HALLOWE'EN MASKED BALL A DECIDED SUCCESS

St John Ambulance Association Score Big Hit at Auditorium Last Friday Evening—Beaetiful Costumes

The masquerade ball at the Auditorium on Friday last under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance association proved to be one of the most successful events of this character ever held in the city.

The decorations were in real Hallowe'en style and the hall was never before more artistically and tastefully decorated. Very great praise is due Miss Whitehead, convenor of the decoration committee, and Miss McBride, Miss Marion Robertson and Miss Alexander of the same committee. Mr. John Martin and Mr. D. M. Cowan, assisted the ladies with the work, greatly assisting in the carrying out of many of the color schemes.

When a Herald representative dropped in on the merry scene—in the wee hours of Saturday morning—a gay throng of merry dancers, garbed in their several costumes, flitted by to the strains of lively music. Characters from the lowly peasant to the gay and debonair prince were in attendance. The night was in keeping with that time-honored occasion. As the throng moved gracefully on we noticed Persian Princesses, Italian Peasants, Dutch Peasants, Spanish Ladies, Chinese Ladies,Court Ladies and even the "Culled" Lady was there.

The gentlemen's costumes were varied in make-up, from the 16th century style to the nobby 1915 Cranbrook dress. Costumes were worn which would do credit to Spokane and other large nearby cities. In the men's costumes we noticed "Culled" Gentlemen, Hobos, Pierrotts, Ghosts and good old Santa Claus.

The judges—Mrs. F. W. Green, Mrs. E. Paterson and Mr. W. E. Worden—had considerable difficulty in awarding the prizes, owing to the fact that so many of them were worthy of an award. After lengthy deliberation Mrs. Geo. F. Stevenson, attired as a Venetian Peasant, received the ladies prize, consisting of a silver and pearl mounted umbrella, while Mr. J. M. Christie ,as a school boy, was awarded the gentlemen's prize, this being a box of cigars.

The Misses Hickenbotham, Wellman, Caslake, Robertson and Watt formed the supper committee, and under their direction refreshments were served in an attractive manner.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Arnold Wallinger, the Cranbrook orchestra provided the music, which was of a high class order and which merited hearty applause at the conclusion of each number.

The association are to be congratulated on the financial result of the ball, their funds being augmented to the extent of $109.00, which amount will be used in the direction of providing Christmas presents for the Cranbrook boys now on overseas service.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR POULTRY SHOW

Oriental Cup Offered for Competition—Specials Being Offered in Several Classes

The executive of the Cranbrook Poultry association met on Tuesday evening, when considerable work was done in connection with the forthcoming show.

From advices received there should be a considerable number of birds on exhibition from outside points. Invermere, Windermere, Fernie and Creston fanciers are planning to compete.

Mr. Beattie, of Waldo, has offered an Oriental cup for competition and Secretary Cooper reported that several other specials had been offered during the past week. The committee have not yet allotted the special prizes, as they hope to receive donations of still more specials before completing the prize list.

Members of the association who have not yet placed their orders for wheat, are requested to communicate with the secretary during the next few days.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS FOR MEN IN TRENCHES

November 9th Will be "Sock Day"—Last Chance to Send Little Comforts to Soldiers

At the regular meeting of the St. John Ambulance Association on Tuesday evening, November 2nd, it was decided to hold another "Sock" day. This is at the request of several people and as it will help to complete the Christmas boxes it will be held on Tuesday, November 9th, at Miss McLeod's store. Any contributions will be gratefully acknowledged and a box of Christmas gifts will be despatched at the earliest possible date.

Anyone having yarn out will please do their best to complete the work and hand it in on Tuesday at the latest.

Contributions of handkerchiefs, tooth-brushes, paste, bootlaces (leather), gum, hard candy, cigarettes, tobacco, pipes, puzzles, short stories from magazines, lead pencils, and post cards or paper and envelopes will be most acceptable.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE DONATE HOSPITAL BED

Unanimously Donate $50.00 of Funds for "Cranbrook Women's Institute Bed"

On Tuesday afternoon last a very enjoyable and interesting meeting was held in the Maple hall by the members of the Women's Institute. After the usual business was disposed of a motion was made and carried unanimously that $50.00 of its funds should be sent to provide a bed for wounded Canadian soldiers in the Duchess of Connaught hospital in England, to be called the "Cranbrook Women's Institute Bed." The subject for the day's session was then taken up, viz., the debate on "Resolved, That Woman Should Not Work Outside her Own Home." Wage-earning subjects were debarred. This was handled very effectively by Mrs. Cauldwell as leader, supported by Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Binning and Mrs. B. Palmer.

Mrs. McFarlane led the opposition, with Mrs. Shaw, Miss Kimpton and Mrs. Fred Clark as assistants. The leaders being allowed five minutes each and supporters three minutes each. Mrs. Sarvis made a good chairman and certainly rang the bell on time being called. Many valuable and laughable thoughts were brought up by both sides for and against the subject, the judges deciding in favor of the opposition by five points to three. This decision seemed to meet with the hearty approval of the sixty-three ladies present. The Institute has become a real live factor in Cranbrook, with a roll of over a hundred members and a average attendance of fifty each meeting. They also have a lending library of one hundred books for members only and now are working on an Institute cook book.

DEATH OF MISS FRANCES BARTON

Former Cranbrook Young Lady Passes Away at Creston at the Tender Age of 14 Years

Cranbrook people generally will learn with profound regret of the death of Miss Frances Barton, a former resident of this city, at the age of 14 years. The following obituary notice from the Creston Review will be read by Herald readers with keen regret:

The removal by death of a member of Creston's quite-large community of school children that The Review has had to record in many months occurred early Sunday morning, when Frances Washington, second daughter of Mrs. J. M. Barton, passed away at the tender age of 13 years and 5 months. Frances was born at Sandon, and came here when about six months old. Her health was never robust, being troubled at times with inflammatory rheumatism. On that account she spent last winter at Portland, Ore., with her uncle, Capt. Geo. H. Hale, returning here in July, apparently in the best of health, and continued so until about two weeks before the end came, when her heart began to trouble her. Although a quite serious attack it was not thought fatal until a few minutes before she passed away. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon and was largely attended, the school scholars being there in a body to pay their last respects. Rev. R. E. Pow, assisted by Rev. F. L. Carpenter, conducted service at the house, and remains were interred in Creston cemetery. Deceased who was in her fourteenth year, was a particularly bright pupil and was a great favorite with both young and old. In their sad bereavement Mrs. Barton and family have the truest sympathy of their many friends.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CONCERT NEXT FRIDAY EVENING

Arrangements Completed for Entertainment by Children of Central School—Special Costumes—Curtain at 7.45

Practising for the school concert to be given by the pupils of the Central school at the Auditorium on the evening of Friday, November 12th, goes on continually. School is open from 9.00 to 4.00, as in the summer term, in order to allow time for practice without interferring with school work.

Mr. Nidd will officiate at the piano and his orchestra will accompany three of the songs and give a couple of selections besides.

The drills are improving fast, now that they are being taken to music. There seems to be some misconception as to date. The concert is for Friday, the 12th, and not the 13th. Tickets are out, enough for a full house. When these are taken up no more can be obtained. A plan of the hall will be put up at the Beattie-Murphy Drug store on Monday, the 8th. The reserved tickets (obtainable from the pupils only) can then be exchanged for a numbered seat in any part of the house. Unless you exchange your ticket it only counts as an admission ticket. Get it at once or it will be too late.

Doors open at 7.15 and the concert will commence at 7.45 sharp—school time—not the usual Cranbrook concert or dance or party time. In this programme are a number of children of tender years who are taking leading parts and who will naturally be tired should the show last until a late hour. It is, therefore, hoped the Cranbrook patrons of this entertainment will make an effort to get around early.

Patrons are requested to take their seats before 7.45, as continual movement among the audience easily distracts young performers and this detracts from the enjoyment of those who were considerate enough to be on time.

The programme is a long one and positively no encores will be allowed. The various performers are obtaining special dresses for their parts and there is no question but that the grouping of the daintily dressed children in the different drills, etc., will be a most pleasing sight.

The whole of the proceeds of the night, excluding expenses, will be devoted to patriotic purposes, details to be settled by the teachers when they see what there is to be distributed.

No public school concert has been given in Cranbrook for at least four years. If parents and ratepayers think the idea a good one, let them express their opinions by attending in full force, as unless this one is a success it may be a long time before another is attempted.

CRATE OCTOBER BERRIES PLEASES VICE-PRES.

One of the timliest bits of publicity work on behalf of the Creston Valley was turned on Friday evening last when the special train carrying Vice-President Bury, and the Western Vice-President, Grant Hall, of the C. P. R. on a trip of inspection over the western lines was stopped at Creston to allow a deputation of citizens present Mr. Bury with a crate of ripe strawberries, which had been gathered that afternoon on the Grady ranch at Duck Creek—one of two crates picked that day.

R. M. Reid, president of the board of trade made the presentation in his best style. In accepting them Mr. Bury stated that the gift but confirmed the impression he had always held of fruit-growing possibilities of the Valley—information gathered at first hand particularly when superintendent at Cranbrook—and assured his hearers that anything the company could do to advance the interests of this section would have his favorable consideration.

The berries were a particularly fine crate both as to size and color and that they tasted good may be gleaned from the following telegram:

Penticton, B. C., Oct. 23.

President Board of Trade, Creston:

Strawberries were immensely enjoyed. Glad to see progress Creston is making.

Geo. Bury.

Mr. Bury was not exactly a stranger in a strange land here, as he readily spotted an old friend in R. S. Bevan—Dick and George, as they called each other having sidekicked together on the preliminary survey work on the Crow line. Incidentally it may be remarked that Mr. Bury comes naturally by his liking for Creston strawberries. During his residence in Winnipeg so long as Dick was on the Griffin ranch he always secured his season's supply from here.—Creston Review.

FORWARD, THE 54TH!

Oh, turn your thoughts to Vernon's slopes
Join there the cheering throng;
Who hail the cream of our country's hopes
That go to help right the wrong.
They are the best we have to give
The pick of the Kootenay's store;
So that we who are left may live
In this land of peace secure.

Reveille has sounded, what welcome call
To our men of the 54th,
For the last parade into ranks they fall
They've been called to prove their worth.
To a port unknown they soon will sail
Their part at the front to bear;
In the Empire's cause they will not fail
But it's final triumph share.

They may not be all native born
For the Kootenays are yet young;
But their lot was cast for a manly morn
Here to toil for the wage hard won.
What they think of the country is surely proved
By the way they have answered its call;
Why mock us then if we be moved
For these lads who have given their all.

Think, too, on our mothers nobly cast
In that stern sacrificial mould;
They gave their sons unto the last
That the bands of our Empire ever hold.
Tho' bitter now the pain they bear
They turn to Him who gave His son;
And trust their loved ones to His care
To hold them safe till victory's won.

All honor then to the 54th
All glory and renown;
When the fiery hell is belching forth
May you never be cast down.
Avenge your comrades who have fell
Through the foeman's treachery foul;
Till the final victory sounds the knell.
Of that ruthless grasping ghoul.

To the sons of the "Kootenays" shout your greet
Their courage will not fail;
And when in time again we meet
Remember, they're worthy of our hail.
Lest we forget, as in the past
When the strife is o'er, and victory won;
Now is the time to lay at our mast
Provision for that time to come.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Herald is being conducted this week under a provisional agreement for lease from the owner of the plant. Arrangements of a permanent character will likely be completed within the next few days, when an announcement as to the management under which the Herald will be published in future, will appear in next week's issue.

R. T. Williams.

King George recently issued an appeal for "more men and yet more." This message was sent to every part of the British Empire and appeared in an "Extra" of the Canada Gazette on October 25th. The message is as follows:

To my People:

At this grave moment in the struggle between my people and a highly organized enemy who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that binds civilized Europe together, I appeal to you.

I rejoice in my empire's effort and I feel pride in the voluntary response from my subjects all over the world who have sacrificed home and fortune and life itself in order that another may not inherit the free empire which their ancestors and mine have built.

I ask you to make good these sacrifices. The end is not in sight. More men and yet more men are wanted to keep my armies in the field and through them to secure victory and enduring peace. In ancient days the darkest moment has ever produced in men of our race the sternest resolve. I ask you men of all classes to come forward voluntarily and take your share in the fight. In freely responding to my appeal you will be giving your support to our brothers who for long months have nobly upheld Britain's past traditions and the glory of her arms.

George, R. I.

There has been of late considerable speculation as to what steps would be taken by the authorities at Ottawa to ensure Canada's share in the burden of the war being at least equal to the shares taken upon themselves by other parts of the empire.

The King's appeal has brought forth the following official statement:

"The government received through his royal highness, the governor-general, on the 25th inst., a cable message from the secretary of state for the colonies setng forth the recent appeal made by his majesty, the king, for an increase in the forces of the empire, which are required to secure victory and enduring peace.

"Since that date the government have secured from the various camps and enlistment depots in Canada a statement of the number of men already enlisted and under training in this country, as well as complete information respecting the number dispatched overseas."

The estimate based on this information is as follows:

"Forces dispatched overseas, including small garrisons at Bermuda (St. Lucia), 101,500. Under training and on guard and outpost duty in Canada, 71,000. Total, 173,000.

"The forces actually authorized up tto the 6th of July last were 150,000 men. Having regard to the appeal issued by his majesty, and taking into consideration the necessities of the war, the government have concluded to increase the authorized forces by 100,000 men. Accordingly an order-in-council has been passed increasing the authorized Canadian forces for the purposes of the war to 250,000. Steps will be taken in the immediate future to enlist the additional number of men required to bring the Canadian forces up to the number thus fixed."

What are Peps

Peps are the new treatment for coughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from Pine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth these medicinal ingredients turn into healing vapors, which are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes. The Peps treatment is direct. Swallowing cough mixtures into the stomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is indirect. Peps are revolutionizing the treatment of colds, as their price is within the reach of all. 50c. box all druggists, or Peps Co., Toronto.

There is considerable business of importance to be transacted at this meeting and all members of the association, and others interested in agricultural affairs are requested to attend.

Mrs. Sarah J. Dow, of Cranbrook, died on Tuesday last, 2nd inst. Mrs. Dow had been a resident of the city for several years and was a member of the Ladies Orange Lodge and Companions of the Forest. The funeral takes place on Friday afternoon at 2.30 from the Baptist church, the Rev. W. Stevens officiating. Mr. F. M. MacPherson has charge of the arrangements.

There was a good attendance at the Wednesday evening card party and dance at St. Mary's hall, it being necessary to provide eight tables for cards. The case against the management of the Rex theatre, which was called for today, has been postponed until Monday next. By that time it is expected the moving picture censor and chief of the provincial police will be here to take part in the proceedings. Chief Welsby, of Fernie, will also be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave McKay and family left Wednesday for Trail, where they will make their future home. Mr. McKay has been a resident of the city for the past seven years, being engaged in business for himself most of the time. En route Mr. and Mrs. McKay will stop over at Nelson for a couple of days.

Recently compiled statistics of British Columbia's public accounts and the drink bill for the current year indicate that the drink bill of the province is likely to be fifty times greater than the cost of the department of agriculture, seven times greater than the cost of education and three and a half times greater than the cost of the department of public works. Some food for thought in this.

Pedestrians near the station at train time Monday were treated to a real wild western bucking broncho contest. A lad hove in sight with what appeared a harmless looking animal. The youth invited a friend to ride with him, and when the ssaid youth was seated nicely on the hurricane deck, what happened, happened. Two bunches of humanity shot upward and downward and, to the surprise of the onlookers, landed on their feet and politely bowed.

Gus Theis, better known around Cranbrook as the "Old Man of the Hills," has a double shift at work on his property at Perry Creek. He is at work pumping water out of a 20 feet deep by fifty feet square. It is supposed gold has washed into this hole for the past fifty years. It is believed by mining men who have examined the place that there may be half a million dollars in precious metal contained therein. At all events three weeks will tell, as it will take all of that time to pump the hole dry. Meanwhile the citizens of Cranbrook are anxiously awaiting news from the "mystery hole."

C. D. G. McInnes, an invalided soldier, passed through the city Monday, en route to his home in Nelson. In the course of conversation with a Herald representative on the station platform, Mr. McInnes said, in answer to several questions by the scribe, that he had been four months in the trenches, when he was struck with a sand bag, after which complications set in, resulting in fever and other sickness. He was twelve weeks in hospital. Mr. McInnes fought with the late Bob Henry, of Cranbrook, and was within a few feet of him when Henry received his fatal wound. He speaks in glowing terms of the Cranbrook men. He met a number of East Kootenay boys, including Billy Harrison. Mr. McInnes is a member of the 16th Canadian Scottish and is returning satisfied that he has done his bit.

Jack Hathaway, of Wardner, was a week-end visitor in the city. He left today for Jaffray.

Born—Thursday, November 4th, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parks, a boy, weight 8 1-2 pounds.

Frank Parks is confined to the hospital the past couple of days suffering from an attack of bronchitis.

A. E. Watts, of Wattsburg, was a visitor in the city Monday being in attendance at a special meeting of the Conservative association.

Traffic on the Crow is heavy these days. Since the withdrawal of the Flyer 513 and 514 are hauling heavy trains daily along the Crow.

Jones and Doris have the contract for the building of a substantial addition to the house of Mr. G. W. Ladds, Cranbrook street.

Roy Wadman, who sustained a broken leg some time ago, is doing nicely. Roy's friends are hoping to soon see him limping around Baker street.

Hallowe'en passed off rather quietly in the city. The small boy was not in evidence this year. The police reported a quiet night, in fact no complaints were made whatever of any depredations.

The Red Cross dance at Fort Steele Wednesday night was largely attended. A large number of Cranbrookites drove over in autos, some sixteen machines leaving that evening for Steele. A most enjoyable time was spent and a tidy sum realized for the Red Cross funds.

Archie Elwell is back in the city from his stump-blowing trip to the St. Mary's country. With the new Skinner process nine acres of stump land was cleared with one box of powder. Every stump fired came clear and clean out with the exception of six. This is considered marvelous work.

Constable Collins returned Monday from New Westminster whither he had journeyed with a number of prisoners, who had received sentence for crime committed in several places in the province. At Kamloops an old man eighty-two years of age, was taken to the penitentiary for attempted murder. In all eight prisoners were taken along.

BUY at HOME

Everyone seems to have this spirit. We are glad of it and appreciate it. Every merchant and every resident is paying heavy taxes toward the running expenses of his own town; schools must be kept up, fire and police protection must be provided, water works and sewerage systems must be kept in proper condition so there will be no cause of ill-health; a hundred and one other things must be attended to and not for one moment must be forget those that are dear to us and are at the front fighting for the honor of the country, the various societies being conducted for the sole benefit of the boys at the front should be and are supported by every one, including the local merchant.

The local merchant should be supported when his prices are reasonable. It is just as impossible to sell goods in the west at eastern prices as it is for a man to work in the west at eastern wages, because he helps build up the town which makes his and your property more valuable. The mail order houses of the east do not contribute a cent—not even a dicense—toward helping you pay for the many things mentioned above; he may make a contribution of as much as $100,000.00 to some worthy cause, but that is as nothing compared with total of the $5.00, $10.00 and $15.00 contributions of the thousands of smaller merchants throughout the whole of Canada. When someone is sick and requires assistance it is not the mail order house that give a cent, but the local man.

The same applies to the local newspaper. We have one of the best towns in one of the best districts in the whole of Canada, but the big paper in the big city is not spending any time or space in telling the public about it; it is the local paper. Therefore, the paper should have a little support from every one. The local paper will in turn help make your property more valuable. Every dollar sent out of town reduces the value of your local investment.

We are glad to see every one considering this matter in this light, as it is by our combined effort Cranbrook will forge to the front and be what she has always been—the best town in the interior of this great Province of British Columbia, and one of the best in Canada.

If you suffer from this painful malady, apply Zam-Buk. It is purely herbal, quickly eases the dull, gnawing pain, stops bleeding, ends the irritation, and in a short time completely and permanently cures. Zam-Buk should be in every home.

PILES

Mrs. C. Hanson, Poplar, B.C., says: "I suffered for years with bleeding piles. The pain was often so bad I could hardly walk. I tried remedy after remedy, and finally underwent an operation, but only got temporary relief. At last I tried Zam-Buk. Perseverance with this completely cured me and there has been no return of the trouble."

FERNIE

(From the Fernie Free Press)

George Stevenson, of Cranbrook, was in town on Sunday.

Dr. Corsan returned on Saturday from a trip to Vancouver.

Judge Thompson, of Cranbrook, held court here on Monday.

Miss Ross, of Embro, Ont., is the guest of Mrs. H. J. Johnson.

Mrs. Pitts, of Golden, B. C., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Owen.

The big sawmill at Wardner has closed down owing to lack of orders.

Lieut. Barnes left on Saturday for the coast, where he will endeavor to qualify for a captaincy.

A. Cummings has been appointed secretary of the local Patriotic committee, taking the place of J. S. Irvine, resigned.

G. R. Martin, comptroller of the Great Northern railway, spent several days in town this week on business in connection with the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co.

The recent heavy wind storms have been playing havoc with the Kootenay Telephone Lines. Six poles were blown down near Michel and four near Fernie.

Fernie is to be congratulated upon the number of qualified military officers it now has. When the call comes we feel sure our town will be well represented.

The Elk Lumber Co. will endeavor to make arrangements with the G. N. railway to haul their logs from their camp at Olson to the mill at Fernie, and thus dispense with the drive.

J. A. Broley drove in on Saturday from Roosville. Jim has completed the harvesting of a big crop of fruit and vegetables. He sold over 2000 bags of potatoes and 500 boxes of apples in Fernie.

Messrs. N. Hanson, of Cranbrook, A. Doyle and R. L. T. Galbraith, of Fort Steele, and A. Mutz, of Vulcan, were in town on Monday, attending a meeting of the directors of the Fernie-Fort Steele Brewing Co.

Mr. Elias Rogers, president of the Crows Nest Pass Coal Co., accompanied by Mrs. Rogers, arrived from Toronto on Monday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilson. They left last evening for the coast.

The civil assize court opened on Monday with Chief Justice Hunter on the bench. After hearing the evidence for the plaintiffs an order nisi was granted to P. B. Fowler and James English in the two divorce cases, the usual six months to elapse before divorce becomes final.

Robt. Baird, of Glasgow, and Thos. Richardson, of London, the English commissioners to obtain labor for the coal mines in the old country, only succeeded in obtaining about fifteen recruits from Fernie and Coal Creek. They also visited Michel, but recruiting was also very light at that point.

GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT

CRESTON

(From the Creston Review.)

Ald. Gus. Erickson, of Cranbrook, was a Sunday visitor with C. G. Bennett.

W. B. Forward left yesterday for Calgary. He expects to spend the winter in Alberta.

Joe Langlois returned on Friday from Cranbrook, where he has spent the past few weeks.

Harry Shorthouse left on Tuesday for Cranbrook, where he has secured a position for the winter.

Rev. Father Michel, of Fernie, arrived on Wednesday to spend a couple of days with Father John at the rectory.

R. S. Bevan, the live wire Ford agent, has already secured orders for four new cars for spring delivery and has booked a carload shipment to arrive here in March.

For the first time in many months the flag at the school flew at half mast on Monday, out of respect for a former pupil, Frances Barton, whose death occurred the day previous.

Discussing the potato market with Sales Manager Lindley of the Fruit Growers Union yesterday, he stated that the prevailing price is $12 a ton, but indications were never better for higher prices prevailing during the winter months and early spring.

At the whist drive at the Roman Catholic rectory on Wednesday evening for the second time in succession Miss Lyda Johnson succeeded in winning the ladies prize, while H. Stinson made the high gentleman's score. There was the usual good turnout of players.

F. G. Little had raspberries and cream for lunch on Friday last. The berries were of the white variety, gathered off the bushes on his ranch that morning. The mayor has been here better than 23 years now and although the national policy has not made him rich he isn't blaming it on the valley's climate which, he assures us is the best in the world.

Duck Creek, which held the big pear championship for almost two weeks, surrendered the honor on Tuesday, when Alex. Duprerry brought into town a humdinger of the winter variety that measured 18 inches from stem to top and thence on round, and which had a chest expansion of 11 3-4 inches. A block and tackle was necessary to harvest the monster, which may be seen (and measured) at the King George hotel.
