

CURLERS GOOD TIME AT DIST. 'SPIEL

LARGE NUMBERS TO ENJOY SPORT

MANY RINKS TAKE PART IN PROGRAM

Enthusiastic Lovers of Cleanest of All Sports Attend From This City

Sunday was "going away" day for a number of the enthusiastic curlers of the Cranbrook Curling Club, several rinks departing with the necessary equipment to attend the District Bonspiel which started in Fernie on Monday.

Numbers of curlers and friends of the Cranbrook rinks were at the depot to see the "boys" away, and they were cautioned to keep level heads and be sure to "bring home the bacon."

There were some "old stagers" at the great Scotch game among those going from here to Fernie and Conductor Thos. Caven appeared to be jubilant at the thought of conveying experts Fernieward who might make a record of which Cranbrook would be proud for time to come.

Lethbridge had six rinks at the 'spiel and twenty-five visiting rinks had made reservations in Fernie when the sport started.

Fernie curlers and their wives have been busy preparing for the visitors, the sister city having in mind keeping up its reputation as a real royal entertainer. The skating rink there had been secured for the bonspiel and it found necessary it was the intention of the Fernie curlers to provide ice sufficient for nine rinks to compete at one time.

The rinks who went down were as follows:

G. Hogarth, skip; W. Hall, G. Leitch, C. R. Ward.

W. F. Cameron, skip; F. Ritchie, L. Clarke, D. Finness.

A. Ward, skip; F. M. MacPherson, W. M. Harris, N. A. Wallinger.

E. H. McPhee, skip; E. A. Hill, C. F. McPhee, R. J. Binning.

By some queer accident two Cranbrook rinks were drawn out of the hat to oppose each other at the start, "Wonderful Bill Cameron" (vide the Lethbridge Herald) and E. H. McPhee's rinks meeting as a result, the former winning out by 11 to 7. A. Ward's rink went down to defeat before a Fernie quartette skipped by Kastner by 11 to 8, while Geo. Hogarth's rink went up against Herchmer's rink and lost out by 15 to 10.

On Tuesday, in the Walker competition, Herchmer won from McPhee, Cameron won from Paterson of Taber, and Ward from Hogarth. In the Macleod contest McNab, of Lethbridge, won from Ward. In the McGrath event, Stewart, of Macleod, won from McPhee, Hogarth won from Monro, of Taber; Ross, of Taber, won from Ward; Cameron from Moffatt, of Claresholm. In the Grand Challenge, Beck, of Coleman, won from McPhee, Ward from Crumley, of Carmanagay, Cameron from Oliver, of Blairmore.

On Tuesday the Fernie curlers entertained the visitors at a banquet, which was voted a huge success by everyone participating.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF RECREATION CLUB NEXT WEDNESDAY

Membership New Stands at One Hundred and Eighteen

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held on Wed. Jan. 19th the number of memberships to date was reported to be one hundred and eighteen. The following resolution was passed:

"That all the names of those who have already applied for membership and are before the board at this date, January 19th, 1921, be read and passed by the board and that all subsequent applications be made on the regular application forms and endorsed by two members before being presented to the board and that a copy of this resolution be given to the local papers."

Application forms may be procured at the Club House.

It was also decided to hold the official opening of the Club on Wednesday, Jan. 26th. Owing to the fact that there will be a number of dances and other social activities about that time the more formal opening will take place at a later date. An excellent program, however, has been arranged for the 26th. The Clubhouse will be open to all from 3 p.m. In the afternoon there will be a basketball game, boys' drill and boys' swimming tests. Tea will be served from 4 to 5.30. In the evening there will be a basketball game between Cranbrook and Wycliffe, which everyone is invited to attend.

They are expected back in Cranbrook at some future date to complete the investigation here.

Principal Sheffield of Fernie and Principal Prescott of Coal Creek, officials in the B.C. Federation and the Kootenay and Boundary Association respectively addressed the meeting.

Good Sum For Europe's Children

Over Thousand Dollars Collected
This Week by Committee for Worthy Cause

It was not to be thought that Cranbrook would allow the cry of Europe's starving children go unheeded, and the result of the drive this week in behalf of these little sufferers shows a net result of over a thousand dollars, with some further contribution still to come. The exact amount in hand Thursday morning was $1,091.47.

The response to the appeal made by the committee was quite readily met in most cases, but it is felt that some special mention ought to be made of the collections made at the Central school, where over $147 was raised. By classes the contributions were as follows:

Miss Trevarrow	$14.08
Miss Patterson	$13.14
Miss McDonald	$14.87
Miss McKenzie	$11.01
Miss Blackenbach	$13.41
Miss Woodland	$17.00
Miss Staples	$15.65
Miss White	$23.61
Miss Cartwright	$17.03
Mr. Arthurs	$ 8.00

South Ward School

Miss Grigor	$10.92
Mr. Eckert	$ 6.55
High School	$13.00
Kootenay Orchards School	$ 6.75
Wycliffe School	$ 6.48

Including the donations from the school at Wycliffe noted above, a total of $116.00 has come to hand from that place. The total now at the credit of the fund will be swelled further by donations which have been promised from various societies. The committee in charge ought at least to feel that their efforts in the worthy cause have not been in vain.

The ladies who took part in the drive on Tuesday acting as collectors were the following:

Mrs. F. Constantine, Mrs. J. H. McQuaid, Mrs. C. J. Spruell, Mrs. F. V. Harrison, Mrs. F. H. Pym, Mrs. F. B. Miles, Mrs. T. Baxter, Mrs. Hodgson, Mrs. R. P. Moffatt, Mrs. F. Wasson, Mrs. W. G. Staples, at Wycliffe.

The committee also feel they should express their indebtedness to Mrs. H. A. McKowan, who very kindly prepared some publicity matter in connection with the drive.

SECRETARY OF B. C. TEACHERS' FED. TO VISIT CRANBROOK

Mr. H. Charlesworth, secretary of the B.C. Teachers' Federation, will visit Cranbrook on Monday next, the 24th inst., and will confer with the local staffs on professional matters. He will also address a public meeting in the evening in the Council Chamber in the interests of education. Mr. Charlesworth is also the president of the Canadian Teachers' Federation, an organization 30,000 strong, and a member of the Canadian National Council of Education. This province, under the wise leadership of its secretary, is taking a leading part in Canadian education, to raise the status of the profession and to promote the welfare of the teachers of this province.

Already much has been accomplished. A spirit of practical co-operation has been created between the Department of Education, the School Trustees, and the Federation. An arbitration board has been provided for by the Department to settle disputes between teachers and trustees and it has already successfully handled several such cases. The organization along with the Department of Education has worked out a plan whereby conditions in rural school districts will be materially improved and more effective work accomplished. Upon its advice and suggestion the provincial University has inaugurated summer courses so as to enable teachers to secure higher certificates by credits obtained during the summer sessions. Other matters of great importance including the consideration of a four year high school course, text books, and a two year Normal course for prospective teachers are under immediate consideration.

GOV'T. MAY ABOLISH NEAR BEER BARS

HOTELS MAY HAVE SOLE
PRIVILEGE OF HANDLING
"NEAR BEER"

SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS
UNDER PERMIT SYSTEM

"Near Beer" May Become a Little Nearer with Alcoholic
Content About 4 per cent.

Questioned at Victoria last week regarding the despatch appearing in a Vancouver newspaper purporting to give a forecast of the government's proposals for the handling of liquor, members of the cabinet have refused to make any statement. The story as published says that the government intends to propose the abolition of the sale at bars of near-beer with the substitution of "real" beer of 3 or 4 per cent, which will be sold in hotels under substantially the same conditions as prevailed before prohibition, that is, with the previous restrictions as to the number of rooms necessary to make a "hotel" and some of the former restrictions on sale. In hotel dining rooms beer will be only obtainable with meals.

The hotels will be only allowed the privilege of making sales. The government apparently intends to absorb the whole brewery output for domestic sale and will turn the brew over to the hotels. There will, it is planned, be no return of the bar as it formerly existed. There will be fewer bars than there are at present if the bill goes through as it stands, and "hard liquors," the "spirited liquors" of the referendum, will be retained by the Government vendors, probably under a permit system.

A commission of three will administer the new act when it goes into force and one of their tasks will be to see that hotels sell nothing but beer. It is planned to enact that the mere possession of liquor in any part of a hotel or the least trace of a drunken man will cause the hotel to lose its beer-selling license.

The permit to buy spirituous liquor at the Government stores will probably be fixed at $5, and visitors will have to obtain this permit before they can purchase liquor.

It is hoped to raise a profit of over two million dollars a year from the operation of the whole scheme.

Proprietors of near-beer bars are somewhat astounded by the report that licenses would be granted only to hotels, and some openly express their doubt as to its being authentic.

It is hard to believe, they say, that the government would treat them in such an unjust manner and wipe out what is considered legitimate investment. Some will not commit themselves by making statements until the proposed action is officially confirmed. They point out that they were already controlled by city bylaws and compelled to pay heavy licenses. Some establishments have been opened at heavy cost and this action would ruin many of their number if carried out, it is said.

"It seems a reasonable thing," said Mr. Jonathan Rogers, chairman of the Vancouver Park Board, and a prominent prohibitionist, "and, although I have been too busy of late on election matters to consider the question carefully, I think the plan will work out beneficially, though there might be some danger of young men procuring bottles of the 'hard stuff' and taking it to their rooms to drink. I have not studied the proposals very closely and do not desire to say anything more on the subject until I have had more time for consideration."

"I am a strong prohibitionist, but I think the proposal to sell beer in a manner somewhat similar to that which pertains in the Old Country is a distinct improvement," said Mrs. Jean K. Macken, a candidate for aldermanic honors in Vancouver this year. "Of the two evils, the old bar we have been used to in this country is the worst and I hope, from the bottom of my heart, we shall never see it revived."

Rev. J. G. Brown, another prohibitionist, declared that on the face of the report of the government's intention of carrying out the Moderation programme there is a conviction of insincerity. He said it was understood on all sides that there was to be no consumption of liquors on the premises in which they were sold, and the provisions for beer being sold in hotels is directly contrary to such an understanding. He took the whole plan as a movement to return to the old methods of handling liquor.

"My personal view is very much in favor of the proposal to allow beer to be drunk at the dining table, and in buffets, at the hotels, providing

A NEW COURSE IN FORESTRY AT BRITISH COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

There is being offered in the University of British Columbia a course in forestry, and a number of students are already enrolled.

The course, approved by the Senate at its last meeting, is especially designed to turn out professional engineers trained for logging operations, and foresters who are in close touch with the actual operations in British Columbia's great industry. The university is now fulfilling its function as a Provincial University by giving professional training for all the basal industries of the province. In a very few years, the influence of such training on the industries will be marked.

G.I.A. to B.L.E. Installs Officers

Retiring Office Bearers Are Honored by Members With Presentations

Selkirk Div. No. 473 of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers held their installation ceremony on Monday evening after the regular business had been transacted. Mrs. J. S. Roy, the retiring president, acted as installing officer.

Just before the installation took place Mrs. Roy presented Mrs. G. M. Barney, the retiring secretary, with a set of pearl handled knives and forks and delivered the following address:

"Dear Sister Barney—The officers and members of Selkirk Div. desire to express to you in some tangible manner our appreciation of your services as secretary of our Division for the past two years.

"We realize the importance of having an efficient and capable secretary and worker such as you have been ever since the organization of our Auxiliary. The success of any organization greatly depends on the work being done in an efficient manner. On behalf of this Division I have great pleasure in presenting to you these pearl handled knives and forks. The gift is indeed small compared with the estimate we place upon your services to this organization.

"Kindly accept them as a token of our regard for you; it is also quite in keeping with your pearl wedding anniversary, which you so recently have passed."

Signed on behalf of Selkirk Div. No. 473, committee.

Although Mrs. Barney was taken completely by surprise she responded in a very pleasing manner.

The following officers were then duly installed:

Past Pres.—Mrs. J. S. Roy.

President.—Mrs. A. A. Cameron.

Vice Pres.—Mrs. Wm. O'Hearn.

Sec'y. and Ins. Sec'y.—Mrs. T. S. Gill.

Treas.—Mrs. T. Drummond.

Chaplain.—Mrs. D. Campbell.

Guide.—Mrs. J. J. Fennessy.

Sentinel.—Mrs. S. Saunders.

Crescent Marshal.—Mrs. G. M. Barney.

Star Marshal.—Mrs. A. J. Ratcliffe.

After the installation ceremony Mrs. Cameron presented Mrs. Roy with a beautiful cut glass bowl and delivered the following address:

"Dear Sister Roy—The officers and members of this Division feel they could not let this occasion go by without showing to you in some tangible manner their appreciation of your faithfulness in performing your duties as President of this Division, which office you have held for the past two years. You have been an earnest worker and have always been willing to render assistance in any way or at any time."

"The success of any organization depends greatly on efficient officers such as you have proved to be, for you have been a faithful worker ever since your initiation.

"In leaving the chair it gives me great pleasure in asking you to accept this cut glass bowl, not for its intrinsic value, but as a token of esteem in which you are held by us."

Signed on behalf of Selkirk Div. No. 473. Mrs. J. T. Sarvis, Mrs. Wm. O'Hearn, Mrs. A. J. Ratcliffe, committee.

Mrs. Roy responded with a few well chosen words.

Refreshments were then served and an enjoyable hour spent by all present.

NOW PREPARING DEPARTMENTAL ESTI- MATES, SAYS DR. KING

"Looking particularly fit and hearty," said the Nelson News a few days ago, "Hon. J. H. King, provincial minister of Public Works, arrived from Cranbrook on Friday, and passed through for Rossland."

"We are in the midst of making up the estimates and my present trip has to do exclusively with departmental business," said Dr. King, while at the station. "I have been at Cranbrook and Creston, and am on my way to Trail and Rossland. I would have liked to spend a day at Nelson but could not manage it. Mr. Ramsey, our district engineer, however, was on the boat with me. I will leave for the coast Saturday night."

The minister intimated that there would be no announcements regarding road work to be done the present year until after the estimates were made up.

The first or statutory meeting of the Cranbrook City Council was held in the City hall Monday evening, Mayor Genest and Aldermen Mrs. Laurie, Flowers, Arnold, Jones and Santo being present.

This is the first occasion in which a woman is known to sit on the Cranbrook City Council or in fact, on any council in the East Kootenay.

Considerable humor was created through the male members of the council hesitating to enjoy a cigar during the proceedings as formerly, but Mrs. Laurie set all at rest by tactfully referring to the custom and advising her colleagues on the council that she had no objections.

Returning officer T. M. Roberts reported on the result of the election, declaring the members of the council and Police Commission and the mayor elected and setting forth the number of votes recorded.

It was decided that the council would meet regularly on the second Thursday of each month.

All cheques and vouchers are to be signed by City Treasurer Roberts and Mayor Genest.

The date for holding the Court of Revision for hearing complaints against the assessment roll was set for February 8th, the court of revision to consist of Messrs. Santo, Laurie, Arnold, Binning and Flowers.

By-law No. 192, passed by the electors at the recent election to contract with the British Columbia and Alberta Power Co. to provide power for Cranbrook, was given its final reading and will be put into effect.

The usual temporary loan by-law was also passed.

Mayor Genest named the following to be members the standing committees for the year 1921:

CRANBROOK, BRITISH COLUMBIA
THURSDAY, JAN. 20th, 1921

THE BARGE OF STATE

Once more civic elections are over. The barge of state has been launched for another year. Whether the seas will be calm or stormy remains to be seen. Fortunately or unfortunately little has been said from which any definite policy might be understood. It remains for the council to make manifest its particular line of activity. Many of the electors will consider that they have played their part for the coming year and are now at liberty to take their ease in the arm chair of contentment and watch the stage activities. No council or board however strong can really carry out its work without the continual and sincere support of the electorate. It must have the realization that the citizens are not only looking on but manifesting a deep interest in all civic matters, and showing a desire to assist wherever possible. There is probably no limit to progress and achievement where a council has sincere and intelligent public opinion behind it.

CHANGES TAKE TIME

A survey of civic elections throughout the province, and indeed, the Dominion, gives evidence of a desire on the part of many communities to allow the leading officials an opportunity to profit by their experience in the past by returning them to power for another term of office. Notable instances of this tendency are to be found especially in the larger centres, outstanding examples being at Vancouver and Toronto. Such action reveals a growing tendency on the part of Canadian citizens to give reasonable time for the working out of various policies realizing that little constructive work can be done where there are continual changes. A few years ago the late King Edward explained to the French ambassador during a dinner party that France as a nation would have received far more favorable consideration from Britain in certain matters if the changes of government were less frequent. Cabinet after cabinet came into power, only to give place to others after a short lapse of time. The public are apparently beginning to realize that it takes time to formulate and carry out real construction work, and that this can only be done where there is sufficient confidence to return to power for some time at least those who are best fitted to carry on. The insane desire for constant change is giving place to a steadier influence and we shall now expect to see in the coming years fruit that we had hoped for, but which it has seemed impossible to secure.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Overheard in the Veterans' Club by a Herald reporter:
"Well, if Cranbrook and district do not undertake to have a memorial erected in respect of those who fell in the Great War we will have to take the responsibility ourselves, that's the only alternative."
Come on Cranbrook, what about it?

Govt' May Abolish Near-Beer

Bars

strict regulations are made for the proper carrying out of the regulations," said Mr. H. O. Bell-Irving, a prominent moderate. "In the interests of those who cannot afford more expensive beverages, I think the proposal an excellent one. Beer is the beverage of the people and they should not be deprived of the opportunity of drinking it with their meals if they so choose."

"With proper safeguards the system should prove beneficial. The consensus of opinion among the members of the Moderation League appears to be in favor of the retention of the importation of liquor, and personally I should have no objection to the Provincial Government importing such liquor for sale, though I am given to understand the provincial government can not interfere with such importation."

"The idea of profit that I feared and fought when Government Control was first spoken of rears its head in the Government Liquor Act proposals," says R. P. Pettipiece, prominent labor man.

"Premier Oliver told us that the government would aim to give a decent article of drink to the people at a price that would just cover the cost. Now, Mr. Farris comes out with what appears to be an announcement that he hopes to make a profit of three times three quarters of a million dollars yearly from the sale of liquor. That brings the government into the field as the profit-making influence and places liquor in politics. The evils that may come about from this can only be imagined. As for the beer and light wine and the intentions of the government, I would not say anything until I had more thoroughly investigated Mr. Farris' announcement."

FROM THE VIEW-POINT OF OUR CONTEMPORARIES

Unemployment Then and Now

There is a vital difference between the attitude of the public now and its pre-war attitude towards unemployment. Before the war unemployment and starvation mitigated by charity were accepted, even by the victims, as inevitable. During the war there was work for all, and the women and children of the poorest classes were better fed and better clothed and shod than ever before in the history of the country. Agitators are already asking crudely if the capitalistic system will provide for the proletariat only when the system is fighting for its own existence.—London Times.

A Flaw in the System

Premier Lenine of Russia is reported to be dangerously ill, and as the medical profession of the country, like everything else, presumably has been nationalized, and therefore is not functioning satisfactorily, German physicians have been imported to treat the stricken man. Yet, there are elements in this country who still maintain that the "true facts" respecting conditions in the country under Soviet domination have not been faithfully recorded in a "capitalistic press."—Colonist.

The Importance of Home Training

Moral education and training in the home, in the school and in the church, must be more generally applied and stressed, if we are to do our full duty and achieve the results of our progress in civilization requires. It has been noticed everywhere that the greater number of criminals in this post-war wave of crime are boys or even young men, youthful amateurs in evil, whose callow minds have been most easily impressed by the pernicious influences of the time. Many of these, it has been shown, have gone out of comfortable home to the exercise of banditry. This is a feature of the phenomenon that is most impressive in its call for the application of the countervailing influences of good in the bringing up of boys.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STINGING INDICTMENT OF CONDITIONS UNDER RED RULE

American Socialist, Having Seen First Hand, says that "Communism is Robbery"

BERLIN.—"Communism in Russia is robbery; it tolerates imprisonment and execution without trial; it has brought Russia starvation, disease and death. There is no government. It is a worse autocracy than the Czarist government, and I lived there for over 20 years under the czar and had the experience necessary to make comparisons."

M. Schwartz, a Socialist of San Francisco, who was recently released from four months' imprisonment in Moscow, made this declaration the other day. With his wife, known for 20 years in the United States as a socialist worker under the name of Jesse M. Mollie, he went to Russia last June and attended the second congress of the Third Internationale.

Thrown into Prison
The couple were thrown into prison on August 6, because they failed to express approval of conditions in Russia. They were released on December 3 after Mrs. Schwartz went on a hunger strike and sent to Lenine, Trotsky and Tchitcherine notification that she preferred to have her death advertised to the working classes of the U. S. rather than suffer further hardships at the hands of the Bolsheviks, whom she had believed to be exponents of justice to the workers until she arrived in Russia.

Mrs. Schwartz died at Reval on December 20 from the effects of her long solitary confinement and hunger in Soviet prisons and her husband is returning home alone to give even worse pictures of conditions in Russia than many of the Italian, British and German delegates to the congress of the Third Internationale have painted.

Schwartz, who is a member of the American Federation of Labor, was sent to Russia by Otto Brenster, executive secretary of the Socialist party of America, to make a thorough investigation, as he spoke the Russian language and knew the pre-war conditions.

Could Not Hide Misery
Describing the early part of his visit, he said:
"Everywhere we went we were met by brass bands and crowds waving red flags, shouting for the Soviet government. But we were not fooled. From the moment we landed in Petrograd we saw misery, dilapidation and squalor there. We suspected that something was vitally wrong, which could not be explained merely by revolution."

"I instantly began talking to persons of all classes and broke away from our Bolshevik conductors, who were showing us only what they wanted us to see. I soon found that the shouting crowds had to shout, or their food ration would be reduced or entirely taken away. I can truthfully say that I never talked with a single person, outside of officials who has a good word to say for the Soviet government."

CONCERNING CANADA

DEATH OF CHAMPLAIN

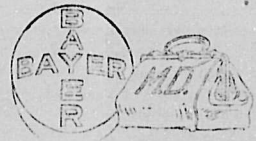

Christmas day, 1635, was a dark day in the annals of New France. In a chamber of the fort at Quebec breathless and cold, lay the body of the dauntless and wise French explorer, Samuel de Champlain. For years he had battled with the storms and the strain of life in the new world and had conquered. But finally sickness struck him down and, after several months of a constant decline, he died on Christmas day. Paralysis had hastened the end so that at the age of 68 years the great Frenchman was gone.

The French gave the worn-out body a great funeral. His last thought had been for the scattered and hard pressed colony, so soldiers, Jesuits and settlers followed the body to its grave where L. Jeune pronounced the eulogy and later the colonists erected a tomb fitting for so great a man. Where the grave is located is still a matter of controversy. A supposed discovery of the site was made in 1895 and started a bitter controversy again but the exact location is unknown.

The colony at the time recognized the great worth of the man, but it was really not until he had passed from his labors that his real importance was understood. Then it was that his bravery, wisdom and diplomacy was fully recognized. In later years English and French seeking alike have vied with each other to do his memory honor. In the city of Quebec on the lofty bank of the St. Lawrence is a monument to his greatness, while St. John, N.B., has erected a smaller mark in Queen's Square to recall his pioneer visit to the place. Samuel de Champlain was one of the greatest of the main leaders of men who had a part in shaping the destinies of the new world.

WHICH SEAT WILL

PREMIER CLING TO?

According to reports from Victoria an announcement is looked for shortly as to whether Premier Oliver will resign the seat in the Legislature at Victoria, or his old stamping ground at Delta. "Honest John" made a visit to the Delta district last week-end avowedly to confer with his constituents there, and a decision on the matter was looked for in a few days.

The premier has intimated that he may make an announcement this week about the choice of constituency. As far as local men can discover, law and custom are not very clear as to how long the premier can hold both seats.

Current political gossip has it that the Premier would resign his Victoria seat to permit Mr. Henry C. Hall, the only defeated Liberal candidate in this riding at the recent elections, to have opportunity to retrieve his laurels and regain a seat in the House. Mr. Hall, it is understood, would like to have another try, but, at the same time, he feels that he should devote more time to his profession of law.

In Delta it is no secret that Mr. A. D. Paterson, a widely-known and prominent livestock man and farmer, wanted to run in that riding, and when the Premier announced his intention to contest the Victoria seat there were many of Mr. Paterson's friends who considered the Premier might content himself with running in Victoria and allow Mr. Paterson to enter the lists in the Delta.

But the Premier corralled both seats. Should he resign in the Delta, Mr. Paterson is the likely choice of the Liberals to contest the by-election there.

Later word in regard to the above indicates that the Premier intends to give up the Delta seat. The by-election will in all probability be held before the opening of the Legislature, which is announced for February 8th. The by-election in all probability will be contested, and the first nominating convention, that to decide on a Liberal candidate, is being held in the riding this week.

THE DEGRADING OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Some time ago the provincial government appointed an industrial commissioner. He was entrusted with a large fund from which to make loans, to such enterprises as, upon investigation, proved deserving.

The officer in question resigned to become the government candidate in Dewdney at the recent elections. He was defeated. Recently the government reappointed him industrial commissioner.

The fair inference is that Major Martyn was assured, before he resigned, that, if defeated, he would be reappointed to the public service.

Prior to his resignation the commissioner made a loan of approximately a quarter of a million dollars to a cordage company in New Westminster, for whom a site has been obtained by purchasing property from the premier. Two nights before election he announced that the industrial board, of which he had been commissioner, had loaned $200,000 to a company to carry on business in the Dewdney riding. These two incidents are cited to show the gross improprieties which are sure to attend such a practice as the one to which attention is now called.

The whole transaction is politically immoral. It is degrading and demoralizing to the civil service, which the government party was elected in the first instance to purge of patronage. It is an affront to political decency—an affront in no way qualified by the personal merit of the official mentioned. The way in which the premier used the civil service to square himself with his old rival in Dewdney is generally known. That sort of thing, unfortunately, is not so uncommon in politics as to awaken much comment. But the abuse of the public service in the present instance is flagrant and intolerable. If the industrial commissioner is to be a political pawn for the government at elections, the bona fides of his loaning operations between elections will come under suspicion and sharp scrutiny.—Vancouver World.

ASININITY OF LAW

Although he received a majority of the votes of the electors of Grand Forks constituency, the Conservative candidate has not been elected, according to the decision of the most learned judge who determined the merits of a most interesting case. While we are not disposed to follow the example of one Shylock and indulge in rapturous applause of the decision of the court, neither are we inclined to repeat an oft-quoted statement that "the law, sir, is a ass."

The fault, if there is one, is not that of the most excellent jurist but that of the agent of the legal quadruped, the legislature. The judge before whom Portia pleaded most eloquently and effectively had no advantage over his modern brother—he was not hampered in his views by hoary precedents, neither was he compassed about by laws almost as innumerable as the sands upon the seashore. Judge Brown, unfortunately, was compelled to interpret the law as laid down upon the statute books and give a decision that was unjust to the constituency of Grand Forks and an injustice to the man who has a moral if not a technical right to sit in the legislature of the province.

An Ontario judge once set up a precedent that right well have been followed throughout Canada in cases affecting the standing of candidates. This jurist accepted all ballots that to his mind indicated the preference of the voter. But that judgment appears to have been too simple to meet with the approval of either the laymen who delight to tamper with laws or of professional men who interpret them. Legal men ignored it and legislators became busy in making provisions that would circumvent it. Whatever the reason for it, legislatures set verbiage high above simplicity when framing laws.—Victoria Colonist.

A recount of ballots in the Kaslo riding was made at Kaslo on Friday last before Judge Porin, the outcome of which was a judicial decision that Col. Lister wins by a majority of 16. Mr. Keen, however, is not yet satisfied, and is having another recount before a Supreme Court Judge, which will probably be made sometime before the end of the month.

INVESTIGATING NEW TIMBER BY-PRODUCTS POSSIBILITIES

Manufacture of Resin and Turpentine Products May be put on Solid Basis

Major Don. B. Martyn, erstwhile Liberal candidate in Dewdney, has been spending some time of late in Vancouver investigating for the government the new turpentine and resin industry, with a view of enabling the Douglas Fir Turpentine Company to place a large number of Vancouver's unemployed at work on the company's resin leases, in the occupation of collecting tree resins.

If the plans for the immediate development of the resin and turpentine industry are carried out, it is said that they will not merely help to meet the temporary unemployment situation, but will lay the foundation for a new industry which is destined to rank with lumbering, mining, agriculture and fisheries as a great provincial industry.

"Resin harvesting," says Mr. Edwin S. Oliver, formerly industrial adviser to the late Earl Grey and now research chemist to the new company,

"will provide any number of men in the province with all-the-year-round profitable employment. About $15,000,000 worth of resin and turpentine are imported into Canada each year, while the United States is in the market as a heavy buyer of these products from Canada if we can supply them."

Since his association with Earl Grey in this province some 15 years ago, Mr. Oliver has pursued his studies of wood products on a survey which has taken in Russia, Scandinavia, Germany, France, Spain, Algeria, Central America and the United States, finishing up in the place where he started from many years ago.

Great Wealth in Trees

In Mr. Oliver's opinion the forest wealth of this province is its greatest wealth. Instead of destruction by lumbering he wishes to see the provincial forests made a great producing ground for the world's resinous products. He figures that under proper orcharding methods, the first and best spruces of this province are relatively as valuable as if cleared and planted as fruit orchards, with an insatiable market and no risk of the crop rotting. Resins for soap making, hard gums for varnish making, flotation oils for use by the mining companies and a host of other valuable commodities are made from the pine and fir resins, which are subjected to electrical distillation at the company's plant on False Creek.

Tons Wasted Every Year

Hundreds of tons of this stuff are burned up or flung away every year in the mills and forests, and hundreds of thousands of tons of resin are every year created as a fecal matter by the trees, while Canada is importing even her own needs for resin and turpentine, says Mr. Oliver.

One man who went up from Vancouver a month ago to collect resin and botanicals, says that near Lillooet he came across two 40-acre patches which had been logged off in the P. G. E. construction days. The whole cut of 3,375,000 feet lay rotting on the ground, all of it condemned for tie and construction purposes because of the large amounts of resin in the wood. Either of those tracts would have made a very lucrative resin orchard, which would have lasted for generations to come, says Mr. Oliver.

MINERAL OUTPUT IS MAINTAINED

Value of Product for Past Year Will Equal That of 1919

British Columbia's mineral production for the year 1920 will be practically the same in point of value as that of the preceding year.

The figures now being compiled by the Department of Mines, indicates that an aggregate value for all minerals produced, including coal, will approximate $33,100,000 compared with $33,296,313 for the year 1919. The preliminary report of the Department setting forth the detailed figures of production will be issued shortly.

The year's figures will show that there has been an increase in the output of coal, especially on Vancouver Island, and the total for silver has been swelled by the steady and increased output from the Dolly Varden mines, Alice Arm. On the other hand, copper, lead and zinc may, it is predicted, show some declines.

The banner years in mining in British Columbia were during the war period, when the demand for the various metals and the high prices ruling therefor sent the production upwards with a bound. The year 1916 proved the most active year in the history of the province, the value of the production totalling $42,290,462 compared with $29,447,000 the preceding year. In 1918, again, the value of the production of the province aggregated $41,782,000. With the end of the war, the falling off in the demand and, especially, the demoralization of the metal markets resulted in a sharp decline in the value of the production, the 1919 total being $33,296,000. This year, thanks to the increasing output of coal and silver, the total will be practically the same as that of 1919, bringing the aggregate value of the minerals produced in British Columbia since 1852, to over $700,000,000.

Local Birds Win Prizes at the Vancouver Provincial Show

Grand Forks has been awarded the 1921 poultry show for district No. 8, by the British Columbia Poultry Association, in session at Vancouver last week.

The exhibit sent to the provincial show bearing the colors of the West Kootenay Poultry and Pet Stock association landed several ribbons. F. J. Harbison, of Cranbrook, took first cock, sixth cockerel, and seventh and tenth pullets in Single Comb White Leghorns, and Peter Finch, of Fruitvale, took sixth hen and fifth pullet in the same variety. EYE AILMENTS

Seventy-five per cent. of people have abnormal vision and only about 25% wear glasses to correct the defects. The other 50% suffer from various eye troubles. These have a reflex action on other bodily functions, causing headaches, indigestion, dizziness and many other ailments. Every person should make it a point to find out whether his or her eyes are weak or not.

Mr. A. Raworth, of Raworth Bros., Jewellers, has signified his willingness to become the donor of a cup to be competed for in connection with the basketball activities at the high school. This is quite in line with the interest Mr. Raworth has always taken in encouraging real sport in the city. There is a reasonable proviso attached to the presentation of the basketball cup that there must be evidence of a good organization to promote competition for it, and a regular schedule of games drawn up, in short, that the sport is well organized, and shows prospects of continued existence. The cup is at Mr. Raworth's store, and is an attractive trophy of somewhat unique design. It will be duly engraved and embellished with the engraved shields when handed over to the winners.

Moffatt's Variety Store

The big sale put on this week by the Fink Mercantile Co. has been a real success from the amount of merchandise moved, and offers still another tribute to the pulling power of Herald publicity matter used in conjunction with business enterprise. On the opening day of the sale, Saturday last, more business was done by a good many hundred dollars than during the entire Christmas season, according to Mr. J. P. Fink, head of the firm. The special grab packages, a hundred of which had been prepared on each side of the store, were disposed of in short order within an hour or so from the opening of the sale, and in response to requests from some who were not able to get in on the lot of parcels offered last Saturday, a further lot of two hundred parcels is being offered next Saturday morning.
