view of abolishing patronage.

A British air raid on Mannheim last Thursday caused panic among the inhabitants, and when the airmen had departed, an angry crowd gathered in the streets, shouting "Down with the War!—Give us peace!"

Russia has broken off diplomatic relations with Rumania, and the Rumanian delegates will be sent out of the country by the shortest possible route. Severe fighting is reported between the opposing armies.

The increase of freight and passenger rates on Canadian railways which was to have become effective on 1st of February, has been postponed until March as a result of protests made by western public authorities.

Meals on meatless days in London cost double the usual rate, on account of the high price of fish. A cargo of fish sold at auction after landing realizes high prices. The crew of one fishing vessel had $1,500 each as his share in a fourteen day's cruise. Fish is scarce, because men will not go out and risk their lives unless sure of big money in return.

DOCTOR SAYS VINOL IS THE BEST TONIC

Honest Opinion Doctor Gave His Patient

Bedford, Ohio.—"I was in a pitiful condition, weak, nervous and run down so I could not do my housework. I had doctored for years and tried everything under the sun. A friend told me about Vinol. I asked my doctor about it, and he replied, 'It certainly is the best medicine that can be had today. I couldn't give you any better.' I took it, and today I am as well and strong as any woman could wish to be, and it was Vinol that saved me."—Mrs. Frank A. Horkey, Ash St., Bedford, Ohio.

FORT STEELE

There was a large attendance at the Red Cross dance held at the home of Mrs. J. Johnston last week. Thirty seven persons were present, almost every family in Fort Steele was represented. Cranbrook was represented by Miss G. Brooks, Miss Carson, Mr. Carson, Mr. R. Crowe and friend, and Miss Dowd. The attendance from Cranbrook was small owing to the lack of room, but the people of Fort Steele hope to have a large crowd over at the dance and basket social on Monday next, and the dance committee will certainly show them a good time. The sum of $14.00 was realized at the dance up to date, but all the money has not yet been turned in. There will be no Children's Entertainment at the St. Valentine dance and basket social.

The following pupils of the Fort Steele Public School are listed for perfect attendance for the month of January:

Division 1—Thelma Henderson, Isa Cameron, Gertrude Chalander, Edith Kershaw, Annie Wirth, Mamie Washington and Joe Kershaw.

At the Annual Vestry Meeting held lately in connection with the Church of St. John the Divine, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year—Messrs. Watson and Judd, Wardens; Messrs. Attree and Willcome, stewards. The accounts for the year were submitted and approved. Messrs. George Johnston, T. T. McVittie and R. L. T. Galbraith were elected delegates to the Provincial Synod. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. F. G. Cann for her valuable services as organist.

Much sympathy was expressed for Mr. T. T. McVittie, who is at present seriously ill at the residence of his brother-in-law Judge Scott, of Edmonton.

Mr. E. H. Attree has just learned of the death of his mother recently in England.

Private Thomas Chisholm of the 4th Regt. is enjoying a well earned rest from the front in Paris.

ELKO NOTES BY FRED ROO

There's a sneer upon our shirt front, And a smudge upon our ear; We've been cleaning all the stove pipes For the blooming winds are here. —Charlie Kay, in the "Elko Bladder."

Without wishing to start anything unpleasant, it may be asked, how long is that Morrissey Internment joke going to run, and when will the next commission on mulligan stews be touring through the Province at the taxpayers' expense?

The presence of a hypocrite is a sure indication that there is a bible and a prayer book not very far away. The Elk Hotel is under new management and is going to do the business of the town. There's big business for the right man.

A. J. Carter, Engineer, Eli Cooper, Mill Foreman, and Frank Scott, Bush Foreman, for the Downs Lumber Co., Red Canyon Creek, Roosevelt Valley, were in town this week.

Jim Sheirolk who represents the Saskatchewan Meat Trust was in Elko last week telling stories that would bring the blush to the face of a mahogany table, and handled them as cool as a slab of salmon in a butcher shop.

J. Broley of the Sunkist Orchards, Roosevelt, returned from Winnipeg this week looking as rosy as the ripest apple in the whole orchard.

Miss E. May Roo of Elko was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood, Plagstone, several days last week.

The patriotic dance in the Roosevelt School House last Saturday night was well attended, and a big social and financial success. The Kallispell Bush League String Band supplied the music.

Mr. Cassidy from Grand Prairie, B. C., was in Elko last week visiting friends. His optimism would remind you of mother's doughnuts. He said in all his travels the only place that had anything on the Grand Prairie country was the Roosevelt Valley.

Fred Roo was notified by wire that he had been selected Chairman for Elko, for the Food Conservation, production and elimination of waste, etc.

Jim Thistlebeak says, a woman simply has to love something even if it is nothing but a man.

A. E. Ingham, the Sheep Mountain rancher and mining man, met with a serious accident while splitting wood. A knot of wood hitting him in the left eye, examined by Fernie medical men, he was advised to take the first train to Spokane to consult an eye specialist and left Monday morning for that point. Mrs. Ingham accompanying him.

Joanny Palmer of Krag and well known throughout this district writes to Jim Thistlebeak, Elko, a very optimistic letter from "Somewhere in France." He says, while it is dry in B. C., it's awful wet out there and that the Hindenburg line is already looking lonely and friendless, and will be knocked higher than Gilroy's barn and broken up with centimeter punches that will make it disappear like a Kootenay River fog before long. He wishes to be remembered to all his friends and what few enemies he may have. He says London is a live shop to spend a vacation in, but the Whitechapel Cockney is as hard to understand as a B. C. Slavash. They always seem to have their mouth full of carrots when they say anything, but great outerliners and fixers, as the editor said, I don't want any reported around his office who never makes a mistake. A man who never made a mistake never made anything says Jim Thistlebeak.

inches to several feet in width and more or less parallel or mottled deposits made up of kidneys and lenses, variable in size and form. They are intricately ore deposits filling interstices, splits, crevices and fissures of the zone, and the deposition has taken place as the result of aqueous solutions, bearing mineral solutions, percolating laterally through the country rocks which having within them small fissures and seams, as feeders, lead to and connect with the zone."

The Welcome and Enterprise belonged to a man named Urquhart who had a most extraordinary idea of the value of them. To him they were as precious as the Golden Streets of the New Jerusalem. A party once approached him by letter asking that he put a price on them. Urquhart replied he wanted $100,000 spot cash for his interest, or $100,000 cash and retain a quarter interest in the ground. It was foolish to be sure but it often happens that a man who is long in the hills and finds some thing, it little matters what it may be, when he retires from the active pursuit of the business, as Urquhart did, often gets the most fantastic notions of what his find may be worth. At any rate Urquhart's invincible opinion held back everyone from having a try at the ground. The claims are there still, unworked and untouched. The same applies to the Big Copper Group directly opposite.

It is a strange thing that when Dr. Schofield of the Geological Survey made an examination in that immediate locality he never, as far as the writer could discover, made a report on the formation in which this shattered zone occurs and in which the copper ores occur so freely. He certainly was camped for three or four days at the Office Camp and equally certain he examined the Big Copper Group and the leads thereon, but why he never said a word in his reports about the claims, is a thing the writer could never understand.

The zone referred to by Mr. Siver can be traced as he says for two miles, that is, down for the length of the claims of the Big Copper and across the St. Mary River, in on the Welcome and away up hill under Hungry Peak and beyond; but it is also true the same zone can be traced, bearing south east and northwest from St. Marys River right back to the head of White Fish Creek, a distance of about 20 miles. It is stated by those who know that country well, that the zone is mineralized throughout with copper carrying gold and silver values. It has never been prospected or even intelligently examined, except here and there. More is the pity. The fact illustrates how our chances of being really a producing mineral area are neglected, past over, forgotten. How many of us, even here of the existence of this zone? Possibly some who did, kept the information to themselves, thinking—and that is all it would come to—thinking they might some day go out and stake claims on it and make a fortune to the exclusion of their neighbors.

Now that the Geological Survey people have pretty well finished their work in the Cranbrook area and tied in the East Kootenay formations with those in West Kootenay, the chance is remote of having an examination made of that mineral zone; but Mr. Bancroft is likely to be here with the coming spring and an endeavor is being made to have the Department ask him to look over the ground along the zone between White Fish Creek and the Old Office Camp.

The Great Dane group, not far from the Big Copper, was another property of the camp of which great things were expected. By all accounts, it is a fine proposition, but it is difficult to get reliable, or indeed, any information with regard to it. The writer was never on it. It is highly probable that something will be heard of it during the coming season.

Premier Lloyd George invited the leading members of the Irish Convention to confer with the cabinet, and the negotiations are expected to continue for a week at least. In the meantime, Irish newspapers are requested to avoid comment on the situation, which is critical.

TIMBER SALE X 1219

Sealed tenders will be received by the District Forester, Cranbrook, B. C., not later than noon on the 12th day of February, 1918, for the purchase of Licence X 1219, to cut 60,000 feet of Tamarack, Pine and Fir on an area adjoining L. 8682, near Cranbrook, Kootenay District. One (1) year will be allowed for removal of timber. Further particulars of the Chief Forester, Victoria, B. C., or District Forester, Cranbrook, B. C. 6-1t

The question of women suffrage is beginning to agitate Germany, despite the Government's forcible insistence that this and kindred questions must be reserved until after the war.

After Sunday next, Victoria, B. C., will be forced to observe to the letter the Lord's Day Act, according to a ruling of the Police Commissioner. News stands, cigar stands, fruit stores, ice-cream parlors, all will come under the ban. No business or calling will be allowed unless it is held to constitute a work of necessity or mercy. Excursions by rail or boat will be forbidden, and the sale of gasoline will be an infraction of the act, so that a garage cannot be kept open.

Charles H. Edwards, a conscientious objector to military service, sentenced by a Winnipeg magistrate to two years in the Stony Mountain penitentiary, wrote to his sweetheart: "I consider this a grand and glorious privilege to witness for the Lord."

European food experts are agreed that the entire world will be brought to starvation if the European war continues two years more, said Dr. M. F. Egan, United States Minister to Denmark, speaking at Norfolk, Va., on Saturday.

TIMBER SALE X1223

Sealed tenders will be received by the Minister of Lands not later than noon on the 15th day of February 1918 for the purchase of Licence X 1223, to cut 21,000 Tamarack and Fir Ties and 14,000 lineal feet of Cedar Poles on an area situated on Sundown Creek, near Lower Moyle Lake, Kootenay District. Two (2) years will be allowed for removal of timber. Further particulars of the Chief Forester, Victoria, B. C., or District Forester, Cranbrook, B. C. 6-1t
